Judge orders White House to restore legal aid to unaccompanied migrant children	Judge order	A federal judge in California on Tuesday ordered the Trump administration to temporarily restore legal aid to tens of thousands of migrant children who are in the United States without a parent or guardian.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/02/trump-st-5346831/judge-trump-administr	2025/04/02
Top scientists warn that Trump policies are causing a 'climate of fear' in research	Climate of fear	Nearly 2,000 leading American scientists, including dozens of Nobel Prize winners, have issued a stark warning that the U.S. lead in science is being "decimated" by the Trump administration's cuts to research and a growing "climate of fear" that jeopardizes independent research. - A bitter right for Trump and Musk in Wisconsin - Democratic energy woe through the roof - Florida is still Trump Country - Republicans underperformed - GOP gets some breathing room in the House	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/01/st-5347411/scientists-trump-resear	2025/04/02
5 takeaways from Wisconsin Supreme Court race, Florida special elections	Special Elections	"If Mr. Kennedy truly wants an independent, impartial review of vaccine data, Mr. Geier is the wrong man for the job," the editorial board wrote. "The study's results look preordained." Kennedy also forced Peter Marks, a top official at the Food and Drug Administration who helped accelerate the agency's approval of the Covid-19 vaccine, to either resign or be fired. In this resignation letter on Friday, he wrote that he was willing to work with Kennedy to address his "concerns regarding vaccine safety and transparency."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/5-takeaways-wisconsin-supreme-court-0	2025/04/02
Murdoch's Paper Flames RFK Jr. on Vaccines: 'Our Worst Fears Are Coming True'	Health-Vaccines	But he added, "It has become clear that truth and transparency are not desired by the Secretary, but rather he wishes subsequent confirmation of his misinformation and lies."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/murdoch-paper-flames-rfk-jr-141502771	2025/04/02
Mark Cuban warns Trump tariffs mean his Cost Plus Drugs won't have a choice but to raise prices for consumers	Economy-Tariffs	But now those prices might go up if the Trump administration imposes tariffs on India, Cuban said. While Cost Drugs Plus won't be affected by tariffs on China, Cuban said any potential tariff on goods imported from India would force the company to raise the price of its medications. In that scenario, he said, Cost Plus Drugs would let consumers know that the cost of tariffs and broker fees would be passed onto them "directly," with no way for the company to "eat" the costs.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/mark-cuban-warns-trump-tariffs-19542	2025/04/02
US is on track to have the worst measles outbreak of this century, former Covid response coordinator warns	Health-measles	"We are on track to have the worst measles outbreak of this century, of the last 25 years," Dr. Ashish Jha, the former White House coronavirus response coordinator and dean of Brown University's School of Public Health, told ABC News Monday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-track-worst-measles-outbreak-163227	2025/04/02
An entire spring's worth of rain is expected to bring dangerous flooding this week as severe weather hits the central US	Environment-Storms	The system, which picked up in parts of the Central and Southern Plains overnight Tuesday, is expected to produce hail, wind damage and significant, life-threatening flash flooding, the National Weather Service said, with parts of north-central Oklahoma and south-central Kansas at the greatest risk early in the week.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/entire-spring-worth-rain-expected-075016	2025/04/02
Trump tariff rebuke: GOP senators to join Dems in opposing Canada plan	Economy-Tariffs	In what would be a rebuke to President Donald Trump, a Senate resolution to end the emergency declaration enabling tariffs against Canada is likely to have enough Republican votes to pass the chamber, according to Sen. Rand Paul, R-Kentucky. "Elon Musk is supposed to be a genius. He doesn't realize he's the fall guy," Price said. "He's going to be ousted at some point when [Department of Government Efficiency] goes too far, which it will."	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/buy-rubent-financial-markets-brace-new	2025/04/02
Analyst Says, 'Elon Musk Doesn't Realize He's The Fall Guy' Who's Going To Be Quoted When DOGE Goes Too Far	Fuck that guy	According to Price, Musk's alignment with Trump and involvement in DOGE is more about political optics than genuine partnership. He believes Musk is being threatened as a high-profile figure to test the waters for more radical moves, and will be conveniently blamed if things go sideways. "Trump is going to need someone that wasn't confirmed by the Senate to get rid of quickly, and that's Musk," Price said. "When challenged, Musk will be quite easy to peel off."	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/analyst-says-elon-musk-doesnt-01003	2025/04/02

		Volatile spring weather will kick into high gear this week as a potential severe thunderstorm outbreak and life-threatening flooding loom large for tens of millions of people in the central and eastern United States. April is typically when severe thunderstorm season starts to pick up the pace, but destructive weather has already unfolded more often than usual this year. Storms from January through March generated more than 3,200 reports of tornadoes, hail and damaging wind nationwide.
A once-in-a-generation flood event could cap off this week's slew of severe weather threats	Environment-Storms		https://www.yahoo.com/news/severe-weather-outbreak-could-unleash-	2025/04/02
		A top employee of billionaire Elon Musk who is now working in the U.S. Justice Department previously bragged about hacking and distributing pirated software, according to archived copies of his former websites reviewed by Reuters. In response to questions for this story, the Justice Department did not directly address Stanley's current role or his past but said he had an active security clearance that predated his employment at DOGE. In a statement to Reuters, U.S. Attorney General Pam Bondi said she had "full trust and confidence in Chris's ability to help the federal government." Stanley, the White House, SpaceX and X did not respond to requests for comment. In the hours after Reuters contacted Stanley, several of his old websites vanished from the Internet Archive. Mark Graham, director of the Wayback Machine, declined to answer specific questions about the disappearance of Stanley's websites but said people who own the rights to sites can request to have their content withdrawn from the archive. Trump last week dismissed concerns about the impact of his 25% tariffs on foreign-made autos by admitting, "I couldn't care less" if they lead to higher prices for American consumers. The quote "is likely to show up in Democratic campaign ads next year," the editorial warned, Trump "won't be on the ballot in 2028 but you can bet TV ads will fix Republicans in Congress to Mr. Trump and those comments."
Exclusive:DOGE official at DOJ bragged about hacking, distributing pirated software	Fuck that guy		https://www.yahoo.com/news/exclusive-doge-official-doj-bragged-1004-	2025/04/02
Wall Street Journal Flags 4 Words From Donald Trump That Could Now Haunt The GOP	Trump Bullshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/wall-street-journal-flags-4-092037644-141n-	2025/04/02
NASA Signs Contract for Elon Musk's Starship, Even Though It's Never Launched Without Exploiting	Fuck that guy	NASA has officially added SpaceX's enormous Starship rocket to its roster — despite the vehicle never having completed a single successful test flight, let alone a mission. This is just the latest of many examples—almost too many to count—of Trump's policies reducing directly to Musk's benefit. From executive orders to foreign misadventures, much of what crosses Trump's desk or fits through his brain is in Musk's material interest. Even Trump's own political interests are taking a back seat to enriching Musk, who donated nearly $300 million last year to help Trump and his MAGA minions get elected. The generous (at least self-serving) interpretation is that the president is merely returning that favor; less favorably, he's in Musk's back pocket. Either way, the great con man Trump has his match—now he's the one being conned. The Washington Post reports that members of the White House National Security Council have used personal Gmail accounts to conduct government business. National security advisor Michael Waltz and a senior aide of his both used their own accounts to discuss sensitive information with colleagues, according to the Post's review and interviews with government officials who spoke to the newspaper anonymously.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nasa-signs-contract-elon-musk-1507387-	2025/04/02
Donald Trump Fell for Elon Musk's Big Con	Fuck that guy		https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-fell-elon-musk-173017824-	2025/04/02
National Security Council adds Gmail to its list of bad decisions	Dumb and Dumber	Additionally, there are regulations requiring that certain official government communications be preserved and archived. Using a personal account could allow some messages to slip through the cracks, accidentally or intentionally. "The FDA as we've known it is finished, with most of the leaders with institutional knowledge and a deep understanding of product development and safety no longer employed," Caffi wrote in a post on LinkedIn, saying he's been "overwhelmed with messages about the firing" this morning. "I believe that history will see this a huge mistake," he continued. "I will be glad if I'm proven wrong, but even then there is a good reason to treat people this way."	https://tech.yahoo.com/article/national-security-council-adds-gmail-to-it-	2025/04/02
'FDA as we've known it is finished': Former commissioner	Government-FDA		https://www.yahoo.com/news/fda-as-we-known-finished-former-19032968-	2025/04/02
GOP insiders Pray for Hugely Unpopular Elon Musk to Exit Stage Left	Fuck that guy	With polling showing Musk's unpopularity with voters and angry protests around the country against his government-cutting DOGE task force, some Republican lawmakers wonder how much longer they'll have to deal with him.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-insiders-pray-hugely-unpopular-1622-	2025/04/02
Elon Musk's SpaceX pleads with Trump for tariff exemptions	Fuck that guy	Elon Musk's SpaceX is seeking to avoid tariffs on equipment imported from China as Donald Trump prepares to escalate his trade war. The rocket company has asked the US government for exemptions on two pieces of Chinese-made manufacturing equipment used to produce broadband terminals for its Starlink satellite internet business.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-spacex-pleads-trump-1550-	2025/04/02
White House signals no deadline for Musk's DOGE departure	Fuck that guy	But inside the administration, the formal expiration of Musk's status doesn't seem firm, and many are not looking that far ahead. One Trump official said there's no set timeline on Musk's departure and suggested the administration would have more clarity on his role once the Trump White House passes its own 100-day mark at the end of this month. Government agencies are statutorily required to disclose information requested by Americans under the 1968 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) unless it falls under one of a handful of exemptions, such as material classified for national security or content that, if made public, would violate an individual's personal privacy. FOIA applies to the HHS, like any other department, and distinct agencies including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and National Institutes of Health (NIH) all have FOIA offices. Or they did until Tuesday, anyway. Officials at the FDA and NIH have confirmed that many civil servants who work on FOIA in those offices have been let go, while the CDC's FOIA desk has been completely eradicated, according to the agency's chief operating officer. An email from Rolling Stone to foirequests@cdc.gov returned an auto-reply that read, "Hello, the FOIA office has been placed on admin leave and is unable to respond to any emails." Emails to several other addresses for FOIA requests at HHS agencies — to check whether they are still active — did not receive immediate replies. Even programs at the centers on Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion as well as HIV, Viral Hepatitis, STD, and Tuberculosis Prevention were affected. The HIV program reportedly lost at least half of its workforce. Employees across the agency received notices via email beginning 5 a. m. Tuesday, with some workers showing up to their offices to find their ID badges didn't work anymore. Kennedy has long been an anti-vaccine activist, so the move is in line with his beliefs, especially since he has already revoked over $11 billion in Covid-19 aid funding from HHS. Trump has long held a grudge against the CDC and other public health agencies, blaming them for testing his first term when it was really his own mismanagement of the Covid-19 pandemic. Now, he and Kennedy are dealing a crushing blow to public health in America. Experts in everything from mine safety to smoking and infertility were hit by mass layoffs in branch after branch of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of secretary Robert F Kennedy Jr's plan to downsize nearly a quarter of the 82,000-person workforce took effect. But the cuts ripped out far from the DC area. In just one example in Morgantown, West Virginia, the secretary's cuts gutted the respiratory division that protects coal miners from pneumoconiosis, a disease colloquially known as "black lung" — and one condition that has increased astronomically among young coal miners in Appalachia.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-signals-no-deadline-210032-	2025/04/02
Health Secretary RFK Jr. Promised Radical Transparency, Now He's Closing FOIA Offices	government-FOIA		https://www.yahoo.com/news/health-secretary-rfk-jr-promised-233008-	2025/04/02
		Trump Finally Takes Revenge on CDC With Total Bloodbath Experts in everything from mine safety to smoking and infertility were hit by mass layoffs in branch after branch of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of secretary Robert F Kennedy Jr's plan to downsize nearly a quarter of the 82,000-person workforce took effect.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-finally-takes-revenge-cdc-211000-	2025/04/02
US health agency layoffs cut mine safety, infertility and smoking programs	Government-HHS	At the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), cuts hit an entire branch devoted to infertility — a cause that Donald Trump had championed only days earlier, calling himself the "fertilization president". A sense of chaos has gripped the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (Noaa), one of the world's premier research agencies, with key staff hastily fired and then rehired, cuts to vital weather forecasting operations and even a new, unsecured server that led to staff being deluged by obscene spam emails. Along with leading climate and marine research, Noaa also houses the National Weather Service, which provides bedrock weather forecasts to private providers and the public. There are concerns that the Trump administration's cuts, spearheaded by Elon Musk's so-called "department of government efficiency" (Doge), could imperil public safety by hindering timely warnings of tornadoes and hurricanes. Rightwing groups around the US are pushing legislation that would place new limits on what books are allowed in school libraries in a move that critics decry as censorship often focused on LGBTQ+ issues or race or imposing conservative social values. Caught up in the attempts at suppressing books are classics like The Color Purple and Slaughterhouse Five. Opponents of such bills argue that they would actually hinder individual rights because the proponents would be imposing their beliefs on parents and children who do not share their views. Those campaigning for the restrictions say it would prevent children from being exposed to what they label sexually explicit and obscene content and increase parental rights. Another proposed amendment would have made it easier for lawmakers to expand the crimes for which juveniles could be sentenced as adults. Criminal justice reform groups rallied to oppose what they described as draconian punishment that would not address the root causes of youth crime. The remaining amendments would have allowed lawmakers to create regional specialty courts, which opponents said could be used to usurp judicial authority from local courts, and provided more flexibility in the timeline for holding elections for the state's supreme court.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/02/hhs-cuts-fda-layoffs-	2025/04/02
'Chaos': Trump cuts to Noaa disrupt staffing and weather forecasts	Government-NOAA		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/01/trump-cuts-noaa-gp-	2025/04/02
Rightwing groups across US push new bans to limit 'obscene' books in libraries	Censorship		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/01/new-book-bans-lib-	2025/04/02
Louisiana voters reject far-right governor's constitutional amendments	far right		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/01/louisiana-constit-141n-	2025/04/02
Naval Academy removes nearly 400 books from library in new DEI purge ordered by Hegseth's office	Information Blackout	The U.S. Naval Academy has removed nearly 400 books from its library after being told by Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth's office to review and get rid of ones that promote diversity, equity and inclusion, U.S officials said Tuesday. The moves will shrink the Department of Health and Human Services to 62,000 positions, lopping off nearly a quarter of its staff — 10,000 jobs through layoffs and another 10,000 workers who took early retirement and voluntary separation offers. Many of the jobs are based in the Washington area, but others are in Atlanta, where the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is based, and in smaller offices throughout the country. The cuts include researchers, scientists, doctors, support staff and senior leaders, leaving the federal government without many of the key experts who have long guided U.S. decisions on medical research, drug approvals and other issues.	https://apnews.com/article/military-academies-dei-hegseth-trump-ba67f-	2025/04/02
Hers's where jobs and programs are being cut at the nation's top health agencies	Government-HHS		https://apnews.com/article/party-trump-cdc-fda-nih-cms-layoffs-5eba820-	2025/04/02
Elon Musk mocked for trying to spin the Wisconsin election result. 'You failed, you couldn't buy the vote'	Fuck that guy	But users were quick to point out that the world's richest man, despite previously emphasizing the importance of passing voter ID laws, did not get the outcome he had been seeking despite personally spending $25 million on the race.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m-	2025/04/02
Israel says it is expanding military operation in Gaza and will 'capture large areas'	International-Israel	Israel is expanding its offensive in Gaza to seize "large areas" of the Strip, the country's defence minister has said, as he called on Palestinians living in the territory to "expel Hamas and return all hostages". Israel Katz said the major expansion of the military operation was to "crush and clean the area of terrorists and terrorist infrastructure" and seize lands that will be added to what he called the "security zones of the State of Israel". "This is the only way to end the war," Mr Katz added, without clarifying how much territory Israel planned to seize. Israel's security perimeter runs along the border with Israel in northern and eastern Gaza.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/middle-east/israel-gaza-han-	2025/04/02
Elon Musk threatens 'generals' who he claims are 'paying' for Texas protests after shelling out millions for Wisconsin election	Fuck that guy	Musk has repeatedly accused his critics of being paid protesters while spending millions of dollars himself to influence voters.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m-	2025/04/02
Alabama can't prosecute groups who help women travel to get an abortion, federal judge says	Reproductive Rights	Alabama's attorney general cannot prosecute people and groups who help Alabama women travel to other states to obtain abortions, a federal judge ruled Monday. U.S. District Judge Myron Thompson sided with an abortion fund and medical providers who sued Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall after he suggested they could face prosecution under anti-conspiracy laws. Thompson's ruling declared that such prosecutions would violate both the First Amendment and a person's right to travel. With a single stroke of his pen, Trump seeks to re-order the global economy in a way that he believes will create a golden age for U.S. industry. In less than 100 days, Trump has made an historic attempt to choke off the flow of foreign goods — or at least make it much pricier for Americans to consume them. But there's a reason all those people have recommended a more restrained approach. Prices on imported goods are likely to surge, a recession is possible, and far-reaching ripples in international economics and diplomacy are a certainty. Trump, in disregarding those recommendations, touched the hot stove, knowing he risks getting burned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/trump-global-trade-war-	2025/04/03
Trump takes the ultimate risk with the global economy	Economy-Tariffs		https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/stock-market-tariffs-trump-trade-war-	2025/04/03
Stock markets sink globally on Trump's tariff plan Democrats beg Elon Musk: Campaign for our GOP opponents	Trump's economy	"Markets are going to continue to struggle with the speed at which tariff details change as well as the ultimate result of the tariffs themselves (e.g. the magnitude of the tariffs)," Chris Zaccarelli, chief investment officer at Northlight Asset Management, said in a note. House Democrats are making an unusual plea to billionaire Trump lieutenant Elon Musk: Come campaign for our Republican opponents next year.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/elon-musk-house-democrats-worco-	2025/04/03
Storms unleash tornadoes on Midwest, South amid 'catastrophic' flooding threats	Environment-Storms	Severe storms are sweeping the U.S. South and Midwest, spawning damaging tornadoes and causing flooding in multiple states into Thursday morning. An EF-1 tornado in Vernon County, Missouri, on Wednesday morning "knocked over" eight train cars, damaged several homes, "numerous businesses" and multiple trees, the National Weather Service's Springfield office said on X.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/midwest-south-severe-weather-floo-	2025/04/03

Florida election exposes deep divisions within GOP	Elections	Republicans survived Tuesday's special elections for two congressional seats in Florida, but the races exposed deep frustrations in President Trump's team over the House GOP's political apparatus. The Trump administration has paused the Federal Trade Commission's lawsuit against major pharmacy benefit managers after two Democratic commissioners were fired earlier this month. The FTC issued the stay in the case against CVS Caremark, OptumRx and Express Scripts in response to a motion "citing the fact that there are currently no sitting Commissioners able to participate in this matter."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/florida-election-gop-divisions	2025/04/03
FTC halts case against CVS Caremark, OptumRx	Government-FTC	Mass layoffs at the Department of Health and Human Services are leaving a communications gulf within the federal health system that millions of Americans rely on for information about drug safety, product recalls, disease outbreaks and other public health threats. It's not just the loss of communications staff, HHS staff say. Legislative affairs staff act as the liaison between HHS and Congress. After February's terminations and Tuesday's layoffs, there's no one left in the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's legislative affairs office. "Both sides of the aisle are going to have an incredibly difficult time getting any information from the agencies. There's going to be extremely long wait times," one employee familiar with the situation said. The loss of specialized expertise at the agency "is going to kill thousands of people from mental health, suicide, overdoses," they added.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/ftc-stays-case-cvs-caremark-optumrx	2025/04/03
The emerging health communications gulf	Government-HHS	The life sciences are heavily reliant on foreign countries for raw materials and manufacturing, most of it duty-free. Experts said a radical shift away from free-trade policies could bring higher drug prices, supply chain disruptions and weaker margins for big industry players.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/hhs-layoffs-health-communications-recalls	2025/04/03
Drug and device makers confront Trump tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	Health industries pay billions developing and shepherding drugs through the regulatory process, including user fees that help ensure there are enough staff to evaluate products on a predictable timeline. There are dozens of expected approval dates scheduled for drugs and biologics in the next three months. They include a monoclonal antibody for RSV from Merck, as well as expanded uses for a GlaxoSmithKline drug for COVID and a Glaxo drug for HIV prevention. As yet, there have been no delays to drug approvals, but industry watchers worry that may not last in light of the agency job cuts. On Wednesday, CBS News reported the FDA is planning fewer food and drug inspections as a result of reductions in the FDA's Office of Inspections and Investigations.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/drug-device-maker-trump-tariffs	2025/04/03
Drug industry worries about FDA delays	Government-FDA	A truly enormous shock is needed to tip the entire global economy into recession. Since World War II, there have been two of these events: the financial crisis of 2008-09, and the coronavirus pandemic of 2020. The U.S. imported $3.3 billion of goods in 2024. That's more than $25,000 per household. If the new tariffs work out to an average of 28% per Evercore, then U.S. importers would have to pay about $1 trillion in tariffs per year, or $1,300 per household. Realistically, that would never happen. Many goods will just not get imported any more, creating shortages and large price hikes.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/drug-industry-worries-fda-delays	2025/04/03
A third global recession in 20 years looms	Economy-Recession	Four Republican senators helped Democrats pass a resolution Wednesday that would effectively repeal President Trump's tariffs on Canada. The vote shows how deeply concerned some Republicans are about Trump's tariff policies, just as he rolls out even steeper tariffs on U.S. imports. The resolution, offered by Sen. Tim Kaine (D-Va.), would repeal the emergency declaration that allowed Trump to place tariffs on Canada. The White House has cited fanfare following across the border as a reason for the declaration. The vote is a victory for Democrats who have been banging the table against the tariff policies and pleading for their Republican colleagues to break ranks with Trump. But the measure is likely dead on arrival in the GOP-controlled House.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/trump-repeal-tariffs-cause-recession	2025/04/03
Senate votes to repeal Trump's Canada tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	President Trump unveiled tariffs of at least 10% Wednesday on virtually the entire world, with one notable exception: Russia. Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt told Axios Wednesday that Russia was left off because U.S. sanctions already "preclude any meaningful trade." However, the U.S. still trades more with Russia than with countries like Mauritius or Brunei that did make Trump's tariffs list. Even remote island territories like Tokelau (pop. 1,500) in the South Pacific and Svalbard (pop. 2,500) in the Arctic Circle — territories of New Zealand and Norway, respectively — were listed for tariffs. However, Leavitt noted that Cuba, Belarus and North Korea were also not included because existing tariffs and sanctions on them are already so high.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/senate-repeal-trump-tariffs-canada	2025/04/03
Trump's tariffs list is missing one big country: Russia	Economy-Tariffs	Lots of farmers say they were stretched to the breaking point before the tariffs took hold. The price of traders has jumped 50% in five years, according to Successful Farming magazine; fertilizer has more than doubled, but commodity prices are low. Ethnik said the price of wheat started to climb earlier this year but plummeted when Trump began talking about border tariffs. "I mean, that was a $30,000, $35,000, $40,000 hit that we've taken, and I'm laying a huge amount of that right at Trump's feet," said Ethnik. Large-scale American farmers depend on exports to make a living. About half of Ethnik's wheat is sold overseas. But Ethnik and the markets assume that countries recently hit with export tariffs will retaliate by taxing U.S. food exports, which will cut demand and drive prices even lower. The big, conservative farm trade groups fear the same thing. "More than 20% of farm income comes from exports," said American Farm Bureau Federation President Zippy Duvall in a statement responding to the latest round of tariffs. "Tariffs will drive up the cost of critical supplies, and retaliatory tariffs will make American-grown products more expensive globally. The combination not only threatens farmers' competitiveness in the short-term, but it may also lead to long-term damage by leading to losses in demand." Teams that fulfilled requests for government documents lost their jobs on Tuesday as part of the Trump administration's 10,000-person staff cuts at the Department of Health and Human Services. Their work, mandated by Congress since the 1980s under the Freedom of Information Act or FOIA, gives the public a view of the inner workings of federal health agencies. Some public records teams were entirely cut at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Food and Drug Administration, the National Institutes of Health and other agencies on Tuesday, according to multiple current and former staffers who did not want to be named because of fears of retribution. A few people have been left standing on other FOIA teams within these agencies, for now.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/02/trump-tariffs-russia-ukraine-cessfire	2025/04/03
Tariffs threaten to upend markets American farmers depend on	Economy-Tariffs	Some public records teams were entirely cut at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Food and Drug Administration, the National Institutes of Health and other agencies on Tuesday, according to multiple current and former staffers who did not want to be named because of fears of retribution. A few people have been left standing on other FOIA teams within these agencies, for now.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/03/g-a-157911/tariffs-threaten-to-upend-markets	2025/04/03
HHS guts the teams that fulfill public records requests for health agencies	Government-HHS	The Trump administration is considering a deal to potentially resolve TikTok's legal uncertainty that involves leasing the app's algorithm from Beijing-based owner ByteDance, according to a person directly involved in the talks who is not authorized to speak publicly. Under the plan, a new U.S. entity would be created led by software giant Oracle. ByteDance is expected to retain a minority stake. Senate Republicans have unveiled their proposed policy and budget package, setting up a fight with members of their own party and their House counterparts in a race to implement a key piece of President Trump's legislative agenda. It would raise the country's debt limit by $5 trillion to avoid a catastrophic financial default this summer, and make tax cuts that passed under Trump's first term permanent. The House-passed $4.6 trillion Trump tax plan is included in the package. Myanmar's military declared a temporary ceasefire in the country's civil war Wednesday to facilitate relief efforts following a 7.7 magnitude earthquake that has killed more than 3,000 people. Obviously, my reaction is good riddance, an employee at the Office of Personnel Management said. Employees requested anonymity for fear of retaliation or because they were not authorized to speak, and BI has verified their identities.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/04/03/g-a-157888	2025/04/03
White House reviewing TikTok proposal to lease algorithm from China	Social media	Five current and former employees told BI that they think Musk will still influence the DOGE office's operations, even if he technically gives up his government role. As one put it, he'll still "pull the puppet strings"—whereas Musk is out of it. A Democratic lawmaker is introducing a measure that would compel Elon Musk and his lackeys at the Department of Government Efficiency to undergo routine drug testing. New Jersey Rep. Mike Shimell is set to file a bill titled the "Drug Testing for Special Government Employees Act," according to Axios.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/02/musk-a-15348592/tiktok-oracle-trump-china	2025/04/03
Senate Republicans move forward with their budget plan to promote Trump's agenda	Government-Funding	Under the measure, special government employees must undergo a drug test before their first day of work and submit themselves to federal workplace drug testing programs. Anyone who tests positive for a controlled substance will be ineligible for federal service for at least a year.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/02/g-a-1578502/senate-republicans-budget	2025/04/03
Myanmar's military declares a ceasefire as earthquake deaths pass 3,000	Tragic	The Trump administration is already considering bailing out farmers caught in the middle of the White House's escalating trade war that's now encompassing the rest of the world. The administration is weighing a new batch of emergency aid to farmers as trading partners push back against U.S. tariffs with their own measures. The New York Times has reported. The last time Trump was in office, his administration spent $23 billion in subsidy payments to farmers to protect them from his trade war then with China, which purchased far fewer American agricultural products.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/03/mys-a-15350471/myanmar-cessfire-earthquake	2025/04/03
Federal workers have mixed emotions on Musk's rumored DOGE exit: 'So much damage has already been done'	Fuck that guy	Such payments, as they did then, would now shield a vital voting base for Republicans. The Trump administration conceded in a court filing Monday that it mistakenly deported a Maryland father to El Salvador "because of an administrative error" and argued it could not return him because he's now in Salvadoran custody.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-workers-mixed-emotions-musk-15348592.html	2025/04/03
Musk and His DOGE Goons Would Face Drug Tests, Under New Bill	Fuck that guy	The Trump administration is already considering bailing out farmers caught in the middle of the White House's escalating trade war that's now encompassing the rest of the world. The administration is weighing a new batch of emergency aid to farmers as trading partners push back against U.S. tariffs with their own measures. The New York Times has reported. The last time Trump was in office, his administration spent $23 billion in subsidy payments to farmers to protect them from his trade war then with China, which purchased far fewer American agricultural products.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-doge-goons-face-drug-224749834	2025/04/03
Trump already weighing multi-billion-dollar tariff bailout for US farmers	Economy-Tariffs	The Trump administration conceded in a court filing Monday that it mistakenly deported a Maryland father to El Salvador "because of an administrative error" and argued it could not return him because he's now in Salvadoran custody.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-already-weighing-multi-billion-234f	2025/04/03
Trump administration concedes Maryland father from El Salvador was mistakenly deported and sent to mega-prison	Borders and immigration	The filing, first reported by The Atlantic, appears to mark the first time the administration has admitted an error related to its recent deportation flights to El Salvador, which are now at the center of a fraught legal battle. The Trump administration hasn't released details about which offices specifically were targeted, but the cuts seem to be so deep and indiscriminate that they are going to hamstring Kennedy's own stated priorities. Kennedy has made clear that he's singularly focused on reducing rates of chronic disease in America, but the health secretary has reportedly laid off officials in the CDC's office tasked with that same goal. While cigarette smoking remains a leading cause of chronic disease, the top FDA official in charge of regulating tobacco is now on administrative leave, and everyone working for the CDC office that monitors tobacco use has been fired, according to the former CDC director Tom Frieden. Despite Kennedy's promises to establish a culture of "radical transparency" at the federal agencies, he also appears to have fired the employees whom journalists and the greater public rely on to provide essential updates about the government's actions. (In a statement, a spokesperson for HHS said that the personnel cuts were focused on "redundant or unnecessary administrative positions.") No plan—not his MAHA agenda, not efficiency, nothing—can realistically explain cuts like these. Instead, the mass firings don't seem to be a means to an end on the way to overhauling American health. They are an end in themselves. It's unclear what impact President Donald Trump's "Liberation Day" tariffs will have on the U.S. economy, but if things go badly, members of the administration are reportedly ready to blame Secretary of Commerce Howard Lutnick.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-concedes-maryland-20250403	2025/04/03
RFK Jr. Is Out for Revenge	Political-Ceaspool	Despite fears that they could plunge the U.S. stock market — or worse, incite a recession — Lutnick has said they are "worth it" and "produce revenues," though from American businesses that pay the tariffs, and U.S. consumers who have to help cover them. Senate Democrats are opening an investigation into reports that Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) is attempting to replace some contract workers at the Education Department with artificial intelligence (AI).	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-is-out-for-revenge-214900711.html	2025/04/03
The one official Trump world is ready to blame if tariffs are a disaster	Economy-Tariffs	The call centers field around 15,000 questions per day from an average of 1,600 students and families. The proposal has been floated as the president is looking to dismantle the federal agency, laying off nearly half the Department of Education's employees already. "The department is open to using tools and systems that would enhance the customer service, security and transparency of data for students and parents," Matt Biedermann, the department's deputy assistant secretary for communications, told the Times in February. "We are evaluating all contracts to assess effectiveness relative to costs."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/one-official-trump-world-ready-205013427	2025/04/03
Senate Democrats open investigation into reports AI could replace contract workers at Education Department	Economy-DOE	Many pointed out the tariffs were actually tax increases — including Mike Pence, who served as Trump's vice president during his first term. Others on the right also put Trump on blast over the policy, which they noted would be paid for by American consumers.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/senate-democrats-open-investigation-rep-20250403	2025/04/03
Trump Gets Brutal Fact-Check From Conservatives As Markets Tank Due To Tariffs	Economy-Tariffs		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-gets-brutal-fact-check-04152693	2025/04/03

CNN Data Chief Has 1 'Big Lesson' About Elton Musk After Wisconsin Loss	Fuck that guy	"Elton Musk, simply put, is an unpopular guy. He is political poison," Enten stressed. The White House Correspondents' Association's decision over the weekend to fire Amber Ruffin from performing at that annual soiree is not just a disappointing turn of events; it's a glaring testament to the media's increasing capitulation to Donald Trump's authoritarian grip. This move underscores a horrifying trend of institutions that once prided themselves on independence and courage — did someone say law firms? — now bowing to the whims of a president who has consistently demonstrated his disdain for dissent, satire, and the foundational principles of a free press.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cnn-data-chief-1-big-01344002.html	2025/04/03
The White House press corps just caved to Trump, and that should terrify you	Information Blackout	When North Dakota voters approved term limits for state legislators, they specified that the Legislature couldn't seek to change the new restrictions. On Wednesday, the state House opted to propose a big change, anyway.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-press-corps-just-120503741	2025/04/03
North Dakota voters banned lawmakers from seeking term limit changes. They did it anyway	Political Criespool	The 2022 measure, which amended the state constitution, said the Legislature "shall not have authority to propose an amendment to this constitution to alter or repeal the term limitations established in . . . this article." Donald Trump drew mockery on Wednesday for including two remote islands near Antarctica on his list of countries (even though they are not countries) that will now be hit with steep, new tariffs as part of his so-called Liberation Day. The president slapped a 10% tariff on all products that are imported from the mostly barren, volcanic Heard and McDonald Islands.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/north-dakota-voters-banned-lawmakers-2	2025/04/03
Donald Trump's Tariffs On These 2 Islands Comes With An Absurd Twist	Economy-Tariffs	They are uninhabited by humans, take days to travel to (only by boat) from Australia and are home to penguins and seals, though the area has a fishery. Goods imported from China will now face a combined total tariff rate of 54%. Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent said Wednesday. Bessent confirmed on Bloomberg Television that all goods imported from China would face a new 34% rate based on White House calculations of what it currently imposes on U.S. exports, plus the existing 20% rate Trump had already imposed against it in the initial weeks of his administration.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-tariffs-2-islands-060847981	2025/04/03
Goods imported from China now face a 84% tariff rate — and possibly higher	Economy-Tariffs	President Donald Trump on Wednesday gave America its largest tax increase in at least three decades — more than $2 trillion over 10 years — by imposing an across-the-board 10% levy on all imports, with higher rates on dozens more countries and a further 25% tax on all foreign cars.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/goods-imported-china-now-face-2239238	2025/04/03
Trump Imposes Trillions Of Dollars In New Taxes On Americans	Economy-Tariffs	The president displayed the top of his list from a podium in the White House Rose Garden, and later published a longer version. Note that the "tariffs charged to the USA" in Trump's formulation include "trade barriers" so don't necessarily align with the tariffs published by countries concerned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-imposes-trillions-dollars-taxes-229	2025/04/03
Trump's tariffs: the full list	Economy-Tariffs	And "It's such an old-fashioned term but a beautiful term: gooceries. It's sort of says a bag with different things in it. Groceries went through the roof and I campaigned on that. I talked about the word 'gooceries' for a lot, and energy costs now are down. Groceries are down."	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/apr/03/trumps-tariffs-the-full-list	2025/04/03
Trump goes full gameshow host to push his tariff plan — and nobody's a winner	Economy-Tariffs	1. Friends are bracing for what 'liberation' means 2. The China link? 3. Key trade partners Canada and Mexico are spared — but will still feel the pain 4. This is a big gamble 5. Absolutely nowhere is immune	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/03/trump-tariffs-key-issues	2025/04/03
Trump's tariffs — five key takeaways	Economy-Tariffs	Doctors who practice medicine in states with abortion bans have described in a new study how three of their pregnant patients died, but probably could have been saved had they been able to receive abortion care. "This study clearly demonstrates the immediate and wide-spread harm that abortion bans are having on pregnant people. Even in states with 'exceptions' to the abortion ban, doctors' hands are tied until it is too late and severe outcomes, including preventable death are happening," said Dr. Carlin Bernard, an Indiana-based obstetrician-gynecologist and reproductive and abortion rights activist.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/03/abortion-critically-ill	2025/04/03
Three critically ill patients in US could have survived with abortions, study shows	Reproductive Rights	Kevin Young, the director of the National Museum of African American History and Culture (NMAAHC) in Washington DC, is not currently in charge of the museum and has been on leave since 14 March, as Donald Trump targets the Smithsonian museum network for its content.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/02/kevin-young-african	2025/04/03
Head of DC's African American museum on leave as Trump targets Smithsonian	Information Blackout	Donald Trump's national security adviser, Mike Waltz, and his team have created at least 20 different group chats on the encrypted messaging app Signal to coordinate sensitive national security work, sources tell Politico. The revelation, which cites four people with direct knowledge of the practice, follows heightened scrutiny of the administration's handling of sensitive information after the Atlantic recently published messages from a chat that included the defense secretary, Pete Hegseth, sharing operational details of deadly strikes against Houthis rebels in Yemen.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/02/trump-mike-waltz-signal	2025/04/03
Mike Waltz's team set up at least 20 Signal chats for national security work — report	Dumb and dumber	A group of public health experts and major labor organizations are suing the National Institutes of Health (NIH) over what they call an "ongoing ideological purge" of scientific research.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/02/nih-funding-trump	2025/04/03
NIH sued over 'ideological purge' of DEI, Covid and vaccine research	Government-NIH	The complaint says the cuts have targeted research tied to topics like diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI), gender identity, vaccine hesitancy and even work involving collaborators in other countries. These cancellations, they argue, provide a "window into the devastation to medical and scientific research playing out across the nation right now".	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/02/nih-funding-trump	2025/04/03
'Catastrophic for American families': Business leaders react as Trump imposes 'Liberation Day' tariffs on world	Economy-Tariffs	"Manufacturers are scrambling to determine the exact implications for their operations," National Association of Manufacturers president and CEO Jay Timmons said in a statement on Wednesday. "The stakes for manufacturers could not be higher." The tariffs, which Trump continues to erroneously claim will mean other countries paying the U.S., will in fact "threaten investment, jobs, supply chains, and, in turn, America's ability to outcompete other nations and lead as the preeminent manufacturing superpower," according to Timmons.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald-trump-tariffs-120503741	2025/04/03
Trump's tariff gamble may inadvertently liberate Americans from their retirement savings	Economy-Tariffs	Nonetheless, after hours trading gave a hint of what may come on Thursday morning. Dow futures tumbled 255 points, or 0.81 per cent. S&P 500 futures slid 1.69 per cent. Futures tied to the Nasdaq 100 fell 2.54 per cent.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald-trump-tariffs-120503741	2025/04/03
Lawsuit claims Musk failed to make promised payments over 2024 petition signatures	Fuck that guy	If Americans are being liberated by these tariffs, it is against their will. And liberating someone against their will is just a kidnapping. A federal lawsuit filed Tuesday in Pennsylvania accuses billionaire Elon Musk and the political action committee he started of failing to pay a suburban Philadelphia man more than $20,000 for getting people to sign a petition in favor of free speech and gun rights.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/lawsuit-pennsylvania-philadelphia	2025/04/03
Behind the Curtain: You gotta believe	Trump's economy	He's gambling that generations of politicians, economists, CEOs, small-business owners, academics and even some of his own staffers are wrong — and that he's right.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/trump-tariffs-confidence-americans/	2025/04/04
Top Democrats denounce reported firing of NSA chief	Government-NSA	Top congressional Democrats on Thursday night spoke out over reports that Gen. Timothy Haugh has been fired as National Security Agency director. The Washington Post first reported that Haugh had been removed from the NSA role and as U.S. Cyber Command chief, along with his civilian deputy Wendy Noble, citing a former U.S. official and two current ones. Several National Security Council members were fired earlier Thursday after conspiracy theorist Laura Loomer valued the Oval Office and pressed President Trump to oust specific NSC staffers. Axios first reported.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/nsa-director-timothy-haugh-fired-trump/	2025/04/04
Exclusive: Kushner's Abraham Accords Institute to merge into Heritage Foundation	Political Criespool	The Heritage Foundation is going to acquire the Abraham Accords Peace Institute (AAPi), which was established by President Trump's son-in-law and former senior adviser Jared Kushner, according to a statement shared with Axios. States and cities are being sent $2 billion in childhood immunization and vaccination funding as part of broader cancellations of pandemic-era federal public health spending, per government data.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/west-kushner-abraham-accords-inst	2025/04/04
States are losing billions in federal childhood vaccine funding	Health-Vaccines	A 42-page U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) document lists a sweeping variety of recently terminated public health grants, with about six pages dedicated specifically to awards for immunization and vaccines for children.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/childhood-vaccine-funding-hhs	2025/04/04
South Korean court removes impeached President Yoon from office	International-South Korea	South Korea's impeached President Yoon Suk Yeol has been removed from office over his brief martial law declaration last December that saw troops deployed to the National Assembly.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/yoon-suk-yeol-south-korea-president	2025/04/04
19 Democratic attorneys general sue Trump over elections order	Voting Fuckery	Democratic attorneys general in 19 states are suing President Trump over his sweeping changes to federal elections, which they say is a "blatantly unconstitutional attempt to legislate by fiat". The attorneys general argue in their lawsuit that was filed on Thursday that Trump has "no authority" to issue the order, which includes a proof of citizenship requirement and aims to prevent states from counting mail-in ballots that arrive after Election Day.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/03/democratic-states-sue-trump-electio	2025/04/04
Trump says Musk will likely leave DOGE "in a few months"	Fuck that guy	Musk is "going to want to get back to his business," Trump told reporters on Air Force One. "Then the secretaries will take liability over." With the market melting down, the White House wants to stay on offense on judges and ensure the GOP presents a united front on tariffs. Mitt is essentially calling for more cavalry for President Trump's attacks on the judiciary, which has blocked some of the president's boldest, and most controversial, moves.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/musk-trump-doge-leave-timeline	2025/04/04
Scoop: Stephen Miller's Senate GOP marching orders	Political Criespool	At the same time, he wants the Senate to extend Trump's 2017 tax cuts while also defending Trump's tariff-happy finger.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/stephen-miller-senate-republicans-fu	2025/04/04
Tech jobs, robots are Lutnick's vision for America's 'manufacturing renaissance'	Economy-Jobs	Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick on Thursday touted the use of robotics in his pitch for an American "manufacturing renaissance."	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/04/tech-jobs-robots-lutnick-manufactu	2025/04/04
Trump downplays the role of far-right activist in firings of NSC staff	Political Criespool	President Trump is downplaying reports that far-right activist Laura Loomer influenced National Security Council firings on Thursday. Trump confirmed that some number of people were fired but would not specify how many or why. "Always we'll let go [of] people — people that we don't like or people that we don't think can do the job or people that may have loyalties to somebody else," he told reporters on Air Force One Thursday night.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/04/mu-s-t-5352230/trump-downplays-the-ri	2025/04/04
On top of layoffs, HHS ordered to cut 35% of spending on contracts	Government-HHS	The Trump administration is requiring the Department of Health and Human Services to cut spending on contracts by 35%. HHS spokesperson Andrew Nixon confirmed to NPR. The cuts to spending on contracts applies across all divisions of HHS — which includes the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the National Institutes of Health, the Food and Drug Administration, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services and other agencies.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/04/03/mu-s-58146	2025/04/04
Cultural groups across U.S. told that federal humanities grants are terminated	Government-Grants	Among the thousands of groups affected by the sudden cessation of funds are state humanities councils, museums, historic sites, archives, libraries, educators and media outlets in all 50 states. A federal judge on Thursday said there is a "fair likelihood" the Trump administration violated his orders over its decision to allow two rights-carrying migrants to continue to El Salvador last month despite his ruling ordering the planes back.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/03/mu-s-5350594/tech-grants-cut-humanit	2025/04/04
South and Midwest face potentially catastrophic rains and floods while reeling from tornadoes	Environment-storms	"If you really believed everything you did that day was legal and could survive a court challenge, I can't believe you ever would have operated in the way you did," Boasberg told the attorneys for the Justice Department. On Thursday, Boasberg suggested that next steps could include contempt proceedings. He said that order would likely be issued next week. The case has many moving parts. The Trump administration appealed Boasberg's March injunction in the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals. In a 2 to 1 vote, the Court sided with Boasberg. In her opinion, Judge Patricia Millett said the alleged gang members were not given an opportunity to challenge the allegations against them before being sent to El Salvador.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/03/mu-s-5350882/judge-boasberg-ompsd	2025/04/04
Judge considers 'contempt' after Trump officials stonewall ruling on migrant removal flights	Testing limits	The Trump administration has appealed the decision to the U.S. Supreme Court, which is currently weighing whether to intervene. Parts of the Midwest and South faced the possibility of torrential rains and life-threatening flash floods Friday, while many communities were still reeling from tornadoes that destroyed whole neighborhoods and killed at least seven people.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/south-midwest-face-potentially-catastroph	2025/04/04
US bans government personnel in China from romantic or sexual relations with Chinese citizens	International Relations	The U.S. gov. government has banned American government personnel in China, as well as family members and contractors with security clearances, from any romantic or sexual relationships with Chinese citizens. The Associated Press has learned. Though some U.S. agencies already had strict rules on such relationships, a blanket "non-romantic" policy, as it is known, has been unheard of publicly since the Cold War. It's not uncommon for American diplomats in other countries to date locals and even marry them.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-bans-government-personnel-china-04	2025/04/04
Why Trump's attacks on free speech should alarm all Americans, not just his latest targets	Free speech	But prevailing in any given assault on political opponents is not the Trump admin's objective. The point of these attacks is to show that if you oppose Trump and his goals, the government will try to destroy you. The government doesn't have to prevail in court to land a devastating blow on the people and organizations it targets for their speech or political positions. Workers can lose jobs, businesses can lose clients, universities can see federal grants frozen, legal fees can stack up, and people can be hauled out of their homes away from their families by anonymous armed officers without cause or explanation. Prevailing later in court doesn't soften the blow of these experiences. Make no mistake: The targets of these actions are not only Mahmoud Khalil and Mark Miley and some big law firms and The Associated Press. We are all the targets.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/why-trump-attacks-free-speech-1107389	2025/04/04

A city responding to a lead crisis in schools reached out to the CDC for help. The agency's lead experts were just fired	Government- CDC	The results triggered an investigation into the family's home, then the child's school and then more aging school buildings still coddled with lead paint. With 68,000 students in the Milwaukee Public Schools district and dozens of buildings potentially affected, the city's health commissioner, Dr. Michael Toborakis, knew that he needed more help, so he reached out to the National Center for Environmental Health, a division of the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, to make a plan to address the threat. The environmental health team he had been working with at the CDC had been out, swept up in a massive layoff of federal health workers that's hitting entire divisions of some agencies. Many employees were immediately placed on administrative leave and are no longer able to access their work.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/city-responding-lead-crisis-local-103650	2025/04/04
Immigration officials raid Washington state roofing company and arrest over 3 dozen people	Borders and immigration	Federal immigration agents arrested 37 people Wednesday during a raid at a roofing business in northern Washington. "They (law enforcement) arrived wielding their guns like they were going to shoot us, like we were criminals," Tomas Furtle told Cascadia Daily News, speaking in Spanish. "They corralled us into a room in the back of the building. They had a list and pictures of everyone who was undocumented and took them away."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/immigration-officials-raid-washington-sta-1	2025/04/04
DOGE's private contract crackdown has eliminated more than 120 Deloitte contracts—more than twice the amount of any other consultancy	Fuck that guy	DOGE has cut or modified at least 124 Deloitte contracts since the beginning of President Donald Trump's second term. Fortune found in an analysis of DOGE's "Wall of Receipts." The contracts were worth more than $1.16 billion, with Musk's advisory group claiming to have saved taxpayers about $371.8 million from their terminations. The largest eliminated contract was worth more than $51 million for IT services for the Department of Health and Human Services. Still, DOGE's cuts represent real losses for government contractors. Deloitte, one of the big four consulting companies along with PwC, EY, and KPMG, reported $87.2 billion in revenue in fiscal 2024, with about 10% of it coming from government contracts.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/doge-private-contract-crackdown-elim-1	2025/04/04
Trump says things are 'going very well' after worst stock market drop in years over tariffs	Trump Economy	The Dow Jones Industrial Average dropped more than 1,600 points on Thursday as U.S. stocks led a worldwide selloff after the Republican president's announcement of tariffs against much of the world's stock like none seen since the COVID-19 pandemic. House Democrats on the Energy and Commerce committee are demanding a hearing with Health and Human Services Secretary (HHS) Robert F. Kennedy Jr. about the massive layoffs happening at his agency. But so far, GOP leadership has committed to a staff-level briefing only, according to a spokesperson for Energy and Commerce Chair Brett Guthrie (R-Ky.).	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-things-going-very-well-2207595	2025/04/04
HHS staff to brief House committee following massive agency layoffs	Government- HHS	Elon Musk and his Department of Government Efficiency team went to rebuild the Social Security Administration's base code, which is written in a computing language from the 1960s, to one that's more modern. According to a new piece in Wired, that planned migration could put benefits used by millions of Americans at risk. Maekena Kelly, senior writer at Wired, calls "America Decides" to explain.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hhs-staff-brief-house-committee-1813385	2025/04/04
DOGE effort to rewrite Social Security code could have catastrophic consequences, experts warn	Fuck that guy	The acting inspector general for the Department of Defense said Thursday that he's opened an investigation into Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth's use of messaging app Signal to discuss sensitive military operations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-effort-rewrite-social-security-23040	2025/04/04
DOO Opens Investigation into Pete Hegseth's Use Of Signal	Government- DOD	Hegseth was notified via a memorandum from acting Inspector General Steven A. Stebbins, who said he was following through on a request from the chairman and ranking member of the Senate Armed Services Committee. President Donald Trump imposed tariffs on uninhabited islands and a U.S. military base on Wednesday as he announced his widespread levies.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doo-opens-investigation-pete-hegseth-1	2025/04/04
Trump imposes tariffs on uninhabited islands and a U.S. military base	Trump Economy	The 10 percent levy was also imposed on the British Indian Ocean Territory, which only counts U.S. and U.K. service members as its inhabitants at the Diego Garcia base. Get ready for another active Atlantic hurricane season, with as many as 17 storms expected, experts from Colorado State University said in their initial forecast released Thursday morning. Of those 17 storms, researchers forecast that nine will become hurricanes. A typical year averages about 14 tropical storms, with seven of them spinning into hurricanes, based on weather records that date from 1891 to 2020.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-imposes-tariffs-uninhabited-islands-1	2025/04/04
A top hurricane forecast is here, and it brings bad news. Danger is already brewing	Environment- Hurricane	More than 300 migrants were arrested at JFK Airport in the last two months, according to U.S. border officials.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/top-hurricane-forecast-bad-news-1401041	2025/04/04
Hundreds of migrants arrested at JFK, officials	Borders and immigration	A new Republican plan would exempt many new toxic Plas or "forever chemicals" from health and safety review, a move criticized by opponents because it would allow the dangerous man-made substances to be used and sold with little effective scrutiny.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hundreds-migrants-arrested-jfk-officials-2	2025/04/04
New House Republican proposal seeks to exempt many toxic Plas from review	Environment- Pollution	Plas are a class of about 15,000 chemicals typically used to make products that resist water, stains and heat. They are called "forever chemicals" because they do not naturally break down. They can accumulate in humans and the environment, and are linked to cancer, kidney disease, liver problems, immune disorders, birth defects and other serious health problems.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/04/republican-propos	2025/04/04
Climate crisis on track to destroy capitalism, warns top insurer	Economy- Environment	The climate crisis is on track to destroy capitalism, a top insurer has warned, with the vast cost of extreme weather impacts leaving the financial sector unable to operate. The world is fast approaching temperature levels where insurers will no longer be able to offer cover for many climate risks, said Günther Thallinger, on the board of Allianz SE, one of the world's biggest insurance companies. He said that without insurance, which is already being pulled in some places, many other financial services become unviable, from mortgages to investments.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/apr/03/climate-crisis-o	2025/04/04
Mahmet Oz confirmed by US Senate to lead Medicare and Medicaid	Political Cesspool	Former surgeon and TV pitchman Dr. Mehmet Oz confirmed on Thursday to lead the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). Oz became the agency's administrator in a party-line 53-45 vote. A member of Elon Musk's unofficial "department of government efficiency" gained access to a government system that contains the personal data of unaccompanied immigrant children, according to a recent court filing. The database, called the Unaccompanied Alien Children portal (UAC), contains extremely detailed information about thousands of minors who enter the United States alone, including individual children's mental health and therapy records, as well as immigration records, photos and addresses of their family members.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/03/mehmet-oz-confir	2025/04/04
Doge gained access to sensitive data of migrant children, including reports of abuse	Fuck that guy	Kyle Schutt, a 38-year-old software engineer turned Doge staffer, was granted access on 21 March to the UAC portal, according to a discovery document from 28 March filed in a District of Columbia court. The portal is part of the Department of Health and Human Services, one of the many agencies Musk's initiative has targeted with cuts.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/03/doge-data-migrant-1	2025/04/04
Weather tracker: powerful storms bring flooding to Aegean islands	Environment- Storms	The most severe storms on Monday were concentrated across the Cyclades islands in the south, where the islands of Paros and Milos were reported to have received at least a month's rainfall, much of which fell within three hours. The resultant flash flooding swept vehicles and debris through streets and washed boats away from the shore, and 13 people were rescued by firefighters after becoming trapped by flood water. Authorities issued a level ban restricting road use to emergency vehicles only, and ferry services were also disrupted.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/04/weather-tracker-power	2025/04/04
'There are no winners': global companies respond to Trump tariffs	Economy- Tariffs	"We should see in the next 10 days how these new taxes, let's call them that, will affect new orders and prices, which is the thing that worries us the most." "The US market is important to us, but it's not the be-all and end-all. We've invested a lot of time, effort, and money into the US market over the last six years, so it is unfortunate. There are no winners in this."	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/apr/04/trump-tariffs-com	2025/04/04
The Gaza paramedic killings: a visual timeline	International- Gaza	A survivor, Munther Abed, is detained and interrogated. A few hours later, a convoy including ambulances, a fire truck, health ministry vehicles and a UN car is dispatched to recover the bodies of the two paramedics. It also comes under fire. Two health ministry vehicles drive away but contact is lost with the rest of the convoy. Two ambulances sent from Rafah also disappear. The Ocha team finally make it to the site. They report finding the ambulances, the UN vehicle and the fire truck crushed and partially buried. The body of a civil defence worker is recovered from under the fire truck, but the recovery mission has to withdraw as the situation becomes unsafe.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/03/the-gaza-paramedic-k	2025/04/04
Orbán says Hungary is quitting the ICC to end its 'half-hearted membership'	International- Hungary	Hungary was never fully committed to the International Criminal Court. Prime Minister Viktor Orbán said on Friday, a day after his government announced a decision to quit the global tribunal for war crimes and genocide.	https://qnews.com/articles/hungary-orb%C3%A1n-icc-membership-8017658c3	2025/04/04
RFK Jr admits health department may have to retire 20 percent of people fired in DOGE cuts	Political Cesspool	At DOGE, we talked about this from the beginning ... we're going to do 80 percent cuts, but 20 percent of those are going to have to be reinstated, because we'll make mistakes, Kennedy told reporters on Thursday at an event in Virginia. Politico reports.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/robert-j	2025/04/04
'Fertilization president' has gutted fed's IVF team, report says	Government Jobs	President Donald Trump, the self-proclaimed "fertilization president," has gutted a federal in vitro fertilization team as part of his mass firing spree at the Department of Health and Human Services. The six epidemiologists, data analysts, and researchers who had their jobs axed Tuesday worked for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Assisted Reproductive Technology Surveillance System (ARTSS) and tracked the progress of IVF in the U.S.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-f	2025/04/04
Trump team reportedly lays off some staff working on bird flu response even as disease spreads	Health- Bird flu	As the pervasive H5N1 bird flu continues to spread and impact the nation's egg prices, the Trump administration has reportedly fired some staff who were working on the nation's response to the virus.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/health/trump-bird-flu-health-staff-1	2025/04/04
Behind the Curtain: Trump's dark opening to Golden Age	Trump Bullshit	There were safe, easy and still fast ways to do all the things Trump is doing, many Republican insiders tell us. Trump could have laid out specific tariff threats for each country, given them a short period to comply with a proposed compromise on great U.S. terms, and explained his thinking before speaking the markets. Trump could have spent an extra month targeting spending cuts with precision — so he didn't have to cut and then rehire people deemed more vital than first thought. And he could have set up a more thorough vetting program for deportation — so his broadly popular action didn't get undermined by locking up or sending off people who are not clear-cut violent criminals.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/trump-tariffs-stock-market-deal	2025/04/07
Inflation could hit different this time	Economy- Inflation	The pitch from higher prices that we expect in coming months may hit harder than in the post-pandemic inflation spike, wrote J.P. Morgan chief economist Michael Feroli in a note Friday. IBC chief international economist James Kraghley said "we are expecting to see negative real wage growth by the summer," in an email commentary after the jobs report last week. By the numbers: Wage growth cooled to 3.8% in March from 4% the previous month. It's been declining since the fall.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/inflation-trump-tariffs	2025/04/07
Tariffs will fuel inflation and slow growth, Dimon says	Economy- Inflation	The U.S. economy was already weakening before President Trump's sweeping new tariffs, and those levies will now fuel inflation and slow growth, JPMorgan Chase CEO Jamie Dimon says in his annual letter Monday. Of all the Wall Street banks, JPMorgan was early out of the gate forecasting the newest tariffs were more likely than not to cause a recession this year.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/jamie-dimon-annual-letter-2025	2025/04/07
RFK: MMR vaccine is the "most effective way" to prevent measles spread	Health- Measles	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. advocated for the measles, mumps and rubella (MMR) vaccine during a visit to West Texas on Sunday to comfort two families whose children died of the disease.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/06/kennedy-measles-vaccine-texas-us	2025/04/07
In photos: Midwest, South lashed by days of deadly storms	Environment- Storms	A "significant" extreme weather system that's lashed the U.S. South and Midwest for days was shifting through the Southeast on Sunday — with forecasts warning of more severe thunderstorms, tornadoes and flooding threats. The National Weather Service said severe weather concerns would persist into Monday across portions of the Southeast from the storm system that's killed at least 18 people since it ramped up Wednesday, with officials in Tennessee confirming 10 storm-related deaths as of Sunday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/storm-photos-south-midwest-floodi	2025/04/07
Trump denies engineering market sell-off, says you have to "take medicine"	Trump Bullshit	After plunging Thursday and Friday, global markets sank even further Sunday night, threatening one of the worst three-day routs in history. Investors who spent all weekend hoping for some kind of policy reversal on tariffs realized that none was coming, and sold off across asset classes in earnest. As of 8pm Sunday ET, early trading indicated U.S. stocks would open more than 4% lower, continuing a sell-off that already cost investors more than $6 billion. The dollar continued to weaken, oil fell below $60 for the first time in years, and even tariff safe-haven gold sold off.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/trump-tariffs-stocks-market	2025/04/07

Emergency care is at risk: RAND report	Health: Emergency care	The future of emergency care is getting more precarious, due to more complex cases, lower reimbursements and other stresses faced by emergency departments, according to a new RAND report funded by the Emergency Medicine Policy Institute. Emergency departments are crucial for responding to life-threatening events like heart attacks and car accidents. But they've also become the safety net for some of society's most difficult problems, including the opioid epidemic, gun violence and severe mental illness.	https://www.aaxos.com/2025/04/07/emergency-care-risk-rand-report	2025/04/07
HHS cuts felt locally as regional offices close	Government: HHS	The reality of deep cuts to Health and Human Services hit home for many last week when half of the department's 10 regional offices closed, leaving 22 states and five territories without a local point of contact for hearing assistance, child care programs, Meals on Wheels and more. In the alphabet soup of federal health agencies, the department's regional offices not only act as a conduit for federal grants and aid, but also forge relationships between health departments, academic institutions and community-based organizations. "Given that rebuilding trust in public health and science starts locally, this could hamper communications and valuable partnership development," said Anand Parekh, chief medical adviser at the Epidemic Policy Center, who previously worked at HHS for a decade.	https://www.aaxos.com/2025/04/07/hhs-regional-office-closures-service	2025/04/07
What to know about U.S. measles cases as outbreak worsens	Health: Measles	The growing measles outbreak in the U.S. has since January infected 642 people in 22 states, per Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. That's more than the number of total cases in the country last year.	https://www.aaxos.com/2025/02/28/measles-outbreak-texas-infection-3a	2025/04/07
GOP Rep. Adversaries are 'laughing at us' over NSA firings	Government: Nsa	He continued, "Russia and China are laughing at us today because we just fired the absolute best leaders."	https://www.aaxos.com/2025/04/06/rep-nsa-firings-boomer	2025/04/07
Between tariffs and survival, American business owners are doing alarming math	Economy: Business	Her large order was loading at the port in February, when the White House raised tariffs on Chinese imports by 10%. By the time it docked stateside in March, tariffs had gone up again, by another 10%. Wells had to shell out an unexpected $15,000 to release her goods from customs. Now, with the latest round sending total tariffs on Chinese imports to 54% — eating her profit margin — Wells is reeling. She may have to raise prices, but how much before shoppers rebel and stop buying? She plans to retrench, order less, pause hiring, stop developing new products.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/07/tx-41-53528333/trump-tariffs-china-main	2025/04/07
Freedom of speech is shifting under the Trump administration. We're exploring how	Free speech	Our reporting found scientists are scrubbing reports and federal grant applications of words the Trump administration has banned. Some student activists are afraid participating in protests could lead to deportation. Teachers are nervous about a new online portal where students or parents can file complaints about diversity, equity, and inclusion lessons in class with the U.S. Department of Education.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/07/tx-41-5327154/free-speech-trump-first	2025/04/07
Seven storms and floods batter South and Midwest as death toll rises to at least 18	Environment: Storms	Severe storms continued to pound parts of the South and Midwest on Sunday, as a punishing and slow-moving storm system unleashed life-threatening flash floods and powerful tornadoes from Mississippi to Kentucky. On Sunday, areas that had been battered by high winds and washed out by heavy rains since midweek saw additional inclement weather from the relentless storm system that's caused road closures, widespread power outages and some voluntary evacuations. At least 18 people in multiple states have died from weather-related causes since Wednesday, the Associated Press reported.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/06/tx-41-5354182/severe-storms-and-flo	2025/04/07
Forecast of a week of rain adds to Myanmar earthquake woes as death toll tops 3,000	Environment: Storms	"The public is advised to be aware of the possibility of untimely rain accompanied by strong winds, lightning, hail, and landslides," MRTV said. Daytime temperatures are forecast to reach 38 degrees Celsius (100 degrees Fahrenheit) by mid-week.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/07/tx-41-5354891/myanmar-earthquake-r	2025/04/07
Rising rivers threaten US South and Midwest after dayslong torrent of rain	Environment: Storms	Maj. Gen. Zaw Min Tun, a spokesperson for the military government, said Sunday in an audio message to journalists that 3,564 people have been confirmed dead so far, with 5,012 others injured and 210 missing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/flood-18-dead-flooding-tornadoes-111126	2025/04/07
Musk may soon leave the White House, but his bromance with Trump will remain	Fuck that guy	The Trump administration has canceled dozens of international student visas at California campuses, including UCLA, UC San Diego, UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Irvine and Stanford, university leaders, students and faculty at campuses confirmed to The Times. Education officials over the weekend struggled to assess the extent of the revocations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-may-soon-leave-while-11002694	2025/04/07
Trump administration cancels dozens of international student visas at University of California, Stanford	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration has fired three USAID workers who were sent to Myanmar to assess how the United States could assist with relief efforts following last month's devastating earthquake.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-cancels-more-dove	2025/04/07
Trump Admin Fires U.S. Aid Workers Assisting After Earthquake in Myanmar	Tragic	The USAID workers who were fired arrived in Myanmar just days earlier, and received their termination notices via email. The move comes after several weeks of the Trump administration attempting to remake USAID in Trump's image, which includes cutting thousands of jobs, severely limiting the amount of aid provided, and giving the State Department control of foreign aid.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-fires-u-aid-234543417.html	2025/04/07
Speaker Johnson cuts deal with Rep. Luna over parental proxy voting	Government: House	Speaker Mike Johnson and Florida GOP Rep. Anna Paulina Luna say they have cut a deal to end the fight over proxy voting for new parents, which will re-open the House floor after nearly a week of legislative paralysis.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/speaker-johnson-cut-deal-rep-23430005	2025/04/07
Outraged FDA vaccine chief makes plea to families to vaccinate children	Health: Vaccines	House Republican leaders will formalize "vote pairing," a procedure that allows a member who is absent during a vote to coordinate with a present member on the other side of the matter to offset the absence, multiple sources familiar with the deal told ABC News.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/outraged-fda-vaccine-chief-makes-13504336	2025/04/07
Panic Monday: World stock markets plunge again as Trump doubles down on tariffs	Economy: Tariffs	... "I don't know what he's going to do, and I can't make him do anything, but I can tell you, as a viewer, please consider getting your child vaccinated," Marks said Friday evening in an interview with CNN, specifically calling out the deadly measles outbreak.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/george-santos-nikei-725-index-dives-0041533	2025/04/07
DOJ Slams George Santos' 'Unrestrained Greed And Voracious Appetite For Fame' in Damning Memo	Political: Cesspool	"It is not just an innocent disease, benign disease. It kills one in 1,000 children in a developed country like the United States," he told "OutFront" host Erin Burnett.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doj-slams-george-santos-unrestrained-16	2025/04/07
DOGE's Social Security Breaches Send Staffers Into 'Death Spiral'	Fuck that guy	Global stock markets extended a severe plunge Monday, fueled by fears that U.S. tariffs would lead to a global economic slowdown. European and Asian shares saw dramatic losses, the leading U.S. index, filled with bear market territory in pre-market trading, and of prior sagged.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-social-security-breaches-send-1333	2025/04/07
Israel military razed Gaza perimeter land to create 'kill zone,' soldiers say	International: Israel	Federal prosecutors in New York are seeking more than seven years in prison for disgraced former U.S. Rep. George Santos (R-N.Y.), arguing that he has used criminal scandal as a springboard to wealth and fame.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/07/israel-military-gaza-pe	2025/04/07
Alarm as Republicans in Congress back Trump and Musk's attacks on US judges	Constitutional: Crisis	The DOJ called him a "pathological liar and fraudster," saying his depiction of himself "as a highly educated, independently wealthy, successful businessman" tricked victims into donating to his campaign.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/07/republicans-trump-j	2025/04/07
Tens of thousands rally against Trump at DC 'Hands Off' protest	Protest	"Until they get rid of DOGE and the person in office right now, and the Republicans actually get a backbone and stand up for something for once in their lives, things are just going to be complete chaos," one worker told The Guardian. "That's really the best word to describe SSA right now. Just complete utter chaos."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/05/trump-hands-off-pro	2025/04/07
Experts say White House's rehoming of student loan program will put borrowers at risk	Government: DOE	Israel's military razed huge swathes of land inside the perimeter of Gaza and ordered troops to turn the area into a "kill zone" where anybody who entered was a target, according to testimony by soldiers who carried out the plan.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/06/student-loans-trump	2025/04/07
DoJ lawyer put on leave after not backing erroneous deportation of US man	Political: Cesspool	Israel combatants said they were ordered to destroy homes, factories and farmland roughly 1km (0.6 miles) inside the perimeter of Gaza to make a "buffer zone", with one describing the area as looking like Hiroshima.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/06/justice-department-l	2025/04/07

		Stewart Gibson, the team leader at Galloway mountain rescue, told BBC Scotland fire crews had deployed four helicopters to drop water on the flames from above, with the fire front several miles wide at one stage.
		Further north in the Highlands, crews were tackling another wildfire north of Ullapool on Sunday with roads closed and heavy smoke hampering visibility.
		Six crews were in attendance, with personnel travelling almost 70 miles to offer assistance and firefighters at the scene reporting a firewall stretching more than 3 miles and large plumes of smoke descending over the area.
Scottish wildfire forces evacuations as blaze spreads north from Galloway	Environment-Wildfires	Meanwhile, in Northern Ireland, fire brigades were called to the scene of a blaze in County Antrim on Sunday afternoon. Six fire engines attended the incident near Conagher Road, Derroick, while 40 firefighters were involved in tackling the flames.	https://www.theguardian.com/uk-news/2025/04/06/scottish-wildfire-forces-evacuations	2025/04/07
Judge says deportation of Maryland men to an El Salvador prison was 'wholly indefensible'	Borders and immigration	The U.S. government's decision to arrest a Maryland man and send him to a notorious prison in El Salvador appears to be "wholly indefensible," a federal judge wrote Sunday in a legal opinion explaining why she had ordered the Trump administration to bring him back to the United States.
		"As defendants acknowledge, they had no legal authority to arrest him, no justification to detain him, and no grounds to send him to El Salvador — let alone deliver him into one of the most dangerous prisons in the Western Hemisphere," Xaris wrote.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/federal-judge-says-deportation-of-savador-542749/	2025/04/07
Nearly half of National Weather Service offices have 20% vacancy rates, and experts say it's a risk	Government-NWS	After Trump administration job cuts, nearly half of National Weather Service forecast offices have 20% vacancy rates — twice that of just a decade ago — as severe weather drags across the nation's heartland, according to data obtained by The Associated Press.
		Detailed vacancy data for all 122 weather field offices show eight offices are missing more than 35% of their staff — including those in Arkansas where tornadoes and torrential rain hit this week — according to statistics crowd-sourced by more than a dozen National Weather Service employees. Experts said vacancy rates of 20% or higher amount to critical understaffing, and 55 of the 122 offices reach that level.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/weather-cuts-bonaro-dangerous-staff/	2025/04/07
Chemical industry seeks exemptions from US pollution rules as part of Trump administration offer	Environment-Pollution	Industry groups representing hundreds of chemical and petrochemical manufacturers are seeking blanket exemptions from federal regulations to reduce emissions of toxic chemicals such as mercury, arsenic and benzene.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/trump-eco-toxic-chemicals-exemption-mexico/	2025/04/07
		The Trump administration has not distributed funding approved by Congress for Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, even after a judge ordered that officials keep the network in operation, court filings reveal.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/politics/radio-free-europe-liberty-uk-12141111.html	2025/04/07
Defying a court order, Trump administration refuses to fund Radio Free Europe	Court orders	The first known lawsuit against President Donald Trump's officials has been filed by the New Liberties Civil Alliance on behalf of a Florida stationary business entrepreneur who is arguing that the president "unlawfully" overstepped his authority to impose the levies.
		"These unlawfully implemented tariffs cause harm to American businesses, American jobs, and American consumers, and will be the end of many American dreams," Ley said in a post on social media the day after Trump announced a series of steep tariffs on nations around the world that sent global stock markets plunging.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/politics/donald-trump-tariffs-12141111.html	2025/04/07
First lawsuit against Trump's tariffs argues he illegally used emergency powers	Court orders	On Friday, District Attorney Patrick Warren announced he had dismissed the charges. A medical examiner had determined that the fetus was approximately 19 weeks. It was found to be "non-viable at the time it was naturally miscarried," said Warren, citing the report. The fetus showed no signs of breathing on its own or foot play.
		Warren said his decision to dismiss the charges "follows a comprehensive review of the Tifton Police Department's investigative file, Georgia Bureau of Investigation's Medical Examiner's report, relevant Georgia statutes, case law and input from both legal and medical experts."
Charges dropped against Georgia woman who miscarried	Reproductive rights	He added: "After thorough examination of the facts and the law, my office has determined that continuing prosecution is not legally sustainable and not in the interest of justice. This case is heartbreaking and emotionally difficult for everyone involved, but our decision must be grounded in law — not emotion or speculation."	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/charges-dropped-against-georgia-woman-who-miscarried-12141111.html	2025/04/07
		Workers at one of the nation's largest baby formula plants say the Abbott Laboratories facility is engaging in unsanitary practices similar to those that led to temporary and down just three years ago, sparking a nationwide formula shortage.
Unsanitary Practices Persist at Baby Formula Factory Whose Shutdown Led to Mass Shortages, Workers Say	Health-Sanitation	Current and former employees told ProPublica that they have seen the plant in Sturgis, Michigan, take shortcuts when cleaning manufacturing equipment and testing for microbes. The employees said leaks in the factory are sometimes not fixed, a dangerous problem that can promote bacterial growth. They also said workers at the facility do not always take required swabs to check for pathogens while performing maintenance during production. Supervisors have urged workers to increase production and have retaliated against workers who complained about problems, the employees said.	https://www.propublica.com/article/baby-formula-plant-shuts-down-michigan	2025/04/07
Scientists found an existing drug that turns human blood into mosquito poison	Health-Bugs	A new study suggests a surprising and potentially game-changing approach to stopping malaria that involves turning human blood into a death sentence for mosquitoes. The secret lies in an existing drug called nitenitene, which, once ingested by the insects, kills them within hours.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/scientists-found-existing-drug-that-turns-human-blood-into-mosquito-poison/	2025/04/08
		The number of invasive group A streptococcus infections more than doubled from 2013 to 2022, according to a study from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention published Monday in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Prior to that, rates of invasive strep had been stable for 17 years.
		Invasive group A strep occurs when bacteria spread to areas of the body that are normally germ-free, such as the lungs or bloodstream. The same type of bacteria, group A streptococcus, is responsible for strep throat — a far milder infection.
		Invasive strep can trigger necrotizing fasciitis, a soft tissue infection also known as flesh-eating disease, or streptococcal toxic shock syndrome, an immune reaction akin to sepsis that can lead to organ failure.
Invasive strep infections have more than doubled in the U.S., CDC study finds	Health-strep	Books on the Holocaust, histories of feminism, civil rights and racism, and Maya Angelou's famous autobiography "I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings," were among the nearly 400 volumes removed from the U.S. Naval Academy's library this week after Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth's office ordered the school to get rid of ones that promote diversity, equity and inclusion.	https://www.rncnews.com/news/2025/04/06/naval-academy-memoir-holocaust/	2025/04/08
Maya Angelou memoir, Holocaust book are among those pulled from Naval Academy library in DEI purge	Censorship	The Trump administration believes it has the legal authority to abduct any individual—citizen or immigrant, documented or not—and illegally deport them to another country without due process. It further claims that it can extinguish all of that person's constitutional rights by imprisoning them at a foreign site. And it asserts that once that person has been locked away abroad, the U.S. government has no power or responsibility to bring them home, even if they were indignantly deported in error.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/supreme-court-analysis-trump/	2025/04/08
Trump Administration Debuts Legal Blueprint for Disappearing Anyone It Wants	Constitutional Crisis	The Supreme Court handed the Trump administration a major victory on Monday night, lifting a restraining order that had prevented the mass deportation of migrants to an El Salvador prison under an 18th century wartime law. By a 5-4 vote on the shadow docket, the justices crushed the migrants' sweeping class action in D.C. and forced them to proceed with narrower suits through more hostile courts in Texas. The majority's unsigned, thinly reasoned decision will make it significantly easier for the administration to illegally ship off innocent people to a Salvadoran prison, where all their constitutional rights—and quite possibly their lives—will be snuffed out. As Justice Sonia Sotomayor wrote in a scathing dissent, "we, as a nation and a court of law, should be better than this." But it's not five justices, it's just one: the chief justice, as a man, as a man, as a man.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/supreme-court-analysis-trump/	2025/04/08
		The U.S. Supreme Court delivered a major victory to President Trump on Monday, allowing the administration to continue deporting what it says are Venezuelan gang members. The vote was 5-4, with conservative Justice Amy Coney Barrett joining the three liberals in dissent.
		Technically habeas corpus means "produce the body." In practice it means that an imprisoned individual has the right to challenge his detention or deportation, but only for himself, and only, the court said, in the places where deportees were being detained. In this case, the named plaintiffs were being held in Texas, a state, where, as the dissenters observed, judges are not likely to be sympathetic.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/07/nx-1-5345601/supreme-court-alien-en/	2025/04/08
Supreme Court backs Trump in controversial deportations case	Constitutional Crisis	"The rallying cry of 'no taxation without representation' sparked a revolution — and it's just as relevant today," Paul wrote in a statement. "Unchecked executive actions enacting tariff tax our citizens, threaten our economy, raise prices for everyday goods, and erode the system of checks and balances that our founders so carefully crafted."
		If either piece of legislation were to pass through both chambers of Congress, the president seems poised to strike them down. It would require a two-thirds majority vote in both the House and Senate to override the president's veto.	https://www.rollinsstone.com/politics/politics-news/trump-vote-tariffs-bill/	2025/04/08
Trump Threatens to Block Congress From Taking Control of Tariffs	Constitutional Crisis	The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) proposes to reassign you as part of a broader effort to strengthen the department and more effectively promote the health of American people, the email read. "One critical area of need is in the American Indian and Alaskan Native communities."
		And the Trump administration's massive layoffs at HHS, these reassignment emails accelerated an apparent purge of leadership at federal health agencies. Top officials in different parts of HHS were put on administrative leave with the option of rejoining to a new job in Alaska, Montana, New Mexico or other postings within the Indian Health Service (IHS).
		"The move displays the almost disregard for public service. It is clearly designed to force talented scientists and health experts to leave government," says Richard Besser, CEO of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, a nonprofit philanthropy focused on health. "It is also an insult to those health care professionals in the Indian Health Service who dedicate their lives to providing health care services on tribal lands."	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-science/2025/04/07/nx-1-5354	2025/04/08
Transfer to Alaska? Offer to lead health leaders called 'insult' to Indian Health Service	Government-HHS	The Justice Department's recently fired pardon attorney accused the leadership of the law enforcement agency of "ongoing corruption," testifying Monday at a congressional hearing meant to showcase concerns that the Trump administration is assaulting the rule of law, abusing its power and forcing out career civil servants.
		"It should alarm all Americans that the leadership of the Department of Justice appears to value political loyalty above the law and responsible administration of justice," said Liz Oyer, who has said she was laid north after refusing to recommend that the gun rights of actor Mel Gibson, a supporter of President Donald Trump's, be restored.	https://nypost.com/2025/04/06/justice-department-mel-gibson-congress-66/	2025/04/08
Fired Justice Department pardon attorney accuses the agency of ongoing corruption, abuse of power	Government-DOJ	The U.S. enjoys an early, decisive AI advantage that could fuel a manufacturing and middle-class renaissance. American-made chips, data, minerals and energy companies (and adjacent work) will proliferate and prosper. Lose this race and little else falls.		Corruption
		The Trump vision: America is in a sleep, perhaps fatal decline.
		The country has been "looted pillaged, raped and plundered." Salvation demands brute, unapologetic force to erase trade deficits, and muscle a 1950s America back into existence. AI won't do that. Tariffs will.
		Yes, it's be painful, but big buildings, new factories and good-paying jobs will follow for millions of Americans. Some'll be AI jobs. Many others will be traditional gigs like line worker, plumber or electrician.
Behind the Curtain: Trump vs. tech titans	Trump-Bulbait	What they're saying: Steve Bannon — a White House official in Trump's first term, and now an influential MAGA podcaster — told us he sees tech bros as "narcissistic globalists that put their wealth and power first."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/trump-tariffs-stock-market-tech-ai	2025/04/08
Exclusive: ICE decides who's linked to gangs, border car says	Borders and immigration	Immigration agents are the "principal" decision on whether a detainee is linked to a gang and should be deported immediately, border czar Tom Homan told Axios in an exclusive interview.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/immigration-ice-gangs-deport-decide	2025/04/08
		The SAP 500 has fallen more than 15% since Donald Trump's inauguration, the worst showing for a new administration since George W. Bush was in office during the 48-con bust.
Charted: Stock market performance under Trump 2.0	Trump-Economy	"There are many people that are saying that the only reason the Stock Market is high is because I am leading in all of the polls, and if I don't win, we will have a CRASH of similar proportions to 1929," he posted during the campaign in May 2024.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/trump-stock-market-tariffs-bush	2025/04/08
		The bottom line: That's not quite how it has worked out, so far anyway.
		China has pulled ahead of the United States in key areas of the life sciences, and the U.S. may only have a handful of years to regain dominance in the sector, according to an independent commission's report sent Tuesday to Congress and the White House.
		Advanced biotechnology is critical to national security, public health and the ability to continue feeding the population.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/china-leading-us-bio-tech-advances	2025/04/09
China is beating U.S. in biotech advances, report warns	International-science			science, technology

		In less than one week, many Americans will no longer be able to apply for Social Security benefits over the phone, setting the stage for disruptions and upheaval for millions of seniors. "President Trump has repeatedly promised not to cut Social Security benefits — but his Administration's actions will effectively do just that," writes Kathleen Romo, director of Social Security and Disability Policy at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, in a new analysis shared exclusively with Axios. More than 4 in 10 retirees apply for benefits by phone, per agency data cited by the Center. The Center looked at how far senior citizens will have to travel to apply for benefits. For millions it will be a journey. Nearly 6 million seniors live more than 48.6 miles, roundtrip, from a field office, per the analysis of agency and Census Bureau data. (See their data.) They picked that distance threshold because it's twice the average distance (23.3 miles) an elderly person travels in a day, according to National Household Transportation Survey data that the Center cites.
Exclusive: As Social Security services are cut back, millions of seniors face long drives	Government-SSA		https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/social-security-seniors-drive	2025/04/08
Trump praises "very smart" Turkish strongman Erdogan	International relations	President Trump praised Turkish leader Recep Tayyip Erdogan for being "very smart" during a White House meeting with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu Monday and suggested he could work as a mediator between Israel and Turkey. Critics including Republican Against Trump slammed the president's praise for "autocratic leader Erdogan" — a charge that's been leveled against Turkey's president for moves including last month having his main opposition rival, Istanbul Mayor Ekrem Imamoglu, detained along with over 100 other officials, which rights groups said was "politically motivated."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/trump-praises-yahya-israel-turkey-erdog	2025/04/08
NPS restores Underground Railroad history after outcry	Information Backlist	The National Park Service rewrote — then restored — the Underground Railroad story and reposted a deleted photo of abolitionist Harriet Tubman. April 1 was the first day of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. It's also the day the Department of Health and Human Services fired the teams that work on sexual violence prevention. The layoffs were part of a round of dramatic cuts to the federal health agencies, amid the Trump administration and Elon Musk's efforts to shrink the federal workforce.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/07/national-park-service-underground-r	2025/04/08	rewriting history
It's sexual assault awareness month and HHS just gutted its rape prevention unit	Health- Sexual assault	Most of the Division of Violence Prevention staff was fired, according to multiple sources, including current and former staffers. The division is part of the Injury Center at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. At the same time, the leader of another HHS agency that works on domestic violence, the Office of Family Violence Prevention and Services, was placed on administrative leave. The state of Washington has been allowing election officials to count mail ballots that don't make it to their office until after Election Day for more than a hundred years now. It's a practice that could be prohibited in upcoming elections, thanks to a sweeping executive order signed by President Trump last month. States with a large share of mail ballots often take more time to count votes. Mail-in ballots take longer to process. Election officials are often counting ballots in the days after Election Day regardless of whether ballots make it back to them before or after in-person voting ends. Republicans have argued, without evidence, that the longer a state takes to count ballots after Election Day, the less secure their elections are. Misinformation about this — which proliferated after the 2020 election — has led to calls for limits to the counting of mail ballots.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/hhs-st-5348503bhh-ayoffs-sexual-assa	2025/04/08
Trump's election order could jeopardize hundreds of thousands of future mail ballots	Voting Fucker	This effort got a significant boost last month, however, when Trump signed an executive order that, among other things, specifically prohibits this practice. The tied order fraud while signing the order. The Supreme Court on Monday stayed an order from a federal judge who had given the Trump administration until the end of the day on Monday to return a Maryland mannnistt deported to El Salvador last month. U.S. District Judge Paula Xinis gave the Trump administration a deadline of 12:00 a.m. Tuesday to bring Kinar Almarino Abrego Garcia back from El Salvador. The Justice Department appealed to the Supreme Court, arguing that the lower court in Maryland lacked jurisdiction because Garcia was in El Salvador and writing that the judge's order was "absurd" and "interferes with sensitive international negotiations."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/hhs-st-5351032trump-election-order-m	2025/04/08
Deadline looms in case of Maryland man's wrongful deportation to El Salvador	Constitutional Crisis	The death toll from flooding that cut access to over half of the Congolese capital of Kinshasa reached 33 as authorities raced Monday to evacuate and support hundreds of families trapped in their homes. Ten more people were confirmed dead as of Sunday evening, in addition to the 23 people killed the day before, Congolese Interior Minister Jacquesmen Shabani said on state television late Sunday.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/hhs-st-5355099congo-kinshasa-floodin	2025/04/08
Flooding death toll in Congo's capital reaches 33 as officials race to help victims	Tragic	U.S. Navy Vice Admiral Shoshana Chaffetz, who holds a senior position in NATO, has been fired as part of what appears to be an expanding national security purge of top officials by the Trump administration, three sources told Reuters on Monday. — Chiefed, the U.S. military representative to the NATO Military Committee, is one of only a handful of female Navy three-star officers and was the first woman to lead the Naval War College, a job she held until 2023. The firing, which was first reported by Reuters, is the latest to rock the Pentagon after Thursday's removal of General Timothy Haugh, the head of the National Security Agency and U.S. Cyber Command. For the Navy, it follows the firing of its top officer, Admiral Lisa Franchetti, the first woman to become Chief of Naval Operations.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/07/hhs-st-5354921deportation-el-salvador	2025/04/08
US admiral at NATO fired in expanding national security purge	Government-NATO	Last week, Trump introduced an additional 34% tariff on Chinese goods as part of steep levies imposed on most U.S. trade partners, bringing the total duties on China this year to 54% and sending global stock markets tumbling. "It's like throwing darts blindfolded. You don't know what direction you're going in. You don't know where the tariffs are going to land," said Larry Sloven, who has sourced from China for major U.S. retailers for three decades. "Once the hammer drops, you don't know where the hammer will fall after that."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/exclusive-us-admiral-nato-fired-17202437	2025/04/08	National Security
Analysis: It's like throwing darts blindfolded: Tariffs take toll on Chinese exporters	Economy-Tariffs	The decision means the deep-blue, Houston-based congressional seat will be vacant for roughly eight months. House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries, D-N.Y., and other Democrats had accused Abbott of deliberately delaying calling the special election to help pad the GOP's tiny majority in the chamber. Republicans hold just a 220-213 advantage over Democrats in the House, meaning that Speaker Mike Johnson, R-La., can only afford three GOP defections on any vote.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/analysis-throwing-darts-blindfolded-tar	2025/04/08
Texas Gov. Greg Abbott sets November special election for deep-blue House seat	Voting Fucker	Marks said the core of his work for Kennedy involved a "vaccine transparency action plan" that would allow the new health secretary's team to access and read vaccine-related complaints via the government's Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS). Marks, however, refused to allow Kennedy's team to directly edit or interfere with the data. "Why wouldn't we? Because frankly we don't trust (them)," the former director of the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research told AP. "They'd write over it or erase the whole database."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-gov-greg-abbott-sees-223145434.h	2025/04/08
Vaccine Boss: RFK Jr.'s Goons Plotted Safety Data Smash and Grab	Government-FDA	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., is facing renewed scrutiny after praising the work of a doctor who has been known for discussing the dangers of vaccines — while the secretary was attending the funeral of the second child who died from the rampant West Texas measles outbreak. A reporter asked Trump Sunday whether he was considering an offer from El Salvador President Nayib Bukele to "take American citizens in the federal prison population."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/vaccine-boss-rfk-jr-goons-231412421.htm	2025/04/08
RFK Jr. praises anti-vaxer hours after attending funeral of 8-year-old who died from measles	Government-HHS	"Well, I love that," Trump replied. "If we could take some of our twenty-time wise guys that push people into subways and hit people over the back of the head, and purposefully run people over in cars, uh, if he would take them, I would be honored to give them," Trump continued.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-praises-anti-vaxer-hours-164824280	2025/04/08
Trump Has a New Target for His Mass Deportations: U.S. Citizens	Constitutional Crisis	Days of unrelenting downpours swelled rivers to near record levels across Kentucky on Monday, submerging neighborhoods and threatening a famed bourbon distillery in the state capital. Inundated rivers posed the latest threat from persistent storms that have killed at least 23 people since last week as they drenched the region with heavy rain and spawned destructive tornadoes. At least 157 tornadoes struck within seven days beginning March 30, according to a preliminary report from the National Weather Service. Though the storms have finally moved on, the flood danger remains high in several other states, including parts of Tennessee, Arkansas and Indiana. President Donald Trump is making plans for a military parade in Washington, D.C., on his 79th birthday, according to a report. A source in the capital told the Washington City Paper that Trump has earmarked June 14—which is the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Army—for the event.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/winter-rivers-flood-swows-up-054003513	2025/04/08
Swollen rivers are flooding towns in the US South after a prolonged deluge of rain	Environment-Flooding	The White House is denying reports that it plans to hold a military parade in Washington on President Donald Trump's birthday in June — though local officials have been in contact with the administration about a celebration.	https://www.thedailybeast.com/trump-orders-four-mile-military-parade-6	2025/04/08
Trump Orders Four Mile Military Parade for His 79th Birthday	Trump Bullshit	The Trump administration will speed up processing lines for poultry and pork meatpacking plants while halting reports on worker safety, the US Department of Agriculture (USDA) announced recently, in a move that workers and advocates say will lead to more injuries. Some poultry and pork plants already receive waivers to speed up production lines, and the USDA plans to update its rules to make the changes permanent and applicable to all poultry and pork plants, the department said in a press release. More than $5tn (£4tn) has been wiped off the value of global stock markets since Trump's Rose Garden address on Wednesday evening last week, with investors braced for further volatility as Washington appears unwilling to back down.	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/04/07/white-house-denies-military	2025/04/08
White House denies a military parade is scheduled for Trump's birthday	Trump Bullshit	The idea that caring about others could end civilization may seem extreme, but it comes amid a growing wave of opposition to empathy from across the American right. Musk learned about "autistic empathy" through his "public bronanore" with Gad Saad, a Canadian marketing professor whose casual application of evolutionary psychology to culture war politics has brought him a sizeable social media following. By Saad's accounting — and this is not dissimilar from the white nationalists' "great replacement theory" — western societies are bringing about their own destruction by admitting immigrants from poorer, browner and more Muslim countries. At least 15 people died and more than 100 were injured after a roof fell at a nightclub in the capital of the Dominican Republic early Tuesday, authorities said. A renowned economist who co-wrote research used by Donald Trump to justify his aggressive tariff hikes says the White House got it "very wrong".	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/08/us-poultry-workers	2025/04/08
'They're killing you': US poultry workers fear faster lines will lead to more injury	Government-USDA	Workers are getting hammered with RTO tickets," one employee said, using an acronym for return to office. "We do not have the IT infrastructure to support this massive RTO mandate." Workers have "no soap, toilet paper, or paper towels anywhere in the building. Their water machine is broken. Many cannot get on local area networks, and the Wi-Fi keeps going down," an IRS employee added in an interview with the magazine.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/apr/08/how-liberation-day	2025/04/08
New 'liberation day' rout compares with other notorious stock market crises	Trump Economy	The idea that caring about others could end civilization may seem extreme, but it comes amid a growing wave of opposition to empathy from across the American right. Musk learned about "autistic empathy" through his "public bronanore" with Gad Saad, a Canadian marketing professor whose casual application of evolutionary psychology to culture war politics has brought him a sizeable social media following. By Saad's accounting — and this is not dissimilar from the white nationalists' "great replacement theory" — western societies are bringing about their own destruction by admitting immigrants from poorer, browner and more Muslim countries. At least 15 people died and more than 100 were injured after a roof fell at a nightclub in the capital of the Dominican Republic early Tuesday, authorities said. A renowned economist who co-wrote research used by Donald Trump to justify his aggressive tariff hikes says the White House got it "very wrong".	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/08/emp	2025/04/08
Loathes thy neighbor: Elon Musk and the Christian right are waging war on empathy	Political Cesspool	University of Chicago Economics Professor Brett Neiman, who was also a Biden administration Treasury official, said the Trump administration wildly overcalculated tariff rates placed on nearly all countries that export to the U.S. The Trump administration's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) initiatives have caused technological chaos for both individuals interacting with government agencies and the people inside of them, despite DOGE leader Elon Musk bouding the effort as Silicon Valley-style "tech support" for the federal government. "We are getting hammered with RTO tickets," one employee said, using an acronym for return to office. "We do not have the IT infrastructure to support this massive RTO mandate." Workers have "no soap, toilet paper, or paper towels anywhere in the building. Their water machine is broken. Many cannot get on local area networks, and the Wi-Fi keeps going down," an IRS employee added in an interview with the magazine.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/apr/08/how-liberation-day	2025/04/08
At least 15 dead, more than 100 injured in roof collapse at Dominican Republic nightclub	Tragic	Democrats in the House of Representatives have launched a new investigation into Elon Musk's potential conflicts of interest at NASA. It described Musk's influence over the government and his effective leadership of DOGE as "a textbook example of corruption at taxpayers' expense" by the world's richest person. It also noted that Musk's rocket company SpaceX has already been awarded federal contracts worth more than $525 since Donald Trump returned to power, on top of at nearly $21 billion his companies have landed since 2008.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/08/emp	2025/04/08
Economist White House cited to justify tariff plan says Trump has 'got it very wrong'	Trump Economy	Musk is in the position of carving holes in federal agencies with massive staff cuts that his own companies can step in and fill. At least a dozen House Republicans are considering signing onto Rep. Don Bacon's (R-Neb.) bill to restrict the White House's ability to impose tariffs unilaterally. Axios has learned it's a significant break with President Trump, who has threatened to veto the bill should it pass Congress.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m	2025/04/08
DOGE policies, massive fumbles causing tech crashes across agencies	Fuck that guy	Democrats in the House of Representatives have launched a new investigation into Elon Musk's potential conflicts of interest at NASA. It described Musk's influence over the government and his effective leadership of DOGE as "a textbook example of corruption at taxpayers' expense" by the world's richest person. It also noted that Musk's rocket company SpaceX has already been awarded federal contracts worth more than $525 since Donald Trump returned to power, on top of at nearly $21 billion his companies have landed since 2008.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m	2025/04/08
House Dems launch conflict of interest probe into $528m in new NASA contracts to Musk's SpaceX	Fuck that guy	Musk is in the position of carving holes in federal agencies with massive staff cuts that his own companies can step in and fill. At least a dozen House Republicans are considering signing onto Rep. Don Bacon's (R-Neb.) bill to restrict the White House's ability to impose tariffs unilaterally. Axios has learned it's a significant break with President Trump, who has threatened to veto the bill should it pass Congress.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m	2025/04/08
Scoop: A dozen House Republicans mull defying Trump on tariff bill	Politics	At least a dozen House Republicans are considering signing onto Rep. Don Bacon's (R-Neb.) bill to restrict the White House's ability to impose tariffs unilaterally. Axios has learned it's a significant break with President Trump, who has threatened to veto the bill should it pass Congress.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/house-republicans-tariff-bill-trump-d	2025/04/09

IRS agrees to share immigrants' data with ICE	Borders and immigration	The Internal Revenue Service has agreed to share the personal information of undocumented taxpayers with immigration authorities, a new court filing shows. "IRS can legally request return information relating to individuals under criminal investigation, and the IRS must provide it," according to the document. Why it matters: Immigrants without legal status contribute billions in tax revenue every year. The IRS has previously kept their tax returns, which include home and work addresses, private.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/irs-share-immigrant-data-ice-deport	2025/04/09
Trump tariffs leave global corporations with nowhere to hide Consumer sentiment plunged on Monday amid tariff chaos	Economy-Tariffs Economy-Tariffs	Global corporations rushed out of China to dodge tariffs during President Trump's first term. This time around, they have nowhere to hide — and policy is changing faster than supply chains can. With high tariffs set to go into effect Wednesday in nearly every nation, there is no shield to be had (barring last-ditch negotiations or suspensions). It means multinational companies can't duck import taxes by rerouting goods. Companies will look to adapt their sourcing to minimize tariffs. But the trade policy landscape is shifting day by day, and complex multinational supply chains take much longer to redesign. Consumer confidence dropped precipitously on Monday, as Americans absorbed news on stock market plunges and sky-high tariffs.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/trump-tariffs-china-supply-chains	2025/04/09
Trump admin ousts another female military leader	Trump Bullyhit	Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth has fired U.S. Navy Vice Adm. Shoshana Chaffed, who served as the U.S. military representative to the NATO Military Committee, the Pentagon confirmed to Axios. Chaffed joins a growing list of women and people of color who served in top military roles who have been ousted as President Trump and top officials conduct a purge of so-called "weakness" in the military.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/trump-hegseth-fires-female-military	2025/04/09
These American companies are in big trouble from Trump tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	The list of losers is long, including: Nike Apple Best Buy The bottom line: It's a bloodbath.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/03/trump-tariffs-stocks-nike-apple-igbor	2025/04/09
The roof collapses at a Dominican Republic nightclub, killing at least 98 people	Tragic	Rescuers frantically searched overnight for more survivors in the rubble of the iconic Jet Set nightclub in the Dominican Republic's capital, more than 24 hours after the roof collapsed during a merengue concert attended by politicians, athletes and others. At least 98 people were killed in the collapse early Tuesday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/roof-collapses-dominican-republic-nightclub-killing-at-least-98-people-161137292	2025/04/09
Democrats forge ahead with effort to kill Trump tariffs	Politics	House Democrats are moving forward with their plan to try to force a vote on killing the across-the-board tariffs President Trump rolled out last week. Trump is almost certain to veto the measure if it passes, but Democrats want to force House Republicans to choose between their loyalty to the president and uneasiness with his trade policy. The justices blocked an order from a California judge for the administration to reinstate 16,000 probationary employees while a lawsuit plays out. The Supreme Court's order means that employees in the departments of Defense, Treasury, Energy, Interior, Agriculture and Veterans Affairs will remain on paid administrative leave for now. It's the third time in less than a week that the court has sided with the Trump administration against lower courts.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/democrats-force-vote-trump-tariffs	2025/04/09
Supreme Court stays order reinstating fired federal workers	Supreme Court	This is what happens in a dictatorship, and these are test cases, said Eric Lee, a lawyer who represents Mondolfo Taki, a Cornell University Ph.D. student and advocate for Palestinian rights whose visa was revoked. "If the government can get away with doing this to these students, it can do it to everybody in this country. Your citizenship won't save you. ... Your views will be next."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/supreme-court-stays-order-reinstating-federal-workers	2025/04/09	government jobs
Citizen's report won't save you: Free speech advocates say student arrests should worry all	Free speech	Public hearings say there is a playbook for slowing outbreaks like this one: Identify cases, isolate patients. Track where they've been and who they may have exposed. Most of all, drive up the vaccination rate. "That's the way to stop it. This only ends with immunity," said Jennifer Nuzzo, director of the Pandemic Center at The Brown University School of Public Health.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/nr-1-53484724/student-arrests-protest-trump	2025/04/09
Texas' measles outbreak isn't slowing down. How can that change?	Health-Measles	The Trump administration is telling some migrants who entered the U.S. using the CBP One mobile app to leave immediately, as part of a broader push to revoke temporary legal status for migrants who entered during the Biden administration under a legal authority known as humanitarian parole. Starting in January of 2023, the CBP One allowed migrants to schedule appointments at legal ports of entry instead of crossing the border illegally to seek asylum. It was a central part of the Biden administration's strategy to relieve pressure at the border by creating temporary legal pathways under an authority known as humanitarian parole.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/nr-1-53484706/texas-measles-outbreak	2025/04/09
Migrants who entered the U.S. via CBP One app should leave immediately, DHS says	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration quickly dismantled that policy, and is now urging migrants who benefited from it to leave immediately. House Speaker Mike Johnson, R-La., says he's forging ahead with a plan to have the chamber vote on the Senate's budget resolution on Wednesday, despite not yet having the votes to pass it. The intra-party dispute is a litmus test not only of the strength of Johnson's speakership but also of the conferees' loyalty to President Trump.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/nr-1-5898434/cbp-one-app-migrants-dhs	2025/04/09
House GOP leaders prep vote on budget despite rift within the party	Government Funding	"The Senate budget does not reduce deficits. The Senate budget would increase deficits," Texas Rep. Chip Roy, a member of the House Freedom caucus, told reporters. "The Senate needs to produce a plan to us with seriousness and resolve to reduce deficits. I'm tired of the fake math in the swamp." During a press briefing, Leavitt was asked to explain Trump's disturbingly enthusiastic response to Salvadoran President Nayib Bukele's widely illegal proposition for the U.S. government to relocate individuals incarcerated in the federal prison system, including American citizens, to the Central American country. The reporter wanted to know how the government could legally remove U.S. citizens, and how many would potentially be subject to removal. The short answer is: It can't, so none. But, Leavitt didn't say that.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/08/nr-1-589828house-gop-budget-rift	2025/04/09
Press Secretary Says Trump Wasn't Joking About Deporting U.S. Citizens	Borders and immigration	But Trump didn't simply float the idea, it was offered by a foreign leader — who has already struck a $6 billion deal to take alleged Venezuelan gang members that the Trump administration removed under the Alien Enemies Act. Sixty-five years later, when so much is now done online, this mine is largely still how the Office of Personnel Management manages the documents of the 100,000 or so retirements from federal service each year.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/press-secretary-says-trump-wasn-19174	2025/04/09
Inside the mine housing the federal government's retirement records, now in DOGE's spotlight	Government Records	Over the years, the warehouse-like OPM space inside the mine — which is 220 feet underground — has accumulated more than 400 million individual records, spread across 25,000 file cabinets. In some places stacked 10 high, cardboard boxes and paper files in manila envelopes seem to sprout from shelves and pile up on tables as they're shuffled from station to station.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/inside-mine-housing-federal-government-161137292	2025/04/09
US Defense Secretary Hegseth says China poses a threat to Panama Canal	International relations	Pete Hegseth said Tuesday that the Panama Canal faces ongoing threats from China, but together, the U.S. and Panama will keep it secure. Speaking at ribbon cutting for a new U.S.-financed dock at the Vasco Núñez de Balboa Naval Base, Hegseth said the U.S. would not "allow Communist China, or any other country to threaten the canal's security and integrity."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-defense-secretary-hegseth-says-1929	2025/04/09
Teen fighting for his life after police shoot him 9 times in his back yard	ACAB	Eyewitness video captured the moment police shot a mentally and physically disabled 17-year-old nine times in his front yard, leaving him fighting for his life and his family calling for answers. A federal judge in Illinois has issued a split ruling in a case against a state abortion law. Finding part of the law violates the constitutional right to free speech by compelling medical professionals who do not believe in abortion to discuss its benefits.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/teen-fighting-life-police-shoot-161037292	2025/04/09
Federal judge sides with pro-life pregnancy centers, finds part of Illinois abortion law unconstitutional	Reproductive rights	"The Court concludes that Public Act 99-690 Section 6.1(1), in exchange for a liability shield, compels speech, requiring a discussion about the risks and benefits of childbirth and abortion. That compelled discussion violates the First Amendment," Johnson said in the ruling. Johnson, however, ruled another section of the law in question constitutional. That part of the law requires medical providers, if a patient asks, to either refer or transfer patients, or give written information about what other providers may offer services that they "can't provide because of a conscience-based objection."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-judge-sides-pro-life-1245542378	2025/04/09
Speaker Johnson says fluoride in water deserves another look	Political Cesspool	House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) said Tuesday he thinks fluoride in the public water supply deserves "real evaluation," a day after the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) indicated new recommendations and potential limits would be coming.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/speaker-johnson-says-fluoride-water-181	2025/04/09
Treasury Secretary Says Fired Federal Workers Can Work in the Factory	Political Cesspool	It sounds like Bessent — after weeks of federal DOGE layoffs and days of global market collapse from Trump's tariff war — is suggesting that the federal bureaucracy who were formerly working at departments like Health and Human Services, Education, or Defense are willing and ready to do their best Rosie the Riveter impersonations in the name of restoring domestic manufacturing. This comes just days after Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick said that it'd be robots that would bring back American manufacturing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/treasury-secretary-says-fired-federal-195	2025/04/09
Trump Tells Americans to Stop Being 'Weak' and 'Stupid' amid Stock Market Crash That Unfolded During His 4-Day Golf Trip	Trump Bullyhit	On Monday, April 7, Trump took to Truth Social and urged Americans to stop being "Panican" — a word he coined for "weak and stupid people." The president arrived in Florida on Thursday, April 3 — the same day that the Nasdaq, the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average all saw the largest single-day drops in stock prices since the COVID-19 pandemic tanked the economy in 2020.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-tells-americans-stop-being-weak-stupid-161137292	2025/04/09
Thousands of North Korean IT workers have infiltrated the Fortune 500—and they keep getting hired for more jobs	National Security	About 95% of the résumés Harrison Leggio gets in response to job postings for his crypto startup gleekeep are from North Korean engineers pretending to be American, the founder estimates. He even once interviewed a job seeker who claimed to have worked at the same Manhattan-based cryptocurrency exchange as he did, during the time he worked there. Nowadays, Leggio told Fortune he won't even set up an interview with a candidate who seems promising on paper unless they agree to one final step.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/thousands-of-north-korean-workers-infiltrate-fortune-500-161137292	2025/04/09
Don't believe the hype: MAGA knows that RFK's 'endorsement' of vaccines is phony	Cesspool	"Say something negative about Kim Jong Un," Leggio tells potential job candidates, referring to the third-generation authoritarian Supreme Leader of North Korea, officially the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK). Through research, Leggio learned including the DPRK's Supreme Leader is forbidden, and North Korean citizens could face serious punishment for showing anything less than reverence. But while Kennedy — or someone working for him — technically wrote those words down, those paying closer attention will notice that is not the message sent to the MAGA base by Kennedy's visit to Texas. If one looks past Kennedy's rote words to his actions, a much different picture emerges, and it becomes clear that he thinks vaccines are for weak, lazy parents. Superior parents, Kennedy suggests, bough kids up by pulling them through the measles rioters. For one thing, Kennedy spent most of his time in Texas celebrating parents who refuse to vaccinate, highlighting how many kids they have who didn't die.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dont-believe-hype-maga-knows-1000066	2025/04/09
Member of Rubio's security team arrested in Brussels after fight with local police	Political Cesspool	A member of the Secretary of State's security team was arrested in Brussels after becoming physically aggressive with a hotel staff member and confrontational with local police, according to a new report. On March 31, a shift supervisor assigned to Rubio's detail reportedly became irate when staff at Hotel Amigo refused to reopen the bar after it had closed. When the staff and night manager tried to tell the staff member to return to his room, he became physically aggressive, the Examiner reports, and law enforcement was called.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/member-rubio-security-team-arrested-17	2025/04/09
FBI creates multiagent bodyguard team to protect Dan Bongino	Political Cesspool	The FBI has issued a call for agents to voluntarily serve as bodyguards for Deputy Director Dan Bongino, a break from past practice in which the bureau's No. 2 officials did not have security details, two current and two former FBI officials familiar with the matter told NBC News.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fbi-creates-multiagent-bodyguard-team-9	2025/04/09
Trump administration weighs drone strikes on Mexican cartels	International relations	The Trump administration is considering launching drone strikes on drug cartels in Mexico as part of an ambitious effort to combat criminal gangs trafficking narcotics across the southern border, according to six current and former U.S. military, law enforcement and intelligence officials with knowledge of the matter.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-weighs-drone-strikes-161137292	2025/04/09
Russia steps up offensive across the front line in Ukraine, in apparent defiance of Trump. What does it mean for the war?	International-Russia	It is not yet clear if this is the start of a major spring offensive by Vladimir Putin's forces, of which Ukraine has been warning for some time. However, it appears to suggest the Russian leader is unconcerned about upsetting US President Donald Trump, who will make up his mind "in a matter of weeks" if the Kremlin is serious about peace. Secretary of State Marco Rubio, said last week.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/russia-steps-offensive-across-front-0461	2025/04/09

U.S. starts monitoring immigrants' social media for antisemitism	Borders and immigration	U.S. officials will screen immigrants' social media accounts for antisemitic content as "grounds for denying" immigration benefit requests, the Trump administration announced in a policy that immediately went into effect Wednesday. The new rule that was criticized by free speech advocacy groups affects green card applicants, foreign students and immigrants "affiliated with educational institutions linked to antisemitic activity," per a U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services post. FBI chief Kash Patel has been replaced as acting director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives by Army Secretary Dan Driscoll, the ATF confirmed on Wednesday night. The Trump administration did not immediately give a reason for the unusual move to place a civilian military leader in charge of a federal law enforcement agency. Driscoll will continue to serve as Army secretary, per multiple reports.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/10/immigrants-social-media-antisemitism	2025/04/10
Kash Patel replaced as acting ATF director by Army Secretary Dan Driscoll	Political Cesspool	The House fell into uncertain territory Wednesday evening after House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) pulled a scheduled vote on a key budget measure in the face of intractable right-wing opposition. The GOP speaker said he doesn't have "any intention to have us working here this weekend," but added, "If we have to come back next week, then we'll do that." The vote was nixed after dozens of conservative fiscal hawks refused to back the Senate version of the budget blueprint that requires far fewer spending cuts than the version the House passed in February.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/10/trump-patel-driscoll-atf-director	2025/04/10
House GOP chaos erupts after Mike Johnson pulls budget vote	Politics- House	A group of House Democrats is launching a concerted campaign to force Elton Musk out of the Trump administration by May 30, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/10/mike-johnson-budget-vote-house-re	2025/04/10
Scope: Democrats launch campaign to oust Musk by June	Fuck that guy	On Sunday at the Detroit Metro Airport, Maked — who is a U.S. citizen — attempted to pass through customs with his wife and children. The rest of his family was able to enter the country without issue. But when Maked's turn came, he overheard one of the agents call for assistance from the "Tactical Terrorism Response Team."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/08/democrats-campaign-oust-elon-musk	2025/04/10
Attorney representing a student protester detained by federal immigration agents	Borders and immigration	Border agents pressured Maked to hand over his cell phone. He refused. After more than 90 minutes of back-and-forth, he eventually showed agents his contacts list. He was eventually released. Maked says he was never given a reason for his detainment. However, one of his current clients is a student who has been charged in connection to a pro-Palestinian protest at the University of Michigan.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/09/mx-1-5357450/attorney-detained-by-ir	2025/04/10
As measles spreads, federal budget cuts force closure of vaccine clinics	Health- Vaccines	Immunization efforts across the country were upended after the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention abruptly canceled $11.4 billion in COVID-related funds for state and local health departments in late March. A federal judge temporarily blocked the cuts last week in some states, including Arizona, after a group of state Attorneys General sued. In addition, many of the organizations that receive the funds said they must proceed as though they're gone.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-headlines/2025/04/10/mx-1-5357	2025/04/10
Pain pathway in a dish could aid search for new analgesic drugs	Health- Pain	Scientists have re-created a pain pathway in the brain by growing four key clusters of human nerve cells in a dish. This laboratory model could be used to help explain certain pain syndromes, and offer a new way to test potential analgesic drugs, a Stanford team reports in the journal Nature. With this new system, known as a brain assembloid, "we have a miniature nervous system that might be a very useful platform," Waxman says.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-headlines/2025/04/10/mx-1-5356	2025/04/10
Trump administration backs off Nvidia's 'H20' chip crackdown after Mar-a-Lago dinner	Trump Bulshit	When Nvidia CEO Jensen Huang attended a $1 million-a-head dinner at Mar-a-Lago last week, a chip known as the H20 may have been on his mind. That's because chip industry insiders widely expected the Trump administration to impose curbs on the H20, the most cutting-edge AI chip U.S. companies can legally sell to China, a crucial market to one of the world's most valuable companies. Following the Mar-a-Lago dinner, the White House reversed course on H20 chips, putting the plan for additional restrictions on hold, according to two sources with knowledge of the plan who were not authorized to speak publicly.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/09/mx-1-5356480/nvidia-china-ai-h20-chip	2025/04/10	corruption, pay to play, bribes
European Union approves new retaliatory tariffs on the U.S.	International relations	All member countries of the European Union except Hungary voted Wednesday in favor of proposals that would impose tariffs on specific U.S. products sold to Europe, starting next week. The vote came just hours before President Trump said on social media that he would pause tariffs on most countries for 90 days but would immediately hike tariffs on China to 125%. But the president isn't the only one seeking to use the courts to punish unflattering news coverage. New York Times deputy investigations editor David Enrich told Morning Edition that local officials and business moguls are also turning to lawsuits or the threat of them with varying degrees of success to silence the press.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/09/mx-1-5357177/european-union-tariffs	2025/04/10
How the powerful are using lawsuit threats to silence media and 'Murder the Truth'	Free speech	There's just a huge power imbalance in a lot of these situations where a local business or a wealthy individual who has, for all intents and purposes, unlimited resources to just drag this out through the court system, send a million threatening letters and grind someone down through the legal process. And it comes at a time when most news organizations and most journalists are operating kind of on a financial knife's edge. And lawyers and law firms recognize that the simplest, safest thing for most journalists to do is often to back down. President Donald Trump is targeting two former first-term appointees over their criticism of his actions, stripping their security clearances and opening federal probes of their tenures. The directives that Trump signed on Wednesday order the Justice Department to scrutinize Chris Krebs, who ran Trump's Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency, and former senior Department of Homeland Security official Miles Taylor.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/09/mx-1-5318045/freedom-of-the-press-ii	2025/04/10
Trump orders investigation of two first-term administration aides who criticized him	Trump Bulshit	The two critics are the latest to be swept up in Trump's expansive retribution campaign, where he's sought to use federal powers in unprecedented ways to punish political opponents, law firms, universities and others that he believes have wronged him.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-orders-investigation-two-first-2228	2025/04/10
The White House says it will not respond to reporters who list identifying pronouns in their email signatures	Free speech	The White House is going to ignore email signatures from reporters who list their preferred pronouns in their email signatures, according to a report from The New York Times.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-says-not-respond-15045642	2025/04/10
RFK Jr. Blames the Sick for Their 'Choices' But Not the Unvaxxed	Political Cesspool	In the case of adults choosing not to get vaccinated, Kennedy didn't say whether, in line with his smoking hypothetical, society should pay to treat people who choose not to get vaccinated and then come down with deadly diseases.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-blames-sick-choices-154156720-nt	2025/04/10
USDA to lose bird flu response employees, source says	Government- USDA	Several U.S. Department of Agriculture employees who worked on the agency's bird flu response will leave at the end of April, straining the federal capacity to monitor the spread of the virus, according to a source familiar with the situation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/usda-lose-bird-flu-response-160156736-nt	2025/04/10
Hegseth says China's military presence in Western Hemisphere is 'too large'	International relations	"China's military has too large of a presence in the Western Hemisphere," Hegseth said. "Make no mistake, Beijing is investing and operating in this region for military advantage and unfair economic gain."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-says-chinas-military-presence-1	2025/04/10
Trump ignites 'insider trading' accusations after global tariffs U-turn	Trump Bulshit	Donald Trump is facing accusations of market manipulation after posting on social media that it was a "great time to buy" just hours before he made a dramatic U-turn on his trade war that led to big rises in stock markets around the world.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/10/donald-trump-ignite	2025/04/10	corruption
Pollen perfils, how heat, thunder and smog are creating deadly, hot fever seasons	Environment- Health	Pollution, rising temperatures, increasing thunderstorms and the spread of invasive species are all transforming the world of pollen, with consequences that vary from place to place and year to year. In turn, these changes are having complex, varied effects on the human body – with sometimes deadly or debilitating consequences.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/apr/10/pollen-perils-how	2025/04/10
Elon Musk's XAI powering its facility in Memphis with 'illegal' generators	Fuck that guy	"I'm here because today we've learned that XAI is using 35 methane gas burning turbines," said Pearson, who is the director of the advocacy group Memphis Community Against Pollution. "They have submitted a permit to our Shelby county health department for 15, yet they are using double that amount with no permit."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/09/elon-musk-xai-mem	2025/04/10
Taliban morality enforcers arrest men for having the wrong hairstyle or skipping mosque, UN says	International- Afghanistan	The Taliban morality police in Afghanistan have detained men and their barbers over hairstyles and others for missing prayers at mosques during the holy month of Ramadan, a U.N. report said Thursday, six months after laws regulating people's conduct came into effect.	https://apnews.com/article/afghanistan-taliban-vice-police-ministry-ban-	2025/04/10
After Ukraine, Trump is now eyeing Pakistan's rare minerals	International relations	After Ukraine, the U.S. is looking at Pakistan in its continued hunt for rare minerals, Islamabad announced on Wednesday. Pakistan has one of the world's largest copper and gold deposits as well as rich quantities of lithium, a key component in batteries.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/asia/us-pakistan-minerals-de	2025/04/10
Trump says pharmaceutical tariffs are coming 'very shortly.' How will this impact the price of drugs?	Economy- Tariffs	President Donald Trump has announced that tariffs on pharmaceuticals are incoming, which means Americans will likely have to pay more for their medicines. Abroad Air Force One last week, he told reporters that "pharma" tariffs would come "at a level you have not really seen before." He added that the tariffs would be reversed "in the future, for sure."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald	2025/04/10
Trump Signs Orders Punishing Those Who Opposed His 2025 Election Lies	Trump Bulshit	Trump administration on Wednesday signed executive orders punishing two officials from his first administration and an elite law firm, continuing a campaign of retribution that he has gleefully carried out since his inauguration.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/09/us/politics/trump-executive-orders	2025/04/11	constitutional crisis, retribution,
She was tracking post-Roe abortions. The government just pulled her funding.	Reproductive rights	Foster received a MacArthur "genius grant" for the Turnaway Study. That piece of research, which examined the impact of restrictions even before the fall of Roe v. Wade, helped shape public understanding of how abortion access can affect people's health and economic well-being by finding that people who were denied abortions were more likely to experience years of poverty compared to those who could terminate their unplanned pregnancies. Foster's new study was meant to build on that research, using quantitative analysis and in-depth interviews to follow people who sought abortions in or outside of the medical system after federal abortion rights were terminated, as well as those who carried their pregnancies to term. Though national data has shown that the number of abortions has gone up since Roe was overturned, little research has examined who is still able to access care in the face of abortion bans, or what it means for people's health and economic well-being when they cannot. The House passed a controversial bill on Thursday that would require Americans to show proof of citizenship in person to register to vote in federal elections, which critics say could disenfranchise millions of eligible voters.	https://10thnews.org/2025/04/abortion-government-funding-flans-gre	2025/04/11
SAVE Act passes House, with 4 Democrats backing bill to require proof of citizenship for voter registration	Voting Fuckery	A 2023 study from the Brennan Center for Justice found that more than 21 million American citizens did not have easy access to documents that would prove their citizenship. Another 3.8 million did not have the documents at all, often because they had been lost, destroyed or stolen. The bill's requirement to show proof of citizenship in person would affect millions more voters who do have the documentation but register by mail or online, the Brennan Center said.	https://www.cbnews.com/news/house-passes-save-act-proof-of-citize	2025/04/11
China says it's raising tariffs on U.S. goods to 125%	Economy- Tariffs	China said Friday that it was raising tariffs on U.S. goods from 64% to 125%, the latest development in the escalating trade war between the two countries. It said the higher tariffs would take effect on Saturday. Responding to a question at Tuesday's daily briefing, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt mentioned President Donald Trump's "idea" to potentially deport "violent" and "heinous" U.S. citizens, adding a seemingly important caveat: "If it legal."	https://www.cbnews.com/news/china-says-it-will-raise-tariffs-on-us-g	2025/04/11
White House floats deporting U.S. citizens. Justice Sotomayor just warned about that.	Citizens	But that doesn't mean it can't happen. Indeed, Justice Sonia Sotomayor warned just a day earlier of the possibility. During a recent five-year period, a substantial portion of maternal deaths in America — almost one-third — took place more than six weeks after childbirth, at a time when most new mothers think they are in the clear, researchers reported on Wednesday.	https://www.mnbc.com/deadline/white-house/deadline-regal-blog/mu	2025/04/11
One-Third of Maternal Deaths Occur Long After Delivery, Study Finds	Reproductive rights	Pregnancy-related death rates in the United States rose almost 28 percent from 2018 to 2022, the researchers found, surging at the height of the Covid-19 pandemic in 2021 before subsiding somewhat.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/09/health/maternal-death-pandemic	2025/04/11
Rescue efforts from Myanmar's deadly earthquake wind down as death toll hits 3,600	Tragic	"Our study illustrates why we can't take our eyes off maternal health," said Dr. Rose L. Molina, an associate professor of obstetrics, gynecology and reproductive biology at Harvard Medical School and one of the study's authors. Long-shot efforts to find survivors from Myanmar's devastating March 28 earthquake were winding down Monday, as rescue efforts were supplanted by increasing relief and recovery activity. The death toll surpassed 3,600 and was still climbing. A situation report issued late Monday by the U.N. Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, or OCHA, said more than 17.2 million people are living in affected areas, and urgently need food, shelter, water, health care, cash assistance and emergency disaster shelter.	https://apnews.com/article/myanmar-ceasefire-military-resistance-earth	2025/04/11
US cites Georgia firm after chemical cloud disrupted life in Atlanta's suburbs	Environment- Pollution	Federal authorities have found that a Georgia company improperly stored hazardous chemicals before a fire southeast of Atlanta last year that produced a toxic chemical cloud over the area — Bickab Inc. was cited for six violations, including four serious violations, and now faces more than $60,000 in proposed penalties, the U.S. Department of Labor said in a statement this week. The Department of Labor's investigation found that improperly stored hazardous chemicals were the cause of the fire, which was investigated by the agency's Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).	https://apnews.com/article/georgia-bickab-chemical-plant-fire-b0728dc	2025/04/11

CDC's cruise ship inspectors laid off amid bad year for outbreaks	Government- CDC	All of the full-time employees in the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Vessel Sanitation Program are now off the job, multiple officials tell CBS News, gutting the agency's ability to investigate outbreaks and conduct health inspections on cruise ships. A smaller group of 12 U.S. Public Health Service officers will remain. The steep cuts to the program's inspectors baffled CDC officials since the small team's staff is not paid for by taxpayer dollars. Fees from cruise ships companies pay for the program, which is supposed to inspect large vessels at least twice a year. The Supreme Court on Thursday said the Trump administration must facilitate the release of a Maryland man mistakenly deported from custody in El Salvador, but ordered additional proceedings before a federal district court. In an unsigned decision, the high court acknowledged that a late Monday deadline set by the district court judge to secure the return to the U.S. of Rómulo Abrego García, a native of El Salvador, and passed by Chief Justice John Roberts had already passed, effectively granting in part the emergency relief sought by the Trump administration. But the court said that the district court's order "properly requires the government to 'facilitate' Abrego García's release from Salvadoran custody and to 'ensure that his case is handled as it would have been had he not been improperly sent to El Salvador.'"	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/cdc-cruise-ship-inspectors-layoffs-out/	2025/04/11
Supreme Court says government must facilitate release of Maryland man mistakenly deported to El Salvador	Borders and immigration	The Supreme Court went on to say that the intended scope of the term "effectuate" in the lower court's decision is unclear and may exceed its authority. The high court directed the district court to provide more clarification with the case sent back for further proceedings. Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene, an ardent supporter of the Trump administration's trade policies, not only bought stocks last week as others dumped them in a panic — she scooped up some of the biggest losers. Lawmakers from both major parties have proposed bills banning members from stock trading because of the apparent conflict of interest in owning shares of companies they can heavily influence with positions they can take in office.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/supreme-court-maryland-man-deported/	2025/04/11
Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene bought stocks hit hard by Trump tariffs during market meltdown	Political Cesspool	But none of the clunkily named bills — The Transparent Representation Upholding Service and Trust in Congress Act, for instance — has been passed. A new bill, The End Congressional Stock Trading Act, was proposed last month. The Social Security Administration this week began to classify thousands of immigrants with temporary legal status and Social Security numbers as dead, according to three sources familiar with the situation. The move essentially cancels an immigrant's Social Security number and is equivalent to a financial death, as financial institutions rely on updated Social Security data to verify identities and deaths and may cut off access for these individuals.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/marjorie-taylor-greene-stocks-trump-tariffs/	2025/04/11	corruption, insider trading
Trump administration invalidates Social Security numbers of immigrants, pushing them to 'self deport'	Borders and immigration	President Trump's whiplash tariffs may have inadvertently achieved his goal of reorienting the global economy by paying investors to sell U.S. assets and move their money elsewhere. When the rest of the world no longer finds U.S. assets attractive, it starts selling, not over a matter of days but over years. That's why the falls we've seen in the stock and bond markets, as well as the dollar, could be the start of a long-term trend.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/11/self-america-trump-tariffs-bonds	2025/04/11
The world's hot new trade is "sell America"	Economy- NWO	That's why the falls we've seen in the stock and bond markets, as well as the dollar, could be the start of a long-term trend. The big picture: What we're seeing in 2025 is setting itself up to be the Reagan revolution in reverse, says David Roiley, a portfolio manager at Loomis Sayles. Mexican President Claudia Sheinbaum cited the three-year drought in a post to X addressing Trump's complaints and said "to the extent water is available, Mexico has been complying" with the treaty.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/11/trump-tariffs-stock-market-bonds-mex	2025/04/11
When the world sells America	Economy- NWO	Mexican President Claudia Sheinbaum cited the three-year drought in a post to X addressing Trump's complaints and said "to the extent water is available, Mexico has been complying" with the treaty. She said she had instructed government officials "to immediately contact" the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the State Department and she's "confident that, as on other issues, an agreement will be reached."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/11/trump-mexico-sanctions-tariffs-thea	2025/04/11
Trump threatens to hit Mexico with more tariffs in water dispute	Economy- Tariffs	The Food and Drug Administration on Thursday said it would begin phasing out animal testing requirements for antibody therapies and other drugs and move toward AI-based models and other tools it deems "human-relevant." FDA said its roadmap envisions using computer modeling and AI to predict a drug's behavior and possible side effects, through software simulations of how a monoclonal antibody distributes through the human body. It also will promote the use of lab-grown human "organoids" and "organ-on-a-chip" technology that mimic the liver, heart, and immune organs to test drug safety and reveal possible toxic effects that can go undetected in animals.
FDA plans to phase out animal testing requirements	Government- FDA	Officials said companies that submit strong safety data from non-animal tests may receive streamlined product reviews. And the FDA will begin using safety data from other countries with comparable regulatory standards to help determine a drug's efficacy. One of Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency lieutenants working in the Social Security Administration has been pushing dubious claims about noncitizens voting, apparently using access to data that court records suggest DOGE isn't supposed to have.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/10/fda-animal-testing-drug-tariffs	2025/04/11
How DOGE may have improperly used Social Security data to push voter fraud narratives	Fuck that guy	While Musk and some Republican lawmakers are now amplifying Graciar's claims online, experts familiar with Social Security say Graciar is mischaracterizing the program and voter registration experts say they doubt the accuracy of his claims about noncitizens voting. Wall Street has been whipsawed for more than a week by President Trump's every word about tariffs. Now he's facing accusations of using his power to deliberately manipulate the markets.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/11nx-ai-5352470/doge-musk-social-secu	2025/04/11
Why some are accusing Trump of manipulating stock markets	Economy- Corruption	1. The bill was first introduced last year as Republicans focused on noncitizen voting 2. Millions of Americans don't have easy access to proof-of-citizenship documents 3. Married women who changed their names would likely face additional requirements 4. Voter registration would likely require a visit to a government office 5. Election officials have concerns about implementation and new criminal penalties 6. Key details are still up in the air 7. States would get more access to federal immigration data 8. States are considering their own proof-of-citizenship laws	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/11nx-ai-5352470/doge-musk-social-secu	2025/04/11
The House has passed the Trump-backed SAVE Act. Here are 8 things to know	Voting Fuckery	1. How Trump has handed tariffs shows the furthest thing from stability and predictability. His team says that's the point, but most don't appear to be buying it. 2. The Supreme Court gives Trump a green light — for now. 3. Trump's legislative agenda gets a big step forward. 4. Trump continues his campaign of retribution.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/11nx-ai-5353406/trump-week-tariffs-trade	2025/04/11
4 takeaways from the week: In a world that craves stability, Trump brings the chaos	Trump Bullshit	Passero attributes New London's renaissance to two things: growth in the submarine industry — and the arrival of offshore wind. Between redeveloping the pier and serving as the staging ground for two of the country's first big projects, offshore wind has created hundreds of jobs and generated millions for the city and local economy. The question is whether it will last.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/10nx-ai-5310007/offshore-wind-trump-ne	2025/04/11
The Northeast bet big on offshore wind. Trump wants to halt the industry entirely	Environment- Green energy	President Trump campaigned on a promise to "end" the U.S. offshore wind industry "on day one." Since he took office the future of the young industry is anything but certain. House Republicans have approved a multibillion-dollar budget framework that allows the party to begin the process of drafting legislation to enact key elements of President Trump's domestic policy agenda — including tax cuts and spending on defense, energy and immigration. The budget blueprint was approved Thursday by a vote of 216 to 214.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/10nx-ai-5310007/offshore-wind-trump-ne	2025/04/11
House approves budget framework, kick-starting work on Trump's domestic agenda	Government Spending	House Republicans have approved a multibillion-dollar budget framework that allows the party to begin the process of drafting legislation to enact key elements of President Trump's domestic policy agenda — including tax cuts and spending on defense, energy and immigration. The budget blueprint was approved Thursday by a vote of 216 to 214. House Reps. Thomas Massie of Kentucky and Victoria Spartz of Indiana joined all Democrats in voting no. "I don't believe they're going to make any cuts of any consequence," Massie said after the vote. "Now they may reduce spending here and increase spending there, but overall, the money spent next year is going to be more than the money spent this year."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/10nx-ai-5353406/house-budget-passage-hu	2025/04/11
RFK Jr. pledges an answer to the 'autism epidemic' by September	Political Cesspool	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. made a significant commitment at Thursday's Cabinet meeting at the White House, saying that his agency will "know what has caused the autism epidemic" by September. "At your direction, we are going to know by September," Kennedy said. "We've launched a massive testing and research effort that's going to involve hundreds of scientists from around the world."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-pledges-answer-autism-21923006	2025/04/11
Trans pilot launches lawsuit against right-wing influencer over DO plans crash	Rainbow threats	Trump commented Kennedy on the September goal, speculating — without scientific backing — that the answer to driving down rates could be "you stop taking something, you stop eating something or maybe it's a shot, but something's causing it." Homeland Security agents attempted to enter two Los Angeles schools this week, in what is believed to be their first such attempt in the city since the Trump administration began its strict immigration crackdown. The agents were denied entry.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trans-pilot-launches-lawsuit-against-1241	2025/04/11
DHS agents denied entry at two Los Angeles schools	Borders and immigration	Perhaps most notably, Isaacman used the appearance to reiterate his commitment to continue to lead the space agency's long-established Artemis program to return astronauts to the surface of the Moon in his opening remarks — while simultaneously prioritizing "sending American astronauts to Mars" as well. All that Moon pomp is interesting, because it immediately puts Isaacman at odds with SpaceX CEO Elon Musk, who has publicly called on NASA to scrap its entire Moon program, calling it a "distraction" earlier this year. Instead, Musk proclaimed that "we're going straight to Mars." "I'm not saying he's insane," a longtime Republican source told me. "But his administration is the most stupid, unprofessional, arrogant and stupid group of people ever assembled in government." Others, however, are saying he's insane.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-agents-denied-entry-two-184724083	2025/04/11
Incoming Head of NASA Defies Elon Musk on Order to Abandon Moon Program	Government- NASA	There are those who don't appreciate Trump's "teef" for anything. "He creates problems and then pretends to solve them," my GOP source, a member of Congress, explained. "He enable him and we haven't learned yet how to battle this stupidity. The country and the world is suffering from the whims of a madman." The Trump administration has weakened both the US government uses to combat foreign-influence campaigns, even as covert attempts by Saudi Arabia and other "malign actors" to influence American policy are growing in "scope, sophistication, and reach", according to a new Senate report.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/coming-head-nasa-defies-elon-153800	2025/04/11
Trump weakens US defenses against foreign interference as risk rises	National Security	The case raises the issue of state open records laws, and whether they apply to police foundations. The private foundations exist in every major US city, with more than 250 nationwide, according to a 2021 report by research and activist groups Little Site and Color of Change. The foundations have been used to pay for surveillance technologies in cities like Baltimore and Los Angeles without the contracts being subject to public scrutiny, according to the report.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/11/trump-foreign-influ	2025/04/11
'Cop City' legal case could cast spotlight on US police foundations' activities	ACAB	In the Atlanta case, a judge is considering 12 hours of testimony, related case law and evidence in a lawsuit that concerns whether records such as board meeting minutes from the Atlanta Police Foundation (APF) are subject to the state's open records law. If they are, they must be released to plaintiffs — a local digital non-profit news outlet and a Chicago-based research organization. A federal judge is allowing the Trump administration to move forward with a requirement that noncitizens in the US must register with the federal government, in a move that could have far-reaching repercussions for immigrants across the country.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/11/copy-city-legal-case	2025/04/11
US Judge allows White House to require noncitizens to register with government	Borders and immigration	A new Kansas law and a Florida bill outline policies backed by abortion opponents that critics see as moves toward giving embryos and fetuses the same rights as the women carrying them. The Kansas Legislature's Republican supermajorities on Thursday overrode Democratic Gov. Laura Kelly's veto of a bill to require that child support payments cover embryos and fetuses and that grant an income tax break for a pregnancy or stillbirth. In Florida, lawmakers are advancing a bill would require parents to seek civil damages for the wrongful death of an embryo or fetus.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/10/trump-register-nonci	2025/04/11
States advance fetal rights measures that critics warn will pave a path for outlawing abortions	Reproductive rights	A top Centers for Disease Control and Prevention official told staff this week to start planning for the agency's splintering. Several parts of CDC — mostly those devoted to health threats that aren't infectious — are being spun off into the soon-to-be-created Administration for a Healthy America, the agency official told senior leadership calls and meetings.	https://nprnews.com/articles/florida-kansas-abortion-fetal-personhood-rev	2025/04/11
CDC officials plan for the agency's splintering, but questions remain	Government- CDC	Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick said Sunday that smartphones and other electronics will be included in future semiconductor sectoral tariffs, two days after the Trump administration said such products, often exempt from China import levies. Pennsylvania Gov. Josh Shapiro (D) said Sunday that he and his family were evacuated from the state Governor's Residence after an arsonist set it on fire.	https://nprnews.com/articles/ark-administration-for-a-healthy-america	2025/04/11
Trump's electronics tariff exemption is temporary, Commerce Secretary says	Economy- Tariffs	Attorneys arguing for the return of a Maryland resident whom the Trump administration erroneously deported to El Salvador highlighted in a Saturday court filing President Trump's comments that he would "bring somebody back" if directed to by the Supreme Court.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/13/trump-tariffs-exemption-electronics-1	2025/04/14
Pennsylvania governor's residence damaged in "act of arson," police say	Cesspool		https://www.axios.com/2025/04/13/shapiro-arsonist-fire-governors-resi	2025/04/14
Mistakenly deported man's attorneys demand his return using Trump's own words	Borders and immigration		https://www.axios.com/2025/04/13/trump-maryland-man-deported-fil-as	2025/04/14

Trump redefines fraud in quest to crush "Deep State"	Trump Bulshit	Blissed by years of civil suits, criminal charges and a historic felony fraud conviction, President Trump is using his second term to delegitimize the very concept of white-collar crime. Trump's belief that he was a victim of "lawfare" has tainted his view of the justice system. Paired with his crusade to crush the "Deep State" regulatory complex, Trump could enable a golden age of financial fraud, ethics watchdogs fear.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/12/trump-redefines-fraud-corruption	2025/04/14
How much federal money your state gets	Government Funding	Federal funding makes up 40% or more of overall revenue in nearly half of U.S. states, per the latest available data. As of 2022, federal funding accounts for the greatest shares of state revenue in Louisiana (50.5%), Alaska (50.2%) and Arizona (49.7%).	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/13/federal-funding-states-map	2025/04/14
Social Security is now an immigration enforcement tool	Government-SSA	The agency responsible for managing the country's retirement system is now in the immigration enforcement business. Getting off the list isn't easy. "There's a whole 'I'm not dead' routine that goes to the agency's processing centers," Marcela Escobar-Alava, the agency's former chief information officer, told Axios earlier this month.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/13/social-security-immigration	2025/04/14	borders and immigration,
RFX urges FDA staff not to be part of "deep state"	Government-FDA	The centers are backlogged, and recent staffing cuts will likely make that worse, she says. Kennedy used an appearance at the agency's Silver Spring, Md., center to urge employees not to be part of the "deep state" — which he asserted exists — and said the FDA had become a "sock puppet" of industries it regulates. FDA "like every agency, became captured by the industry. But in one point really became a sock puppet," he said. He suggested this was a cause of the surge of chronic illness in children — and that he didn't know kids with food allergies or conditions like ADHD and autism when he was young. After generations in which the U.S. dollar and its government securities have been the world's bedrock safe haven assets, global investors woke up this week to the possibility that they are not particularly safe, and not at all a haven.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/12/rfx-fda-staff-deep-state	2025/04/14
The global financial order is shaking beneath our feet	Economy-World	The kinds of shifts in the global trade order and financial markets that usually play out over years were compressed into days since President Trump announced "reciprocal tariffs" on April 2. People will write books about April 2025 the way they have about July 1944, August 1971 or September 2008.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/12/dollar-index-tariffs-global-financial-c	2025/04/14
Trump plan cuts legal help for thousands of migrant kids	Borders and immigration	Tens of thousands of unaccompanied children who are in the U.S. illegally stand to lose legal help for their immigration hearings — and face being deported — because of a little-known Trump budget cut. The $367 million cut takes aim at the legal defense fund designed to help children and teens who've fled violence, lost their parents, or are victims of trafficking. Without lawyers it's extremely difficult for such youths — about 26,000 of them now get this legal aid — to show in court why they should be allowed to stay in the U.S. Those who can't prove their need for asylum are likely to be deported. Since late February, President Trump has used the power of the presidency to punish law firms that he accuses of weaponizing the justice system and undermining the national interest, part of his promised campaign of vengeance against his perceived political enemies.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/12/migrant-child-en-legal-defense-budg	2025/04/14
Trump attacks on law firms begin to chill pro bono work on causes he doesn't like	Trump Bulshit	"I've never seen an administration target firms for their case selection, the clients they select. It really does set a very dangerous precedent of political interference in the legal profession," said Lourdes Rosado, the president and general counsel of LatinoJustice PRLDEF, a New York-based civil rights nonprofit. "The administration's attacks on big law firms really create a climate of fear that could deter firms from taking on these very politically sensitive, yes, pro bono cases that are challenging unconstitutional actions right now."	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/13/g-s-1-58457/trump-law-firms-pro-bono	2025/04/14
More than 30 people killed in Russian missile attack on Ukrainian city of Sumy	International-Ukraine	At least 32 people have been killed in a Russian missile strike on the Ukrainian city of Sumy on Sunday, officials said. Two ballistic missiles struck the heart of the city at around 10.15 a.m. as people gathered to celebrate Palm Sunday, according to officials. Images posted from the scene on official channels showed fires of black body bags lying on the side of the road, while more bodies were seen wrapped in foil blankets among the debris. Video footage also showed fire crews as they fought to extinguish the shells of burnt-out cars among the rubble from damaged buildings.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/13/g-s-1-60056/more-than-30-people-killed	2025/04/14
China put steep tariffs on U.S. exports. Farmers are worried	Economy-Tariffs	Not only tariffs affect the cost of farm supplies, but they also raise the risk of retaliation against exports of U.S. crops: a double-whammy for farmers like PHL. All told, the first Trump administration spent $28 billion bailing out farmers. This time around, the tariffs are much higher than they were six years ago, and it's unclear how long they will persist.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/12/g-s-1-59852/trump-tariffs-farmers-china	2025/04/14
Major budget cuts proposed for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration	Government-NOAA	The agency's budget for 2026 would be slashed by more than 25% overall from its current level of roughly $5 billion before the proposal, which would need to be approved by Congress. The draft cuts to NOAA's research operations and fisheries services are particularly severe.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/11/g-s-1-536136/major-budget-cuts-prog	2025/04/14
Feds to collect personal info of people exchanging, sending money from U.S.-Mexico border	Goodbye Privacy	South Texas residents: If you plan to send money to relatives abroad or cash your paycheck, don't be surprised when you're now asked to give your social security number. Beginning Monday, the Trump administration will require money exchanges like Casa de Cambio and Western Union along the U.S.-Mexico border to document every cash transaction between $200 and $10,000. That means customers will have to provide their social security number or other identification info. Someone who's not a U.S. citizen or resident must show a passport, green card or other official document.	https://www.kernews.org/news/2025-04-10/trump-mexico-border-mon	2025/04/14
Trump has tariffs, taxes, and the debt ceiling on a collision course for this summer	Economy-Crash Course	A 90-day pause on some reciprocal tariffs (expiring July 9), advances in Congress on tax cut plans (with new commitments to pass it by August), and the debt ceiling (potentially breached this summer) are all now firmly pointed toward the sunny season, when these key elements of Trump's economic agenda could come to a head. Trump has, of course, moved many deadlines before and could have flexibility to do the same in coming months on some issues, but others absolutely have to be addressed before the fall, with the economic lot of tariffs already mounting and that debt ceiling deadline coming one way or another.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-has-tariffs-taxes-and-the-debt-c	2025/04/14
New image shows Whitmer hiding face at surprise Trump photo-op	Political Cesspool	A new photo of Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's (D-Md.) surprise visit to the Oval Office emerged in a Saturday New York Times report showcasing the lawmaker covering her face while President Trump spoke to the press. Whitmer, in the Wednesday photo captured by Times photographer Eric Lee, can be seen standing under portraits of Ben Franklin and Thomas Jefferson in the Oval Office with two blue folders shielding her face.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/image-shows-whitmer-hiding-face-20344	2025/04/14
Trump Official Says It's Okay to Destroy Endangered Species Because We Can Just Clone Them	WTF?	On Monday, interior secretary Doug Burgum suggested that the list, which is maintained by the US Fish and Wildlife Service and is a cornerstone of the nation's conservation efforts, needs cleaning out. We should celebrate removing species, not adding them, he said. "The reality is we can't de-extinct extinct creatures because we can't use cloning — the DNA is just not well enough preserved." Nic Rawlence, an associate professor and director of the Paleogenetics Laboratory at New Zealand's University of Otago, told the Washington Post.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-official-says-okay-destroy-1515133	2025/04/14
Republicans plow ahead with anti-abortion agenda in states where voters approved constitutional amendments	Reproductive Rights	In short, hinging the future of thousands of endangered species whose survival already sits on a knife's edge on an unproven technology that is yet to come anywhere near to delivering on its premise is, charitably put, extremely ridiculous. Even as Republicans swept into power in Washington in last year's elections, abortion rights supporters found success at the ballot box across the country. But that hasn't deterred abortion opponents. Republican lawmakers have moved forward this year with bills to restrict abortion in more than half of the states where voters passed constitutional amendments in November to protect or expand reproductive rights.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-plow-ahead-anti-abortion-10	2025/04/14
The reason for an outburst of deadly storms early in the year could be lurking in the ocean	Environment-Storms	The US is the global hotpot for severe thunderstorms and tornadoes because it happens to be where all the necessary atmospheric ingredients for them converge in abundance. The Gulf is a potent source of very moist, warm air that creates the energy that fuels thunderstorms. Powerful storms fire up when that air rushes north and clashes with cold air slicing south from Canada. This happens most often in an area from the Plains to just west of the Appalachians. Generally, the warmer the air and the more moisture it can hold, the stronger and heavier the resulting thunderstorms become. And the Gulf has been chock full of warmth. It has remained warmer than normal this year after it hit record levels in portions of 2024 and 2023, according to data from the Climate Change Institute at the University of Maine. Both years also had prolific severe thunderstorm action early in the season.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/reason-outburst-deadly-storms-early-164	2025/04/14
Trump administration contends it has no duty to return illegally deported man to US	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration insisted Sunday that it has no legal obligation to arrange for the return of a Maryland man illegally deported from the United States, arguing that a Supreme Court ruling last week only requires officials to admit him into the country if he makes it back from a high-security prison in El Salvador. The Smithsonian Institution museum opened with much fanfare nine years ago and has been lauded for its mission to share the good and the bad of the Black experience in America, including slavery. Now, it's also in the sights of President Donald Trump, who called its work part of a "widespread effort to rewrite our nation's history."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-contents-no-duty-2	2025/04/14
Trump sets sights on national African American history museum	Information Blackout	The museum, which hosted 1.6 million visitors in 2024, serves as a cornerstone in the preservation of African American history, a number of community leaders and organizations said in its defense.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-sets-sights-national-african-10033	2025/04/14
Trump-appointed official who oversaw dismantling of USAID leaves State Department	Government-USAID	Pete Marrocco, the Trump administration official who played a major role in dismantling the U.S. Agency for International Development, has left the State Department, a U.S. official said on Sunday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-official-oversaw-closure-usaid-215	2025/04/14
Social Security's announcements are leaving its website and moving to X, reports	Fuck that guy	Sources told Reuters that Marrocco, who was the director of foreign assistance at the State Department, may have been pushed out, but they declined to give further explanation. Weeks after the Social Security Administration said it was increasing transparency and accountability, the agency is reportedly moving its communications off of its website and onto the Elon Musk-owned social-media platform X.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/social-security-announcements-leaving-a	2025/04/14
As RFX Jr. defends cuts to public health, experts warn of devastating effects that could haunt Americans for decades	Government-Health	"What concerns me the most is how difficult the rebuild is going to be once things finally turn around," says Ursula Bauer, a former disease prevention executive at the federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). "The forced exodus of highly skilled, highly educated researchers, scientists and professionals from the federal government is really just extraordinary...it is going to take decades to rebuild." "They're breaking lots of stuff without knowing what they're breaking," says Georges Benjamin, longtime executive director of the American Public Health Association, the largest organization of public health officials in the world. "This results in the loss of really critical infrastructure, denaturing the workforce. And the part that they're breaking is the part that gives you the best buy for your health."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfx-jr-defends-cuts-public-12000113.htm	2025/04/14
Fears over extremism in US military as soldier revealed as neo-Nazi. TikTok follows	Extremism	An active-duty serviceman in the US army is openly following a proscribed neo-Nazi terrorist group on social media, one that has vowed to recruit soldiers in preparation for a so-called race war. On the surface, following a TikTok account might seem like a minor infraction for a young private in the 1st Infantry Division. But not only has that private followed the Base, a violent neo-Nazi terrorist organization once the target of an FBI investigation, there are directives issued under Joe Biden that discourages that kind of social media activity.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/14/us-military-extremis	2025/04/14
Critics slam deregulation of crypto as Trump family expands its footprint in industry	Economy-Crypto	But in February, the DoD issued a memo halting a major counter-extremism initiative rooted in white nationalists and far-right influences among servicemen, citing that it was not in line with Donald Trump's executive orders. Since, the efficacy of rooting out the far right within the ranks remains unclear. As Donald Trump's administration has cut regulations for the cryptocurrency industry, the crypto firm World Liberty Financial, in which the Trump family has a large financial stake, has grown quickly by launching its own "stablecoin" and another digital token, prompting watchdogs and experts to warn of Trump's conflicts of interest and economic hazards. Some key congressional Democrats and watchdogs are raising new red flags about the US president's growing conflicts of interest involving cryptocurrencies and risks to investors and the economy posed by multiple deregulatory crypto actions at federal agencies.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/14/critics-slam-deregul	2025/04/14	corruption

		The administration is planning to slash budgets at both the US National Oceanic and Atmospheric Agency (Noaa) and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (Nasa), according to internal budget documents, taking aim specifically at programs used to study impacts from the climate crisis. Craig McLean, a longtime director of the office of oceanic and atmospheric research (OAR) who retired in 2022, told the Guardian that the cuts were draconian and would 'compromise the safety, economic competitiveness, and security of the American people'.
Documents reveal Trump's plan to gut funding for Nasa and climate science	Government- NASA	All budgets for climate, weather and ocean laboratories would be drained, according to the document reviewed by the Guardian, which states: "At the funding level, OAR is eliminated as a line office." The US has deported another 10 people that it alleges are gang members to El Salvador, secretary of state Marco Rubio said on Sunday, a day before that country's president is due to visit the White House.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025/apr/11/trump-climate-scien	2025/04/14
US deports 10 more alleged gang members to El Salvador, says Rubio	Due Process	It comes as US officials said in court filings on Sunday that they were not obliged to help a Maryland resident get out of prison in El Salvador after he was erroneously deported, despite a supreme court ruling directing the government to "facilitate" his return to the US. Donald Trump has authorized the military to take control of land at the US-Mexico border as part of the president's broader efforts to crack down on undocumented immigration. "Our southern border is under attack from a variety of threats," the order claimed. "The complexity of the current situation requires that our military take a more direct role in securing our southern border than in the recent past."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/13/us-deportations-el-s	2025/04/14
Trump authorizes US military to take control of land at US-Mexico border	Constitutional Crisis	The memorandum added that the Department of Defense should be given jurisdiction to federal lands, including the Roosevelt Reservation, a 60ff-wide strip that stretches over California, Arizona and New Mexico. Doing that would give troops stationed there the legal right to detain immigrants accused of trespassing on what in effect is an elongated base – and unauthorized immigrants would be left in custody until they could be turned over to immigration agents. Donald Trump is undermining the fundamental right to due process from several directions, whether by intimidating law firms, defying and threatening judges, or attempting to defund children's attorneys. The aim appears to be to cut off immigrants' access to legal representation, while the effect is to erode their civil liberties. The end result is that it's easier to deport people – and along the way the streamlining also makes it more likely that miscalculations will occur that separate families or return victims to the persecutors – or both.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/12/trump-military-cont	2025/04/14
Trump's attacks on immigrants threaten the fundamental right to due process	Due Process	Paramilitaries in Sudan have murdered more than 200 civilians in a wave of attacks in displacement camps and around the city of El Fasher, the last big city still in the hands of the Sudanese army in the Darfur region. The UN said killings were continuing at two large displacement camps, including of the entire medical staff of Relief International, which was operating the only remaining clinic inside Zanzam camp. RSF forces were said to be burning buildings throughout Zanzam on Sunday, claiming they were seeking Sudanese government fighters hiding in the camps.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/13/sudan-rsf-kills-civilian	2025/04/14
More than 200 civilians killed as Sudan's RSF attacks Darfur displacement camps	Tragic	Inspired by the political philosopher Albert Hirschman, figures including Goff, Thiel and the investor and writer Balaji Srinivasan have been championing what they call "exit" – the principle that those with means have the right to walk away from the obligations of citizenship, especially taxes and burdensome regulation. Retelling and rebranding the old ambitions and privileges of empires, they dream of splintering governments and carving up the world into hyper-capitalist, democracy-free havens under the sole control of the supremely wealthy, protected by private mercenaries, serviced by AI robots and financed by cryptocurrencies. Interestingly, at a time when previously secular Silicon Valley elites are suddenly finding Jesus, it is noteworthy that both of these visions – the priority-pass corporate state and the mass-market bunker nation – share a great deal in common with the Christian fundamentalist interpretation of the biblical Revelations, where the faithful will supposedly be lifted up to a golden city in heaven, while the damned are left to endure an apocalyptic final battle down here on earth.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/13/sudan-rsf-kills-civilian	2025/04/14
The rise of end times fascism	Extremism	The prosecutor believes that left unspoken, the boy was on a trajectory to possibly becoming a "completely dehumanized soldier" who risked joining the ranks of digitally radicalized teenagers in France and beyond who are hatching terror plots and expressing support for extremism. The huge library of violent content, several terabytes of data, that the boy amassed included video tutorials on bomb-making, the prosecutor said. Across Europe and further afield, the picture is similar: Counterterrorism agencies are grappling with a new generation of attackers, plotters and acolytes of extremism who are younger than ever and have fed on ultraviolent and potentially radicalizing content largely behind their screens. Some are appearing on police radars only when it's already too late – with knife in hand, as they're carrying out an attack.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/13/trump-immigration	2025/04/14
Via porn, gore and ultra-violence, extremist groups are sinking hooks online into the very young	Extremism	A United States citizen was mistakenly looped into a Department of Homeland Security email that ordered her to self-deport from the U.S. "immediately." Nicole Micheron, an immigration attorney and partner at the Massachusetts firm Cameron Micheron & Silva, was stunned by the official email Friday morning and initially believed it was intended for one of her clients.	https://apnews.com/article/technology-pornfilm-terror-islamic-state-pd	2025/04/14
'We will find you': Massachusetts attorney and US citizen told to self-deport by DHS	Borders and immigration	The memo was genuine and is part of the fresh crackdown ordered by President Donald Trump to remove thousands of undocumented immigrants. Elon Musk has admitted his Department of Government Efficiency may only cut $150 billion in spending – just 15 percent of his original $1 trillion goal. DOGE continues to publicly report its savings on its website, labeling it the "Wall of Receipts." The site, which was last updated Tuesday, is heavily error-ridden and shows a total of $150 billion in estimated savings, according to the Times. While DOGE has cleared up some mistakes – including entries that mistakenly triple-counted some savings or reported billion when they meant million – others still remain, the outlet reports. Musk's $1 trillion goal has been clearly impossible for a while. Last month, The New Yorker reported that DOGE would only save $245.8 billion a year if it fired every single federal worker outside the military or USPS.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/nicole	2025/04/14
Musk admits that DOGE may only cut 15 percent of its stated $1 trillion goal - and even that figure may be high	Fuck that guy	The question is preposterous," Bukele said during a news conference with President Trump. "How can I smuggle a terrorist into the United States? I don't have the power to return him to the United States." Bukele also said he would not release him within El Salvador.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m	2025/04/14
Releasing wrongly deported man 'preposterous,' El Salvador's president says	Borders and immigration	"He is a citizen of El Salvador," Deputy Chief of Staff Stephen Miller added. "So it's very arrogant, even, for American media to suggest that we would even test El Salvador how to handle their own citizens."	https://www.fox.com/2025/04/14/day-bukele-kymar-atrego-garcia-b	2025/04/15
Jewish people fear scapegoating as Trump invokes antisemitism to justify crackdowns	Free speech	President Trump's invocation of antisemitism to justify everything from slashing college funds to deporting student protesters risks making Jewish people scapegoats for his policies, community leaders warn. Why it matters: Immigration crackdowns under the Trump administration are spreading fear – causing people to skip work, straining businesses, and leaving families without income. The latest: Anxiety is rising among undocumented workers after the IRS agreed to share data with ICE, leaving many worried that paying taxes could now be used against them. The industries that rely on this shadow workforce include construction, agriculture, hospitality and retail.	https://www.fox.com/2025/04/14/trump-antisemitism-scapegoat-imm	2025/04/15
America's shadow economy shrinks due to deportation fears	Shadow economy	If those sectors lose workers, "American consumers are going to see higher prices," says Patricia Campos-Medina, executive director of the Worker Institute at Cornell's School of Industrial and Labor Relations. A 5.2 magnitude earthquake hits California near San Diego	https://www.fox.com/2025/04/14/immigrants-workers-fear-ice-econo	2025/04/15
5.2-magnitude earthquake hits California near San Diego	Environment Earthquake	Then, according to three people with direct knowledge of the events, he placed five government-issued laptops on a conference table and requested a sixth computer that would give him access at the IRS. At the time, court records show, Kiger held two job titles at the Office of Personnel Management, as well as positions at the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. He was also working on dismantling the U.S. Agency for International Development. Earlier this month, according to a person with knowledge of the matter, Kiger showed up at the Federal Trade Commission, too. Kiger is not alone. His expanding portfolio – which now includes jobs in as many as seven federal offices – is typical of at least a handful of DOGE staffers. The orthodox practice affords acolytes of billionaire Elon Musk authority across broad swaths of government, as well as access to an array of confidential information, including tax documents, federal workforce records and consumer data. But it's easy enough to make these declarations when you've pre-determined your conclusion, and the only work left is to generate some fake statistics to back up that preordained "discovery." In the spirit of open-mindedness, I suppose I should pretend we must wait to see whatever nonsense is produced before judging it. In the spirit of common sense, however, there is no point in playing dumb. Kennedy has already indicated what he expects the "findings" to be: that vaccines do it, even though all legitimate science shows that is false. To make sure no real science accidentally happens, he has put a non-scientist/non-doctor in charge of this non-study. David Geier, a man who has been fired for practicing medicine without a license. Worse, his "treatments" of children are better described as pointless torture. Kennedy's attack on science is despicable. But what may be even worse is his full-blown assault on the health and well-being of American children. His fixation on playing games with the bodies of vulnerable kids has a sadistic and eugenicist edge to it. Before confirming him, Senate Republicans should have listened to Caroline Kennedy, when she called her cousin "a predator" who enjoys "a perverse scene of despair and violence." She discussed how he would get a kick out of feeding baby chickens and mice into a blender to feed his hawks.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/5-2-earthquake-strikes-california-173907	2025/04/15
RFK's pledge to discover the "cause" of autism isn't just a ploy — it's a war on children's health	Political Cesspool	While much of the country is focused on the spiraling measles outbreak concentrated in the small, dusty towns of West Texas, cases of pertussis have skyrocketed by more than 1,500% nationwide since hitting a recent low in 2021 amid the COVID-19 pandemic. Deaths tied to the disease are also up, hitting 10 last year, compared with about two to four in previous years. Cases are on track to exceed that total this year. Doctors, researchers and public health experts warn that the measles outbreak, which has grown to more than 600 cases, may just be the beginning. They say outbreaks of preventable diseases could get much worse with falling vaccination rates and the Trump administration slashing spending on the country's public health infrastructure.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-pledge-discover-cause-autism-09594	2025/04/15
'Not just measles': Whooping cough cases are soaring as vaccine rates decline	Health- whooping cough	President Donald Trump said on Monday he wants to deport some violent criminals who are U.S. citizens to Salvadoran prisons, a move that experts said would violate U.S. law. Trump's comments marked the clearest signal yet that the U.S. president is serious about deporting naturalized and U.S.-born citizens, a proposal that has alarmed civil rights advocates and is viewed by many legal experts as unconstitutional. Harvard University said on Monday that it will not comply with a new list of demands from the Trump administration (issued last week) that the government says are designed to crack down on antisemitism and alleged civil rights violations at elite academic institutions. Rauenhorst is one of many graduating seniors whose post-grad plans have been disrupted by the Trump administration's efforts to drastically shrink the federal government. As President Trump seeks to dismantle whole agencies, college seniors have been terminated from internships that had the potential to become full-time roles. Others have had job offers rescinded after the administration has firing across the federal government.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-wants-deport-us-citizens-1816423	2025/04/15
Trump calls for deporting some citizens to El Salvador, testing US law	Constitutional Crisis	USAID used to administer most of America's foreign aid – 61% of the $71 billion total budget in 2023. But since taking office in January, the Trump administration has laid off thousands of its employees, and cut 85% of USAID programs – including staff and programs working to help Myanmar. On Wednesday, they also announced that all foreign staff would be laid off. "Not only did the United States only send a pittance amount of assistance, it sent only three workers, which then subsequently were fired while they were on the ground in Myanmar providing assistance."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/harvard-says-not-yield-trump-19300781	2025/04/15
Harvard says it will not 'yield' to Trump demands over $8bn in funding cuts	Free speech	President Donald Trump said on Monday he wants to deport some violent criminals who are U.S. citizens to Salvadoran prisons, a move that experts said would violate U.S. law. Trump's comments marked the clearest signal yet that the U.S. president is serious about deporting naturalized and U.S.-born citizens, a proposal that has alarmed civil rights advocates and is viewed by many legal experts as unconstitutional. Harvard University said on Monday that it will not comply with a new list of demands from the Trump administration (issued last week) that the government says are designed to crack down on antisemitism and alleged civil rights violations at elite academic institutions. Rauenhorst is one of many graduating seniors whose post-grad plans have been disrupted by the Trump administration's efforts to drastically shrink the federal government. As President Trump seeks to dismantle whole agencies, college seniors have been terminated from internships that had the potential to become full-time roles. Others have had job offers rescinded after the administration has firing across the federal government.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-doge-federal-hiring-1622469	2025/04/15
Elon Musk, DOGE, and the Federal Hiring Freeze Have Upended the Careers of Young People	Government Jobs	USAID used to administer most of America's foreign aid – 61% of the $71 billion total budget in 2023. But since taking office in January, the Trump administration has laid off thousands of its employees, and cut 85% of USAID programs – including staff and programs working to help Myanmar. On Wednesday, they also announced that all foreign staff would be laid off. "Not only did the United States only send a pittance amount of assistance, it sent only three workers, which then subsequently were fired while they were on the ground in Myanmar providing assistance."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/myanmar-deadly-earthquake-exposes-us	2025/04/15
Myanmar's deadly earthquake exposes void left by US in global disaster responses	International Relations	President Donald Trump has again called for CBS to lose its license and warned the network will "pay a big price" for its latest 60 Minutes broadcast. "It seems to me that the vice president is somehow justifying Putin's action," Zelensky said of Russian President Vladimir Putin, who declared war on Ukraine in February 2022. Zelensky said that the U.S. was still a strategic, strong partner of Ukraine despite its shift in "tone" and "reality" and invited Trump to visit his country to witness the devastation firsthand.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-freezes-cbs-substantia/punishm	2025/04/15
Trump threatens CBS with 'substantial punishment' over latest 60 Minutes broadcast	Dictators

		Unemployment concerns are on the rise among American workers as fears about the labor market in March reached levels last seen during the pandemic, according to a new survey released by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York on Monday. The average expected likelihood of becoming unemployed in the next 12 months increased by 1.6 percentage points in March to 15.7%, the highest level since March 2024. The increase was largest for respondents with annual household incomes below $50,000. Meanwhile, the average probability of leaving one's job voluntarily in the next 12 months ticked up only slightly, rising by 0.4 percentage points to 10%, far below the 12-month trailing average of 19.7%.
Americans braced for biggest unemployment rate jump since the pandemic as tariffs muddy outlook	Economy-Jobs	In a cable sent Friday to all U.S. diplomatic missions, Rubio asked that staffers report any perceived discriminatory actions taken against Christians or employees advocating on their behalf between January 2021 and January 2025. The cable, copies of which were obtained by The Associated Press, says that all reported allegations will be investigated by a government-wide task force on anti-Christian bias and if discrimination is found the culprits may be disciplined. It also makes clear that allegations can be submitted anonymously. The week you say you're? It almost certainly relies on the observational data that NOAA collects from dozens of doppler radars across the U.S., geostationary satellites, its weather balloon network, surface stations, buoys out in the ocean and more. If NOAA can't operate at its usual levels, the forecasts you get from that app could become a lot less accurate. NOAA and the National Weather Service have been disrupted by the Trump administration in various ways, and things may continue to get worse as firings and budget cuts continue. Weather balloon launches are being reduced across the country, some technology updates are on hold, there are concerns about maintaining the tornado and hurricane warning systems, and more. Recently, the administration released a budget that would massively cut weather and climate research. Furthermore, it's not clear that the work DOGE is doing will in any way reduce government spending — one of its stated goals. The entire National Weather Service has a budget of around $1.5 billion, and the work the agency does saves the country tens of billions of dollars.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/americans-braced-for-biggest-unemp-130	2025/04/15
State Department wants staff to report instances of alleged anti-Christian bias during Biden's term	Political Cesspool	While an immigration judge's ruling that Columbia University graduate Mahmoud Khalil — a legal permanent resident — can be deported is a victory for the Trump administration, the legal battle against his detention and deportation is far from over. The decision by Assistant Chief Immigration Judge James Comans in Louisiana on Friday came after the federal government submitted what it said was evidence alleging Khalil's "beliefs, statements or associations" made him deportable. The roller coaster of hearings and reinstatements, as well as the fear and uncertainty suffered by Gioia and his colleagues, have taken a toll. "For some of us, the time has come to step away before this experience completely erodes what remains of our well-being," Gioia told Reuters. Several other federal employees told Reuters they are taking this second buyout offer, saying that many civil servants are suffering from nervous exhaustion after three months of chaos and cuts driven by Musk's Department of Government Efficiency.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/state-department-wants-staff-report-1831	2025/04/15
Is Trump Going to Screw Up America's Weather Forecasting?	Environment-Weather	Just weeks into the new term, the Trump administration has proposed alarming changes to multiple immigration forms, including the naturalization application. These changes include requiring immigrants to disclose all of their social media usernames and provide personal information about family members, even if those relatives are undocumented and the information is irrelevant to the merit of a naturalization application. The government is also forcing permanent residents to choose between disclosing personal information about people they care about, possibly risking their deportation, and accessing naturalization.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-going-screw-america-weather-130	2025/04/15
Judge has ruled legal permanent US resident Mahmoud Khalil can be deported. What comes next?	Borders and immigration	In a preliminary order issued over the weekend likely designed to split the baby, a federal district court in North Carolina has told North Carolina election officials that they should follow a state court's ruling to figure out which of thousands of military and overseas ballots cast by North Carolina voters should be thrown out in a dispute over the winner of a November state Supreme Court election. But the federal court also told election officials not to certify the winner of that election until it can decide if the state court-ordered remedy is unconstitutional. This is a recipe for disaster. The federal court should have heeded the advice of Justice Antonin Scalia in the 2000 Bush v. Gore case about not allowing a questionable redo of vote totals to be announced before there's been a ruling on the legality of the redo. The judge's order in North Carolina could well lead people to believe the state Supreme Court election was stolen no matter what happens.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/immigration-judge-clears-way-act/lat-07	2025/04/15
Exhausted government workers decide to take Trump's second buyout offer	Government Jobs	A progressive Democratic lawmaker is seeking a simple but jarring remedy of last resort for California's college students navigating the state's housing crisis. Let them sleep in their cars. Assemblymember Corey Jackson, a Southern California Democrat who has a doctorate in social work, said lawmakers can build long-term solutions while offering an immediate stopgap for a "worst case scenario." His proposal, which cleared its first committee last month, would require community colleges and the California State University system to plan for an overnight parking program for students.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/exhausted-government-workers-decide-t	2025/04/15
Opinion - Citizenship and naturalization are under attack	Borders and immigration	With the aid of Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency team, Trump appears to be attempting an end run that could succeed where his past attempts failed: by simply terminating the consulting contract that the Department of Energy relies on to develop and enforce the rules. In late March, DOGE's "wall of receipts" stated that it had "deleted" a Department of Energy contract for Guidelineco LLP (a PrincetonUniversityCoppers spinoff) for "Appliance Standards Analysis and Regulatory Support Service," producing a listed savings of $247,603,000. That item has now disappeared from the DOGE website, and its current status remains unclear. In January, days before Trump returned to office, a Department of Energy report estimated that the efficiency standards are now saving the average American household about $278 a year on the utility bills, while cutting the nation's energy consumption by 6.5% and water consumption by 12%. A 2022 survey by the Consumer Federation of America found that 76% of Americans support the government setting efficiency standards for appliances. None of that has slowed Trump's attacks. During his first term, the Department of Energy ignored legal deadlines for considering efficiency updates on 28 products, blocked the long-planned rollout of new lightbulb rules and sought to bypass finalized appliance standards through byzantine legal maneuvers. Among other things, the Energy Department announced special new "product classes" for dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers that completed their "normal" cycle in an hour or less. This would exempt any such "short-cycle" devices that were introduced from the existing limits on water and energy use.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-citizenship-naturalization-under-a	2025/04/15
We're Getting Dangerously Close to a Losing North Carolina Candidate Being Declared the Winner	Voting Fucker	Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s purge of tens of thousands of federal workers has halted efforts to collect data on everything from cancer rates in firefighters to mother-to-baby transmission of HIV and syphilis to outbreaks of drug-resistant gonorrhea to cases of carbon monoxide poisoning. "Surveillance capabilities are crucial for identifying emerging health issues, directing resources efficiently, and evaluating the effectiveness of existing policies," said Jerome Adams, who served as surgeon general in the first Trump's administration. "Without robust data and surveillance systems, we cannot accurately assess whether we are truly making America healthier." The offices that run the Sicke Cell Data Collection Program, the National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey, the Pregnancy Risk Assessment Monitoring System and the National Firefighter Registry for Cancer were scrapped. So were teams that reported how many abortions are performed nationwide, the levels of lead in children's blood, alcohol-related deaths, asthma rates, exposures to radon and other dangerous chemicals, how many people with HIV are taking medication to suppress the virus, and how many people who use injectable drugs contract infectious diseases. A rapidly expanding sector of the tech industry is flocking to Georgia. Known as 'data centers,' the warehouse-sized facilities help power the modern connected era. But all that computing can come at a cost to Georgia's environment. "They're hugely resource intensive," said Amy Sharma, executive director of the science advocacy group Science for Georgia. "To keep them running, Chetlappa said many data centers require copious amounts of water to feed their cooling systems." "A large data center might use upwards of 200 million gallons annually," he said. That's the equivalent of doses to 2,000 homes, according to one Environmental Protection Agency estimate. Georgia is being that draw on its water system more than most other states. Dan Diorio is the Senior Director of State Policy at the Data Center Coalition, an industry advocacy group. According to Diorio, Georgia is among the nation's leading states for data centers. "Georgia's definitely in the top three," he said. Hepatitis B is preventable, and hepatitis C is curable. But the U.S. capacity to battle these viral scourges has been leveled a devastating blow with the April 1 closure of the country's premier testing laboratory for viral hepatitis, experts warned. The lab was one of the targets of this month's Department of Health and Human Services reductions in force, or RIFs, which slashed about 18% of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's workforce and abruptly terminated many of the public health programs conducted by the Atlanta-based agency.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/we-are-getting-dangerously-close-losing-north-14	2025/04/15
How bad is California's housing crisis? A first-in-the-nation bill would let students live in cars	Economy-Housing	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/04/13/cal-students-living-in-cars-00	2025/04/15
Beyond Showerheads: Trump's Attempts to Kill Appliance Regulations Cause Chaos	Trump Bullshit	The CDC's efforts to track and respond to outbreaks of hepatitis B and C have been severely hampered by the loss of the CDC's viral hepatitis lab, which was one of the targets of the administration's massive layoffs. The CDC's efforts to track and respond to outbreaks of hepatitis B and C have been severely hampered by the loss of the CDC's viral hepatitis lab, which was one of the targets of the administration's massive layoffs.	https://www.propublica.org/article/trump-showers-heads-appliances-led-it	2025/04/15
We are flying blind: RIFK Jr.'s cuts halt data collection on abortion, cancer, HIV and more	Government-Public Health	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/04/13/abortions-cancer-in-firefight	2025/04/15
Data center boom impacting Georgia's water resources	Environment-Technology	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.11alive.com/article/news/investigations/11alive-news-invest	2025/04/15
Closure of CDC hepatitis lab imperils U.S. outbreak response, prevention	Government-Public Health	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.statnews.com/2025/04/14/cdc-hepatitis-lab-closes-if-outbr	2025/04/15
CDC cruise inspectors laid off as ship arrives in Florida with norovirus outbreak	Government-Public Health	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.tampabay.com/news/florida/2025/04/14/norovirus-outbreak	2025/04/15
Trump officials step up defiance over man wrongly deported to El Salvador	Due Process	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/14/trump-el-salvador-d	2025/04/15
US begins inquiry into pharmaceutical and chip imports in bid to impose tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/14/trump-pharmaceuti	2025/04/15
'The last thread connecting people to services': why vets are risking all to care for Gaza's donkeys	International-Gaza	Alden's team operates a mobile clinic that has treated more than 7,000 donkeys and thousands of other animals since the outbreak of the current war in Gaza in October 2023. Donkeys are a lifeline for many Palestinians in Gaza. Israel's bombardment has decimated Gaza's infrastructure, destroying roads and leaving few functioning vehicles, while its blockade of the Palestinian territory makes fuel for transport difficult to find. Donkeys have filled the gap, used to transport goods and people — as they search daily for food, water and fuel, to get to hospitals and to transport them with their belongings each time Israeli forces order thousands to leave an area.	https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2025/apr/15/palestini	2025/04/15
Deadly floods and storms affected more than 400,000 people in Europe in 2024	Environment-Flooding	The CDC employees whose jobs were cut out were responsible for monitoring, tracking and assisting with gastrointestinal outbreaks on cruise ships. The epidemiologist tasked with leading the federal agency's outbreak response on cruise ships also was included in the layoffs, CDC officials told CBS News. The cuts are problematic for Florida, where passengers disembark from cruise ships with gastrointestinal viruses and often travel through airports. The CDC documented a dozen outbreaks on ships in just the first four months of 2025, mostly from norovirus. Ten of those ships departed from, or docked in, Florida or both. The outbreaks involved as many as hundreds of passengers and crew members falling ill with symptoms like vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal cramps. Miller's remarks went beyond the barbed reading offered by the U.S. attorney general, Pam Bondi, who also characterized the supreme court order as only requiring the administration to provide transportation to Abrego Garcia if released by El Salvador. "That's up to El Salvador if they want to return him. That's up to them," Bondi said. "The supreme court ruled that if El Salvador wants to return him, we would facilitate it, meaning provide a plane."	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/apr/15/europe-storms-	2025/04/15

Pennsylvania arson suspect planned to beat governor with hammer, documents say ‘Silicon Six’ accused of avoiding almost $278bn in US corporation taxes over 10 years	Terrorism Welfare queens	A man who authorities said scaled an iron security fence in the middle of the night, eluded police and broke into the Pennsylvania governor’s mansion — where he set a fire — had planned to beat the governor, Josh Shapiro, with a hammer if he found him because he hates the politician, according to court documents released on Monday. The big Amazon tech firms known as the “Silicon Six” have been accused of paying almost $278bn (£211bn) less corporate income tax in the past decade compared with the statutory rate for US companies making the same profits.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/14/suspect-arson-penw https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/15/silicon-six-accused	2025/04/15 2025/04/15
Despite a court order, White House bars AP from Oval Office event	Constitutional Crisis	Despite a court order, a reporter and photographer from The Associated Press were barred from an Oval Office news conference on Monday with President Donald Trump and his counterpart from El Salvador, Nayib Bukele. Last week’s federal court decision forbidding the Trump administration from punishing the AP for refusing to rename the Gulf of Mexico was to take effect Monday. The administration is appealing the decision and arguing with the news outlet over whether it needs to change anything until those appeals are exhausted.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-ap-press-freedom-court-gulf-cafed332a	2025/04/15
Two dead, another infected, as rare brain disease reported in one Oregon county	Health: Creutzfeldt-jakob	Two people are believed to have died of a rare, incurable brain disease within months of each other in a single Oregon county. Health officials said in a recent statement that three cases of Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease have been found in Hood River County, 70 miles east of Portland, in the past eight months. Creutzfeldt-Jakob causes rapidly intensifying symptoms that present movement disorders and behavioral changes, similar to Alzheimer’s. The rare and deadly disorder is caused by infectious proteins called prions, which can cause small holes in the brain that resemble sponges under a microscope. In rare cases, Variant Creutzfeldt-Jakob Disease is linked to eating infected beef from cows with a related disease. Donald Trump has once again floated the idea of jailing U.S. citizens in El Salvador’s brutal prisons — this time from inside the White House in front of Salvadoran president Nayib Bukele. “The home grows. You gotta build about five more places,” he said. “It’s not big enough.”	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/creutzfeldt-jakob-d	2025/04/15
‘Home grows are next’: Trump tells El Salvador president to build more jails for U.S. citizens	Due Process	“I just asked the president — it’s this massive complex that he built, just complex — I said, “Can you build some more of them please? As many as we can get out of our country.” Trump said reporters. A U.S. citizen who voted for Donald Trump was detained by armed immigration agents during a stop in Virginia in March. A toddler, his mother, and his grandmother, all U.S. citizens from Puerto Rico, were detained while speaking Spanish while shopping in Milwaukee. U.S. citizen members of the Navajo Nation were stopped and questioned in Arizona and New Mexico. These are just some of the immigration-related incidents that have raised alarm among members of Congress and prompted them to reach out to the Trump administration for more information.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-2	2025/04/15
Trump officials stonewall Congress on queries on detained US citizens and green-card holders in migrant crackdown	Due Process	But more than a dozen representatives, all of them Democrats, told ProPublica they haven’t received any response, even as long as months after seeking information, prompting fears as the administration has denied a breakneck pace of deportations. More than 10 days after the Trump administration froze roughly $66m of federal funds that had been earmarked for no- and low-cost family planning services, the providers that had been scheduled to receive that money are staring down the possibility of financial collapse.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-2	2025/04/15
Free US family planning clinics face ruin after White House freezes funds	Reproductive Rights	Seven states currently have no Title X funding, while another 16 states have lost most or some Title X dollars, according to the National Family Planning and Reproductive Health Association, which represents the majority of Title X providers. In total, the funding freeze affects clinics that, in 2023, served about 845,000 total people.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/free-us-family-planning-clinics-18314918	2025/04/15
Rare, Nearly 120-Mile Long Tornado Path Confirmed From Arkansas To Missouri In Updated Survey Of March Outbreak	Environment-Tornado	Detective work by the National Weather Service has recently revealed that a tornado carved a rare, nearly 120-mile-long path from Arkansas into Missouri during the mid-March outbreak in the Midwest and Southeast.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rare-nearly-120-mile-long-150000813.html	2025/04/15
Migrants in Arizona receive notices from government: ‘It is time for you to leave’	Borders and immigration	Quarantly is one of scores, and perhaps hundreds, of asylum seekers living in Arizona who received similar notifications from the Department of Homeland Security on April 10 and 11 after being identified in the U.S. through the CBP One app during the Biden administration, according to immigration lawyers and refugee resettlement groups.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/migrants-arizona-receive-notices-govern	2025/04/15
Abortions Keep Increasing in the U.S., Data Show	Reproductive Rights	The research was conducted by the Guttmacher Institute, which studies and supports sexual and reproductive health and rights. The organization uses both a statistical model and survey responses from providers to estimate the number of abortions provided by clinicians in states without near-total bans for its Monthly Abortion Provision Study. The data released on April 15 show that nearly 1,038,100 abortions were provided in 2024 across all states without near-total bans—a less than 1% increase from 2023 to 2024. At the same time, researchers found that the number of abortions provided in Wisconsin increased from about 1,300 in 2023 to about 6,100 in 2024—an increase of 388%. Abortion access in the state became largely unavailable after the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade in 2022 until late 2023, when a Wisconsin judge ruled that an 1849 law that had been interpreted as a ban didn’t make abortion illegal. Arizona, California, Kansas, Ohio, and Virginia also saw significant increases in the number of abortions provided in 2024 compared to the year before.	https://time.com/7277872/abortion-increasing-guttmacher-data/	2025/04/15
A Chicago law could shift where heavy industry operates — and who bears the burden of pollution	Environment-Pollution	The measure, expected to be introduced Wednesday, would transform how heavy industry is located and operated in the country’s third largest city. If passed into law, it would require city officials to assess the cumulative pollution burden on communities before approving new industrial projects.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/chicago-law-could-shift-where-0800006	2025/04/16
Trump would be ‘very happy’ to send ‘homegrowns’ to El Salvador’s prisons, it’s ‘incredibly illegal’	Constitutional Crisis	But Trump’s suggestion that citizens can be imprisoned in foreign jails shows how “absolutely critical it is for the courts to put an immediate stop to this extrajudicial imprisonment by foreign proxy,” according to David J. Bier, director of immigration studies at the libertarian Cato Institute. “In fact, U.S. citizens can only be stripped of citizenship if they knowingly perform acts resulting in a voluntary relinquishment of citizenship such as a formal renunciation of nationality in the United States during a time of war or ‘leaving or remaining outside the United States during a time of war or national emergency to avoid military service,’” according to Elise Eisen. One way is a process known as civil contempt. That involves a judge issuing an order holding either the government wet large or an officer of the government in contempt. The judge could impose daily fines or even order someone jailed until the contempt is “purged,” which would happen when the offending party does what the judge wants. Criminal contempt requires charges by the Justice Department, which the president oversees, so it is a less viable option. A president can also revoke criminal contempt by issuing a pardon. Civil contempt, though, is not pardonable.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-very-happy-send-u-234301778.html	2025/04/16
What happens if a president and the federal government fail to follow a judge’s orders?	Constitutional Crisis	Under long-standing precedent, the president cannot be held in contempt because the president is not bound by court injunctions against the federal government. “There are no opinions of the Supreme Court on the subject,” he wrote. “When the courts of appeal hear a potentially relevant case, they usually dispose of it on narrow, case-specific grounds in a deliberate attempt to avoid the bigger and more portentous issues about whether and when judges can use contempt sanctions against the federal government.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/what-happens-president-federal-government-f	2025/04/16
Grassley gets pressed in Iowa, scuffles at Marjorie Taylor Greene town hall	Politics	It was standing room-only in a small city hall building in Fort Madison, Iowa, where constituents overflowed out onto the sidewalk for a chance to talk with Iowa Republican Sen. Chuck Grassley, pressing him on their concerns with the Trump administration’s deportation operation, the administration’s tariff policy, and government overreach.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-sen-grassley-pressed-trump-200028	2025/04/16
Whistleblower says DOGE may have caused ‘significant cyber breach’ at labor watchdog	Fuck that guy	A whistleblower complaint says that Elon Musk’s team of technologists may have been responsible for a “significant cybersecurity breach,” likely of sensitive case files, at America’s federal labor watchdog. In an affidavit, Berulis said he had evidence that DOGE staffers were given extraordinarily sweeping access to the NLRB’s systems, including to sensitive case files. He said that beginning in early March, logging protocols created to audit users appeared to have been tampered with, and that he had detected the removal of about 10 gigabytes worth of data from NLRB’s network sometime thereafter.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/whistleblower-says-doge-may-caused-16	2025/04/16
Biden says damage Trump has done to Social Security is ‘breathtaking’	Government-SSA	“Well, look what’s happening. In fewer than 100 days, this new administration has made so much damage, done so much damage, and so much, it’s kind of breathtaking it could happen that soon,” Biden said. Donald Trump has again blamed Volodymyr Zelenskyy for starting the war with Russia — a day after a major Russian attack killed 35 people and injured 117 others in the Ukrainian city of Sumy. The US president said Ukraine’s leader shared the blame with Russian President Vladimir Putin for the “millions of people dead” in the conflict.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/biden-one-first-past-president-1716006	2025/04/16
Trump blames Zelenskyy for starting war after massive Russian attack	International Relations	“You don’t start a war against someone 20 times your size and then hope that people give you some missiles,” he said at the White House on Monday. The burgeoning partnership between Trump and Bukele is not limited to Albreto Garcia. Trump sent hundreds of other deportees to El Salvador last month, many without due process. And on Monday, he intensified his threats of lawful deportations even further: He openly mused about sending U.S. citizens to the Salvadoran prison. “The implication of the leaders’ rhetoric is a remarkable catch-22: Both the American and Salvadoran governments are asserting they have no authority to fix what multiple judges have found to be a grievous error.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-blames-zelenskyy-shares-blame-0423	2025/04/16
Trump, in a rare move, deferred to another world leader: it’s a clear legal plea	International Relations	While violent crime in the U.S. is at or near record lows, Bukele portrayed the country as besieged by criminals and was explicit Monday that the U.S. should emulate the approach of El Salvador, which now has the highest per capita incarceration rate in the world. “You have 350 million people to liberate. To liberate 350 million people, you have to imprison some,” Bukele said. “We’re very eager to help. ... We know that you have a crime problem, a terrorism problem that you need help with. And we’re a small country but, if we can help, we will do it.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-favors-leader-authoritarian-helping-him-2	2025/04/16
1.4 Million Migrants With Deportation Orders Could Be Facing Daily Fines Of $988 If They Don’t Leave The U.S.	Borders and immigration	A new push by the Trump administration could result in steep financial penalties for the 1.4 million migrants in the U.S. who are under final deportation orders. If the plan moves forward, individuals who fail to leave the country could be fined up to $988 per day, with possible asset seizures for those who don’t pay.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/1-4-million-migrants-deportation-13456	2025/04/16
Elite Pentagon Unit Resigns En Masse After Clashing With DOGE	Fuck that guy	The Pentagon’s elite tech unit is collapsing after clashing with Elon Musk’s Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE). Nearly every staffer at the Defense Digital Service (DDS) is resigning over the coming month, according to the program’s director Jennifer Hay and three other current members of the office—effectively shutting down the program. “The best way to put it, I think, is either we die quickly or we die slowly,” Hay said, according to Politico. She plans to leave by May 1. These types of gatherings are on the rise. While they may advertise different themes, there’s a shared belief system among them: a rejection of mainstream science, skepticism about the government and loud complaints that the powerful are hiding something from the everyday American.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elite-pentagon-unit-resigns-en-22210167	2025/04/16
Inside an anti-vaccine autism summit in the age of RFK Jr.	Health-Snake oil	With Kennedy now in Washington, and the president himself suggesting there’s merit to those claims, the gatherings are becoming less fringe and more politically relevant. Two people were tested and at least six people were removed as the Republican Congresswoman spoke at a town hall at Aetna’s Community Center in her home state of Georgia on Tuesday, according to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Three individuals were charged in connection over the disruption, including one who was charged with disorderly conduct, police told the outlet.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/inside-anti-vaccine-autism-summit-15350	2025/04/16
Protesters based at Marjorie Taylor Greene’s town hall, repeatedly disrupted	Politics	A former Colorado sheriff’s deputy convicted of killing a 22-year-old man in distress who called 911 for help was sentenced Monday to three years in prison, the maximum sentence, by a judge who said the shooting was about power. Andrew Buen was convicted in February of criminally negligent homicide in the 2022 death of Christian Glass, which drew national attention and prompted calls to reform how authorities respond to people with mental health problems.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/protesters-based-marjorie-taylor-greene-23	2025/04/16
Former Colorado deputy gets 3 years in prison for fatally shooting man who called for help	ACAB	There are plenty of officials in Trump’s White House and government who don’t want to give the news media what they’d deem a “win” or a “scalp.” The sources say. On a practical and legal level, Trump aides and lieutenants worry that complying too readily or quickly with court orders — or maybe even at all — would open the floodgates to other challenges and due process claims by other migrants whom the Trump administration shipped to prison in El Salvador, a person close to Trump and an administration official told Rolling Stone. They would much rather set the precedent that if they rendition a person to a foreign gulag, that person is staying there, no matter what. Allison Riggs, a Democratic justice on the North Carolina supreme court, is battling to keep her seat after a recent court ruling paved the way to overturn her election victory, telling the Guardian in an interview: “This is not just a North Carolina problem. This is an existential threat to democracy.” “I worry that this is honing a playbook to be used in the future, that people in power hold on to power by selectively challenging election outcomes that they don’t like,” she said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/former-colorado-deputy-gets-3-04154835 https://www.yahoo.com/news/why-trump-admin-publicly-mocking-the-supreme-court-1852	2025/04/16 2025/04/16
Why Trump and His Admin Are Publicly Mocking The Supreme Court	Constitutional Crisis	“I worry that this is honing a playbook to be used in the future, that people in power hold on to power by selectively challenging election outcomes that they don’t like,” she said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/existential-threat-democracy-us-judge-13	2025/04/16
‘An existential threat to democracy’: the US judge facing a challenge to her election victory	Voting Fucker

		Merwyl was among the 238 Venezuelans deported to El Salvador under the Alien Enemies Act of 1758, according to Documented, a newsroom reporting on immigrant communities in New York City. He has no criminal record, neither in Venezuela nor the U.S. per the outlet, and does not have any tattoos, which is one of the criteria ICE officers use to claim migrants are members of the Tren de Aragua gang. The father and son arrived in the U.S. in 2023, along with Merwyl's grandfather and cousin. The family had fled Nicolas Maduro's dictatorship and came to America in hopes of economic stability. Before he was arrested, Merwyl had received his immigration papers and had a court date scheduled for February 2027. CBS' 60 Minutes released a report that found 75 percent of the Venezuelans — 179 men — deported by the Trump administration in March had no apparent criminal record. The migrants — who the administration claimed had ties to the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua — were sent to El Salvador without any due process. Fresh from a courtroom loss over The Associated Press' access to the presidency, the White House on Tuesday put forward a new media policy that sharply curtails access to Donald Trump by news agencies that serve media outlets around the world. It was the latest attempt by the new administration to control coverage of its activities. The move would block the AP and other wire services that serve billions of readers through thousands of news outlets. It comes after a judge ruled the White House had violated the organization's free speech by banning it because it disagreed with the outlet's decision not to rename the Gulf of Mexico.
Trump Admin. Departs Tren With No Criminal Record to El Salvador Prison Report	Borders and immigration	While outlining a new "pool coverage" policy for small spaces like the Oval Office and Air Force One, the White House also said it will ultimately give press secretary Karoline Leavitt the final say over who gets to question her boss, according to people who have seen the plan. A senior Army official ordered Army libraries, including West Point, to remove all books "with the explicit and sole purpose of directly and overtly promoting DEI, gender ideology, and critical race theory in a manner that subverts meritocracy and unity," according to a memo sent last week by acting Assistant Secretary of the Army Derrick Anderson. It says the list of documents should be provided to the Army's chief librarian by April 16th. The memo, dated April 5th, was viewed by NPR. The U.S. government earlier announced that it would end a customs exemption allowing small-value parcels from Hong Kong to enter the U.S. without tax, slapping a 120% tariff on them starting from May 2. The "de minimis" exemption currently allows shipments that are worth less than $800 to go tax-free. A government statement said Hongkong Post would not collect tariffs on behalf of Washington, and is suspending accepting non-airmail parcels containing goods destined for the U.S. on Wednesday, since items shipped by sea take more time. It will accept airmail parcels until April 27. But Helene, a federal disaster worker who coincidentally goes by the same name as the storm, also worries about this community's invisible problems that tend to persist, months later — like mold and financial and mental health aftereffects.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-departs-leen-no-046238856	2025/04/16
The White House is starting a new media policy that restricts wire services' access to the president	Free speech	Until April 1, Helene worked at the National Center for Environmental Health at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Her team parachuted in after storms, wildfires, factory explosions, or toxic spills to help state and local officials assess where to put emergency resources. Helene and her CDC colleagues lost their jobs in Elon Musk's DOGE-directed layoffs of about 10,000 staff at federal health agencies. The Trump administration has drafted a memo to Congress outlining its intent to end nearly all federal funding for public media, which includes NPR and PBS, according to a White House official who spoke to NPR. A Maryland federal judge wants to find out if government officials are acting in "bad faith" in the case of Kilar Armando Abrego Garcia, who was mistakenly sent to a notorious Salvadoran prison. Judge Paula Xiris on Tuesday called for a two-week process of "expedited discovery," including questioning government officials under oath, to learn whether the government is doing enough to try to bring him back.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-starting-media-policy-03085	2025/04/16
U.S. Army libraries target books with a focus on DEI or 'gender ideology' for removal	Information Blackout	Better body armor, dynamic camouflage, foods synthesized in trenches, super soldiers, landmine-detecting bacteria and sabotaged materials shipped to the enemy are all promises of this field. And a new report concludes that Beijing is ascending to biotech dominance, at great risk to Washington. The Pentagon placed two top officials on administrative leave on Tuesday as part of an investigation into leaks at the Defense Department, a department official confirmed. Dan Caldwell, a senior adviser to Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, was escorted out of the Pentagon building as part of an "unauthorized disclosure" investigation, Reuters first reported. Darin Sebek, the Pentagon's deputy chief of staff, was also placed on administrative leave pending an investigation, the Defense Department official told Axios, confirming Politico's reporting on the matter.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/15/mx-st-5396122/army-libraries-books-de	2025/04/16
Hong Kong post office will stop shipping parcels to the U.S. over tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	President Trump signed a memorandum on Tuesday attempting to curtail Social Security fraud, despite ample evidence against widespread improper payments. But there was, in reality, a "sanity check" of unemployment claims years before Doge launched its blitz of the federal government — including under Joe Biden. People previously involved with the process say Doge's claims are lifted from it. "They're coming up like they uncovered something brand-new," Andrew Stettler, who served as the director of unemployment insurance modernization at the US Department of Labor in the Biden administration, told the Guardian. "Going back in 2020 to say there was a lot of fraud — that's the definition of old news."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/15/mx-st-5396368/hong-kong-post-office	2025/04/16
DOGE cut a CDC team as it was about to start a project to help N.A. flood victims	Fuck that guy	Threat Doge and Musk failed to cite the survey, or the agency it came from, the US Department of Labor's office of inspector general is tasked with auditing state unemployment benefit systems. A suspect in a shooting at a Dallas high school that wounded four students and drew a heavy police response to the campus has been taken into custody, school district officials have announced. Three of the students were injured by gunfire and the fourth was injured in their lower body, according to the Dallas fire-rescue department. It said units were dispatched to Wilmer Hutchins high school just after 1pm and that the four male students were taken to hospitals with injuries ranging from serious to not life-threatening.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/04/15/mx-st-53864	2025/04/16
Trump plans order to cut funding for NPR and PBS	Information Blackout	The US needs to "stop whining" about being a victim after "taking a free ride on the globalisation train", China's official state media said, as its government reported a spurt of economic growth ahead of an expected hit from Donald Trump's tariffs. The US is not getting ripped off by anybody," it said. "The problem is the US has been living beyond its means for decades. It consumes more than it produces. It has outsource its manufacturing and borrowed money in order to have a higher standard of living than it's entitled to based on its productivity. Rather than being 'cheated', the US has been taking a free ride on the globalisation train." It added: "The US should stop whining about itself being a victim in global trade and put an end to its capricious and destructive behaviour."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/15/mx-st-5352827/npr-pbs-public-media-t	2025/04/16
Judge demands to know if White House is helping return wrongly-deported Maryland man	Constitutional Crisis	However, the CDC's experts dispute the idea that the condition is becoming more widespread, despite the rise in its data, instead attributing the uptick in cases to improved diagnostics. The report's authors say advances in screening and testing "have been apparent" since its last report was published and suggest that "differences in the prevalence of children identified with [autism spectrum disorder] across communities might be due to differences in availability of services for early detection and evaluation and diagnostic practices." More than half of all internet traffic is now made up of bots, according to a new report.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-demands-know-if-white-house-is-helping-return-wrongly-deported-maryland-man-03085	2025/04/16
U.S. trails China in race to utilize biotech on the battlefield	Technology-biotech	Democrats are at odds over whether to make opposition to the Trump administration's deportation policies — and trips to the El Salvadorian prison where deportees are being held — a centerpiece of their anti-Trump message. Some Democratic lawmakers and aides told Axios that Trump's deportation policies have been effective to curtail top issues like DOGE and tariffs in some constituent phone calls and emails. "We got 247 calls on this week, more than any other topic," Rep. Mark Pocan (D-Wisc.) told Axios. A chief of staff to another House Democrat told Axios that, of the 16 calls they personally handled in the last two days, all have been about deportations.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/16/biotech-report-china-military-compet	2025/04/16
2 top Pentagon officials put on leave amid leak investigation	Government-DOO	Reporters for these outlets often ask questions that mirror administration rhetoric. Trump is often elated to hear reporters speaking his language. President Trump blasted Federal Reserve chair Jerome Powell on Thursday with the strongest suggestion yet of intentions to try to fire the nation's most powerful economic policymaker. The Fed is an apolitical institution. In a news conference in November, Powell was asked whether he would step down if Trump asked him to resign. Powell gave an unusually blunt answer: "No." He later said that the removal or demotion of top Fed officials was "not permitted under the law." Powell's term as Fed chair ends in May 2026. He was initially nominated by President Trump in 2017, and appointed to another four-year term by Biden in 2022.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/15/hegseth-pentagon-leak-investigatio	2025/04/16
Trump aids Musk's Social Security fraud hunt, despite lack of evidence	Government-SSA	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/15/trump-musk-social-security-medicar	2025/04/16
Doge unemployment 'fraud' discoveries are old finds, from Biden era, experts say	Fuck that guy	Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/16/elon-musk-doge-fra	2025/04/16
Dallas high school shooting suspect in custody after four students wounded	Guns- School shooting	Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/16/dallas-high-school-sho	2025/04/16
China tells US to 'stop whining' over tariffs as it reports GDP growth spurt	International Relations	Reporters for these outlets often ask questions that mirror administration rhetoric. Trump is often elated to hear reporters speaking his language. President Trump blasted Federal Reserve chair Jerome Powell on Thursday with the strongest suggestion yet of intentions to try to fire the nation's most powerful economic policymaker. The Fed is an apolitical institution. In a news conference in November, Powell was asked whether he would step down if Trump asked him to resign. Powell gave an unusually blunt answer: "No." He later said that the removal or demotion of top Fed officials was "not permitted under the law." Powell's term as Fed chair ends in May 2026. He was initially nominated by President Trump in 2017, and appointed to another four-year term by Biden in 2022.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/16/chinese-state-media-t	2025/04/16
CDC autism report disputes RFX Jr's claims about why his condition is on the rise	Health- Autism	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/autism	2025/04/16
Bots now make up the majority of all internet traffic	Technology-Bots	Reporters for these outlets often ask questions that mirror administration rhetoric. Trump is often elated to hear reporters speaking his language. President Trump blasted Federal Reserve chair Jerome Powell on Thursday with the strongest suggestion yet of intentions to try to fire the nation's most powerful economic policymaker. The Fed is an apolitical institution. In a news conference in November, Powell was asked whether he would step down if Trump asked him to resign. Powell gave an unusually blunt answer: "No." He later said that the removal or demotion of top Fed officials was "not permitted under the law." Powell's term as Fed chair ends in May 2026. He was initially nominated by President Trump in 2017, and appointed to another four-year term by Biden in 2022.	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/bots-internet-traffic-ai-chatgpt	2025/04/16
Democrats clash over how hard to fight Trump's deportations	Politics	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/democrats-deportations-trump-et-a	2025/04/17
Trump admin asks IRS to rescind Harvard's tax-exempt status	Eroding freedoms	Reporters for these outlets often ask questions that mirror administration rhetoric. Trump is often elated to hear reporters speaking his language. President Trump blasted Federal Reserve chair Jerome Powell on Thursday with the strongest suggestion yet of intentions to try to fire the nation's most powerful economic policymaker. The Fed is an apolitical institution. In a news conference in November, Powell was asked whether he would step down if Trump asked him to resign. Powell gave an unusually blunt answer: "No." He later said that the removal or demotion of top Fed officials was "not permitted under the law." Powell's term as Fed chair ends in May 2026. He was initially nominated by President Trump in 2017, and appointed to another four-year term by Biden in 2022.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/harvard-irs-tax-exempt-trump	2025/04/17
Trump's MAGA-friendly press corps	Eroding freedoms	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/trump-maga-friendly-white-house-pr	2025/04/17
Trump says Powell's 'termination can't come fast enough'	Government-Federal Reserve	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/trump-powell-fet-reserve-firing-infir	2025/04/17
NIH's retiring top nutritionist accuses RFX run agency of 'censorship'	Government-NIH	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/trump-sb-nutrition-researcher-keyv	2025/04/17
Phaseout of animal testing offers moment of truth for 'organs-on-chips'	Health-Technology	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/animal-testing-alternatives-drug-dev	2025/04/17
White House plan would eliminate Head Start, make sweeping health cuts	Government-HHS	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/trump-health-budget-cuts-ths	2025/04/17
Ex-Trump cyber official leaves private sector role to fight DOJ probe	Political-Cyberpol	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/16/trump-chris-krebs-sentinelone-doj-b	2025/04/17
Destroying endangered species' habitat wouldn't count as 'harm' under proposed Trump rule	Environment-Animals	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/mx-st-5396814/endangered-species-ac	2025/04/17
Homegrowers are next: Trump hopes to deport and jail U.S. citizens abroad	Constitutional Crisis	A top National Institutes of Health scientist who specializes in nutrition and metabolism announced his sudden retirement after 21 years, citing censorship at the agency now headed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. RFK pledged "radical transparency" after being confirmed as HHS secretary, but NIH senior investigator Kevin Hui said Wednesday he has "experienced censorship" of his work and not enough support on his recent research into ultra-processed food addiction. The Food and Drug Administration's decision to phase out animal testing in drug development is being hailed as a potential game changer, even though proponents say it may take years to get to a point where alternative methods can be used for all applications. Alternatives to animal testing include methods such as organ-on-a-chip technology, AI models and human cell-based assays. Companies that might have previously used rabbits to test if a drug irritated the skin could instead test it on human skin cells grown on a microchip. The National Institutes of Health and the European Commission are funding more research projects to minimize animal use in the drug approval process. A Trump administration budget proposal calls for eliminating programs like Head Start, funding for community mental health clinics and initiatives aimed at preventing teen pregnancy in fiscal 2026. ... In all, about $40 billion, or one-third of the HHS discretionary budget, would be cut under the proposal compared with fiscal 2024 levels.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/mx-st-5396178/trump-deport-jail-us-ci	2025/04/17

DOGE assigns staffers to work at agency where it allegedly removed sensitive data	Fuck that guy	The ad hoc Department of Government Efficiency team is assigning two staffers to work at the independent agency where a whistleblower alleged Tuesday DOGE may have already removed sensitive labor data from its systems. The email, sent to staff on behalf of NLRB chairman Marvin E. Kaplan and acting general counsel William Coven and shared with NPR by two NLRB employees at regional offices who are not authorized to speak publicly, said two DOGE representatives would be detailed to the agency from the General Services Administration "part-time for several months" and would largely work remotely. California is challenging President Donald Trump's tariffs in court, arguing in a lawsuit filed Wednesday morning that he lacks the authority to unilaterally impose the levies on foreign goods and that they are doing irreparable harm to the state's economy. Gov. Gavin Newsom and Attorney General Rob Bonta are asking a federal court to pause the tariffs being levied against Mexico, China and Canada, as well as the across-the-board 10% tariff enacted by Trump. The suit argues that the law the president is relying on — the International Economic Emergency Powers Act — has never been used before to justify tariffs, and that Trump needs Congressional authorization for actions with such broad economic consequences.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/nx-1-5368851/doge-nlb-whatifblow	2025/04/17
Trump's Tariffs Could Wreck California's Economy, The State Is Suing	Economy-California	After people started testing positive for hepatitis C in a coastal Florida town in December, state officials collected blood from patients, wrapped their specimens in dry ice and mailed them straight to the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta, Ga. The hepatitis C virus, which is spread through contact with infected blood and can lead to deadly liver cancer, is notoriously hard to identify. But if anyone could understand what was happening in Florida, it would be the Division of Viral Hepatitis in the CDC's headquarters. Using samples from the laboratory's collection of nearly 1 million frozen specimens, scientists helped make the initial discovery of the hepatitis C virus in the 1980s. In 2020, that research was awarded the Nobel Prize in Medicine. But on April 1, the outbreak investigation was brought to a halt. At 27 of the lab's scientists received an email from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services informing them that they were losing their jobs. Like thousands of other employees who received similar emails that day, the scientists were told they would be placed on administrative leave until June 2, after which they would no longer work for the CDC. A tiny agency that coordinates homelessness policy across the federal government has been effectively shut down, with all its staff put on administrative leave. Congress created it in 1987, he said, "to make sure that the federal response to homelessness is coordinated, is efficient, and reduces duplication across federal agencies."	https://www.kqed.org/news/12036195/trumps-tariffs-could-wreck-calif	2025/04/17
In the middle of a hepatitis outbreak, U.S. shuffles the, one CDC lab that could help	Health- CDC	Legally, the homeless agency's authorization continues until 2026. But DOGE, the cost-cutting team overseen by Elon Musk, told its employees Monday that they'd be put on leave the next day, according to an email from one employee that was shared with NPR. Judge James Boasberg of the U.S. District Court in the District of Columbia ruled Wednesday that there is "probable cause" to find the Trump administration in criminal contempt of court for violating his order last month to immediately pause any deportations under the Alien Enemies Act. "The Court ultimately determines that the Government's actions on that day demonstrate a willful disregard for its Order, sufficient for the Court to conclude that probable cause exists to find the Government in criminal contempt," Boasberg wrote on Wednesday. "The Court does not reach such conclusion lightly or hastily, indeed, it has given Defendants ample opportunity to rectify or explain their actions. None of their responses has been satisfactory."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/nx-1-5355113/hepatitis-cdc-lab-outbr	2025/04/17
Trump administration has gutted an agency that coordinates homelessness policy	Economy-Housing	The White House said it plans to immediately appeal. Retail spending — one of the key drivers in the economy — saw its biggest jump in more than two years during March, as more people rushed to buy cars and other big-ticket items ahead of President Trump's new tariffs. Spending at stores, restaurants and car dealerships grew 1.4% in March compared to February, according to Wednesday's data from the Commerce Department. That's the biggest increase since January 2023 — and the driver was mainly autos. Spending on cars, trucks and auto parts rose more than 5% compared to February. Despite evidence that suggests there is no one single cause of autism, Kennedy is vowing to uncover an underlying reason by September. During a news conference Wednesday, Kennedy claimed, without evidence, that environmental exposures — such as the nation's food supply, water or medicine — are likely contributing to rising autism rates in kids. He called autism a "preventable disease," an assertion pushed back on by health experts. Harvard University professors are grappling with difficult — sometimes life or death — decisions, after being ordered to stop their research this week when the Trump administration froze more than $2.2 billion in funding over the university's refusal to bow down to policy demands. Harvard School of Public Health Professor Sarah Fortune has been researching tuberculosis for over a decade. She received a stop-work order this week on a $60 million contract involving more than a dozen labs at schools across the country. Part of that research involves a vaccine study on a group of primates in Pittsburgh whose lives are now on the line. While it's possible researchers will garner enough external support to save those animals, she says there simply isn't an alternative funding source large enough to support the entire research program.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/nx-1-5368851/trump-doge-homelessa	2025/04/17
Judge: 'Probable cause' to hold U.S. in contempt over Alien Enemies Act deportations	Constitutional Crisis	Harvard University professors are grappling with difficult — sometimes life or death — decisions, after being ordered to stop their research this week when the Trump administration froze more than $2.2 billion in funding over the university's refusal to bow down to policy demands. Harvard School of Public Health Professor Sarah Fortune has been researching tuberculosis for over a decade. She received a stop-work order this week on a $60 million contract involving more than a dozen labs at schools across the country. Part of that research involves a vaccine study on a group of primates in Pittsburgh whose lives are now on the line. While it's possible researchers will garner enough external support to save those animals, she says there simply isn't an alternative funding source large enough to support the entire research program. The Trump administration is going to great lengths to avoid complying with court orders — to the point of defying the Supreme Court. At the same time, Trump has indicated that he also wants to start shipping American citizens to El Salvador. It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/nx-1-5009585/judge-contempt-alien-enem	2025/04/17
Retail sales jump as people rush to buy cars ahead of tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/16/nx-1-5366505/retail-sales-cars-tariff	2025/04/17
Kennedy plans autism studies aimed at identifying 'environmental toxins' linked to rising rates	Ceaspool-Health	Harvard University professors are grappling with difficult — sometimes life or death — decisions, after being ordered to stop their research this week when the Trump administration froze more than $2.2 billion in funding over the university's refusal to bow down to policy demands. Harvard School of Public Health Professor Sarah Fortune has been researching tuberculosis for over a decade. She received a stop-work order this week on a $60 million contract involving more than a dozen labs at schools across the country. Part of that research involves a vaccine study on a group of primates in Pittsburgh whose lives are now on the line. While it's possible researchers will garner enough external support to save those animals, she says there simply isn't an alternative funding source large enough to support the entire research program. The Trump administration is going to great lengths to avoid complying with court orders — to the point of defying the Supreme Court. At the same time, Trump has indicated that he also wants to start shipping American citizens to El Salvador. It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-plans-autism-studies-aimed-211	2025/04/17
Harvard researchers say they might have to lay off workers and authorize research animals due to funding freeze	Information-Backout	It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/professor-harvard-studying-ais-lab-0631	2025/04/17
J.D. Vance Thinks Due-Process Rights Are Optional	Due Process	It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/j-d-vance-thinks-due-174650390.html	2025/04/17
Trump Tries Another Tactic to Prevent Return of Wrongly Deported Man	Constitutional Crisis	It's never been about securing the border, as Vance claims, it's about a consolidation of authority in the presidency that would allow the executive to abuse the powers of his office with impunity. Undocumented migrants, legal immigrants, and green card holders have already been used as test subjects. There's no telling what comes next. If Kilar Alvaro Garcia successfully returns to the United States, the Department of Justice plans to detain him again and send him to a different country than El Salvador, or get rid of his withholding of removal and send him back to El Salvador. That's what the DOJ filed in federal court Tuesday, ahead of a hearing with Judge Paula Xinis where the Trump administration was supposed to provide information on steps it had taken to facilitate Abrego Garcia's return to the U.S. from El Salvador's Centro de Confinamiento de Terrorismo, a megaprison known for human rights abuses where he is currently detained. As NPR reports, staffers with the billionaire's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) could have stolen corporate secrets, ongoing legal disputes, and private union information when they rifled through the labor watchdog's internal servers earlier this year. According to Daniel Berulis, the NLRB whistleblower who made these damning allegations to Congress and in subsequent interviews with NPR, DOGE engineers extracted troves of data from the agency's systems. After Berulis brought the concerning data movement up internally, someone taped a "threatening note" to his office door that included personal information and birds-eye-view photos of him, seemingly shot with a drone, walking his dog.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-tries-another-tactic-prevent-21954	2025/04/17
Whistleblower Says He Received Threats After Investigating Whether Elon Musk's Minions Were Stealing Government Data	Fuck that guy	Though there's ample brazenly unethical and allegedly illegal behavior on display in this second Trump administration, these whistleblower claims are particularly troubling because Musk has had it out for the NLRB — which has also, notably, accused SpaceX of illegal anti-labor practices — since it forced him in 2021 to delete an old anti-union tweet. "To date, nothing has been done," Xinis told the Justice Department lawyer before her Tuesday, "Nothing." Less than 24 hours later, a second federal judge said he would be launching proceedings to determine whether to hold Trump administration officials in criminal contempt for ignoring his order to not remove certain Venezuelan migrants from the country. Either way, the recent clashes in court raise stark questions for a country already exhausted by a steady stream of unprecedented moves by the Trump administration and a mountain of lawsuits challenging them — on immigration enforcement, federal funding streams to the states, LGBTQ+ rights and school funding, among many issues.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/whistleblower-says-received-threats-inve	2025/04/17
Defying courts in deportation cases, Trump risks a tipping point, experts say	Constitutional Crisis	Lutnick said Trump would enact "a special focus-type of tariff" on smartphones, computers and other electronics products in a month or two, alongside sectoral tariffs targeting semiconductors and pharmaceuticals. The new duties would fall outside Trump's so-called reciprocal tariffs on China, he said. Experts have said there is little possibility of manufacturing an entire iPhone — or any piece of consumer electronics, for that matter — in the US alone. Apple itself has said such a feat is unlikely. Then Apple got a temporary exemption, perhaps a product of Tim Cook's favorable relationship with Trump. The acting head of the Social Security Administration rebuffed a federal judge's request to appear at a hearing to "clarify" reports alleging that the Trump administration is placing thousands of immigrants on the agency's "death master file" to harass them out of the country.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/defying-courts-deportation-case-trump-04	2025/04/17
Trump's tech tariffs are total chaos — and everyone's paying the price	Economy-Tariffs	But on Monday, one day before the hearing, government lawyers informed the court that after reviewing the "evidentiary record" and "the demands on the Acting Commissioner's time," officials decided Duke would not appear. Instead, they opted to "stand on the record in its current form." Most immediately: What's going to happen to Kilar Armando Abrego Garcia, the Salvadoran national the US says it mistakenly deported to a notorious prison in El Salvador? But really, what's going to happen to the United States?	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-tech-tariffs-total-chaos-130712130	2025/04/17
Trump officials blocking court testimony from Social Security head over program's 'death list'	Government-SSA	But on Monday, one day before the hearing, government lawyers informed the court that after reviewing the "evidentiary record" and "the demands on the Acting Commissioner's time," officials decided Duke would not appear. Instead, they opted to "stand on the record in its current form." Most immediately: What's going to happen to Kilar Armando Abrego Garcia, the Salvadoran national the US says it mistakenly deported to a notorious prison in El Salvador? But really, what's going to happen to the United States?	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-officials-blocking-court-testimony-0	2025/04/17
Donald Trump is shrugging off the Supreme Court. These are uncharted waters.	Constitutional Crisis	Because we have entered uncharted waters: The president, who is supposed to govern alongside Congress and the court system, now appears to be acting with next to no constraints. More than 500 international students, faculty and researchers around the country have had their visas revoked with little or no explanation in recent weeks as the Trump administration continues its immigration crackdown. But Baxter, one of the filing attorneys in the Atlanta lawsuit, said the Trump administration is going well beyond targeting only activists. Anywhere officials saw a student encounter with a police officer, they would revoke the student visa, he said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-shrugging-off-supreme-232	2025/04/17
New lawsuit alleges traffic stops, dismissed cases used as criteria to revoke student visas	Borders and immigration	"So not only would they revoke the person's student visa, even if there was no conviction, if there was just an arrest, and sometimes there wasn't even an arrest, there was just an encounter and maybe a ticket, they would revoke the student visa," he said. Staff at Elon Musk's so-called "department of government efficiency" (Doge) demanded to meet with an independent non-profit to discuss embedding a team within their organization, according to the non-profit, stating that refusal to take the meeting would mean a violation of Donald Trump's executive order empowering Doge. Doge staff member Nate Cavanaugh emailed the Vera Institute of Justice, a criminal justice reform non-profit that is independent from the government, on 11 April to demand the meeting, according to a copy of the email. Vera's staff was confused by the request, as its government funding had been canceled a week prior, but agreed to a call which they said took place on Tuesday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lawsuit-alleges-traffic-stops-dismissed-12	2025/04/17
Doge tried to embed staffers in criminal justice non-profit, says group	Fuck that guy	The Trump administration is shrugging the state department's last test using legislation to monitor foreign disinformation campaigns. Known as the Counter Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (RFIMI) hub, the closure represents a huge victory for rightwing critics who had alleged that the office, despite only looking at foreign state-level disinformation attacks on other countries, was involved in censoring American conservative speech. It comes as part of a broader effort by the Trump administration to dismantle what it describes as government overreach in monitoring speech. Juan Francisco Mendez was reportedly on his way to a dental appointment when ICE agents interrogated his vehicle. According to the family's lawyer, Ondine Galvez-Sniffitt, agents used a hammer to break the car window before apprehending Mendez and his wife. Galvez-Sniffitt told The Associated Press that the agents initially claimed they were searching for a different individual, but proceeded to detain Mendez despite the apparent case of mistaken identity. Donald Trump's pick for U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia has appeared on Russian state media more than 150 times, according to a new report. Ed Martin, the current interim U.S. Attorney for D.C., appeared on networks funded by the Russian government from August 2016 to April 2024 as a guest commentator on RT and Sputnik, The Washington Post reports. Martin helped organize the "Stop the Steal" movement promoting the baseless position that the 2020 election was rigged against Trump. He has also vowed to pursue legal action against anyone impeding Elon Musk's DOGE work, and made headlines last month for his history of inflammatory remarks.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/16/doge-musk-vera-no	2025/04/17
Trump administration shuts US office countering foreign disinformation	Government	The Trump administration is shrugging the state department's last test using legislation to monitor foreign disinformation campaigns. Known as the Counter Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (RFIMI) hub, the closure represents a huge victory for rightwing critics who had alleged that the office, despite only looking at foreign state-level disinformation attacks on other countries, was involved in censoring American conservative speech. It comes as part of a broader effort by the Trump administration to dismantle what it describes as government overreach in monitoring speech. Juan Francisco Mendez was reportedly on his way to a dental appointment when ICE agents interrogated his vehicle. According to the family's lawyer, Ondine Galvez-Sniffitt, agents used a hammer to break the car window before apprehending Mendez and his wife. Galvez-Sniffitt told The Associated Press that the agents initially claimed they were searching for a different individual, but proceeded to detain Mendez despite the apparent case of mistaken identity. Donald Trump's pick for U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia has appeared on Russian state media more than 150 times, according to a new report. Ed Martin, the current interim U.S. Attorney for D.C., appeared on networks funded by the Russian government from August 2016 to April 2024 as a guest commentator on RT and Sputnik, The Washington Post reports. Martin helped organize the "Stop the Steal" movement promoting the baseless position that the 2020 election was rigged against Trump. He has also vowed to pursue legal action against anyone impeding Elon Musk's DOGE work, and made headlines last month for his history of inflammatory remarks.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/16/trump-state-departm	2025/04/17
Family says ICE agents smashed car window to take man seeking asylum	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration is shrugging the state department's last test using legislation to monitor foreign disinformation campaigns. Known as the Counter Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (RFIMI) hub, the closure represents a huge victory for rightwing critics who had alleged that the office, despite only looking at foreign state-level disinformation attacks on other countries, was involved in censoring American conservative speech. It comes as part of a broader effort by the Trump administration to dismantle what it describes as government overreach in monitoring speech. Juan Francisco Mendez was reportedly on his way to a dental appointment when ICE agents interrogated his vehicle. According to the family's lawyer, Ondine Galvez-Sniffitt, agents used a hammer to break the car window before apprehending Mendez and his wife. Galvez-Sniffitt told The Associated Press that the agents initially claimed they were searching for a different individual, but proceeded to detain Mendez despite the apparent case of mistaken identity. Donald Trump's pick for U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia has appeared on Russian state media more than 150 times, according to a new report. Ed Martin, the current interim U.S. Attorney for D.C., appeared on networks funded by the Russian government from August 2016 to April 2024 as a guest commentator on RT and Sputnik, The Washington Post reports. Martin helped organize the "Stop the Steal" movement promoting the baseless position that the 2020 election was rigged against Trump. He has also vowed to pursue legal action against anyone impeding Elon Musk's DOGE work, and made headlines last month for his history of inflammatory remarks.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/ice-agents-smash	2025/04/17
Trump's pick to run the critical DC attorney's office has appeared on Russian state media over 150 times, report	Political-Ceaspool	The Trump administration is shrugging the state department's last test using legislation to monitor foreign disinformation campaigns. Known as the Counter Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (RFIMI) hub, the closure represents a huge victory for rightwing critics who had alleged that the office, despite only looking at foreign state-level disinformation attacks on other countries, was involved in censoring American conservative speech. It comes as part of a broader effort by the Trump administration to dismantle what it describes as government overreach in monitoring speech. Juan Francisco Mendez was reportedly on his way to a dental appointment when ICE agents interrogated his vehicle. According to the family's lawyer, Ondine Galvez-Sniffitt, agents used a hammer to break the car window before apprehending Mendez and his wife. Galvez-Sniffitt told The Associated Press that the agents initially claimed they were searching for a different individual, but proceeded to detain Mendez despite the apparent case of mistaken identity. Donald Trump's pick for U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia has appeared on Russian state media more than 150 times, according to a new report. Ed Martin, the current interim U.S. Attorney for D.C., appeared on networks funded by the Russian government from August 2016 to April 2024 as a guest commentator on RT and Sputnik, The Washington Post reports. Martin helped organize the "Stop the Steal" movement promoting the baseless position that the 2020 election was rigged against Trump. He has also vowed to pursue legal action against anyone impeding Elon Musk's DOGE work, and made headlines last month for his history of inflammatory remarks.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-c	2025/04/17

Trump's United States of Emergency	Trump Bulshit	In his first 100 days, President Trump has declared more national emergencies — more creatively and more aggressively — than any president in modern American history. Powers originally crafted to give the president flexibility in rare moments of crisis now form the backbone of Trump's agenda, enabling him to steamroll Congress and govern by unilateral decree through his first three months in office.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/18/trump-national-emergency-declara	2025/04/18
Senator meets with Maryland man being held at El Salvador prison	American Gulag	"I said my main goal of this trip was to meet with Kilmar. Tonight I had that chance." Van Hollen said in posts to his social media accounts. "I have called his wife, Jennifer (Vlasquez Sural), to pass along his message of love. I look forward to providing a full update upon my return."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/18/el-salvador-prison-atrepe-garcia-se	2025/04/18
A rapid unraveling: Global economic leaders echo Trump on trade imbalances	Economy-Trade	That is a nod to countries that sell far more goods and services abroad than they buy from others. In the current protectionist era, that creates a huge net risk. Never before has the U.S. — the world's biggest consumer — threatened a sudden withdrawal from the global stage. The Trump administration's informal end-of-April deadline for Russia to agree to a ceasefire in Ukraine is drawing near without any commitments from the Kremlin. U.S.-Russia talks have shown little clear progress and President Trump's promise of a swift peace deal appears nowhere near fruition. Still, he insisted Thursday that a ceasefire was getting closer and that he'd be "hearing from Russia this week."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/18/wfs-imp-free-trade-trump	2025/04/18
Putin tests Trump's patience by slow-walking ceasefire talks	International Relations	Luigi Mangione was indicted by a New York grand jury Thursday on four federal charges, including murder through the use of a firearm, which could make him eligible for the death penalty. Mangione is facing both federal and state charges in connection to the killing of UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson last year. Attorney General Pam Bondi earlier this month directed the Justice Department to seek the death penalty in the case.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/18/putin-us-cessfire-proposal-putin	2025/04/18
Luigi Mangione indicted on federal charges	Dry tinder	At least two Republican House members and Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem have touted the same Salvadoran prison that turned away a Senate Democrat seeking to speak with a mistakenly deported constituent.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/luigi-mangione-indicted-federal-mur	2025/04/18
These are the lawmakers who have visited CECOT, El Salvador's mega-prison	American Gulag	"Given that the Administration's use of CECOT for illegal and unconstitutional deportations is rife with 'administrative errors' ... I urgently request a CODEL to conduct oversight," Ramirez wrote on Wednesday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/poli/cienfuegos-salvador-prison-cecot-	2025/04/18
Supreme Court "perfectly clear" on returning deported Maryland man. Appeals court	American Gulag	"The Trump administration must work to return a wrongly deported Maryland man, a federal appeals court said Thursday, rejecting a request to block a lower court's order requiring his return. "The government is asserting a right to stash away residents of this country in foreign prisons without the semblance of due process that is the foundation of our constitutional order," the ruling said.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/17/supreme-court-perfectly-clear-on-re	2025/04/18
The State Department is changing its mind about what it calls human rights	Human Rights	The Trump administration is substantially scaling back the State Department's annual reports on international human rights to remove longstanding critiques of abuses such as harsh prison conditions, government corruption and restrictions on participation in the political process. NPR has learned. Despite decades of precedent, the reports, which are meant to inform Congressional decisions on foreign aid allocations and security assistance, will no longer call governments out for such things as denying freedom of movement and peaceful assembly. They won't condemn retaining political prisoners without due process or restrictions on "free and fair elections." Forcibly returning a refugee or asylum seeker to a home country where they may face torture or persecution will no longer be highlighted, nor will serious harassment of human rights organizations. At least two people were killed and six others hospitalized after a shooting by a student at Florida State University in Tallahassee, according to law enforcement. ... Authorities identified the alleged gunman as Phoenix River, the son of a current and longtime Leon County deputy. Sheriff Walter McNeil says the 20-year-old suspect had access to one of the deputy's personal handguns, and it was found at the scene along with a shotgun. The sheriff says the suspect, an FSU student who is in custody, was well-known to the department and had participated in several training programs, including as a member of the department's youth advisory council.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/18/nx-1-535711/state-department-huma	2025/04/18
Gunman kills 2, wounds 6 others during a shooting at Florida State University	Guns- School shooting	The U.S. Supreme Court Thursday deferred any ruling on President Trump's claim that there is no automatic guarantee to birthright citizenship in the Constitution. To date, every court to have considered Trump's executive order banning birth right citizenship, issued on day one of his administration, has blocked it. But he has doggedly persisted in his contention that birthright citizenship is unconstitutional, an idea widely considered a fringe view because the Supreme Court ruled to the contrary 127 years ago, and that decision has never been dismantled.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-5368177/su-shooting-injuries-nv	2025/04/18
Supreme Court to hear challenge to Trump's birthright citizenship order in May	Supreme Court	It is difficult in some cases to get to the very heart of the matter. But in this case, it is not hard at all, a three-judge panel on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit wrote. "The government is asserting a right to stash away residents of this country in foreign prisons without the semblance of due process that is the foundation of our constitutional order."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-54221/supreme-court-birthright-ci	2025/04/18
Court denies White House appeal of 'shocking' Abrego, Garcia deportation case	American Gulag	Employees at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau have begun receiving layoff notices, the latest attempt by the Trump Administration to shrink the bureau and reduce the scope of its work. The reduction in force notices come after a recent court ruling by a federal appeals panel cleared the way for the layoffs. The three-judge panel said the bureau's leaders can send a reduction in force notice to employees they have determined to be unnecessary to carry out CFPB's statutory duties.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-541111/appeals-court-deportation-a	2025/04/18
The CFPB starts to lay off staff as the agency plans a shift in its focus	Government- CFPB	The panel otherwise left intact a separate federal judge's injunction that prevents the agency from being dismantled — including that its data cannot be deleted or destroyed, and that employees must be given workspace or the tools to work remotely.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-5369206/cfpb-layoffs-of	2025/04/18
As Trump jets into his staff, HUD puts its D.C. headquarters up for sale	Government- HUD	The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development is looking for a smaller, cheaper building for its headquarters. It's part of a larger Trump administration push to shrink not only the number of federal employees, but also the office spaces where they work. Adding to the anxiety, Ledy says, is a more man-made problem: the funding cuts to federal lands agencies by Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency or DOGE, and namely the elimination of hundreds of Forest Service jobs, with reports that thousands more could follow. "What's going to happen if a fire starts, who's going to respond to that? Right now it doesn't feel like there's a lot of confidence that the federal government is going to be able to act and respond accordingly," Ledy says. Kayla has been rehired, for now, following a recent court ruling. But she says morale is down and the work that actually helps protect the land and wildlife from fires - the lesser publicized things like watershed restoration and brush clearing - isn't getting done.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-5369254/hud-headquarters-d-c-6	2025/04/18
Trump's Forest Service cuts have people in tinder dry, New Mexico on edge	Government- USAG	In interviews, several federal workers described a similar demoralizing environment to NPR, but most didn't want to go on the record. As federal agencies brace for the Trump administration's next round of slashing the U.S. government, recent staff departures are already raising concerns about whether the Census Bureau can continue producing reliable statistics for the country. The federal government's largest statistical agency is well into preparations for the 2030 national head count of U.S. residents, which is set to be used to determine how federal funding is allocated to local communities and how presidents, members of Congress and other levels of government are elected. The bureau also carries out the surveys that produce the monthly jobs report and other key data sets. "It's a challenge being efficient because it feels like we're spending time in our meetings just discussing, 'What can we do to keep things afloat?'" says a current employee at the bureau who NPR has agreed not to name because they fear retaliation at work. "That's valuable time that could be spent on doing the real work that supports America's data."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/17/nx-1-53694960/trumps-forest-service-c	2025/04/18
Brain drain at Census Bureau has employees warning about the country's statistics	Government- Census	Google has illegally built "monopoly power" with its web advertising business, a federal judge in Virginia ruled (PDF) on Thursday, siding with the Department of Justice in a landmark case against the tech giant that could reshape the basic economics of running a modern website. There are a group of 17 metallic elements that are difficult to extract from the earth, but are crucial for U.S. defense. The ask comes after China curbed exports of some of those minerals as part of its retaliation against American tariffs. China dominates the rare earth mineral market, mining about 60% of the world's total supply, and this dominance has raised concerns about supply chain security. The White House says America's dependence on imports exposes the country to "economic coercion." A shortage of rare earths, however, could impact everything from electronics and clean energy to defense and medical diagnostic equipment.	https://www.kqed.org/news/12039411/googles-ad-dominance-is-illegal	2025/04/18
Google's Ad Dominance Is Illegal, Federal Judge Rules	Economy- Monopoly	At the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) facility in Kendall, they'd just been told Aguilar's path to legal immigrant status had been approved. His marriage to a U.S. citizen — Rodriguez — was deemed valid. He had a good, taxpaying job and no criminal history. But then: "The USCIS officer that was interviewing us told me that me and our two-year-old son had to be escorted out," Rodriguez recalled to WLRN. "And I'd say about two minutes later, our attorney came out and she told me that Josue was being detained by ICE."	https://www.kqed.org/news/12039411/googles-ad-dominance-is-illegal	2025/04/18
Rare earth minerals aren't rare, but the U.S. is having a hard time getting them	Economy- Minerals	ICE are federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents — and they took Aguilar to the notorious Krome Detention Center for migrants in far west Miami-Dade County, leaving his wife Rodriguez stunned. But Kennedy rejected the idea that the steady rise in diagnoses has been driven by increased access to autism screenings, while criticizing research that has focused on the genetic factors that scientists say contribute to the development of autism. Rather, he described the neurological disorder as "preventable" and blamed the rise in diagnoses to the spread of an infectious disease. He discussed plans for studies focused on environmental toxins that, he believes, may be responsible for increased rates of the condition, promising to have "some of the answers" by September. "Autism destroys families, and more importantly, it destroys our greatest resource, which is our children. These are children who should not be suffering like this," Kennedy said. "These are kids who will never pay taxes, they'll never hold a job, they'll never play baseball, they'll never write a poem, they'll never go out on a date. Many of them will never use a toilet unassisted." This characterization quickly prompted backlash from parents of autistic children, many of whom took to social media to condemn Kennedy's comments. Eric Garcia, a reporter for the Independent who was at Kennedy's press conference and was diagnosed with autism around 1994, told Yahoo News that he worried Kennedy's framing of autism as an "epidemic" could negatively influence the public's perception of it, creating more fear than understanding.	https://www.wlrn.com/immigration/2025-04-16/migrant-detention-depor	2025/04/18
Taken by ICE moments after securing a path to legal migrant status: A Honduran's story	Borders and immigration	Welcome back to the United States of Trump, where the Constitution is like a cocktail napkin with some scribbles on it, where a unanimous Supreme Court ruling is given the same deference as a customer service complaint, and where the president's daily intelligence briefing requires three Big Macs and a television tuned to Fox News. ... The new headliner is that Trump just effectively told the Supreme Court to go screw itself. The highest court in the land ruled unanimously that the Trump administration must "facilitate" the release of Kilmar Abrego Garcia, a Salvadoran national wrongfully deported, against a judge's order. It's El Salvador's release CECOT mega-prison. Compounding the problem is that the president has surrounded himself with men and women who are utterly loyal to him, unwilling to challenge him, and certainly unable to contain him. (The praise lavished on Trump by the members of his Cabinet during their meetings would make even Kim Jong Un blush.) On top of that, this is an administration filled with third-rate intellects, conspiracy theorists, and misfits. They aren't qualified to manage Oak Hill, Alabama, or Monowi, Nebraska, let alone the federal government. Their combination of maliceousness and incompetence has produced enormous, dangerous, and in some cases lethal disruptions. THE SECOND TRUMP PRESIDENCY, more even than the first, will be defined by Trump's authoritarian desires and his neptitude. It might be that the latter impedes the former, unless efficiency can help in the dismantling of democratic institutions, but having an administration filled with freaks and fools can impede that effort and catalyze public disaffection and even resistance.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/parents-react-to-rfk-jr-child-autism-press-conference-when-there-is-ignorance-that-breeds-fear-	2025/04/18
Parents react to RFK Jr.'s child autism press conference. When there is ignorance, that breeds fear	Political Cesspool	The highest court in the land ruled unanimously that the Trump administration must "facilitate" the release of Kilmar Abrego Garcia, a Salvadoran national wrongfully deported, against a judge's order. It's El Salvador's release CECOT mega-prison. Compounding the problem is that the president has surrounded himself with men and women who are utterly loyal to him, unwilling to challenge him, and certainly unable to contain him. (The praise lavished on Trump by the members of his Cabinet during their meetings would make even Kim Jong Un blush.) On top of that, this is an administration filled with third-rate intellects, conspiracy theorists, and misfits. They aren't qualified to manage Oak Hill, Alabama, or Monowi, Nebraska, let alone the federal government. Their combination of maliceousness and incompetence has produced enormous, dangerous, and in some cases lethal disruptions. THE SECOND TRUMP PRESIDENCY, more even than the first, will be defined by Trump's authoritarian desires and his neptitude. It might be that the latter impedes the former, unless efficiency can help in the dismantling of democratic institutions, but having an administration filled with freaks and fools can impede that effort and catalyze public disaffection and even resistance.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/parents-react-to-rfk-jr-child-autism-press-conference-when-there-is-ignorance-that-breeds-fear-	2025/04/18
Opinion - Trump is laughing at the Supreme Court and the Constitution	Trump Bulshit	The highest court in the land ruled unanimously that the Trump administration must "facilitate" the release of Kilmar Abrego Garcia, a Salvadoran national wrongfully deported, against a judge's order. It's El Salvador's release CECOT mega-prison. Compounding the problem is that the president has surrounded himself with men and women who are utterly loyal to him, unwilling to challenge him, and certainly unable to contain him. (The praise lavished on Trump by the members of his Cabinet during their meetings would make even Kim Jong Un blush.) On top of that, this is an administration filled with third-rate intellects, conspiracy theorists, and misfits. They aren't qualified to manage Oak Hill, Alabama, or Monowi, Nebraska, let alone the federal government. Their combination of maliceousness and incompetence has produced enormous, dangerous, and in some cases lethal disruptions. THE SECOND TRUMP PRESIDENCY, more even than the first, will be defined by Trump's authoritarian desires and his neptitude. It might be that the latter impedes the former, unless efficiency can help in the dismantling of democratic institutions, but having an administration filled with freaks and fools can impede that effort and catalyze public disaffection and even resistance.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-trump-laughing-supreme-court-11	2025/04/18
America's Mad King	Trump Bulshit	The highest court in the land ruled unanimously that the Trump administration must "facilitate" the release of Kilmar Abrego Garcia, a Salvadoran national wrongfully deported, against a judge's order. It's El Salvador's release CECOT mega-prison. Compounding the problem is that the president has surrounded himself with men and women who are utterly loyal to him, unwilling to challenge him, and certainly unable to contain him. (The praise lavished on Trump by the members of his Cabinet during their meetings would make even Kim Jong Un blush.) On top of that, this is an administration filled with third-rate intellects, conspiracy theorists, and misfits. They aren't qualified to manage Oak Hill, Alabama, or Monowi, Nebraska, let alone the federal government. Their combination of maliceousness and incompetence has produced enormous, dangerous, and in some cases lethal disruptions. THE SECOND TRUMP PRESIDENCY, more even than the first, will be defined by Trump's authoritarian desires and his neptitude. It might be that the latter impedes the former, unless efficiency can help in the dismantling of democratic institutions, but having an administration filled with freaks and fools can impede that effort and catalyze public disaffection and even resistance.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/america-mad-king-140804438.html	2025/04/18

		An E. coli outbreak linked to romaine lettuce ripped across 15 states in November, sickening dozens of people, including a 9-year-old boy in Indiana who nearly died of kidney failure and a 57-year-old Missouri woman who fell ill after attending a funeral lunch. One person died. But chances are you haven't heard about it.
A deadly E. coli outbreak hit 15 states, but the FDA chose not to publicize it	Health- E.coli	The Food and Drug Administration indicated in February that it had closed the investigation without publicly detailing what had happened — or which companies were responsible for growing and processing the contaminated lettuce.	https://www.rbcnews.com/news/usa-news/colli-bacteria-lettuce-outbreak	2025/04/18
U.S.-born American citizen under ICE hold in Florida, after arriving from Georgia	Borders and immigration	A U.S.-born American citizen was being detained at the request of immigration authorities Thursday despite an advocate showing his U.S. birth certificate in court and a county judge finding no reason for him to be considered an "illegal alien" who illegally entered Florida.	https://www.rbcnews.com/news/latino/us-born-citizen-detained-ice-jwr	2025/04/18
Associated Press Seeks New Court Order To Restore Access After Trump White House Excludes All Wire Services From Permanent Pool Slot	Information Blackout	The Associated Press is asking a federal judge to enforce his order that the Trump White House had to be open to the wire service because it refused to rename the Gulf of Mexico as the Gulf of America in style guidance. "It is time for you to leave the United States," read the threatening message that Dr. Lisa Anderson received last week, she told NBC affiliate WTVT on Wednesday. Anderson, 58, was born in Pennsylvania and lives in Cromwell.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/associated-press-seeks-court-order-1334	2025/04/18
Connecticut doctor born in Pennsylvania held to leave the U.S. by Homeland Security	Borders and immigration	Unlike two Massachusetts immigration attorneys and U.S. citizens who have received similar emails, Anderson has nothing to do with immigration. Except for now, as she's looking to hire just such a lawyer, confused as to what landed her on Homeland Security's radar.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/connecticut-doctor-born-pennsylvania-39	2025/04/18
The Trump Admin's Lies About Kilmar Abrego Garcia, Debunked	Borders and immigration	Summary She didn't say it was illegal because Trump wants it to happen, and Bondi has made clear throughout her first few months on the job that she's not concerned with the law so much as pleasing the president. It was no secret that Trump had designs on turning the Justice Department into an arm of the White House, but the degree to which Bondi and other officials are publicly pushing MAGA propaganda — largely through a steady stream of TV appearances — marks an alarming betrayal of the separation of powers that has undermined American democracy since the nation's founding. Trump, in his second term, doesn't want an attorney general with limits. He wants one who is wholly loyal to him and him alone — not to any personal sense of duty, not to federal law, not to the Constitution, not to the United States. ... She doesn't even pretend to operate with any independence. "You were overwhelmingly elected by the biggest majority, and Americans want you to be president because of your agenda," she gushed at the same Cabinet meeting, before insisting that he, not Congress, has "the authority to determine how the rest of country will be spent." (Freezing congressionally appropriated funds, an act known as "impoundment," is widely understood to be unconstitutional.) The Department of Government Efficiency's website quietly removed nearly one billion dollars in what it claims to have "saved" through canceled contracts, grants or leases this past week. ... The largest of the disappeared cuts made this week, identified using the Wayback Machine, appears to be a $1.1 billion contract with the Adacia Center for Justice. The group provided legal services for unaccompanied immigrant children who enter the U.S. DOGE initially claimed the termination would save $287 million, but now the contract isn't listed at all. ... Ed Martin, the Trump administration's nominee to serve as US attorney for Washington, DC, failed to report hundreds of media appearances he's made in the past few years, including many on far-right outlets and Russian-state media, when he first filed his mandated disclosure forms to Congress, a CNN review found.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-lies-kilmar-abrego-1538149	2025/04/18
Pam Bondi Stars in Trump's Made-for-TV Justice Department	Political Censorship	...	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pam-bondi-stars-trump-made-140000658	2025/04/18
Nearly $1 billion of DOGE 'savings' vanish overnight	Fuck that guy	...	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nearly-one-billion-dollars-doge-16300061	2025/04/18
Trump's pick to be DC's top prosecutor failed to report nearly 200 appearances on far-right media outlets to Senate	Political Censorship	But a CNN Kfile analysis of Martin's initial 27-page disclosure form reveals that it does not come close to capturing the extent of his media appearances, and it lacks any reference to at least 240 podcasts, radio and TV interviews he's done in the past two years alone.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-pick-dc-top-prosecutor-110036970	2025/04/18
		The main connection between the Garcia case and the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund case would seem to be the Trump administration's disregard for the rule of law. But they have a more substantive connection, as well. Consider the "evidence." Zeldin's EPA has muscled against the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund. The EPA cited a video from Project Veritas—known for hidden-camera sting operations against liberals—that showed an EPA employee in the weeks after Trump's election saying the agency was "trying to get the money out as fast as possible before they come in and stop it all... It truly feels like we're on the Titanic, and we're throwing, like, gold bars off the edge." The employee wasn't referring to the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund, as funds from that program had been allocated more than a month before Trump was elected, in accordance with federal statute. Nevertheless, Zeldin and Trump-aligned media used the clip as an opportunity to spread the idea that the Biden administration was distributing "gold bars" to a handful of shady nonprofits. Zeldin demanded that Citibank "must immediately return all of the gold bars," and official EPA communications have similarly raised the specter of some physical cache of actual gold bars. No such thing exists, of course. "Here we are, weeks in, and you're still unable to proffer me any evidence with regard to malfeasance," Chutkan told Justice Department lawyers during one hearing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/common-thread-between-abrego-garcia-	2025/04/18
The Common Thread Between Abrego Garcia and the EPA's 'Gold Bars'	Constitutional Crisis	Republican Rep. Dan Meuser (Penn.) suggested that Pennsylvania Gov. Josh Shapiro was asking for it when an attacker burned down part of his house after his Passover celebration and that he needs to "tone it down" with actions against President Donald Trump.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-rep-says-arson-shapiro-co-201520046	2025/04/18
GOP Rep Says Arson On Shapiro's House Should Make Him 'Tone It Down' On Trump	Political Censorship	Despite Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s pledge to "Make America Healthy Again," the Department of Health and Human Services has abruptly added an advisory committee responsible for recommending which genetic disorders should be included in newborn health screenings.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-axes-hhs-committee-advising-2	2025/04/18
Kennedy axes HHS committee advising states on genetic screening for newborns	Health- Babies	You have the right to see a warrant. Ask the officer to stop the warrant underneath the door or display it through a window. If you open the door and allow the official to come into the house, this may be considered "consent" to enter. The warrant must be signed by a state or federal judge or a magistrate, giving the officer permission to enter your home. You're required to open the door only if the warrant has your correct information, a valid date, and is signed by a judge or magistrate. Look closely. Sometimes immigration officers only have paperwork they have issued.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-stepping-raids-know-rights-15000000	2025/04/18
ICE is Stepping Up Raids, Know Your Rights Before They Knock	Borders and immigration	Stewart first interceded with Eastman not in the aftermath of Trump's failed insurrection but in 2015, when she lashed him to a tiny, canted concave in, of all places, Verona, Italy. Eastman was speaking at the annual conference of the World Congress of Families—a far-right, Russian-American organization dedicated to the abolition of abortion and the buttressing of so-called "traditional values"—regaling his audience with tales of "how secularism, liberalism, and gender confusion are destroying everything good in the world." The speech, as Stewart writes, revealed Eastman to be "a committed ally of the theocrats." But there was also "some foundation other than biblical literalism." Stewart sensed, propelling him and cementing the kinds of liberal alliances crucial to Trump's reign.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-coalition-destroy-american-democrac	2025/04/18
The New Far-Right Coalition That's Out to Destroy American Democracy	Political Censorship	A 27-year-old man from Columbia who was being detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents allegedly threw an elbow and busted an agent's nose, according to federal prosecutors.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/columbian-national-broke-ice-agent-1926	2025/04/18
Colombian national 'broke ICE agent's nose' during attempted arrest in New Jersey	Borders and immigration	Whether you are a natural-born American Republican who worked in the Trump administration or a foreign-born pro-Palestinian student protester on a green card — anyone in this country, citizen or otherwise, can be deemed "bad people" by this government. And Trump is demonstrating that he will deploy the brute force of the most powerful office in the world on you, if he so chooses.
		The continued survival of some of America's most sacrosanct values — including due process, freedom of speech, and checks and balances on the executive branch — is not certain. This isn't hyperbole. It is no longer an abstract threat. There's no reason to believe "it can't happen here" as it's already happening.	https://www.msnbc.com/opinion/msnbc-opinion/trump-due-process-dog	2025/04/18
When the second Trump White House promises to do something lawless — they mean it	Constitutional Crisis	Federal courts have broad discretion to determine whether a party is in contempt of court, according to the Brennan Center, a nonpartisan law and policy institute. The process would start with a judge issuing an order to show cause. Not said, which would essentially direct the government to explain why they appear to not be complying with an order. In Abrego Garcia's case, he said, the court would likely have to first take steps to develop a record about who is making the decisions. Context: There are two kinds of contempt proceedings: Civil and criminal.
How judges can hold Trump admin accountable for defying court orders	Constitutional Crisis	Civil contempt, which is outside of the president's pardon power, seeks to force a party to comply. Not explained: Trump is familiar with the concept. Criminal contempt, on the other hand, is more about "punishing disrespect" of court authority — but it is subject to a presidential pardon. Trump has experience with this, too. The Supreme Court said on Thursday that it will hear arguments next month over President Trump's efforts to restrict birthright citizenship. ... The nation's highest court said it would hear oral arguments over the case on May 15. ... There are two types in the U.S.: jus sanguinis, ancestry-based citizenship, and jus soli, birthplace-based citizenship. In the former, which means "right of blood," children born abroad to at least one U.S. citizen parent may be entitled to U.S. citizenship, if they meet certain requirements. Jus soli, on the other hand, is "the right of the soil" guaranteeing citizenship to almost everyone born in the U.S.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/15/trump-defy-court-orders-contempt-g	2025/04/21
		Another House Republican committee chair said Friday he will not grant Democrats' request to lead a congressional delegation to El Salvador to check on the status of deportees being held there. ... At least seven House Republicans were present on the trip, according to a photo posted to X by the U.S. embassy in El Salvador. Driving the news: House Oversight Committee chair James Comer (R-Ky.), who was not on Smith's CODEL, said in a letter released Friday that he won't let Reps. Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) and Maxwell Frost (D-Fla.) lead their own.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/15/supreme-court-trump-deportations-y	2025/04/21
Supreme Court halts Venezuelan migrant deportations under Alien Enemies Act	Borders and immigration	Justice Clarence Thomas and Samuel Alito dissented. The 50501 movement takes momentum from recent protests to encourage Americans to become each other's "social support web" as the administration's policies target marginalized communities. The 50501 movement, meaning 50 protests, 50 states, 1 movement, is pushing back against what it called executive overreach from the Trump administration. Its organizing started on Reddit. "Our movement shows the world that the American working class will not sit idly by as plutocrats rip apart their democratic institutions and civil liberties while undermining the rule of law," the movement's website said.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/15/50501-protests-saturday-trump	2025/04/21
What to know about birthright citizenship as it heads to Supreme Court	Citizenship	Zoom in: The website alleges with no evidence that the Biden administration "engaged in a multi-year campaign of delay, confusion and non-responsiveness" to hide evidence. It also said the World Health Organization's response to the pandemic was an "abject failure because it caved to pressure from the Chinese Communist Party and placed China's political interests ahead of its international duties." The website criticizes Anthony Fauci, former director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, for pushing a "preferred narrative." Fauci denied suppressing evidence for the lab leak theory during House testimony last year. The Trump administration ousted Gary Shapley as acting commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, multiple outlets reported on Friday, citing anonymous sources. Trump selected former Rep. Billy Long (R-Mo.) to lead the agency, but he hasn't had a Senate confirmation hearing yet.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/18/covid-lab-leak-website-trump-white	2025/04/21
White House pushes COVID lab leak theory with new website	Trump Bullshit	Zoom out: The previous interim head, Melanie Krause, resigned after the Treasury Department agreed to release immigrants' tax data to immigrations and Customs enforcement.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/15/trump-internal-revenue-service-acti	2025/04/21
Trump administration replaces acting IRS commissioner	Trump Admin	Stop trying to predict and appraise President Trump's tariffs policies based on economic theories or market realities. Tariffs are pure psychology for the president, based into his brain like no other topic. Trump approaches tariffs, the remaking of the U.S. economy and the reshaping of global trade as a continuation of his presidential campaign. He ignored experts and assembled a team dedicated to executing his will and shuffling off the consequences of his unpredictability. He's not changing now — rocky rollout and chaotic financial markets be damned. "Donald Trump works at his own tempo, and he doesn't change the subject until he's sure he's clubbed people into seeing it as he does," the adviser said.	https://www.axes.com/2025/04/18/trump-mindset-tariffs	2025/04/21
Inside Trump's tariff brain	Trump Bullshit

Wrongly deported Abrego Garcia traumatized at El Salvador's CECOT megaposition. Van Hollen	Borders and immigration	Abrego Garcia said his prison cell at CECOT had about 25 prisoners, and he was not afraid of them. He told Van Hollen he was fearful of prisoners in other cell blocks, who taunted him. Most cells were packed with about 100 people, Abrego Garcia estimated.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/18/imm-arrego-garcia-van-hollen-me	2025/04/21
The White House is for the first time soliciting corporate sponsors for the annual Easter Egg Roll event to be held Monday on the South Lawn. This comes as billionaire tech executives have faced growing criticism for cozying up to the Trump administration.	Trump Admin-Embarrasing	Board games have been booming. But the industry is starting to collapse under the weight of hefty tariffs against China, where most board games are produced.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/04/18/s-a-1-41377/white-house-easter-egg-rol	2025/04/21
White House solicits corporate sponsors for its Easter Egg Roll event		Board games have been booming. But the industry is starting to collapse under the weight of hefty tariffs against China, where most board games are produced.
"People are losing their jobs, publishers are already closing," said Sam Bryant of Runaway Parade Games. "Containers full of games that were bound for the U.S. market are now sitting in warehouses in China."		The recent industry contraction has discouraged her, not just as a designer, but as a fan. "I know of specific games that I was waiting to play that aren't going to be created now," she said. "Hopefully we find another path forward or these tariffs change — but for now, I think we're just mourning the loss of this incredible era of board games."
Tariffs against China threaten the booming board game industry	Economy-Tariffs	"A whole class of people who would have been the new designers are going to be wiped off the board and we won't see these new, unique ideas," Bryant said. "And it will become kind of a stagnant industry and people will just have what they have."	https://www.wbur.org/heresanother/2025/04/17/tariffs-board-games	2025/04/21
		A later found out that her adoptive parents never completed her naturalization. It meant she was technically barred from accessing things that she took for granted all her life — like college financial aid. It also left A, who is now in her 40s, vulnerable to deportation to her native South Korea — a country she hasn't been to since she was 3 weeks old, where she doesn't speak the language or know of any family.
She grew up believing she was a U.S. citizen. Then she applied for a passport	Borders and immigration	Congress tried to address this issue by passing the Child Citizenship Act in 2000, which grants automatic citizenship to international adoptees. But the law only covered future adoptees and those under 18 at the time the law went into effect, or only those born after February 1983. It also did not apply to children who were brought to the U.S. on the wrong type of visa.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/04/18/s-a-1-43166/trump-immigration-citizen	2025/04/21
Thousands of federal workers would be easier to fire under Trump rule change	Government Jobs	The Trump administration is moving forward with efforts to make it easier to fire some federal workers from their jobs, as part of its push to both shrink the federal government and exert more control over it.
		On Friday the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) proposed a rule reclassifying tens of thousands of career civil servants as "at-will" employees, the White House announced in a statement. Removing civil service protections would make workers easier to fire.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/04/18/s-a-1-4389550/trump-federal-workers-	2025/04/21
		All our U.S. customers have stopped their orders, she said. "Everyone is waiting. Nobody knows what's going on and we're all confused."
		"The next morning, our customers were calling and emailing, one after the other, to stop their orders," Jiang said.
No more 'made-in-China' in the U.S.? It's headed that way, Chinese exporters say	Economy-Tariffs	Last year, the United States imported $438.9 billion worth of Chinese goods, according to the office of the U.S. Trade Representative. China was the United States' third biggest source of imported goods after the European Union and Mexico.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/04/18/s-a-1-4396532/a-trade-fair-in-southern	2025/04/21
		"The elevated tariffs now levied in both directions are consistent with most bilateral trade ceasing within the space of a couple of years," he wrote in a note on Thursday.
Who is Jennifer Rauchert, wife of Pete Hegseth said to have been included on Signal chat about Yemen attack?	National security	Defense secretary Pete Hegseth's "Signalgate" has raised as he again after a new bombshell report that he shared details of a U.S. military strike on Yemen in a second group chat. This time, Hegseth is in hot water for reportedly adding his wife Jennifer Rauchert, brother Phil, and personal attorney Tim Parlatore, to a second Signal group where details about upcoming military strikes aimed at the Houthis were discussed, according to the New York Times.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jennifer-rauchert-wife-pete-hegseth-00257	2025/04/21
As legal fight rages, ICE buses filled with Venezuelans heading toward airport turned around, video shows	Borders and immigration	Video from Friday night shows Immigration and Customs Enforcement buses full of Venezuelan migrants headed toward an airport in North Texas and abruptly turning around before the Supreme Court ruled the Trump administration must, for now, refrain from deporting Venezuelan men based in the state under the Alien Enemies Act.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/legal-fight-rages-ice-buses-116535383.html	2025/04/21
		At least 28 detainees — most, if not all, understood to be Venezuelan nationals — were placed on buses Friday evening at ICE's Bluebonnet Detention Center in Arson, Texas, and driven toward Abilene Airport, about 30 miles away.
Hegseth shared detailed military plans in second Signal chat that included his wife and brother	National security	The revelation comes as some of Hegseth's closest advisers have begun sounding the alarm about the secretary's judgment, including his former press secretary, John Uhlly, and three former senior officials Hegseth fired last week — his top adviser Dan Caldwell, deputy chief of staff Devin Selnick, and Colin Carroll, who served as chief of staff to the deputy secretary of defense.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-shared-detailed-military-plans-2	2025/04/21
		"It's been a month of total chaos at the Pentagon. From leaks of sensitive operational plans to mass firings, the dysfunction is now a major distraction for the president — who deserves better from his senior leadership," Uhlly said in a statement.
		President Donald Trump's Justice Department is defending the Affordable Care Act before the Supreme Court — a notable contrast to his first term, when his administration sought to repeal the law in Congress and then refused to defend it in a major challenge brought by GOP-led states. But a win for the federal government in the current case, concerning the law's mandates that certain preventive services are covered cost-free, could boost the power that Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has in shaping those requirements.
		On Monday, the justices will be considering the legality of certain no-cost-sharing coverage mandates that were created by a government entity known as the US Preventive Services Task Force, which issues recommendations that are supposed to be shielded from political influence.
Trump is defending Obamacare at the Supreme Court. A win could boost RFR Jr.'s influence	Supreme Court	At stake is the ability of millions of Americans to access cost-free preventive services that include cancer screenings, statins that help prevent cardiovascular diseases, PEP drugs that help prevent HIV infections, and counseling referrals for pregnant and postpartum women at increased risk of depression.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-defending-obamacare-supreme-co	2025/04/21
		Doddle, 59, is feeling an acutely personal version of the emotions shared by many Canadians. The border was once an afterthought, a barely existing barrier that Canadians and Americans traversed routinely for the most casual of reasons. Now that frontier, which is clearly visible from the roof of city hall, has become all-consuming for the residents of border towns who used to take living, working and playing between the United States and Canada for granted. Many of Doddle's constituents are furious with their southern neighbor, insisting that they will not travel to the U.S. or even purchase American-made products. Ahead of Canada's April 28 elections, the nation's relationship with the United States has become the defining issue of the campaign. The financial implications of the looming trade war are huge and destabilizing for the national economy, but so too are the much harder to quantify emotional costs of estrangement.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/canadian-mayor-once-revered-trump-110	2025/04/21
'We Didn't Even See the Border — Until Now.' How Trump Has Driven Canadians and Americans Apart	Borders and immigration	DHL Express announced it will suspend deliveries of more than $800 in response to cost increases and U.S. Customs regulations brought on by the Trump administration's tariff plan.
DHL suspends shipments of more than $800 in response to Trump tariff plan	Economy-Tariffs	DHL said the deliveries will stop temporarily on Monday "until further notice," it said, adding that business-to-business shipments will continue but may face delays.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/dhl-suspends-shipments-more-800-18	2025/04/21
		Previously, shipments of up to $2,500 were allowed to enter the United States with little paperwork, but starting Monday, the threshold will be lowered.
		If Donald Trump were trying to lose his trade war with China, it's hard to see what he would be doing differently. The president's gambit is likely to strengthen China's geopolitical position, embolden Beijing militarily, and diminish both the United States' global standing and its economy.
What if China Wins the Trade War?	Economy-Trade war	According to data gathered by Jason Miller, a professor at Michigan State University who specializes in supply-chain management, China produces more than 70 percent of the world's lithium-ion batteries, air conditioners, and cookware; more than 80 percent of the world's smartphones, kitchen appliances, and toys; and about 90 percent of the world's solar panels and processed rare earth minerals, the latter of which are crucial inputs to cars, phones, and several key military technologies.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/china-loses-trade-war-11300134.html	2025/04/21
		Some Democrats worry that Elon Musk may be pushed out of government before they can target him in the midterm attack ads, according to a report.
Democrats fear that Elon Musk may be pushed out of government before they can use him in midterm attack ads	Fuck That Guy	The untested billionaire has proved an effective target for the Democrats after he has gutted federal agencies through the Department of Government Efficiency, but the party is "concerned" about their strategy if Musk takes a step back, Politico reports.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/democrats-fear-elon-musk-may-1442200	2025/04/21
		"As long as he's there using a chessman to all the programs that people back home rely on and need to make ends meet, of course we're going to make him a central character," Rep. Lori Trahan of Massachusetts, the co-chair of the House Democrats' messaging committee, told the outlet.
		Immigration officials detained a US citizen for nearly 10 days in Arizona, according to court records and press reports.
US citizen wrongfully arrested by border patrol in Arizona held for nearly 10 days	Borders and immigration	As the NPR affiliate Arizona Public Media, first reported, 19-year-old Jose Hermosillo, a New Mexico resident visiting Arizona, was detained by border patrol agents in Nogales, a city along the Mexico border about an hour south of Tucson.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/20/us-citizen-jose-hem	2025/04/21
		According to a border patrol criminal complaint, on 8 April, a border patrol official found Hermosillo "without the proper immigration documents" and claimed that the young American had admitted entering the US illegally from Mexico. Two days later, the federal court document notes that Hermosillo consented to claim he was a US citizen. On 17 April, a federal judge dismissed his case.
		Fears of a new wave of deportations and student visa cancellations are rising at a number of Florida's most diverse universities after administrators signed agreements recasting campus police as federal immigration agents.
'Trust is gone': fears grow as police on some Florida campuses trained by ICE	Borders and immigration	Miami's Florida International University (FIU) is one of at least 11 state colleges to enroll in the top tier of the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) 287(g) program that trains local police departments for "limited" involvement in immigration operations.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/21/florida-universities-	2025/04/21
		The partnerships give campus officers broad new powers to stop, question and detain students about their immigration status, and share information directly with ICE, which students and faculty members believe could escalate the Trump administration's assault on those studying in the US from abroad.
		Britain's national parks have warned of a "catastrophic" risk from wildfires this Easter after one of the driest early spring seasons on record.
UK national parks warn of 'catastrophic' risk from wildfires this Easter	Environment-Wildfires	A number of national parks have advised day-trippers about the dangers of lighting barbecues and dropping cigarettes after one of the worst fire seasons on record.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/apr/18/uk-national-pa	2025/04/21
		For the second year in a row, abortion providers performed more than 1m abortions in the United States in 2024. About 155,000 people crossed state lines for abortions — roughly double the number of patients who did so in 2020, before the US supreme court overturned Roe v Wade and paved the way for more than a dozen state-level abortion bans to take effect.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/20/us-abortion-travel-repo	2025/04/21
New figures shed light on US abortion travel as Trump cuts travelling research	Reproductive Rights	China has warned it will take "resolute and reciprocal" countermeasures against other countries negotiating with the US if they make a deal at China's expense during the trade war.
		"China firmly opposes any party reaching a deal at the expense of China's interests," the ministry said on Monday.
Beijing threatens countermeasures against countries that appease Washington in trade war	Economy-Trade war	"Apparement will not bring peace, and compromise will not be respected... To seek one's own temporary selfish interests at the expense of others interests is to seek the skin of a tiger." On Easter Sunday, communities in Texas and Oklahoma were beginning to assess the damage weakened by tornadoes. There were 17 reported events Saturday, according to Bob Oravec, lead forecaster with the National Weather Service's Weather Prediction Center. Five were confirmed in south-central Oklahoma, including one that inflicted substantial damage on a small town that was still recovering from a March tornado.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/21/beijing-threatens-count	2025/04/21
		The storm also brought heavy rain to a broad swath of north-central Texas across central-eastern Oklahoma, much of which saw 2 to 4 inches (5 to 10 centimeters) accumulate Saturday into Sunday.
Tornado-producing storm deals deadly weather to Oklahoma and Texas	Environment-Tornado	The impact of the cuts by Trump appointees and Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency can be found everywhere in the Kansas City metropolitan area, which has long been a major hub for federal agencies about 1,000 miles away from Washington, D.C. Money once promised to the region for public health, environmental, diversity, food aid and an array of other programs has been and, and thousands of local jobs are in jeopardy.	https://apnews.com/article/oklahoma-flooding-deaths-weather-40b64f2	2025/04/21
This Midwestern city has long been a federal hub. The pain from DOGE's cuts is everywhere	Government Jobs	That story, "Prince and Knight," is one of five children's books featuring LGBTQ+ characters and aimed at kindergarten through the fifth grade that have roiled a diverse suburban Maryland school district and led to a Supreme Court case that the justices will hear on Tuesday.	https://apnews.com/article/doge-federal-cuts-job-musk-trump-kansas-c	2025/04/21
		Parents in Montgomery County who object for religious reasons want to pull their children from elementary school classes that use the books.
		The county school system has refused and lower courts have so far agreed.
A prince and knight fall in love and the Supreme Court is asked to intervene	Censorship	But the outcome could be different at a high court dominated by conservative justices who have repeatedly endorsed claims of religious discrimination in recent years.	https://apnews.com/article/supreme-court-maryland-lgbtq-books-public	2025/04/21

Everglades restoration would protect Florida Keys, while scientists watch drought conditions	Environment-Everglades	Steve Davis, chief science officer with The Everglades Foundation, called Florida Bay the estuary of the Everglades, which is actually a giant, slow-moving river starting around Orlando and running toward the southern end of the Florida peninsula. "What that meant for Florida Bay was that during wet years, there's enough water getting into the bay to keep the salinities within that optimal salinity range," Davis said. "But when we run into an average-to-dry year or a drought year, it meant that salinity levels in the bay would get so high that it could be detrimental to the health of the seagrasses and the other species that depend on that habitat." Florida Bay doesn't have particularly strong tides, meaning water can sit in the bay for up to a year. When evaporating seawater isn't replaced by water from the Everglades, bay salinity levels can double normal ocean salinity, Davis explained. A California city is considering arresting unhoused people who refuse their offer of shelter. San Jose Mayor Matt Mahan made the admission last month. Just 48 miles south of San Francisco, where officials are also struggling with how to solve homelessness, Mahan is aiming to fit the proposal into a pending budget plan that would allocate funding for shelter and temporary housing, per KQED.	https://nbcnews.com/flix/everglades-restoration-efforts-florida-bay-th	2025/04/21
California city may start arresting homeless people who refuse offer of shelter	Economy-Housing	If enacted, unhoused residents would first be issued a citation or warning. They'd only be subject to arrest if they decline shelter three times. As Donald Trump nears the end of his first 100 days in office, he has issued a record-breaking high of 124 executive orders, while signing a record-breaking low of just five new bills into law, and caused concerns among constitutional scholars. "These orders are extraordinary, not just in their number, but in their breadth," said Rory Little, a law professor at the University of California. San Francisco said at a recent panel discussion. "The current state of affairs can be characterized I think with no exaggeration as a crisis, a challenge to the rule of the law in the United States."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/san-jose-shelter-a	2025/04/21
Trump has signed just five bills into law...while issuing 124 executive orders. Here is why that matters	Trump Bullyh	Others in the panel noted how many of Trump's executive orders have pushed into areas typically run by states. Trump has set records for both his executive order tally and how few bills he has received from Congress. Instead, he has governed by his signature and targeted immigration, tariffs, diversity programs, education and a host of other areas. He has taken pen to paper to reshape America in his image with little resistance or pushback. A former commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service has warned that the Trump administration is weaponizing the agency and "priding itself on revenge." John Koskinen, who held the role of IRS commissioner from 2013 to 2017, has sounded the alarm as the agency is considering revoking Harvard University's tax-exempt status following the public fallout with President Donald Trump, and has agreed it will share undocumented immigrants' taxpayer data with the Department of Homeland Security. "This feels more like a total frontal attack," Koskinen said. "And not only the budget—it's the attempt to get access to protected data. And from the president suggesting that Harvard's tax-exempt status ought to be reviewed, it's just a small step to start ordering audits, even though that's illegal, and we start moving back toward the Nixon 'enemies list.'"	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/04/21
'This is an administration priding itself on revenge.' Ex-IRS head sounds alarm over Trump's weaponization of agency	Trump Bullyh	"This is an administration priding itself on revenge, and the FBI director and the Department of Justice people are out there saying, in effect, 'We're going to get our opponents,'" Koskinen added when asked whether he believes Trump officials will succeed in making the IRS a "tool of his retribution." President Donald Trump bragged this week that gas is down to $1.98 a gallon in a "couple of states." In fact it isn't, anywhere. "The two states that were tied with the lowest average gas price on Wednesday, Mississippi and Tennessee, were both at $2.70 per gallon, according to data provided" by Triple A. The White House was unable to substantiate Trump's figures, though spokesperson Harrison Fields chided reporters to get out of their "big city bubble" and check the gas prices in "Middle America" — where they're also not $1.98.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/04/21
Trump brags gas is down to $1.98 a gallon in a 'couple of states.' It isn't — anywhere	Trump Bullyh	Trump also claimed to reporters that the high price of eggs plummeted 92 percent, which is also not true. The Pentagon is in "total chaos" and Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth is unlikely to remain in his role, according to his former top spokesperson, who parried a storm of dysfunction, backstabbing and continuous mistakes at the highest levels of the department.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/04/21
Former Pentagon official warns department's dysfunction could topple Hegseth	Government-DOD	Salvadoran President Nayib Bukele proposed carrying out a prisoner swap with Venezuela on Sunday, suggesting he would exchange Venezuelan deportees from the United States whose government has kept imprisoned for what he called "political prisoners" in Venezuela.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/former-pentagon-official-warns-departme	2025/04/21
Salvadoran President Bukele proposes prisoner swap with Maduro for Venezuelan deportees	Borders and immigration	Former Republican National Committee (RNC) chair Michael Steele raised an eyebrow Friday about the Trump administration's dedication to preventing Kimar Abrego Garcia, a mistakenly deported man held in El Salvador, from returning to the U.S. Steele, in an essay published by MSNBC, called President Trump's playbook on the matter "an attempt to normalize the extrajudicial deportation of undocumented immigrants like Abrego Garcia and perhaps even U.S. citizens."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/salvador-president-nayib-bukele-2204	2025/04/21
Former RNC chief questions Trump, Vance on 'unearned amnesia' around Abrego Garcia case	Political Cesspool	A new study models the impact of the imposition of U.S.-funded disease treatment and prevention in the developing world — and suggests that Elon Musk and Marco Rubio will go down as among history's greatest monsters if funding and effective administration are not restored. In short: Tens of millions will die, millions of children die. Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy Jr. again likened autism to an "epidemic" and said it is far worse than millions of COVID-19 deaths. The health and human services secretary made the comparison during a Sunday interview with billionaire GOP donor John Catsimatidis on WBAC 770 AM's The Calls Roundtable. Moreover, he claimed that the "pure economic cost of autism" will cost the United States $1 billion a year in lost "productivity" by 2035.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/former-rnc-chief-questions-trump-173610	2025/04/21
Count the Dead by the Millions	Profite	"Autism affects children and affects them at the beginning of their lives, the beginning of their productivity," RFK Jr. said. "It dwarfs the COVID epidemic and the impacts on our country because COVID killed old people." Every 30 minutes, an emergency department treats another firearm injury, according to a new analysis from researchers at the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention that looked at 10 jurisdictions, including the District of Columbia. But cuts from the US Department of Health and Human Services and proposed changes to the federal budget could threaten research that reveals these kinds of firearm injury patterns. Experts say it would be nearly impossible to replicate the scale and scope of the timely firearm research the federal government is able to conduct.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/court-dead-millions-133000054.html	2025/04/21
RFK Jr. Calls Autism Worse than Covid in New Bonkers Rant	Cesspool	The Trump administration has slashed funding for universities and scientific research. Now, its lackeys appear to be escalating their tactics by menacing academic journals. "A publication's editorial decisions are none of the government's business, whether it's a newspaper or a medical journal," JT Morris, a senior supervising attorney at the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression, told MediaPage Today. "When a United States Attorney wields the power of his office to target medical journals because of their content and editorial processes, he isn't doing his job, let alone upholding his constitutional oath," Morris added. "He's abusing his authority to try to chill protected speech." So if DOGE isn't saving us money, what's the reason for all the cuts? It can't be motivated by the cliché that "government should be run like a business." No successful business runs on the kind of bedlam being sown by Musk. What, in short, is going on here? Here are four possible explanations for what DOGE is actually up to. Maybe none of them are right. Or perhaps they're all accurate, to varying degrees. But one thing is certain: Each of them provides a more plausible insight into what DOGE is doing than the official explanation of saving taxpayers money. (1) It's an "exit" plan (2) It's techno-libertarianism for all (3) It's a heist (4) It's a confederacy of dunces	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-calls-autism-worse-145415477.html	2025/04/21
With future of gun research in question, new report finds US emergency departments see a firearm injury every 30 minutes	Guns	The Trump administration has slashed funding for universities and scientific research. Now, its lackeys appear to be escalating their tactics by menacing academic journals. "A publication's editorial decisions are none of the government's business, whether it's a newspaper or a medical journal," JT Morris, a senior supervising attorney at the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression, told MediaPage Today. "When a United States Attorney wields the power of his office to target medical journals because of their content and editorial processes, he isn't doing his job, let alone upholding his constitutional oath," Morris added. "He's abusing his authority to try to chill protected speech." So if DOGE isn't saving us money, what's the reason for all the cuts? It can't be motivated by the cliché that "government should be run like a business." No successful business runs on the kind of bedlam being sown by Musk. What, in short, is going on here? Here are four possible explanations for what DOGE is actually up to. Maybe none of them are right. Or perhaps they're all accurate, to varying degrees. But one thing is certain: Each of them provides a more plausible insight into what DOGE is doing than the official explanation of saving taxpayers money. (1) It's an "exit" plan (2) It's techno-libertarianism for all (3) It's a heist (4) It's a confederacy of dunces	https://www.yahoo.com/news/future-gun-research-in-question-new-report-finds-us-emergency-departments-see-a-firearm-injury-every-30-minutes-1155365	2025/04/21
The Government is Now Threatening Academic Journals	Information Blackout	Call that the Trump triple play — he declares an emergency, then proclaims to have remedied the emergency, and then demands expansive powers to deal with the emergency that he claims to have already resolved. A federal judge in Massachusetts has ordered the State Department to issue passports to six transgender and nonbinary individuals while litigation continues challenging President Donald Trump's policy recognizing people only by their sex assigned at birth Trump's order signed on his first day returning to office Jan. 20 directed the government to recognize only two sexes, male and female. The State Department changed its policies to issue passports that "accurately reflect the holder's sex" assigned at birth, as directed in Trump's order. The change reversed more than 30 years of State Department policy allowing people to fill out passport applications based on gender identity. In 2022, the Biden administration allowed applicants to choose X as a neutral marker on applications, in addition to M for male or F for female. Harvard President Alan Garber said in a message to the campus community Monday that the "consequences of the government's overreach will be severe and long-lasting" and accused the administration of trying to impose "unprecedented and improper control." He said that while there are valid concerns about rising antisemitism, the law requires the government to engage with the university about the ways it is fighting that antisemitism. "The Government has not—and cannot—identify any rational connection between antisemitism concerns and the medical, scientific, technological, and other research it has frozen that aims to save American lives, foster American success, preserve American security, and maintain America's position as a global leader in innovation," states the complaint, filed in Massachusetts federal court. Harvard has "reasonable fear" that the administration will terminate or freeze additional federal funding, the filing states.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/government-now-threatening-academic-j	2025/04/21
DOGE isn't saving much money. So what is Elon Musk really up to?	Fuck That Guy	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-really-doge-4-080401392.htm	2025/04/21
Trump needs you to believe there's a border 'emergency' so he can deport anyone Opinion	Borders and immigration	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-needs-believe-there-no-border-emergency-0830	2025/04/21
Judge orders State Department to provide passports to transgender people despite Trump order	Rainbow threats	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/judge-orders-state-department-passports	2025/04/21
Harvard sues Trump administration over funding freeze	Freedom of speech	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/harvard-sues-trump	2025/04/22
Scoop: Thousands of fired federal probationary workers have complaints rejected	Government Jobs	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/probatinary-workers-fired-doge	2025/04/22
First House Republican calls for Pete Hegseth's ouster	Government	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/don-bacon-pete-hegseth-signal	2025/04/22
Turmoil engulfs Pentagon as fresh Signal allegations hit Hegseth	National security	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/hegseth-second-signal-chat-yemen	2025/04/22
Supreme Court seems likely to uphold ACA preventive services mandate	Supreme Court	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/aca-supreme-court-preventive-serv	2025/04/22
Four House Dems travel to El Salvador despite GOP refusal	Politics	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/21/democrats-at-salvador-trump-ecoli	2025/04/22
Exclusive: The White House is looking to replace Pete Hegseth as defense secretary	Government-DOD	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/21/st-5371312/trump-white-house-pete	2025/04/22
The Justice Department and Google battle over how to fix a search engine monopoly	Economy-Monopoly	As many as 2,002 fired federal probationary workers who filed complaints with the Office of Special Counsel have had their cases dismissed as lacking merit, a source familiar with the dismissals tells Axios. These workers are among the tens of thousands caught in limbo after being fired — followed by a series of court rulings reinstating them, and then staying those reinstatements. Rep. Don Bacon (R-Neb.) on Monday became the first Republican member of Congress to openly indicate support for Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth's removal from office. "The military should always pride itself on operational security. If the reports are true, the Secretary of Defense has failed at operational security, and that is unacceptable," Bacon told Axios. Hegseth's chief of staff, Joe Kasper, left his job for another role at the Defense Department. He helped lead the leak investigation. The New York Times first reported Sunday that Hegseth "shared detailed information about forthcoming strikes in Yemen in a private Signal group chat that included his wife, brother and personal lawyer," Hegseth created the group in January before he was confirmed as defense secretary, per the NYT, citing unnamed sources. Supreme Court justices appeared inclined Monday to keep the Affordable Care Act's requirement that insurers cover certain recommended preventive services at no cost. At stake is access to no-cost screenings, tests, HIV drugs and counseling for the roughly 150 million Americans with private health insurance. After House Republicans refused to allow Democrats to organize official congressional delegations to El Salvador, four of them are traveling to the Central American nation anyway, Axios has learned.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/21/st-5339404/google-doj-opening-sta	2025/04/22

		On April 7, the high court clearly said that if the government intends to deport a foreign-born resident, it must notify the individual "within a reasonable period of time" so that the individual has the ability to challenge the removal in court prior to deportation. In the nearly two weeks that followed, however, the Trump administration dragged its feet, avoiding meaningful compliance with the court's order. This time the high court acted swiftly, releasing a one-paragraph order so quickly that the court did not even wait for the two dissenters to file their opinion explaining their disagreement. That was not the only extraordinary feature of the court's order.
Clash between Trump and the courts sparks questions of a constitutional crisis	Constitutional Crisis	Although couched in legal terms, the order reeked of mistrial for the government. Entire teams based at the CDC's injury center that focused on motor vehicle crashes, child maltreatment, rape prevention and education, drowning, traumatic brain injury, falls in the elderly, and other issues were eliminated. "A lot of the work we do will not be picked up by anyone else," one senior health scientist who lost their job tells NPR.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/18/wa-st-5398492/trump-courts-constitution	2025/04/22
With CDC injury prevention team gutted, 'we will not know what is killing us'	Government- CDC	Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Secretary Kristi Noem had her handbag - with $3,000 ($2,260 cash inside - stolen from her while dining at a Washington, DC, restaurant.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/04/21/nx-1-5371	2025/04/22
Kristi Noem's bag with $3,000 stolen from DC restaurant	Political Cesspool	Her bag contained several personal items in addition to the cash, including her driver's license, passport and DHS access badge, law enforcement sources told BBC's US partner CBS News. A groundbreaking microscope at Harvard Medical School could lead to breakthroughs in cancer detection and research long-term. But the scientist who developed computer scripts to read its images and unlock its full potential has been in an immigration detention center for two months — putting crucial scientific advancements at risk. The scientist, the 30-year-old Russian-born Ksenia Perlova, worked at Harvard's renowned Kirschner Lab until her arrest at a Boston airport in mid-February. She is now being held at ICE's Richmond Correctional Center in Monroe, Louisiana, and fighting possible deportation to Russia, where she said she fears persecution and jail time over her protests against the war in Ukraine.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kristi-noems-bag-3-000-211619421.html	2025/04/22
New images could change cancer diagnostics but ICE detained the Harvard scientist who analyzes them	Borders and immigration	Elon Musk is reportedly set to leave his government role because he's tired of the what he sees as a litany of vicious and unethical attacks from the left, according to a report from The Washington Post.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/images-could-change-cancer-diagnostics-20250421-111619421.html	2025/04/22	science, research,
Musk wants to leave politics because he's tired of 'attacks' from the left, report says	Fuck That Guy	"Tesla has unfortunately become a political symbol globally of the Trump Administration/DOGE," Ives added, going on to argue that the company faces "potentially 15 percent—20 percent permanent demand destruction for future Tesla buyers due to the brand damage Musk has created with DOGE." "This is what happens when the entire Pentagon is working against you and the monumental charge you are trying to implement," Lawitt said. "Unfortunately there have been people at that building who don't like the change the secretary is bringing and they are leaking and lying to mainstream media, we have seen this game played before." What she did not mention is that the most public warning about Hegseth's conduct came from one of the aides he had appointed himself, while Hegseth's surviving aid, spokesman Sean Parnell, pointed the finger at other aides who were all Trump appointees. That would mean it was MAGA Republicans who were plotting against Hegseth. Hegseth has faced calls to resign after The New York Times revealed on Sunday that he had a second Signal chat called "Defense Huddle" that included his third wife—who has no official government role—and his brother, who was given a Department of Homeland Security appointment as liaison to the Pentagon. The embattled Pentagon was thrown into further tumult last week when former top spokesman John Ullyot resigned in the wake of a series of controversies. In a lengthy op-ed for Politico on Sunday, Ullyot lost to Hegseth's leadership and warned that more "border stories" are set to leak over the next few weeks. Two globe-trotting German teenagers had their travel plans upended when they were denied entry to the U.S. and detained by border officers who called their trip "suspicious," according to a report. Upon arriving in Honolulu on March 18 with hopes of island-hopping Hawaii's islands, the teens were allegedly denied entry into the U.S. despite holding the required Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA), according to German newspaper Ostsee Zeitung. Poliz and Lepers were interrogated in Honolulu International Airport for hours and allegedly subjected to body scans and strip searches before, finally, U.S. Customs and Border Protection agents denied them entry to the country and said they would be deported, according to the outlet. "They found it suspicious that we hadn't fully booked our accommodations for the entire five weeks in Hawaii," Toth said. "We wanted to travel spontaneously. Just like we had done in Thailand and New Zealand." Beginning May 5, the department will begin involuntary collection through the Treasury Department's offset program, which withholds payments from the government — including tax refunds, federal salaries and other benefits — from people with past-due debts to the government. After a 30-day notice, the department will also begin garnishing wages for borrowers in default. "This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion. Official figures provided at the request of two local Green party lawmakers showed there were 77 assaults on asylum seekers and refugees in 2024 and eight instances of deliberate damage to residences housing them. This compares with 32 targeted attacks on people and none on residences in 2023, one of the deputies, Alio Ebrahimpour Mirzaei, told the news agency dpa. As a result of the assaults, 34 people needed treatment in hospital, according to the official data. These included 16 women, 14 men, two girls and two males whose age was not reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-wants-leave-politics-because-hes-tired-141619421.html	2025/04/22
White House Unveils Crazy Defense of 'Pilot Victim' Hegseth	Political Cesspool	Two globe-trotting German teenagers had their travel plans upended when they were denied entry to the U.S. and detained by border officers who called their trip "suspicious," according to a report. Upon arriving in Honolulu on March 18 with hopes of island-hopping Hawaii's islands, the teens were allegedly denied entry into the U.S. despite holding the required Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA), according to German newspaper Ostsee Zeitung. Poliz and Lepers were interrogated in Honolulu International Airport for hours and allegedly subjected to body scans and strip searches before, finally, U.S. Customs and Border Protection agents denied them entry to the country and said they would be deported, according to the outlet. "They found it suspicious that we hadn't fully booked our accommodations for the entire five weeks in Hawaii," Toth said. "We wanted to travel spontaneously. Just like we had done in Thailand and New Zealand." Beginning May 5, the department will begin involuntary collection through the Treasury Department's offset program, which withholds payments from the government — including tax refunds, federal salaries and other benefits — from people with past-due debts to the government. After a 30-day notice, the department will also begin garnishing wages for borrowers in default. "This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion. Official figures provided at the request of two local Green party lawmakers showed there were 77 assaults on asylum seekers and refugees in 2024 and eight instances of deliberate damage to residences housing them. This compares with 32 targeted attacks on people and none on residences in 2023, one of the deputies, Alio Ebrahimpour Mirzaei, told the news agency dpa. As a result of the assaults, 34 people needed treatment in hospital, according to the official data. These included 16 women, 14 men, two girls and two males whose age was not reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-unveils-crazy-defense-152619421.html	2025/04/22
Teenage German tourists handcuffed and deported from Hawaii over 'suspicious' hotel booking	Borders and immigration	Two globe-trotting German teenagers had their travel plans upended when they were denied entry to the U.S. and detained by border officers who called their trip "suspicious," according to a report. Upon arriving in Honolulu on March 18 with hopes of island-hopping Hawaii's islands, the teens were allegedly denied entry into the U.S. despite holding the required Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA), according to German newspaper Ostsee Zeitung. Poliz and Lepers were interrogated in Honolulu International Airport for hours and allegedly subjected to body scans and strip searches before, finally, U.S. Customs and Border Protection agents denied them entry to the country and said they would be deported, according to the outlet. "They found it suspicious that we hadn't fully booked our accommodations for the entire five weeks in Hawaii," Toth said. "We wanted to travel spontaneously. Just like we had done in Thailand and New Zealand." Beginning May 5, the department will begin involuntary collection through the Treasury Department's offset program, which withholds payments from the government — including tax refunds, federal salaries and other benefits — from people with past-due debts to the government. After a 30-day notice, the department will also begin garnishing wages for borrowers in default. "This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion. Official figures provided at the request of two local Green party lawmakers showed there were 77 assaults on asylum seekers and refugees in 2024 and eight instances of deliberate damage to residences housing them. This compares with 32 targeted attacks on people and none on residences in 2023, one of the deputies, Alio Ebrahimpour Mirzaei, told the news agency dpa. As a result of the assaults, 34 people needed treatment in hospital, according to the official data. These included 16 women, 14 men, two girls and two males whose age was not reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/teenage-german-tourists-handcuffed-dpo-20250421-111619421.html	2025/04/22
Student loans in default to be referred to debt collection, Education Department says	Economy- Student loans	"This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion. Official figures provided at the request of two local Green party lawmakers showed there were 77 assaults on asylum seekers and refugees in 2024 and eight instances of deliberate damage to residences housing them. This compares with 32 targeted attacks on people and none on residences in 2023, one of the deputies, Alio Ebrahimpour Mirzaei, told the news agency dpa. As a result of the assaults, 34 people needed treatment in hospital, according to the official data. These included 16 women, 14 men, two girls and two males whose age was not reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/student-loans-default-referred-debt-200119421.html	2025/04/22
Students from 2 Florida shootings demand the governor reject a law to lower the gun purchasing age	Guns- School shootings	"This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion. Official figures provided at the request of two local Green party lawmakers showed there were 77 assaults on asylum seekers and refugees in 2024 and eight instances of deliberate damage to residences housing them. This compares with 32 targeted attacks on people and none on residences in 2023, one of the deputies, Alio Ebrahimpour Mirzaei, told the news agency dpa. As a result of the assaults, 34 people needed treatment in hospital, according to the official data. These included 16 women, 14 men, two girls and two males whose age was not reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/students-2-florida-shootings-demand-22319421.html	2025/04/22
Stephen Miller Uses Unhinged Rant to Demand 'Reparations'	Political Cesspool	"This is cruel, unnecessary and will further fan the flames of economic chaos for working families across this country," said Mike Piro, executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. Days after a deadly shooting, Florida State University students who also survived a deadly mass shooting in Parkland from 2018 sent a letter Monday to Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis, demanding he squash efforts to lower the firearm purchase age back to 18 years old. The law that raised the minimum gun purchase age to 21 was passed as part of a gun reform package following a mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida in 2018, known as one of the deadliest shootings in the country. For these former Parkland and current FSU students who sent the letter to the governor, this is their second school shooting. "Top White House aide Stephen Miller thinks Americans deserve reparations for "damages inflicted by mass migration." "Where does our whole country go to get repaid for all of the wealth, all of the prosperity and security, that has been stolen from us by decades of uncontrolled, illegal mass migration?" he asked. "We all deserve reparations for what has been stolen from us." Miller claimed, without providing evidence, that American schools are "in chaos and disarray" because of immigration. "We used to have a functioning public school system in this country. Then we had open borders," he said. "Nobody's learning how to read or write. An entire generation of Americans—multiple generations, in fact—have been robbed of educational opportunities." Alito, 75, wrote a five-page dissent late Saturday night after the high court issued an emergency order that paused the deportation of alleged Venezuelan gang members who were potentially bound for an infamous El Salvador prison without due process. International law operates very differently from the domestic legal systems we know from our day-to-day experience. For one, there is no global legislature empowered to enact laws that regulate the behavior of countries. The essence of sovereignty — the idea that countries have freedom to enact such laws and policies within their territories as they wish — is not incompatible with international law but is rather a central feature of it. In the absence of a global government, states agree on reciprocal limits on their actions (such as forgoing the freedom to invade their neighbors, to arrest foreign diplomats, or to expropriate foreign-owned property without just compensation) in order to achieve benefits for themselves and for the global order. International law is simply an instrument that allows countries to agree on rules that will enhance international coordination and cooperation — rules that will in turn increase global security and prosperity. Venezuela's chief prosecutor has accused El Salvador's president of being a "tyrannical" human trafficker after Nayib Bukele offered to exchange the 252 Venezuelan migrants deported to his country's prisons by Donald Trump for the same number of political prisoners in Venezuela. "Bukele is a serial human rights violator," Saab said, pointing to the politician's "horrific" three-year anti-gang crackdown, which has seen at least 85,000 Salvadorians thrown in jail, largely without due process. Human rights activists say more than 360 prisoners have died. Haiti, where rampant gang violence has surged in recent weeks, is approaching a "point of no return" leading to "total chaos", the UN special representative to the troubled Caribbean nation has warned. "As gang violence continues to spread to new areas of the country, Haitians experience growing levels of vulnerability and increasing skepticism about the ability of the state to respond to their needs," Maria Isabel Salvador told the UN security council. "Haiti could face total chaos," she said, adding that international aid was desperately needed to avoid that fate. "I urge you to remain engaged and answer the urgent needs of the country and its people." US trade officials are preparing to impose tariffs of up to 3.521% on imports of solar panels from four south-east Asian countries, while the International Energy Agency has said lessons from the energy crisis following Russia's invasion of Ukraine had not been fully learned. Products from Cambodia would face the highest tariffs, of 3.521%, because its companies did not cooperate with the US investigation, while products made in Malaysia by the Chinese manufacturer Jinko Solar face duties of just over 41%, rival Tiva Solar's products from Thailand will incur tariffs of 370%. Residues of the insecticide DDT have been found to persist at "alarming rates" in trout even after 70 years, potentially posing a significant danger to humans and wildlife that eat the fish, research has found. Dichlorodiphenyltrichloroethane, known as DDT, was used on forested land in New Brunswick, Canada, from 1952 to 1988. The researchers found traces of it remained in brook trout in some lakes, often at levels 10 times higher than the recommended safety threshold for wildlife. "DDT is a probable carcinogen that we haven't used in 70 years here [Canada], yet it's abundant in fish and lake mud throughout much of the province at shockingly high levels," said Josh Kurek, an associate professor in environmental change and aquatic biomonitoring at Mount Allison University in Canada and lead author of the research. US stock markets fell again on Monday as Donald Trump continued attacks against the Federal Reserve chair, Jerome Powell, who the US president called "a major loser" for not lowering interest rates. Trump is pressuring the Fed to cut rates, likely to appease the stock market, which plummeted after he announced his newest slate of tariffs. But Wall Street isn't taking the bait and appears to be reacting in opposition to Trump's attacks against Powell and the independence of the US central bank. The Dow ended the day down 2.5%, while the tech-heavy Nasdaq Composite fell over 2.5% down and the S&P 500 fell 2.4%. Former tech stocks favorites including Tesla and Nvidia lost ground, while the value of the dollar fell to multiyear lows against most major currencies. Wyoming's only abortion clinic is resuming abortions after a judge on Monday suspended two state laws. One suspended law would require clinics providing surgical abortions to be licensed as outpatient surgical centers. The other would require patients to get an ultrasound before a medication abortion.

		A drone, loaded up with goods from a shopping mall less than three kilometres away, flies into view, and earshot, hovering over the delivery station for a moment, before steadily lowering and depositing the goods into a sealed box that can only be unlocked by entering the customer's phone number. Dinner is served with not a human in sight. Meislan aims to beat human delivery times by about 10%, although perhaps because of its journey whizzing through the clouds in a thin polystyrene box, the food, char siu pork and a waffle, is slightly cold.
Humanoid workers and surveillance bugs: 'embodied AI' is reshaping daily life in China	Technology-AI	With a trade war raging, demographic challenges dragging on the economy and the prospect of a productive relationship with the world's largest economy looking ever more remote, Beijing is doubling down on the industries where it sees the potential – and the need – to develop ahead of the U.S. China's leaders see artificial intelligence as being the key to upgrading its military strength, solving the problems created by a shrinking workforce, and a source of national pride – especially when Chinese firms manage to circumvent US-led sanctions on core technology. And technology firms, for many years shunned by China's leader, Xi Jinping, as he sought to crack down on excessive wealth and influence outside the Chinese Communist party's control, are being welcomed back into the fold as Xi seeks to restore confidence in the private sector and encourage domestic innovation.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/21/humanoid-workers-ai	2025/04/22
Over 100 US university presidents sign letter decrying Trump administration	Trump-Bushfit	More than 100 presidents of US colleges and universities have signed a statement denouncing the Trump administration's "unprecedented government overreach and political interference" with higher education – the strongest sign yet that US educational institutions are forming a unified front against the government's extraordinary attack on their independence. Abolitionists are turning vacant land on Detroit's eastside into a small urban forest, not of elms, oaks and red maples indigenous to the city but giant sequoias, the world's largest trees that can live for thousands of years. The project on four lots will not only replace long-standing blight with majestic trees, but could also improve air quality and help preserve the trees that are native to California's Sierra Nevada, where they are threatened by ever-hotter wildfires.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/21/us-university-presid	2025/04/22
A sequoia forest in Detroit? Plantings to improve air quality and mark Earth Day	Environment-Trees	Detroit is the pilot city for the Giant Sequoia Filter Forest. The nonprofit Archangel Ancient Tree Archive is donating dozens of sequoia saplings that will be planted by staff and volunteers from Arborium Detroit, another nonprofit, to mark Earth Day on April 22. The infighting and backstabbing that plagued President Donald Trump's first term have returned as a threat to his second, with deepening fissures over trade, national security and questions of personal loyalty.	https://apnews.com/article/sequoia-forest-detroit-vacant-lots-9a8b8b12	2025/04/22
As controversies pile up, Trump allies increasingly turn on one another	Trump-Bushfit	The interpersonal drama is not – at least yet – a dominant plot line of Trump's return to the White House. But its resurgence after a period of relative discipline in his ranks reflects a turbulent management style that has been suppressed or papered over, not reformed.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-hegseth-infighting-658a1ceab677b90c	2025/04/22
Bird flu has wiped out more than 30 million chickens so far this year	Health-Bird flu	The concerted outbreak of bird flu has resulted in the culling of more than 30 million poultry birds across nine states this year. That's about 10 million more than the last quarter of 2024. The loss of egg-laying hens resulted in a national egg shortage, with prices sky high over the first months of the Trump administration. Since then, the cost of a carton of eggs has fallen thanks to decreased demand and falling infections. Last week, the average wholesale price of eggs was $3.13, down from $5.93 just earlier this year.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/health/bird-flu-chicken-supply-202	2025/04/22
US airports face an increasing collision risk as drone use spikes	Aviation	An Associated Press analysis of an aviation safety database reveals that drones last year accounted for nearly two-thirds of reported near mid-air collisions involving commercial passenger planes taking off and landing at the country's top 30 busiest airports. That was the highest percentage of such near misses since 2020, when air traffic dropped during the COVID-19 pandemic. The first reports of near misses involving drones were logged in 2014, the AP found. The number of such encounters spiked the following year. Over the last decade, drones accounted for 51% – 122 of 240 – of reported near misses, according to AP's analysis.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/news-and-advice/drones-airport-3	2025/04/22
Fewer Americans are moving to Florida and Texas, new report claims	Economy-Housing	The threat from drones has become more acute in the last decade as the use of quadcopters and remote-controlled planes has exploded in popularity. The FAA estimates that Americans are operating more than a million drones for recreational and commercial purposes. Fewer Americans are moving to Florida and Texas, new data has shown, as "higher cost of living, economic uncertainty and increasing risk of natural disasters causes concern. Busy metropolitan cities such as Tampa and Dallas have seen a drop of almost two-thirds of people moving in, according to U.S. Census Bureau data reviewed by real estate company Redfin. Tampa had a net inflow of just over 10,000 residents in 2024, compared to 35,000 people the year before, according to the company. This marks the biggest slowdown in domestic migration of the 50 most populous U.S. metro areas.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/florida-texas-mov	2025/04/22
Political news is making me miserable. Is it wrong to tune out?	Health-Mental health	Truly paying attention is incredibly hard. Well says, because it requires you to see a suffering person not just as "a specimen from the social category labeled 'unfortunate,' but as a man, exactly like us, who was one day stamped with a special mark by affliction." In other words, you don't get the "pleasure of feeling the distance between him and oneself" – you have to recognize that you're a vulnerable creature, too, and tragedy could befall you just as easily as it's befallen the suffering person in front of you. Consider a game of Tetris, he says. The abundance of blocks raining down on your screen is not the problem – given enough time, you could figure out how to stack them. The problem is that they fall at an increasing speed. And at extreme speeds, your brain just can't process very well. You start to panic. You lose control.	https://www.yahoo.com/lifestyle/political-news-making-miserable-wrong	2025/04/22
Team Trump Drafts Dystopian Plan to Get Women to Have More Babies	Reproductive Rights	They are exploring options like reserving 30 percent of Fulbright scholarships to applicants who are parents and/or married, giving mothers that $5,000 "baby bonus" that Trump promised during the campaign season, and even a government-funded program to better educate women on their own menstrual cycles so that they know when they should be trying for a baby. The administration has not yet settled on its final plan, according to the Times report. The impetus for this right-wing pronatalism is undeniably Project 2025 and the white ethnonationalists at the heart of it. Vice President JD Vance has also made childbearing a focus point, noting at the 2025 March for Life that he wanted more "babies in the United States of America" and more "beautiful young men and women" to parent them. He also infamously described the Democratic Party as full of "childless cat ladies" who are anti-children.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/team-trump-drafts-dystopian-plan-202505	2025/04/22
The Bizarre Right-Wing War on...Empathy?	Cespool	The recurrence of the phrase "suicidal empathy" is no accident. The term is becoming a right-wing buzzword. Apparently coined by Canadian marketing professor Carl Saad, an intellectual Dark Web-adjacent figure, this concept was boosted by Musk in his February 28 appearance on Joe Rogan's podcast, where Musk declared empathy to be "the fundamental weakness of Western civilization" and said that "we've got civilizational suicidal empathy going on." Friedrich Nietzsche, call your office. Since 1990 the U.S. total fertility rate has declined from 2.1 births per woman – enough to fully replace the current population – to 1.62 births per woman in 2023, below the replacement level, according to a March report from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control, part of a larger decline in birth rates in wealthy peer countries.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bizarre-wing-war-empathy-0651221391u	2025/04/22
The New Baby Boom: How the White House is looking to jumpstart the nation's birth rate	Reproductive Rights	The motivations behind such ideas are numerous, though many align with the right's emphasis on the family as the building block of society. Project 2025, the conservative policy blueprint that's informed many administration ideas, opens with a chapter on how to "restore the family as the centerpiece of American life," urging traditional roles for parents.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/baby-boom-white-house-looking-220419f	2025/04/22
DOGE gets permission to access sensitive Justice Department immigration data	Fuck That Guy	The Trump administration's Department of Government Efficiency has reportedly received permission from the Justice Department to access a sensitive system containing detailed information about immigrants' interactions with the U.S. government.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-gets-permission-access-sensitive-0	2025/04/22
Trump's "final offer" for peace requires Ukraine to accept Russian occupation	International Relations	The U.S. expects Ukraine's response Wednesday to a peace framework that includes U.S. recognition of Crimea as part of Russia and unofficial recognition of Russian control of nearly all areas occupied since the 2022 invasion, sources with direct knowledge of the proposal tell Axios. Two House members launched bids for U.S. Senate on Tuesday – and more of their colleagues in the lower chamber may soon follow in their footsteps.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/trump-russia-ukraine-peace-plan-cr	2025/04/23
More House members want out of their "broken" chamber	Politics-House	"The House is broken, doesn't pass legislation, doesn't work anymore," said one House Democrat, calling the lower chamber "just a big congres along." West Virginia's GOP senators are urging top Trump officials to undo DOGE cuts that threaten the health and safety of their state's coal miners.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/house-members-resent-governor-2	2025/04/23
West Virginia senators fight DOGE cuts that hit coal miners	Political Cespool	The issue is specifically at the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) in Morgantown, West Virginia, a main hub for the safety and health of coal miners and other workers. "It is my understanding that the [Reduction in Force] impacted every employee in these important programs," Caprio wrote. "I urge you to bring back the NIOSH employees immediately so they can continue to support our nation's coal industry."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/west-virginia-doge-cuts-coal-miners	2025/04/23
EPA fires or reassigns hundreds of staffers	Government-EPA	"West Virginians, they're in lock step with President Trump," Justice told Axios. "But at the same time, there's so, so, so many people that are dependent" on programs like NIOSH, Justice expressed faith that Trump would fix the issue. The Environmental Protection Agency plans to fire or reassign more than 450 staffers working on environmental justice issues, it said Tuesday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/epa-fires-or-reassigns-hundreds-of-	2025/04/23
Trump says he won't play hardball with China on trade	Economy-Tariffs	President Trump, in an Oval Office news conference, told reporters he did not intend to play hardball with China in making a trade deal. He also indicated that the ultimate tariff on China won't be 145%, though it won't fall all the way to zero, either.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/trump-china-trade-deal-tariffs	2025/04/23
SCOTUS likely to back religious opt-outs for LGBTQ-themed books in schools	Supreme Court	The Supreme Court seemed inclined Tuesday to rule that parents must be able to opt their children out of school curriculum that includes LGBTQ storylines. The court's liberal justices questioned whether allowing families to opt out of exposing their kids to books with LGBTQ themes would expand their ability to opt out of other curriculum.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/books-igbtq-supreme-court-marylan	2025/04/23	censorship, rainbow threats, information blackout
Education Department cuts threaten summer learning programs	Government-DOE	"This is not just about books," Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson said. "This is about exposure to people of different sexual orientations and the objection, the sincerely held objection, that children shouldn't be exposed to this." Summer learning programs are essential for kids and working parents alike because federally-funded programs offer enrichment, academic support, social interaction and basic needs, like access to healthy food.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/trump-mcomhonor-education-departm	2025/04/23
America's fact fight fudes	Maininformation	In Baltimore, an estimated 12,000 seats will be lost for summer opportunities this year compared to last year, said Ellie Mitchell, director of the Maryland Out of School Time Network. Government bodies once focused on combating mis- and disinformation are being gutted by the Trump administration. The State Department's Counter Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference hub is being eliminated. State Secretary Marco Rubio confirmed last week. The office was responsible for tracking and countering foreign disinformation campaigns. Meanwhile, the National Science Foundation has cancelled research grants related to misinformation and disinformation.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/22/fact-checking-misinformation-disinfo	2025/04/23
Hegseth is in hot water again over sharing attack plans. But this time it may be worse	Political Cespool	But the details he shared, two hours before airstrikes hit in Yemen, almost certainly were classified, according to retired Marine Lt. Col. Mick Wagoner, who was a military lawyer for 17 years and deployed to four war zones. "A launch of an attack there is just no-way, no-how, that an American military operation starting off is going to not be classified for Lord's sake," he said. And Hegseth's defense also tacitly confirms that he shared those details with people, like his wife, he knew were not authorized to have the information. "The last time he was wrongly using an insecure communications device, and he mistakenly thought he was speaking only to security clearance holders," said Kevin Carroll, who served 30 years in the Army, then in the CIA and then the Department of Homeland Security in the first Trump administration. Security breaches like what happened in the Signal group chat are called "spillage" by the military, but this is more, says Carroll.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/22m-w-41-5372348/signal-pete-hegseth-de	2025/04/23
Marco Rubio announces overhaul of U.S. State Department	Government-Jobs	"Here he's knowingly using an insecure communication device and he's knowingly giving classified information to people who are not security clearance holders so it's really more than a spill," Carroll said. "It really gets more to the sort of willfulness that is typically prosecuted by the Department of Justice." Secretary of State Marco Rubio says he is streamlining what he's calling a "bloated" bureaucracy. He's cutting about 700 positions and 132 offices at the State Department. In an Substack post explaining some of his changes, Rubio takes aim at the Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor, writing that it "became a platform for left-wing activists to wage vendettas against 'anti-woke' leaders in nations such as Poland, Hungary and Brazil, and to transform their hatred of Israel into concrete policies such as arms embargoes."	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/22m-w-41-5372587/marco-rubio-announce	2025/04/23

		At least eight immigration judges received notices that they would be put on leave and their employment would be terminated on April 22, according to two people familiar with the firing and to the International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers union, which represents immigration judges. The two people spoke on condition of anonymity for fear of reprisals.
Trump fires more immigration judges even as he aims to increase deportations	Borders and immigration	"We cannot give everyone a trial, because to do so would take, without exaggeration, 200 years," Trump posted on social media on Monday. "We would need hundreds of thousands of trials for the hundreds of thousands of illegals we are sending out of the Country. Such a thing is not possible to do."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/22/mx-s1-5372681/trump-immigration-judges	2025/04/23
		A key part of the new missile defense system, which Trump described as "Golden Dome" in a speech earlier this year, will likely be space-based interceptors, according to experts and an executive order signed by the president. But building Iron Dome is a much more modest proposal than building a Golden Dome. "It's the difference between a kayak and a battleship," says Jeffrey Lewis, a professor at the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Montpelier, who studies missile defenses.
Trump wants a Golden Dome over America. Here's what it would take	Trump Bullshit	A big part of that difference is the size of the landmass that needs to be protected — Israel is more than 400 times smaller than the United States, and it's mostly flat desert that's easy to defend. In the benchmark survey, known as Bright Line Watch, U.S.-based professors rate the performance of American democracy on a scale from zero (complete dictatorship) to 100 (perfect democracy). After President Trump's election in November, scholars gave American democracy a rating of 67. Several weeks into Trump's second term, that figure plummeted to 55. "We've slid into some form of authoritarianism," says Steven Levitsky, a professor of government at Harvard, and co-author of How Democracies Die. "It is relatively mild compared to some others. It is certainly reversible, but we are no longer living in a liberal democracy." In a competitive authoritarian system, a leader comes to power democratically and then erodes the system of checks and balances. Typically, the executive fills the civil service and key appointments — including the prosecutor's office and judiciary — with loyalists. He or she then attacks the media, universities and nongovernmental organizations to blunt public criticism and tilt the electoral playing field in the ruling party's favor. "The government would still have elections and would nominally be democratic," says Rory Truex, a political scientist at Princeton who focuses on China. "But those elections would no longer be free and fair."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/22/mx-s1-5161658/trump-golden-dome-america	2025/04/23
Hundreds of scholars say U.S. is swiftly heading toward authoritarianism	End of America	They're the fixers, the ones who step in when Affordable Care Act enrollees have a problem with their coverage. Like a newborn incorrectly left off a policy or discovering that a rogue broker had signed them up or switched their plan without consent. Now, though, the broad federal reduction in force set in motion by the Trump administration has cut the ranks of those caseworkers, shuffling two out of six divisions of caseworkers, according to one affected worker and a former Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services official familiar with the situation, Jeffrey Grant. "It impacts not only our jobs, but all these people we serve," said one New York City-based caseworker, who was let go in a Feb. 14 purge affecting federal employees in their probationary periods. "Usually, we would have on average 14 days to take care of a case that was very difficult, although the urgent cases would be solved within two to three business days. It will now be delayed so much more. Whole teams get wiped out completely." The Trump administration's plan to begin collecting defaulted college loan payments from millions of borrowers risks contributing to an economic slowdown at a time when the U.S. faces an elevated risk of a recession, some experts told ABC News. Roughly 5 million borrowers will have their loans sent for collections beginning on May 5, the U.S. Department of Education, or DOE, said this week. Another 4 million people are in late-stage delinquency, meaning they could face collections within a matter of months. "The bottom line is: it's not going to be good for the economy, given the current economic situation that's already precarious," said Scott Izberman, a professor of education policy at Michigan State University. "It's an additional weight that you're putting on an unit to tip a pole that's precarious."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/22/mx-s1-53407531/trump-democracy-audit	2025/04/23
Help for ACA health plans could be harder to come by, since RFR axed teams of fixers	Health care	Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the secretary of health and human services, is set to amass the private medical records of Americans for a new autism study. Bhattacharya said during a presentation that the data will include medical records from pharmacy chains, lab tests, genomics data from patients treated by the Department of Veterans Affairs and Indian Health Service, claims from private insurers, data from smartwatches and fitness trackers and more.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-shots/health-news/2025/04/22/mx-s1-5371	2025/04/23
Trump administration is about to collect payments from millions of student borrowers. Experts say it risks slowing the economy.	Economy-Student loans	White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt insisted during a Fox News appearance Monday morning that the Trump administration didn't make a mistake when they deported Maryland father Kimar Abrego Garcia.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-collect-payments-millions-student-borrowers-173	2025/04/23
Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to Launch National Autism Registry Using Americans' Private Health Records	Nazi checklist	However, Leavitt pushed back on that notion on Monday, saying, "We did not make a mistake. We have always maintained this was an individual who needed to be deported from our country."	https://www.yahoo.com/31st/robert-f-kennedy-jr-launch-205913592/	2025/04/23
Karoline Leavitt insists White House 'did not make a mistake' in deportation case - despite what their lawyers say	Misinformation	The White House is searching for a replacement for Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, a U.S. official told NPR on Monday. The report comes on the heels of a slew of other scandals that have embroiled Hegseth, including the departure of four senior advisers, some of whom left their roles as part of an investigation into press leaks. He was also a central figure in the initial Signal group chat leak—in which senior administration officials discussed details of the same Yemen attack on a Signal chat that previously included Atlantic journalist Jeffrey Goldberg. More importantly, however, Hegseth's glib goaf-key and all that goes with it is actually just one of a series of alarming developments during President Trump's first 100 days that, taken together, represent a deepening and unprecedented national security crisis for the United States. At every level of the Trump national security apparatus there are developments that suggest that America's standing as a superpower is in jeopardy, our safety and that of our allies is at risk, and that day-by-day as we become weaker, our enemies and rivals are being made stronger by the actions of the president and his team. While the State Department bureaucracy is too large and could use some reorganizing, nearly everything announced, planned, or leaked by the Trump administration is worrisome. Not only will the steps dramatically reduce our ability to shape and anticipate global developments, they will make it much harder for American companies and individuals abroad to have the support of their governments as the companies and citizens of other countries get from theirs. "What we're seeing now is the biggest trade war in history," Yun Sun, director of the China program at the Stimson Center, a Washington think tank, told The Wall Street Journal. "The risk of the trade war expanding to other domains is quite high." Outside of the trade issues, tensions have been ratcheting up between the U.S. and China for some time now, including alleged 18-for-18 cyber attacks between the two nations in recent months, and China conducting large-scale military drills around the U.S.-aligned island of Taiwan. Published in March 2025, the textbook's co-author Nina Ostamina, chair of the State DMA Committee for the Protection of the Family, claims that it will teach students "traditional moral values" that will improve "the demographic situation in the country" as part of a "Family Studies" course that was rolled out in the 2024-2025 school year. But some of those lessons for modern living come from a less-than-random source. Among the materials borrowed from "My Family" is the "16th Century 'Domestic'" — a collection of rules for maintaining patriarchal domestic order. It was written, supposedly, by Sylvester, a monk-tutor of czar Ivan the Terrible.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/karoline-leavitt-insists-white-house-1638	2025/04/23
Trump Has 'Begun Process' of Replacing Pete Hegseth, Report Says	Political Cesspool	AS PART OF the so-called Department of Government Efficiency, a former Tesla employee has been installed as a senior adviser to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, records shared with The Intercept show. Tarak Makecha, who previously worked at Elon Musk's electric car company, now has roles at both the FBI and the Justice Department's Justice Management Division, according to staff files. According to a DOJ source, who spoke on condition of anonymity out of fear of retaliation, Makecha's work at the Justice Department has focused in part on the department's grant-making operations, which DOGE recently leveraged to target a criminal justice nonprofit.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-begun-process-replacing-pete-175	2025/04/23
Opinion: Why Pete Hegseth Is Just the Tip of the Lunacy and Chaos Iceberg	Political Cesspool	THE TRUMP PHENOMENON and the surge of right-wing extremism in America has never really been about economic anxiety, as so many pundits have claimed. True, many rising voters, including some minorities, have supported Trump by wrongly thinking that he would be good for the economy. But for Trump's MAGA base, it has always been about race and racism. The fact that MAGA voters aren't motivated by the economy has become clear as Trump has tanked the stock market and threatened a global financial crisis with his crippling tariffs. Trump's voters, who loudly complained about inflation under the Biden administration, now say they don't care about the higher prices and financial panic generated by Trump's tariffs. Instead of economic angst, MAGA is gripped by a demographic paranoia of the same kind that surged throughout the South in the years just before the Civil War. The antebellum South feared what was to come in 20 years: America's western expansion would lead to the creation of so many free states that the South would eventually be outnumbered in Congress and lose its power to defend slavery. The Civil War was about the future.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-pete-hegseth-perilous-crisis-02	2025/04/23
Experts warn Trump's trade war with China could erupt into a cold war	International-Cold war	Outside of the trade issues, tensions have been ratcheting up between the U.S. and China for some time now, including alleged 18-for-18 cyber attacks between the two nations in recent months, and China conducting large-scale military drills around the U.S.-aligned island of Taiwan. Published in March 2025, the textbook's co-author Nina Ostamina, chair of the State DMA Committee for the Protection of the Family, claims that it will teach students "traditional moral values" that will improve "the demographic situation in the country" as part of a "Family Studies" course that was rolled out in the 2024-2025 school year. But some of those lessons for modern living come from a less-than-random source. Among the materials borrowed from "My Family" is the "16th Century 'Domestic'" — a collection of rules for maintaining patriarchal domestic order. It was written, supposedly, by Sylvester, a monk-tutor of czar Ivan the Terrible.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/experts-warn-trump-trade-war-02002481/	2025/04/23
Make Russia Medieval Again! How Putin is seeking to remodel society, with a little help from Ivan the Terrible	International-Russia	AS PART OF the so-called Department of Government Efficiency, a former Tesla employee has been installed as a senior adviser to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, records shared with The Intercept show. Tarak Makecha, who previously worked at Elon Musk's electric car company, now has roles at both the FBI and the Justice Department's Justice Management Division, according to staff files. According to a DOJ source, who spoke on condition of anonymity out of fear of retaliation, Makecha's work at the Justice Department has focused in part on the department's grant-making operations, which DOGE recently leveraged to target a criminal justice nonprofit.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/russia-medieval-again-putin-seeking-124	2025/04/23
DOGE INSTALLS A FORMER TESLA EMPLOYEE AT THE FBI	Fuck That Guy	THE TRUMP PHENOMENON and the surge of right-wing extremism in America has never really been about economic anxiety, as so many pundits have claimed. True, many rising voters, including some minorities, have supported Trump by wrongly thinking that he would be good for the economy. But for Trump's MAGA base, it has always been about race and racism. The fact that MAGA voters aren't motivated by the economy has become clear as Trump has tanked the stock market and threatened a global financial crisis with his crippling tariffs. Trump's voters, who loudly complained about inflation under the Biden administration, now say they don't care about the higher prices and financial panic generated by Trump's tariffs. Instead of economic angst, MAGA is gripped by a demographic paranoia of the same kind that surged throughout the South in the years just before the Civil War. The antebellum South feared what was to come in 20 years: America's western expansion would lead to the creation of so many free states that the South would eventually be outnumbered in Congress and lose its power to defend slavery. The Civil War was about the future.	https://theintercept.com/2025/04/18/doe-tesla-employee-justice-department/	2025/04/23
Trump's Power Feeds on White Demographic Fears NO-BID ICE CONTRACT WENT TO FORMER ICE AGENTS BEING SUED FOR FABRICATING CRIMINAL EVIDENCE ON THE JOB	Cesspool	Today, MAGA also fears the future. It fears that America will soon become so diverse that white people will lose their power over politics and society. U.S. IMMIGRATION AND Customs Enforcement just signed a contract worth $73 million with a firm whose executives are accused of taking part in a scheme to manufacture evidence against a co-worker during their time working at the Department of Homeland Security. Beijing recently asked South Korean companies not to ship products containing China's rare earth minerals to U.S. defense firms, the Korea Economic Daily reported on Tuesday, citing government and company sources. By conventional measures, Donald Trump's second presidency is already descending into disarray amid a legal morass, self-inflicted errors, and a vast gap between its massive ambition and its capacity to enact that vision. On one hand, exhausting crises on multiple fronts point to a potentially failed administration. But as Trump attempts to destroy governing structures at home and abroad, chaos is itself a marker of success.	https://theintercept.com/2025/04/20/trump-racism-white-demographic-fears/	2025/04/23
China asks Korea not to supply products using rare earths to US defence firms, paper reports	Corruption	Beijing recently asked South Korean companies not to ship products containing China's rare earth minerals to U.S. defense firms, the Korea Economic Daily reported on Tuesday, citing government and company sources. By conventional measures, Donald Trump's second presidency is already descending into disarray amid a legal morass, self-inflicted errors, and a vast gap between its massive ambition and its capacity to enact that vision. On one hand, exhausting crises on multiple fronts point to a potentially failed administration. But as Trump attempts to destroy governing structures at home and abroad, chaos is itself a marker of success.	https://theintercept.com/2025/04/17/ice-deportation-contracts-us-adviser/	2025/04/23
How Trump's presidency can be a colossal failure and stunning success all at once	Trump Bullshit	Beijing recently asked South Korean companies not to ship products containing China's rare earth minerals to U.S. defense firms, the Korea Economic Daily reported on Tuesday, citing government and company sources. By conventional measures, Donald Trump's second presidency is already descending into disarray amid a legal morass, self-inflicted errors, and a vast gap between its massive ambition and its capacity to enact that vision. On one hand, exhausting crises on multiple fronts point to a potentially failed administration. But as Trump attempts to destroy governing structures at home and abroad, chaos is itself a marker of success.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/china-asks-korea-not-export-10523214	2025/04/23
Patience runs thin as Trump's battle with Supreme Court intensifies	Constitutional Crisis	On one hand, exhausting crises on multiple fronts point to a potentially failed administration. But as Trump attempts to destroy governing structures at home and abroad, chaos is itself a marker of success. Patience is running thin in the intensifying battles between the Supreme Court and President Trump, with the president's allies heightening their criticisms as the justices burn midnight oil. Just before 1 a.m. Saturday, the high court temporarily blocked the administration from deporting a group of alleged Venezuelan gang members to El Salvador under the rarely used Alien Enemies Act.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-presidency-colossal-failure-stunning-success-1620507/	2025/04/23
Hillzrk: RFK Jr.'s views on autism show that anti-science myths are rampant at the agency he leads	Political Cesspool	Trump's supporters responded to the ruling with fury, with some calling for the administration to ignore the emergency decision. A number of otherwise skeptical senators took at face value the pledge by Robert F. Kennedy Jr. at Senate hearings in January to "follow the science" on issues related to the causes of disease in the U.S., helping him receive confirmation as secretary of Health and Human Services. His advice was to ignore what decades of scientific research have established as contributors to the reported increase in autism prevalence. These include genetic factors, the ever-broadening definition of autism itself, now known as autism spectrum disorder, or ASD, and vastly improved screening programs nationwide. Kennedy's words were so aversive to understanding the truth about autism that they deserve to be set forth here in some detail. To a great extent, they're refuted by the CDC report itself, which Kennedy referred to repeatedly at his news conference. "It was [Jürgen] Habermas' mentor, Theodore Adorno, who wrote that the first step in that nation's descent into hell was, and I quote, 'The conversion of all questions of truth into questions of power,'" Gore said, according to Politico. "He died how the Nazis, and I quote again, 'attacked the very heart of the distinction between true and false.' End quote. The Trump administration is insisting on trying to create their own preferred version of reality," Gore said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hillzrk-rfk-jr-s-views-autism-100004620.html	2025/04/23
At Gore compares Trump team to Nazi Germany saying they are trying to create their own preferred version of reality	Nazi checklist	A big US science official on Tuesday backed away from a bold promise made by Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to reveal the cause of autism by September. Jay Bhattacharya, director of the National Institutes of Health, told reporters the timeline referred not to a discovery, but to the launch of a new research initiative — with no firm deadline for results.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/at-gore-compares-trump-team-1455120/	2025/04/23
US official backs off promise to solve cause of autism by September	Health- Autism	A big US science official on Tuesday backed away from a bold promise made by Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to reveal the cause of autism by September. Jay Bhattacharya, director of the National Institutes of Health, told reporters the timeline referred not to a discovery, but to the launch of a new research initiative — with no firm deadline for results.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-official-backs-off-promise-22453678/	2025/04/23

		Neyrever Adrian Leon Rengel, 27, was admitted into the U.S. in June 2023, after crossing the southern border through a scheduled appointment with immigration authorities — part of a digital portal created under the Biden administration to manage the flow of migrants entering from Mexico. In his hand, he carried a phone. In his heart, a mission: to build a future for his 6-year-old daughter, Isabella, still in Venezuela, his family said. "They didn't have an arrest warrant," Gutierrez said. "They asked him to lift his shirt to show his tattoos, and when they saw them, they claimed he was affiliated with the Tren de Aragua gang. They took his documents — and took him away." That was the last time she saw him. Leon Rengel was briefly held at East Hidalgo Detention Center, a private facility in La Villa, Texas, used by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. Then — nothing. His alien number, a way to track his whereabouts, vanished two days later from ICE's online system. He disappeared.
He disappeared after detention. Now ICE is silent on the fate of Venezuelan man	Borders and immigration	ICE agents told Gutierrez her boyfriend had been deported to his home country. But the family has searched in Venezuela, and he isn't there, she said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/missing-disappeared-detention-now-ice-silent-175	2025/04/23
		On Tuesday, former Treasury Secretary Lawrence Summers said that Donald Trump's "misguided, wanton attack on the IRS" could cost the government $1 trillion over the next decade.
Trump's 'attack' on the IRS could cost the government $1 trillion, former Treasury Secretary says	Government-IRS	Natasha Sarin, the president and cofounder of the Budget Lab at Yale, told Business Insider that Summers' estimate is conservative, and the losses may top $2 trillion.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-attack-irs-could-cost-005829307/	2025/04/23
6.2 magnitude earthquake near Istanbul rattles Turkey	Environment-Earthquake	A 6.2 magnitude earthquake has rattled much of Turkey Wednesday morning, according to the United States Geological Survey.	https://abcnews.go.com/International/62-magnitude-earthquake-istanbul/	2025/04/23
Wildfire in New Jersey explodes to 8,500 acres as residents evacuated and structures threatened	Environment-Wildfire	A wildfire in New Jersey has exploded to over 8,500 acres after igniting Tuesday evening near Toms River, threatening more than 1,000 structures, shutting down a major highway and causing thousands of people to flee the flames.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/wildfire-new-jersey-explodes-8500-acres-r/	2025/04/23
		The Food and Drug Administration is suspending a quality-control program for testing fluid milk and other dairy products due to reduced capacity in its food safety and nutrition division, according to an internal email seen by Reuters.
FDA suspends milk quality-control testing program after Trump layoffs	Government-FDA	The suspension is another disruption to the nation's food-safety programs after the termination and departure of 20,000 employees of the Department of Health and Human Services, which includes the FDA, as part of Donald Trump's effort to shrink the federal workforce.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/22/fda-milk-quality-test	2025/04/23
		"We used to think that pandemics would occur maybe once in our lifetimes. Now, it's definitely within the next few years. It could even be tomorrow," she says.
		Thomson said the world was "probably more prepared than we were in 2019" but with quite significant vulnerabilities. "I can travel from Glasgow to Uganda in 12 hours — and back — and there's a lot of that going on.
Pandemics, pathogens and being prepared: why the work to identify emerging threats never stops	Health-Preparation	"If we also look at road infrastructures, for example, in Africa, you see that there's this fantastic improvement in transport infrastructure, which is great, and it's associated with better lives than people lead. But we also have to prepare ourselves for what that can bring."	https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2025/apr/23/pandem	2025/04/23
		Cases of bird flu in US cattle and an ongoing international mpox emergency centred on the Democratic Republic of the Congo, have recently captured attention.
Dengue fever on the rise in the US — with Florida and California the potential hotspots for outbreaks	Health-Dengue fever	Federal health officials are warning that cases of the mosquito-borne dengue fever are on the rise this year ahead of the summer travel season.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/health/dengue-fever-cdc-outbreak/	2025/04/23
		Transmission of the viral infection remains high in the U.S. and its territories, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention said in an alert. Residents in California and Florida need to be the most concerned as their states typically have the most cases in a given year.
Inside the potentially bitter fight to replace Dick Durbin	Politics	Sen. Dick Durbin's (D-Ill.) announcement Wednesday that he is retiring rather than running for reelection in 2026 is likely to set off a fierce Democratic primary for his seat.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/durbin-primary-underwood-krishnamur	2025/04/24
		Durbin himself predicts that "at least a dozen" candidates will jump into the race, with at least three House Democrats and the state's lieutenant governor all eyeing bids.
		"Similar and often better information assets already exist in the private sector from multiple vendors," he explained. "The data [NIH] are creating won't get at many of the most critical subjects that should be addressed — most important the genetic components."
What to know about RFK Jr.'s autism registry plan	Nazi checklist	Kennedy, however, has rejected research finding no link between autism and vaccines, and has pledged a "massive testing and research effort" to find autism's cause by September.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/autism-registry-rfk-nih	2025/04/24
		Kennedy tapped David Geier, a vaccine denier who practiced medicine without a license in Maryland, to lead that study.
12 states sue Trump administration over tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	A coalition of 12 states sued the Trump administration on Wednesday over what they called "illegal tariffs."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/states-attorneys-general-lawsuit-trump	2025/04/24
		The attorneys general are seeking a court order to block President Trump from being able to enact the tariffs, claiming that he lacked the authority to set them.
Scammers stole $16.6 billion from victims last year	Economy-Scams	"Congress has not granted the president the authority to impose these tariffs and therefore the administration violated the law by imposing them through executive orders, social media posts, and agency orders," New York Attorney General Letitia James' office said in a statement.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/fbi-internet-crime-loss-record-high-2	2025/04/24
		Consumers lost more than $16 billion to scammers and cybercriminals last year, according to new FBI data published Wednesday.
Trump accuses Zelensky of sabotaging U.S. peace plan for Ukraine	International Relations	There's a 35% increase from the total that people lost in 2023, indicating that scammers are getting better at tricking victims despite law enforcement, government and industry investments.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/trump-attack-zelensky-response-ukr	2025/04/24
		"Ukraine will not legally recognize the occupation of Crimea," Zelensky told reporters. "There is nothing to talk about. It is against our constitution."
Americans souring on Trump's economic strategy, polls say	Trump Economy	Ukraine's constitution also commits the country to working toward NATO membership.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/trump-economy-polls	2025/04/24
		However, as Trump pointed out in his response, the document does not actually state that Ukraine recognize Russian control of Crimea, only that the U.S. will.
Trump softens tariff tone amid empty shelves warning, market slump	Trump Economy	A majority of Americans disapprove of President Trump's handling of the economy, particularly his trade policies, per two new polls out Wednesday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/trump-economy-tariffs-china-powell	2025/04/24
		55% of U.S. adults say they are not confident Trump can make good decisions about economic policy, per a Pew Research Center survey of 3,589 people conducted April 7-13.
		The CEOs of three of the nation's biggest retailers — Walmart, Target and Home Depot — privately warned him that his tariff and trade policy could disrupt supply chains, raise prices and empty shelves, according to sources familiar with the meeting.
		"The big box CEOs told him [Trump] the prices aren't going up, they're steady right now, but they will go up. And this wasn't about food. But he was told that shelves will be empty," an administration official familiar with the meeting told Axios.
		It's a huge loss. I can't put into words what a huge loss it is, says Marian Neuhouser, who chairs the steering committee for the federally funded Women's Health Initiative. The study, begun in the 1980s, has produced a series of groundbreaking results and was continuing to gather valuable data about women's health.
Funding cut for landmark study of women's health	Health-Research	The Department of Health and Human Services is terminating contracts with all four regional centers that have been following tens of thousands of women who have been participating in the project for decades, according to the project's coordinating center.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/23/ncs-st-5372892/womens-health-initiative	2025/04/24
		One big question is what will happen to the huge repository of data, including blood and urine samples and genetic material, which represents a treasure trove that could be mined to make yet more important discoveries.
Former Pentagon official on Houthi turmoil: 'It looks like they actually broke the law'	Political Cesspool	No, says Farkas, who worked under former Defense Secretary Chuck Hagel. She says that appointing someone without Pentagon experience isn't unusual, but it becomes a serious issue if they don't retain and empower experienced staff. "You need to make sure that you retain experienced personnel and you empower them so that they make sure that everything's moving smoothly and according to the law."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/23/ncs-st-5372612/former-defense-depart	2025/04/24
		We may have hundreds, if not thousands, of different neurogenetic factors that in combination with complicated environmental interactions influence presentations of autism, Zachary Warren, a pediatric psychiatrist and autism researcher at Vanderbilt University, told NPR at the time of Kennedy's remarks.
NH autism study will pull from private medical records	Nazi checklist	"This idea is dangerous, unethical, and a serious threat to privacy. People with autism deserve dignity and respect—not surveillance by their own government," he wrote. "I stand with advocates across the country in strongly opposing this proposal."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/23/ncs-st-5372895/autism-nih-rfk-medical	2025/04/24
		"The collection and processing of personal information, especially health-related information that can reveal health conditions in this way, is out of context and inappropriate." Georgetown added.
		Air in the U.S. has gotten cleaner for decades, adding years to people's lives and preventing millions of asthma attacks, but nearly half of Americans still live with unhealthy air pollution, a new report finds.
Air pollution still plagues nearly half of Americans. That does a number on our health	Environment-Air pollution	The report, now in its 29th year, comes as the Trump administration pushes federal agencies to reconsider many of the regulations that have resulted in cleaner air in recent decades.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/23/ncs-st-5368131/air-quality-public-health	2025/04/24
		Environmental Protection Agency administrator Lee Zeldin has announced his intention to re-evaluate limits on soot pollution, which were last tightened in 2024, claiming the tighter rules restrict business activity. The EPA has granted exemptions on emissions reduction requirements to dozens of coal-fired power plants, which produce some of the most health-harming particle pollution.
		Doctors and health experts have expressed alarm at the proposed changes.
		"Any rollback of environmental regulations has the potential to have really widespread public health impacts," says Anne Tummala, an ear, nose, and throat physician and a spokesperson for this year's report.
		The good news is the vast majority of people still have confidence in the safety of the measles vaccine, says Liz Hamel, director of public opinion and survey research at KFF, a nonprofit health policy research organization which conducted the poll.
Like measles, misinformation is spreading, poll finds	Misinformation	The bad news: People are being exposed to a lot of false claims about measles — and many don't know what to make of it.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/04/23/ncs-st-5372	2025/04/24
		And a significant proportion leaned toward saying these false claims about measles are probably true. For example, 1 in 4 adults polled said vitamin A either probably or definitely prevents measles. And 19% believed it was probably or definitely true that the measles, mumps and rubella vaccine is more dangerous than getting infected with measles.
		Southern California could be dealing with its worst toxic algae bloom ever.
Unprecedented toxic algae bloom continues to kill Southern California whales and other wildlife	Environment-Oceans	Domoic acid toxicosis associated with a bloom off the Southern California coast is responsible for killing brown pelicans, sea lions, and now at least two whales.	https://naisd.com/news/dmalle-environment/unprecedented-toxic-algae	2025/04/24
		The Pacific Marine Mammal Center confirmed Wednesday that a female humpback whale, and a minke whale that was stuck swimming around Long Beach Harbor earlier this month, had high levels of domoic acid in their feces, stomach and urine.
		Domoic acid is a potent neurotoxin that affects the brain, nervous system and organs.
		But this spectacle has obscured a series of moves by the administration that could profoundly harm some of the most vulnerable people in the U.S.: children.
		Consider: The staff of a program that helps millions of poor families keep the electricity on, in part so that babies don't die from extreme heat or cold, have all been fired. The federal office that oversees the enforcement of child support payments has been hollowed out. Head Start preschools, which teach toddlers their ABCs and feed them healthy meals, will likely be forced to shut down en masse, some as soon as May 1. And funding for investigating child sexual abuse and internet crimes against children, responding to reports of missing children, and preventing youth violence has been withdrawn indefinitely.
		These stark reductions have been centered in little-known children's services offices housed within behemoth agencies such as the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Justice, offices with names like the Children's Bureau, the Office of Family Assistance and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. In part because of their obscurity, the slashing has gone relatively overlooked.
The Trump Administration's War on Children	Funding cuts	"Everyone's been talking about what the Trump administration and DOGE have been doing, but no one seems to be talking about how, in a lot of ways, it's been an assault on kids."	https://www.propublica.org/gdc/dethrow-trump-budget-cuts-harm-kids-ch	2025/04/24

		More children ages 1 to 4 die of drowning than any other cause of death. Nearly a quarter of adults received mental health treatment in 2023, an increase of 3.4 million from the prior year. The number of migrants from Mexico and northern Central American countries stopped by the U.S. Border Patrol was surpassed in 2022 by the number of migrants from other nations. We know these things because the federal government collects, organizes and shares the data behind them. Every year, year after year, workers in agencies that many of us have never heard of have been amassing the statistics that undergird decision-making at all levels of government and inform the judgments of business leaders, school administrators and medical providers nationwide.
Trump's War on Measurement Means Losing Data on Drug Use, Maternal Mortality, Climate Change and More	Information Blackout	The survival of that data is now in doubt, as a result of the Department of Government Efficiency's comprehensive assault on the federal bureaucracy. That simple idea — that Musk might spend more time on his actual businesses — was enough to spark a rebound Wednesday in Tesla's stock price, which had been cratering due in large part to Musk's polarizing role in Trump's administration. But in the next breath Musk implied he wouldn't be leaving government entirely, and maybe not until 2029, when President Donald Trump's term is over.	https://www.propublica.org/article/trump-doge-data-collection-hhs-epa	2025/04/24
Elon Musk's government role gets even murkier	Fuck That Guy	"I'll have to continue doing it for, I think, probably the remainder of the president's term, just to make sure that the waste and fraud that we stop does not come roaring back, which will do it if he has the chance," Musk said, adding, "I think I'll continue to spend a day or two per week on government matters for as long as the president would like me to do so and as long as it is useful." "For 40 days, his family has been waiting to hear his fate," LULAC CEO Juan Proaño said. Finally, on Tuesday, an answer. The Department of Homeland Security confirmed to NBC News that Adrián had, in fact, been deported — to El Salvador. The news "saddens me a lot" and "shattered me," Alejandro said after he heard about his brother's whereabouts from NBC News.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-government-role-gets-191220	2025/04/24
After a month of searching, man learns from NBC News that DHS sent his brother to El Salvador	Borders and immigration	DHS didn't respond when it was asked whether Adrián was sent to CECOT, the mega-prison in El Salvador. But Alejandro learns that's the case, given the many Venezuelans who were sent to CECOT from Texas a few days after he was detained. While it remains unclear exactly what data will be collected, under the presented platform NIH researchers could have access to: Data collected during medical studies in a multitude of areas and from public and private institutions Data collected from peoples' smartwatches, which can range from heart health to sleep patterns Claims from private insurers that can cover items such as lengthy hospital stays, screening and testing	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mom-searching-man-learns-nbc-040403	2025/04/24
Here's the data the NIH can collect from your medical history for its 'autism database'	Nazi checklist	Data from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, which includes referrals to specialists, enrollment, diagnoses, and more The controversy concerns a $10 million payment to the Hope Florida Foundation, which is tied to first lady Casey DeSantis's welfare assistance program Hope Florida and has led to criticism from some state House Republicans. Critics argue this money was inappropriately used to help campaign against a ballot measure that would have legalized recreational marijuana in the state last November.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/data-nih-collect-medical-history-1726032	2025/04/24 privacy
DeSantis faces growing storm over Hope Florida controversy	Political Cesspool	Simone Collins and her husband, Malcolm Collins, are pro-natalists who have advocated actions to make it less difficult for families to have children and ultimately reverse declining birth and marriage rates. Simone Collins told ABC News that she and her husband have submitted several draft executive orders to the White House Domestic Policy Council, including bestowing a "National Medal of Motherhood" to mothers with six or more children. They also proposed that couples should not face a tax penalty for getting married. However, MomRising CEO Kristin Rowe-Finkbeiner, whose organization says it advocates on behalf of more than a million mothers and families, said the programs are "sheer lunacy — coercive, counterproductive recipes for failure."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/desantis-faces-growing-storm-over-1009	2025/04/24
Trump administration looking at $6,000 'baby bonus' to incentivize public to have more children	Reproductive Rights	A wildfire in New Jersey has exploded to 12,500 acres after igniting Tuesday in Ocean County and threatening more than 1,000 structures, shutting down a major highway and causing thousands of people to flee the flames.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/trump-administration-5000-baby-bonus	2025/04/24
New Jersey wildfire explodes to 12,500 acres, could be largest in 30 years	Environment-Wildfires	Shawn LaTourette, New Jersey's commissioner of Environmental Protection, said fire officials expect the blaze to grow and that it could turn out to be the largest wildfire in New Jersey in 20 years.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/wildfire-new-jersey-explodes-8500-acres-ri	2025/04/24
Novavax says its COVID-19 shot is on track for full FDA approval after delay	Health-Vaccines	Novavax's closely watched COVID-19 vaccine is on track for full approval after additional discussions with the Food and Drug Administration, the company said Wednesday. Novavax makes the nation's only traditional protein-based COVID-19 vaccine. It is still being sold under emergency use authorization — unlike mRNA vaccines made by Pfizer and Moderna that have earned full FDA approval for certain age groups.	https://abcnews.go.com/health/wireStory/novavax-covid-19-shot-track	2025/04/24
Largest coral bleaching event on record impacts 84% of world's reefs: NOAA	Environment-Oceans	The world's coral reefs are in the midst of the fourth and largest global bleaching event in recorded history, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration announced this week. The grim milestone was recorded between January 2023 and April 2025, with the agency documenting that bleaching-level heat stress has impacted 83.7% of the world's coral reef area. The Trump administration has shunted one of the US federal government's top scientific agencies onto a "non-science trajectory", workers warn, that threatens to derail decades of research and leave the US with "air that's not breathable and water that's not drinkable".	https://abcnews.go.com/US/targeted-coral-bleaching-event-record-impac	2025/04/24
Trump administration has set NOAA on 'non-science trajectory,' workers warn	Government Jobs	Trump administration officials are seeking to abolish the scientific research division at NOAA, the Oceanic and Atmospheric Research (OAR) office. It is the latest of a series of cuts at the agency that began the second Trump administration with 12,000 employees around the world, including more than 6,700 engineers and scientists. Norway has launched a new scheme to lure top international researchers amid growing pressure on academic freedom in the US under the Trump administration. Following in the footsteps of multiple institutions across Europe, the Research Council of Norway on Wednesday launched a 100m kroner ($7.2m) fund to make it easier to recruit researchers from other countries.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/23/noaa-non-science-t	2025/04/24
Norway launches scheme to lure top researchers away from US universities	Economy-Jobs	The initiative is open to researchers from around the world, but it was expanded and accelerated after the Trump administration announced substantial cuts last month. Amid reports of infighting and chaos at the Pentagon, and with the secretary under fire for a second breach of operational security, CBS News reports that Hegseth recently ordered modifications to a room next to the department's press briefing room to turn it into a make-up studio. Citing multiple sources, the network says the project cost several thousand dollars, at a time when Donald Trump's administration is supposed to be focused on cost-cutting.	https://www.theguardian.com/education/2025/apr/23/norway-launches	2025/04/24
Hegseth spent 'several thousand dollars' turning Pentagon room into a make-up studio for his TV spots, report says	Political Cesspool	Arkansas Gov. Sarah Huckabee Sanders has begged President Donald Trump to reconsider his rejection of her request for disaster relief funds after tornadoes devastated her state last month. The plea for help marks a significant departure from statements Sanders made in 2023.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/pete-h	2025/04/24
Sarah Sanders begs her old boss Trump to reconsider after president rejects Arkansas request for disaster relief funds	Political Cesspool	"As long as I am your governor, the meddling hand of big government creeping down from Washington DC will be stopped cold at the Mississippi River," she wrote in a post on X in January 2023. Since his inauguration on January 20, Trump has mentioned former President Joe Biden, his family or administration at least 580 times in public remarks or on social media, according to an analysis by NBC News.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/sarah-s	2025/04/24
Trump has mentioned Biden on average six times every day of his presidency as obsession with old foe continues	Trump Bullshit	A leaked federal government budget draft would eliminate services for LGBT+ youth who call a national suicide and crisis hotline that reaches thousands of young Americans every month. Under a budget plan from the Department of Health and Human Services, Donald Trump's administration would slash all funding for 568 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline's LGBT+ Youth Specialized Services, a federal program that runs the "988" phone line and connects callers with counselors and other services.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/04/24
Trump wants to slash suicide lifeline for LGBT+ kids – despite it being the second biggest cause of death for American youth	Rainbow threats	Attorney General Pam Bondi on Tuesday issued a memo of directives to Justice Department employees to enforce the Trump administration's policies targeting gender-affirming care for minors, according to a copy of the memo obtained by CNN. The memo comes after President Donald Trump issued an executive order in January titled, "Protecting Children from Chemical and Surgical Mutilation." The executive order targets minors that identify as transgender and says that the United States will not "fund, sponsor, promote, assist, or support" minors who are seeking gender-affirming care.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/04/24
Attorney general directs Justice Department employees to enforce policies targeting care for transgender minors	Rainbow threats	"Pursuant to the President's directive, I am issuing the following guidance to all Department of Justice employees to enforce rigorous protections and hold accountable those who prey on vulnerable children and their parents," the memo from Bondi said. "We have people who did not receive benefits come in every day with their ID and say, 'I'm not dead, I'm alive!'" says Rennie Glasgow, a claims technical analyst with 15 years of experience at the agency who handles the most challenging cases at the Schenckelady office. These supposed dead are not to be confused with more than 6,000 living immigrants the Trump administration moved to the SSA Death Master File (DMF) in an attempt to force them to self-deport by depriving them of the ability to work legally.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/attorney-general-directs-justice-departme	2025/04/24
DOGE's Social Security Cuts Create Chaotic 'Day of the Dead' Living	Government-SSA	"[DOGE staffers] went into the system and they killed off people," Glasgow told The Daily Beast. "About 4 million people, they marked them as dead. But they're not sure if those people were supposed to be marked as dead, so they're sending us an email saying, 'If these people come into the office with their identification, you can reinstate them.'" The U.S. Election Assistance Commission has operated in relative anonymity since, but is now central to President Donald Trump's executive order seeking to overhaul elections. One of the commission's boards will meet Thursday in North Carolina, the first commission-related meeting since the directives were announced. Among other things, Trump directed the agency to update the national voter registration form to add a proof of citizenship requirement. But whether the president can order an independent agency to act and whether the commission has the authority to do what Trump wants will likely be settled in court.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-social-security-cuts-create-0241166	2025/04/24
A little-known federal agency is at the center of Trump's executive order to overhaul US elections	Voting Fucker	The Trump crowd's approach to fertility is not the joy of parenthood or the warmth of close families. It's more like the "Great Replacement" theory made flesh. Give them credit for honesty, I guess. They don't really claim to be speaking up for family values. Instead, as Elon Musk admits, he wants a "region" of offspring "before the apocalypse" and is creating a harem to achieve it. He is married, but also father to at least fourteen children by four different women and willing to outsource his semen upon request. "No romance or anything," he explained to one baby mama, "just sperm."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-family-policy-stop-0930497	2025/04/24
Donald Trump Has a Family Policy, Stop Laughing.	Nazi checklist	When Ricardo Prada Vásquez tried to re-enter the country from the Ambassador Bridge, the 32-year-old Venezuelan immigrant was detained by immigration authorities. On March 15, the same day dozens of alleged gang members were summarily removed from the country and sent to a brutal Salvadoran prison, Prada told a friend in Chicago he was detained in Texas, expecting to board a plane to Venezuela. But he was not on a leaked list of 238 names of immigrants sent to El Salvador. He wasn't identified in the photos of men filmed inside the jail getting their heads shaved in shackles. Attorneys and family members have no idea where he is. Then, on April 22, only after his story was reported in The New York Times, Donald Trump's administration said he was deported to El Salvador.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/venezuelan-immigrant-accidentally-enter	2025/04/24
A Venezuelan delivery driver was 'disappeared' after making a wrong turn. The Trump administration claims they know where he is	Borders and immigration	In 2016, a Fox News host expressed outrage that Hillary Clinton had sent government emails over a private server while serving as secretary of state. This host said her behavior damaged the nation's credibility. He said it warranted being fired "on the spot." And he said someone who did "even 1/1000th" of what Clinton had done would be jailed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/shaming-hillary-clinton-sharing-48kes-17	2025/04/24
From shaming Hillary Clinton to sharing strikes: Pete Hegseth's shift on handling sensitive info	Political Cesspool	"The fact that she wouldn't be held accountable for this, I think, blows the mind of anyone who's held our nation's secrets dear," he said on Fox News at the time, adding that those with top-secret clearances "know that even one hiccup causes a problem."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/shaming-hillary-clinton-sharing-48kes-17	2025/04/24

		There are so many different varieties of pronatalism and so many different motivations behind it, she says, adding that Vance probably represents "people who see it more from a religious lens, and, often, they are focused more on families and communities. And then there are some – which I think is probably where you're going to land with Elon Musk – who are thinking about it more from an existential point of view."
Elon Musk, JD Vance and why 'pronatalism' is having a moment right now	Nazi checklist	For starters, more people feel they simply can't afford to have families amid economic uncertainty and rising housing prices. More couples are also delaying marriage, shortening their window to conceive naturally with their spouse. More people also don't see children as necessary to a fulfilling life.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-jd-vance-why-112444005.html	2025/04/24
Warren Werns of 'Backdoor Way' Trump and Musk Want to Gut Social Security	Government-SSA	If the birth rate keeps declining, Scubba says, institutions that rely on young people to support older people will suffer. These include Medicare, Medicaid and Social Security.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/warren-werns-backdoor-way-trump-1330	2025/04/24
Non-hormonal male contraceptive implant tests at least two years in trials	Reproductive Rights	An implantable, non-hormonal male contraceptive has been shown in trials to last for at least two years.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025/apr/24/non-hormonal-male-	2025/04/24
'Like a slap in the face,' Trump officials cut hundreds of millions to combat gun violence and special education	Government Funding	The contraceptive, known as Adam, is a water-soluble hydrogel that is implanted in the sperm ducts, preventing sperm from mixing with semen.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/24/trump-administratio	2025/04/24
Now comes the 'womansphere', the anti-feminist media telling women to be thin, fertile and Republican	Cesspool	Hundreds of millions of federal grant dollars meant to prevent and respond to gun violence, opioid addiction and support victims of violent crimes were cut this week by the Trump administration. The U.S. department of justice emailed more than 350 organizations on Tuesday to tell them that the promised funding was being terminated. According to a termination notice shared with the Guardian, the Department of Justice said the money was rescinded because it "no longer effectuates Department priorities".	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/24/womansphere-herc	2025/04/24
Key FDA drug data goes missing amid DOGE cuts	Information Blackout	Instead, the department intends to focus on "more directly supporting certain law enforcement operations, combatting violent crime, protecting American children, and supporting American victims of trafficking and sexual assault, and better coordinating law enforcement efforts at all levels of government", the notice read.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/23/fda-data-missing-doge-cuts	2025/04/24
Trump looks to quickly develop deep-sea mineral extraction	Environment-Mining	Analyses of the 2024 election widely heralded the "manosphere" – the coalition of bro podcasters and YouTubers popular with male audiences – as key to delivering Donald Trump's victory.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/trump-looks-to-quickly-develop-deep-	2025/04/25
Judge blocks Trump order to require proof of citizenship for voting	Voting Fucker	According to an AP poll, 56% of men under age 30 went for Trump compared with 41% four years prior. By meeting young men where they were at, Trump and his surrogates were able to reach voters who are typically among the least politically engaged segments of society.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/trump-order-voting-proof-of-citizen	2025/04/25	Judicial branch
Bolched filing reveals Justice Department's skepticism of congestion pricing suit	Trump Idiots	Now, there are the beginnings of an organized effort to create a similar alternative rightwing media ecosystem targeting young female U.S. audiences – one of the few demographics that has, until now, leaned substantially Democratic.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/tpc-congestion-pricing-intel-mex	2025/04/25
Trump store sells hats leasing third term in 2028	Constitutional Crisis	Food and Drug Administration databases that physicians and public health experts rely on for key drug safety and manufacturing information have been neglected due to DOGE-directed layoffs, leaving health professionals flying blind on basic questions about certain drugs they're prescribing, current and former FDA officials told Axios.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/trump-2028-hats-sale-official-store	2025/04/25
Judge blocks Education Department's DEI ban in K-12 schools	Judicial Branch	Information gaps that have become a hallmark of the workforce reductions and the sweeping reorganization of federal health agencies under Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. are putting patient safety at risk, according to agency employees.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/judge-pause-dei-ban-k-12-schools-j	2025/04/25
How the U.S. government spends money	Government Funding	"To really a nightmare," said a current FDA official who requested anonymity because they were not authorized to speak to the press. "Things that used to function are no longer functioning."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/hospital-security-health-insurance-gov	2025/04/25
Military deportations not covered by order halting DHS removals, admin claims	Borders and immigration	"It's really a nightmare," said a current FDA official who requested anonymity because they were not authorized to speak to the press. "Things that used to function are no longer functioning."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/trump-deportations-el-salvador-dhs-	2025/04/25	constitutional crisis
Trump-honored economist says tariffs causing scariest period in his lifetime	Economy-Tariffs	When enacting the National Voter Registration Act, Congress considered and rejected such a proposal, concluding that it was not necessary or consistent with the purpose of the law, the judge wrote.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/24/laffer-trump-tariffs	2025/04/25
Home sales just posted their biggest monthly fall since 2022	Economy-Housing	"The President has no constitutional power over election regulation that would support this unilateral exercise of authority," the judge said. "The Constitution vests that power in the States and Congress alone."	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5372671/home-sales-march-apr	2025/04/25
A developing political scandal in Florida has Gov. Ron DeSantis on the defensive	Political Cesspool	Federal lawyers mistakenly filed a confidential memo Wednesday in the Trump administration's fight against New York City's congestion pricing program.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5372650/desantis-florida-gov	2025/04/25
Wrong turn leads to hundreds of immigrant arrests at the Detroit-Canada border bridge	Borders and immigration	The erroneously filed letter, dated April 11, said there is "considerable litigation risk" in defending Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy's rationale to end the program.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5374937/immigrant-arrests-detro	2025/04/25
Colleague of Harvard scientist held by ICE warns that foreign scientists are scared	Borders and immigration	The Trump Organization is encouraging supporters to "mjkake a statement" with a "Trump 2028" hat, now on sale on the official Trump Store.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5372650/kenija-petrova-ice-han	2025/04/25
Elon Musk wants control of a public beach. The state of Texas is preparing to give it to him.	Fuck That Guy	U.S. District Court Judge Landya McCafferty said in her Thursday order that the Trump administration's letter is "unconstitutionally vague."	https://www.hud.org/offices/2025-04-11/elon-musk-texas-starbase-spac	2025/04/25
Oil companies expected a big business boom under Trump. Now they're worried	Economy-Fossil fuels	It shows that that what the government spends money on boils down to payments directly to Americans (Social Security, most prominently), directly paying medical bills or helping people buy health insurance.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5369423/oil-companies-boom-fr	2025/04/25
Racial disparities in youth incarceration are the widest they've been in decades	Racism	In Third Way's analysis, 31 cents of each dollar the government spends consists of checks to Americans.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/24/nx-1-5359110/racial-disparities-in-you	2025/04/25
Ocean County, New Jersey wildfire: 19-year-old charged with arson	Environment-Wildfires	Some 14 cents went to help people buy health insurance or manage their benefits and 12 cents toward medical bill payments.	https://xthru.org/articles/ocean-county-new-jersey-wildfire-arrest-arson/	2025/04/25
Hegepath had an unsecured internet line set up in his office to connect to Signal, AP sources say	National security	Another 13 cents went to interest on the national debt. Spending on wages for the military and federal law enforcement is a small sliver, a combined 3 cents.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegepath-had-unsecured-internet-line-205	2025/04/25

Why MAGA World is so protective of Hegseth	Political Cesspool	"Much like Trump himself, Hegseth is viewed by the base as a genuine outsider and disrupter," one longtime Trump adviser told The Hill. "And because of the years he spent on Fox, they feel a real connection with him."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/why-maga-world-protective-hegseth-100c	2025/04/25
Concerned about US vaccine misinformation and access, public health experts start Vaccine Integrity Project	Health-Information	Concerned that the nation's health leadership is casting unfounded doubt on the safety of well-studied vaccines and may take action to curb their use, a group of public health experts is working to put pieces in place to respond. The initiative, the Vaccine Integrity Project, will be funded by a foundation backed by Walmart heiress Christy Walton and has a steering committee helmed by former US Food and Drug Administration Commissioner Dr. Margaret Hamburg and former National Academy of Medicine President Dr. Harvey Fineberg, said Dr. Michael Osterholm, who is leading the initiative and who serves as director of the Center for Infectious Disease Research and Policy at the University of Minnesota.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/concerned-us-vaccine-misinformation-ac	2025/04/25
RFK Jr. Wants an Autism Registry 'People Are Pleased'	Nazi checklist	The registry isn't the only tool Kennedy will have at his disposal for autism research. Bhattacharya also announced that the NIH will create a "real world platform" with data from electronic health records, pharmacy claims, snailtratches, fitness trackers, and health organizations, including the Department of Veterans Affairs, Defense Health Agency, and Indian Health Service. The platform will have "access to labs, imaging, genomics, claims and billing data — which often provides detailed diagnostic information," he said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-wants-autism-registry-180816944.html	2025/04/25
Parents outraged after 'whites' and 'colored' signs are posted above water fountains in Georgia elementary school	Racism	A Georgia elementary school is facing furious backlash from parents after their students were subjected to signs on campus reading "whites only" and "colored only."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/parents-outraged-whites-colored-signs-2	2025/04/25
Trump admin must seek return of another man who was improperly deported to El Salvador, judge rules	Borders and immigration	School officials said a teacher put up the signs as part of a history lesson on Ruby Bridges, the first Black student to desegregate a U.S. school in 1960 at just six years old. U.S. District Judge Stephanie Gallagher, a Maryland-based Trump appointee, ruled that the administration deported a 20-year-old Venezuelan man last month in violation of a legally binding, court-approved settlement agreement reached in a lawsuit last year. Under that settlement, the U.S. agreed not to deport migrants who arrived as unaccompanied minors until their asylum claims are fully adjudicated. The man, identified in court papers only as "Cristian," arrived in the U.S. as an unaccompanied minor and sought asylum in December 2022. That claim was still pending when he was deported last month.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-must-seek-return-14134579	2025/04/25
RFK Jr. Suggests Not Enough Teens Are Getting Pregnant, Ralls Against Youth Testosterone Levels	Political Cesspool	On Tuesday, Kennedy went on several ramps about teenage fertility and the sperm count of teen boys, first at a press conference in which he seemingly complained about teen pregnancy rates declining and then on "Jesse 'Men shouldn't eat soup' Walters' Fox News show. Kennedy's raling these concerns in the context of his crusade against synthetic dyes in foods, claiming it's harming kids by eradicating teen boys' sperm counts—his source for all of this largely seems to be the worm in his brain. "Our fertility is dropping dramatically. Teenagers in this country have the same testosterone levels as 68-year-old men," Kennedy said at the press conference, where he announced efforts to regulate synthetic dyes, specifically praising out eight dyes and coloring by 2026. But I mostly just want a lot like Kennedy wants teenage boys to get more testosterone from gummy gels pregant right-fucking now.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-suggests-not-enough-1407412079.html	2025/04/25
Trump Team Tips Off Wall Street Execs About Coming Trade Deal	Corruption	"Why are Wall Street executives getting early alerts from people within the Trump White House about the status of trade negotiations?" Bloomberg's Joe Wiesenthal asked. "So they are just bribing wall street firms with insider info," author John Ganz commented. This kind of blatant action cuts through the air of working-class, little-guy concern that the Trump administration claims to have and puts its actual corporate effiten on full display. Trump is treating the market like a board game that he's rigged for himself and all of the rich friends who donated to his campaign. This isn't the first time this has happened, and it won't be the last.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-team-tips-off-wall-151055386.html	2025/04/25
White House Faith Office Leader Says 'It's Not Hard' For Wives To Submit To Husbands	Cesspool	White Cain, a televangelist who has been called President Donald Trump's spiritual adviser, referred to her third husband, Jonathan Cain, as the head of her household, stating, "God has an order." The Faith Office leader has faced backlash for her church's financial practices. A Senate Finance Committee investigation that concluded in 2011 found that at White Cain's then-ministry, the megachurch Without Walls International, used tax-exempt funds to pay her family members millions of dollars in salaries.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-faith-office-leader-18290005	2025/04/25
'This is Not How We Do Science, Ever'	Misinformation	Kennedy, who has no scientific or medical training himself, also seems confused about what a scientifically rigorous investigation would entail—and how long it might take. During this month's Cabinet meeting, he said that by September, HHS would complete "a massive research and testing effort involving hundreds of scientists from around the world." At last week's press conference, however, his comments suggested that HHS might rely heavily on AI and electronic-health-record data, which aren't gathered uniformly, can depend on self-reporting, and cover only populations that interact with the health-care system. And Jay Bhattacharya, the new, Trump-appointed director of the National Institutes of Health, recently gave a presentation detailing the administration's plans to source data for these investigations from hospitals, pharmacies, wearable devices, and other private sources with limited reach.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/not-how-we-do-science-ever-123000678.html	2025/04/25
Trump Finds Another Country to Accept His Mass Deportations	Borders and immigration	The U.S. government is reportedly preparing to deport immigrants to Rwanda who can't be sent back to their country of origin due to fears of prosecution.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-finds-another-country-accept-1853	2025/04/25
Whooping cough cases are rising again in the US	Health-Whooping Cough	Whooping cough cases are rising, and doctors are bracing for yet another tough year. There have been 8,465 cases reported in 2025, according to preliminary data from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. That's twice as many cases as this time last year, based on CDC's final tally.	https://apnews.com/article/whooping-cough-perthusa-tdap-vaccination	2025/04/25
199 days of DOGE: lots of chaos, not so much efficiency	Fuck That Guy	At the Social Security Administration, lawyers, statisticians and other high-ranking agency officials are being sent from the Baltimore headquarters to regional offices to replace veteran claim processors who have been fired or taken buyouts from the Trump administration. But most of the new arrivals don't know how to do the job, leading to longer wait times for disabled and elderly Americans who depend on these benefits, according to two people familiar with the situation. Asted about the changes, an SSA official said in an email that reassigned employees "have vast knowledge about our programs and services."	https://www.reuters.com/world/us/100-days-doge-lots-chaos-not-so-mu	2025/04/25
What Elon Musk Didn't Budget For: Firing Workers Costs Money, Too	Fuck That Guy	Nearly 100 days into what Trump and tech billionaire Elon Musk have called a mission to make the federal bureaucracy more efficient, Reuters found 20 instances where the staff and funding cuts led to purchasing bottlenecks and increased costs, paralysis in decision-making, longer public wait times, higher-paid civil servants filing in mental jobs, and a brain drain of scientific and technological talent.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
'Nobody knows what's happening': DOGE cuts Norcross office of water monitors on the chopping block	Environment-Water	The Partnership for Public Service, a nonprofit organization that studies the federal work force, has used budget figures to produce a rough estimate that fringes, re-hirings, lost productivity and paid leave of thousands of workers will cost upward of $135 billion this fiscal year. At the Internal Revenue Service, a DOGE-driven exodus of 22,000 employees would cost about $8.5 billion in revenue in 2026 alone, according to figures from the Budget Lab at Yale University. The total number of departures is estimated to be as many as 32,300.	https://www.washpost.com/news/2025/apr/24/elon-musk-group-the	2025/04/25
Alleged former members of neo-Nazi group claim hit leader's Russian spy	Cesspool	"Without this two-mile stretch of the river, Atlanta doesn't exist," Chattahoochee River keeper Jason Utelish said. "All of these facilities are dependent upon minimal flows of water to do what they need to do to do to safely protect the river."	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/24/kyiv-ukraine-killed-doge	2025/04/25
'Vladimir, stop! Trump in rare rebuke to Putin as Kyiv attack toll rises to 12	International-Russia	However, the lease for the USGS office in Norcross, which monitors the water levels of three states, was listed for termination by the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE). The department claims it would save $1.3 million by terminating the lease.	https://www.washpost.com/news/2025/apr/24/elon-musk-group-the	2025/04/25
California's economy surpasses Japan's as it becomes fourth largest in world	Economy-California	"Nobody knows what's happening. It's just one blurb on a website, and we are preparing for a worst-case scenario," Utelish said.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/apr/24/kyiv-ukraine-killed-doge	2025/04/25
I saved $38,000 by not buying anything new – here are seven reasons you should do the same	Personal Interest	Alleged former members of an international neo-Nazi terrorist organization are claiming its Russian-based and American leader is a Kremlin spy, according to online records reviewed by the Guardian. The allegation that Rinaldo Nazario, a former Pentagon contractor and founder of the Base, listed as a designated terrorist organization all over the world, is an alleged Russian intelligence asset could bring new meaning to his group's latest effort: sabotage and assassination missions inside Ukraine to weaken the government of President Volodymyr Zelenskyy.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
April showers bring 'Wiry rain' to New England after storm abates desert dust 2,000 miles away	Environment-Rain	Donald Trump has issued a rare rebuke to Moscow for an air attack that killed 12 people in Kyiv, telling the Russian president in a social media post: "Vladimir, STOP!"	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
Judge bars Trump from denying federal funds to 'sanctuary' cities that limit immigration cooperation	Judicial Branch	California's economy has surpassed Japan's, making the Golden State the fourth largest economy in the world, Governor Gavin Newsom announced on Thursday. The state's nominal GDP reached $4.1tn, according to data from the International Monetary Fund and the US Bureau of Economic Analysis, edging out Japan's $4.02tn nominal GDP. California now ranks behind the US at $29.18tn, China at $15.74tn and Germany at $4.65tn.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
National Weather Service to resume translating its products for non-English speakers	Government-NWS	Reason 1: your stuff is stressing you out Reason 2: you want to better steward your money Reason 3: overconsumption is killing the planet, and you want to help Reason 4: you want to reclaim your time Reason 5: you want more contentment, creativity and joy Reason 6: you want to stop conflating your worth with stuff Reason 7: you want to regain control over your impulses	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
Flu virus that can lead to paralysis and brain swelling detected in California's wastewater	Health-Flu	"You could see that dust got picked up in New Mexico two days before on Thursday by the same storm system," he said. "It then brought it up into the far northern part of the U.S. and then eventually brought it all the way to New England." Strong wind brought the dust to an altitude of around 10,000 feet (3,000 meters), he said, below the level of rain clouds.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
Trump doesn't want to boost taxes on millionaires, because he's worried they'll leave the country	Trump Bullshit	"So the rain kind of grabbed the dust as it was falling and brought it down to the ground," Bridges said. "It's kind of cool to think I was transported 2,000 miles (3,200 kilometers) across the country."	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
The Trump Administration Isn't Pro-Family, It's Pro-Patriarchy	Political Cesspool	A federal judge in California on Thursday barred the Trump administration from denying or conditioning the use of federal funds to "sanctuary" jurisdictions, saying that portions of President Donald Trump's executive orders were unconstitutional.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
Pete Buttigieg Takes Down Republicans With Precise Plan For Freedom in America	Politics	The National Weather Service will resume translating its products for non-English speakers. The weather service paused the translations this month because its contract with the provider had lapsed. Experts said the change could put non-English speakers at risk of missing potentially life-saving warnings about extreme weather.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25
GOP Senator Plans Hearings On 9/11 To Find Out 'What Actually Happened'	Political Cesspool	The weather service said Thursday the contract has been reinstated, and the translations will resume by the end of the day Monday. A seasonal flu virus that can lead to paralysis has been detected in California wastewater. Influenza B has been shown at a "high" level over the last six weeks, according to recent data from Stanford University's WastewaterScan.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/04/24/us/politics/musk-cuts.html	2025/04/25

		President Trump's global trade war is only a few weeks old, but even if it stopped today, the effect on supply chains could eventually be measured in months and years. And while the solution last time was "stop the virus," this time it might be even more complicated, because the problem stacks erratic policy on top of fragile supply chains. What they're saying: "We are in a period of unprecedented disruption that's not going to stop," says Bryan Gross, principal in operations transformation at PwC.
Weeks of trade ripples threaten long disruption	Economy-Trade	This period goes back to the pandemic and runs through today's global economic unrest. "I think we are surely out of equilibrium," Gross says. As more than 100 wildfires burn across Florida, much of the state is experiencing a drought. Some areas, including the counties of Marion, Palm Beach and Hendry, are under extreme drought conditions.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-china-tariffs-supply-chain	2025/04/30
14 million Florida residents are under drought conditions, some extreme. What to know	Environment-drought	About 14 million Florida residents were living in areas of drought as of Monday, April 28 - an increase of 18.3% since last week, according to the Drought Monitor	https://www.yahoo.com/news/14-million-florida-residents-under-212141	2025/04/30
Shipping volume will plummet 35% next week, LA port official says in CNBC interview	Economy-shipping	The Los Angeles port is expecting a 35% drop in cargo from Asia next week, Gene Senoka, the port's executive director, said in a CNBC interview on Tuesday. Major American retailers have now stopped all shipments from China and that contributes to around 45% of traffic in Los Angeles, he said.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/shipping-volume-plummet-35-next-141	2025/04/30
Trump Has Ordered Safeguards Stripped From Procurement As Pentagon Prepares To Spend $1.7 Trillion	Government Spending	To summarize, the new executive orders purport not merely to change or improve regulations, but to simply eliminate most of the existing procurement rules developed through years of oversight processes and outside scrutiny. They effectively undo procurement safeguards put in place after tremendous waste was exposed during the Cold War. In their place, the executive orders would elevate certain procedures that allow the government to spend unlimited sums without competition — the so-called "other transactions" process that need not be completed and that circumvents safeguards put in place to protect tax dollars. The Executive Orders say there should be a "first preference" for other transactions processes, which is like having a "first preference" for bringing a pistol with no safety to compete in a boxing match. "It was so degrading. That you do all of this to a family, to women, your fellow citizens. And it was a little rough?" You literally traumatized me and my daughters for life. We're going to have to go get help or get over this somehow," Maria said. The agents told her that it could take days or months for the family's stuff to be returned, and wouldn't even give her a business card.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-ordered-safeguards-stripped-proc	2025/04/30
ICE Invades Wrong Home, Steals Their Life Savings, and Then Leaves	ACAB	Deputy Trump is 100 days into his second presidency, and to mark the occasion, Sen. Elizabeth Warren (D-Mass.) plans to read into the congressional record what she says are 100cases of Trump using the presidency to personally benefit himself and his allies.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-invades-wrong-home-makes-165441	2025/04/30
Elizabeth Warren Marks 100 Days Of Trump By Reading About 100 Reports Of His Corruption	Go Liz Go	In a sear status statement, Van Hollen said Salvadoran Vice President Felix Ulloa told him this month that the Central American nation was holding Kimar Abrego Garcia "solely because the United States is paying the country to do so."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elizabeth-warren-marks-100-days-21065	2025/04/30
US senator presses Trump on wrongly detained man after El Salvador cites US funds	Concentration Camps	He said, "we have a deal with the U.S. government. They send people. We host them. They pay. And that's it." the senator wrote in the letter to Trump, citing Ulloa. Medical professionals and scientists agree with Kennedy that more attention should be paid to chronic disease, but many take issue with his misinformation surrounding vaccines and other health matters. Ninety percent of the nation's $4.5 trillion in annual health care expenditures go to people with chronic and mental health conditions, according to the CDC.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-senator-presses-trump-wrongly-18533	2025/04/30
RFK Jr.'s Chronic diseases need top billing, not infectious diseases like measles and COVID	RFK JR BS	Every president over the last few decades have been trying to add more power to the executive branch and forward their agenda, Bonilla told ABC News. "Trump is taking that to the extreme." James Sample, a constitutional law expert at Hofstra University, said that Trump's playbook appears to be straight out of Project 2025, a blueprint for "taking the reins of the federal government" prepared for years by Trump's most conservative allies in anticipation of his comeback — although Trump claimed to never have read it. Trump and his supporters said his actions are justified because unelected bureaucrats and judges, they claim, had seized control from presidents — the one person elected nationwide, they argue, and granted total executive power by the Constitution.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-s-chronic-diseases-top-165055310-h	2025/04/30
Trump, echoing Project 2025, using 'food the zone' strategy to push agentic. Experts	Project 2025	Regardless, Sample said, the tactic should raise a red flag. President Donald Trump admitted earlier this month that the "homegrowns are next." Now he refused to eliminate the possibility that U.S. citizens could be deported by mistake.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-echoing-project-2025-using-17041	2025/04/30
Trump admits it's possible US citizens could be deported by mistake. Nothing will ever be perfect in this world.	US Citizens	Asked what would happen if his administration mistakenly removed the wrong person or an American citizen, Trump told the magazine: "Let me tell you that nothing will ever be perfect in this world."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admits-possible-us-citizens-20485	2025/04/30
Customs warehouses are booming as U.S. businesses turn to a hope and prayer strategy of waiting out the tariff war	Economy-tariffs	Customs bonded warehouses are in high demand, said Cindy Allen, a customs broker and CEO of Trade Force Multiplier LLC. "That's what I call the hope and prayer strategy," she explained. "You bring goods, you don't pay the duty, you hope that it's gonna go down—you hedge your bets." Bonded warehouses are secure storage facilities where imported goods can be held without paying duties or taxes until the goods are officially released into the market or exported. It remains unclear how the program will end, given Hegseth also acknowledged the Pentagon would continue enacting "the minimum of WPS required by statute." But, Kathleen McInnis, a senior fellow at the Center for Strategic and International Studies, who has studied the intersection of gender and national security, described Hegseth's move as "bizarre," particularly his declaration that WPS is a "woken... Biden initiative."	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/customs-warehouses-booming-a-bu	2025/04/30
Hegseth announces he's ending Pentagon involvement in Trump initiative empowering women championed by Ivanka Trump and Rubio	Political Censorship	"This is Trump 45 policy," she said. "This is his law. And we've learned through its implementation how much more effective it can make the force. At a time when "bro-casters" like Joe Rogan are helping drive the political narrative, Kennedy has tapped into the following of these "non-fluencers" to further his agenda, which has included narratives that aren't scientifically sound. Reality check: While the moms discuss the value of eating whole foods, getting exercise and quality sleep, they've often veered into misinformation as they advocate for natural health and parental choice, experts said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-announces-ending-pentagon-inv	2025/04/30
RFK Jr.'s not-so-secret weapon: the moms	RFK JR BS	The Supreme Court sided with Health and Human Services on Tuesday in a case over whether safety net hospitals that care for low-income seniors should get higher Medicare reimbursements. The majority of justices ruled that the law considers SSI to refer to cash benefits, with eligibility determined on a monthly basis. A patients' SSI eligibility status "is not a perfect measure of income — but neither is income a perfect measure of whether a patient is more costly to treat," Justice Amy Coney Barrett wrote for the majority. "In the end, the Medicare fraction and ultimate DSH adjustment reflect a balance of multiple competing interests, including increased funding for hospitals, administrability, efficiency, and allocation of finite resources." Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson, joined by Justice Sonia Sotomayor, wrote in a dissent that the opinion endorses a formula that "arbitrarily undercounts" the low-income patients served by a hospital.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/rfk-moms-online-infingerc	2025/04/30
SCOTUS sides with HHS in hospital payment case. Trump fires Doug Emhoff, other Biden appointees from Holocaust museum board	Supreme Court	"The decision the majority has made in this case will deprive hospitals serving the neediest among us of critical federal funds that Congress plainly attempted to provide," she added. The Trump administration began firing members of the Biden-appointed Holocaust Memorial Council — including Doug Emhoff, the husband of Joe Vice President Harris who co-ed Tuesday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/scotus-hhs-medicare-hospital-paym	2025/04/30
House Democrats' old guard prepares to fight the youth revolt	Political Infighting	Rep. Gerry Connolly's (D-Va.) shock announcement that he plans to step down as the ranking member of the House Oversight Committee is set to open yet another rift in Democrats' intergenerational war. The party's grassroots base is virtually in open revolt against its older establishment. Now the old guard is preparing for a last stand against their younger, social media-savvy colleagues.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/democrats-connolly-also-crochett-tyr	2025/04/30
Trump's late push for huge new corporate tax cuts	Trump Bullshit	The Trump administration is pressuring Congress to dramatically expand the number of business-friendly tax cuts in a budget bill that's already complicated and costly. New additions, such as full expensing to build new factories in the U.S., are leading to confusion among senators and staffers on what President Trump absolutely must have in his tax bill, and how much it will ultimately cost.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-corporate-tax-cuts-expensin	2025/04/30
Wisconsin judge 'temporarily relieved' of duties by state's high court	Nazi Checklist	The Wisconsin judge arrested by the FBI last week for allegedly trying to help an undocumented defendant avoid arrest was exonerated suspended by the state's Supreme Court on Tuesday, per a court order. Dugan, who has served nearly a decade on the court, was temporarily prohibited from exercising the powers of a circuit court judge in the state until further order from the court, per the order. News that Attorney General Brian Boudie is resuming the practice of trying to seize reporters' phone records to smoke out leakers is the latest and most significant effort by the Trump administration to target the press as part of its early agenda. In Trump's first 100 days ... The White House banned the AP from covering its events and is embroiled in a lawsuit over the matter. The State Department ordered the cancellation of federal news subscriptions. The Defense Department replaced the press offices of several mainstream organizations with mostly conservative outlets. The Trump administration reportedly drafted a memo to Congress outlining its plans to cut federal funding for public broadcasters. Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-Ga.) called on the CEOs of NPR and PBS to testify at a DOGE subcommittee hearing about what she says is "systemically based content." The Federal Communications Commission is also investigating the two public broadcasters over whether their member stations violated FCC rules around airing commercial ads. FCC Chair Brendan Carr has launched investigations into Comcast/NBCU, Paramount/CBS and Disney/ABC. The administration has also tried to gut the government-funded U.S. Agency for Global Media and its outlets. It has ordered the firing of three board directors from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, which allocates federal funding to NPR and PBS. CPB has subsequently sued the administration for trying to fire three members of its board.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/32/wisconsin-judge-hannah-dugan-arre	2025/04/30
Trump targets the media in his first 100 days	Information blackout	The Trump Administration has dismissed the scientists working on the country's flagship climate report, a move that threatens to curtail climate science and make information about global warming less available to the public. The National Climate Assessment is the most trustworthy and comprehensive source of information about how global warming affects the United States. It answers common questions about how quickly sea levels are rising near American cities, how much rain is normal for different regions and how to deal with wildfire smoke exposure.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/29/trump-100-days-news-media	2025/04/30
White House dismisses authors of major climate report	Information blackout	The Trump Administration has dismissed the scientists working on the country's flagship climate report, a move that threatens to curtail climate science and make information about global warming less available to the public. The National Climate Assessment is the most trustworthy and comprehensive source of information about how global warming affects the United States. It answers common questions about how quickly sea levels are rising near American cities, how much rain is normal for different regions and how to deal with wildfire smoke exposure.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/29/m-a-1-5380181/climate-assessment-au	2025/04/30
Trump called Bezos after a report that Amazon would post products' import charges	Economy-Tariffs	The last tweet notes that the new low-cost Amazon Haul store considered the idea of listing import charges on certain products, Amazon spokesperson Tin Doyle said in a statement. "This was never approved and is not going to happen." "Jeff Bezos is very nice. Terrific. He solved the problem very quickly. He did the right thing. Good guy," Trump said at the White House. President Trump has signed two executive orders promising to "unleash high-impact local police forces" and to step up law enforcement pressure on "criminal aliens." While the orders are separate, they share a White House vision of reinvigorated local police who work closely with federal law enforcement. The order on policing calls on federal agencies to provide "new best practices" to state and local police, improve police training and pay, and improve the tracking and reporting of crime statistics, among other measures popular with law enforcement.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/29/m-a-1-5380035/amazon-tariffs	2025/04/30
Trump aims to 'unleash' local police, but cautions against standing in the way of ICE	ACAB	"As a total package, it's worrisome, because of the excessive reach of the Feds trying to control local policing," Moskows says. In the first 100 days of his second term, President Trump has moved aggressively to fulfill his promise of retribution against an extraordinary range of individuals and organizations, targeting political opponents, news organizations, former government officials, universities, international student protesters and law firms. An NPR review has found that the administration is using a vast array of government powers to launch criminal investigations, sweep people into ICE detention, ban companies from receiving federal contracts, revoke security clearances and fire employees.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/29/m-a-1-5375181/donald-trump-100-days	2025/04/30
Trump has used government powers to target more than 100 perceived enemies	Nazi Checklist	This agenda of retribution has defined the early days of the second Trump administration.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/29/m-a-1-5375181/donald-trump-100-days	2025/04/30

New lawsuit argues Trump and DOGE's government overhaul is unconstitutional	Fuck that department	In a lawsuit filed late Monday, the plaintiffs charge that actions taken by the president, Elon Musk and the heads of nearly two dozen federal agencies to dramatically downsize the federal workforce violate the Constitution because Congress has not authorized them. "Three months into this Administration, there can be no real doubt that impacted federal agencies are acting according to the direction being given by President Trump through DOGE, OMB, and OPM," the lawsuit states, referring to the government efficiency team that Musk oversees, as well as the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). "Over and over, newly appointed agency heads have explained that they are reorganizing, eliminating programs, and cutting thousands upon thousands of jobs, because the President directed them to and because DOGE told them how much and what to cut." In 2023, Rogers' predecessor in the top job was forced to resign – twice – after recordings emerged of him describing African American deputies on his force as "black b*stards". The department was also under a recent federal investigation over allegations of sprawling embezzlement. Despite this track record, the Columbus county sheriff's office scored a recent win under the new administration of Donald Trump.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/29/mx-st-153807333-trump-doge-lawsuit-fed	2025/04/30
Trump officials increasingly recruit local police for immigration enforcement despite 'red flags'	ACAB	On 5 March, the Trump administration accepted the sheriff's department as an official partner in the all-out push by the US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to execute the president's election promise of mass deportations. Trump's department of homeland security (DHS) signed a memorandum with Rogers known as a 287(g) agreement, which will empower the beleaguered department of Columbus county to help carry out the complex and controversial task of implementing federal immigration law and identifying residents potentially eligible for deportation.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/ng-interactive/2025/apr/30/trump	2025/04/30
Trump border pick accused of 'cover-up' over death of man beaten by US agents	ACAB	Rodney Scott, Donald Trump's nominee to lead Customs and Border Protection (CBP), has been accused by a former top official of orchestrating a "cover-up" over the death of a man detained while trying to enter the country from Mexico, according to a letter obtained by the Guardian.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/29/trump-customs-border	2025/04/30
Cash, emergency food and wind-up radios: How to survive a power outage	Infrastructure	Preparing for future calamity can still carry a stigma – "even I'm afraid of looking a bit bonkers", admits Easthope – but while "These are not end times", she says, it is still worth knowing you would be able to cope if something went suddenly wrong. She has a cupboard full of essentials – tins, a first aid kit, dried food, a can opener – and a "go bag" packed with daily essentials such as a phone charger, battery pack, underwear and washing and some medication.	https://www.theguardian.com/society/2025/apr/29/how-to-survive-a-power-outage	2025/04/30	prepping
UPS to cut 20,000 jobs, close some facilities as it reduces amount of Amazon shipments it handles	Economy-Jobs	UPS is looking to slash about 20,000 jobs and close more than 70 facilities as it drastically reduces the amount of Amazon shipments it handles. "Amazon is our largest customer but it's not our most profitable customer," Tomé said at the time. "Its margin is very dilutive to the U.S. domestic business." The government directives and ensuing court battles have left many immigrants unsure of what to do. "I do know that he says, 'America for the Americans,'" she said. "But all the jobs, all the production that happens because of immigrants? It's obvious we're needed." She said she will leave the U.S. if ordered to. Others aren't so sure. "I really can't go back," said a Haitian woman who asked to be identified only as Nicole because she fears deportation. "It's not even a decision." She works at a meatpacking plant, deboning cattle carcasses for more than $20 an hour. She received Homeland Security's message, but insists it can't refer to someone who has followed the laws as she had, pointing to a phrase exempting people who have "otherwise obtained a lawful basis to remain".	https://apnews.com/article/ups-amazon-ecce-105621fe23b2d0de78a2d4	2025/04/30
Immigrants working legally in the Texas Panhandle live in limbo under Trump's crackdown	Borders and immigration		https://apnews.com/article/trump-immigration-texas-panhandle-mexico	2025/04/30
Florida is poised to become 2nd state to ban fluoride from public water systems	Health-Fluoride	Florida is poised to become the second state to ban fluoride in public drinking water, over the concerns of dentists and public health advocates who say the mineral is a safe, effective way to protect people of all ages from developing cavities.	https://apnews.com/article/florida-fluoride-ban-public-water-systems-de	2025/04/30
Atlanta's controversial 'Cop City' training center opens after years of flitting	ACAB	"Cop City is an officially opening today, made possible only through extreme state violence," Micah Herskint wrote on X, calling the facility "a police compound that will serve as the infrastructure of fascism."	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/atlanta-cop-city	2025/04/30
The " your feelings" crowd is suddenly getting really upset over Democrats cussing	Political-Crisispool	However, now that Democrats and liberals have begun to openly curse in public with a little more frequency throughout Trump's first 100 days in office, right-wing media is suddenly up in arms over the "undignified" language, claiming it's "embarrassing" that they are "constantly swearing."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/democrats-cussing	2025/04/30
Mike Johnson Quietly Moves to Block Democrats Investigating Trump	Political-Crisispool	Speaker of the House Mike Johnson is trying to prevent Democrats from opening up inquiries into the Trump administration. Johnson used his authority on Monday to advance a measure in the House Rules Committee that would prevent any votes on "resolutions of inquiry," which would take away one of the few oversight tools that House Democrats have as the minority party in this chamber.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mike-johnson-quietly-moves-block-14094	2025/04/30
Europeans Are Talking About These Major Current Events That Are Barely Making Headlines In The US. And It's Eye-Opening To See What We're Missing	International	This isn't just rich people buying vacation homes — it's a sign of wealthy Americans seeking "escape properties" in politically stable countries. The trend reflects growing concerns about economic and political uncertainty back home, with affluent Americans literally buying insurance policies in the form of Swiss property. It's also reshaping these small European communities as more digital nomads and foreign investors arrive.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/europeans-talking-major-current-events-5	2025/04/30
After killing unarmed man, Texas deputy told colleague: 'I just smoked a dude'	ACAB	"Get that [redacted] police as he fired one shot, striking Randall in the chest. Randall continued to run down the street but collapsed face down. Iversen radioed for help and then tried to render medical aid, but Randall died on the pavement. The bullet had torn through his ribs, lungs and heart, according to autopsy records. After another deputy arrived minutes later, Iversen, then 57, returned to his patrol car and phoned a colleague.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/killing-unarmed-man-texas-deputy-99004	2025/05/01
Prosecutor says officer killed in gunman's Pennsylvania hospital siege was hit by police fire	ACAB	An officer killed while responding to a Pennsylvania hospital siege was struck by a shotgun blast fired by police that also hit an armed man holding hostages, a prosecutor disclosed at a news conference Wednesday.	https://apnews.com/article/pennsylvania-hospital-shooting-ba511550409	2025/05/01
Columbia student arrested during immigration interview wins release	Borders and Immigration	A judge ordered that Columbia University student Mohsen Mahdawi be released from custody Wednesday while his case proceeds. Context: Mahdawi, a legal U.S. resident who was arrested while attending what he believed to be a naturalization interview, is one of several students who advocated for pro-Palestinian causes who have been targeted by the Trump administration.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/columbia-mohsen-mahdawi-release	2025/05/01
Budget airline Avolo faces backlash for signing up to fly deportation flights for ICE	Borders and Immigration	Judge Geoffrey W. Crawford found Wednesday that Mahdawi, 34, did not pose a danger to the public, and was he a flight risk, the New York Times reported. Avolo Airlines got a warm welcome from travelers and politicians in Connecticut when the budget carrier brought non-stop flights to Tweed New Haven Airport. But that reception has turned chilly after Avolo announced a contract to begin operating deportation flights for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement or ICE starting next month. Hundreds of protesters gathered outside the New Haven airport earlier this month to denounce the move.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/30/ga-143572/avolo-airlines-deportation-flights	2025/05/01
'I don't have a place to self-deport to': US citizen and lawyer gets DHS letter telling him to get out of America	Borders and Immigration	Adam Peña, a California attorney and citizen of the United States, says he was "shunned" to receive a self-deportation email from the Department of Homeland Security in early April, ordering him to leave within seven days. Peña, born in El Paso, Texas, received a notice of self-deportation on April 10 in which DHS informed him his parole was ending and he had seven days to "leave the United States."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dont-i-place-self-deport-165224962.html	2025/05/01
Venezuelan detainees at Texas center spell out SOS with their bodies	Borders and Immigration	Detainees at the US Homeland Security immigrant detention center in the small city of Arizon, Texas, sent the outside world a message this week: SOS. With a Reuters drone flying nearby, 31 men formed the letters in the dirt yard of the facility on Monday.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/30/venezuelans-sos-ice	2025/05/01
Khalil Noan says Kilmer Alleges Garcia would be deported immediately if sent back to US	Borders and Immigration	Ten days earlier, dozens of Venezuelan detainees at the center were given notices by immigration officials that alleged they were members of the Venezuelan gang Tren de Aragua and subject to deportation under a wartime law, according to documents shown to Reuters, recorded video calls and court proceedings.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/30/khalil-noan-kilmer	2025/05/01
Haitian woman dies in ICE custody	Borders and Immigration	Kristin Kainin, the US Homeland Security secretary, said that if Kilmer Alleges Garcia was sent back to the US, the Donald Trump administration "would immediately deport him again."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/haitian-woman-dies-ice-custody-1801313	2025/05/01
We are witnessing slow constitutional collapse in the US	Constitutional Crisis	A Haitian woman died last week while in U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) custody, according to federal immigration officials. Science is suffering: massive cuts to federal funding of research into medicine, climate change or anything that might include a word on a long list of banned ones – like "transition" – has decimated research, made the US a global laughingstock, and set the cause of human thriving back by years. The economy is in chaos, and the bribery is all but in the open; it no longer seems to occur to many Americans that their politicians should not be on the take.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/comment/2025/apr/30/ga-we	2025/05/01
Bondi and Hegseth ordered to look at how military can be used in domestic operations	Constitutional Crisis	Donald Trump has ordered Attorney General Pam Bondi and Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth to look at how the United States military might be used to prevent crime. 9% of respondents said it would take at least $10,000 to convince them to have kids, and 30% said it would take more than $25,000 — of the nearly 700 votes cast in a BabyCenter poll. 41% — the largest portion — said that cash wouldn't drive their baby-making decisions.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bondi-hegseth-ordered-look-military-1424	2025/05/01
$8K for a baby? More like $500K, some parents say	Economy-Parenting	Out-of-pocket payments for pregnancy, childbirth and postpartum health care average almost $3,000, per a KFF analysis. And baby-related expenses in the first year cost parents an average of more than $20,000, according to new BabyCenter data.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/baby-bonus-reaction-poll	2025/05/01
Trump's manufacturing renaissance could mean more jobs for robots	Economy-Robot jobs	With his sweeping tariff and trade policies, President Trump envisions a U.S. manufacturing renaissance that will bring back good-paying, working-class jobs to America's auto industry. But advances in AI and other technologies paint a different picture of the future. Armies of robots — some in human form — doing difficult or repetitive tasks once done by people, who instead put their brains to work in different ways.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-manufacturing-robots-jobs	2025/05/01
Hospitals begin to grapple with tariff fallout	Economy-Tariffs	Hospitals across the country are starting to reckon with the effects President Trump's tariffs are having on medical supplies like syringes and PPE, and in some cases freezing spending and making other contingencies. The pandemic spawned more domestic manufacturing of medical gear — and an anticipated reduction in dependence on overseas suppliers. But many of the startups have since disappeared, the New York Times reported, leaving the health system once again vulnerable to supply shocks amid threats like measles outbreaks and avian flu.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/01/hospitals-struggle-tariff-impacts	2025/05/01
From subs to bases, 'climate change crisis' has consequences for U.S. military	Environment-Climate Crisis	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth says the Pentagon will no longer "do climate change crap" — but the changing climate has a lot in store for the U.S. military. Climate change is already shifting geopolitics. President Trump has mused about 40 "big" contractors and taking control of Greenland as melting Arctic ice aggravates competition with Russia and China. Rising sea levels and deeper flooding jeopardize existing bases and limit where new ones can be built. See: Naval Station Norfolk in Virginia and Parris Island in South Carolina. Drought and extreme heat kills. It also spurs economic and political unrest, as evidenced by the extreme spikes in the Sahel. Separately, keeping cool requires planning and resources, complicating logistics in far-flung theaters. Changing ocean properties also affect how submarines, often touted as America's ace in the hole, play hide and seek.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/hegseth-pentagon-navy-climate-change	2025/05/01
Texas and Oklahoma face flooding threats as deadly storms sweep much of U.S.	Environment-Severe weather	The south-central U.S. is facing a "heightened" risk of flash flooding into Thursday following days of deadly storms across a region that's spanned from Texas to the Northeast, the National Weather Service warns. More rounds of thunderstorms were expected Thursday across Oklahoma and north Texas, with the NWS warning of risks for large hail in addition to flooding and it said "strong winds may accompany any storms from Texas northeast through the lower Great Lakes."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/01/storm-severe-weather-us	2025/05/01
Transportation secretary warns 'people will lose their lives' unless US adopts new air traffic control system	Government-FAA	Duffy raised severe concerns about the U.S.'s "aging" air traffic control infrastructure during a televised cabinet meeting, after President Donald Trump said he would ask Congress for funding toward the new system. "If we don't build a brand new system, there's going to be failures and people will lose their lives," Duffy said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/news-and-advice/air-traffic-control	2025/05/01

		The head of the Food and Drug Administration said Tuesday that the agency is now looking at whether it will still approve COVID-19 vaccines for next winter, citing a lack of data on booster shots.
FDA chief says they're looking at whether to approve COVID shots for next winter	Health- Covid	His answer marks a change from during the Biden administration, when FDA officials backed plans to routinely update the COVID-19 vaccines each year.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/fda-covid-booster-shots-mary-mahay/	2025/05/01
Trump targets NYT with new legal threat over CBS News lawsuit coverage	Information Blackout	President Trump on Wednesday said the New York Times should be held liable for "interference" in his ongoing lawsuit against CBS News. The threat is the latest Trump has made against a news outlet whose coverage he dislikes or disagrees with, and the Times quickly pushed back on it. "It's fair to criticize the press, but the latest threat of weaponizing lawsuits to chill them is alarming from a constitutional perspective," Lytrea Lidsky, a media law professor at the University of Florida Levin College of Law, said. Of course, as she laid bare at the start of Monday's presser, these sessions are mostly a way to take softball questions and applause lines from a host of MAGA sycophants who are absolutely ecstatic to be given the opportunity to sit in the White House and play reporter.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-cbs-news-lawsuit-new-york-ty/	2025/05/01
White House is now holding press briefings specifically for MAGA influencers. It's going just how you'd expect	Information Blackout	Leavitt, meanwhile, reacted by telling Nelson — who boasts 625,000 followers on X (formerly Twitter) and was once convinced the moon had disappeared — that she wished "there were people in the legacy media that were like you" and "cared about the facts" of Trump's accomplishments.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-now-holding-press-2155490	2025/05/01
Red tape blocking broadband upgrades — Openreach	Infrastructure	Around one million people risk being digitally excluded because of red tape which is blocking broadband upgrades to flats and apartments, according to a report.	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/red-tape-openreach-london-alor	2025/05/01
Microsoft president says company respects European laws amid US criticism	International Relations	We understand that European laws apply to our business practices in Europe, just as local laws apply to local practices in the United States and similar laws apply elsewhere in the world. This includes European competition law and the Digital Markets Act, among others. Smith said in a blogpost, also delivered in a speech in Brussels. If Trump's tariff actions reached a point where it encroached on the constitutional power of Congress, Johnson said he'd call Trump first before stepping in.	https://tech.yahoo.com/business/articles/microsofts-brad-smith-says-co	2025/05/01
Too 4 moments from Speaker Johnson's Axios interview	Political Cesspool	Johnson has repeatedly said he wants to pass Trump's "one, big beautiful bill" full of tax cuts, border funds and spending reductions by Memorial Day. Johnson said he was not sure that House Republicans would come up with $500 billion in savings in the Medicaid program, but "We aspire to that."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/speaker-mike-johnsons-axios-interv	2025/05/01
GOP blocked Hegseth Signal probe because he is 'undefensible', says Rep. Adam Smith	Political Cesspool	Rep. Adam Smith, D-Wash., told Morning Edition that House Speaker Mike Johnson and House Republicans blocked any inquiry resolutions into the matter because they know Hegseth and his actions are "undefensible." Smith filed a resolution of inquiry, which allows a member of the House to force an investigation even when they're in the minority.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/30/mw-st-5381159/hegseth-signal-investig	2025/05/01
'This is Pathetic': Lindsey Graham Ripped After 'Groveling' New Trump Message	Political Cesspool	Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) is catching hell from critics after suggesting that President Donald Trump could be the next pope.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pathetic-lindsey-graham-rippe-groveling	2025/05/01
Lovefest or Cabinet meeting? For Donald Trump, it's both	Political Cesspool	Trump, never bashful about his achievements, is usually the one doing the bragging. But in a two-hour game of one-upmanship before the television cameras on Wednesday, top Cabinet officials took turns denigrating the president with praise that went beyond even the usual levels of adulation from those who work for Trump.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-cabinet-meeting-stocks-detainees-ru	2025/05/01
How Trump's policies and Project 2025 proposals match up after first 100 days	Project 2025	Summary	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/trump-project-2025-first-100-days/	2025/05/01
New research contradicts RFK Jr.'s claim that severe autism cases are rising	RFK JR BS	Autism is a spectrum disorder, meaning it can have a range of manifestations — some mild, others more pronounced — that affect how people socialize, communicate, learn or behave. The new research being shared this week found that only mild cases rose from 2000 to 2016.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/research-contradicts-rfk-jr-claim-130001	2025/05/01
Oklahoma religious charter school case could hinge on Chief Justice Roberts	Supreme Court	The Supreme Court's conservative majority Wednesday indicated it would be open to allowing the country's first religious charter school, with some hesitancy from Chief Justice John Roberts. The Okla. bid, which centers on a proposed Catholic virtual school, challenges the U.S. doctrine of separating church and state.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/oklahoma-religious-catholic-charter	2025/05/01
President Trump's first 100 days marked by DOGE, tariffs and deportation	Trump Bullshit	- DOGE, governmental overhaul and a tightening grip on power - Immigration and deportations - Tariffs - Foreign Policy - Redistribution - Targeting DEI and transgender rights - Signalgate	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/30/mw-st-5379594/trump-100-days	2025/05/01
White House press secretary says Trump is 'trolling' about a 3rd term but poses $50 Trump 2027 hats as 'tying off the shelves'	Trump Bullshit	When Leavitt was asked at the White House about the chance that Trump may push for another term in office, she smiled. "Trump trolling," she said. "Although the hats are flying off the shelves."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-press-secretary-says-18200	2025/05/01
100 days and 100 of the most hilarious, horrific, and heinous things done by the Trump administration	Trump Bullshit	Summary	https://www.yahoo.com/news/100-days-100-most-hilarious-120005610	2025/05/01
Fact check: Debunking 100 Trump false claims from his first 100 days	Trump Bullshit	Summary	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-debunking-100-trump-190506	2025/05/01
Trump 100 days: tariffs, egg prices, ice arrests and approval rating — in charts	Trump Bullshit	Summary	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/ng-interactives/2025/apr/30/trump	2025/05/01
Trump 100 days: delusions of monarchy coupled with fundamental ineptitude	Trump Bullshit	Summary	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/apr/29/trump-100-days-dy	2025/05/01
First Trump-era GDP report signals mass tariff preparation	Trump Economy	The backward-looking aspects of Wednesday's economic data releases are better than they look at first glance. The forward-looking ones are worse. In Q1, economic activity was generally solid as companies tried to front-run tariffs. But there are early warnings that April may have brought some gloom, and that inflation is elevated in ways that will limit the Federal Reserve's willingness to cut rates in response to any deterioration. And the whipcase effects driven by large-scale tariffs, paired with the usual lags and measurement problems in economic data, mean that we are entering a volatile period for the key gauges CEOs and policymakers rely on in their decision-making.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/gdp-adv-report-trump-tariffs-recessi	2025/05/01
Trump on possible toy shortages: "Maybe the children will have two dolls instead of 30"	Trump Economy	President Trump appeared to acknowledge Wednesday that toy shortages are possible as his tariff hikes ripple through the economy. "Somebody said, 'oh, the shelves are gonna be open,'" Trump told reporters Wednesday. "Well, maybe the children will have two dolls instead of 30 dolls, and maybe the two dolls will cost a couple of bucks more." The big picture: His comments came amid growing concern that that the 2025 holiday shopping season will be significantly disrupted.	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-china-tariffs-toy-shortage-cri	2025/05/01
This is Trump's stock market, like it or not	Trump Economy	Toy Association CEO Greg Ahearn told The New York Times this week that the industry is facing "a rotten supply chain that is putting Christmas at risk." "If we don't start production soon, there's a high probability of a toy shortage this holiday season," Ahearn said. President Trump rejected any blame for the stock market's slide this year in a post Wednesday morning. "This is Biden's Stock Market, not Trump's. I didn't take over until January 20th," he wrote on Truth Social. But in January 2024, when the market was doing well, but he wasn't even president yet, he had a different take "THIS IS THE TRUMP STOCK MARKET BECAUSE MY POLLS AGAINST BIDEN ARE SO GOOD THAT INVESTORS ARE PROJECTING THAT I WILL WIN, AND THAT WILL DRIVE THE MARKET UP."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-stock-market-gdp-biden	2025/05/01
100 days of Trump's impact on the U.S. dollar	Trump Economy	The dollar has fallen nearly 10% in President Trump's first 100 days, the steepest drop for a new administration this century. This is Biden's Stock Market, not Trump's, he posted on Truth Social on Wednesday morning. "I didn't take over until January 20th. Tariffs will soon start kicking in, and companies are starting to move into the USA in record numbers."	https://www.axios.com/2025/04/30/trump-tariffs-recession-dollar-100-d	2025/05/01
Trump pins stock market struggles on Biden — weeks after taking credit for it	Trump Economy	The data contradicts Trump's assessment of the stock market. The S&P 500 soared after Trump's election victory, indicating optimism from Wall Street about where he would take the economy. At the time, Trump was more than happy to take credit for the market fluctuations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-pins-stock-market-struggles-16354	2025/05/01
Ford CEO says the automaker is so dependent on imports it can't even buy certain car parts in the U.S.	Trump Economy	Ford's CEO warns the company "has" to import certain parts "to make its vehicles. That could send prices higher, even as the automaker extends employee pricing to consumers. Analysts have warned that car prices in the U.S. will go up by several thousand dollars due to tariffs.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/ford-ceo-says-automaker-dependent-1	2025/05/01
Trump administration asks Supreme Court to strip legal protections from 350,000 Venezuelan migrants	Borders and Immigration	The Trump administration on Thursday asked the Supreme Court to strip temporary legal protections from 350,000 Venezuelans, potentially exposing them to being deported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-asks-supreme-court	2025/05/02
Sophisticated new ICE tracking system raises privacy concerns for public	Borders and Immigration	Federal officials are building a sprawling new database system they're calling "ImmigrationOS" to track and target millions of people living illegally in the United States. A $30 million no-bid contract with GOP megadonor Peter Thiel's Palantir Technologies will help Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents build a sophisticated system to prioritize people for deportation, including accused gang members and people who have overstayed their tourist visas. The contract with the Denver-based company calls for rolling out a prototype this fall.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/sophisticated-ice-tracking-system-raises	2025/05/02	privacy
Moldy food, used underwear, inside the US prisons, where Trump is jailing immigrants	Borders and Immigration	Several immigration detainees said they had been mistreated, neglected and denied due process — some unable to contact anyone for days on end during their abrupt transfers to prisons, then left in the dark about their ongoing deportation cases. Some detainees described shortages of food, clothes, toilet paper and other necessities. Others alleged they were forced to live in dirty, overcrowded cells and unable to access basic medical care and regular outdoor time.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/01/trump-immigrants	2025/05/02	human rights
German spy agency labels AfD as 'confirmed rightwing extremist' force	Cesspool	Germany's domestic intelligence service has designated the far-right Alternative für Deutschland (AfD), the biggest opposition party, as a "confirmed rightwing extremist" force, meaning authorities can step up their surveillance as critics call for it to be legally banned.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/02/german-spy-agency-s	2025/05/02
DOJ Proposes Giving Legal Advice to Immigrants in Cases it Oversees	Conflict of interest	After abruptly declining to renew a contract with a nonprofit to provide court-ordered legal assistance to families separated at the border under the first Trump administration, the U.S. Department of Justice has proposed providing that service itself. Experts worry that's a conflict of interest that could put those families at risk of deportation and being separated again.	https://www.kqed.org/news/12038327/doj-proposes-giving-legal-advice	2025/05/02
Defiant JD Vance dismisses anti-Trump ruling: A judge 'doesn't decide' presidential rights in respect to immigrants under Alien Enemies Act	Constitutional Crisis	A judge doesn't have the authority to tell President Donald Trump that he cannot deport immigrants under the Alien Enemies Act, Vice President JD Vance declared during a Fox News interview Thursday. It's the president's decision, he told Bret Baier on Special Report, laying the groundwork for a constitutional confrontation over American authority.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jd-vance-dismisses-anti-trump-00475769	2025/05/02
Crypto industry to hold big fundraiser for Trump PAC	Corruption	The crypto industry is holding a $15 million all-head fundraiser for President Trump on Monday in Washington, according to a copy of the invitation obtained by Axios. Trump has been cooping up to the crypto industry — including by launching a crypto venture called World Liberty Financial, which he cofounded last year with longtime friend Steve Witkoff now the White House's envoy to the Middle East.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/01/crypto-fundaiser-trump-pac	2025/05/02
Bipartisan push to ban lawmakers from trading stocks gets boost from Trump	Corruption	President Trump's House minority leader Hakeem Jeffries, D-N.Y., don't agree on much. But their public support of legislation to ban members of Congress from trading individual stocks could revive prospects for a bipartisan effort that's stalled on Capitol Hill for years.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/02/mw-st-5381400/lawmaker-stock-ban-ty	2025/05/02
Mortgage rates get more treacherous	Economy- Housing	The difference between the best and worst rates offered on any given day worked out to $287 per month in mortgage payments on a home that sold for the median sale price. Mortgage rates are still high in absolute terms, refinancing activity is low, and the difference between a good rate and a bad rate is much bigger than normal.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/02/mortgage-housing-rates	2025/05/02
Dozens of homeless people living in national forest evicted by US Forest Service	Economy- Housing	Dozens of homeless people who have been living in a national forest in central Oregon for years were being evicted on Thursday by the US Forest Service, as it closed the area for a wildfire prevention project that will involve removing smaller trees, clearing debris and setting controlled burns over thousands of acres. The project has been on the books for years, and the decision to remove the encampment in the Deschutes national forest comes two months after the Trump administration issued an executive order directing federal agencies to increase timber production and forest management projects aimed at reducing wildfire risk. It wasn't immediately clear if the evictions were a result of that order, but hot hose aids advocates seized on the timing on Thursday, as US Forest Service officers blocked the access road.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/01/homeless-evicted-1	2025/05/02

		Aluminum is not a luxury good. It's a foundational metal—indispensable to energy transmission, cars, construction, packaging, and even military products. And yet, despite rising demand, U.S. production capacity has all but collapsed. At the turn of the millennium, the United States was the global leader in aluminum production. Twenty-three smelters operated nationwide. Today, only four remain active—and they are not running at full capacity. The closure of key plants in recent years has hollowed out a once-robust industry. However, some Amazon sellers have reportedly already raised prices due to the tariffs, and others have said they plan to opt out of Prime Day this year due to the rising costs to their business. China-based brands like Temu and Shein also responded to the tariffs this week by raising prices, and the effects of the tariffs are expected to be felt more broadly in the coming weeks. So what can we expect? Here are 7 more companies that have said that the tariffs will likely force them to raise prices: 1 Best Buy 2 Autozone 3 Procter & Gamble 4 Adidas 5 Nintendo 6 Rolex 7 Target
Worried about high prices from tariffs? Wait till the aluminum crunch America isn't ready for	Economy-Tariffs		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/worried-high-prices-tariffs-wait-165431	2025/05/02
"We Will Pass Those Costs To The Consumer"—These 7 Companies Say They're Set To Raise Prices Because Of The Trump Tariffs	Economy-Tariffs		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/7-companies-said-prices-likely-205342	2025/05/02
More than 60 percent of toy makers forced to cancel orders as Trump's tariffs threaten Christmas	Economy-Tariffs	Hundreds of toymakers have canceled orders since President Donald Trump imposed hefty tariffs on China, raising the prospect of a nightmare before Christmas. In a Toy Association survey of 410 small and medium-sized toy manufacturers taken this month, 64 percent of small toy companies and 80 percent of mid-sized toy companies said they have canceled orders. Meanwhile, roughly half said they would go out of business within weeks or months if U.S. tariffs on China remained in place.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-60-percent-toy-makers-forced-1398	2025/05/02
Sand grommer's turtles, how wildlife is falling foul of the demand for Insta-perfect beaches	Environment-Beaches	As sand grommers have been transforming beaches from vital habitats into backdrops for photoshoots, their work has had an enormous impact on the turtle population. "Occupation of the beach by private owners reduces a vital living space for the turtle," says Salvatore Uno, a naturalist and co-founder of Caretta Calabria Conservazione, who has been monitoring and protecting loggerhead turtle nests since 2005. "There is still not much sensitivity to coexisting with this species." Tractors not only crush or displace eggs — their mere presence can scare away female turtles, preventing them from nesting.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/may/02/sand-grommer	2025/05/02
Summer 2025 has it all - droughts, heat and storms, oh my!	Environment-Summer	Many cities have already felt summer-like warmth this spring. Phoenix already saw a triple-digit day earlier this month. In the coming months, AccuWeather says more intense heat is expected in the northern Rockies, Northwest and Plains regions. In the Northwest, Boise, Idaho, Spokane, Washington, and Billings, Montana, are likely to see the most scorching heat. The heat will contribute to a wildfire season that could escalate, burning more than 7 million acres. A later start is expected for wildfire activity in the Northwest, but there is vegetation that has acted as kindling, forecasters noted. The fire risk is earlier in the Southwest, and "very high" to "extreme" in the region, Texas, the Rockies and the Interior Northwest. U.S. K-12 public school systems got nearly $360 in federal revenue per person in fiscal 2023, per new census data.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/summer-weather-nc	2025/05/02
Where K-12 schools get the most federal revenue	Federal Funding	School systems in Alaska ($846), North Dakota ($519) and Mississippi ($502) received the most revenue from federal sources per person in fiscal 2023. Utah ($220), Maine ($230) and New Hampshire ($234) received the least.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/02/federal-revenue-schools-map	2025/05/02
		A young Department of Government Efficiency staffer, who has yet to obtain his undergraduate degree, has been tasked with using artificial intelligence to rewrite an entire agency's rules and regulations, according to a report. DOGE, run by the world's richest person Elon Musk, has caused a whirlwind of chaos in President Donald Trump's first 100 days in office by making swift and sweeping changes to the federal government, dismantling agencies, executing mass firings, and slashing government contracts. Now, DOGE is installing a college junior at the Department of Housing and Urban Development to rewrite its regulations — using AI, Wired reported.
A DOGE staffer who hasn't even graduated college yet is using AI to rewrite an entire agency's rules and regulations	Fuck that department	A DOGE staffer introduced Christopher Sweet, a student with no prior government experience, in an email sent to the department employees this month noting that Sweet was recently a third-year at the University of Chicago, where he was studying economics and data science. The school official said Sweet is "on leave from the undergraduate college." The outlet noted: "Elon Musk in government is completely unprecedented, but there has never been a single person, certainly not a single non-presidential person, who has been as utterly and pointlessly destructive as Elon Musk," Robert Weissman, co-executive director of Public Citizen, a progressive consumer rights advocacy group, told The Independent. "He has commercial motivations," he said, "but primarily he's been engaged in an authoritarian wrecking project with no actual purpose, but really deadly impact."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/doge-ai	2025/05/02
Elon Musk is leaving Trump. Or is he? What's next for Doeg's authoritarian wrecking ball?	Fuck that guy	The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is holding on to its status as the little agency that could, this week surviving yet another court challenge over layoffs that would effectively gut the agency. CFPB is a relatively small operation tasked with fighting big businesses on behalf of consumers. This case, filed by the National Treasury Employees Union and advocacy groups, is essentially the CFPB's kind of fight, but this time it's their own hides on the line.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-leaving-trump-next-085125200	2025/05/02
CFPB's fight to survive is its kind of fight	Government-CFPB	The Trump administration says it will stop paying out $1 billion in federal grants that school districts across the country have been using to hire mental health professionals, including counselors and social workers. The grants were part of the 2022 Bipartisan Safer Communities Act — a bill passed in the aftermath of the school shooting in Uvalde, Texas, in which a teen gunman killed 19 elementary school students and two adults and injured 17 people. The bill, among other things, poured federal dollars into schools to address rising concerns about a student mental health crisis. More than 250 attorneys in the justice department's civil rights division have either left, been reassigned, or accepted a deferred resignation offer since January, according to an estimate provided to the Guardian by people familiar with the matter. The significant decrease in personnel underscores how Donald Trump is gutting the arm of the federal government responsible for enforcing federal civil rights laws. The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, as of Thursday, has ended a new mortgage-rescue program that so far has helped about 20,000 veterans avoid foreclosure and keep their homes. The move leaves millions of military veterans with far worse options than most other Americans homeowners if they run into trouble paying their home loans. And it comes at a time when nearly 90,000 VA loans are seriously past due, with 33,000 of those stuck in the foreclosure process, according to the data and analytics firm ICE.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/02/cfpb-trump-federal-workers-court	2025/05/02
Education Department stops $1 billion in funding for school mental health	Government-DOE	Although "hastated" by the unhealthy and inconvenient conditions, Burke said she doesn't let it get her down. Human wastewater contaminating homes and yards in these rural parts of central Alabama "has become a way of life," she said. The problem has existed so long and was so pervasive that a 2017 study determined 1 in every 3 adults in the county had the intestinal parasite hookworm. The Biden administration investigated and allocated nearly $26 million to rebuild Lowndes County's water infrastructure, with the Department of Justice declaring the majority-Black area was suffering from "environmental racism."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/01/tx-1-5382582-trump-school-mental-hl	2025/05/02
Justice department civil rights division loses 73% of lawyers under Trump	Government-DOJ	The Biden administration investigated and allocated nearly $26 million to rebuild Lowndes County's water infrastructure, with the Department of Justice declaring the majority-Black area was suffering from "environmental racism."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/01/civil-rights-division	2025/05/02
Trump's VA strands thousands of veterans by ending a key mortgage program	Government-VA	Although "hastated" by the unhealthy and inconvenient conditions, Burke said she doesn't let it get her down. Human wastewater contaminating homes and yards in these rural parts of central Alabama "has become a way of life," she said. The problem has existed so long and was so pervasive that a 2017 study determined 1 in every 3 adults in the county had the intestinal parasite hookworm. The Biden administration investigated and allocated nearly $26 million to rebuild Lowndes County's water infrastructure, with the Department of Justice declaring the majority-Black area was suffering from "environmental racism."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/01/tx-1-5382448/va-veterans-affairs-mort	2025/05/02
Trump shut down program to end human waste backing into Alabama homes, calling it 'illegal DEI'	Health-Environment	But earlier this month, President Donald Trump issued an executive order to kill the deal, calling it "illegal DEI." We are only about one-third of the way through the year 2025, and yet the United States has suffered nearly triple the number of cases of measles in 2025 as it did in all of 2024. Measles is caused, of course, by a pathogen, but it is enabled by human ignorance and human neglect. Rising numbers of children are going unvaccinated. About a third of American children fail to get the full suite of vaccines that the CDC—Centers for Disease Control—recommends. And about 7 percent of American children go unvaccinated against measles, mumps, and rubella.	https://www.rbcnews.com/news/health/trump-canceled-dei-program-16	2025/05/02
America's Pro-Disease Movement	Health-Pro disease	Florida health officials announced this week that an individual at Fort Lauderdale's Dillard High School had contracted tuberculosis. "They did contact tracing and they have identified a certain number of kids that they are thinking have been exposed and they're going to test those kids based on parental consent to see if they're actually confirmed cases, etc.," Broward County Public Schools Superintendent Howard Hopton told reporters. President Trump signed an executive order Thursday directing the Corporation for Public Broadcasting's board of directors to "cease federal funding for NPR and PBS," the nation's primary public broadcasters. Trump contends that news coverage by NPR and PBS contains a left-wing bias. The federal fund for NPR and PBS is approved by Congress. Press freedom in the United States has hit a record low, according to the latest World Press Freedom Index published annually by Reporters Without Borders.	https://www.thedailystar.com/podcasts/archive/2025/04/the-david-trump-9	2025/05/02
Tuberculosis case is confirmed at Florida high school. Here's what to know	Health-TB	President Trump signed an executive order Thursday directing the Corporation for Public Broadcasting's board of directors to "cease federal funding for NPR and PBS," the nation's primary public broadcasters. Trump contends that news coverage by NPR and PBS contains a left-wing bias. The federal fund for NPR and PBS is approved by Congress. Press freedom in the United States has hit a record low, according to the latest World Press Freedom Index published annually by Reporters Without Borders.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tuberculosis-case-confirmed-florida-high-16	2025/05/02
Trump orders end to federal funding for NPR and PBS	Information blackout	Press freedom in the U.S. now falls in line with developing countries, such as Gambia, Uruguay and Sierra Leone.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/02/tx-1-5384790-trump-orders-end-to-fv	2025/05/02
U.S. press freedom falls to historical low	Information blackout	The White House has launched a Drudge Report-like political website collecting pro-Trump news stories, the administration's latest attempt to sidestep critical mainstream media coverage.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/02/us-press-freedom	2025/05/02
Trump gets his own Drudge Report-type website so White House can push pro-president news	Information blackout	"It's a place for supporters of the president's agenda to get the real news at in one place in a shareable and readable format," an administration official told Axios.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-y	2025/05/02
China Hints at Possible Thaw With US in Evaluating Trade Talks	International Relations	China said it is assessing the possibility of trade talks with the US, the first sign since Donald Trump hiked tariffs last month that negotiations could begin between the two sides.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/china-says-evaluating-us-talks-011542	2025/05/02
Gaza humanitarian aid ship bombed by drones in waters off Malta	International-Palestine	A ship carrying humanitarian aid and activists to Gaza has been bombed by drones and disabled while in international waters off Malta as it headed towards the Palestinian territory, its organisers have said. Announcing on social media that Waltz would be departing his corner West Wing office to be nominated as ambassador to the United Nations, Trump declared Rubio would be moving in, taking up the critical post on an interim basis in addition to his current job and several other acting roles. It remains an open question whether Rubio's new role will be temporary or if he will serve both positions for an extended period as Kissinger did in the Nixon and Ford administrations, when he spent six years as national security adviser and four as secretary.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/02/gaza-humanitarian-ai	2025/05/02
With another role in his portfolio, Rubio ascends in Trump's orbit	Political Cesspool	The president moved swiftly on Thursday with new assignments for Waltz and Rubio to avoid the narrative of staff disjunction and chaos that often dominated his first term in office. But the decision leaves Rubio wearing multiple hats, including acting USAID administrator and acting archivist of the United States. Ed Martin, President Trump's nominee for U.S. attorney for the District of Columbia, is trying to distance himself from a convicted Jan. 6 Capitol rioter known for his racist and antisemitic rhetoric. Federal prosecutors have described the man, Timothy Hale-Cusumelli, as a "Nazi sympathizer." ... "I am not close with him," Martin told the Senate. "The statements that individual made are abhorrent, deplorable and unacceptable in any context."	https://www.cnn.com/2025/05/02/politics/marco-rubio-trump-world-nike	2025/05/02
Trump nominee gives misleading testimony about ties to alleged 'Nazi sympathizer'	Political Cesspool	However, in an email in September 2024, NPR wrote to Martin and made him aware of a laundry list of Hale-Cusumelli's prior antisemitic and racist statements. In subsequent weeks and months, Martin continued to praise Hale-Cusumelli as an "amazing guy" and "great friend," and they appeared at multiple events together. President Trump said on Thursday he is nominating his national security adviser Mike Waltz as his ambassador to the United Nations in the first big shake up of top aides since Trump started his second term. Trump said on social media that he would make Marco Rubio his interim national security adviser — a role that will come on top of his existing job, Secretary of State. It's very unusual for one person to hold both major roles. Waltz' new job will depend on confirmation by the U.S. Senate, where Republicans narrowly control the majority — but where some have expressed concerns after inadvertently invited a journalist into a private text chat discussing military plans for U.S. strikes on the Houthis in Yemen. Even more incredibly, Bond told Trump that 75 percent of the nation's population would be dead if not for his leadership. The attorney general touted that the administration has seized 3,400 kilos of fentanyl since Trump took office, before turning from Trump to face the camera. "Which saved — are you ready for this, media?" — 258 million lives. Kids are dying every day because they're taking this junk, laced with something else. They don't know what they're taking. They think they're buying a Tylenol or an Adderall or a Xanax, and it's laced with fentanyl, dropping dead. No longer, because of you, what you've done."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/01/tx-1-538093382-martin-trump-hale-c	2025/05/02
Trump is sending his national security adviser Mike Waltz to the US in a shakedown	Political Cesspool	Even more incredibly, Bond told Trump that 75 percent of the nation's population would be dead if not for his leadership. The attorney general touted that the administration has seized 3,400 kilos of fentanyl since Trump took office, before turning from Trump to face the camera. "Which saved — are you ready for this, media?" — 258 million lives. Kids are dying every day because they're taking this junk, laced with something else. They don't know what they're taking. They think they're buying a Tylenol or an Adderall or a Xanax, and it's laced with fentanyl, dropping dead. No longer, because of you, what you've done."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/01/tx-1-5330845-trump-waltz-rubio	2025/05/02
Pam Bondi Flatters Trump With Claim That 75% of America Would Be Dead If Not for Him	Political Cesspool	It's a very impressive number, especially when considering the population of the United States is around 340 million.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pam-bondi-flatters-trump-claim-19534341	2025/05/02

Stephen Miller claims Trump has literally never visited America. As White House continues to deflect from bad economic news	Political Censorship	When he was pressed on whether there will be any news on additional tariff relief or any of the trade deals Trump and his advisers have been promising for weeks now. Miller declined to "get ahead of any announcements" but claimed that countries the world over "are desperate and dying to make trade deals with the United States." He added that Trump was remaining "personally involved in making sure that these negotiations serve only one interest, which is the interest of the United States of America."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/stephen-miller-claims-trump-literally-163d	2025/05/02
Social Media Calls Out North Korea Vibes At Trump Cabinet Meeting	Political Censorship	But the sympathy and North Korea energy was too much for many on social media, with even conservative pundit Ann Coulter slamming the "Kim Jong Il-style tributes" she witnessed	https://www.yahoo.com/news/social-media-calls-north-korea-222d1b9d	2025/05/02
Trump 100 days: White House action plan makes Project 2025 look mild	Project 2025	Many of Trump's moves in his first 100 days come directly from Project 2025, which involved more than 100 conservative organizations and represented a sort of consensus among the Trumpist right about what he should do in a second term. In some instances, he has gone beyond the project's suggestions. And in other cases, because the project was written in 2023, subsequent policy ideas haven't been as relevant. The Heritage Foundation has the details on the actions and goals.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/02/expect-2025-trump	2025/05/02
May day protesters rally nationwide against the 'war on working people'	Protest	Protesters took to the streets nationwide on Thursday in May Day rallies opposing the Trump administration, hoping to seize the momentum of recent widespread grassroots protests against policies implemented by the administration.
US health agency's 'review' advocates for therapy for youth gender dysphoria	Rainbow threats	As President Trump marked the 100th day of his second term, anti-Trump protesters continued to express a range of concerns with the administration's recent actions, including the elimination of thousands of federal jobs, immigration raids and billionaire Elon Musk's involvement in downsizing the U.S. government.	https://www.npr.org/2025/04/30/mu-s1-5382560/may-day-protests-history	2025/05/02
Kennedy Issues Demands for Vaccine Approvals That Could Affect All Covid Boosters	RFK JR BS	The federal health department released what it described as a "comprehensive review" of pediatric gender dysphoria – advocating for therapy instead of medical care for youth whose gender identity does not match their assigned sex.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/01/gender-dysphoria	2025/05/02
RFK Jr calls for CDC plan for alternative measles treatments	RFK JR BS	Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. on Thursday announced plans to require all new vaccines to be tested against placebos and to develop new vaccines without using mRNA technology, moves that extend his reach deep into vaccine development and raise questions about whether Covid boosters will be available in the fall.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/01/us/politics/r-f-kennedy-jr-vaccine-safety-placebos	2025/05/02
US Health secretary Kennedy revives misleading claims of fetal debris in measles shots	RFK JR BS	A spokesman for the Department of Health and Human Services called the requirement for placebo testing "a radical departure" from existing standards. But that will depend on how the department defines "new," because most new vaccines are already tested either against placebos – inert substances — or, in some cases, against vaccines for other diseases.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-health-secretary-kennedy-revives-21d	2025/05/02
Mark Zuckerberg says don't worry about loneliness epidemic because he can just recreate all your friends in AI	Technology: ai	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. is directing the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to come up with treatments for measles using "existing drugs in combination with vitamins and other modalities."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/zuckerberg-ai-friends	2025/05/02
Inside Trump's 100 days of presidential profits	Trump Bullshit	Experts have said there is no evidence that any treatments can speed up recovery from measles and pediatricians have called his claims about budesonide and claritromycin "unproven and risky." U.S. health secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. reprised various misleading claims about vaccines this week, adding that the measles vaccine contains cells from aborted fetuses and the mumps vaccination does not work.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-health-secretary-kennedy-revives-21d	2025/05/02
Spooked by Trade Wars, Trump Officials Heard Supplies: 'It Would Be Stupid Not To'	Trump Bullshit	The world will adjust to the demand for AI friends, he said, and we will "find the vocabulary as a society to be able to articulate why that is valuable and why the people who are doing these things, why they are rational for doing it and how it is adding value for their lives."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/spooked-trade-wars-trump-officials-140d	2025/05/02
Plans revealed for massive military parade on Trump's 78th birthday	Trump Bullshit	President Trump warned American families this week that they may have to make do with fewer — and more expensive — holiday toys. But for Trump's own inner circle, a veritable Golden Age is well underway. Trump's family has enjoyed a historically lucrative first 100 days, leveraging its proximity to power — and raking in billions — through a flood of ethically murky business ventures.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02	corruption
Trump uses National Day of Prayer to insult Biden, spread election lies and claim he was sent by god	Trump Bullshit	Two Trump administration officials and a Trump aide tell Rolling Stone that they have done some stockpiling of their own in recent weeks or months, and that they know others working in Republican politics — inside and outside of the administration — who are doing the same. One of the Trump officials says they have already run to Target to buy-buy toilet paper, some types of food, and other household supplies.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
What we know about the killings of a Cincinnati deputy and an 18-year-old who was shot by police	ACAB	The White House has previously denied that any such event was in development but the documents — dating from April 28 and 29, seen by the Associated Press (AP) but not yet made public — outline a spectacular occasion to mark the commander-in-chief's birthday, which happens to fall on the same date as the 250th anniversary of the U.S. Army.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Army Black Hawk helicopter forces two jetliners to abort landings at DCA	Aviation	President Donald Trump used the National Day of Prayer to attack Joe Biden, perpetuate election lies and brag about his administration's first 100 days in office.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
What we know about the massive staffing shortage that has caused 7 days of major delays at Newark Airport	Aviation	While hosting the National Day of Prayer, the president, for the most part, breezed past faith and instead bashed Democrats, praised his administration's efforts, and repeated his 2020 "rigged election" claims.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Trump administration sues Colorado and Denver for allegedly interfering in immigration enforcement	Borders and immigration	On Thursday, city police fatally shot an armed 18-year-old as he ran from them, and the next day a long-serving sheriff's deputy was hit and killed by a car that authorities say was driven by the young man's grieving father.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Does a president need to uphold the Constitution? Trump says 'I don't know'	Constitutional Crisis	In an email reported by Politico, Chris Smith, Federal Aviation Administration assistant administrator for government and industry affairs, said the Army helicopter "took a scenic route around the Pentagon versus proceeding directly from the west to the helipad."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Don't Look at Stock Markets, Look at the Ports	Economy-Ports	Sem said the helicopter violated safety standards and required air traffic controllers to order two commercial jetliners to perform "go-around maneuvers," aborting their landings and returning on another flight.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Trump says tariffs could be permanent, but strikes softer note on China	Economy-Tariffs	For years, the shortage of certified air traffic controllers in the US has led to flight disruptions and headaches for travelers across the country, most recently at busy Newark Liberty International Airport in New Jersey, where staffing issues have led to major delays for an unparalleled seventh day in a row.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Trump announces 100% tariffs on movies 'produced in foreign lands'	Economy-Tariffs	The Federal Aviation Administration on Sunday implemented a Ground Delay Program until midnight ET. Flights are being delayed an average of two hours and 13 minutes, according to an advisory from the FAA.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Captive-bred axolotls thrive in Mexican wetlands, researchers find	Environment-Animals	Multiple accelerating factors seem to have caused the massive delays, including the nationwide air traffic controller shortage, a walk-off by Newark Air traffic controllers this week, according to United Airlines CEO Scott Kirby, the closure of a runway for "rehabilitation work," and unspecified technology failures.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
42 apex predators that feast on venomous snakes released in Florida. What to know	Environment-Animals	The Trump administration is tapping multiple agencies for a whole-of-government campaign to achieve its goal of deporting millions.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Elon Musk wanted to turn his SpaceX launch site into a city. Voters in Texas just said yes	Fuck that guy	The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) reached an agreement with DHS to share the tax information of undocumented immigrants with authorities.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Real ID deadline is Wednesday, what to know before flying	Government	The DOJ is engaged in a number of headline-grabbing lawsuits over deportations.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
Cuts have eliminated more than a dozen US government health-tracking programs	Government Funds	Social Security is also now an immigration enforcement tool.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
After paying people to leave, one federal agency is scrambling to fill positions	Government Jobs	HUD Secretary Scott Turner said last month that federal housing assistance will no longer be granted to undocumented immigrants or to "sanctuary cities".	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy said Wednesday that cities and states that give undocumented immigrants driver's licenses and those that are "sanctuary cities" will not receive federal funding.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The U.S. Postal Inspection Service, the USPS' law enforcement arm, has quietly started to cooperate with federal immigration officials in order to find undocumented immigrants, the Washington Post reported this week.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The Department of Justice sued Colorado and Denver on Friday for allegedly interfering with federal efforts to enforce immigration laws, the latest attempt by the Trump administration to crack down on what some call sanctuary cities and policies.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Governor Ron DeSantis wants approval from the Department of Homeland Security to allow Florida National Guard members to serve as immigration judges. He's looking at plying judge advocates from the Florida National Guard to help expedite deportation.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		President Trump — when asked if he thinks he needs to uphold the Constitution on "Meet the Press with Kristen Welton" — said, "I don't know," but added that his lawyers "are obviously going to follow what the Supreme Court said."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Trump views tariffs as essential to rebuilding the manufacturing economy that the United States once had. But his erratic tariff announcements have badly disrupted the economy that the country has today, and that pain is already being felt in the world of logistics.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		"These are big, massive disruptions that have not been seen since COVID," Evan Smith, the CEO of the supply-chain-management company Atlanta Technologies, told me. "The tariffs themselves are a shock to the system, and the shock is echoed and amplified across the entire chain. Even if there is resolution, it will take nine to 12 months to work out these bumps."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		President Trump said Sunday he would need to keep at least some tariffs on foreign goods in place to convince businesses to move production to the U.S.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		It suggests that the historic levies on nearly all goods coming into America would remain in some form — even as the White House says it intends to strike trade deals with a slew of nations, including China.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Donald Trump on Sunday announced on his Truth Social platform a 100% tariff on all movies "produced in Foreign Lands", saying the US film industry was dying a "very fast death" due to the incentives film other countries were offering to draw American film makers.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Fans of the iconic axolotl could see the critically endangered species stage a comeback in its native Mexico City, as researchers announced their findings that captive-bred axolotls can survive in the wild.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		"What we learned is if we can reintroduce these axolotls that have been in captivity to the restored wetland where the water conditions are ideal for the axolotls, they can survive," said Alejandra Ramos, lead researcher on the study published in the scientific journal PLOS One.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The conservation program has now released 209 Eastern indigo snakes in Florida as part of efforts to revitalize the population of the rare species, The Nature Conservancy announced.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		During the ninth annual release, the team let 42 snakes loose into the Apalachicola Bluffs and Ravines Preserve, where the species hadn't been seen since 1992 until reintroduction efforts began in 2017, organizers said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Only 283 people, those who live within the boundaries of the proposed city, were eligible to vote in the election. A Texas Newsroom analysis of the voter rolls showed two-thirds of them either work for SpaceX or had already indicated their support.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The three unopposed people who ran to lead the city also have ties to SpaceX.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Brace yourself if you're flying in the coming days and weeks for long lines and delays at the airport. Wednesday, May 7 is the first day a Real ID compliant license — or another acceptable document — is needed to board a commercial aircraft in the U.S.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The new identification requirement also applies when visiting military bases and secure federal buildings like courthouses.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		More than a dozen data-gathering programs that track deaths and disease appear to have been eliminated in the tornado of layoffs and proposed budget cuts rolled out in the Trump administration's first 100 days.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		Among those terminated at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention were experts tracking abortions, pregnancies, job-related injuries, lead poisonings, sexual violence and youth smoking, the AP found.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		"If you don't have staff, the program is gone," said Patrick Breyse, who used to oversee the CDC's environmental health programs. [1]	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		But at least one agency, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS), is already scrambling to fill some of those newly vacant roles, according to internal communications seen by NPR.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		On Thursday, a day after the departure of hundreds of employees who accepted the deferred resignation offer, remaining APHIS employees received an email from human resources announcing "lateral transfer opportunities." Qualified employees are invited to apply by Tuesday for 73 open positions "that are especially critical to fill as soon as possible," the email said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The agency is looking for scientists, budget analysts, technicians, inspectors, and a veterinarian to carry out its mission to protect the health, welfare, and value of America's plants, animals, and natural resources.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02
		The immediate posting of these jobs has infuriated employees who took the deferred resignation offer out of fear that their positions would be eliminated.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-r	2025/05/02

		We were concerned because there were questions that suggested that we may be biased in the research we report, Rubin says. "We aren't. We have a very rigorous review process. We use outside experts. We have internal editors who are experts in their fields as well. And we spend a lot of time choosing the right articles to publish and trying to get the message right. We think we're an article for misinformation." Rubin says the letter mentioned that the journal has tax-exempt status.
Medical journals hit with threatening letters from Justice Department	Government-DOJ	"It does feel like there's a threatening tone to the letter and it is trying to intimidate us," Rubin says. Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy blasted the Defense Department following an incident this week where an Army helicopter in D.C. airspace forced two commercial passenger jets landing at Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport to shift course. "Unacceptable. Our helicopter restrictions around DCA are crystal clear. In addition to investigations from @NTSB and @FAANews, I'll be talking to the @DeptofDefense to ask why the hell our rules were disregarded," Duffy wrote in a post on X on Friday. "No more helicopter rides for VIPs or unnecessary training in a congested DCA airspace full of civilians. Take a taxi or Uber - besides most VIPs have black car service." [2]	https://www.rpr.org/sections/shots/health-news/2025/05/02/mx-1-5374	2025/05/05	health, threats, information blackout, brain drain
'Take a taxi or Uber': Duffy blasts Defense Department after incident in DC airspace	Government-DOT	The Trump administration's sweeping cuts to disaster management will cost American lives, with hollowed-out agencies unable to accurately predict, prepare for or respond to extreme weather events, earthquakes and pandemics, a leading expert has warned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/taxi-uber-duffy-blasts-defense-170849461	2025/05/05
Trump cuts will increase devastation after disasters, expert warns: 'It is really scary'	Government-FEMA	Samantha Montano, professor of emergency management at Massachusetts Maritime Academy and author of Disasterology: Dispatches from the Frontlines of the Climate Crisis, said the death toll from disasters including hurricanes, tornadoes and water pollution will rise in the US unless Trump backtracks on mass layoffs and funding cuts to key agencies. That includes the Federal Emergency Management Agency (Fema), whose work relies heavily on the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (Noaa), which is also being dismantled.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/trump-cuts-disaster	2025/05/05	NOAA
Trump amps up Trump impeachment talk in midterm battle as party leaders woo Kemp for Senate	Government-GOP	"It is a key priority of his, obviously, to keep the House majority, because he knows what would happen if we don't," Speaker Mike Johnson told CNN after meeting with Trump last week to discuss the midterms. "Democrats have already said they're gonna try another baseless impeachment. They'll do their best to grind the agenda to a halt." Midterm elections historically are painful for parties in power. And Democrats believe Trump's sagging poll numbers and voter fears of an economic recession amid his trade war will be enough to win the narrowly divided House and give them a shot at the Senate majority, though the map is much tougher to flip that chamber.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-amps-trump-impeachment-talk-1100	2025/05/05
Trump budget would slash rental aid by 40% — and let states fill the gap if they want	Government-hud	The proposal comes as nearly half of all renters are considered cost-burdened and as homelessness is at a record high. Advocates say that if millions of poor people barely making ends meet were to suddenly see their rental aid shrink — or even end altogether — it would tip many over the edge.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/02/mx-1-5374/077/trump-budget-housing-1	2025/05/05
Trump 'shows an openness' to Medicaid work requirements, committee chair says	Government-Medicaid	U.S. President Donald Trump "shows an openness" to work requirements for Medicaid, Jason Smith, chair of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, said on Fox News Sunday, as lawmakers try to agree on spending cuts to partly offset the cost of a sweeping tax-cut bill.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-shows-openness-medicare-require-1	2025/05/05
US worker safety agency notifies employees of firings	Government-OSHA	The Trump administration sent termination notices late on Friday to employees of a worker health and safety agency that provides research and services for coal miners, firefighters and others, despite appeals by a lawmaker from Trump's Republican Party to preserve its programs.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-worker-safety-agency-notifies-00104	2025/05/05
More than 18,000 USDA employees take Trump's offer to resign	Government-USDA	United Mine Workers of America International President Cecil E. Roberts on Saturday condemned the NIOSH firings in a statement, calling them an "attack on the very foundation of worker safety." [3]	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/05/03/more-than-18000-employee-1	2025/05/05
World may be 'post-herd immunity' to measles, top US scientist says	Health-Measles	The US eliminated measles in 2000. Elimination status would be lost if the US had 12 months of sustained transmission of the virus. As of 1 May, the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) reported 550 confirmed measles cases across 30 jurisdictions. Nearly one in three children under five years old involved in the outbreak, or 285 young children, have been hospitalized.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/world-may-post-herd-immunity-11003613	2025/05/05
Which Arm Gets Vaccinated Could Matter More Than You Think	Health-Vaccines	"We're living in a post-herd-immunity world. I think the measles outbreak proves that," said Dr Paul Offit, an expert on infectious disease and immunology and director of the Vaccine Education Center at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. "Measles — because it is the most contagious of the vaccine-preventable diseases, the most contagious human disease really — it is the first to come back."	https://scitechdaily.com/which-arm-gets-vaccinated-could-matter-more-1	2025/05/05
Trump's White House is the hottest right-wing media outlet	Information-Blackout	The White House is deploying its platforms and personnel in ways that often feel more like how a modern media company would operate than a national government.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/04/trump-white-house-social-media-1	2025/05/05
NPR stations targeted for cuts by Trump have provided solutions to listeners during disasters	Information-Blackout	Through flashy stunts, meme-heavy social media postings and camera-friendly Cabinet secretaries, Trump 2.0 has been built to win attention and fire up the MAGA base.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-2	2025/05/05
Oklahoma wants to teach kids Trump's false version of the 2020 election where he was cheated out of victory	Information-Blackout	Public radio stations have been a lifeline for residents during natural disasters that take out power, the internet and cell towers. And in many remote and rural areas across the U.S., they can be a lone source of local news.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/analysis-trump-trying-chill-investigative-1	2025/05/05
Analysis: Trump is trying to chill the investigative journalists that hold him to account	Information-Blackout	Trump's order instructs the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and other federal agencies "to cease Federal funding for NPR and PBS" and further requires that they work to root out indirect sources of public financing for the news organizations. The broadcasters get roughly half a billion dollars in public money through the private CPB, which has said that it is not a federal executive agency subject to Trump's orders.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/analysis-trump-trying-chill-investigative-1	2025/05/05
Trump will only accept 'total disarmament' of Iran's nuclear program	International-Relations	The Oklahoma Superintendent of Public Instruction, Ryan Walters, announced a new education policy for the state on Thursday, which includes the allegation that there were "discrepancies" in the 2020 election, which President Donald Trump baselessly claims was stolen from him.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/australia-votes-national-election-seen-20	2025/05/05
Australia votes in national election seen as latest test of global anti-Trump sentiment	International-Australia	The new academic standards for social studies for the coming school year state that students should "identify discrepancies in 2020 elections results by looking at graphs and other information, including the sudden halting of ballot-counting in select cities in key battleground states, the security risks of mail-in balloting, sudden batch dumps, an unforeseen record number of voters, and the unprecedented contradiction of 'betterweather' or 'trends'."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/portugal-announces-expulsion-18-000-18	2025/05/05
Portugal announces the expulsion of 18,000 foreigners ahead of a national election	International-Portugal	So much of what the public knows about President Trump's chaotic governance stems from robust reporting, including leaks from anonymous sources in the government. But Trump and his aides are now actively trying to impede this reporting and intimidate news outlets, creating a bleak backdrop to the UN's recognition of Saturday as World Press Freedom Day.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/portugal-announces-expulsion-18-000-18	2025/05/05
Trump defends the high price tag for his military parade: 'Peanuts compared to the value'	Nazi-Checklist	Polis have closed in Australia in a national election dominated by cost-of-living concerns that's being closely watched abroad for signs of a Donald Trump-inspired swing against conservative candidates.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-defends-high-price-tag-130040944	2025/05/05
'A slippery slope to eugenics': advocates reject RFX Jr's national autism database	Nazi-Checklist	Minister of the Presidency António Leisão Amaro said the center-right government will issue approximately 18,000 notifications to people in the country illegally to leave. The minister said officials will begin next week by asking some 4,500 foreigners to leave voluntarily within 20 days.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/autism-national-database	2025/05/05
Historians alarmed as Trump seeks to rewrite US story for 260th anniversary	Nazi-Checklist	"My birthday happens to be on Flag Day," Trump told NBC News' "Meet the Press" moderator Kristen Welser in a wide-ranging interview at Mar-a-Lago that aired on Sunday. "I view it for Flag Day, not necessarily my birthday. Somebody put it together. But no, I think we're going to do something on June 14 maybe or somewhere around there. But I think June 14, it's a very important day."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/04/trump-us-260th-an	2025/05/05

		He's not the only member of the Trump administration to do so. The increasing frenzy around immigration seems fueled by the desire to shape the population's genetic makeup. Musk's cuts to foreign aid are already leading to increased child mortality and HIV and malaria cases in Africa (the Trump administration's other main policy engagement with Africa has been offering white South Africans refugee status). At the heart of all these policies is soft eugenics thinking — the idea that if you take away life-saving healthcare and services from the vulnerable, then you can let nature take its course and only the strong will survive. ... Kennedy's "Maha" ("make America healthy again") movement does not advocate for forced sterilizations or mass deaths. Their stance is more of a shrug and sigh than a battle cry. When Kennedy claims that autism is worse than Covid-19 because the latter only kills "old people" and "metabolically healthy" people don't die from it, or when a Maha associate claims that measles is "an essential rite of passage, immunologically", you're hearing the language of soft eugenics. Don't let vaccines protect everyone, instead let the firm and weak be culled so that the strong will survive and perpetuate.
Maga's era of 'soft eugenics': let the weak get sick, help the clever breed	Nazi Checklist	Secretary of State Marco Rubio's growing portfolio of administration roles — which now includes acting national security adviser — is "too much." Sen. Mark Warner (D-Va.) said Sunday. There's been several instances of dual-hatting in Trump's second administration — but Rubio serving as national security adviser while overseeing the State Department, what's left of USAID and the National Archives brings the multitasking to a new level. Since Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth took over the Pentagon, top female officers have been fired, some women's service histories have been erased, women's leadership programs have been squashed, and an advisory board focused on women in the military has been dismissed. But current and former female service members told Business Insider that they worry potential changes could reverse recent progress in addressing problems like hazing, sexual harassment, racism, and social media misconduct.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/hq-interactive/2025/may/04/maga	2025/05/05
Sen. Warner: 'Don't know how anybody' could juggle Rubio's 'two big jobs'	Political Cesspool	Miller made the comment in a Thursday White House press briefing that previewed MAGA's indoctrination plan for kids as he discussed the Trump administration's efforts to dismantle the Department of Education and eliminate critical race theory from schools. "Children will be taught to love America. Children will be taught to be patriots. Children will be taught civic values for schools that want federal taxpayer funding. So as we close the Department of Education and provide funding to states, we're going to make sure these funds are not being used to promote communist ideology."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/04/warner-rubio-jobs-national-security	2025/05/05
Hegseth says the Pentagon is done 'walking on eggshells'. Women in uniform say it feels like a 'slap in the face.'	Political Cesspool	HHS announced Friday that Kennedy, a prominent spreader of anti-vaccine conspiracy theories and propaganda, is directing the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to come up with more measles treatments — even though decades of research have never turned up effective treatments for measles, reinforcing the importance of the life-or-death effort to make sure these funds are not being used to promote communist ideology."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-says-pentagon-done-walking-09	2025/05/05	DOD, women, DEI,
Opinion: Stephen Miller Rolls Out MAGA's Indoctrination Plan for Kids	Political Cesspool	HHS announced Friday that Kennedy, a prominent spreader of anti-vaccine conspiracy theories and propaganda, is directing the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to come up with more measles treatments — even though decades of research have never turned up effective treatments for measles, reinforcing the importance of the life-or-death effort to make sure these funds are not being used to promote communist ideology."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-stephen-miller-rolls-mega-10062	2025/05/05
RFK Jr. Tells CDC To Go All In On Rogue Vitamins, 'Scurf' For Measles	RFK JR BS	In that chapter, Kennedy wrote, "Miasma theory emphasizes preventing disease by fortifying the immune system through nutrition and by reducing exposures to environmental toxins and stresses," which, as Ars Technica also pointed out, also demonstrates a misunderstanding of the long-debunked miasma theory that disease is caused by "noxious mists and vapors." Apparently, according to Kennedy, germ theory wasn't based on actual evidence but instead got popular because it "transcended the traditional explanation for disease—demon possession—giving it a leg up over miasma."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-tells-cdc-boogus-235416167.html	2025/05/05
RFK Jr. Doesn't Actually Believe Germs Are Real, Which Seems Like Terrible News For Everyone Going On A Cruise This Year	RFK JR BS	Targeted ads on social media are made possible by analyzing four key metrics: your personal info, like gender and age; your interests, like the music you listen to or the comedians you follow; your "off app" behavior, like what websites you browse after watching a YouTube video; and your "psychographics," meaning general trends glossed from your behavior over time, like your social values and lifestyle habits.	https://autos.yahoo.com/rfk-jr-doesnt-actually-believe-17250381.html	2025/05/05
Facebook Allegedly Detected When Teen Girls Deleted Selfies So It Could Serve Them Beauty Ads	Technology-Garbage	The social media company likewise tracked when adolescent girls deleted selfies, "so it can serve a beauty ad to them at that moment," according to Wynn-Williams. Other examples of Facebook's ad lechery are said to include the targeting of young mothers based on their emotional state, as well as emotional indexes mapped to racial groups, like a "Hispanic and African American Feeling Fantastic Over index."	https://tech.yahoo.com/social-media/articles/facebook-allegedly-detecdy	2025/05/05
Facebook Allegedly Detected When Teen Girls Deleted Selfies So It Could Serve Them Beauty Ads	Technology-Garbage	The social media company likewise tracked when adolescent girls deleted selfies, "so it can serve a beauty ad to them at that moment," according to Wynn-Williams. Other examples of Facebook's ad lechery are said to include the targeting of young mothers based on their emotional state, as well as emotional indexes mapped to racial groups, like a "Hispanic and African American Feeling Fantastic Over index."	https://tech.yahoo.com/social-media/articles/facebook-allegedly-detecdy	2025/05/05
6 noteworthy moments from Trump's 'Meet the Press' interview	Trump Bullshit	Biden to blame for 'bad parts' of the economy Trump denies he wants a third term Trump hints some foreign tariffs could be permanent Trump is unsure if he has to uphold the Constitution Trump mostly dismisses annoying Canada Military parade worth it, despite high price tag	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/04/trump-economy-tariffs-canada	2025/05/05
Trump mostly — but not entirely — rules out military action on Canada	Trump Bullshit	President Trump on Sunday mostly ruled out taking military action to unify Canada and the United States — but he didn't rule it out entirely, and reiterated that he believes Canada should become the 51st state.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/04/canada-trump-camey-military	2025/05/05
Trump brands his opponents as 'communists,' a label loaded with the baggage of American history	Trump Bullshit	"All we have to do is define our opponent as being a communist or a socialist or somebody who is going to destroy our country," he told reporters at his New Jersey golf club in August. Trump did just that — branding Harris "comrade Kamalat" — and he won in November. With the ascent of more than 77 million Americans who cast ballots — 49.9% of the vote — Trump is carrying that strategy into his second term.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/04/canada-trump-camey-military	2025/05/05
Trump says he'll call CEOs when he disagrees with their business decisions	Trump Bullshit	What he's talking about is not actually 'communism' "The core of communism is the belief that governments can do better than markets in providing goods and services. There are very, very few people in the West who seriously believe that," said Raymond Robertson of the Texas A&M University Bush School of Government & Public Service. "Unless they are arguing that the government should run U.S. Steel and Tesla, they are simply not communists."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-brands-opponents-communists-lab	2025/05/05
Trump brands his opponents as 'communists,' a label loaded with the baggage of American history	Trump Bullshit	The word 'communist,' on the other hand, can carry great emotional power as a rhetorical tool, even now. It's all the more potent as a pejorative — though frequently inaccurate, even dangerous — and the contemporary flash of social media and misinformation. After all, the fear and paranoia of the Russian Revolution, the "Red Scare," World War I, McCarthyism and the Cold War are fading into the 20th century past.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-brands-opponents-communists-lab	2025/05/05
Trump Just Issued an Executive Order Aimed at Decimating the Civil Rights Act of 1964	Trump Bullshit	This move to repeal decades-old and previously noncontroversial civil rights protections on the strength of dissenting opinions is of a piece with the Trump administration's broader attack on the rule of law and the functioning of government. For example, the administration has ousted independent agency officials who, by statute, can only be removed for cause while relying on a 1988 dissenting opinion from Scalia in a case that was decided 6-1. These officials include ones who play a key role in civil rights enforcement, such as members of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-just-issued-executive-order-13000	2025/05/05	racism, going backwards
Trump says he will reopen Alcatraz prison for 'most ruthless offenders'	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump has said he is directing his government to reopen and expand Alcatraz, the notorious former prison on an island off San Francisco that has been closed for more than 60 years.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/trump-plan-reopen	2025/05/05
Trump says he'll call CEOs when he disagrees with their business decisions	Trump Bullshit	He added: "That is why, today, I am directing the Bureau of Prisons, together with the Department of Justice, FBI, and Homeland Security, to reopen a substantially enlarged and rebuilt ALCATRAZ, to house America's most ruthless and violent offenders."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/trump-plan-reopen	2025/05/05
He injected himself with snake venom hundreds of times, his blood could revolutionize treatments	Weird World	Asked whether he would use the same tactic with CEOs of other major retailers, Trump told moderator Kristen Welker: "Sure. I'll always call people if I disagree with them." "If I think that somebody's doing something that's incorrect, wrong or maybe harmful to the country, I'll call it," he added. "Wouldn't you want me to call? [Former President Joe] Biden wouldn't call because he didn't know what was happening, but I do."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-8-call-ceos-219236497.html	2025/05/05
The F1 Drivers Actually Got to Drive the Lego F1 Cars, Well Half of Them	Weird World	Immunologist Jacob Gianville came across media reports in 2017 of a man who had injected himself hundreds of times with the venom of some of the world's deadliest snakes, including cobras, mambas and rattlesnakes — and allowed himself to be bitten.	https://autos.yahoo.com/f1-drivers-actually-got-drive-201300917.html	2025/05/05
Wisconsin woman missing for more than 60 years found 'alive and well'	Weird World	Gianville's diamond was Tim Friede, a self-taught snake expert based in California who exposed himself to the venom of snakes over the course of nearly 18 years, effectively gaining immunity to several neurotoxins.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/man-injected-himself-venom-hundreds-1	2025/05/05
Huge bound and pocket-sized pup, meet-and-sniff with world's tallest and smallest dogs	Weird World	Lego and F1 combining to build life-sized Lego Cars is one of the best reminders that, at the end of the day, we're watching 20 drivers live out their childhood dreams. Ahead of the Miami Grand Prix, all 20 drivers took to the track two-by-two in custom two-seater F1 cars made entirely out of Legos. One driver, driving, and one sitting elevated behind them in the cockpit, fighter jet style.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/04/wisconsin-woman	2025/05/05
7-year-old boy found safe after going on a joyride to get a McDonald's Happy Meal	Weird World	In a press statement, Wisconsin's Sauk county sheriff's office said that 82-year-old Audrey Backeberg, who initially disappeared in July 1962 at the age of 20, had been found living out of the state. The sheriff's office did not disclose which state Backeberg was found in.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/04/guinness-world-re	2025/05/05
Mirac rescue of plane crash survivors from crocodile-infested lagoon grips Bolivia	Weird World	"Further investigation has revealed that Ms Backeberg's disappearance was by her own choice and not the result of any criminal activity or foul play," the sheriff's office said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/uhah-mcdonalds-boy	2025/05/05
Army pausing helicopter flights near Washington airport after close calls	Aviation	According to the Wisconsin justice department, Backeberg left her family home on 7 July in 1962. Backeberg's babysitter claimed that she and Backeberg hitchhiked to Madison, Wisconsin, and then took a Greyhound bus to Indianapolis, Indiana. The babysitter last saw Backeberg — a mother of two — walking around the corner away from the bus stop.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/bolivia-plane-cra	2025/05/05
Newark airport outage last week lasted 60-90 seconds, ATC screens went dark, Sources	Aviation	A physics battle between the world's tallest and smallest living dogs went the way of most dog park encounters despite the 3ft (0.91-meter) height difference — lots of tail wagging, sniffing and scampering.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/06/newark-airport-outage-week-1asted-60-90	2025/05/06
Newark airport 'not safe for the public': Trump administration is offering $1,000 to self-deporting undocumented immigrants	Aviation	A 7-year-old boy, who took his younger sister for a spin in their mother's car in the hunt for a McDonald's Happy Meal, has been found safe, according to police.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/newark-airport-not-safe-fia-214084642.html	2025/05/06
	Aviation	Officers learned that the child "had taken a family vehicle without parental knowledge." The boy drove the car from Clearfield to Ogden—10 miles—in a bid to reach the golden arches. The children were unharmd, police said.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/06/trump-deportation-spend-money-h	2025/05/06
	Aviation	After smashing into the ground, the aircraft flipped over into a lagoon infested with anacondas and alligators, plunging the pilot and four passengers—including a six-year-old boy—into a harrowing 36 hours spent clinging to the plane's wreckage before being rescued Friday in the northeast of the Andean nation.
	Aviation	But helicopter traffic remains a concern around that busy airport. The FAA said that three flights that had been cleared for landing Sunday at Reagan were ordered to go ground because a police helicopter was on an urgent mission in the area. All three flights landed safely on their second approaches.
	Aviation	The outage at Newark Liberty International Airport last Monday caused air traffic control computer screens to go dark for roughly 60 to 90 seconds, according to multiple sources with knowledge of the incident. It prevented the controllers from talking to aircraft during this time as well. In the air traffic control recordings obtained by ABC News, you can hear an air traffic controller telling pilots that "approach lost all the radars. Three of the four radar screens went black and they have no free frequency."
	Aviation	Newark airport has been branded unsafe for travelers after air traffic controllers apparently lost contact with planes for more than a minute.
	Aviation	One air traffic control worker warned travellers to "avoid Newark at all costs", while United Airlines is cutting dozens of Newark flights per day to "protect customers".
	Aviation	The Trump administration is offering $1,000 stipends and travel assistance to undocumented immigrants who "self-deport," the Department of Homeland Security said on Monday.

		Donald Trump's administration is in the "early stages" of diplomatic talks with Rwanda aimed at using the country as an offshore site to house migrants deported from the US, the country's foreign minister said.
Trump could be shipping deported migrants to Rwanda, under newest proposal	Borders and immigration	Rwanda's acceptance of US deportees would be of note especially given that the UK abandoned plans to do the same after a massive outcry over the humanitarian conditions under which migrants would be housed.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/rwanda	2025/05/06
Newborn U.S. citizen and Guatemalan mom detained as she faces deportation	Borders and immigration	A Guatemalan woman who gave birth to an American baby less than a week ago is being held along with her newborn as she faces deportation, U.S. officials said. A department of Homeland Security spokesperson said Sunday that the woman was apprehended by Customs and Border Patrol agents and hospitalized after she crossed the U.S.-Mexico border illegally while she was eight months pregnant.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/newborn-u-citizen-guatemalan-mom-010	2025/05/06
Mom raises $500K after appearing to hurt racist slur at child in viral video	Cespool	A video of a Rochester, Minnesota, mom appearing to hurt a racist slur at a Black child on a city playground earlier this week has been circulating widely across social media, garnering criticism from many viewers and a half-million dollars in donations from others.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mom-raises-500k-appearing-hurt-161656	2025/05/06
MAGA Angry as Elon Musk's Grok AI Keeps Explaining Why Their Beliefs Are Factually Incorrect	Cespool	As Gizmodo reports, the chatbot is really getting on the nerves of MAGA users as they find that it's willing to acknowledge the existence of outlandish conspiracy theories or tap into the kind of misinformation president Donald Trump has used to justify his bruising trade war.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maga-angry-elon-musk-grok-21060184/	2025/05/06
Schumer blasts Trump's response on upholding the Constitution	Constitutional Crisis	The Federal Reserve will likely keep its key short-term interest rate unchanged on Wednesday, despite weeks of harsh criticism and demands from President Donald Trump that the Fed reduce borrowing costs.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/schumer-blasts-trump-response-upholdin	2025/05/06
Trump's sons promote real estate and crypto deals, across world that will benefit the president	Constitutional Crisis	Donald Trump's sons Eric and Donald Trump Jr have embarked on a worldwide tour in recent weeks with stops across Europe and the Middle East promoting Trump-associated business ventures that could directly benefit the president. The deals include a $1 billion luxury hotel in Dubai, a golf course and villa complex in Qatar, a hotel in Serbia, and a $2 billion investment from an Abu Dhabi-backed venture capital fund using a currency offered by the Trump family's crypto firm World Liberty Financial.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-	2025/05/06	corruption
Shocking! Experts question Trump claiming 'I don't know' about upholding Constitution	Constitutional Crisis	On the home front last month, Donald Trump Jr announced the launch of a $500,000-per-membership exclusive club in Washington, D.C. called, cheekily, the Executive Branch, the name for the category of federal offices that include the presidency that include the president's legal experts told ABC News that the Fifth Amendment does not make any distinction between citizens and noncitizens. The Supreme Court has held that illegal immigrants are afforded due process rights under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/experts-trump-claiming-dont-know-2022	2025/05/06
Federal Reserve likely to defy Trump, keep rates unchanged this week	Economy- Federal Reserve	"President Trump's failure to acknowledge that he swore an oath to support and defend the Constitution is unprecedented in American history," Gertzel said. "Most presidents have not been lawyers, but every president, other than Trump, has acknowledged that every federal official, including the president, has the duty to uphold the Constitution."	https://apnews.com/article/inflation-trump-fed-rates-d4d543c3-d0d6a34	2025/05/06
Why making an All-American product is so hard	Economy- Made in the USA	Moving that last 5% statewide has been a challenge. Chief Executive Bill Banta said the company searched for a domestic source for the ball bearings it buys from China, only to hit a dead end. Manufacturers that already make products in the U.S. said it is tough to create an entirely domestic supply chain. Parts or materials vital to their products are no longer made here, they said, or are available only in quantities that are too low or prices that are too high.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/why-making-american-product-hard-05	2025/05/06
Trump administration to resume collections on student loan borrowers in default	Economy- Student Loans	After a five-year hiatus, the U.S. Department of Education says it will begin resuming collections of defaulted student loans this week. Of the more than 42.7 million student loan borrowers in the U.S., who owe a collective $1.6 trillion, the department says that more than 5 million have not made a payment in the past year. That number is expected to grow as an additional 4 million borrowers are approaching default status.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/04/24/us-st-5371731trump-administration-co	2025/05/06
Republicans in Congress pull out all the stops to protect Trump tariffs	Economy- Tariffs	Warring signs flashed this week that Donald Trump's tariffs were beginning to destabilize what had, at the start of his term, appeared to be a solid economy. But in Congress, Republican leaders pulled out all the stops to protect his signature trade policy. The threat appeared in the form of a Senate resolution sponsored by the Republican Rand Paul and Democrat Ron Wyden that targeted the levies and looked like it had a shot at passing a chamber in which the Republican majority had previously shown little inclination of respecting the president. But even before the first votes were cast, Trump and his allies moved to ensure it would go nowhere.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-congress-pull-stops-protect-t	2025/05/06
Trump's tax fight with Harvard sends chill through nonprofit sector	Education Drain	President Trump's legally dubious threat to strip Harvard's tax-exempt status could cost the university hundreds of millions a year, and other nonprofits fear they could be next. Trump has waged an unprecedented assault on the independence of universities, law firms, and nonprofit media, using the power of the government to punish his perceived political enemies.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/05/harvard-tax-exempt-trump-threats-ii	2025/05/06
Poachers have killed over 100 rhinos in South Africa this year	Environment- Animals	Poachers in South Africa killed more than 100 rhinos in the first three months of this year, most of them inside national parks, highlighting an ongoing battle to protect one of the best-known endangered species.	https://abcnews.go.com/International/wireStory/poachers-killed-100-ru	2025/05/06
Sweeping cuts hit NEA after Trump administration calls to eliminate the agency	Government- Funds	The Trump Administration has started canceling National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) grants. Hundreds of arts groups of various sizes across the U.S. received emails notifying them of the withdrawal and termination of their grants late on Friday. The updates, which came from a generic "arts.go" email address, appeared in grantees' inboxes just hours after President Trump proposed eliminating the agency entirely from the federal budget.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/03/us-st-5385888sweeping-cuts-hit-ne	2025/05/06
Federal workers in limbo amid whiplash White House firings and court-ordered rehiring	Government- Jobs	In the weeks that followed, similar scenes played out across the government — nurses at the Department of Veterans Affairs, food safety regulators at the Department of Agriculture, scientists at the Department of Health and Human Services. Employees, along with unions and legal groups, challenged the legality of the widespread terminations. At least 24,000 of those dismissals led to court-ordered reinstatements, which have since been paused.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-workers-limbo-amid-whiplash-155	2025/05/06
Trump administration plans to cut thousands of employees at spy agencies	Government- Jobs	Whiplashing court orders have left probationary workers in a fragile state of limbo. Some have been rehired, while others remain on administrative leave. Some have received backpay and benefits, while others have not. Some were returned to work, put on administrative leave and then fired again, after an intervention by the supreme court.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-plans-cut-thousand	2025/05/06
Hegseth orders Pentagon to cut number of senior generals by 25%	Government- DOD	The Trump administration plans to significantly shrink the workforce of the CIA and other U.S. intelligence agencies, with the aim of cutting thousands of employees over several years, two sources with knowledge of the matter told NBC News. The administrator's cost-cutting approach at the CIA and other intelligence agencies suggests a more calibrated effort than its strategy at other federal departments, with some agencies — such as the U.S. Agency for International Development — essentially dismantled.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-orders-pentagon-to-cut-number-of	2025/05/06
19 states sue REK Jr. over HHS restructuring	Government- HHS	US Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth has ordered senior Pentagon leadership to cut the number of four-star generals and admirals by at least 20% across the military, according to a memo signed by Hegseth dated Monday and obtained by CNN. As of 2023, there were 37 four-star generals and admirals across the entire military.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/03/us-st-5385888sweeping-cuts-hit-ne	2025/05/06
US scientist who touted hydroxychloroquine to treat Covid named to pandemic prevention role	Government- HHS	The memo also directs the Pentagon to cut the number of general officers in the National Guard by 20%, and to cut the total number of general and flag officers across the military by 10%. There are currently about 900 general and flag officers — those with the rank of one star or higher — across the military.	https://www.thequardian.com/us/news/2025/may/05/covid-hydroxychloro	2025/05/06
IRS Lost 31% of Tax Auditors in DOGE Downsizing - Watchdog Finds	Government- IRS	Nineteen Democratic-led states plus the District of Columbia sued HHS Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. on Monday, saying his ongoing reorganization of the federal health bureaucracy incapacitated core functions and deprived the states of federal funds and expertise. The lawsuit in U.S. District Court in Rhode Island alleges that Kennedy's structural changes stopped health agencies from carrying out legally-required functions, including health hazard evaluations at workplaces, food safety inspections and infectious disease prevention.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/irs-lost-31-tax-auditors-1719380260.html	2025/05/06
Trump's attacks on judiciary slammed in letter by 150 retired judges	Government- Judiciary	A proponent of using the drug hydroxychloroquine to treat Covid-19 despite scant evidence of its efficacy has been named to a top pandemic prevention role at the Department of Health and Human Services, the Washington Post reports.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-j	2025/05/06	constitutional crisis
CDC allegedly cancels Emory's HIV self-testing program after not enough workers left to oversee it	Health- HIV	The Internal Revenue Service lost 31% of its auditors from buyouts and layoffs tied to Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency, departures that are likely to hamper the agency's ability to go after tax cheats.	https://abcnews.go.com/health/usdc-allegedly-cancels-emory-hiv-testin	2025/05/06
Trump cuts baby 'Safe to Sleep' team. Here's what parents should know	Health- Infants	A group of more than 150 retired state and federal judges criticized the Trump administration's repeated attacks on the judiciary, calling them an attempt to undermine the rule of law in a letter sent Monday to Attorney General Pam Bondi.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/05/us-st-5383671trump-cuts-safe-sleep	2025/05/06
Thousands of Islamists rally in Bangladesh against proposed changes to women's rights	Human rights	The judges took issue with how the administration handled the April arrest of Hannah Dugan, a Wisconsin judge accused of attempting to prevent federal agents from arresting an undocumented man outside her courtroom.	https://apnews.com/article/bangladesh-women-rights-islamists-rally-11f	2025/05/06
Opinion - Conservative losses in Australia and Canada have shocking parallels	International Politics	"This latest action is yet another attempt to intimidate and threaten the judiciary after a series of rulings by judges appointed by presidents of both parties holding the Trump Administration accountable for its countless violations of the Constitution and laws of the United States," the judges wrote.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-conservative-losses-australia-c	2025/05/06
Many in US and western Europe think 'third world war' will erupt within five to 10 years'	International Relations	On April 22, the federal health agency informed Emory University in Atlanta that its large HIV self-testing program, called Together TakeMeHome, was being canceled two years early.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/many-us-western-europe-think-0405569/	2025/05/06
Israel plans to occupy and flatten all of Gaza if no deal by Trump's trip	International- Israel	"CDC notified us that they had let go of so many CDC staff earlier in this year that they could no longer provide the required federal oversight for the project," he told ABC News. "It's really a tough rationale to accept. I really feels negligent to have sent home the staff that were needed to manage a really successful program that was improving the health of Americans, that was extending life, that was saving money and not to keep the resources in place to manage that."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/05/israel-gaza-destroy-trump-deal	2025/05/06
Signal archiving tool Trump officials used suspends services after hack claims	National Security	The federal government launched the campaign as "Back to Sleep" in 1994 in partnership with private organizations. Since then, it has helped save thousands of babies from dying in their sleep, says Dr. Rachel Moon, a pediatrician and researcher at the University of Virginia who helped write the American Academy of Pediatrics' guidelines on safe infant sleep.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/05/signal-keemessage-trump-officials-i	2025/05/06

		The race is officially on to become Donald Trump's next national security adviser – but in this White House, the personalities and egos surrounding the president can matter far more than the titles they hold. "I think he sort of indirectly already has that job ... because he has a lot to say about a lot of things," Trump said of Miller on board Air Force One. "He's a very valued person in the administration," Stephen Miller. ... The two men represent distinct wings of Trump's Republican support. Rubio is a former rival who has tried to shapeshift into a MAGA Republican, preserving his role in the Trump administration and potentially setting up a 2028 presidential run. Miller is a rightwing ideologue who has staked out a reputation as the administration's driving hawk on immigration and a Trump enforcer among his top aides.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/trump-rubio-miller	2025/05/06
Loyalty matters most in race to become Trump's next national security adviser	Political Cesspool	Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp will not run for the Senate, despite wooing from Senate GOP leadership, Axios has confirmed. Kemp was by far the Republican Party's strongest potential candidate as it tries to take back the Georgia seat from Sen. Jon Ossoff (D-Ga.) in the 2028 midterm election.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/05/brian-kemp-georgia-senate	2025/05/06
Gov. Brian Kemp passes on Georgia Senate race	Politics- GOP	Donald Trump's administration on Monday pushed forward in defending US rules easing access to the abortion drug mifepristone from a legal challenge that began during Democratic former president Joe Biden's administration.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/05/trump-biden-defen	2025/05/06
Trump to continue Biden's court defense of abortion drug mifepristone	Reproductive Rights	The Trump administration on Monday asked a judge to toss out a lawsuit from three GOP-led states seeking to cut off telehealth access to abortion medication mifepristone. Justice Department attorneys stayed the legal course charted by Biden administration, though they don't directly weigh in on the underlying issue of access to the drug that's part of the nation's most common method of abortion.
Trump administration asks judge to toss suit restricting access to abortion medication	Reproductive Rights	Rather, the government argued the states don't have the legal right, or standing, to sue. As severe weather continues to impact the south-central U.S. on Monday, officials in Texas are working to locate a child who was swept away in "rapidly rising floodwaters."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-asks-judge-toss-22	2025/05/06
Child swept away in Texas flooding as storms threaten 46 million in south-central US	Tragic	This comes as severe weather from western New Mexico to Louisiana has put 40 million people under flood watches due to potentially heavy rainfall. There were 50 storm reports -- including damaging wind and hail -- reported across 10 states on Sunday. Most of the severe storms impacted parts of the Southwest, specifically in New Mexico and Texas.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/severe-thunderstorms-flash-flooding-egy	2025/05/06
Boat washes ashore near San Diego with 3 dead, 4 survivors and 9 unaccounted for	Tragic	Three dead bodies and four survivors in need of medical care were discovered on a panga boat that washed ashore near San Diego on Monday morning, according to the U.S. Coast Guard and the Encinitas Fire Department. Nine people are unaccounted for, the Coast Guard said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/boat-washes-ashore-near-san-16040488	2025/05/06
What to know about Alcatraz: why it closed and why it's notorious	Trump Bullshit	One of the world's most notorious prisons, Alcatraz has been closed since 1963 because it was expensive to run, and the U.S. government "found that it was more cost-effective to build a new institution" than keep it open, per the Federal Bureau of Prisons. "An estimated $3-5 million was needed just for restoration and maintenance work to keep the prison open," the BOP's website says, a figure that did not include operating costs. At that rate, Alcatraz was nearly three times more expensive to operate than any other federal prison at the time. The prison's isolation also made it difficult and expensive to transport fresh water, food, and fuel. Since March, Gov. Josh Shapiro and the Trump administration have been sparring over the cancellation of a program that provides millions in funding for Pennsylvania farmers who provide products for local food banks. There have been threats of a lawsuit, letters and public comments by state and federal officials. "This isn't some hope of mine that we would fund our farmers and our food banks," Shapiro said during a press conference on April 21. "We had a three-year contract that the federal government broke in north East."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/05/why-did-alcatraz-close-trump	2025/05/06
'A deal is a deal' Shapiro says of Trump cuts to funding for Pa. farmers providing for food banks	Trump Bullshit	In its budget request for the fiscal year 2026, which is also proposing billions in crippling cuts to space, health, education, and other areas, the White House argued that the The National Park Service's responsibilities "include a large number of sites that are not 'national parks,' in the traditionally understood sense, many of which receive small numbers of mostly local visitors, and are better categorized and managed as state-level parks." There are more than 430 national parks that span across 85 million acres, including every U.S. state and territory.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-calendar-tariffs-no-buyouts-1827	2025/05/06
'A deal is a deal' Shapiro says of Trump cuts to funding for Pa. farmers providing for food banks	Trump Bullshit	It is unclear what handing over park sites to states would really look like or which parks are deemed not to be "national parks" in the traditionally understood sense, but there are hurdles in the way of implementing such changes successfully.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-wants-states-over-control-16313116	2025/05/06
Trump's calendar: When tariffs, RTD, buyouts, and a TikTok cut-off are set to go into effect	Trump Bullshit	Fact check President Donald Trump is taking credit for a better-than-expected jobs report. But he insisted the wars in the American economy are the fault of former President Joe Biden, who's been out of the White House for months. "I think the good parts are the Trump economy and the bad parts are the Biden economy because he's done a terrible job," Trump told host Kristin Welker in an interview that was to air Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press." "He did a terrible job on everything, from his autopen -- which I'm sure he has nothing about, some of the things he was supposedly signing."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-checking-donald-trumps-may-16004	2025/05/06
Trump wants states to take over control of National Park system as he proposed $1 billion cut to its budget	Trump Bullshit	Disputed ballots in the still unresolved 2024 race for a North Carolina Supreme Court seat result in the first in the first round, a federal judge ruled late Monday, a decision that if upheld would result in an electoral victory for Democratic incumbent Aileen Riggs. The race cars got into downtown Camden, S.C., like an old-fashioned circus. Streets are blocked off for the welcome party, where a rock band serenades the crowd with a Jerry Reed country classic: "East Bound and Down."	https://www.abcnews.go.com/Politics/story/federal-judge-results-north-c	2025/05/06
Fact-checking Donald Trump's May interview with 'Meet the Press'	Trump Bullshit	Some of these race cars look like something a child might draw. A Honda Civic has a lawnmower, squirrels and flamingoes on its roof. A cream-colored Toyota Yaris has googly eyes, an homage to Garold Gareth "Gary" Wilson, Jr. -- SpongeBob SquarePants' pet snail. They're all here for the local installment of 24 Hours of Lemons, an endurance car race with a major twist: The cars can't cost more than $500. The series bills itself as "racing for real people." Team costumes are encouraged. The U.S. has built a secret underground "city" costing $21 trillion where the ultra-wealthy can hide out during a "near-extinction event," a former government official has claimed.	https://www.ppr.org/2025/05/02/trw-st-53392824lemons-tour-24-hours-c	2025/05/06
Trump wants the credit, but not the blame, for US economy	Trump Economy	While on "The Tucker Carlson Show," Fitts said she spent years investigating where the $21 trillion had got gone -- and discovered there were 170 secret underground bases across the U.S. Several compounding issues are hitting Newark Liberty International Airport at once: air traffic controller staffing shortages, aging technology, bad weather and the closure of one of the airport's busiest runways. By end of the day, Newark had reported 424 flights were delayed on their way in and out of the airport and 160 flights cancelled, according to flight tracking website FlightAware.	https://www.ppr.org/2025/05/02/trw-st-53394041newark-airport-delays-f	2025/05/07
Federal judge says results of North Carolina race must be certified	Voting Fucker	House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee Chair Sam Graves (R-Mo.) released a budget proposal last week that includes $15 billion to modernize air traffic control systems. "Our nation's air traffic control system is outdated, and it must be modernized for the benefit and safety of all users of the National Airspace System," Graves said during the March hearing where Daniels also addressed the issue. "While this issue has been thrust back into the spotlight following a string of tragic accidents, this is not a new debate."	https://thehill.com/regulation/transportation/5285150-air-traffic-control	2025/05/07
Race car drivers turn lemons (and $500) into an endurance contest like no other	Weird World	Kristi Noem, the head of the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS), said on Tuesday that travelers without a REAL ID will still be able to fly when the updated identity system comes into effect on 7 May, but they may face extra scrutiny at transportation security agency (TSA) checkpoints. The ACLU of New York said in opposition to the REAL ID act that it threatened privacy because "it consolidates Americans' personal information into a network of interlinking databases accessible to the federal government and bureaucrats throughout the 50 states and US territories." "This national mega-database would invite government snooping and be a goldmine for identity thieves," it said. The group also warned that "despite what the DHS claims, REAL ID is a real national ID card" and could turn Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) offices into "immigration enforcement agencies" and force driver's license agents to make complicated judgments about a person's lawful status in the US. A drastic reduction in immigration could lead to labor shortages, especially in some critical roles -- building houses, taking care of the growing elderly population, or staffing farms and meatpacking plants. There's the potential for a longer-term slowdown in economic growth, as well Last month, Clay Jackson was at a gas station near his home in Dallas when an attendant asked if he could offer up some legal advice to an immigrant family in the neighborhood. A father was caught up in an Immigration and Customs Enforcement raid, and the mixed-status family with a U.S. citizen child wasn't sure what to do next. Jackson agreed to give them informal pro bono support in his personal capacity, not as an in-house lawyer for Fidelity National Financial, a multi-billion dollar Fortune 500 title insurance company. Then two people he says appeared to be federal law enforcement agents visited Jackson himself. Two plain-clothed agents appeared at his home and accused Jackson of obstructing an investigation, he said. That same day, Jackson was fired.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/07/trump-immigration-policies-workfor	2025/05/07	economy, jobs, labor shortage,
US has a $21 trillion underground network for only the wealthy to hide out in a 'near-extinction event,' official says	WTF?	The incident follows a series of actions from Donald Trump's administration targeting individual lawyers and firms that provided work for his perceived political enemies. Jackson fears ICE's threats and his abrupt termination could send a "chilling" effect preventing lawyers from pro bono work or even informal advice. The Trump administration has developed plans to send migrants to detention centers in Libya on a military flight, according to Reuters. The flight could depart as soon as Wednesday, officials told The New York Times. The nationalities of those set to be on the flight were not immediately apparent.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald	2025/05/07
What is happening at Newark Airport? This and other questions answered	Aviation	Libya is in the middle of severe conflict, and human rights groups have called its migrant detention centers "horrific" and "deplorable." President Donald Trump's administration has asked the Ukrainian government to take in an unspecified number of people who are being deported from the U.S. but aren't Ukrainian citizens, a new report claims. Trump's team asked Ukraine to take in the group in late January, despite the country not having a functional airport due to ongoing air strikes from Russia, according to documents reviewed by The Washington Post. It's unclear how exactly Ukrainian officials responded, but Ukraine has not accepted any third-party nationals from the U.S. National Weather Service offices around the country are on guard after recent threats to agency infrastructure -- specifically Doppler weather radars -- from a violent militia-style group, emails from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's security office show. "This group is advocating for anyone and everyone to join them in conducting penetration drills on NEXRAD sites to identify weaknesses which can be used to ultimately destroy the sites," the email stated, using an acronym for the weather radar network. "The group referred to the NEXRAD system towers as 'weather weapons,' and claimed there were no laws preventing American citizens from destroying the 'weapons,'" the email states. It's unclear what the group believes the radars are doing. The NEXRAD, or "next generation radar," system has been in place since the 1960s and detects precipitation in the atmosphere. It can also help pinpoint tornadoes and severe thunderstorms, prompting timely life-saving warnings. The network is also used by the Federal Aviation Administration and the US Air Force.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/militia-led-conspiracy-theorist-group-belli	2025/05/07
Kristi Noem says travelers without Real ID will still be able to fly after deadline	Aviation
Employers worry over immigration crackdown as labor shortage fears loom	Borders and immigration
A Texas lawyer gave advice to an immigrant family caught up in an ICE raid. Agents visited him, and then he was fired	Borders and immigration
Trump deportations stoking fears about violations of children's rights	Borders and immigration
Trump administration plans to send migrants to Libya's 'horrific' detention centers	Borders and immigration
Trump administration wanted to deport migrants to Ukraine despite ongoing war, report claims	Borders and immigration
A militarized conspiracy theorist group believes radars are 'weather weapons' and is trying to destroy them	Cesspool- Conspiracy

		Regardless of any alternate "interpretations" of the Supreme Court's ruling — which several federal courts have excoriated the administration for failing to honor — it's hard to think of an easier question for a president to answer than whether they should uphold the Constitution, which Trump pledged to preserve, protect, and defend as part of his swearing-in ceremony. Trump didn't say, "Yes, however," or "Of course, but in this case," or some other hedge. He said, "I don't know" — about upholding the nation's founding document, one that conservatives hold so dear that Trump included it in the Bible he's selling with country star Lee Greenwood. Now, he's saying the Constitution is only important so long as it doesn't interfere with his political goals.
Republicans Silent as Trump Refuses to Commit to Upholding Constitution	Constitutional Crisis	Trump later on Sunday posted his intention to reopen Alcatraz and an insouciant call to place tariffs on foreign films. These absurd directives garnered more media attention than the president shunning at the importance of the Constitution.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-silent-trump-refuses-commit-22550507.html	2025/05/07
Bipartisan push to ban lawmakers from trading stocks gets a boost from Trump	Corruption	President Trump and House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries, D-N.Y., don't agree on much. But their public support of legislation to ban members of Congress from trading individual stocks could revive prospects for a bipartisan effort that's stalled on Capitol Hill for years.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/02/m-x-1-5381400/stock-trading-ban-boost/	2025/05/07
Why oil prices are falling, and what it means for the economy	Economy- Oil	"The truth is, both parties — members of both parties — enjoy trading stock and enjoy the profits they get off it," he said. "This is something that we ought to set aside for the good of the American people. It is a distraction at best. It is a source of potential corruption at worst."	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/06/m-x-1-5387426/bp-oil-prices-falling-why-it-2/	2025/05/07	environment, fossil fuels,
U.S. and China to hold first formal talks since trade war escalated	Economy-Tariffs	Prices at the pump have indeed gone down, largely because the price of crude oil has dropped by nearly 25% since the start of January. West Texas Intermediate, the U.S. benchmark, dropped from a peak of around $80 a barrel in mid-January to just under $60 today. But that's not because U.S. producers are opening the spigot. Instead, prices are now low enough that, on average, U.S. producers cannot profitably drill new wells, according to the latest survey data from the Dallas Federal Reserve.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/06/us-china-talks-trump-tariffs-trade-war/	2025/05/07
Pharma shipments surge as Trump tariff threat looms	Economy-Tariffs	U.S. and Chinese officials will meet this week for their first formal economic talks since President Trump announced sweeping tariffs on China and triggered a trade war, the Treasury Department announced Tuesday evening.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/07/tariffs-imports-drugs-pharmaceutical/	2025/05/07	health, medication,
Businesses have found strange but legal ways to avoid Trump's tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	The trade war between the world's two largest economies threatens the global order and the talks in Switzerland will mark the first high-level meeting between U.S. and Chinese officials since China's Vice President Han Zheng attended Trump's inauguration in January. President Trump's threat of pharmaceutical tariffs is driving a surge of exports of drugs and medical products from Europe to the U.S. as manufacturers look to build up stockpiles before duties hit.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/02/m-x-1-5381400/stock-trading-ban-boost/	2025/05/07
More states are allowing community colleges to offer bachelor's degrees	Education	Imports from Ireland, a manufacturing hub for pharma giants like Pfizer and Johnson & Johnson, only took a breather in March, but sure does double the price of drugs. Two popular — and legal — strategies involve those bonded warehouses to defer tariffs and harmonized system codes to qualify for lower rates. There are over 5,000 different product classification codes that governments across the globe use when assessing tariffs.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/07/m-x-1-5381400/stock-trading-ban-boost/	2025/05/07
DOGE's latest target should worry you	Fuck that department	Consumers don't care whether the imported coat they're wearing was officially classified as a windbreaker or a raincoat. But for businesses, that distinction can be the difference between lower and higher tariff rates — and potentially turning a profit or not. And to qualify for the lower rate, all a manufacturer would have to do is linker with the product's materials, otherwise known as tariff engineering.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doges-latest-target-worry-195401702.html	2025/05/07
US senators urge USDA to explain DOGE review of farm loans	Fuck that department	For instance, Converse's signature All Stars sneakers have a sole that contains felt as opposed to the fully rubber one traditionally seen in sneakers. That may have been a purposeful decision, since foreign-produced shoes with felt bottoms could be considered "house slippers" for the purpose of tariff codes. And house slippers have qualified for significantly lower tariff rates compared to other kinds of footwear in the past.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-senators-urge-usda-explain-23364141.html	2025/05/07
Musk Allies Made FAA Staff Sign NDAs to Keep New Project Secret	Fuck that guy	Ohio and her classmates here are among the 13 million adults of all ages across the country who live beyond a reasonable commute from the nearest four-year university, according to estimates by the American Council on Education, an organization representing colleges and universities.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-allies-made-faa-staff-sign-ndas-215200305.html	2025/05/07
Eilon Musk's Most Alarming Power Grab	Fuck that guy	Iowa has joined a growing number of states that are considering letting community colleges like this one offer bachelor's degrees as a way of filling "higher education deserts" and training workers in rural places for jobs in fields where there are growing shortages. In other states, community colleges have already added four-year degrees.	https://www.theatlantic.com/technology/archive/2025/05/starlink-elon-musk/704004/	2025/05/07
Trump administration to stop US research on space pollution, in boon to Elon Musk	Fuck that guy	The people who normally look at your Social Security data are trained on the federal Privacy Act and have to pass background checks. Other members of the DOGE team, by contrast, include a 19-year-old nicknamed "Tig Bails" who was reportedly fired from an internship with a cybersecurity company after he was accused of leaking proprietary information. (He said at the time that he had done "nothing contractually wrong," according to Bloomberg.)	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/07/spacex-pollution-elon-musk/	2025/05/07
Musk says SpaceX vision for Mars will save humanity, as he continues to push human extinction fears	Fuck that guy	In a 145-page ruling last month, U.S. District Judge Ellen Hollander blocked DOGE from accessing the data, finding that the plaintiffs were likely to succeed in a lawsuit arguing that giving DOGE access violates the Privacy Act.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/musk-nasa-space-exploration-b2614001.html	2025/05/07
States win a legal injunction against President Trump, pausing library funding cuts	Government Funding	Last week, the Trump administration filed an emergency appeal to the Supreme Court asking for DOGE to be allowed access.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/06/m-x-1-5388902/library-funding-cuts-hur/	2025/05/07	Education, information blackout, fight it
Scoop: HHS to reinstate some specialized workers hit by layoffs	Government Jobs	Democrats in the U.S. Senate have asked the Department of Agriculture to explain why billionaire Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency must approve certain government farm loans and loan guarantees before they are issued, according to a copy of a letter seen by Reuters.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/scoop-hhs-reinstate-some-specialized-workers-hit-by-layoffs-22550507.html	2025/05/07
Hegseth says he's a change agent at DoD. But details are scarce	Government- DoD	The lawmakers also told USCA that they wanted details about how such reviews are being conducted and whether DOGE will be vetting other USDA farm assistance programs, according to the letter.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/06/m-x-1-5388963/hegseth-defense-department/	2025/05/07
Critics warn DOJ is being politicized despite vows to end its purported weaponization	Government- DOJ	Elon Musk's so-called Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) has been spearheading a multi-million dollar communications project at the Federal Aviation Administration, the agency that regulates the nation's air travel, and employees noted into it have been forced to sign non-disclosure agreements, sources with knowledge of the situation say.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/06/m-x-1-5388902/library-funding-cuts-hur/	2025/05/07
Duffy outlines air traffic control overhaul	Government- DOT	The world's richest man and DOGE have overseen mass firings and purges across the government, including at the FAA. At the same time, Musk has offered SpaceX's services to the agency, providing thousands of terminals from its satellite internet business, Starlink. Two months ago, the Washington Post reported that Starlink was pokeying to replace Verizon on a $2.4 billion contract with the FAA to upgrade its systems for managing America's airspace. Rolling Stone reported last month that FAA officials had recently ordered staffers to find tens of millions of dollars for a Starlink deal.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/duffy-outlines-air-traffic-control-11551026.html	2025/05/07	aviation, etc,
Americans' health at risk as Trump cuts EPA staff to 1980s levels, experts warn	Government- EPA	Musk recognized that Starlink's early adopters would be in remote and rural areas, where cables may not reach, and there are few, if any, cell towers. The U.S. is, for now, his biggest market, and the U.S. government may soon become a major customer. President Donald Trump has just delayed a $42 billion federal effort to expand broadband services, especially in rural areas. His administration has decided to make that project "tech-neutral," such that cable hookups aren't necessarily preferred over satellite—which means that Starlink can compete for the money in the meantime. Starlink's internet service is now also in planes, in ships at sea, in deep jungles, tundras, and deserts. In Gaza, medics have used Starlink while healing the wounded. At times when the people of Myanmar and Sudan learned that the internet had been shut off by their autocratic governments, they turned to Starlink. Ukraine's soldiers use it to communicate on the front lines.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/06/trump-epa-cuts/	2025/05/07	health, pollution, environment,
NSA to cut up to 2,000 civilian roles	Government- NSA	The Trump administration is poised to kill federal research into pollution from satellites and rockets, including some caused by Elon Musk's space companies, raising new conflict-of-interest questions about the billionaire SpaceX and Starlink owner.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nsa-cut-up-to-2-000-civilian-234646834.html	2025/05/07

		In a 53-47 vote along party lines, the U.S. Senate on Tuesday confirmed the nomination of tech CEO Frank Biagiano to be the commissioner of the Social Security Administration (SSA). Biagiano, a donor to President Trump and the former CEO of payments technology company Fiserv, will lead the federal agency that runs programs providing retirement, survivor and disability benefits, as well as supplemental income for the very poor.
Senate confirms Trump's pick to run Social Security, amid upsurge at the agency	Government-SSA	Democrats in the Senate have also raised concerns about Biagiano's alleged communication with members of billionaire Elon Musk's team, known as the Department of Government Efficiency, or DOGE.
		Sen. Ron Wyden, D-Ore., accused Biagiano of lying "about his actions and communications with DOGE and the Social Security Administration prior to his hearing." During Biagiano's confirmation hearing before the Finance Committee, Wyden said a whistleblower told his office that the nominee "personally intervened to get DOGE officials installed ... and got basically approved in the middle of the night as a result of [Biagiano's] insistence."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5357929/social-security-administ	2025/05/07
Feeding the hungry will be harder than ever for the world's largest food aid agency	Health- Hunger	The United Nations World Food Programme is by far the largest international organization fighting hunger. It reports that it served more than 100 million people in 2024. Five years ago, it won the Nobel Peace Prize. But WFP is about to radically downsize in the wake of dwindling donations and the Trump administration's cuts to foreign aid.
		WFP spent $9.8 billion on aid last year — nearly half of the funds were contributed by the U.S. But this year, it's projecting a projected 40% reduction in funding.
Measles cases hit six-year high in South Korea amid outbreaks across south-east Asia	Health- Measles	In a memo emailed to all WFP employees on April 24, leadership told staff to expect job cuts of 25-30%, or about 6,000 positions. The email, obtained by NPR, said the cuts would affect every level of the organization and every place they operate.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-and-sci/2025/05/06/nx-1-643853w	2025/05/07
The Shingles Vaccine Could Be a Secret Weapon Against Heart Attacks	Health- Vaccines	South Korea has recorded the highest number of measles cases in six years, adding to concerns that low vaccination rates combined with international travel are contributing to further outbreaks elsewhere in the region.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/07/measles-cases-hit-six	2025/05/07
Most Americans use federal science information on a weekly basis, a new poll finds	Information Blackout	The benefits of avoiding shingles through vaccinations are piling up. New research out this week has found a link between getting vaccinated for shingles and a reduced risk of heart attacks and strokes.	https://nizmodot.com/the-shingles-vaccine-could-be-a-secret-weapon-aj	2025/05/07
Carney told Trump that Canada is not for sale. 'Never say never,' Trump replied	International Relations	The poll found that on a weekly basis more than 90% of people use weather forecasts, job market reports, food safety warnings and other information that is based on federal science. But only 10% of respondents are concerned that cuts to federal support for science might impact their access to such information.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5387465/trump-carney-canada-ja	2025/05/07
US intelligence agencies told to ramp up spying on Greenland as Trump eyes takeover	International Relations	As you know from real estate, there are some places that are never for sale. We're sitting in one right now, Carney told Trump. "Having met with the owners of Canada over the course of the campaign, last several months, it's not for sale. Won't be for sale, ever," he said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/05/07
'Desperate, traumatized people': Gaza faces wave of looting, theft and violence	International-Gaza	U.S. intelligence agencies were told last week to step up their spying efforts related to Greenland and the contingent that supports the self-governing Danish island's independence.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/07/desperate-traumatize	2025/05/07
World leaders call for calm after India strikes Pakistan	International-India	Gaza has been hit by a wave of looting and theft as increasingly desperate Palestinians struggle to get food while criminal gangs exploit a breakdown in law and order.	https://www.axis.com/2025/05/07/india-pakistan-kashmir-conflict-modi	2025/05/07
		Aid officials and witnesses in the devastated territory describe armed men attacking humanitarian warehouses, firefights over remaining food stores and a spate of stealing of supplies vital for survival, such as solar chargers, batteries, phones and cooking pots.
Pakistan denies 'act of war' as it retaliates against India missile attack	International-India	President Trump and other world leaders called for an end to India-Pakistan hostilities after the Indian military launched deadly strikes on Pakistan targets early Wednesday local time. It's the first time India's forces have struck inside Pakistan's territory since 2019, as tensions again run high between the two nuclear-armed neighboring nations over the disputed Kashmir region.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/06/pakistan-yows-to-ret	2025/05/07
India and Pakistan's dispute over Kashmir — explained in 39 seconds	International-India	A Pakistani Army spokesperson said on X that at least 26 people were killed and 46 others injured following the Indian airstrikes.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/07/india-pakistan-kashm	2025/05/07
Port Sudan was safe during the war. Now it's been attacked by a group linked to UAE	International-Sudan	The Indian military action comes after gunmen killed 26 people and wounded a dozen others on April 22 in an area of Indian-administered Kashmir that's popular with tourists.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5386297/port-sudan-attacks-civil	2025/05/07
White House caught off guard by Hegseth's request to cancel weapons supply to Ukraine — including Israel's latest	International-Ukraine	At 25, 26 years old, including several children, have been killed and 45 injured after India launched attacks on what it claimed were nine sites of "terrorist infrastructure" inside Pakistan, in a sharp escalation of hostilities between the two nuclear-armed neighbours.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-caught-off-guard-143904047	2025/05/07	political cesspool, international relations
Inside DeSantis "made-for-TV" fall in Florida	Political Cesspool	Pakistan declared the strikes to be an "act of war" and claimed it had shot down five Indian air force jets and a drone. "Pakistan gives a befitting reply to India," said the Pakistan government in a statement.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/06/pakistan-yows-to-ret	2025/05/07
Trump begins nominating judges	Political Cesspool	The dispute stems from the partition of colonial India in 1947, when small, semi-autonomous "princely states" across the subcontinent were being folded into India or Pakistan, and the local ruler chosen to be the part of India despite the fact that the ruler had a Ma majority.	https://www.axis.com/2025/05/07/trump-judge-nominations	2025/05/07
Meet the Florida group chipping away at public benefits one state at a time	Political Cesspool	Sudan's temporary capital city, Port Sudan, previously a safe haven during the country's two-year civil war, has come under attack for the first time by a series of drone strikes for consecutive days. The strikes, launched by the paramilitary Rapid Support Forces for the third day, attacked a terminal at the city's airport overnight on Tuesday. All flights have been grounded, local officials told NPR.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5386297/port-sudan-attacks-civil	2025/05/07
He probably should have charges brought against him, former general sounds off on Pete Hegseth	Political Cesspool	The strikes on Tuesday followed attacks on a military warehouse near the airport, civilian infrastructure and an oil depot on the southern outskirts of the city on Sunday and Monday, which sent vast plumes gushing into the sky.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/probably-charges-brought-against-him-21	2025/05/07
Karl Lake says OAN's far-right coverage will fuel Voice of America	Propaganda	The attacks on the wartime capital, where thousands have taken refuge, has caused shockwaves in Sudan and deepened its rift with the United Arab Emirates. Sudanese officials said the RSF attacks on Port Sudan were made possible by weapons supplied by the UAE, which has been widely accused by Sudan and others of arming the paramilitaries. The United Arab Emirates strongly denies this.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5387387/new-books-isabel-allen	2025/05/07
Women says Boston hotel guard told her to leave bathroom because she was a man	Rainbow Threats	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth reportedly blocked military aid fights to Ukraine within days after Donald Trump entered office without the administration knowing.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/06/boston-hotel-bathr	2025/05/07
What to do if you don't have a REAL ID yet, and which documents still work	Security	Nothing exemplifies DeSantis' striking loss of mojo in Tallahassee like the scandal surrounding Hope Florida, the state-backed charity of First Lady Casey DeSantis, who's been eyeing a bid to succeed her husband as governor.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/nx-1-5377933/real-id-qa-joe-travel	2025/05/07
Supreme Court upholds Trump's ban on transgender military members while appeals continue	Supreme Court	The high-level Republican drama, dysfunction, name-calling and accusations in Tallahassee are likely to reverberate in next year's state elections.	https://www.theguardian.com/technology/2025/may/07/amazon-makes	2025/05/07	rainbow threats
Amazon makes 'fundamental leap forward in robotics' with device having sense of touch	Technology-Robots	Polling suggests the scandal has hurt Casey DeSantis, who's been weighing a 2026 campaign to follow her term-limited husband as governor. Hope Florida was supposed to be central to her political platform.	https://www.axis.com/2025/05/07/trump-crypto-stablecoin-bill	2025/05/07	crypto, corruption, lies, unethical, presidential payment plan
Congress erupts over Trump's billion-dollar crypto deal	Trump Bullshit	Florida Attorney General James Iltis, who, up for reelection next year, also has been accused of wrongdoing by other Republicans. He was Ron DeSantis' chief of staff last year and ran an anti-marijuana political group that may have benefited from the alleged Medicaid switcheroo.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/05/07	corruption, presidential payment plan, crypto,
Trump's crypto dinner, where plates cost $1.5m, draws ethics concerns as president could make millions from meme coin	Trump Bullshit	The organization largely behind SNAP restriction legislation is the Foundation for Government Accountability, a conservative policy think tank in Florida, and its affiliated lobbying arm, which has used the name Opportunity Solutions Project.
		FCG's proposals often seek to limit who taps into that aid and the help they receive. Those backing the group's mission say the goal is to save tax dollars and help people lift themselves out of poverty. Critics argue that FGA's proposals are a backdoor way to cut off aid to people who need it and that making healthy food and health care more affordable is a better fit.
		Don't panic. The good news, Henderson said, is there's about a two-year "wiggle room period" that gives airports discretion, on a case-by-case basis, to subject travelers to additional screening instead of requiring a REAL ID. You could still be turned away, but systems are expected to allow passage with extra screening.
		The U.S. Supreme Court on Tuesday allowed the Trump administration to begin executing its ban on transgender military service members, at least for now. The justices blocked a lower court order that temporarily halted the ban's enforcement.
		The new policy mimics a previous transgender military ban established during the first Trump Administration. The Supreme Court allowed that controversial Trump policy to remain in place in 2019, but it was reversed by President Biden shortly after he took office.
		Amazon said it has made a "fundamental leap forward in robotics" after developing a robot with a sense of touch that will be capable of grabbing about three-quarters of the items in its vast warehouses.
		The robots will be able to identify objects by touch using AI to work out what they can and can't handle and figuring out how best to pick them up. They will work alongside humans who now stash and retrieve items from shelving units which are maneuvered to them at picking stations by wheeled robots — of which Amazon now has more than 750,000 in operation.
		A $2 billion crypto deal involving President Trump's family and a foreign government is threatening to derail bipartisan stablecoin legislation that Congress has been working on for months.
		Senate Democrats unveiled a sweeping new proposal Tuesday to ban presidents, lawmakers and their families from issuing, endorsing or sponsoring crypto assets. Axios' Stephen Neukam scooped.
		The new bill comes days after Senate Democrats suddenly voiced opposition to the GENIUS Act — landmark bipartisan legislation that would create the first-ever regulatory framework for stablecoins.
		Sen. Chris Murphy (D-Conn.) and Rep. Sam Liccardo (D-Calif.) introduced bills targeting Trump's multibillion-dollar meme coin, which Murphy called "the single most corrupt act ever committed by a president."
		President Donald Trump is expected to bring in millions of dollars over the next month as he hosts two cryptocurrency-focused, lucrative dinners — one of which costs a whopping $1.5 million to attend.
		On Monday evening, Trump will attend the "Crypto & AI Innovators Dinner," hosted by MAGA Inc., a super PAC that supports the president. The event, which costs $1.5 million per plate, will feature special guest David Sacks, NBC News reported.
		Though MAGA Inc. supports Trump, he is unable to run for a third term, so it's unclear where that funding will go.

		There is a cool folk etymology twist, a linguistic swoop, you might say, in English that is pertinent to this discussion, Zelenis says. When English mariners in the 1600s adopted the Spanish word alcatraz, they believed it to be influenced by the Latin albus, meaning whiteness — thus the word for the white seabird, the albatross, she says.
Word of the Week: Before the Birdman of Alcatraz, the island was known for its birds	Weird World	The rocky island is tiny, just 22.5 square acres. So when the federal penitentiary there opened its cell doors in 1934, there wasn't much room to house inmates. On average over its 29-year operation, Alcatraz held just 260 prisoners — less than 1% of the total federal inmate population at the time. But as a "horst of the worst" facility, it was infamous. Mob boss Al Capone and gangster Whitey Bulger did time there, as did George "Machine Gun" Kelly.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/07/mw-st-5389177/alcatraz-prison-island-4	2025/05/07
We're having sex inside Moby Dick! The wild architectural world of Japan's love hotels	Weird World	"I find love hotels culturally fascinating," says Prose, whose previous projects have included photographing the facades of strip clubs in the US and nightclubs in Ivory Coast. "Japan is generally a fairly conservative society, but these are places of escapism, fantasy and almost childlike wonder. And you find them everywhere."	https://www.theguardian.com/artanddesign/2025/may/05/japan-love-hv	2025/05/07
After leaving the wilderness for 580 days, Valeria is happier than ever. Was someone been feeding the mini dachshund?	Weird World	At Valeria is reunited with her owners, mystery remains over how the miniature dachshund braved more than 500 days in Kangaroo Island's rugged wilderness only to emerge healthy, happy — and larger than before.	https://www.theguardian.com/australia-news/2025/may/07/after-braving	2025/05/07
Kentucky boy uses mother's phone to order 70K Dum Dum suckers to share with his friends	Weird World	Holly LaFavers says she tried stopping 8-year-old Liam's Amazon order for about 70,000 Dum-Dum suckers before the treats arrived but it was too late. Amazon had already delivered 22 cases to her home.	https://apnews.com/article/followup-delivery-kentucky-home-71775d424	2025/05/07
Raccoon found 'playing' with meth pipe in driver's seat during Ohio traffic stop	Weird World	The real surprise came when they looked in her car and "observed a raccoon named 'Cewey' sitting in the driver's seat with a meth pipe in its mouth."	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/raccoon-r	2025/05/07
3 former Memphis police officers found not guilty in the death of Tyre Nichols	ACAB	A jury found three former Memphis, Tenn., police officers not guilty of all charges in the death of Tyre Nichols, including the most serious charge of second-degree murder.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/07/mw-st-5389488/three-memphis-police-off	2025/05/08
Federal judge temporarily blocks deportations to Libya	Borders and immigration	A total of five former officers were initially fired and charged with both federal and state crimes related to Nichols' death. Two pleaded guilty in federal court last year and testified against their former colleagues. Both Erinitt Martin and Desmond Mills also intend to plead guilty to state offenses.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/libya-deportation-immigration-trump	2025/05/08
Trump admin invokes "state secrets" privilege in Abrego Garcia case	Borders and immigration	This was the second time the three officers faced trial. Last fall, they were convicted in a separate federal case of witness tampering for misleading superiors about their actions. Bean and Smith were acquitted of violating Nichols' rights, but they were found guilty.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/07/abrego-garcia-trump-state-secrets	2025/05/08	trump bulshit
Federal court rules Rómeyga Ortiz must be transferred to detention in Vermont	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration can't immediately deport undocumented immigrants to Libya as it would "clearly violate" an earlier order blocking U.S. officials from sending people to countries they're not citizens of a federal judge ruled Wednesday.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/07/a-154729/federal-court-rules-student	2025/05/08
ICE departs Austin woman and her U.S. citizen children, immigrant advocates say	Borders and immigration	A federal appeals court in New York Wednesday ordered the Trump administration to transfer Rómeyga Ortiz, a Tufts University doctoral student, from Louisiana to Vermont to continue her immigration detention in that state while a judge there decides whether to release her on bail.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-deports-austin-woman-her-23022093	2025/05/08
Why Trump is pretending to not know how the Constitution works	Constitutional Crisis	Denisse Parra Vargas, 37, was detained a day earlier along with her 9-, 5-, and 4-year-old children after reporting to a Department of Homeland Security facility in Plummerville for a check-in, according to activist Sumia Franco with Austin-based Grassroots Leadership.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/why-trump-pretending-not-know-1210061	2025/05/08
Homicides in big cities kept declining in Q1 of 2025, stats show	Crime	Parra Vargas' two youngest two children were born and raised in Austin.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/07/homicides-cities-decline-2025	2025/05/08
In the wake of tariffs, cargo at the Port of LA is down 35%	Economy-Ports	The problem with all this Hegeshian warrior-speak is that they are not in a declared war or under a military invasion. Moreover, presidents and agency heads don't have the power to just proclaim one. Yet most of Trump's more controversial executive actions — especially when it comes to immigration — require the US to be on wartime footing because, outside of that dire context, they would be illegal, unconstitutional, or both. Even during wartime, things like kidnapping and extraordinary rendition violate U.S. law, the Geneva Conventions, and other international humanitarian treaties to which the U.S. is a signatory.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/07/mw-st-5389955/los-angeles-port-tariffs	2025/05/08
Trump administration says $3.3 million student loan borrowers will have wages garnished this summer	Economy-Student Loans	Trump, who struggles with even a basic understanding of middle school level English and history, apparently thinks that he can ex post facto incantate legalistic-sounding phrases like "wagegarnishing, attempting, or threatening an invasion or predatory incursion" and magically shoehorn his rushed and hushed detentions and deportations of migrants into a law meant for members of a hostile foreign nation during armed conflict.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-says-5-3-15315426	2025/05/08
The first boats carrying Chinese goods with 145% tariffs are arriving in LA. They're half-full. Expect shortages soon	Economy-Tariffs	Preliminary data show homicides in the nation's largest cities fell by 21% in the first three months of 2025 from the same period of last year, as overall violent crime continued its post-pandemic drop.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/first-boats-carrying-chinese-goods-15542	2025/05/08
Trump tariffs to hit small farms in Mega heartlands, hardest, analysis predicts	Economy-Tariffs	Each weekday morning outside the Dispatch Office of the International Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU) Local 13, dozens of dock workers gather, hoping to get some work at the vast ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach. Usually it's relatively easy to find — and workers are given a white slip of paper with details of where to go and when to show up.	https://www.the-guardian.com/us-news/2025/may/08/small-farms-trump	2025/05/08
US and UK are expected to announce a trade deal that Trump says will cement their relationship	Economy-Tariffs	But on Tuesday morning, many left empty-handed.	https://apnews.com/article/uk-trump-stormer-trade-deal-79d5f684dc	2025/05/08
Astonishing journeys: online tool tracking migratory animals highlights challenges of protecting them	Environment-Animals	"Less volume of cargo containers means less work for us," said longshore worker Charlie Camacho. His job typically consists of loading and unloading shipping containers. "So we feel it, we definitely feel it," he said.	https://www.the-guardian.com/environment/2025/may/08/astonishing-jo	2025/05/08
Coldest U.S. temperatures are rising	Environment-Climate change	Together these two ports comprise an extremely busy port complex — the Port of Los Angeles alone is the largest in the Western Hemisphere. But in the month or so since tariffs against Chinese goods ratcheted up — port officials here have been predicting a drop in cargo. This week, they announced it was down 35% compared to the same week last year.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/coldest-temperatures-rising	2025/05/08
US is pushing Starlink on nations facing tariffs as Musk stands to benefit from trade deals, report	Fuck that guy	The gainers and losers of Trump's first tariff war strongly suggest that bankruptcies and farm consolidation could surge during his second term, with major corporations best placed to benefit from his policies at the expense of independent farmers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-pushing-starlink-nations-facing-22402	2025/05/08
US lawmakers question Musk's dual role at SpaceX and government agency	Fuck that guy	New analyses by the non-profit research advocacy group Food and Water Watch (FWW), shared exclusively with the Guardian, shows that Trump's first-term tariffs were particularly devastating for farmers in the Mega rural heartlands.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-lawmakers-musks-dual-role-16180151	2025/05/08
Trump reportedly eyes $26m in funding cuts for US national parks	Government Funding	Farm bankruptcies surged by 24% from 2018 to 2019 — the highest number in almost a decade — as retaliatory tariffs cost US farmers a staggering $27.7n.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/mw-st-5389181/economists-trump-rese	2025/05/08

Duffy says he will have a plan this week to curb Newark Airport chaos	Government-DOT	The Transportation secretary outlined an overhaul for air traffic controllers Monday, days after Rep. Sam Graves (R-Mo.) released a budget reconciliation proposal that would allocate $15 billion for the modernization of air traffic control technology. Duffy told CNN that he also expanded the capacity for students at the main air traffic controller academy and all other controllers who stay on past their retirement date 20 percent bonuses up from per year.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/duffy-says-plan-week-curb-002815719.html	2025/05/08	FAA, aviation, new jersey, air traffic control, liberty international airport, EWR,
The FAA has had equipment issues for decades, causing real-world problems. The DOT says it wants to fix it	Government-DOT	The FAA announced Wednesday it would add three new, high-bandwidth, telecommunications connections and replace that copper wire with fiber-optic technology to bring data to the controllers. The Philadelphia Terminal Radar Approach Control will also have a temporary backup system deployed. Staffing will also be increased, the FAA added, and there is a "healthy pipeline" of training classes filed through next July.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/faq-had-equipment-issues-decades-0900	2025/05/08	FAA, Aviation, ATC, air traffic control, pilots, training, communications,
FDA names oncologist Dr. Vinay Prasad, a Covid vaccine critic, as the new vaccine chief	Government-FDA	The Food and Drug Administration on Tuesday named Dr. Vinay Prasad — a hematologist-oncologist who has been accused of spreading misinformation about Covid vaccines and was an outspoken critic of the agency's decision to approve Covid shots in children — as its new vaccine chief.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fda-names-oncologist-dr-vinay-21430156	2025/05/08	political cesspool, vaccines, information blackout, health
IRS workers forced into 'mandatory overtime' to deal with flagged returns after RODE cuts	Government-IRS	IRS staff have been told they must complete 16 hours of weekend overtime this month to help the agency process tax returns that have been flagged as containing possible errors.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/irs-staff-20250508	2025/05/08
Lawmakers want answers after reporting reveals crippling vacancies at hurricane-prone National Weather Service office	Government-NWS	Sent Monday by Houston-area Democratic Reps. Lizzie Fletcher, Al Green and Sylvia R. Garcia, the letter warns, "Adequate staffing for the NWS, especially as we go into hurricane season, is a critical matter that could cost lives if left unaddressed."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lawmakers-want-answers-reporting-reveals-20250508	2025/05/08
Trump accused of forcing 'hostile takeover' of USPS by pressuring them to appoint FedEx board member as postmaster general	Government-USPS	A major postal union is reacting with dismay to reports that the Trump administration is backing FedEx board member and former Waste Management CEO David Steiner to be appointed as the next postmaster general, comparing the choice to a "hostile takeover" of the historically independent mail service.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-usps-20250508	2025/05/08
How much you pay in taxes may show how high your cancer risk is. Here's why	Health-Economy	States with a higher amount of state-level tax income per person were found to have increased cancer screening rates and fewer deaths from the disease, they said this week. "These findings are in line with previous studies reporting that increased tax revenue and higher progressivity may lead to improved welfare and health care outcomes," the group from the surgery departments at Georgia's University of Emory, The Ohio State University, and Italy's University of Verona said.	https://www.yahoo.com/health/economy/paying-taxes-show-high-cancer-risk-174132555	2025/05/08	cancer, taxes, inequity, mortality, wealth
Scientists Warn of Fatal Fungus Similar to 'The Last of Us' Disease	Health-Environment	Researchers at the University of Manchester are sounding the alarm after analyzing the growth patterns of Aspergillus fumigatus, a mold that thrives in warm, humid environments. Their findings suggest that rising temperatures due to climate change could expand the fungus's habitat by 77% by 2100.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/scientists-warn-fatal-fungus-similar-0132	2025/05/08	warning, prediction, fungus, climate change, climate crisis
The emerging Trumpification of mental and behavioral health	Health-Mental health	"Aspergillus species cause severe infections in humans, livestock, and plants," Dr. Norman van Rhijn, lead author of the preprint study, told Sky News. "In 50 years, where things grow and what you get infected by is going to be completely different."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/scientists-warn-fatal-fungus-similar-0132	2025/05/08	warning, prediction, fungus, climate change, climate crisis
Tensions escalate as Pakistan calls India's operation 'an act of war'	International-India	The mass reduction in the Health and Human Services workforce "has the potential to jeopardize years of work and recent progress, like reducing overdose deaths," 12 mental health and substance use organizations wrote in a joint statement last month.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/05/07/india-s-5389777/tensions-escalate-as-pakistan-calls-indias-operation-an-act-of-war	2025/05/08
Judge blocks Trump administration from canceling COVID-related school aid	Judicial pushback	Although the mental health crisis comes under Kennedy's focus on chronic disease, advocates say the federal government's actions so far may do more harm than good.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-blocks-trump-administration-cancel-covid-related-school-aid-20250508	2025/05/08
RFK Jr. unveils autism project with Medicare, Medicaid, data	Nazi Checklist	What was formerly the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration has reportedly had its funding slashed and is being rolled into a new umbrella organization called the Administration for a Healthy America.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-unveils-autism-project-181906737.html	2025/05/08
Cheap and easy ways to stock your emergency go bag	Personal Interest	India hit multiple targets across Pakistan in the most widespread strikes in decades early Wednesday.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/05/07/rfk-jr-unveils-autism-project-181906737.html	2025/05/08
Here's the 2025 list of most endangered historic places in the U.S.	Personal Interest	Pakistani government called Wednesday's strikes as "an act of war." And according to The Associated Press, citing the Pakistani military, 31 people have been killed.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/05/07/rfk-jr-unveils-autism-project-181906737.html	2025/05/08
People Are Downgrading Their Smartphones For Less Screen Time — And Experts Have Thoughts	Personal Interest	The United Nations Secretary-General Antonio Guterres called for restraint from both countries. "The world cannot afford a military confrontation between India and Pakistan," he said in a statement.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/test-if-people-downgrading-smartphones-less-screen-time-20250508	2025/05/08
Love Groundhog Day and Russian Doll? These are the novels for you	Personal Interest	A federal judge in Manhattan blocked the Trump administration on Tuesday from canceling more than $1.1 billion in unpaid aid meant to help U.S. elementary and high schools address the long-term effects of the COVID-19 pandemic.	https://www.theguardian.com/books/2025/may/04/love-groundhog-day-russian-doll-novels	2025/05/08
Hard truths slam Mike Johnson on 'one big, beautiful bill'	Political Cesspool	Kennedy's rhetoric on autism has been derided by stakeholders as "incredibly misleading" and "harmful." An exact cause of the disorder is unknown. Though research has long suggested the condition stems from genetic factors possibly in combination with environmental and social determinants.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-conservatives-warned-again-wednesday-theyll-vote-no-without-at-least-2-trillion-in-cuts-the-biggest-target-is-medicare-20250508	2025/05/08
Trump says wellness influencer Casey Means for surgeon general	Political Cesspool	The research partnership will draw from CMS's Research Data Disclosure Program, looking at autism diagnosis trends over time, health outcomes from certain interventions, access to care disparities and the economic burden on families and the healthcare system.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-wellness-influencer-casey-means-for-surgeon-general-20250508	2025/05/08
Extent of Pete Hegseth's signal usage revealed as he used app to ask aides to relay military plans to other countries	Political Cesspool	It's no wonder that only about half of Americans say they've assembled or updated their stash of emergency supplies, according to a 2023 survey conducted by the Federal Emergency Management Agency. Those from socioeconomically disadvantaged backgrounds were less likely to be prepared.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/extent-pete-hegseth-signal-usage-15172	2025/05/08
NYPD arrests pro-Palestinian demonstrators after Columbia library protest	Protest	The National Trust for Historic Preservation announced Wednesday that the Mystery Castle is one of America's 11 most endangered historic places in 2025. "Across the United States, compelling, meaningful historic sites are at risk, whether from natural disasters, underutilization, neglect, or lack of awareness," a statement from the National Trust said. The group has been issuing an annual list of U.S. sites at risk since 1986.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nypd-arrests-pro-palestinian-demonstrators-after-columbia-library-protest-20250508	2025/05/08	ACAB
C-SPAN wants to broadcast Supreme Court arguments for the first time in this Trump case	Supreme Court	Next said it all comes down to how smartphone use interferes with your life. Ask yourself: Is it getting in the way of other activities that are important to you or your mental health? Is your smartphone interfering with time that could be spent getting together with friends or family, or focusing on physical health or even your sleep or diet?	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/c-span-20250508	2025/05/08
Big Tech's inauguration hangover	Trump Bulshit	It may sound extreme, but many consumers have found that downgrading their smartphone into something more limiting, like a flip phone, has helped them with focus, depression, anxiety and more. The tech may be old, but this trend is ramping up — interest as of late has risen with various YouTubers and Redditors frustrated with algorithms. You can now find newly made dumbphones, like the Light Phone and the aptly named Minimal phone, released within the last decade or so.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/big-techs-inauguration-hangover-20250508	2025/05/08
Trump's push against "anti-Christian bias" hits federal workers	Trump Bulshit	The test case is a sign that readers are "getting over their prejudices to discover how many amazing worlds there are out there." As she puts it, "so it is just shorthand for using certain tropes — like travel, rockets, apocalypse — to tell the kind of story you are telling: a love story or a story about sadness or loss. And some of those work very well but loads sink without trace." The vital ingredient, she argues, is quality: "If you do something brilliantly you can smash through people's genre walls."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-push-against-anti-christian-bias-federal-workers-20250508	2025/05/08	religion, separation of church and state,

		I want to draw attention to something maybe less obvious about what is wrong—what is missing—from the president's statement. The first is, as so often when Donald Trump talks about American military history, he emphasizes power and success and triumph and military genius, but always lacking is any mention of the values for which Americans fought. America didn't go into World War II—or even World War I—to be top nation, to beat and dominate others. It went to defend things that Americans regarded as precious, and not only Americans but others too—and one of the measures of how precious those values were, not only to Americans and to others, but to the world that has grown up as a result of the war. I want to start by raising a problem that you and I were talking about just before we began, which is: In the Trump era, there's just too much bad news to keep track of. There's one appalling incident after another. There's one absurd incident after another. One of the answers is that they all share an interest in stealing and hiding money and in helping one another evade the sanctions that have been set up to prevent them from doing that and in perpetuating not just their own power but their own wealth. And that's a—there is now a set of systems that exist, some of which are facilitated by the Western financial world, by the offshore banking havens that we've created, and the shell-company system that we created that helps people hide money. But it's the one thing that they have all in common, and it's the one thing that they all pursue. Austerity for these but not for me. As Donald Trump advises the American public on how to save some money — buy fewer dolls, five pencils max — to counteract the effects of tariff-induced price increases, he's making clear that cost-saving measures don't apply to his office decor budget. "You see the new and improved Oval Office," Trump said to Carney. "As it becomes more and more beautiful with love — you know we handle it with great love — and 24-karat gold, that always helps too." The bill was one of several passed in Arkansas creating new rules for efforts to get measures on the state ballot. The rules also require petition-signers to show a photo ID and confirm that they know fraud is a crime. And if they sign without doing any of this, the person collecting signatures could be charged with a crime. Two dozen states allow citizens to propose ballot measures, and Republican lawmakers in Arkansas and other states are now passing new restrictions that they say will combat fraud in the process. But opponents say these laws strip voters of a realistic way to address issues that their lawmakers won't address. The nation's last unsettled race from the 2024 general election has been decided. North Carolina Supreme Court Republican candidate Jefferson Griffin has conceded to incumbent Democratic Justice Allison Rogers. "We'll have a celebration close to 100 countries. We want them to come, we want them to celebrate, we want them to watch the game," Vance said. "But when the time is up, they'll have to go home, otherwise they'll have to talk to [Homeland Security] Secretary Noem." But lately, headlines have been treated to a beautiful marine life wonder: Hundreds of thousands of glittering Velella velella, also known as by-the-wind sailors, sea rafts, purple sails and little sails, have washed ashore up and down the California coast. The small creatures look like oval mini-sailboats that can grow up to 4 inches long. Their gelatinous bases can range in color from vibrant blue to deep purple, and they have transparent triangular "sails" on top. It's what allows them to be blown across the surface of the open sea where they typically live — and with strong enough winds, onto coastal sands. More than 20 years of data on superb starlings (Lamprolaima superba), analyzed by a team led by biologist Aileen Earl of Cornell University, reveals clear examples of respect helping offering assistance to unrelated members of the flock, with the expectation that the favor will be returned. A spokesperson for Duke Energy, which provides electric utilities to customers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, and other states, told local outlets WBTV, WSOX-TV, and CBS17 that a power outage occurred on Monday, May 5, due to a black snake that came into contact with equipment at a substation. — Nearly 10,000 people were affected, including Immanuel Holland, who told CBS 17 that he had "woke up in the pitch dark" and noticed the light come "back on" at around 1:30 a.m. At the time, Duke Energy noted that snakes are blamed for about 100 power outages yearly in the six states where the company operates, per UPI. A large rare carnivorous New Zealand snail has been filmed laying an egg from its neck for the first time, in a delightfully silly stop-motion video. A man was admitted to the World Expo in Japan using a ticket to the 1940 Grand International Exposition of Japan, an event that was called off as war escalated, organisers said. The rental platform notes that it contains "one-of-a-kind stays that offer completely immersive experiences" — and as our pick of the bunch below shows, it's a fair assessment. "I equate a good, A-level, traffic controller that can handle a place like Newark, JFK, LAX, San Francisco, to a three-dimensional-chess player who can juggle a chessman, an ace, a sword, a razor blade with his eyes closed," Aero Consulting Experts CEO and a former United pilot Ross Amer told Fortune. A 64-year-old grandmother in the U.S. without documentation is facing deportation after she mistakenly took the wrong exit on her way home from work. The Trump administration asked the Supreme Court on Thursday to allow it to revoke temporary legal status for more than 500,000 immigrants who were granted it by the Biden administration. Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem is seeking to end the Biden program that allowed 532,000 people from Cuba, Haiti, Nicaragua and Venezuela to live and work in the United States for up to two years. Massachusetts-based U.S. District Judge Indra Talwani ruled the administration could not sweep away each person's status without an individualized determination. Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem on Thursday openly flouted a Supreme Court order to facilitate the return of Kimar Alvargo Garcia to the U.S., insisting during a Senate committee hearing that there is "no scenario" in which the Maryland man will be in the country again. In a 9 decision, the Supreme Court last month ordered the Trump administration to immediately "facilitate" Alvargo Garcia's return and proceed with its case against him in the U.S., as he was never given due process, which is required by the Constitution. But the administration has been violating the court's order — which on Thursday Noem bizarrely said wasn't true, while also insisting Alvargo Garcia is never coming back to the U.S. House Republicans on Wednesday killed a measure that would have stopped ICE from being able to deport or detain U.S. citizens. The measure was originally an amendment introduced by Representative Pamela Aycock to President Trump's massive budget bill. Large institutional investors have massively increased their holdings of Trump Media and Technology Group (TMTG) in recent months according to SEC filings, with many enlarging their positions by hundreds of millions of dollars. The revelations raise further questions about big business's desire to curry favor with Donald Trump and his administration via the enterprises he has maintained or commenced. TMTG uses the Truth Social social media platform — on which the US president himself posts almost daily — as well as financial services and a film and TV streaming service. Critics say that the investments do not reflect any obvious improvement in the business prospects of the company, which lost more than $400 million in its 2024 first-half results. But U.K. imports will continue to carry a 10% tariff, up from a pre-Trump average of 1.3%. The president referred to that as the "lowest end" import tax. The British were perhaps the best positioned among major economies to reach a quick deal with the Trump administration. Things get harder from here, with bigger trading partners — China, Canada, and the European Union — facing deeper mutual hostility, bigger trade imbalances, and more complex disputes. The UK has a tip for allies angling for a trade deal with President Trump: turn on the charm offensive and say "no" nicely. It helps that the UK buys more U.S. goods than it sells, though that trade surplus did not spare it from the universal 10% tariff announced last month. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration will no longer track the cost of climate change-fueled weather disasters, including floods, heat waves, wildfires and more. It is the latest example of changes to the agency and the Trump administration limiting federal government resources on climate change. For decades, it has tracked hundreds of major events across the country, including destructive hurricanes, hail storms, droughts and freezes that have totaled trillions of dollars in damage. The database uniquely pulls information from the Federal Emergency Management Agency's assistance data, insurance organizations, state agencies and more to estimate overall losses from individual disasters. Thunderstorms that erupt and affect different portions of the central, southern and eastern United States have carried the risk of being severe into Saturday, AccuWeather meteorologists say. Next week, severe storms may mark an end to summertime heat over the northern Plains. The Trump administration had ended nearly $400 million in AmeriCorps grants, a sizable chunk of the agency's roughly billion dollar budget. A notice on April 25 said the grants no longer fit AmeriCorps' priorities, but offered no detail on why not. Some 32,000 people across the country — mostly young adults but also senior volunteers — have had to immediately stop their work in fields like disaster recovery, education, environmental stewardship and public health. Two legal challenges have been filed over AmeriCorps' dismantling, one by community organizations and the other by two dozen Democratic-led states. Like so many other lawsuits against the administration, they allege that President Trump does not have authority to gut an agency that was created and funded for decades by Congress. Trump administration funding cuts and a loss of federal workers who help support wildfire firefighting continues to make planning for the upcoming wildfire season a challenge, according to forest and fire officials in Washington state and Oregon. The biggest issue they're facing is a lack of communication from the federal government as the West faces "a pretty significant wildfire fire season," Washington State Forester George Gesseler said Thursday during a press conference hosted by Democratic Sens. Patty Murray of Washington and Jeff Merkley of Oregon. President Trump has fired Librarian of Congress Carla Hayden amid a purge of government employees he believes oppose his policies or promote diversity. Hayden won praise for her focus on saving photos and documents about people of color, but had faced criticism from conservatives, accusing her of promoting children's books with "radical" content. Hayden, whose 10-year term was set to expire next year, was the first woman and Black American to be the Librarian of Congress. She was only the 14th Librarian of Congress in history since the Library of Congress was established in 1800. Republican divisions over changes to Medicaid — the federal health care program for poor, elderly and disabled Americans — are becoming the chief hurdle to getting President Trump's major tax, immigration and energy agenda through Congress. GOP lawmakers who represent swing districts insist they will not vote for any proposal that ships benefits. But conservatives are demanding deep cuts in spending, and say restructuring Medicaid is one of the clearest ways to achieve that goal. Staff at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta are reeling after losing thousands of their colleagues since January, due to firings, reductions in force and buyouts. The administration has restricted communications with domestic and global partners, and put strict limits on buying supplies and hiring people. Programs and divisions including those dedicated to injury prevention, sexual, reproductive and oral health and workplace hazard reduction have been decimated or eliminated by recent budget and staffing cuts. "It's a five-alarm fire," says Dr. Anne Schuchat, a former acting director at CDC who retired in 2021 after working at the agency for 33 years. "The kinds of changes that are happening are going to take decades to recover from, and many people will die because of these interruptions." A national teachers' union and an activist group are calling for internal government investigations into "potential mismanagement and corruption" at the Department of Education and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau following their recent moves to roll back oversight of the $1.6 trillion student loan system.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/most-corrupt-presidency-american-history-18332409	2025/05/08
The Most Corrupt Presidency in American History	Trump Bulshit
Trump Brags About Gold-Plated Office While Telling Americans to Cut Expenses	Trump Bulshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-brags-gold-plated-office-18332409	2025/05/08
GOP-led states are passing new restrictions for voters to get issues on the ballot	Voting Fuckery		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-5392445/direct-democracy-ballot	2025/05/08
North Carolina Judge concedes in contested Supreme Court election	Voting Fuckery		https://www.yahoo.com/news/north-carolina-judge-concedes-contested-2025/05/08	2025/05/08
JD Vance jokes About Deporting Tourists Attending 2028 World Cup	VP WTF		https://www.yahoo.com/news/jd-vance-jokes-deporting-tourists-232436	2025/05/08
Glistening blue creatures are washing up on California beaches. Here's why	Weird World		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-5387739/velella-jellyfish-california	2025/05/08
Scientists Discover Wild Birds Behaving Suspiciously Like Friends	Weird World		https://www.yahoo.com/news/scientists-discover-wild-birds-behaving-11-2025/05/08	2025/05/08
One Snake Manages to Shut Off Power in North Carolina, Leaving 10,000 People in the Dark	Weird World		https://www.yahoo.com/news/one-snake-manages-shut-off-084000548	2025/05/08
Rare New Zealand snail filmed laying egg via its neck for first time	Weird World		https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/may/08/snail-laying-egg	2025/05/08
Man admitted to Japan's 2025 World Expo with 85-year-old ticket	Weird World		https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/08/japan-world-expo-2025	2025/05/08
A vacation in a flowerland... and a Chinook? 18 accessible US towns that make Airbnb's "most whilisted" ranking for 2023	Weird World		https://www.independent.co.uk/us/travel/tourism-whilisted-usa-vacation	2025/05/08
An air traffic controller at Newark is like 'a 3D-chess player who can juggle a chainsaw' with their eyes closed, ex-pilot says	Aviation		https://www.yahoo.com/news/air-traffic-controller-newark-3d-11270032	2025/05/09
Grandmother in U.S. without documentation faces deportation after wrong turn in San Diego	Borders and immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/news/undocumented-grandmother-faces-depor-2025/05/09	2025/05/09
Trump asks Supreme Court to revoke legal status of 500,000 immigrants	Borders and immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-asks-supreme-court-revoke-17450	2025/05/09
DHS Secretary Flouts SCOTUS Order, Says 'No Scenario' Where Alvargo Garcia Comes Back	Constitutional Crisis		https://www.yahoo.com/news/the-secretary-flouts-scotus-order-220657	2025/05/09
Republicans Kill Move to Stop ICE From Deporting U.S. Citizens	Constitutional Crisis		https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-kill-move-stop-ice-14101422	2025/05/09
Large investors increased stake in Trump Media by hundreds of millions	Corruption		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/08/trump-media-fmb	2025/05/09
The U.S.-U.K. deal shows the trade war is here to stay	Economy-Trade war		https://www.axes.com/2025/05/08/uk-trade-deal-trump-tariffs	2025/05/09
How to land a trade deal with Trump	Economy-Trade war		https://www.axes.com/2025/05/08/trump-trade-deals	2025/05/09
US will stop tracking the costs of extreme weather fueled by climate change	Environment-Climate crisis		https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-retires-database-tracking-billions-1821-2025/05/09	2025/05/09
Potent, locally damaging thunderstorms to hit multiple parts of US through Mother's Day	Environment-storms		https://www.yahoo.com/news/potent-locally-damaging-thunderstorms-h-2025/05/09	2025/05/09
Trump's gutting of AmeriCorps hits hand, for both volunteers and communities	Government-Funding		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5393188/trumps-gutting-of-ameri	2025/05/09
Forest and park service worker cuts leave wildfire, firefighting crews show staffed	Government-Funding		https://apnews.com/article/washington-oregon-wildland-wildfire-firefight-2025/05/09	2025/05/09
Trump fires Librarian of Congress Carla Hayden amid more worker purges	Government-Jobs		https://www.axes.com/2025/05/08/trump-fires-librarian-of-congress-car	2025/05/09
A fight over Medicaid cuts is threatening GOP plans for Trump's big, beautiful bill	Government-Budget		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5392357/republicans-medicaid-bi	2025/05/09
Former CDC staff warn of 'a five-alarm fire'	Government-CDC		https://www.npr.org/sections/health-shots/news/2025/05/08/nx-1-5391	2025/05/09
Union calls for investigation into 'potential mismanagement and corruption' at Department of Education	Government-DOE		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/union-calls-for-investigation-into-poten-2025/05/09	2025/05/09

Trump administration unveils a plan to modernize the air traffic control system	Government-DOT	Duffy was cagey about saying what this plan will cost. The House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee estimated last week that it might cost $12.5 billion to modernize the air traffic control system. Duffy said he estimates this project will cost more than that. The Modern Skies Coalition, a group of aviation industry experts, pilot association representatives and others, issued a statement saying they believe a minimum of $18.5 billion in additional emergency funding (on top of the $12.5 billion figure being floated) should be appropriated over the next three years. And that's in addition to FAA's annual technologies and facilities budget. The DOT is proposing to replace the existing decades-old telecommunications, radio and surveillance systems (which currently rely on things like copper wires and floppy disks) with modern technology. The plan also includes investing in new ground radar sensors on lighthouses and at airports, a new flight management system and some new air traffic control towers and other facilities.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-5397297/air-traffic-control-system	2025/05/09	FAA, aviation, ATC, air traffic control, updates.
Officials plan to revamp the US air traffic control system. Here's a breakdown by the numbers	Government-DOT	The plan calls for installing 4,600 high-speed network connections for data and communications across the air traffic control system at airports and radar control centers and other facilities across the country. The Federal Emergency Management Agency faced fresh upheaval Thursday just weeks before the start of hurricane season when the acting administrator was pushed out and replaced by another official from the Department of Homeland Security. The abrupt change came the day after Cameron Hamilton, a former Navy SEAL who held the job for the last few months, testified in Capitol Hill that he did not agree with proposals to dismantle an organization that helps plan for natural disasters and distributes financial assistance.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/air-traffic-control-system-replacement-plan-2	2025/05/09	aviation, FAA, ATC, air traffic control.
FEMA's acting administrator is replaced a day after congressional testimony	Government-FEMA	David Richardson, a former Marine Corps officer who served in Afghanistan, Iraq and Africa, will run FEMA for the time being. He does not appear to have any experience in managing natural disasters. He currently serves as the Department of Homeland Security's assistant secretary for countering weapons of mass destruction. Cutbacks have gutted the staff at the Great Lakes Environmental Research Laboratory, part of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Severe spending limits have made it difficult to purchase ordinary equipment for processing samples, such as filters and containers. Remaining staff plans to launch large data-collecting buoys into the water this week, but it's late for a field season that typically runs from April to October.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-65223/cameron-hamilton-fema-ac	2025/05/09
Millions of people depend on the Great Lakes' water supply. Trump decimated the lab protecting it.	Government-NOAA	Multiple people who have worked with the lab also told ProPublica that there are serious gaps in this year's monitoring of algal blooms, which are often caused by excess nutrient runoff from farms. Data generated by the lab's boats and buoys, and publicly shared, could be limited or interrupted, they said. That data has helped to successfully avoid a repeat of a 2014 crisis in Toledo, Ohio, when nearly half a million people were warned to not drink the water or even touch it. In a little more than 100 days, the Trump administration has upended the U.S. health care system. Americans love to hate, sparking turmoil and confusion. The Trump administration calls its sweeping changes a "critical course correction" to the way the nation delivers health care. But some people on the frontlines of the health care system — doctors and nurses, researchers, advocates and local officials — criticize the rapid-fire overhaul as "reckless" and say it will cost dollars and lives.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/millions-people-depend-great-lakes-1100	2025/05/09
Americans hate their health care system. Here's how Trump may be making it worse.	Health Care	Yet it can still get worse. Millions of people are likely to lose health insurance under policy changes and expected cuts to Medicaid and other programs. Tariffs are expected to push up drug prices. A healthy school lunch program was terminated. Critical research trials have already been canceled midstream. Although states will continue to address childhood lead poisoning, the federal workers they counted on for expertise have all been fired. And Trump's proposed fiscal year 2028 budget calls for a 37% cut to the National Institutes of Health, which includes the National Cancer Institute.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/americans-hate-health-care-system-1521	2025/05/09
Cancer before age 50 is increasing. A new study looks at which types	Health- Cancer	Cancer before age 50 is rare, but increasing, in the United States and researchers want to know why. A new government study provides the most complete picture yet of early-onset cancers, finding that the largest increases are in breast, colorectal, kidney and uterine cancers. Scientists from the National Cancer Institute looked at data that included more than 2 million cancers diagnosed in people 15 to 49 years old between 2010 and 2019.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cancer-age-50-increasing-study-1401387	2025/05/09
At least 216 children died in first high-severity US flu season in seven years, CDC says	Health- Flu	At least 216 children have died of influenza in the US during the last flu season in what the US Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) said was classified as the first high severity season overall and for all age groups since 2017-2018.	https://www.thequardian.com/us-news/2025/may/08/cdc-flu-deaths-children	2025/05/09
US infant mortality dropped in 2024. Experts partly credit RSV shots	Health- Vaccines	The nation's infant mortality rate dropped last year after two years of hovering at a late-pandemic plateau. Some experts think one reason for the drop could be a vaccination campaign against RSV, or respiratory syncytial virus, which is a common cause of cold-like symptoms that can be dangerous for infants.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/infant-mortality-cdc-8679443cc3d994b9a5d9	2025/05/09
Stockholm rejects 'bizarr' US letter urging city to scrap diversity initiatives	International Relations	A city official in Stockholm has said the municipality has no plans to comply after one of its offices received a letter seeking to impose Donald Trump's rollback of diversity measures, in what is believed to be the first such missive sent to a foreign government. "It's so bizarre," said Jan Valeskog, Stockholm's vice-mayor for planning. "It's our political priorities that count, not the ones from this embassy or any other embassies."	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/08/stockholm-rejects-us	2025/05/09
India and Pakistan trade attacks amid risk of war between nuclear states	International-India	Pakistan's army said it shot down 25 military drones that fanned over population centers — including the city that houses Pakistan's general army headquarters. Amid the tensions, the U.S. Consulate General in Lahore, Pakistan, directed its staff to shelter in place. Operations were suspended in Indian and Pakistani airports near their border. School was out in border areas of both Pakistan and India. Parents on one Pakistani WhatsApp group exchanged emergency checklists that included baby milk powder and coloring books to keep kids busy. "Stay calm, stay prepared. May we all remain safe," the list concluded.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-54955/india-pakistan-attacks	2025/05/09
Not taking India-Pakistan escalation seriously a 'huge risk,' warns conflict expert	International-India	One of the largest escalations in the decades-old conflict between nuclear-armed India and Pakistan is currently unfolding. An expert on the matter says that the world seems to not be taking it seriously. India struck multiple targets in Pakistan early Wednesday, which its military said were "terrorist infrastructure." The Indian government said the strikes were in response to an attack by gunmen that killed at least 26 tourists in India-administered Kashmir.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-538965/india-pakistan-conflict-4	2025/05/09	warning, prediction
Trump turns to Fox's Jeanine Pirro for D.C. attorney after cutting Ed Martin	Political-Cespool	The Pakistani government called India's strikes "an act of war." It said the strikes and subsequent shelling killed more than 30 people. The two countries have entered multiple military conflicts since 1947, when British-ruled India was divided. President Trump picked Fox News host Jeanine Pirro for interim U.S. Attorney for D.C., hours after pulling the nomination of Ed Martin, the president confirmed on Truth Social Thursday evening.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/trump-ed-martin-nomination-resign	2025/05/09
This Anti-Vaccine, Birth Control, And Autism Conspiracy Theorist May Be Our Next Surgeon General	Political-Cespool	Pirro is a longtime Trump ally who would replace Martin, a MAGA true believer whose tenacity toward Joe Biden voters lost him key Republican support in the Senate. Means also inked autism and vaccines when she appeared on The Joe Rogan Experience, saying, "It's like, yeah, I bet that one vaccine probably isn't causing autism. But what about the 20 that they're getting before 18 months?" In an Instagram post last year railing against sugar cereals, Means claimed that autism and other conditions are caused by "artificially colored, toxin infused, pesticide covered Frankentfood that's poisoning their poor little bodies."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/anti-vaccine-birth-control-autism-2252569	2025/05/09
Fetterman doubts explode into Capitol Hill firestorm	Politicians	She's called birth control a threat to women's "life-giving nature." Means heavily leaned into some of the anti-reproductive rights movement's rhetoric around birth control. She uses a "disorder of the blood" during an on-stage appearance on Tucker Carlson's show. Capitol Hill's private concerns over Fetterman exploded into public view over the past week, as longtime critics and former allies piled on with concerns about the senator.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/09/fetterman-health-votes-pennsylvania	2025/05/09
Pope Leo's tall task: Healing Catholic America's political divide	Politics-Religion	Since November, Fetterman has missed 55 floor votes in the Senate, according to GovTrack.us. He has missed 29 votes in 2025, the most of any senator. Fetterman's senior staff has built a bubble around him internally, sources told Axios, shielding the senator from interactions with junior staffers. Staffers also regularly lose track of and contact with Fetterman while on Capitol Hill, which alarms his inner circle.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/pope-leo-american-catholics-whites	2025/05/09
Meet Pope Leo XIV, the first American to serve as Bishop of Rome	Politics-Religion	The new pope has been an outspoken defender of migrant rights, and his family's immigration story touches an issue that has split many U.S. Catholics along cultural and political lines. The new pope said he does not believe in "defecting women" in the Catholic Church and strongly opposes abortion. He described in 2012 Western media "sympathy for beliefs and practices that are at odds with the Gospel," citing the "homosexual lifestyle" and "alternative families comprised of same-sex partners and their adopted children," per the Irish Times.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/pope-conclave-white-smoke-yaffan	2025/05/09
Hegseth moves to oust trans people from military after Supreme Court ruling	Rainbow-Threats	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth is moving rapidly to ban transgender troops from the U.S. military, giving active-duty service members on Thursday 30 days and reservists 60 days to voluntarily leave or be forced out. The order that follows a U.S. Supreme Court ruling on Tuesday enabling the Trump administration's ban to take effect impacts about 1,000 service members, per a Pentagon statement.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/trump-pentagon-trans-military-ban-h	2025/05/09
Josh Hawley Introduces Law To Ban Mailing Of Abortion Pills, Citing Junk Science Report	Reproductive Rights	Sen. Josh Hawley (R-Mo.) introduced a law on Tuesday to restrict the abortion pill mifepristone, citing an anti-abortion junk science report that has been making the rounds in conservative media. The "Restoring Safeguard for Dangerous Abortion Drugs Act" aims to restrict mifepristone by reinstating 2011 Food and Drug Administration rules around the medication. Those rules, loosened by the Biden and Obama administrations, would limit who can prescribe mifepristone and require in-person visits for abortion pills — effectively banning telemedicine for abortion, which now accounts for 20% of all abortions in the U.S. It would also mandate in-person follow-up visits and further limit how far into pregnancy mifepristone can be prescribed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/josh-hawley-introduces-law-ban-1653044	2025/05/09
RFK Jr. says autism database will use Medicare and Medicaid info	RFK JR BS	The National Institutes of Health will use information from federal health insurance programs Medicare and Medicaid to create a "real-world data platform" to determine the cause of autism, the agency announced this week. The Department of Health and Human Services said in a statement on Wednesday that the NIH would team up with the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) to create the database utilizing insurance claims, electronic medical records and data from wearable devices with health sensors, the site smatches.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/08/nx-1-5391310/kennedy-autism-regist	2025/05/09
Trump's internal millionaires' monologue	Trump Bullshit	President Trump has been negotiating with himself on a millionaires' tax. He's for it at the $2.5 million level, after being against it at $1 million. Negotiating with his own party may be easier. House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) will tell Trump on Friday that the House will deliver on the president's tax priorities, according to a congressional aide.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/08/trumps-millionaires-tax-rates-mike-j	2025/05/09
Donald Trump Plans to Rename Another Gulf in His Quest to Change U.S. Maps, Report	Trump Bullshit	The Associated Press reported on Wednesday, May 7, that two senior White House officials have confirmed that — during his upcoming trip to Saudi Arabia — Trump plans to announce that the U.S. will officially be updating its lexicon to call the Persian Gulf the "Arabian Gulf" or the "Gulf of Arabia."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-plans-rename-another-164	2025/05/09
Trump's Inevitable Betrayal of His Supporters	Trump Bullshit	Throughout his 2024 run, the president promised Americans a return to the prosperity of his pre-COVID first term. "Starting on day one, we will end inflation and make America affordable again, to bring down the prices of all goods," he told a Montana rally in August. "They'll come down, and they'll come down fast," he declared days later in North Carolina. But at the same time, Trump also promised to impose steep tariffs on consumer goods—dubbing tariff one of "the most beautiful words I've ever heard"—even though the levies would effectively serve as a tax on everyday Americans. These two pledges could not be reconciled, and once elected, Trump was forced to choose between them. The results have disillusioned many of those who voted for him. Trump's approval on the economy has plunged since he announced his "Liberation Day." A former strength has become a weakness. "If you look at his economic net approval rating in his first term, it was consistently above water," the CNN analyst Harry Enten noted last month. "It was one of his best issues, and now it's one of his worst issues."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-inevitable-betrayal-supporters-110	2025/05/09

		Donald Trump planning to pay $45 million to roll tanks down the streets of Washington, D.C. on his birthday. It was only a few months ago that the president signed an executive order creating a program to "beautify" Washington D.C. Now he's plotting to transform his expensive birthday parade into a demolition derby that will cause serious damage to the roads that line the nation's capital. The first time Trump pitched the idea of throwing a massive military parade in his honor was in 2018. At the time, plans to include tanks were ultimately scrapped over concerns they would damage the roads. A Pentagon planning memo said that the procession would "include wheeled vehicles only, no tanks" because "consideration must be given to minimize damage to local infrastructure."
Trump's Birthday Parade Is Cost Eyewatering. Amount—and Could Get Worse	Trump Bullshit	This time around, it seems similar considerations to preserve local infrastructure have been skipped. A panel of three federal judges says the Alabama Legislature intentionally drew its congressional district map to dilute Black voting strength, which is unconstitutional and violates the Voting Rights Act. The judges also said the state can't use the map in future elections.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-birthday-parade-cost-eyewatering-2250509.html	2025/05/09
Court rules Alabama redistricting intentionally discriminates against Black voters	Voting Fucker	The 571-page ruling issued Thursday comes in a lawsuit, Allen v. Milligan, that made it to the U.S. Supreme Court. The court agreed then that Alabama's 2021 congressional map discriminated against Black voters, in a state where African-Americans make up about a quarter of the population. The North Carolina elections board ousted its widely respected executive director Wednesday in a partisan move that will put Republicans in control of election operations in the police-swayed state, which includes the certification of results. The removal of Karen Brinson Beck, who had held the job for nearly six years during a time when the board had Democratic majorities, came after Republicans took away the authority to appoint election board members from the Democratic governor late last year, overriding a veto while they still held a supermajority in the legislature. GOP legislators handed that power to the elected state attorney, a Republican.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5392935/alabama-redistricting-d-2250509	2025/05/09 racism, inequity,
The election director in North Carolina, a key swing state, is ousted after a Republican power play	Voting Fucker	There is still no good explanation for why any of this happened. Memphis Police Chief C. J. Davis said that the officers appeared to have no reason to put Nichols over in a traffic stop. Yet as soon as they did, some of the officers drew weapons and began pepper-spraying and manhandling him. When he—understandably—tried to escape, police called for backup, gave chase, and eventually caught him. "I hope they stomp his ass," one officer, who did not chase Nichols and was not charged, was recorded saying. His fellow officers did, beating Nichols just yards from his mother's house. He died at a hospital. The verdict in Memphis shows what an outlier Chauvin's conviction was. Despite videos at least as horrifying, despite the police chief's quick action to fire the officers and condemn their behavior, these three former officers escaped murder convictions. Meanwhile, the changing political winds and rising violent crime after 2020 helped the movement toward broader reform stall out, both locally in Memphis and nationally.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/election-director-north-carolina-key-2017-2250509.html	2025/05/09
Tyre Nichols and the End of Police Reform	ACAB		https://www.theatlantic.com/newsletters/archive/2025/05/tyre-nichols-cr-2250509/	2025/05/12
Another Newark airport disruption as Trump's transportation secretary talks of reducing flights	Aviation	Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy says he plans to reduce the number of flights in and out of Newark's airport for the "next several weeks" as it struggles with radar outages and other issues, including another Sunday that again slowed air traffic. The Federal Aviation Administration reported a "telecommunications issue" as the latest setback Sunday, impacting a facility in Philadelphia that directs planes in and out of Newark airport. An FAA statement said the agency briefly slowed air traffic to and from the airport while ensuring "redundancies were working as designed" before normal operations resumed. Infrastructure issues are increasingly a key concern at airports around the country.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/transportation-secretary-sean-duffy-plans-2250509.html	2025/05/12
Air traffic controllers lose radar and radio contact with planes approaching and departing Newark for 90 seconds — again	Aviation	Air traffic controllers handling flights approaching and departing Newark Liberty International Airport experienced another outage early Friday morning. The blackout included losing radar for about 90 seconds at 3:55 a.m. local time, the Federal Aviation Administration said in a statement.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/air-traffic-controllers-lose-radar-16220317-2250509.html	2025/05/12
Mother's Day napalm as ground stops issued at Newark and Atlanta airports	Aviation	Ground stops issued at Newark Liberty International Airport and Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport on Sunday are impacting passengers if they were traveling into or out of two of the largest airports in the country on Mother's Day weekend. Duffy said upgrades to communication and technology are needed nationwide, along with six new air traffic control centers. To increase staff, he wants to raise the mandatory retirement age for air traffic controllers from 56 to 61 and offer a 20% bonus to keep working.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mothers-day-mayhem-ground-stops-1611-2250509.html	2025/05/12
"I'm concerned about the whole airspace" Transportation sec. says flight disruptions could spread	Aviation	The strategy runs counter to the gutting of the federal government the Trump administration has preferred. United Airlines CEO Scott Kirby told CBS' "Face the Nation" that FAA safety personnel have been protected from DOGE's churn. "Safety is number one, and so I'm not worried about safety. I am worried about customer delays and impacts," said Kirby, whose airline has reduced flights at Newark. The U.S. government has officially granted 50 Africans South Africans, white descendants of mainly Dutch colonizers, refugee status and they are expected to land in the U.S. on Monday May 12, three sources with knowledge of the matter have told NPR. The sources did not want to be named because they work for the U.S. government and fear for their careers. The sources said a press conference was planned for the group's arrival at Dulles airport, which would be attended by high level officials from the Departments of State and Homeland Security. The source noted it is unusual for refugees to be welcomed at the airport by U.S. dignitaries, and said the process of interviewing them in South Africa and granting them refugee status has been unusually quick. The South Africans will now have a pathway to U.S. citizenship and be eligible for government benefits.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/i-m-concerned-whole-airspace-transportation-2250509.html	2025/05/12
First Afrikans granted refugee status due to arrive in U.S.	Borders and Immigration	Private prison companies are indispensable to federal immigration authorities, who aim to double detention capacity to 100,000 beds. Now Immigration and Customs Enforcement, or ICE, is sending out calls for new contracts with private corrections companies, in many cases to use dormant detention centers. But many of these facilities had a history of serious issues. The Elbowah County Detention Center in Alabama closed due to unsanitary conditions for inmates. ICE is also eyeing FCI Dublin in the Bay Area, where reports of rampant sexual abuse gave the facility the grim moniker of "the rape club." Where proposals to reopen troubled prisons have surfaced, protests and legal challenges have followed. Local and state lawsuits are disrupting ICE's plan to reopen the Delaney Hall facility in New Jersey through a contract with another major private prison company, the GEO Group.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5381815/first-afrikans-granted-2250509/	2025/05/12
Cities aiming to thwart immigrant detention centers, wield a secret weapon: local laws	Borders and Immigration	A similar standoff is unfolding in Kansas. The city of Leavenworth argues that CoreCivic needs to follow a two-month long formal process, with multiple opportunities for public input, before it can reopen the prison. Amid a widespread crackdown on immigration and refugee programs, the Trump administration is slated to bring white South Africans to the U.S. as refugees on Monday, multiple news outlets reported. They will now have a pathway to American citizenship.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5392341/cities-thwart-immigrant-2250509/	2025/05/12
Trump to Bring White South Africans as Refugees to U.S. While Cutting Everyone Else Out	Borders and Immigration	The U.S. will give about 50 white South Africans help with housing, groceries, and other needs, according to a document reviewed by the Associated Press. The Trump administration could admit as many as 1,000 Afrikaners this year. They will be receiving emergency support from the federal Office of Refugee Resettlement, which is a division of the Department of Health and Human Services. More than 100 people have been taken into custody by federal immigration officials in a joint operation with the Tennessee Highway Patrol, leaving many in Nashville's immigrant community uncertain and worried. The operation with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement is a reminder of how local and state law enforcement jurisdictions are critical to President Donald Trump's plans for mass deportations. Last week, Florida officials touted a joint operation with ICE that resulted in 1,120 immigration arrests.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-bring-white-south-afrikans-011444-2250509.html	2025/05/12
Authorities arrest over 100 people on Tennessee roads, in support of Trump's deportation plan	Borders and Immigration	The Highway Patrol said Friday that it made 588 stops in the joint operation with ICE, which took custody of 103 under investigation for immigration violations. Michigan father and green card holder spent nearly two months detained in correctional facilities on deportation proceedings, after getting stopped by border patrol over a previous misdemeanor charge. An Immigration and Customs Enforcement agent pulled him aside at the Detroit Metro Airport and asked him about a 2018 charge for using marijuana. Her husband immigrated to the U.S. legally, married a U.S. citizen, and had been in the country for more than 20 years. Their children were born here. "I thought that we were safe," said Choquette in an interview.	https://gcnnews.com/articles/immigration-arrests-nashville-tce-kennecott-2250509/ https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/green-card-man-ru-2250509/	2025/05/12
Trump Ramps Up Deportation Efforts With Call for 20,000 More ICE Officers	Borders and Immigration	Not content with the current scale of harassment being unleashed on immigrants in the United States, President Donald Trump has ordered the Department of Homeland Security to increase the number of officers focused on deportation by a whopping 20,000. As the New York Times reports, it is not currently clear how the move, which would dramatically increase ICE's numbers from their current 6,000, would be funded. The MAGA movement is no longer just fighting for President Trump. His most fervent loyalists are now engaged in what they see as a battle for "Western civilization"—a rallying cry for the modern right. Critics say the Western civilization movement looks regressive and racist.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-ramps-deportation-efforts-call-028-2250509.html	2025/05/12 ACAB
Inside MAGA's fight for "Western civilization"	Cesepool-MAGA	Trump policy attacks on asylum-seeking immigrants, and on programs benefiting historically marginalized communities, help reinforce that image. The period of U.S. history the movement heralds included subjugation of women, segregation, and discrimination against nonwhites, both in the LGBTQ+ community and many others. Donald Trump's administration has decimated the "crown jewel" of the Department of Justice. Dozens of career officials working in the department's storied civil rights division have left in a mass exodus of prosecutors and staff.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/trump-maga-western-civilization	2025/05/12 MAGA, racism, bullshit, culture wars.
Trump is gutting civil rights enforcement — and blocking a key tool against discrimination	Civil Rights	Trump's new chief of the storied division, Harriet Drilhon, has recast the agency's mission into one that leans into the president's grievances and shifts its focus away from critical missions like police oversight, voting rights protections and combating racial discrimination. The three are among 61 defendants accused by Republican Georgia Attorney General Chris Carr of participating in a yearslong racketeering conspiracy to halt the construction of a police and firefighter training facility just outside Atlanta that critics pejoratively call "Cop City." Their cases are at a standoff, 20 months after being indicted under Georgia's Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations law, or RICO, which is likely the largest criminal racketeering case ever filed against protesters in U.S. history, experts say.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/civil-rights-trump-2250509.html	2025/05/12
Defendants in Georgia 'Cop City' case say they are in limbo as trial delays continue	Constitution-Speedy trial	White House deputy chief of staff Stephen Miller said Friday that the Trump administration is "actively looking at" suspending habeas corpus, the right of a person to challenge their detention in court. "First, you know, President Trump has talked about potentially suspending habeas corpus to take care of the illegal immigration problem. When could we see that happen in the future?" a reporter asked Miller as he spoke outside the White House. "The Constitution is clear, and that, of course, is the supreme law of the land, that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus can be suspended in time of invasion," Miller answered.	https://gcnnews.com/articles/cop-city-rico-charges-61-atlanta-beliefed1610	2025/05/12
The WH says Trump is considering suspending habeas corpus. What would that mean?	Constitutional Crisis	"So, it's an option we're actively looking at," he continued.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/wh-trump-suspending-habeas-corpus/	2025/05/12 borders and immigration, rights,

Donald Trump swore to protect the US constitution - here's all the times he's undermined it	Constitutional Crisis	Summary A House Democrat is seeking an investigation into reports that the Trump administration plans to accept a jet worth roughly $400 million from Qatar to serve as Air Force One — and President Trump's personal plane after he leaves office. ... Rep. Ritchie Torres (D-N.Y.) wrote to the U.S. Government Accountability Office, the acting Department of Defense inspector general and the Office of Government Ethics requesting a probe into the matter. "With an estimated value of $400 million, the aerial palace would constitute the most valuable gift ever conferred on a President by a foreign government," he wrote in a letter first obtained by Axios. Torres asked for an "immediate" ethics review of the reported gift and an advisory opinion on whether it violates federal ethics rules or the Emoluments Clause of the U.S. Constitution. In what may be the most valuable gift ever extended to the United States from a foreign government, the Trump administration is preparing to accept a super luxury Boeing 747-8 jumbo jet from the royal family of Qatar — a gift that is to be available for use by President Donald Trump as the new Air Force One just shortly before he leaves office, at which time ownership of the plane will be transferred to the Trump presidential library foundation, sources familiar with the proposed arrangement told ABC News. ... According to aviation industry experts, the estimated value of the aircraft Trump will inherit is about $400 million, and that's without the additional communications security equipment the Air Force will need to add to properly secure and outfit the plane in order to safely transport the commander in chief.	https://www.indy100.com/politics/trump/donald-trump-us-constitution-ar	2025/05/12
Scoop: Dem seeks probe into reports Qatar plans to gift plane to Trump	Corruption	Americans are reconsidering major life events including marriage, having children and buying a home amid economic anxiety in the opening months of the Trump presidency, according to an exclusive poll for the Guardian. Six in 10 Americans said the economy has affected at least one of their major life goals, according to the Harris poll, citing either lack of affordability or anxiety around the current economy. "I'm most worried about young people who are just going to be tremendously confused by the student loan system," he says, especially "given the complete disarray that we're seeing in public institutions these these days." This isn't a mess the current White House started. The roots of the problem started in 2020, when the government told borrowers they no longer had to make payments. The Biden administration extended that grace period for three years.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/trump-qatar-plane-democrat-torres	2025/05/12	Qatar, Trump Btuhsit, presidential payment plan, bribery, international relations
Trump administration poised to accept 'palace in the sky' as a gift for Trump from Qatar, Sources	Corruption	Americans are reconsidering major life events including marriage, having children and buying a home amid economic anxiety in the opening months of the Trump presidency, according to an exclusive poll for the Guardian. Six in 10 Americans said the economy has affected at least one of their major life goals, according to the Harris poll, citing either lack of affordability or anxiety around the current economy. "I'm most worried about young people who are just going to be tremendously confused by the student loan system," he says, especially "given the complete disarray that we're seeing in public institutions these these days." This isn't a mess the current White House started. The roots of the problem started in 2020, when the government told borrowers they no longer had to make payments. The Biden administration extended that grace period for three years.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-poised-accept-palac	2025/05/12
Americans putting life on hold amid economic anxiety under Trump, poll shows	Economy- Life	Americans are reconsidering major life events including marriage, having children and buying a home amid economic anxiety in the opening months of the Trump presidency, according to an exclusive poll for the Guardian. Six in 10 Americans said the economy has affected at least one of their major life goals, according to the Harris poll, citing either lack of affordability or anxiety around the current economy. "I'm most worried about young people who are just going to be tremendously confused by the student loan system," he says, especially "given the complete disarray that we're seeing in public institutions these these days." This isn't a mess the current White House started. The roots of the problem started in 2020, when the government told borrowers they no longer had to make payments. The Biden administration extended that grace period for three years.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025may12/americans-econom	2025/05/12
Why student loan debt collections could be more painful than anticipated	Economy- Student Loans	Getting out of this situation is going to be ugly for a lot of people at a not-great time for the economy — or higher education. Says Plakoski: "This is kind of the worst time to ask people to pay back debt."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/student-loan-collections-debt	2025/05/12
Lutnick says 15% tariffs here to stay, but insists consumers won't pay for it	Economy- Tariffs	Baseline global tariffs of 10% are likely to stay, Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick said Sunday — but he insisted countries and businesses, and not consumers, would pay. Economists generally disagree, and sentiment surveys say consumers don't believe it, either.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/trump-trade-war-lutnick-tariffs	2025/05/12
US and China announce agreement to cut reciprocal tariffs for 90 days	Economy- Trade war	The U.S. and China issued a joint statement on Monday announcing an agreement to cut reciprocal tariffs on 90% of goods, with both sides "recognizing the importance of a sustainable, long-term, and mutually beneficial economic and trade relationship."	https://abcnews.go.com/US/us-china-announce-deal-cut-reciprocal-tar	2025/05/12
Slightly unusual 'atmospheric river' event to hit Southeast U.S.	Environmen- Rain	A jet stream over the Gulf of Mexico will likely reach an area it doesn't typically hit: the Southeastern United States. Beginning this weekend into Monday and Tuesday, widespread rainfall across the region could result in 4 to 6 inches of rain, the National Weather Service said. Isolated spots are expected to see as much as 12 inches of rain. More than $220 million worth of contracts cancelled by Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) have been brought back. Forty-four of the government contracts ended by DOGE and Musk have been revived by federal agencies, according to a federal spending data review by The New York Times.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/10/mx-st-5394469atmospheric-river-sou	2025/05/12
More than $220 million in contracts canceled by Musk and DOGE have been brought back	Fuck that department	However, DOGE still lists 43 of those contracts on its website as having been terminated, and some were added after they had been restored. This led to several data errors on the site. Elon Musk's ever-slipping Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) now wants to consolidate the federal government's vast data reserves. They're currently siloed across government agencies, and DOGE wants to merge them into a sprawling centralized database. Unsurprisingly, security experts told The Washington Post that's a terrible idea. It's not hard to see why. China hasn't upped its hacking efforts just for kicks; data is incredibly powerful, and hacking groups and foreign adversaries are always trying to get their hands on sensitive information about American citizens and residents, lawmakers, agencies, and companies.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-m	2025/05/12
Elon Musk's Plan for Americans' Sensitive Data Has Security Experts Terrified	Fuck that guy	As conventional security wisdom goes, keeping that sensitive information in separate, protected piles across agencies not only makes it more difficult for hackers to find data, but if there's a breach, ensures that adversaries only get their hands on one small slice of a much bigger pie. A federal judge in San Francisco temporarily blocked the White House from firing hundreds of thousands of government employees in a ruling late Friday night.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musks-plan-americans-sensitive-da	2025/05/12
White House's large-scale firings paused by federal judge	Government Jobs	The ruling pauses for two weeks firings that would block critical services for millions of Americans, including Social Security help, occupational safety and pre-school for poor children. Data that employees of the Department of Veterans Affairs have shared with NPR shows that 11,273 agency employees nationwide have applied for deferred resignation, which the Trump administration is offering as part of its DOGE initiative to cut the VA's workforce by 15%.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/12/trump-doge-federal-workers-firings	2025/05/12	judicial pushback,
VA says its job cuts will limit doctor, nurse resignations	Government Jobs	Secretary of Veterans Affairs Doug Collins has been adamant that staff cuts will not affect veterans' health care. In a contentious Senate hearing Tuesday, he accused Democrats of name-dropping. Blumenthal responded that the secretary has failed to explain how he would reach his stated goal of reducing the VA to its 2019 size without affecting care.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/10/mx-st-5391962va-job-cuts-limit-doctor	2025/05/12
Hegseth sparks fears as he moves to ax generals	Government- DOD	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth's move to ax the size of the U.S. military's top ranks has triggered concerns of a political purge. Hegseth, who on Monday directed significant cuts to the U.S. military's senior-most positions, has already fired several top leaders with no explanation. But while it is true America's forces are brass-heavy — with 37 four-star generals and admirals and about 816 officers with one-star and above — experts worry any move to slash those numbers will be done indiscriminately and without care for the institutional knowledge at the top that could be lost. "We're very concerned, especially with this administration, that this could easily turn into political testing or otherwise clearing out the ranks for political reasons," said Greg Williams, the director of defense information at the nonprofit watchdog Project on Government Oversight. A growing number of red states have expanded their school voucher programs in recent years, a trend that is likely to only spike further amid a push led by President Donald Trump's administration to return education "back to the states."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-sparks-fears-moves-ax-210000	2025/05/12
Trump's dismantling of Education Department gives states 'green light' to pursue voucher programs	Government- DOE	"Many states came into this administration with a track record of trying to privatize education, and I think they see this move to dismantle and defund the Department of Ed and President Trump's support of school privatization as a green light to be more expansive in their approach moving forward," said safety Wehling, an economist at the left-leaning Economic Policy Institute who closely studies the impact of voucher programs on public education. The unprecedented plans, announced in a budget proposal for 2026, call for sites that receive "small numbers of mostly local visitors" to be handed over to state control and for a cut of some $1 billion from its $4.8 billion budget. "The National Park Service is protecting not only these really remarkable natural resources, but some of the most important cultural and historical resources as well," said one ranger who asked to remain anonymous.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-dismantling-education-department	2025/05/12
Rangers hit out at Trump's plans for National Parks. 'They're going to its said off'	Government- NPS	There are more than 430 national parks that span across 85 million acres, including every U.S. state and territory. Among that number are 76 national historical sites and 87 national monuments that include archeological sites and shorelines like the General National Sea Shore in Florida. Silicosis is typically caused by years of breathing in silica dust at work, and can worsen even after work exposures stop. In recent years, after decades of inaction, the federal government finally took several important steps to reduce the incidence of this ancient and debilitating disease. Under the Trump administration, all that progress is going away, in one example of the widespread destruction now taking place across the federal government. The 1970 law that established the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) also launched a scientific-research agency, the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), whose job included providing OSHA with recommendations for health standards. In 1974, NIOSH provided OSHA with strong evidence that its silica-exposure standard needed to be more stringent—that too many workers were being exposed to too much silica, and suffering greatly as a result. One of us, David, ran OSHA for more than seven years during the Obama administration. The other, Gregory, led the NIOSH Division of Respiratory Disease Studies for 15 years and served as deputy assistant secretary of labor in the Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA) for three years.)	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/national-parks-ar	2025/05/12
DOGE is Bringing Back a Deadly Disease	Health- air	Current treatments aim to suppress that response, but dialing down the entire immune system comes at a steep cost: it leaves patients vulnerable to other illnesses and often requires daily, invasive care. "This is the holy grail," says Northwestern University immunologist Stephen Miller. "We want to use a scalpel rather than a sledgehammer to treat these diseases." In 2023, Hubbell and his colleagues published a peer-reviewed paper in Nature showing that this method could halt the mouse version of multiple sclerosis (MS), a disease in which the immune system attacks nerve cells in the brain and body. Over the past eight months, Anokhin, the company started by Hubbell and others to commercialize their work, has announced successful early trials in humans in both optic disease and MS.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025-05-06/mouse-silicosis-preve	2025/05/12
'Inverse vaccines': the promise of a 'holy grail' treatment for autoimmune diseases	Health- Autoimmune disease	The U.S. Food and Drug Administration said Saturday that federal, state and local officials are investigating the outbreak linked to foods produced by Fresh & Ready Foods LLC of San Fernando, California. The FDA says the "10 people who fell ill were in California and Nevada, and required hospitalization."	https://www.theguardian.com/wellness/2025/may/11/autoimmune-disea	2025/05/12
At least 10 people sickened in US listeria outbreak linked to prepared foods	Health- Listeria	Cases of measles in the U.S. surpassed 1,000 for just the second time in 30 years this week. Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. still isn't taking it seriously. The deadly and fast-spreading outbreak that first started in western Texas in January has spread to at least 31 states, with 1,001 cases in total reported, according to Friday data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. ... "You are watching the gradual dissolution of the vaccine infrastructure in this country," Paul Offit, director of the Vaccine Education Center at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia, told The Washington Post. "The goal is to make vaccines less available and less affordable."	https://nprnews.com/article/listeria-outbreak-food-sick-ct-1d6d49f56762	2025/05/12
Measles Cases In The U.S. Just Hit 1,000. RFK Jr. Still Isn't Taking It Seriously.	Health- Measles	President Trump said he'll sign an executive order on Monday morning that would cut prescription drug and pharmaceutical prices "almost immediately, by 30% to 80%."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/measles-cases-u-just-hit-204142416.htm	2025/05/12
Trump says he'll sign order aimed at cutting drug prices by up to 80%	Health- Medication	It was not immediately clear how the order would work and whether it would apply to Medicare or Medicaid, and representatives for the Trump administration did not immediately respond to Axios's request for comment on Sunday evening. Agriculture Secretary Brooke Rollins announced the suspension of live cattle, horse and bison imports via the southern border "due to the continued and rapid northward spread" of New World Screwworm (NWS) in Mexico, effective immediately. Rollins noted on X: "The last time this devastating pest invaded America, it took 30 years for our cattle industry to recover. This cannot happen again." Driving the news: NWS was "recently detected in remote farms with minimal cattle movement as far north as Oaxaca and Veracruz" in Mexico, some 700 miles from the U.S. border, per the USDA. The first case was reported to the U.S. in November.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/trump-drug-prices-executive-order-g	2025/05/12	Economy
What to know about screwworm as U.S. suspends cattle imports from Mexico	Health- Parasite	The U.S.'s "import suspension will remain in effect" on a month-by-month basis, until a significant window of containment is achieved," according to the USDA statement.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/11/screwworm-us-suspends-cattle-hors	2025/05/12

More Than 70 People Infected with Parasite and 16 Hospitalized After Visiting Animal Farm	Health-Parasite	Public Health Wales announced that it has confirmed that 74 people have been infected with cryptosporidium — which is a microscopic parasite that causes diarrhea, per the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) — after visiting a Covidvillage farm. According to the CDC, the parasite can “live in water, food, soil, or on surfaces that have been contaminated with infected poop.” Public Health Wales said that cryptosporidium is “often associated with contact with animals, especially young farm animals such as calves and lambs.” For James Antaki, a biomedical engineering professor at Cornell University, the $5.7 million government grant meant babies would be saved. Awarded by the Department of Defense on March 30, it would allow his team at Cornell to ramp up production and testing of PediaFlow, a device that boosts blood flow in infants with heart defects.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-70-people-infected-parasite-203837	2025/05/12
Trump administration halts research to help babies with heart defects	Health-Research	The Defense Department sent Antaki a stop-work order on April 8 informing him that his team wouldn't get the money, intended to be distributed over four years. Three decades of research is now at risk, and Antaki said he has no idea why the government cut off funding. The Food and Drug administration has approved the U.S.'s first at-home alternative to the Pap smear, a procedure generations of women have dreaded and often found painful. The Test Wand — “built with empathy,” the company said — uses a swab to collect a vaginal sample. Women will then mail the sample to a lab that will screen for HPV (human papillomavirus), the virus that causes nearly all cervical cancers. A growing body of research has found HPV testing to be highly accurate. Test Health says its self-testing device will be available starting next month, in California first and then expanding. It will be by prescription, through a telehealth service, for women 25-65 years old who are “at average risk.” The company says it's working with insurance companies to provide coverage.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-halts-research-help-babies-with-heart-defects	2025/05/12
The FDA approves first U.S. at-home tool as a Pap-smear alternative	Health-Women's health	Democratic members of Congress who were part of a scuffle with law enforcement officers at an ICE facility in New Jersey may face arrests, the Department of Homeland Security confirmed to Axios Saturday. It would be a major escalation in the Trump administration's arrests of politicians and other public servants, including the mayor of Newark and a judge in Milwaukee. DHS is accusing the House Democrats of assaulting law enforcement. The lawmakers say they were the ones who were assaulted. President Trump's second choice for U.S. surgeon general has set off a wave of infighting within the Make America Healthy Again (MAHA) movement. Like Kennedy, Means has expressed skepticism about vaccines, promotes food as medicine and is critical of the current health care system. But the pick was unpopular with other health influencers aligned with Kennedy. “I can't help but think this is a very carefully groomed and selected person. Just about no clinical experience. Talks a great game about everything but vaccines. Feels all wrong,” said Suzanne Humphries, a medical researcher who, like Means, has appeared on Joe Rogan's podcast.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/10/nx-1-5394466-fda-cervical-cancer-scy	2025/05/12
Trump admin eyes arrests for House Dems over ICE incident	Nazi checklist	The backlash to her nomination reflects the broader tensions within the MAHA movement, as different factions vie for influence in the Trump administration. The surgeon general serves as the public health face of the administration and wields a powerful bully pulpit, but has little actual authority.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/10/trump-ice-arrest-house-democrats	2025/05/12	DHS, bulletins, ACAB, brown shirts, arrests, ICE, silence, dissent,
Trump's surgeon general pick exposes cracks in MAHA movement	Political Cesspool	Exacerbated by the turmoil that has dogged Pete Hegseth's office in recent weeks, the White House will block the US defense secretary's choice of chief of staff and select a candidate of its own, according to two people familiar with the matter.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-surgeon-general-pick-exposes-100	2025/05/12
Trump news at a glance: White House doesn't trust Hegseth to choose new chief of staff	Political Cesspool	The move to block Hegseth's choice at this juncture is unusual and reflects Donald Trump's intent to keep Hegseth by trying to insulate him from any new mistakes. Nearly four years ago in Texas, the state's new abortion law started getting in the way of basic miscarriage care. As women waited in hospitals cramping, fluid running down their legs, doctors told them they couldn't empty their uterus to guard against deadly complications. The state banned most abortions, even in pregnancies that were no longer viable, then, it added criminal penalties, threatening to imprison doctors for life and punish hospitals. The law had one exception, for a life-threatening emergency. Not every hospital tolerated this new normal. ProPublica found. A seismic split emerged in how medical institutions in the state's two largest metro areas treated miscarrying patients — and in how these women fared.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-news-glance-white-house-012408	2025/05/12	DOD, white house,
Under Texas' abortion ban, where a pregnant woman lives can determine her risk of developing sepsis	Reproductive Rights	“The MMR vaccine that we currently use has millions of particles that were created from aborted fetal tissue, millions of DNA fragments,” RFK Jr. told Fox News host Bret Baier in a report aired on Thursday. It's a wildly misleading statement. The rubella component of the MMR vaccine is grown in a lab-cultured cell line originally derived from fetal tissue in the 1960s, but no actual tissue cells are present in the vaccine. Trace DNA fragments are non-functional and regulated to be safe. Robert F Kennedy Jr., the US health secretary, has intimated that parents are to blame for their children's autism, and that they are responsible for researching every aspect of their children's lives that could affect their development.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/under-texas-abortion-ban-where-110050	2025/05/12
RFK Jr. Speaks Wild Anti-Vax Theories As Measles Cases Surge	RFK JR BS	In a recent interview with Dr Phil McGraw, Kennedy told parents to “do their own research” when it comes to vaccinating their kids, stating that scientists are still trying to understand whether the measles, mumps and rubella vaccine causes severe side effects like brain swelling (they know, it doesn't).	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-speaks-wild-anti-vax-04125896.html	2025/05/12
RFK Jr.'s autism comments place blame and shift research responsibility to parents, critics say	RFK JR BS	The Democratic members of an independent agency dedicated to protecting Americans from dangerous products and issuing recalls and safety warnings were fired by President Trump via an overnight email.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-autism-comments-place-11001038	2025/05/12
Trump fires all 6 Democrats on the Consumer Product Safety Commission	Trump Bulshit	The fringes at the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) came as consumer protection groups and lawmakers warn that Trump may be interested to dismantle the entire agency. During George W Bush's administration, a puppy given to the president by the leader of Bulgaria was sent directly to the National Archives which preserves government and historical records. The puppy was then placed with a family. Bush was unable to keep the dog because under the constitution's emoluments clause, government officials are barred from accepting gifts from any “king, prince, or foreign state”, without the approval of Congress. Trump officials reportedly believe the president might be able to keep the luxury alone because it will be transferred to his presidential library at the end of his term. Sources say they arrived at that conclusion after determining that the gift was not conditioned on any official act and therefore was not bribery.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/09/nx-1-5393174-trump-consumer-prod	2025/05/12
A bicycle, pencil sharpener, 300lb of raw meat: US presidential gifts and the rules governing them	Trump Bulshit	In 2023, the US House oversight committee reported 100 items given to Trump from foreign nations in his first term were missing, after the White House failed to log them. They included a lifetime painting of the president given by the president of El Salvador and golf clubs from the prime minister of Japan that were valued at more than $250,000 in total. A spokesperson for Trump said many of the items “were received either before or after the administration”	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/12/us-presidential-gifts	2025/05/12
Trump uses Supreme Court birthright citizenship case in bid to limit judges' power	US Citizens	How inclined the justices might be to do so could become apparent on May 15 when the court considers Trump's move to end automatic citizenship for children born in the United States regardless of whether their parents are citizens or permanent residents. The president hasn't asked the high court to consider the legality of his policy — which was called “blatantly unconstitutional” by the first judge to review it. Instead, Trump wants the justices to narrow the scope of multiple court orders keeping his new rules on hold until the citizenship policy has been fully adopted. The administration argues that, for now, Trump should be able to impose the change on everyone except the eighteen parents named in the lawsuits or, at most, any member of two immigrant rights groups or residents of a state that challenged the policy.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/birthright-citizenship-tests-supreme-court	2025/05/12
Fact Check, Yes, Oklahoma's new academic standards say to teach students 2020 election fraud myths as fact	Voting Fucker	Next school year, that thousands of high school students in Oklahoma will be required to learn about Trump's debunked claims that the 2020 election was tainted by fraud, said one X post by independent reporter Judd Legum. “The lesson will not be part of a course on conspiracy theories, but an official component of the new social studies curriculum.” Six people, including multiple public officials, have been arrested and charged as part of a long-running investigation into an alleged “vote harvesting” scheme in a rural Texas county against vulnerable seniors during 2022 and 2023 elections.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-yes-oklahoma-academic-130	2025/05/12	misinformation, fake news, lies,
Officials in rural Texas are accused of paying campaign worker who told elderly people how to vote, docs	Voting Fucker	Castillo, who died last year, allegedly prepared ballots for individuals, influenced their voting choices, and assisted individuals who were ineligible for such support under state voting law.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/officials-rural-texas-accused-paying-1604	2025/05/12
Sean Duffy blames Biden for Newark airport crisis, but also says it should've been fixed during Covid — when Trumps was in office	Aviation	Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy on Monday largely blamed a string of problems plaguing Newark Liberty International Airport and the larger flight system on the Biden administration — though he also seemed to accidentally indict Trump for not doing more. “We didn't have to be here. This did not have to be our story. Over the last four years, the last administration, they knew this was a problem,” Duffy added. “And by the way, during Covid, when people weren't flying, that was a perfect time to fix these problems.” In a striking move that ends a nearly four-decade-old relationship between the federal government and the Episcopal Church, the denomination announced on Monday that it is terminating its partnership with the government to resettle refugees, citing moral opposition to resettling white Afrikaners from South Africa who have been classified as refugees by President Trump's administration.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/sean-duffy-blames-biden-for-newark-airport-crisis-but-also-says-it-shouldve-been-fixed-during-covid-when-trumps-was-in-office	2025/05/13	DOT,ATC, Air traffic control, update, blame game
Episcopal Church refuses to resettle white Afrikaners, citing moral opposition	Borders and Immigration	“We are concerned that the U.S. Government has chosen to fast-track the admission of Afrikaners, while actively fighting court orders to provide life-saving resettlement to other refugee populations who are in desperate need of resettlement,” Rick Santorum, head of Church World Service, said in a statement last week. “By resettling this population, the Government is demonstrating that it still has the capacity to quickly screen, process, and depart refugees to the United States. It's time for the Administration to honor our nation's commitment to the thousands of refugee families it abandoned with its cruel and illegal executive order.”	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/12/pa-1-65888-episcopal-church-white-afri	2025/05/13	religion
Federal judge won't block Trump's plan to use IRS data to track down undocumented migrants	Borders and Immigration	A federal judge won't block a controversial Trump administration initiative to share highly sensitive taxpayer information with federal immigration authorities in hopes of tracking down undocumented immigrants and quickly deporting them out of the country. District Judge Dabney Friedrich on Monday rejected arguments from several immigrant-rights groups, that claimed the data-sharing agreement between the Internal Revenue Service and Immigration and Customs Enforcement violated taxpayer confidentiality laws.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-judge-won-t-block-2025101777	2025/05/13	Trump Bulshit, government, IRS
Multiple ICE impersonation arrests made during nationwide immigration crackdown	Cesspool	The decision is a victory for President Donald Trump and his immigration agenda. Trump administration officials argued that greater cooperation between the IRS and ICE will protect Americans by kicking out potentially dangerous immigrants who came to the country illegally. Authorities in at least three states have arrested individuals allegedly impersonating Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers at a time when real ICE agents have ramped up immigration enforcement efforts under the Trump administration, adding to existing fears of law enforcement among migrant communities.	https://www.cnn.com/2025/02/04/ice-impersonators-on-the-rise-arc	2025/05/13
Anti-Democratic, anti-trans Facebook posts of Pope Leo brother drew scrutiny	Cesspool	The disclosure that newly elected Pope Leo XIV has predicted that the Roman Catholic church's first-ever US-born leader will strive to be apolitical in his role — which, if that happens, would cut a stark contrast with the papal sibling's fierce support of far-right American politics. Facebook posts under the name of Louis Martin “Lou” Prevost, whose youngest brother, Robert Prevost, was recently picked to succeed the late Pope Francis, have come under scrutiny from journalists and social media users as the world seeks hints about what kind of relationship Leo may foster with Donald Trump.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/13/pope-leo-brother-face	2025/05/13
Donald Trump could remain in office after his term ends. Here's how	Constitutional Crisis	The most common tactic is for presidents to first ensure their political party in the legislature is fully subservient to them, and then leverage a loyal majority to amend the constitution — a move that has already been initiated in the U.S.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-t	2025/05/13
Trump says it would be “stupid” not to accept free jet from Qatar	Corruption	President Trump on Monday dismissed criticism of his plan to accept a $400 million jet from Qatar to serve as Air Force One, calling it “stupid” to turn down the gift. Pressed on ethical concerns around accepting the gift, the president rebuked an ABC reporter, saying, “You should be embarrassed asking that question.”	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/12/trump-qatar-jet-free-plane-air-force-	2025/05/13

		Trump said Monday that the plane isn't a gift to him, but to the Department of Defense. He added that it will be decommissioned after his term for his presidential library, and that he will not use it after leaving office. Richard Briffault, a Columbia Law School professor who specializes in government ethics, says that distinction doesn't matter. If the plane goes to Trump's presidential library after he leaves office, "then it's not really a gift to the United States at all."
Ethics experts worry about the implications of Trump accepting Qatar's luxury plane	Corruption	Briffault says accepting the plane would constitute a personal gift and a "pretty textbook case of a violation of the Emoluments Clause." Like other ethics experts, he worries it could lead to Trump feeling beholden to the Qatar government.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/12/trump-et-53395695/qatar-trump-plane-gift-4	2025/05/13
More than half of Americans are using layaway or buy-now-pay-later programs to cover everyday essentials	Economy-Essentials	A recent survey reveals that more than half of Americans are using layaway or buy-now-pay-later (BNPL) programs to cover everyday purchases, including groceries. According to a survey by New York-based marketing agency PartnerCentric.com, 52 percent of Americans now rely on installment-based payment services. As gold prices saw a record highs during global economic jitters, hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of gold are circulating through the doors of St. Vincent Jewelry Center in downtown Los Angeles on any given day. Many of the center's 500 independent tenants, which include jewelers, gold refiners and assayers, say they have never seen such a surge in customers.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/americans-are-using-layaway-to-buy-everyday-essentials-12345678901.html	2025/05/13
Economic jitters and soaring gold prices create a frenzy for US jewelry merchants	Economy-Gold	"They're melting things with their family's wedding dates and things from the 1800s," Kazanjian said.	https://apnews.com/article/gold-prices-high-lifts-economy-Rb4d6872-2025-05-12	2025/05/13
Newsom calls on California cities to ban homeless encampments 'without delay'	Economy-Housing	Govin Newsom has called on California cities and counties to clear and effectively ban encampments "without delay" as the governor intensifies a crackdown on homelessness in the state. Newsom on Monday announced a new model ordinance to address "persistent" camps, in hopes of reducing the most visible signs of a worsening crisis, as well as $3.3bn in voter-approved funding to increase housing and drug treatment programs. So much for taxing the rich: House Republicans late Sunday unveiled $880 billion in Medicaid cuts, the cost-saving center of their hotly anticipated tax legislation. The idea of taxing the rich seemed to be on the table last week, but there's no sign of it in the draft. It includes some goodies for the rich, as well as a few things that would benefit more modest earners, but those are temporary.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/12/newsom-california	2025/05/13
Who benefits from tax legislation so far	Economy-Taxes	President Trump has proposed eliminating taxes on tips, overtime pay and Social Security benefits. None of this is mentioned in the draft. When President Donald Trump launched his trade war on the world, he issued a stern warning: "Do not retaliate and you will be rewarded." China ignored the warning. It was rewarded anyway. This morning, Trump largely suspended his trade war in return for nothing but promises of ongoing concessions. There is a lesson here for everybody: Trump threatens, whether countries or businesses or universities.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/12/social-security-salt-tax-bill	2025/05/13
China Called Trump's Bluff	Economy-Trade war	Western North Carolina is again being targeted by hazardous rainfall that forecasters say is expected to lead to its "first noteworthy flood threat" since last September's deadly Hurricane Helene. This storm is not anticipated to be anywhere near the magnitude of Helene, but "it is the first noteworthy flooding threat in the area since Helene according to the National Weather Service," Mitchell County told residents. A flood watch is in effect near the Blue Ridge Encampment into Tuesday morning, according to the National Weather Service. Another flood watch was issued through early Tuesday in central North Carolina, bringing rainfall totals of two to four inches. Northeast South Carolina is set to get one to three inches by Tuesday. Southern California authorities conducted dozens of emergency rescues during an early-season rain heat wave over the weekend. ... "Over a dozen people have been rescued collectively," it wrote in a post on Facebook.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/china-called-trump-bluff-150210673.html	2025/05/13
Western North Carolina faces 'first noteworthy flooding threat' since Hurricane Helene	Environment-Flooding	The agency noted that it was 96 degrees Fahrenheit by mid-afternoon in the city of Aliso Viejo. The heat wave was swift, jumping to as many as 20 degrees above normal around Los Angeles County, according to the National Weather Service. More than 200 marine species, including deepwater sharks, leafy sea dragons and octopuses, have been killed by a toxic algal bloom that has been affecting South Australia's coastline since March. ... The OzFish South Australian project manager, Brad Martin, said the harmful bloom – of Karenia mikimotoi algae – was like a toxic blanket that smothered marine life. "It can suffocate fish from their gills, cause haemorrhaging by attacking their red blood cells, and act as a neurotoxin and attack the fish's nervous system and brain, causing unusual behaviour," he said. "This is why some fish and sharks are acting so strangely and why many of the dead have a red tinge – it is like a horror movie for fish."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/western-north-carolina-flooding-threat-12345678901.html	2025/05/13
Early season Southern California heat wave results in dozens of rescues	Environment-Heat wave	According to the state's environment department, the algal bloom was being driven by an ongoing marine heatwave – with water temperatures 2.5C hotter than usual – as well as relatively calm marine conditions with little wind and small swells.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/southern-california-heat-wave-12345678901.html	2025/05/13
'A horror movie': sharks and octopuses among 200 species killed by toxic algae off South Australia	Environment-Oceans	Republicans in the House of Representatives have passed their proposal to cut an estimated $715 billion in administrative costs. If it becomes law, the plan would result in 2.6 million more uninsured Americans in the next decade, according to an analysis by the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/may/13/a-horror-movie	2025/05/13
Making sense of the GOP's proposed Medicaid cuts, which could leave 3.6 million people uninsured	Government-Budget	The Trump administration is targeting climate technology that automatically turns a vehicle's engine off when it's stopped to save fuel. ... Stop-start systems eliminated nearly 10 million tons of greenhouse gas emissions annually as of 2023, according to the Battery Council International. The feature can generally be turned off at the press of a button.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/making-sense-of-the-gops-proposed-medicaid-cuts-12345678901.html	2025/05/13
EPA administrator targets stop-start vehicle tech: 'Everyone hates it'	Government-EPA	The feature can generally be turned off at the press of a button.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/12/epa-lee-yoblin-stop-start-vehicles	2025/05/13
Young boys wearing Minecraft and Star Wars pyjamas in armed standoff with police	Gun Culture	This is the moment two young boys wearing Minecraft and Star Wars pyjamas are in an armed standoff with police.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/boys-armed-police-stand-off-nc	2025/05/13
UN body rules Russia responsible for downing of flight MH17 promoting calls for compensation	International-Russia	The UN aviation council has ruled that Russia was responsible for the downing of a Malaysian airliner over Ukraine that killed all 288 passengers and crew, prompting calls for "reparations" for the families of victims. Flight MH17 was travelling from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur when it was shot down by a Russian surface-to-air missile while flying over eastern Ukraine in 2014 as fighting raged between pro-Russian separatists and Ukrainian forces. Among the victims were 196 Dutch citizens and 38 Australian citizens or residents.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/13/flight-mh17-russia-rules	2025/05/13
How a lone judge can block a Trump order nationwide – and why, from DACA to DOGE, the judicial check on presidents' power is shaping how the government works	Judicial-Putback	When presidents try to make big changes through executive orders, they often hit a roadblock: A single federal judge, whether located in Seattle or Miami or anywhere in between, can stop these policies across the entire country. This explains why the Trump administration recently asked the Supreme Court to limit judges' power to issue what legal experts call "nationwide preliminary injunctions." Congress also held hearings on curbing judges' ability to issue the injunctions.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/how-a-lone-judge-block-trump-order-202428807	2025/05/13
Cannes makes it official: No nudity on the red carpet	Personal interest	The Cannes Film Festival red carpet is perhaps the most rigidly controlled red carpet in the world. Now, the festival has added a new stipulation: no nudity.	https://apnews.com/article/cannes-nudity-red-carpet-2655d4d78da630f	2025/05/13	Fashion
The evolution of the bikini	Personal interest	Created almost 80 years ago, the bikini has been making waves as a summer essential since the 1940s. The White House is working to adopt policies to allow Americans to have more babies, even as it cuts back on federally funded day care. That's because they want a stronger family unit, which they argue comes from one parent staying home. Conservatives argue that they're not pushing mothers to leave the workforce, simply giving them a choice to work less if they want to do so. They note that a Gallup poll in March found that 60 percent of American women say that they would prefer to work part-time or stay at home. Thirty-seven percent of men said the same.	https://www.the-independent.com/life-style/fashion/brightle-bardot-camh	2025/05/13
It's not just more babies, Republicans are pushing idea: one parent should ditch work and stay at home with the kids	Political-Ceepool	The federal agency tasked with protecting workers' civil rights has moved to terminate a New York administrative judge who has resisted compliance with directives from the White House, including President Donald Trump's executive order decreeing male and female as two "immutable" sexes. Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s short time leading America's health agencies has already destabilized the uneasy alliance that vaulted him into President Trump's Cabinet. The anti-establishment takeover of Health and Human Services – a sprawling agency that accounts for the largest share of domestic federal spending – has become one of the most chaotic experiments of Trump's second term. HHS will be at the center of major policy debates over Medicaid cuts, abortion access, vaccine policy, medical research and the future of public health infrastructure. But the deep divisions within its Frankenstein coalition are threatening to tear MAHA apart before those battles can even begin.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/reputilly	2025/05/13
Civil rights agency moves to fire judge fighting Trump directives	Retaliation	The anti-establishment takeover of Health and Human Services – a sprawling agency that accounts for the largest share of domestic federal spending – has become one of the most chaotic experiments of Trump's second term. HHS will be at the center of major policy debates over Medicaid cuts, abortion access, vaccine policy, medical research and the future of public health infrastructure. But the deep divisions within its Frankenstein coalition are threatening to tear MAHA apart before those battles can even begin.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/civil-rights-agency-moves-fire-201119277	2025/05/13
MAHA's messy marriage	RFK JR BS	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. went swimming with his grandchildren in Rock Creek in Washington, D.C., even amid warnings that the waterway isn't safe for swimming because of high bacterial levels. ... "Swimming and wading are not allowed due to high bacteria levels," the National Park Service states on its website. "Stay out of the water to protect streambanks, plants, and animals and keep you and your family (including pets) safe from illness."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/12/rfk-jr-maha-casey-means-vaccines	2025/05/13
RFK Jr took his grandchildren for a dip in DC's Rock Creek – despite warnings that high bacteria levels make it unsafe	RFK JR BS	In addition to the high levels of bacteria, the waterway also has "other infectious pathogens," making swimming, wading, and any other water contact a "hazard" for humans and pets alike. From utility tax data to trace immigrants without legal status to threatening Harvard University's tax exemption, President Trump has been trying to use the IRS for his own political purposes, in ways that may seem unprecedented.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/rfk-jr-go	2025/05/13
Trump is looking to use the IRS for his own political ends, Nixon tried it too	Trump Bulshit	"One of the things that Nixon did consider was threatening the tax-exemptions of universities," says Joseph Thomdike, director of the Tax History Project at Tax Analysts. "And that sounds very familiar if you're reading the paper these days."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/12/trump-et-5375585/irs-harvard-trump-nixon	2025/05/13
Trump reportedly fires head of US copyright office after release of AI report	Trump Bulshit	The Trump administration reportedly fired the head of the US copyright office over the weekend – within hours of the dismissed official having published a report about how the development of artificial intelligence (AI) technology could run afoul of fair use law. Perlmutter took over the copyrights office in 2020, and some of her employees suspect her firing may stem from her recent report on how using copyrighted material to train AI tech could overstep laws governing fair use, according to the Post's reporting.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/12/trump-fires-copyright	2025/05/13
Is the Southern accent fixin' to disappear in parts of the US South?	Weird world	The Southern accent, which has many variations, is fading in some areas of the South as people migrate to the region from other parts of the U.S. and around the world. A series of research papers published in December documented the diminishment of the regional accent among Black residents of the Atlanta area, while working-class people in the New Orleans area and people who grew up in Raleigh, North Carolina. Why are birds exploding in Richmond, California? ... In one video, captured by a Ring security camera, a loud pop can be heard out of frame just before the lifeless body a bird falls to the ground. Residents have described the sound as reminiscent of a BB gun or a firecracker, and they told ABC 7 that they've been hearing the noise far too often for it to be coincidence. Resident Maximilian Bolling told ABC 7 he believes that problem may be the result of a missing protective seal or insulator on nearby power lines. He said he and other residents have voiced their concerns to PG&E, the regional power company, but said nothing has been done to address them so far.	https://apnews.com/article/migration-southern-accent-georgia-louisiana	2025/05/13
Mysterious exploding bird epidemic 'horrifying' Bay Area neighborhood	Weird world	During the Wednesday, May 7, concert of the band's MT2 World Tour, the heavy metal rock band saw a minor earthquake when performing their hit "Enter Sandman." The Lane Stadium show at Virginia Tech campus had over 60,000 fans in attendance, according to ABC 13 News.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/exploding-birds-by	2025/05/13
Metallica Causes Earthquake from 'Enter Sandman' Performance at Virginia Tech	Weird world		https://www.yahoo.com/entertainment/articles/metallica-causes-earthquake-12345678901.html	2025/05/13

As few as 3 radar controllers monitored Newark's airspace Monday night, FAA says Newark airport uses floppy discs for air traffic control and more terrifying facts about FAA's crumbling system	Aviation	On Monday evening, there were as few as three air traffic controllers at a Philadelphia radar center scheduled each hour to guide planes that were flying into and out of Newark Liberty International Airport, according to the Federal Aviation Administration. That's despite a target of 14 air traffic controllers for that time period, per an agreement between the FAA and the air traffic controllers union. The New York Times reported, NPR has not independently confirmed that report. The FAA did not reply to NPR's question about the agreement, but then did not reply to multiple requests to comment on the report.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5395838/newark-airport-three-r	2025/05/14
20 states sue Trump admin over immigration enforcement funding threats	Aviation	But behind the scenes, the technology that's keeping the planes in the sky is frighteningly out of date. Some of it relies on floppy discs and used parts sourced from eBay, federal officials said this week.	https://www.rj.com/bnews/2025/05/05/newark-airport-uses-floppy-discs-for	2025/05/14
In first, judge allows Trump to use Alien Enemies Act to deport Venezuelans	Borders and Immigration	A coalition of 20 Democratic attorneys general is suing President Trump's administration over threats to withhold billions of dollars in federal funding if they don't follow his immigration enforcement policies. California Attorney General Rob Bonta, who's leading the two lawsuits, said at a Tuesday briefing that threats to cut funds for emergency services and infrastructure maintenance represented "a blatantly illegal attempt to bully states" into enacting Trump's agenda. The Trump administration can invoke the Alien Enemies Act to deport alleged Tren de Aragua gang members, a federal judge ruled on Tuesday. U.S. District Judge Stephanie Haines is the first to approve the Trump administration's use of the 18th-century wartime law to quickly carry out deportations of alleged Venezuelan gang members to El Salvador.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/13/alien-enemies-act-judge-deport-deti	2025/05/14
Mexican security chief confirms cartel family members entered US in a deal with Trump administration	Borders and Immigration	Mexico's security chief confirmed Tuesday that 17 family members of cartel leaders crossed into the U.S. last week as part of a deal between a son of the former head of the Sinaloa Cartel and the Trump administration.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mexican-security-chief-confirms-cartel-22	2025/05/14
Trump repeats disputed claim that white farmers 'suffering genocide' in South Africa as first rednecks are flown in to US	Borders and Immigration	Violence against white farmers is not particularly widespread even by the admission of organizations led by Afrikaners dedicated to tracking farm attacks in South Africa, which suffers from a high rate of violent crime in general. White farmers own about 70 percent of commercial farmland in the country, despite making up a minority of the population. Fewer than 150 attacks involving farmers occurred during the entirety of 2023, according to the Afrikaner political group AfriForum. Numerous news reports and studies have found that despite a recent law being passed allowing the government to seize land in some cases without compensation, those land seizures have not actually taken place. AfriForum has vowed a legal fight in the country's court system if that program were to begin, but even advocates for Afrikaners have tempered their allegations and rhetoric beyond what the US president displayed on Monday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-repeats-disputed-claim-white-1520	2025/05/14	racism, making a point.
Police admit they mistakenly pulled over a college student. But she still faces deportation	Borders and Immigration	When police in Dalton, Georgia pulled over Ximena Arias-Cristobal, officers accused the 19-year-old college student of making an illegal right turn at a red light. She told officers she didn't have her international driver's license on her, according to a police report, and she was taken into custody. Then she was moved to an Immigration and Customs Enforcement detention center roughly four hours away, and now she faces the possibility of being removed from the country along with her family. But local police this week admitted the officers made a mistake. After a review of dash cam footage from the traffic stop on May 5, "it was determined that Ms. Arias-Cristobal's vehicle appeared similar to the offending vehicle but was not the vehicle that made an improper turn," according to a statement from the Dalton Police Department.
Multiple Trump White House officials have ties to antisemitic extremists	Ceaspool-Extremist	Police and prosecutors dismissed the charges against her, but Donald Trump's administration intends to remove her from the United States, where she has lived since she was four years old. NPR has identified three Trump officials with close ties to antisemitic extremists, including a man described by federal prosecutors as a "Nazi sympathizer," and a prominent Holocaust denier. "If the administration were serious about countering antisemitism, first and foremost they wouldn't be appointing people with antisemitic and other extremist ties to senior roles within the administration," Spitalnick said. Paul Ingrassia, currently serving as the White House liaison to the Department of Homeland Security, has ties to multiple figures widely known for promoting antisemitism. The "Tim" whom Ingrassia referenced is Timothy Hale-Cusaneil, who was convicted of multiple nonviolent offenses for storming the Capitol on Jan. 6 and was later pardoned by Trump. Federal prosecutors described Hale-Cusaneil as a "Nazi sympathizer" who once went to work at a naval weapons station with a "fitter mustache." He also recorded a lengthy antisemitic video rant in which he compared Orthodox Jews to a "plague of locusts." ... Before joining the Trump administration as the communications director for the White House Office of Management and Budget, Rachel Cauley served on the board of the Patriot Freedom Project. The nonprofit group was founded in direct response to the arrest of Hale-Cusaneil on Jan. 6 charges. ... Trump appointed conservative activist Ed Martin to multiple Department of Justice roles, after his nomination for U.S. attorney for the District of Columbia, failed. Martin's ties to Hale-Cusaneil played a key role in the collapse of his nomination to that role.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ximena	2025/05/14
Why aren't Americans filling the manufacturing jobs we already have?	Economy-Jobs	But there's something a bit weird undercutting this movement to restore factory jobs: American manufacturers say they are struggling to fill the jobs they already have. According to data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, there are nearly half a million open manufacturing jobs right now. Last year, the Manufacturing Institute, a nonprofit aimed at developing America's manufacturing workforce, and Deloitte, a consultancy firm, surveyed more than 200 manufacturing companies. More than 65% of the firms said recruiting and retaining workers was their No. 1 business challenge. Squeezed by insurers and middlemen, independent pharmacists such as Jolley find themselves on the front lines of a tariff storm. Nearly everyone down the line — drugmakers, pharmacies, wholesalers and middlemen — opposes most tariffs. Slashing drug imports could trigger widespread shortages, experts said, because of America's dependence on Chinese- and Indian-made chemical ingredients, which form the critical building blocks of many medicines. Industry officials caution that steep tariffs on raw materials and finished pharmaceuticals could make drugs more expensive.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5387299/trump-white-house-anti	2025/05/14
Pharmacists stockpile most common drugs on chance of targeted Trump tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	Ross had pulled two cargo containers of ships in China when the 145% tariffs took effect last month. Now she's trying to get as much merchandise to the U.S. as she can while the lower tariffs are in place. "Now it's going to be a rush because everybody wants it out in the next 90 days," Ross says. "What is going to happen to the freight rates?" Her sons were among approximately 150 students and 50 adults evacuated using 15 rescue boats Tuesday as heavy rains brought flooding to the region, the county's emergency services department said. Later this week, on May 15, the National Hurricane Center will begin issuing daily "tropical outlooks," highlighting areas showing potential for tropical development over the next seven days. A sprawling atmospheric river that hammered the Southeast with up to a foot of rain was sweeping through the Mid-Atlantic states Tuesday, driving multiple inches of rain and the threat of coastal flooding, forecasters said.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5395	2025/05/14	health, medication, cost,
First, relief. Then, a scramble to get shift in after U.S. cuts China tariffs for now	Economy-Tariffs	Three raging wildfires in northern Minnesota have forced evacuations and the deployment of members of the state's National Guard to battle the blazes. ... In Brainerd, the largest of the three wildfires, known as the Camp House fire, rapidly ballooned to 11,778 acres. The fire, which started on Sunday, has destroyed more than 40 structures and led dozens of people to evacuate. There were 80 people working to respond to the incident, and several local closures implemented. Fortunately, more reliable sources than DOGE's self-reported figures exist. The best is the Treasury Department's monthly accounting of spending by agency and program. Any true DOGE spending reductions should show up in these budget totals, as should the results of other White House initiatives, including cuts to public-health spending and the ongoing efforts to eliminate USAID and the Department of Education. ... These spending data do not flatter the Musk project. Total federal outlays in February and March were $80 billion (or 7 percent) higher than the levels from the same months a year ago, when adjusted for timing shifts. This spending growth—approximately $500 billion at an annualized rate—continues to be driven by the three-quarters of federal spending allocated to Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, defense, veterans' benefits, and interest costs. These massive expenses have been untouched by DOGE's focus on small but controversial targets such as DEI contracts and Politico subscriptions.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5395866/us-china-tariffs-trade-de	2025/05/14
200 rescued from Maryland elementary school using boats as flood waters started to reach the second floor National Hurricane Center tropical outlooks start soon. Here's why they're important to Florida	Environment-Flooding	Many of the contracts that DOGE canceled were reinstated almost immediately. The Environmental Protection Agency, for example, revived a contract just two and a half hours after Musk's team canceled it, the paper found. Others were brought back within days. The waste doesn't end there. Since the contracts are necessary, it puts the fired contractors in a stronger bargaining position when the government comes crawling back. In the case of the EPA contract, the agency agreed to pay $171,000 more than before the cancellation. In other words, these cuts are costing, not saving, the government money. Disability rights protesters in wheelchairs clashed with Republican lawmakers Tuesday as they sought to discuss and debate their sprawling legislation on Medicaid, which led to police dragging advocates out. Under the House Budget resolution that passed earlier this year, the House has to find $15 trillion in spending reductions to unlock $4.5 trillion worth of tax cuts. If Republicans fail to cut $2 trillion worth of spending, the amount of money left for tax cuts will be reduced by the difference between $2 trillion and the final number of savings. Republicans claimed throughout the hearing that the legislation would not hurt people with disabilities. Under the bill, able-bodied adults without dependents must engage in at least 80 hours of either work, community service or education to be eligible for Medicaid. As the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) makes sweeping demands on states and their contractors for the sensitive, personal data of tens of millions of food assistance recipients, one payment processor has so far signalled it intends to turn over data to the federal agency. Meanwhile, privacy and civil liberties advocates say the USDA's unprecedented demand for sensitive state data is unlawful, and warn the request through third-party contractors could be a new backdoor for the federal government to gain access to data traditionally maintained by states.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/200-rescued-maryland-elementary-school	2025/05/14
SEEK HIGHER GROUND NOW! Atmospheric river dumps up to a foot of rain on Southeast	Environment-Rain	As the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) makes sweeping demands on states and their contractors for the sensitive, personal data of tens of millions of food assistance recipients, one payment processor has so far signalled it intends to turn over data to the federal agency. Meanwhile, privacy and civil liberties advocates say the USDA's unprecedented demand for sensitive state data is unlawful, and warn the request through third-party contractors could be a new backdoor for the federal government to gain access to data traditionally maintained by states. Vaccine experts are perplexed by a project the Trump administration has launched to develop a universal flu vaccine, which has long been a goal, though an elusive one, in medical research. Dubbed Generation Good Standard, the project is aimed at creating a flu shot that doesn't have to be updated every year to match the latest strains of the virus. The project also aims to produce a vaccine that could protect people against other respiratory viruses that could cause a pandemic, such as bird flu and coronaviruses. "Generation Good Standard is a paradigm shift," said National Institutes of Health Director Jay Bhattacharya in a statement announcing the project. "It extends vaccine protection beyond strain-specific limits and prepares for flu virus threats—not just today's, but tomorrow's as well — using traditional vaccine technology brought into the 21st century."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/major-storm-dumps-foot-rain-12192320	2025/05/14
Minnesota wildfires explode over nearly 20,000 acres as National Guard responds	Environment-Wildfires	Under the leadership of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the Food and Drug Administration is seeking to remove prescription fluoride supplements for kids from the market. These are fluoride tablets, drops or lozenges that are recommended for kids who don't get fluoridated water to help prevent cavities.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/minnesota-wildfir	2025/05/14
The Actual Math Behind DOGE's Cuts	Fuck that department	Many of the contracts that DOGE canceled were reinstated almost immediately. The Environmental Protection Agency, for example, revived a contract just two and a half hours after Musk's team canceled it, the paper found. Others were brought back within days. The waste doesn't end there. Since the contracts are necessary, it puts the fired contractors in a stronger bargaining position when the government comes crawling back. In the case of the EPA contract, the agency agreed to pay $171,000 more than before the cancellation. In other words, these cuts are costing, not saving, the government money. Disability rights protesters in wheelchairs clashed with Republican lawmakers Tuesday as they sought to discuss and debate their sprawling legislation on Medicaid, which led to police dragging advocates out. Under the House Budget resolution that passed earlier this year, the House has to find $15 trillion in spending reductions to unlock $4.5 trillion worth of tax cuts. If Republicans fail to cut $2 trillion worth of spending, the amount of money left for tax cuts will be reduced by the difference between $2 trillion and the final number of savings. Republicans claimed throughout the hearing that the legislation would not hurt people with disabilities. Under the bill, able-bodied adults without dependents must engage in at least 80 hours of either work, community service or education to be eligible for Medicaid. As the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) makes sweeping demands on states and their contractors for the sensitive, personal data of tens of millions of food assistance recipients, one payment processor has so far signalled it intends to turn over data to the federal agency. Meanwhile, privacy and civil liberties advocates say the USDA's unprecedented demand for sensitive state data is unlawful, and warn the request through third-party contractors could be a new backdoor for the federal government to gain access to data traditionally maintained by states.	https://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2025/05/musk-doge-spend/	2025/05/14
Government Furiously Trying to Undo Elon Musk's Damage	Fuck that guy	Under the leadership of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the Food and Drug Administration is seeking to remove prescription fluoride supplements for kids from the market. These are fluoride tablets, drops or lozenges that are recommended for kids who don't get fluoridated water to help prevent cavities.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/government-furiously-trying-undo-elon-11	2025/05/14
Uproar as disability rights protesters in wheelchairs dragged out of House Medicaid meeting. 'You're going to kill me!'	Government-Disability	Vaccine experts are perplexed by a project the Trump administration has launched to develop a universal flu vaccine, which has long been a goal, though an elusive one, in medical research. Dubbed Generation Good Standard, the project is aimed at creating a flu shot that doesn't have to be updated every year to match the latest strains of the virus. The project also aims to produce a vaccine that could protect people against other respiratory viruses that could cause a pandemic, such as bird flu and coronaviruses. "Generation Good Standard is a paradigm shift," said National Institutes of Health Director Jay Bhattacharya in a statement announcing the project. "It extends vaccine protection beyond strain-specific limits and prepares for flu virus threats—not just today's, but tomorrow's as well — using traditional vaccine technology brought into the 21st century."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/sisab	2025/05/14
Privacy advocates urge states not to comply with USDA requests for food stamp data	Government-USDA	Under the leadership of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the Food and Drug Administration is seeking to remove prescription fluoride supplements for kids from the market. These are fluoride tablets, drops or lozenges that are recommended for kids who don't get fluoridated water to help prevent cavities.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5397208/doge-emp-usda-privac	2025/05/14	Privacy
Trump administration's universal flu vaccine project puzzles scientists	Health-Flu	Under the leadership of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the Food and Drug Administration is seeking to remove prescription fluoride supplements for kids from the market. These are fluoride tablets, drops or lozenges that are recommended for kids who don't get fluoridated water to help prevent cavities.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/05/13/mx-t1-5384	2025/05/14
FDA moves to ban fluoride supplements for kids, removing a key tool for dentists	Health-Teeth	Under the leadership of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the Food and Drug Administration is seeking to remove prescription fluoride supplements for kids from the market. These are fluoride tablets, drops or lozenges that are recommended for kids who don't get fluoridated water to help prevent cavities.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/05/13/mx-t1-86476	2025/05/14

		This is not a man who respects the rule of law, nor one who seeks to understand it. For the almost 250 years since the founding of this nation, America has been the beacon of freedom to the world because of its democracy and rule of law. Our system of checks and balances has been strained before, but democracy—government by the people—and the rule of law have always won the day. Until now, that is. America will never again be that same beacon to the world, because the president of the United States has subverted America's democracy and corrupted its rule of law. Until Trump exits public life altogether, it cannot be said either that America is a thriving democracy or that it has a government "of laws, not of men." History has already documented Trump's subversion of America's democracy through his attempt to overturn the results of the 2020 election, his emphatic and steadfast repudiation of the fact that he tried to steal the presidency from the American people, and his perverted denial that January 6 was one of the darkest days in American history. Now, in the first few months of his second administration, Trump has proved himself an existential threat to the rule of law in America.
THE END OF RULE OF LAW IN AMERICA	Constitutional Crisis		https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/law-america-trump-c/	2025/05/15
Republicans voice concern over Trump's support for a new Air Force One from Qatar	Corruption	Republican lawmakers are signalling growing concern over President Trump's openness to accepting a $400 million plane from Qatar to serve as the new Air Force One, an unprecedented move fraught with ethical and legal issues that is testing even his biggest loyalists. The chorus of reservations being expressed by Republican lawmakers represents a rare break with the president, who typically enjoys near total unanimity from the party.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/14/nx-1-5398059/trump-qatar-air-force-one/	2025/05/15
We restart life! Human composting to become legal in Georgia this summer	Death	A new law signed by Gov. Brian Kemp last week will make Georgia the next state in the nation to allow human composting — an eco-friendly alternative to traditional burial and cremation.	https://www.11alive.com/article/news/local/human-composting-new-law-georgia/	2025/05/15
Older people in crosshairs as government restarts Social Security garnishment on student loans	Economy-Student Loans	As the Trump administration resumes collections on defaulted student loans, a surprising possibility has been caught in the crosshairs: Hundreds of thousands of older Americans whose decades-old debts now put them at risk of having their Social Security checks garnished. "You are going to see a rash of ordering over the next 90 days the likes we've never seen before," said Peter Bockstar, chief investment officer at Dinkley Financial Group, in a note that began, "So, both sides luckily decided to save Christmas." To be sure, a 30% import tax on goods from China is historically high and prohibitive for many shippers, with some industry experts warning "we are not out of the woods yet." But for many businesses that have seen shipments dry up, paying a certain 30% is now less nerve-racking than holding out for a possible future drop.	https://apnews.com/article/student-loans-debt-social-security-67a3a50f-7b1d-4b1a-b8d1-9b1d4b1a-b8d1	2025/05/15
The U.S.-China detente could 'save Christmas,' but expect a rash of ordering the likes we've never seen before, economist says	Economy-Tariffs	"In addition to clearing inventory held back by the previous 145% tariff, many importers may choose to front-load shipments to avoid future uncertainty," Project44 wrote in a blog post. The Port of Seattle's commission vice president Ryan Galkins told CNN Wednesday "we anticipate that by mid-summer we are going to see a surge, and we will start up significantly... to make sure we can operate at full capacity to manage all that." Flexport, a logistics and freight forwarding broker, said Monday it was too early to predict the exact scale of the surge following the US-China announcement, but that they were anticipating a "boom" in bookings.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/u-s-china-detente-could-save-11070067/	2025/05/15
Tariffs devastated America's ports. Soon, they could face a surge from stockpiling	Economy-Tariffs		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/tariffs-devastated-americas-ports-soon-	2025/05/15
Wal-Mart warns that it has to raise prices starting this month as tariffs remain too high	Economy-Tariffs	Wal-Mart has warned customers that it will have to raise prices because of President Donald Trump's trade tariffs. The retailer's chief financial officer John David Rainey told CNBC that the tariffs are "still too high" and price hikes could come in toward the end of this month. Democrats are at war with themselves over their aging leadership, but many of the party's oldest members of Congress are still running for reelection in 2026. Axios has learned. ... Of the 30 House Democrats who are 75 or older, more than half told Axios they plan to run again in 2026. Rep. David Scott (D-Ga.), 79, who was ousted as the Agriculture Committee ranking member last year over concerns about his health, is running. So is Rep. Dwight Evans (D-Pa.), 70, who suffered a stroke last May that forced him to miss House votes the rest of the year. Rep. John Larson (D-Conn.), 76, who froze up during a House floor speech in February due to a partial seizure, "does intend to run for reelection," his spokesperson said. Hovis, who has since left Florida and is working to pay off his student loans despite never graduating, is one of more than 1,000 students or student groups that were targeted by their universities for punishment between 2020 and 2024 over their speech, according to a report published today by the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression (FIRE). Some 65% of them were ultimately punished.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/walmart-price-hike-	2025/05/15
More than 1,000 US students punished over speech since 2020, report finds	Free speech	The Trump administration official overseeing the Treasury Department's massive financial operations reported owning stock in many of the large banks and companies that do business with the department, according to disclosures obtained by POLITICO. Tom Krause, who is also the lead official for Treasury's DOGE team, reported hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of shares in a wide range of financial companies, including those that provide services to the unit Krause oversees. He and two other Treasury DOGE team members — Todd Newnam and Linda Whitbread — also reported owning shares of Intel, the parent company of TurboTax, which has lobbied heavily against IRS Direct File, a program targeted for elimination by Elon Musk and DOGE. Last year, 15 Democrats joined Republicans in the House to pass the anti-speech bill, which was originally intended to help clamp down on pro-Palestinian protesters, particularly those on college campuses. Even though the bill has languished since then, Trump has still attempted to target nonprofit institutions that refuse to kowtow to him, including institutions such as Harvard University. If the clause isn't excised from the final bill and passes, Trump can target any nonprofit that he and the Republicans don't like, whether they are focused on reproductive rights, climate change, refugees support, or anything else. The budget bill is going through the reconciliation process, meaning that it only requires a simple majority in the House and Senate to be passed. The House Energy and Commerce Committee was 16 hours into a nearly 27-hour markup when it became clear that too Republicans on the panel weren't clear on what her Medicaid provisions in the legislation they were actively debating would actually do. Couple that with confusion from moderates over the committee's complex and controversial proposal — including language to dramatically overhaul the popular health safety-net program with new requirements and cost-sharing mandates — and it spells possible troubles ahead for the domestic policy megabill central to enacting President Donald Trump's domestic agenda. "There were some items in there that, it was the first time we were hearing of them," GOP Rep. Ryan Mackenzie, who represents a competitive district in Pennsylvania he just flipped red, said in an interview. Frankly, I've never seen anything like this that served as a lead Democrat on this committee. Even when, madam secretary, my Republican colleagues and I had strong disagreements, we still have productive conversations and did our duty keep America safe. But that's not the case any longer, Thompson told Hoen, adding that he is glad that Neen "found time among your many photo ops and costume changes to testify." "On your watch, the department is breaking the law, it's hurting people, and it's making America less safe," he added. "The Trump administration is outright lying to the courts and the American people." The Environmental Protection Agency announced Wednesday that it is delaying the timeline for water utilities to comply with reducing some per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances, or PFAS chemicals, in drinking water — and reconsidering the allowable levels for others. PFAS are a class of thousands of chemicals that have been used for decades to waterproof and strengthen a variety of products including clothing, cosmetics, upholstery and firefighting foams. They're sometimes called "forever chemicals" because they contain strong molecular bonds that persist for decades. Long-term exposure to PFAS has been linked with harms to human health, such as certain cancers or damage to the liver and immune systems. The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, or NIOSH, was slated to lose at least 900 workers, which represents more than 30% of the entire agency workforce. But a federal lawsuit brought by a coal miner and a push among some members of Congress — including Republicans from West Virginia — appear to have prompted the Department of Health and Human Services to reinstate some critical programs. Altogether 328 employees at NIOSH were reinstated, according to Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy Jr., who was questioned about the layoffs during a congressional hearing on Wednesday. Following hundreds of layoffs ahead of the upcoming hurricane season, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and its National Weather Service are now reportedly scrambling to hire more employees. The NWS is hoping to fill 155 positions across the U.S., according to CNN. The network said the agency is offering reassignment opportunities for qualified NOAA employees who are currently working elsewhere, citing an agency-wide email and an anonymous NOAA employee. The agency acknowledged that "urgent action is needed to sustain mission-critical operations," according to a separate report from The Washington Post. The paper, also citing notices sent to employees, said the NWS is offering to even pay moving expenses. Public broadcasting officials from across the country plan to descend on Capitol Hill today in hopes of convincing lawmakers to preserve their federal funding despite pressure from President Trump and his allies. The lobbying effort follows a multipronged attack from the Trump administration on the finances and independence of public media, with a particular focus on PBS and NPR, the predominant national public television and radio networks, respectively. The Trump administration gave Iran a proposal for a nuclear deal during the fourth round of negotiations on Sunday, a U.S. official and two other sources with direct knowledge tell Axios. ... Wikifoff and other officials have given contrasting answers as to whether and to what extent Iran would be able to enrich uranium under a deal, so it's significant that his team laid out the U.S. position in writing. A senior adviser to Khamenei told NBC News Wednesday that Iran is prepared to sign a deal that allows it to enrich only to the lower levels needed for civilian uses and requires it to give up its stockpiles of highly enriched uranium — with inspectors verifying compliance — in exchange for lifting all sanctions.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/15/us-students-camp	2025/05/15
'Glaring red flag': Treasury DOGE team discloses bank stock holdings	Fuck that department		https://www.politico.com/news/2025/05/14/treasury-doge-disclosures-b	2025/05/15
Republicans Slip Nonprofit Killer Bill Into Budget Plan	Government-Funding		https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-sneak-plan-help-trump-1719-	2025/05/15
'First time we were hearing of them': The GOP megabill is packed with surprises for some Republicans	Government-Funding		https://www.yahoo.com/news/first-time-were-hearing-them-211508383-	2025/05/15
Democrats say it's a 'bad day for DHS' under Kristi Noem's leadership in fiery House hearing	Government-DHS		https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/house-democrats-afire-noem-spar-im/	2025/05/15
The Environmental Protection Agency delays limits on PFAS in drinking water	Government-EPA		https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/05/14/nx-1-5398	2025/05/15	Health, water.
Under pressure, HHS reinstates hundreds of occupational health workers	Government-NIOSH		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/14/nx-1-5398052/niosh-reinstates-occupa	2025/05/15
Understaffed National Weather Service reportedly trying to fill 155 jobs before next month's hurricane season	Government-NWS		https://www.yahoo.com/news/understaffed-national-weather-reportedly-	2025/05/15
Under attack, public media makes its case in Congress, and the courts	Information-Blackout		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/15/nx-1-5397865/cpb-trump-lawsuit-court/	2025/05/15
Scoop: U.S. presented Iran with nuclear deal proposal	International-Relations		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/iran-deal-proposal-wikifoff-enrichtrn	2025/05/15
Poland prepares for war	International-Poland		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/12/1250811372/poland-prepares-for-war	2025/05/15
React: Judge cites Trump immunity ruling as she seeks to dismiss indictment	Judicial-Punishback		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/wisconsin-judge-dugan-immigration	2025/05/15

		Air Force One is equipped with specialized systems and technologies that allow the president "to do everything from communicate with U.S. officials and military forces all over the globe," Aboulafia detailed. He added that the plane is also designed for "basically surviving a worst case scenario like a nuclear war, or to avoid an aggressive pursuer," making Air Force One "more survivable and far more capable than a traditional passenger jet". Accepting a plane from a foreign government risks the security of the president, Aboulafia says. These concerns include the possibility of listening devices being inserted on the plane, which can compromise the president's safety along with the American public's. Aboulafia says the only way to guarantee the gifted plane's trustworthiness is to completely strip the plane. But he believes that stripping the aircraft and reconfiguring it is a waste of time. President Trump is taking steps to clear the Republican primary field for Rep. Elise Stefanik to run for New York governor, bolstering an early once poised to serve in his administration. A pair of moves by Trump last week amount to a green light for Stefanik to jump into what early polls suggest could be a tight battle next year against New York Gov. Kathy Hochul (D). While Qatar may be getting the U.S. a $400 million Boeing 747-8 for President Donald Trump to use as Air Force One, Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem might be getting a plane, too, having put in a request for a new Gulfstream. The U.S. Coast Guard made a last-minute change to its 2025 budget to secure a $50 million new plane for Noem. Since abortion became nearly entirely illegal in Texas in 2021, the state has seen a significant rise in the number of women who die in pregnancy or after giving birth. A group of bipartisan lawmakers in the state wants to change that by clarifying the state's abortion ban with a new law. A central player in the effort has been Republican State Senator Bryan Hughes. Though he was one of the original sponsors of The Texas Heartbeat Act which outlawed abortion, Hughes is now leading an effort to make clear there is a narrow pathway to the procedure. Republicans stopped a Democratic filibuster with a rarely used parliamentary maneuver to pass a ballot item that would repeal protections for abortion rights that voters approved last year. Senate Republicans used what's known as the "previous question" to end a filibuster to counteract two measures Missouri voters backed last year. The first measure would repeal Amendment 3 and replace it with language to ban most abortions. The other repealed paid sick leave requirements in a measure known as Proposition A. Sen. Adam Schetterling's proposal, which will go to voters most likely in 2026, has exceptions for rape, incest and medical emergencies. In cases of rape and incest, abortions would have to be performed before the 12-week mark of pregnancy. It also includes language prohibiting gender-affirming care for minors, which is already barred for most transgender youth through a state law. Director of National Intelligence Tuli Gabbard has fired the National Intelligence Council's top two officials over what the Trump administration has called the "viticization of intelligence." Fox News Digital first reported Wednesday. The firing of acting NIC chair Mike Collins and his deputy, Maria Langen-Riehoff, comes after an intel report from the council last week contradicted an administration assertion linking Venezuela's Maduro regime to the criminal gang Tren de Aragua. Meantime nomination has received backlash from the medical community for not being grounded either in scientific consensus, while also getting slammed within the Make America Healthy Again movement for not questioning vaccines stringently enough. "For mees? Um, probably for mees," said Kennedy. In one of the few heilations of the hearing, "What I would say is my opinions about vaccines are irrelevant ... I don't want to seem like I'm being evasive, but I don't think people should be taking advice, medical advice, from me." The Justice Department will argue Thursday that lower courts should not be able to stand in the way of Trump's plan to end birthright citizenship — or other executive actions. Federal district courts have issued roughly 30 orders blocking the Trump administration from implementing major parts of its agenda. Three district courts have blocked Trump's executive order on birthright citizenship from taking effect. All three said their rulings applied not only to the specific cases before them, but to the entire policy nationwide. The Justice Department has asked the Supreme Court to limit the scope of those orders. The court hears oral arguments Thursday. An AI chatbot integrated into X (formerly Twitter) has begun to respond to users with unrelated, misleading claims about violence against white people in South Africa, users noticed this week. "He does all this, and it's kind of silence. It's not what I want," says David Price, a former senior State Department official under President Biden. "He has the ability to do things politically that previous presidents did not, because he has complete unquestioned authority over the Republican caucus." A House Democrat abruptly scrapped his plans to force a vote on impeaching President Trump, which was set to come to the House floor on Wednesday, three sources familiar with the matter told Axios. President Donald Trump is withholding federal funds from a program authorized by Congress during the Biden administration that provided digital skills and workforce training, along with high-speed internet access, to underserved areas, including rural and tribal areas. In announcing his plan to impound the funds authorized by the Digital Equity Act, Trump labeled the act "racist" and "unconstitutional." Ai Greg Sargent writes for The New Republic, Trump's not-nominal claims could "cut off millions" of dollars destined to reach many of his own voters, many of whom live in rural areas. Converting a luxury jet gifted by Qatar to President Donald Trump into a replacement for Air Force One could potentially cost hundreds of millions of dollars, and it could take up to two years to install the necessary security equipment, communications and defensive capabilities for it to be safely used by the commander in chief, current and former officials told CNN. The picture of Trump is reminiscent of portraits of leaders hanging from public buildings, often seen in dictatorships, monarchies, and in depictions in George Orwell's 1984 of "Big Brother." X users described the Trump installation as "fascist looking," having a "North Korean aesthetic," and giving off "Saddam Hussein vibes." On her first full day in office, Rollins rescinded all Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility (DEI) programs and celebrations, announced a reform of the bond stamp program to include work requirements, and implemented findings from the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) to optimize the USDA workforce and stop wasteful spending. As the Supreme Court takes up President Trump's push to end birthright citizenship today, a new NPR/pew poll finds that less than a third of all Americans want to drop the longstanding principle that any child born on U.S. soil is automatically a citizen, even as other parts of the White House's immigration crackdown draw wider support. But beneath the surface, there's a flurry of activity. Flamingos are far from passive feeders. They are busy stirring up the water, creating tiny underwater tornadoes to trap their prey. This behavior, observed in Chilean flamingos at the Nashville Zoo, has been the subject of extensive research by scientists from the University of California, Berkeley, in collaboration with teams from Georgia Institute of Technology, and Kenesaw State University. Lewis Pugh has followed an unspoken rule during his career as one of the world's most daring endurance swimmers: Don't talk about sharks. But he plans to break that this week on a swim around Martha's Vineyard, where "Jan's Jaws" was filmed 50 years ago. The incident allegedly took place on a private ranch in Sweet Grass County near the foothills of the Crazy Mountains, according to the Big Timber Pioneer, which first broke the story Tuesday. The news outlet says the incident was first reported by ranchers David and Sandy Holman, who called a neighboring rancher after seeing a Blackhawk helicopter landing conspicuously on a neighboring parcel. "Do you know there is an Army helicopter on your land picking up elk antlers?" the Holmans told the neighboring rancher, Linda McMullen, according to the Pioneer. McMullen, who said she knows how valuable elk antlers are, called a game warden with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks, and the agency has confirmed that it is actively investigating the situation. No citations or charges have been filed yet in Sweet Grass County Court, but the county sheriff speculated that trespassing and theft could theoretically be on the table. "It's not the usual trespass call," he told the Pioneer. "I've never seen anything like this before." Thirty-six deaths in police custody in Maryland should have been ruled homicides, according to an independent audit released Thursday by the Maryland Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. The investigation by a team of independent forensic pathologists reviewed 87 cases from 2003 through 2019 — the period when Fowler served as chief medical examiner — in which someone died while or shortly after being restrained, and in which the medical examiner said the cause of death was undetermined, accidental or natural. Those 87 cases included 22 from Baltimore City. The rest span 12 of Maryland's counties. Roughly 70% of the deceased were people of color. The Federal Aviation Administration is investigating a Monday failure of air traffic controllers' radio at Denver International Airport — one of the world's busiest airports, per an FAA statement. Around 1:50pm Monday, a segment of the Denver Air Route Traffic Control Center lost communications for approximately 90 seconds when both primary transmitters went down, the FAA confirmed Thursday in a statement to Axios Denver. Air traffic controllers switched to an alternate frequency to direct planes. The FAA said all aircraft remained safely separated and operations weren't affected. SAT, Denver7 reports as many as 20 aircraft flying toward DIA couldn't reach controllers for up to six minutes. Stewart is among multiple traffic controllers on trauma leave, including some who were shaken by the blackouts, which left them unable to talk to planes or see where they were located. "I don't want to be responsible for killing 400 people," he told the Journal. While the controllers who manage Newark's airspace are elite, they need more resources to be able to do their jobs, Stewart told the Journal. ICE used Ferreira Da Oliveira's loved ones to lure her out of her home — where agents couldn't arrest her — and onto Eureka Street, three people with direct knowledge of the matter and another source familiar with the situation tell Rolling Stone. Two of the sources independently say that ICE used the undocumented Brazilian woman's daughters and grandchild as "bait" in an operation that the Trump administration is now lauding as another victory in its sprawling, often lawless crackdown on both legal and illegal immigration. The Department of Homeland Security is asking the Pentagon to provide some 20,000 National Guard forces to assist in the removal of migrants in the United States without legal status. Under the proposal, state governors would be asked for volunteers among their Guard forces to take part in the removals. There's no word on when this would happen, or when the call would go out for volunteers. The veil comes after Trump cut all foreign assistance to the country and perjured false allegations that white South Africans are being subjected to a genocide, while granting them refugee status in the U.S. Although Trump has closed the door to asylum seekers from elsewhere, he's opened it up for white South Africans affected by the country's controversial new land reform law to counter the lingering effects of apartheid. South Africa's Expropriation Act allows the government to take some land and redistribute as part of a long-running effort to lessen the racial and economic disparities created by apartheid. Under apartheid, which ended in 1994, South Africa's white minority government prevented Black citizens from owning land or enjoying basic rights for nearly a half-century. Three decades later, South Africa's president and many other leaders are Black. However, white people make up 7.3% of South Africa's population and own 72% of the farmland, a disparity that continues to ripple through the economy. An international student in South Dakota, who earned two degrees and her fight against the Trump administration's attempt to deport her, has been granted injunction. Priya Saxena, who's from India, received a doctorate in chemical and biological engineering and a master's in chemical engineering from South Dakota School of Mines & Technology this past weekend. Just over a month ago, Saxena had been notified that her visa and status in the country had been revoked. Saxena's attorney, Jim Leach, told NBC News that her sole infraction was for a failure-to-yield to an emergency vehicle from four years ago, which he described as "the lowest possible traffic offense." The Department of Homeland Security is mulling over a reality television show in which immigrants would compete for U.S. citizenship.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/14/air-one-1-3396734-trump-qatar-plane-nato	2025/05/15
Trump accepting a plane from Qatar could be a national security risk, here's how	National Security		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/trump-stefanik-new-york-governor	2025/05/15
Trump clears path for Stefanik to run for NY governor	Political Cesspool		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/kristi-noem-air-force-one/	2025/05/15
New Kristi Noem wants her own pricey new private jet for Homeland Security	Political Cesspool		https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/05/15/nrx-ai-1-5395	2025/05/15
A Texas abortion ban sponsor aims to clarify when doctors can do the procedure	Reproductive Rights		https://www.afipr.org/government-politics/issues/2025-05-14/missouri-r	2025/05/15
Republican legislators approve ballot item that would again ban most abortions in Missouri	Reproductive Rights		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/gabbard-fires-intelligence-officials-v	2025/05/15	political cesspool
Gabbard fires National Intelligence Council officials, after Venezuela report	Retaliation		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/trump-influencer-surgeon-general-c	2025/05/15
Influencer pick for surgeon general marks new era in health messaging	RFK JR BS		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/14/rfk-jr-kennedy-sen	2025/05/15
RFK Jr tells Congress 'people shouldn't take medical advice from me'	RFK JR BS		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/supreme-court-trump-birthright-citiz	2025/05/15	political cesspool, racism, lies, fuck that guy, misinformation
Supreme Court weighs judges' power over Trump Musk's Grok makes "white genocide" claims on X about South Africans	Supreme Court	Technology: AI	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/14/musk-grok-white-genocide-south-afr	2025/05/15
Biden officials "awed" by Trump's rule-breaking Middle East moves	Trump Bulshit		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/trump-israel-eyra-policy-revenue-bid	2025/05/15
House punts on Trump impeachment vote at 11th hour	Trump Bulshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/crying-racism-trump-seizes-federal-2025-202505151811	2025/05/15	infrastructure, internet,
Crying racism, Trump seizes federal money meant to expand rural internet access	Trump Bulshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/converting-luxury-jet-ai-flied-trump-215811	2025/05/15	security, qatar, bribe,
Converting luxury jet gifted to Trump into Air Force One could cost hundreds of millions	Trump Bulshit		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-t	2025/05/15
'Dready creepy': Enormous breeding banner of Trump, now hangs next to Lincoln outside Department of Agriculture	Trump Bulshit		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/15/g-1-569633majority-of-americans-opp	2025/05/15
Majority of Americans oppose ending birthright citizenship, NPR/pew poll finds	US Citizens		https://www.earth.com/news/could-ever-guest-what-flamingos-are-do-i	2025/05/15
You'll never guess what flamingos are doing with their feet in the water	Weird world		https://apnews.com/article/jane-sharks-mak-martha-vineyard-swim-lewis-p	2025/05/16
Endurance swimmer to attempt first-ever swim around Martha's Vineyard ahead of 'Jaws' anniversary	Weird world		https://www.yahoo.com/news/montana-national-guard-under-investigati	2025/05/15
Montana National Guard Under Investigation After Allegedly Using a Helicopter to Steal Shed Antlers	WTF?		https://www.wypr.org/wypr-news/2025-05-15/98-in-custody-deaths-in-tr	2025/05/16
36 in custody deaths in Maryland should have been ruled homicides, audit finds	ACAB		https://www.axios.com/local/denver/2025/05/15/faq-radio-outage-denve	2025/05/16
FAA investigating Denver radio outage amid Newark problems	Aviation		https://www.yahoo.com/news/wsj-veteran-air-traffic-controller-04514686	2025/05/16
WSJ: Veteran air-traffic controller speaks out about staffing and tech problems amid blackouts and delays at Newark airport	Aviation		https://uk-news.yahoo.com/trump-used-woman-kids-22105803110	2025/05/16
Trump's ICE Used a Woman's Kids and Grandchild as 'Bait' to Arrest Her	Borders and Immigration		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/15/nrx-ai-1-5396565national-guard-immigr	2025/05/16	Constitutional Crisis
DHS asks for 20,000 National Guard troops to assist in deportations	Borders and Immigration		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/south-africa-president-meeting-trum	2025/05/16	Trump Bulshit, racism, refugees
How false "white genocide" claims became central to Trump's view of South Africa	Borders and Immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/news/student-earned-ph-d-while-183708161a	2025/05/16
Student who earned Ph.D. while DHS tried to deport her, over minor traffic violation is granted injunction	Borders and Immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/entertainment/articles/dhs-considering-reality-s	2025/05/16
DHS Is Considering A Reality Show Where Immigrants Compete For Citizenship	Borders and Immigration

Kid Rock's Restaurant Closes to Avoid Trump's ICE Raids	Borders and Immigration	A Nashville restaurant owned by MAGA musician Kid Rock reportedly closed over the weekend to avoid the Trump administration's ICE raids. Nashville Scene reported that Kid Rock's Big A—Honky Tonk Rock N' Roll Steakhouse in Tennessee shuttered after employees unauthorized to work in the U.S. failed to show up for work on Saturday and those that had turned up were told any undocumented workers should leave the premises to avoid being caught by ICE.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kid-rock-restaurant-closes-avoid-1768368	2025/05/16
House Democrat: DHS "going to come after US citizens" ICE says couple drove on the "wrong side of the road" to cause a collision with agents as they conducted searches in the area	Borders and Immigration	"Let's be clear, they are going to come after United States citizens. They are already doing it to children, to immigrants, to asylum-seekers. And we cannot give them more money to do this. And now they're going after members of Congress," Garcia continued. "So this is an incredibly dangerous moment for this country, and we've got to take it very seriously."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-democrat-dhs-going-come-after-us-citizens-223411	2025/05/16
	Borders and Immigration	A couple from South Los Angeles could face up to six years in prison after they attempted to block an ICE operation by driving on the wrong side of the road before cutting the agents off and arriving on the bus back officials say.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/couple-fu	2025/05/16
In California's deep-red north, voters started by pace of cuts – but they're still backing Trump	Cespool-MGAs	Officials in Shasta county, a region of 180,000 perhaps best known in recent years for its turbulent far-right politics, recently voted unanimously to send a letter to the federal government expressing concern about how layoffs could affect the nearby Whiskeytown national recreation area, which brings as much as $80m to the local economy each year.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/16/california-shasta-c	2025/05/16
The foreign emoluments clause: What it is and how it relates to Qatar's jet offer	Constitutional Crisis	Amid reports about possible reductions to Medicaid, the head of the area's largest healthcare provider warned such action could have "rippling" impacts in a county where the local Medicaid provider serves nearly a third of the population. A bipartisan group of state lawmakers, including the region's Republican representatives, signed a letter in late April urging Congress to protect Head Start, the federally funded education program.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/trump-qatar-jet-foreign-emoluments	2025/05/16
Trump tells US troops in Qatar that he will 'have to think' about running in 2028	Constitutional Crisis	Article I of the Constitution states that "no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-t	2025/05/16
Pam Bondi sold millions of dollars worth of Trump-media shares on 'Liberation Day' – before the stock tanked	Corruption	Attorney General Pam Bondi sold millions of dollars in shares in Trump Media on the same day President Donald Trump unveiled widespread tariffs on allies and foes alike, according to a government ethics transaction report.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/pam-bo	2025/05/16
Trump's Qatar plane needs so many upgrades it may face flight restrictions and need a military escort	Corruption	The plane offered to President Donald Trump by Qatar may be subjected to flight restrictions outside the U.S. and require a military escort because it's not prepared to safely carry the president.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-c	2025/05/16
Most Americans don't earn enough to afford basic costs of living, analysis finds	Economy-Cost of living	The findings? For the bottom 60% of U.S. households, a "minimal quality of life" is "out of reach, according to the group, a research organization focused on improving lower earners' economic well-being.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/cost-of-living-income-quality-of-life/th	2025/05/16
One of America's biggest companies is imploding	Economy-Insurance	UnitedHealth Group, one of America's biggest corporations and a member of the exclusive Dow Jones Industrial Average, is suddenly unraveling. he crisis engulfing UnitedHealth hit a crescendo this week when CEO Andrew Witt stepped down abruptly for "personal reasons."
Small businesses face "Made in America" pressure	Economy-Made in America	UnitedHealth also swiftly abandoned its financial guidance, blaming skyrocketing medical costs. And then The Wall Street Journal dropped the hammer, revealing that UnitedHealth is under federal criminal investigation for possible Medicare fraud.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/one-america-biggest-companies-implo	2025/05/16
	Economy-Made in America	No one wants "Made in USA" anymore. Pepper Harward, chief executive of footwear retailer Oka Brands — which partners with other big brands, including New Balance and Walmart — tells Axios.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/tariffs-made-america-small-business	2025/05/16
Farmers nervously hope for some trade war relief	Economy-Trade war	After Trump enacted tariffs against China in 2018, Beijing responded, and Mackenruth's soybeans joined a list of more than 100 U.S. products that fell victim to those retaliatory tariffs, sending prices plunging. "It makes me, as a farmer, really nervous if we see that again," he said. "It's devastating, so we're hoping for a quick resolution to this whole tariff war." He added, "It's hard to be hopeful this time around."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/trump-tariffs-farmers-america	2025/05/16
Texas swelters as record-breaking heatwaves sweep across state	Environment-Heat wave	Meanwhile, China increasingly buys its soybeans from Brazil. While 100F days are common in Texas summers, such early-early season heat is unusual. The record-high heat means that Texas has been recently hotter than Death Valley, California, which is often cited as the hottest place on Earth.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/15/texas-record-heat	2025/05/16
Marine life's latest hotspot could be an underwater volcano primed to erupt off Oregon	Environment-Oceans	Temperatures across the central and southern region of the state ranged from 100F to 111F, levels that experts warn can pose serious health risks for anyone without access to air conditioning or enough water. An underwater volcano in the Pacific Northwest is expected to erupt sometime this year for the first time in 11 years — and it could stir up lots of activity for marine life in the area.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/15/mx-41-5398591/underwater-volcano-er	2025/05/16
Wisconsin and Minnesota communities hit by tornadoes as severe storm threat shifts south Friday	Environment-Severe Weather	Because Axial Seamount is so far from shore and so deep, humans aren't expected to be impacted. But the impending magma flow generates pressure, heating sea water to more than 700 degrees Fahrenheit. As sea water passes through the cracks of volcanic rock, it picks up minerals that spout from the vents, creating plumes of black smoke. These are known as hydrothermal vents, which are like hot springs on the seafloor. All the warmth and nutrients coming from the vents make it a hotspot for deep-sea animals, said OSU's Chadwick.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/chicago-offer-midwest-metrol-risk-16222	2025/05/16
DOGE's Fraud Tracker at Social Security Turns Into a Messy Sift-Ops	Fuck that department	Severe thunderstorms rocked parts of the central US on Wednesday, and Thursday's storm threat spells trouble for tens of millions of people in the Midwest, where some areas have already been hit by damaging wind gusts, hail and tornadoes. It's part of what will likely be a week-long stretch of fierce weather—with an increasing chance of a severe storm outbreak on Friday—after a recent lull.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-fraud-tracker-social-security-22194	2025/05/16
Foreign groups are stealing $1 trillion a year through identity theft – and DOGE is just letting it happen	Fuck that department	Procedures implemented by the Department of Government Efficiency suggested that just two out of 110,000 calls to the Social Security Administration this spring had a "high probability" of being fraudulent, Federal Computer Week reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/foreign-groups-stealing-1-trillion-1832236	2025/05/16
How it feels to be fired, rehired, fired and rehired again	Government-Jobs	A new report details how the federal government is ignoring billions of dollars in identity theft-related fraud every year as outdated systems leave government agencies and Americans both vulnerable to scammers.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/top-100-federal-workforce	2025/05/16
USAID contractor sought attorney to investigate dismantled agency's former employees	Government-Jobs	Plenty of adults know what it's like to be fired, but for federal workers these days, getting canned once is just table stakes. Many have been fired, rehired, fired and hired again, and are still waiting to find out how long their employment could last. It's the opposite of efficiency or productivity, according to workers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/usaid-contractor-sought-attorney-investig	2025/05/16
Republicans advance bill with steep cuts to Medicaid as part of Trump agenda	Government-Budget	A government contractor sought to hire a lawyer to work at the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) to conduct investigations into the dismantled agency's former staff, including for "unauthorized conversations with the media."
Baby treated with first-ever personalized gene editing treatment	Health-Technology	The GOP plan calls for states to impose work requirements on childless adults ages 19 to 64, with certain exemptions. It puts a stop to a longstanding practice of states levying taxes on health providers to pay for their Medicaid programs and to boost their federal match. It would penalize states that pay for Medicaid for those who entered the country without authorization. It also codifies changes proposed by the Trump administration to shorten the Affordable Care Act's open enrollment period, among many other provisions.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/gene-editing-crispr-baby-first-patien	2025/05/16
Rubio, All NATO members to agree to 5% defense spending over next decade	International-NATO	The provisions would result in 10.3 million people losing Medicaid coverage by 2024 and 7.6 million people going uninsured, according to a partial analysis by the Congressional Budget Office (CBO). A 9-month-old baby who was born with a rare genetic disorder is the first person to be successfully treated with personalized CRISPR gene editing therapy, scientists in Philadelphia announced on Thursday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/rubio-nato-trump-5-percent-defense	2025/05/16
'No Way to Run a Two-Car Parade Let Alone the House'	Political-Cespool	This "historic medical breakthrough" could "provide a pathway for gene editing technology to be successfully adapted to treat individuals with rare diseases for whom no medical treatments are available," per a statement from the University of Pennsylvania and the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.	https://www.politico.com/news/magazine/2025/05/16/mike-lawler-salt-n	2025/05/16
Former FBI director Comey blasted over cryptic post on Trump	Political-Cespool	Secretary of State Marco Rubio said Thursday that all NATO nations "will have agreed on a goal of reaching 5% in defense spending over the next decade by time the military alliance has held its summit next month. The political salience is why, he added, Smith and Johnson never should have let a bill come out of Ways and Means without doing more to address SALT. The initial draft of the House bill only lifts the cap to $30,000. "They were trying to jam us with a number in the hopes that they would just say, 'This is the number and you got to take it,'" said Lawler, adding, blithely, "And from my vantage point that's no way to run a two-car parade let alone the House of Representatives."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/ex-fbi-chief-comey-post-8647-trump	2025/05/16
Russ Vought, key Project 2025 figure set to continue Trump cuts after Musk exit	Project 2025	Of course, Smith and House GOP leaders may have thought they could jam the SALT caucus because, well, such moderate Republicans have a history of capitulating on final passage with most major bills.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/16/russ-vought-trump	2025/05/16
Military commanders will be told to send transgender troops to medical checks to oust them	Rainbow-threats	The U.S. Secret Service and Department of Homeland Security are investigating former FBI Director James Comey's Instagram post of shells arranged on a beach that read "8647," DHS Secretary Kristi Noem said Thursday evening.	https://nnews.com/article/transgender-ban-military-discharge-trumps-o	2025/05/16
Why so many clinics that provide abortion are closing, even where it's still legal	Reproductive Rights	It seemed tailor-made to provoke Trump's movement, igniting several of its core motivators: frustration with a "deep state" that's out to get the president, a back-against-the-wall mentality that accedes MAGA and its values are under threat, and the belief that violence by liberals is a true threat but undercovered after the Jan. 6 Capitol riot.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/05/16/mx-41-5397	2025/05/16
Hospital tells family brain-dead Georgia woman must carry fetus due to abortion ban	Reproductive Rights	The director of the office of management and budget has worked alongside Musk's "department of government efficiency" to slash through the federal government since Trump took office. The Wall Street Journal reported this week that Vought would take on an increased public role in Washington as Musk transitions out and the president's budget process advances. The outlet reported that Vought could use the budget process to make some of Doge's cuts permanent. Vought embraces Christian nationalism and is more ideologically driven than Musk. He knows more intimately how to use the levers of government to enact his goals. He was a key figure in Project 2025, the conservative manifesto to guide a second Trump term, and authored a chapter on how to lead the agency he's again tasked with leading.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/16/mx-41-5400266/georgia-brain-dead-fet	2025/05/16
RFK Jr. stands by deep cuts to health budget during contentious hearings	RFK JR BS	In general, Kennedy stood behind the huge sweeping changes to his agency — though he has backtracked slightly on a case-by-case basis. Otherwise, he is staying the course with Trump's plans to cut billions more from the HHS budget, which Kennedy acknowledged will be "painful."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/16/mx-41-5398520/rfk-jr-hhs-trump-budget	2025/05/16
Inside the growing push for more religion in public schools	Separation of church and state	Protesters interrupted the beginning of the Senate hearing yelling, "RFK kills people with AIDS." They were quickly removed by police officers and the hearing continued.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/region-public-schools-christians-re	2025/05/16
Supreme Court Justice Rips Into Trump DOJ: "Assume You're Dead Wrong"	Supreme Court	The Supreme Court is weighing an Oklahoma case on whether to allow public funding of religious charter schools. It's just one part of a new wave of initiatives by Christian groups to put more religion into public education. Like the Oklahoma case, some of the challenges are arising with the conservative-led Supreme Court and a supportive President Trump in mind. Other initiatives have gained ground in legislatures across the country.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/16/supreme-court-justice-elena-kaga	2025/05/16

		The justices weren't debating whether Trump's policy is constitutional, but rather whether a single district court should be able to freeze an entire federal policy. Several of the court's conservative justices have expressed a desire to crack down on nationwide injunctions, but they wrestled Thursday with serious questions about the implications of letting Trump's citizenship order proceed.
Supreme Court wrestles with limits on Trump's executive orders	Supreme Court	Liberal Justice Elena Kagan pressed Sotomayor on a hypothetical: 'What if the Supreme Court says lower courts cannot freeze the citizenship policy nationwide, but then ultimately rules that the policy is illegal?' States were there could be 'unprecedented chaos' What's the alternative to nationwide injunctions? Justices drilled down on rationale for ruling on injunctions, not birthright citizenship Justices suggested a ruling on injunctions rather than birthright citizenship Trump admin lawyer wouldn't commit to obeying lower-court decisions Government wants courts to 'percolate' up from lower courts Trump admin wants justices to halt flood of nationwide injunctions	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/15/trump-birthright-citizenship-supreme	2025/05/16
Key takeaways from the historic Supreme Court debate on birthright citizenship	Supreme Court	The Supreme Court on Thursday allowed the family of an unnamed 24-year-old man who was killed after being pulled over for suspected toll violations to continue his case for damages, ruling that appeals courts need to more thoroughly review an officer's actions before a police shooting. President Trump announced multi-billion dollar AI deals between U.S. companies and Gulf countries this week even as many in Washington continue to fear that China could gain backdoor access to advanced AI chips and worry that critical AI infrastructure could end up based outside the U.S.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/key-takeaways-historic-supreme-court-15	2025/05/16
Supreme Court sides with family of man killed by police after he was pulled over for toll violations	Supreme Court	The House Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party on Thursday introduced new legislation 'to stop advanced U.S. AI chips from falling into the hands of adversaries like the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).'	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-sides-family-man-215011	2025/05/16	ACAB
Trump's AI Deals in Gulf stir: China fears back home	Technology, AI	Trump has harnessed executive power in unprecedented ways — to curtail immigration, gut federal agencies and punish his enemies. But almost nothing he's done so far has been codified in law, ratified in treaties, or otherwise set in stone.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/trump-ai-deals-gulf-chips-china-bag	2025/05/16	Trade, economy, international relations
Why Trump's second 100 days matter more How Trump has made billions as president Slidebar	Trump Bullshit Trump Bullshit	"What happens between now and Labor Day," Bannon told Axios, "really defines — more than even the first 100 days of food-the-zone — not just Trump's second term, but Trump's legacy."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/trump-agenda-immigration-trade-se https://www.yahoo.com/news-trump-made-billions-president-slidebar-16	2025/05/16	corruption
1962 Chevrolet Corvette Discovered After 14 Years, Behind a Fence in Florida Yard	Weird world	In his latest adventure, Collins boarded a flight to the Sunshine State after receiving a tip about a C1 Corvette that had been quietly deteriorating just feet away from daily life. Upon arrival, he found the Corvette sukkien slightly into the ground, surrounded by overgrown foliage and shielded from public view by a wooden fence—a time capsule hiding in plain sight. It had been labelled as a 1327 copy of the Magna Carta, "somewhat rubbed and damp-stained," according to the archive's description. But Carpenter knew almost immediately when he opened the document that it wasn't as advertised: "What do I see before my eyes?" For all the world [it] seemed to be an original of the 1300 Magna Carta." He immediately thought, "Oh, my God, this isn't known at all."	https://autos.yahoo.com/1962-chevrolet-corvette-discovered-14-2015d	2025/05/16
Harvard learned it has an authentic Magna Carta, in 1946, it paid less than $28 for it	Weird world	It was a remarkable find not only for Carpenter, but for Harvard — especially since the university had paid a London bookseller just $27.50 (about $460 adjusted for inflation) for the document in 1946. An authentic Magna Carta sold in 2007 for $21.3 million.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/15/mx-41-539171/magna-carda-harvard	2025/05/16
Kinderergarten brought Jail-O shots to school, gave them out to students, says district	Weird world	A Pennsylvania school has launched an investigation after it said a kindergarten brought Jail-O shots to school.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kindergarten-brought-jail-o-shots-210d	2025/05/16
Northeastern college student demanded her tuition fees back after catching her professor using OpenAI's ChatGPT	Weird world	A senior at Northeastern University filed a formal complaint and demanded a tuition refund after discovering her professor was secretly using AI tools to generate notes. The professor later admitted to using several AI platforms and acknowledged the need for transparency. The incident highlights growing student concerns over professors using AI, a reversal of earlier concerns from professors worried that students would use the technology to cheat.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/northeastern-college-student-demanded	2025/05/16
Dolphin whale decoders win $100,000 interspecies communication prize	Weird world	In their latest work, which has not yet been peer-reviewed, the team identified at least 20 different types of non-signature whale that are produced by multiple dolphins, finding two types were each shared by at least 25 individuals.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/15/us-scientists-who-de	2025/05/16
Man arrested trying to smuggle parrots across US border stuffed into his boots	Weird world	When the researchers played these two sounds back to dolphins they found one triggered avoidance in the animals, suggesting it could be an alarm signal, while the other triggered a range of responses, suggesting it could be a sound made by dolphins when they encounter something unexpected.	https://www.theindependent.com/news/world/americas/crime/parrots	2025/05/16
She's a home mom. Googled her dad and found out she was wrongly indicted on drug charges in another state	Weird world	A man was caught attempting to smuggle six parrots across the U.S. border from Mexico stuffed into his boots, according to officials.	https://www.theindependent.com/news/world/americas/crime/mom-go	2025/05/16
Revealed: Oregon spent funds meant for addiction services on prosecutors and police gadgets	ACAB	A mom-of-four received a shock when she discovered she had been wrongly indicted for drug offenses in 2023 and was facing a 35-year jail term.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/18/oregon-addiction-s	2025/05/19
Flights reduced by 40% at Paris-Orly airport after traffic control systems break down	Aviation	The state of Oregon, which has long struggled with one of the worst drug-addiction crises in the US, last year announced $20m in grants to help connect people to substance-use services.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/flights-reduced-40-paris-orly-15524130d	2025/05/19
Former President Joe Biden's cancer diagnosis: What does a Gleason score of 9 mean?	Biden Admin.	Budget documents obtained by the Guardian through public records requests reveal that several counties have put the money toward hiring prosecutors, acquiring police gadgets and police vehicles, and covering sheriff's costs. Washington county, the state's second-largest jurisdiction, budgeted twice as much of its funds for police and district attorney salaries than it did on community programs, while two other counties used the money for laser devices that are meant to detect drugs but have been criticized as useless.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/former-president-joe-biden-cancer-2158	2025/05/19
Supreme Court extends pause on deportations under Alien Enemies Act in Texas	Borders and Immigration	French civil aviation authority asked airlines to reduce flights by 40% at Paris-Orly airport on Sunday evening after air traffic control systems suffered a breakdown. The authority, known as DGAC, said in a statement that some "regulation" was needed involving a significant reduction in the number of flights. The statement didn't provide details on the cause of the breakdown.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/18/ga-s1-47244/supreme-court-texas-alien	2025/05/19
Don't say to cops: why Hasan Piker's US customs story kicked off a backlash	Borders and Immigration	The NIH reports an estimated 313,760 new cases of prostate cancer will be diagnosed this year -- representing over 15% of all new cancer cases. An estimated 35,770 deaths from prostate cancer will occur this year -- representing 5.6% of all cancer deaths, according to the agency.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/17/hasan-piker-us-cu	2025/05/19	ACAB
Trump threatens Walmart, demands it "eat the tariffs"	Economy-Tariffs	The Supreme Court on Friday granted a preliminary injunction that extends a pause on deportations of Venezuelan immigrants in northern Texas under the Alien Enemies Act.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/17/trump-walmart-tariffs	2025/05/19
Eat the tariffs? Trump tells Walmart, warns not to blame them for price increases	Economy-Tariffs	The Supreme Court said the government didn't give people at a detention center in Texas enough time to argue against their deportations.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/eat-tariffs-trump-tells-walmart-162817d	2025/05/19
Moody's cuts U.S. credit rating on growing debt burden	Economy-US Debt	The backlash continued as word of Piker's detention garnered international headlines. (CBP confirmed Piker was stopped for inspection but denied that he was targeted for his political beliefs.) The veteran tech blogger Mike Masnick criticized Piker for giving his fans "a masterclass in what not to do when detained by CBP on TechCrunch, writing: 'While CBP's behavior was egregious, Piker's response was potentially even more dangerous...' With his massive platform, he's teaching millions of followers exactly the wrong lesson about dealing with law enforcement — that if you're clever enough, privileged enough, or 'experienced' enough at handling conflict, you can somehow talk your way through it. This is exactly the kind of thinking that leads people to waive their rights and incriminate themselves."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/16/moody-us-credit-rating	2025/05/19
Glossy black cockatoos could be pushed towards extinction in Victoria if burns go ahead, experts warn	Environment-Animals	President Trump on Saturday threatened Walmart over its plan to raise prices in the face of tariffs, demanding it absorb the costs instead.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/may/18/glossy-black-c	2025/05/19
How DOGE has tried to embed beyond the executive branch	Fuck that department	On Thursday, Walmart said it could no longer hold the line on costs, even with tariffs on China dropping to 30% from 145%, and would have to start raising prices on some items as soon as this month.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/17/mx-41-5491392/doge-federal-agency-ri	2025/05/19
Al-Qaeda and Hezbollah leaders among terrorists who pay Elon Musk for X subscriptions, study finds	Fuck that guy	The idea that costs were approaching a point of no longer being easily absorbed wasn't news to the administration, per a source close to the company — it was something the White House had heard from Walmart, and hadn't pushed back on.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/al-qaeda-hezbollah-leaders-among-200d	2025/05/19	international, terrorism,
Trump's big bill advances in rare weekend vote, but conservatives demand more changes	Government-Budget	Walmart should not blame tariffs for raising prices and should instead absorb additional costs, President Donald Trump said in a social media post May 17.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-look-trumps-big-bill-162342d	2025/05/19
Concerns rise over medical coverage losses from 'big, beautiful bill'	Government-Budget	"We will do our best to keep our prices as low as possible but given the magnitude of the tariffs, even at the reduced levels announced this week, we aren't able to absorb all the pressure given the reality of narrow retail margins," CEO Doug McMillon said in a statement Thursday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/concerns-rise-over-medical-coverage-16	2025/05/19
Justice Department says it may drop criminal prosecution of Boeing over Max crashes	Government-DOJ	Moody's Ratings cut its credit rating on the United States by one notch on Friday, citing an increase in government debt and interest payment rates.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/justice-department-says-may-drop-2159d	2025/05/19	aviation, tragic, crash, corruption, deaths, lies
Trump budget would cut ocean data and leave boaters, anglers and forecasters scrambling for info	Government-Monitoring	"This one-notch downgrade on our 21-notch rating scale reflects the increase over more than a decade in government debt and interest payment ratios to levels that are significantly higher than similarly rated sovereigns," Moody's said in the statement.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/donald-trump-hawaii-great-lakes	2025/05/19	Information blackout

		Health officials are making a renewed call for vigilance against bird flu, but some experts are puzzling over why reports of new human cases have stopped. Has the search for cases been weakened by government cuts? Are immigrant farm workers, who have accounted for many of the U.S. cases, more afraid to come forward for testing and the Trump administration's deportation push? Is it just a natural ebb in infections?
The US hasn't seen a human bird flu case in 3 months. Experts are wondering why	Health- Bird flu	"We just don't know why there haven't been cases," said Jennifer Nuzzo, director of the Pandemic Center at Brown University. "I think we should assume there are infections that are occurring in farmworkers that just aren't being detected."	https://apnews.com/article/bird-flu-cdc-8857e56c7b0d1d52613042bea9	2025/05/19
Trump administration set to shutter iconic research center in New York	Information Blackout	Scientists at an iconic NASA research center in New York City have been told they have until the end of the month to vacate their building and everything in it -- with nowhere else to go. The closure of the NASA Goddard Institute for Space Studies, a building owned by Columbia University and made famous for housing the diner that appears in "Star Trek," is the latest blow to scientists and climate change researchers from the Trump administration and DOGE.	https://www.axios.com/2025-05-17/trump-nasa-goddard-office	2025/05/19
The future of history: Trump could leave less documentation behind than any previous US president	Information Blackout	For generations, official American documents have been meticulously preserved and protected, from the era of quills and parchment to boxes of paper to the cloud, safeguarding snapshots of the government and the nation for posterity. Now, the Trump administration is scrubbing thousands of government websites of history, legal records and data it finds disagreeable.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-presidential-records-retention-docume	2025/05/19	information blackout, data, records, history
Libraries are cutting back on staff and services after Trump's order to dismantle small agency	Information Blackout	It has sought to expand the executive branch's power to shield from public view the government-slashing efforts of Elon Musk's team and other key administration initiatives. Officials have used apps such as Signal that can auto-delete messages containing sensitive information rather than retaining them for recordkeeping. And they have shaken up the National Archives leadership and even ordered the rewriting of history on display at the Smithsonian Institution.	https://apnews.com/article/institute-museum-library-services-funding-cu	2025/05/19
Attacks on healthcare in war zones in 2024 reach 'new levels of horror' -- report	International- Healthcare	Maine has laid off a fifth of its staff and temporarily closed its state library after not receiving the remainder of its annual funding. Libraries in Mississippi have indefinitely stopped offering a popular e-book service, and the South Dakota state library has suspended its interlibrary loan program.	https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2025/may/19/attacks	2025/05/19
Trump 'making plan to move a million Palestinians to Africa'	International- Palestine	Last year saw more than 3,600 attacks on health workers, hospitals and clinics in conflict zones, a report figure reflecting "new levels of horror," a new report has found. The total is 15% higher than in 2023 and includes air, missile and drone strikes on hospitals and clinics, as well as the looting and takeover of facilities and arrest and detention of health workers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-making-plan-move-million-1256126	2025/05/19
Donald Trump: next two weeks will 'decide future of Poland'	International- Poland	US officials have begun discussions with the Libyan government about resettling half of the strip's population, NBC news reported, quoting five people with knowledge of the plans. The next two weeks will "decide the future of Poland," its prime minister, Donald Tusk, has warned, as the country prepares for a presidential runoff vote on 1 June after a nail-biting close first round. Official results released on Monday showed the pro-European centrist Rafal Trzaskowski, the mayor of Warsaw and candidate from Tusk's Civic Coalition, received 31.36% of the votes. Narrowly trailing him was Karol Nawrocki, backed by the populist rightwing Law and Justice party (PiS), with 29.54% of the vote.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/18/donald-trump-next-two	2025/05/19
US judges who rule against Trump are being harassed with abuse and threats, experts warn	Judicial Branch	US judges who have increasingly rebuked the Trump administration's harsh deportation agendas and other MAGA policies are facing intense verbal assaults from the president and his allies, which seem to be spurring other dangerous threats against judges, say legal experts and former judges. "The constant mischaracterization by Trump and his allies of judicial rulings as political in nature, together with their false, vilipendous and at times homophobic attacks on individual judges who make them, skew the public's perception of the work of the federal judiciary," said ex-federal judge John Jones, who is now the president of Dickinson College.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-judges-ruling-against-trump-1400781	2025/05/19
Trump was so desperate for MTG to drop Georgia. Senate run he ordered a poll showing she'd get crushed	Political Cesspool	Jones added: "These attacks foment a climate where the safety of judges and their families is at high risk." Donald Trump was so desperate to stop Marjorie Taylor Greene from attempting to run for the U.S. Senate in 2026 he had a poll commissioned to demonstrate she did not stand a chance, according to a report. The president's political team called on his favorite pollster, Tony Fabrizio, to conduct a survey examining Green's prospects of beating Democratic incumbent Jon Ossoff in a hypothetical matchup. It duly showed that the Georgia Republican Rep would lose an election challenge by a crushing 18 points, The Wall Street Journal reports.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/05/19
Another House Democrat plans to force Trump impeachment vote	Politics- Impeachment	Rep. Al Green (D-Texas) said Friday he will force a vote on impeaching President Trump -- just days after another Trump impeachment effort was scuttled. Green, unlike Rep. Shri Thanedar (D-Mich.), has a history of following through on this sort of thing. He repeatedly has introduced legislation against Trump during his first term.	https://www.axios.com/2025-05-18/trump-impeachment-house-democr	2025/05/19
As Trump's ban looms, transgender service members defend their fitness to serve	Rainbow threats	While there is no exact count of the number of transgender people serving, officials have said 4,240 service members have a diagnosis of gender dysphoria. Aina Kupe, a former Naval intelligence officer, told Axios she thinks "this is a path toward don't ask, don't tell again -- and it starts with the transgender community."	https://www.axios.com/2025-05-17/trump-transgender-service-member	2025/05/19
RFK Jr's FDA limits use of Covid vaccine	RFK JR BS	The Food and Drug Administration, now under the leadership of Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., has severely restricted the use of the NovavaxCOVID-19 vaccine. The vaccine will now only be available to high-risk individuals and will not be administered to those who may need it to protect others.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-fda-limits-covid-204951844.html	2025/05/19
Supreme Court justices appear divided in birthright citizenship arguments	Supreme Court	The U.S. Supreme Court seemed at least partially divided on Thursday as the justices heard more than two hours of arguments debating how the lower courts should handle President Trump's executive order on birthright citizenship. The court's conservatives didn't entirely tip their hands. While some of them have called for the abolition of these nationwide injunctions in the past, on Thursday they didn't seem so certain, especially after Solicitor General D. John Sauer opened his argument insisting Trump is right in saying the Fourteenth Amendment has been wrongly interpreted for 127 years.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/15/mst-s1-5398125/supreme-court-birthright	2025/05/19	US Citizens, Constitutional Crisis
Fatal explosion outside fertility clinic was 'intentional,' police say	Terrorism	An explosion through a fertility clinic in the upscale California city of Palm Springs late Saturday morning, leaving one person believed to be the suspect dead in an attack the FBI characterized as terrorism. Authorities were still working to confirm the identity of the person killed, Davis said. Four people were hurt, but authorities provided no details on the severity of those injuries, how they occurred or where. Davis said law enforcement was also looking into the possibility that the explosion was faked.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/17/ga-s1-47455/investigators-respond-to-at	2025/05/19
At least 2 dead, 19 injured after Mexican Navy ship strikes the Brooklyn Bridge, NYC officials say	Tragic	At least two people have died and 19 others were injured after a tall ship belonging to the Mexican Navy struck the Brooklyn Bridge Saturday night, according to Mayor Eric Adams. City officials said the ship, the Cuauhtemoc, struck the bridge shortly before 8:30 p.m. after losing power. Its two tall masts were knocked off when it made impact with the 140-year-old steel suspension bridge as divers sped by in either direction, according to multiple video feeds. Powerful storms and tornadoes ripped through several Midwestern and Southern states overnight Friday, leaving flattened buildings and at least 27 people dead in their wake.	https://nypost.com/2025/may/16/collides-into-brooklyn-bridge/	2025/05/19
At least 27 dead after tornadoes sweep through Kentucky and Missouri	Tragic	One of the victims was a first responder, Roger Leslie Leatherman, a Laurel County fireman. Most of the victims were in the 60s and 70s, the governor said. In Missouri, five people in the St. Louis area have died, according to the city's mayor, Kara Spencer. Over 30 more people were injured, she said, warning that the number could be higher. The AP reported two more storm victims in other parts of the state, and an additional two storm-related deaths in Virginia.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/17/mst-s1-5402053/tornadoes-kentucky-mi	2025/05/19
I thought it was a movie! Mexican ship's crash into Brooklyn Bridge leaves locals in disbelief	Tragic	The ship's captain lost control because of a mechanical issue, Mayor Eric Adams said, causing the naval training ship's tall masts to hit the bottom of the 142-year-old bridge connecting Brooklyn to Manhattan.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/thought-movie-mexican-ships-collision-15	2025/05/19
Cooking the books? Fears Trump could target statisticians if data disappoints	Trump Bulshit	Now professional economists and number-crunchers fear the aphorism could become a White House theme in real life. Buflitted by global markets and public opinion -- both of which show a wary skepticism of Donald Trump's affinity for trade wars -- the president may be about to turn his renowned loyalty to truths at odds with what he believes towards public servants charged with producing accurate information.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/18/trump-statistician	2025/05/19	information blackout, data, records, history
Trump issues thinly veiled threat to Supreme Court as birthright citizenship under scrutiny. 'Playing the ref'	Trump Bulshit	A proposed rule change making it easier to fire civil servants deemed to be "intentionally subverting presidential directives" could pave the way for the White House to fire statisticians employed to produce objective data on the economy but whose figures prove politically inconvenient, experts warn. The president has repeatedly claimed it's "illegal" to criticize both his policies that have been challenged in court as well as the judges who have ruled in his favor.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-3	2025/05/19
Trump's DOJ focuses in on voter fraud, with a murky assist from DOGE	Voting Fuckery	Records suggest the Iraq man, Akeel Abdul Jamel, had lived in the U.S. for more than a decade before allegedly voting illegally, and letters he appears to have submitted in other court cases show he was a fan of Trump and that he was worried about immigration. The Ukrainian mother and daughter, who entered the country legally on visas, were given permanent legal residence in the U.S. more than a year prior to voting, and told a federal investigator they didn't know they weren't also allowed to vote.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/17/mst-s1-5382977/trump-doj-doge-nonprof	2025/05/19
Trump order targets barcodes on ballots. They've long been a source of misinformation	Voting Fuckery	That's extremely common among these cases, said University of Idaho law professor Benji Cover, who wrote a paper about people, including noncitizens, misunderstanding election rules and being prosecuted in recent decades. "We don't use the phrase 'voter mistake.' And I found in my research that a lot of these cases that are described as voter fraud seem to involve mistakes rather than fraud," Cover said. "There's a huge mismatch between the language we're using in our political rhetoric and the reality on the ground."	https://apnews.com/article/trump-elections-executive-order-codes-as	2025/05/19
More storms take aim at central US, where many are digging out from tornado damage	Weather- storms	More severe storms were expected to roil across the central U.S. this week following the weather-related deaths of more than two dozen people and a devastating Kentucky tornado. The National Weather Service said a "multitude of hazardous weather" would impact the U.S. over the next several days -- from thunderstorms and potentially baseball-sized hail on the Plains, to heavy mountain snow in the West and dangerous heat in the South.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-storms-aim-central-us-041716410	2025/05/19
Storms leave more than two dozen dead, with damage still being assessed	Weather- Tornado	Powerful storms with tornado reports in the Midwest and other regions have led to at least 18 deaths in Kentucky, seven in Missouri and two in northern Virginia. Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear said in an X post Saturday morning after declaring a state of emergency that 100,476 were without power and the number of deaths "will likely grow."	https://www.axios.com/2025-05-17/mst-west-storm-deaths-kentucky-mi	2025/05/19
Tornadoes touchdown in NE Colorado, egg-sized hail reported. Photos, NWS data	Weather- Tornado	The tornado likely continued much further into IL and survey teams will continue to assess over the coming days, "the NWS St. Louis said on Saturday, describing a tornado "up to 1 mile wide, EF3 (150mph) intensity" and following a path "at least 8 miles so far."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tornadoes-touchdown-ne-colorado-egg-0	2025/05/19
Newark Airport Hit With Yet Another Communications Outage	Aviation	Severe weather, including multiple tornadoes, was experienced in Colorado on Sunday, as hail, high winds and some rain swept the region. He said that debris from neighbors miles away has ended up on his ranch. He's grateful that his livestock made it out unscathed from the storm, but nearby, a camper was tipped onto its roof from the high winds. Nevertheless, the storm is another sign of community for the area.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/newark-airport-hit-yet-another-2130076	2025/05/20
Close call at LaGuardia Airport prompts FAA and NTSB investigations	Aviation	The same facility was hit by similar outages on April 28, May 11 and May 9, but unlike Monday's incident, those outages stretched to a minute and a half. A close call earlier this month at LaGuardia Airport in New York City between two commercial jets is under investigation, the Federal Aviation Administration and National Transportation Safety Board confirmed Monday. On May 6 around 12:35 a.m., an air traffic controller canceled the takeoff clearance for American Eagle flight 4750, operated by Republic Airways, because United Airlines flight 2657 was landing on the same runway, the FAA said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/close-call-la-guardia-airport-prompts-2367	2025/05/20

		Some suspects in violent assaults and sex crimes are escaping American justice because they're being deported before they can stand trial, according to a number of prosecutors and legal experts across the country. In one suburban Denver county, the district attorney has tallied at least six criminal cases he's had to shelve or drop because Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents detained or deported suspects before he could prosecute them.
ICE adopts new tactic: Deport before court, removing people facing criminal charges	Borders and Immigration	In another case in the city of Denver, a man suspected of attempted murder was released because ICE had deported the witnesses against him, forcing prosecutors to drop the charges. That suspect then backed an ICE agent trying to detain him outside the jail. The Trump administration's first charter flight for dozens of "self-deporting" immigrants took off from Houston early Monday, part of a new program offering them a free trip back home and $1,000 — or else.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-adopts-tactic-deport-court-100211563	2025/05/20
Scoop: First flight leaves U.S. under Trump's $1,000 "self-deport" deal	Borders and Immigration	Monday's flight left Houston about 9:30 a.m. and took 65 people from Honduras and Colombia to their respective home countries, according to a Department of Homeland Security official. The Trump administration can strip temporary deportation protections from 350,000 Venezuelans, the Supreme Court said Monday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/18/self-deportation-flights-1000-dollars	2025/05/20
Supreme Court allows Trump admin to pull protections for 350,000 Venezuelans	Borders and Immigration	The Venezuelan immigrants are still challenging the Trump administration's decision to remove their Temporary Protected Status in a lower court, but the Supreme Court's order means those protections can be revoked while the case continues. A federal judge in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California had blocked the Trump administration from removing the deportation protections, but the Supreme Court overturned that decision on Monday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/18/trump-supreme-court-venezuelan-immigrants	2025/05/20
Immigrants are being rounded up in Hawaii's coffee fields and being treated worse than 'cats and dogs,' locals say	Borders and Immigration	According to several reports, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents have been targeting immigrant workers who harvest coffee in the district of South Kona. Coffee farming is lucrative in this area due to the nutrient-heavy volcanic slopes of Earth's largest volcano, Mauna Loa. Donald Trump's administration is relying on the nation's vast correctional system to detain and deport immigrants — and cash-strapped local jails could see a massive windfall from federal contracts. Immigration and Customs Enforcement is contracting with or operating 147 public and private detention facilities, according to data reviewed by The Marshall Project.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/immigration-immigrants-hawaii-coffee-fields-treatment-worse-cats-dogs-locals-say-1948123221.html	2025/05/20
Cash-strapped jails are taking in immigrants to help Trump's agenda and fill their coffers	Borders and Immigration	That's an increase of 40 facilities from the end of Joe Biden's administration, and ICE is planning to spend another $45 billion on new contracts to ramp up Trump's aggressive anti-immigration agenda, according to federal requests for proposals reviewed by the nonprofit criminal justice news organization.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-immigrants-jails-cash-strapped-1948123221.html	2025/05/20	ACAB
At least 50 migrants sent to El Salvador prison entered US legally, Cato Institute finds	Borders and Immigration	At least 50 Venezuelan men who were sent to a notorious Salvadoran prison by the Trump administration had immigrated to the U.S. legally, a review by the Libertarian Cato Institute found.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/least-50-migrants-sent-el-salvador-prison-entirely-legal-1948123221.html	2025/05/20
Ashli Babbitt's family to receive $5 million in settlement with Trump administration: Sources	Cesspool	The Trump administration is set to pay out nearly $5 million to settle a lawsuit brought by the family of Ashli Babbitt, a rider fatally shot during the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol, sources familiar with the matter confirmed to ABC News on Monday. The Trump administration has reportedly agreed to pay $5 million to the family of Ashli Babbitt — a Jan. 6 rider shot and killed by Capitol Police as she attempted to break into the House Speaker's lobby — in order to settle a wrongful death lawsuit.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ashli-babbitts-family-receive-5-18250520	2025/05/20
Trump is Giving Millions in Taxpayer Money to Family of Rider Killed on Jan. 6	Cesspool	The move is a stark reversal from the Justice Department's previous stance on the shooting, which they ruled to be justified after an investigation into Babbitt's death during the Biden administration. In a statement to CBS News, Capitol Police Chief Tom Manger said he told staff he was "extremely disappointed, and I disagreed with the Department of Justice's decision to settle this lawsuit." Videos taken on Jan. 6 show Babbitt and a group of riders attempting to crawl into the Speaker's Lobby through a shattered window. The Speaker's Lobby is adjacent to the House floor, from which law enforcement was attempting to evacuate lawmakers. Babbitt was shot in the neck by a Capitol Police officer after reportedly ignoring multiple orders from law enforcement to get back. She died after being transported to a nearby hospital.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-giving-millions-taxpayer-money-1948123221.html	2025/05/20
The argument's over: Americans pay for tariffs	Economy- Tariffs	The Trump administration conceded this weekend what economists, CEOs and consumers already knew: Americans pay for tariffs. Nearly a decade of Trump trade arguments held that foreign countries, not Americans, paid the ultimate cost of a trade war. But the president and his economic team now acknowledge that tariffs are raising prices for everyone, from industrial ports to retail storefronts.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/18/trump-tariffs-who-pays	2025/05/20
		The U.S. government is spending far more than it takes in as revenue, causing ever-rising debt — and there is no sign that will change anytime soon, those facts are well-known to anybody who has taken a cursory look at the government's books. But Moody's decision to downgrade the U.S. credit rating Friday is the latest reminder that this precarious fiscal standing comes with real risks. Moody's — the last of the three major raters to downgrade the U.S. from its once-pristine credit rating — is acknowledging that U.S. policymakers may have less room to maneuver in future recessions or crises, in light of the massive existing pile of debt.
The real message of the Moody's downgrade	Economy- US Debt		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/18/moodys-credit-rating-us-debt-resort	2025/05/20
Sesame Street saved by streaming deal with Netflix	Education	Netflix has thrown Sesame Street a safety net with a new streaming deal that offers the popular children's show a broad reach while simultaneously keeping it on its longstanding home, PBS, the companies announced on Monday. Starting later this year, new episodes will run on Netflix, PBS and the PBS Kids app on the same day. No specific premiere date was immediately announced. Select past episodes will be available on Netflix worldwide.	https://www.theguardian.com/hy-and-radio/2025/may/19/sesame-street-netflix	2025/05/20
Parts of the U.S. have already experienced 100 degree heat. Experts say this summer is going to get even hotter	Environment- Heat	It's already hot across parts of the U.S., with some communities seeing 90- and 100-degree days already — and forecasters say it's only going to get worse. Florida residents have already been laboring under an oppressive heat wave over the course of the last few days, with highs in the 90s. These temperatures are slated to continue through much of the week, with local "heat-ban" temperatures in the triple digits.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/summer-us-weather-1948123221.html	2025/05/20
Workers at top US consumer watchdog sound warning as Trump bids to gut agency	Government- CPFB	Donald Trump's bid to gut the top US consumer watchdog has left the agency unable to protect consumers amid mounting fears of recession, according to workers. "The agency that Congress created after the last financial crisis to help prevent another financial crisis is currently completely handcuffed from working," said one attorney at the CPFB, who asked to remain anonymous for fear of retaliation. "And we are on the verge of another major financial crisis, so it's terrifying." "The one thing we were created to do we can't do — at a time when we're most needed."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/19/trump-consumer-watchdog	2025/05/20
70% of the DOJ's Civil Rights Division lawyers are leaving because of Trump's reshaping	Government- DOJ	The Justice Department's Civil Rights Division is in upheaval amid a mass exodus of attorneys as the Trump administration moves to radically reshape the division, sheding its traditional mission and replacing it with one focused on enforcing the president's executive orders. Some 250 attorneys — or around 70% of the division's lawyers — have left or will have left the department in the time between President Trump's inauguration and the end of May, according to current and former officials. "I don't know what you got to do or what you got to have to be able to be declared for a federal disaster area because this is pretty bad," Lowery said. "We can't help you because, whatever, we're waiting on a letter, we're waiting on somebody to sign his name. You know, all that. I'm just over it." Republican Mississippi Gov. Tate Reeves asked the Trump administration for a major disaster declaration on April 1 after 18 tornadoes tore through the state on March 14 and 15, leaving seven people dead and hundreds of homes destroyed or damaged. The declaration would allow the state to access a wide range of FEMA resources, including financial aid for individuals and for government agencies still removing debris and repairing infrastructure.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/19/st-1-66908/trump-civil-rights-justice-ex	2025/05/20
While Trump overhauls FEMA, Mississippi tornado survivors await assistance	Government- FEMA	"We don't have a declaration yet. People are still hurting," said Royce McKee, emergency management director for Walthall County, which includes Tyler, Georgia. Missouri officials are calling on the federal government for help after a tornado tore through St. Louis last week, killing five people and damaging thousands of structures throughout the region. "We need partners at the national level, at the federal level, to step up and help — and this is not just for St. Louis," city Mayor Kara Spencer told MSNBC on Monday. "Cities across the nation, when they are experiencing disasters such as this, this is what the federal government is for." Spencer said she is pleading with the Federal Emergency Management Agency for help.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/fema-declares-tornado-disaster-mississippi-today	2025/05/20
Where's FEMA? St. Louis mayor pleads for help from federal government after fatal tornado	Government- FEMA	"FEMA has not been on the ground," she added. "We do not have confirmed assistance from FEMA at this point."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-fema	2025/05/20
NH funding cuts put current and future cancer patients at risk	Government- NIH	National Institutes of Health budget cuts proposed by the Trump administration and staff layoffs at the largest funder of cancer research threaten to stall innovation, doctors and researchers said. Cancer remains the second-leading cause of death in the U.S. As former President Biden said Monday after announcing he had been diagnosed with prostate cancer, the disease "touches us all." And accurate weather forecasts require data from all over the world, says Alex Lamers, Forecast Operations Branch chief for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Weather Prediction Center. "Weather happens in the atmosphere, and the atmosphere is connected globally. It doesn't happen in isolation over one specific location," he explains.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/19/nih-cuts-cancer-research-hhs	2025/05/20
Where does your weather forecast come from?	Government- NOAA	The U.S. government, through NASA and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), operates multiple weather satellites and makes all the data they collect available to the public for free. Private weather forecasting companies, like the ones that operate weather websites and smartphone weather apps, use that data to inform their weather forecasts.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/19/mx-st-5389593/weather-forecast-radar	2025/05/20
This Tornado Mayhem Is a Warning	Government- NOAA	This is why the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) and the National Weather Service (NWS) are so crucial for the nation's emergency response system. These agencies' scientists gather and interpret meteorological data, identifying the patterns that should trigger a warning about a dangerous weather event. If we didn't have that capacity, then we wouldn't get the warning, and we wouldn't have time to prepare. DOGE's full impact on the nation's disaster preparedness remains to be seen, but with hurricane season beginning on June 1, many observers are warning of fallout from serious staff shortages. Whether DOGE cuts affected tornado alerts this past weekend is as yet impossible to determine. Anecdotal accounts tell of heroic efforts to staff up an NWS office in Kentucky to compensate for shortages ahead of this storm system. Governor Andy Beshear said he didn't "see any evidence" that the cuts had affected warnings to the state's population on this occasion. Problems of staffing, capacity, and cuts demand more study as we enter another season of extreme weather. But what we already know is this: When we face the risk of a mass-casualty disaster, time is our most precious commodity. In this age, unfortunately, we can expect mayhem from all sorts of sources: cyberattacks, terrorism, active shooters, weather events, overburdened aviation systems, deadly viruses. A nation best prepares for a crisis not by ignoring it and hoping it never happens, but by anticipating it and planning for it. The success of such preparation is measured by the ability to provide more time, because more time means that those affected will have better options.	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/tornado-weather-alert/	2025/05/20	NWS, storms, severe weather, tornado, warning, climate crisis
As thunderstorms threaten Alabama, National Weather Service warns of radio outage	Government- NWS	Severe storms are expected to sweep across Alabama this week, as the National Weather Service underpins an outage of the radio service that broadcasts key weather information for the region. The NWS's office in Birmingham said it will be conducting a "required, scheduled update" to its Advanced Weather Interactive Processing System, which is used to "display and integrate weather and water information and to send life-saving information, such as weather and water warnings, to the public." The update is expected to last from May 19 until about May 21, during which time NOAA Weather Radio transmitters maintained by the Birmingham office will be off-air, according to the NWS.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/thunderstorms-threaten-alabama-national-weather-service-warns-radio-outage-1948123221.html	2025/05/20

		Kurtz's award was caught up in the cuts. Days after winning, he was forwarded an email from the organization that coordinates regional science fairs across the country: the Society for Science USAID had given that nonprofit a stop-work order, and the group had discontinued all their awards sponsored by the federal agency. The Society for Science pulled Kurtz's award from its website and the conversation Kurtz was promised was canceled. Hunter Hart is the Society for Science's International Science and Engineering Fair program manager. He wrote the email notifying Kurtz and hundreds of fair organizers about pulling the award. The International Science and Engineering Fair has affiliates in all fifty states and 70 other countries and territories. In order to get to the big international fair, students have to compete at regional ones. Outside groups like USAID can sponsor special awards at both kinds of fairs, but at the international competition, the stakes get much higher. There, judges will award almost $9 million in prize money.
Some awards at Colorado high school science fairs cut after Trump administration slashes USAID funding	Government-USAID	The Trump administration has decided to permit the sale of devices that enable standard firearms to fire like machine guns, a move that one person familiar with the matter said was "by far the most dangerous thing the administration has done" on gun policy. The Justice Department on Friday announced a settlement in a lawsuit brought by the National Association for Gun Rights. The lawsuit challenged an ATF rule banning "forced reset triggers" — devices that allow semiautomatic weapons to fire rapid bursts of bullets. The Trump administration, however, has decided to block $1 billion in grants for student mental health programs, concluding that the programs to reduce gun violence in schools were no longer in "the best interest of the federal government."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/06/high-school-science-fairs-usaid-funding	2025/05/20
Maddow Blog On guns, Trump administration takes another dramatic step in a dangerous direction	Gun nuts	This dovetailed with a New York Times report on the Republican administration moving forward with plans to "roll back an array of gun control measures," while creating "a path for people with criminal convictions to own guns again." In this well-to-do enclave known equally for its nickname of "Surf City" and its far-right politics, progressive activists and book lovers have joined forces behind a pair of charter amendments that would wrest control of the local public library system away from a MAGA-aligned city council playing an increasingly active role in managing its affairs.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maddow-blog-guns-trump-administration-	2025/05/20
Librarians take on MAGA in California beach town	Information-Blackout	The Trump administration is scrubbing thousands of government websites of history, legal records and data it finds disagreeable. It has sought to expand the executive branch's power to shield from public view the government-slashing efforts of Elon Musk's team and other key administration initiatives. Officials have used apps such as Signal that can auto-delete messages containing sensitive information rather than retaining them for recordkeeping. And they have shaken up the National Archives leadership and even ordered the rewriting of history on display at the Smithsonian Institution. And Trump's first term involved many extraordinary attacks on recordkeeping, including reportedly routinely discarding papers in the White House fireplace, deriding his staff for taking notes and tearing up documents into tiny pieces. Trump also improperly stored classified material at Mar-a-Lago after he left office.	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/05/18/california-library-hurlington-1	2025/05/20
Opinion Why Trump is making an unprecedented effort to scrub the historical record	Information-Blackout	The Trump administration is scrubbing thousands of government websites of history, legal records and data it finds disagreeable. It has sought to expand the executive branch's power to shield from public view the government-slashing efforts of Elon Musk's team and other key administration initiatives. Officials have used apps such as Signal that can auto-delete messages containing sensitive information rather than retaining them for recordkeeping. And they have shaken up the National Archives leadership and even ordered the rewriting of history on display at the Smithsonian Institution. Trump's statement that the U.S. won't play a role in talks going forward reflects the Russian position that the U.S. should not mediate the dispute. The Russians refused to allow State Department official Michael Anton to attend Friday's talks.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-why-trump-making-unprecedented	2025/05/20
Two-hour Trump-Putin call ends without ceasefire	International-Relations	President Trump and Russian President Vladimir Putin spoke for around two hours on Monday, after which Trump announced that Russia and Ukraine would "immediately start negotiations toward a ceasefire" and an end to the war. When Copenhagen signed a new defence agreement giving the US "unhindered access" to Danish airbases in December 2023, the idea of granting sweeping powers to US forces on Danish soil was quite a different proposition to what it is today.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/19/trump-putin-call-peacefire-agreement	2025/05/20
Alarm over defence agreement giving US 'unhindered access' to Danish airbases	International-Relations	The deal means US soldiers will be in Denmark under US jurisdiction, meaning that if they were to commit a crime anywhere in Denmark they would in the first instance be punished under the US, not Danish, legal system. The UN's humanitarian chief has warned 14,000 babies in Gaza could die within 48 hours if more aid does not enter the territory.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/19/warn-over-defence-a	2025/05/20
UN warns 14,000 babies could die within 48 hours under Israel siege of Gaza	International-Palestine	The pandemic is largely responsible for this talent boom, according to the miniaturists themselves. Artists on lockdown began showing off their to-scale creations and sharing their techniques. The resulting talent feedback loop has led to miniatures that are more detailed and thoughtful than ever.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/middle-east/gaza-48hr-baby-1	2025/05/20
Button-sized eggs and transport cities: A peek into the big, wide world of miniatures	Personal-Interest	The Trump administration has instituted all sorts of requirements in its first months to monitor Americans, particularly immigrants.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/19m-41-538937/miniature-art-8d00c	2025/05/20
Papers please: Trump enacts proof of identity tactic to monitor Americans	Privacy	Kash Patel, the F.B.I. director, has closed an internal watchdog office established in 2020 to uncover and reduce the risk of misuses of national security surveillance, according to officials familiar with the matter.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/19/trump-100-days-monitor-americans	2025/05/20
F.B.I. Closes Unit That Policed Compliance With Surveillance Rules	Privacy	New Orleans police have secretly been using facial recognition software to monitor citizens in an effort to identify crime suspects, according to a new report. And while police across the country are increasingly using such technology, an investigation by The Washington Post has found that police in New Orleans have taken it a step further, potentially violating a city ordinance that was designed to prevent false arrests and safeguard their citizens' civil rights.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/20/us/politics/the-kash-patel-office-in	2025/05/20
New Orleans used Minority Report-like facial recognition software to monitor citizens for crime suspects: Report	Privacy	The Trump Justice Department, under Attorney General Pam Bondi, is weighing a move that could end the Public Integrity Section's power to oversee indictments of members of Congress, potentially opening the door to politically motivated prosecutions, The Washington Post reports. If the proposed changes go through, U.S. attorneys — positions appointed by the president — could indict members of Congress without the sign-off from attorneys in the Public Integrity Section (PIN), reducing the office's ethical watchdog role. Prosecutors would no longer need to consult PIN at key points during investigations and prosecutions of public officials in all three branches of government, including federal, state, and local lawmakers as well as judges.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime-new-orleans	2025/05/20	ACAB
Trump DOJ Considers Making It Easier to Indict Members of Congress	Retaliation	The PIN was established following the Watergate scandal "in order to consolidate in one unit of the Criminal Division the Department's oversight responsibilities for the prosecution of criminal abuses of the public trust by government officials," the DOJ's website states. PIN also "supervises the nationwide investigation and prosecution of felonies committed by federal officials." At first blush, Casey Means seems like the last person Christian conservatives would want as the Surgeon General. Donald Trump's new pick for the nation's top doctor, though she does not have a medical license, favors the occult-spoken popular in the "wellness" influencer world where she makes her money. As Kiera Butler and Anna Merlan at Mother Jones documented, Means veers "in a more New Age direction" in her "medical" writing. "Perhaps the body is simply the material 'radio receiver' through which we can 'tune in' to the divine," she muses in her October newsletter, where she also speculated about "the vibration of humanity" and how the "future of medicine will be about light." In another, she wrote about how she found love after she built a "small meditation shrine in my house," performed "full moon ceremonies," and spoke with trees, "telling them know I was ready for partnership, and asking them if they could help."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-doj-considers-making-easier-1725-	2025/05/20
RFK Jr. is laundering Christian right views as MAHA	RFK JR BS	Tucker Carlson is a good barometer of this. The internet show he started after he was fired from Fox News has an overtly Christian nationalist lean. He had Means on in September to spread lies meant to scare women out of using hormonal birth control. After Carlson falsely presented it as forbidden information with "you were not allowed to criticize the pill," Means fired off a rapid series of lies. She compared the birth control pill to "spraying of these pesticides" and said it was "literally shutting down the hormones in the female body that create this cyclical living nature." She said it's a "disrespect of the" to prevent pregnancy. Unsurprisingly, while recommending other women stay perpetually pregnant for their "health," Means appears to have no children.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-plagued-not-upend-134330405.html	2025/05/20
RFK Jr. pledged not to upend US vaccine system, but big changes are underway	RFK JR BS	Robert F. Kennedy Jr. clinched the political support needed to become the nation's top health official by pledging to work within the decades-old federal system for approval and use of vaccines. Yet his regulators are promising big changes that cloud the outlook for what shots might even be available. President Donald Trump on Monday signed the Take It Down Act, bipartisan legislation that enacts stiffer penalties for the distribution of non-consensual intimate imagery, sometimes called "revenge porn," as well as deepfakes created by artificial intelligence.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-plagued-not-upend-134330405.html	2025/05/20
President Trump signs Take It Down Act, addressing nonconsensual deepfakes. What is it?	Technology-Laws	The law makes it illegal to "knowingly publish" or threaten to publish intimate images without a person's consent, including AI-created "deepfakes." It also requires websites and social media companies to remove such material within 48 hours of notice from a victim. The platforms must also take steps to delete duplicate content. Many states have already banned the dissemination of sexually explicit deepfakes or revenge porn, but the Take It Down Act is a rare example of federal legislation imposing on internet companies.	https://apnews.com/article/take-it-down-deepfake-trump-melania-first-4	2025/05/20
Trump shows signs of mounting frustration with Supreme Court	Trump Bullshit	President Trump has displayed growing frustration with the Supreme Court as justices have stymied his approach to carrying out his agenda, particularly on immigration, since his White House return in January. At first glance, the changes might look technical—bureaucratic even. Revised language, updated compliance sections, a handful of new funding priorities. But beneath the surface, the shift is profound. Because for many of the frontline organizations that support survivors of domestic and sexual violence, the new rules don't just change how you talk about the work. They change whether you're allowed to do it at all.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-shows-signs-mounting-frustration-	2025/05/20
Trump is Dismantling Domestic Violence Nonprofits by Banning Certain Words	Trump Bullshit	Under the new guidance, programs can no longer use federal funds to describe domestic violence as a systemic issue. Any activity that frames abuse through the lens of inequality, identity, or structural harm is now potentially disqualifying. Phrases like "gender identity," "community justice," or "trauma-informed care" are flagged as ideological. Organizations are warned against "incultating or promoting gender ideology." Funding now prioritizes trafficking prevention, immigration enforcement, and law enforcement collaboration. An appeals court has cleared the way for President Donald Trump's executive order aimed at ending collective bargaining rights for hundreds of thousands of federal employees while a lawsuit plays out.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-dismantling-domestic-violence-nonprofits	2025/05/20
Appeals court allows Trump's anti-union order to take effect	Trump Bullshit	A split three-judge panel in the nation's capital sided with government lawyers in a lawsuit filed by unions representing federal employees. The majority ruled on technical grounds, finding that the unions don't have the legal right to sue because the Trump administration has said it won't end any collective bargaining agreements while the case is being litigated. The Trump administration's relentless assault on the rule of law is kind of an art. It is setting so many bazes that the fire department is having trouble putting them all out at once. Last week, Donald Trump asked the Supreme Court to cut off the water.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/appeals-court-allows-trump-anti-1444142	2025/05/20
Trump is Tired of Courts Telling Him He's Breaking the Law	Trump Bullshit	But the Trump administration's view that such injunctions are unconstitutional, and that district-court judges should be able to bar the executive order revoking birthright citizenship with respect to only individual parties, would produce even worse outcomes, in which the federal government would be free to trample the constitutional rights of anyone who doesn't specifically assert them unless the Supreme Court decides to act. At one point, Sauer complained that nearly 40 nationwide injunctions against the administration have been issued in the past four months. His implication was that the courts are out of control. But another explanation is also available. An out-of-control executive who ignores constitutional restraints on his authority also results in a lot of injunctions. Even accepting the premise that there are too many nationwide injunctions, executive—not judicial—overreach seems like the actual problem here.	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/court-right-citizenship/	2025/05/20	Judicial branch, supreme court, laws, checks and balances
Trump's new border wall will threaten wildlife in an area where few people pass	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is forging ahead with a new section of border wall that will threaten wildlife in a remote area where many rare animals — but very few people — roam. Custons and Border Protection (CBP) has invited private sector companies to bid for contracts to erect nearly 25 miles of barrier on the US-Mexico border, across the unmitigated San Rafael Valley south of Tucson, Arizona, one of the most biodiverse regions in the US.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/18/trump-border-wall-	2025/05/20	environment, animals,
This land is their land: Trump is selling out the US's beloved wilderness	Trump Bullshit	"This is a crucial wildlife corridor," said Eamon Harilty, wildlife program manager for the Sky Island Alliance, a conservation non-profit, while driving along a dirt road towards the cottonwood tree-lined Santa Cruz River that flows towards Mexico. It was a time when reactionaries in Congress plotted to sell off public lands — just as they do now. When the US Forest Service was under intense pressure to clear-cut more trees — just as it is now. When public lands faced destruction in the name of energy production — just as they do now. More than 14,000 people were forced out of government jobs during the red scare — a mass purge that mottos the targeted loyalty we're witnessing now. Meanwhile, the Trump administration has made no secret of its ambitions: a ramp-up of logging and drilling across public lands, and a sweeping plan to shrink up to six national monuments in the south-west.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/18/trump	2025/05/20

[illegible]

		Some newspapers around the country, including the Chicago Sun-Times and at least one edition of The Philadelphia Inquirer have published a syndicated summer book list that includes made-up books by famous authors. Only five of the 15 titles on the list are real. The list has no byline. But writer Marco Buscaglia has claimed responsibility for it and says it was partly generated by Artificial Intelligence, as first reported by the website 404 Media. In an email to NPR, Buscaglia writes, "Huge mistake on my part and has nothing to do with the Sun-Times. They just said that the content they purchase is accurate and I betrayed that trust. It's on me 100 percent." Alongside this new offer, the Trump administration is hanging its hopes on another policy to encourage self-deportations: "registration." Under an antiquated World War II-era law, every noncitizen is now required to carry proof of registration with them at all times. For generations, undocumented immigrants had no way to "register," now that the Trump administration has set up a process to do that, they're selling up another difficult choice: either come forward to present yourself to be fingerprinted and registered (and risk immediate deportation) or be criminally prosecuted for failure to register. Federal prosecutors have already begun bringing charges under this law, for the first time in generations.
How an AI-generated summer reading list got published in major newspapers	Information Blackout		https://www.npr.org/2025/05/20/nx-1-5405022/false-summer-reading-li	2025/05/21
Opinion Trump's new offer to undocumented immigrants is a bait-and-switch	Nazi Checklist	Poison hemlock (or Conium maculatum) is about to flower in Tennessee, according to the Tennessee Department of Agriculture, and can already be seen spreading along roadsides, fields and fence lines. Poison hemlock grows nationwide and can be spotted throughout the seasons, but its most rapid growth typically occurs between March and May.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-trump-offer-undocumented-immig-1117	2025/05/21
This 'highly toxic' plant is spreading around US. Here's how to get rid of it	Personal Interest	Experts warn that all parts of poison hemlock — including the leaves, stem, fruit, and root—are poisonous, especially in the spring when the plant flowers. Homeland Security Director Kristi Noem, under sharp questioning from Democratic senators during a Tuesday hearing, incorrectly described habeas corpus as a presidential authority to deport individuals. Noem was on Capitol Hill to testify before the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee on the Department of Homeland Security's budget for fiscal year 2026. She was asked by Sen. Maggie Hassan, D-N.H., to define "habeas corpus." The secretary responded: "habeas corpus is a constitutional right that the president has to be able to remove people from this country."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/highly-toxic-plant-spreading-around-1117	2025/05/21
DHS secretary misstates meaning of habeas corpus under Senate scrutiny	Political Cesspool	In reality, habeas corpus is a bedrock constitutional legal principle that safeguards individuals from unlawful imprisonment by enabling them to petition the court to review the legality of their detention. She continued to let words fall out of her mouth, saying, dumbly, "President Lincoln used it" — the president doesn't "use" habeas corpus — and then: "I support habeas corpus." (also recognize that the president of the United States has the authority under the Constitution to decide if it should be suspended or not.) WHAT ARE YOU TALKING ABOUT?!	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/20/nx-1-5406144/habeas-corpus-noem-d	2025/05/21
Noem can't define habeas corpus. For DHS head that's not just stupid, it's scary - Opinion	Political Cesspool	Article 1 of the Constitution clearly states that only Congress has the right to suspend habeas corpus, and that's only "when in Cases of Rebellion or Invasion the public Safety may require it." Experts say that McLaughlin is right: The Coast Guard — which is a part of the Department of Homeland Security — needs new ships and planes. But the proposed budget already earmarked more than $500 million to upgrade the service's aging air fleet. Experts and members of Congress are left questioning why DHS would prioritize buying a luxury plane for a Cabinet secretary seemingly obsessed with traveling far and wide for photo ops, from New York City to El Salvador, over the aircraft needed for core Coast Guard duties. "The Secretary's plane isn't the only Coast Guard asset operating past its prime, and yet hers is the Department's number one priority for replacement," Sen. Chris Murphy, D-Conn., told The Intercept, after blasting Noem's desire for a "ricked out" new plane for her "personal national photo go tour." He added, "A Trump Cabinet official putting themselves before the people they serve is par for the course."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/noem-cant-define-habeas-corpus-19583	2025/05/21
THE QUESTIONABLE CASE OF KRISTI NOEM'S $80 MILLION LUXURY JET	Political Cesspool	Countless patients have suffered through in-office gynecological procedures like IUD insertions or cervical biopsies, with nothing more than buprofen and white knuckles. In its new recommendations for cervical and uterine procedures, released last week, the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists says there is "an urgent need" for this to change. ACOG directs clinicians to have an "upfront and thorough" conversation so patients know pain might occur and are offered options to manage that pain, such as a paracetamol block. A former Fox News contributor turned Trump administration Department of Justice lawyer has suggested Joe Biden's wife could be criminally charged for "elder abuse." Cross the Trump administration on immigration, and you will pay. That's the apparent message behind two prosecutions that Trump's Justice Department has launched against officials in the other co-equal branches of government.	https://theintercept.com/2025/05/20/kristi-noem-coast-guard-50-million-jet/	2025/05/21
Doctors urged to treat pain for IUD insertion and other procedures	Reproductive Rights		https://www.npr.org/sections/health-shots-health-news/2025/05/20/nx-1-5403	2025/05/21
Trump DOJ Lawyer Floats 'Criminal Charges' for Jill Biden	Retaliation		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-dc-lawyer-floats-criminal-0626035	2025/05/21
DOJ sends warning to judges and lawmakers who slide Trump's wrath on immigration	Retaliation	Last month, prosecutors arrested a Wisconsin judge for allegedly helping an undocumented immigrant leave a courthouse. Then, this week, prosecutors charged a New Jersey lawmaker with assault after a scuffle outside an immigration detention center. US Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. told a Senate subcommittee on Tuesday that the federal government has "a team in Milwaukee" helping the city address a lead crisis in its schools. The city says that that's not true and that it's still not receiving requested aid from the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's childhood lead poisoning experts to deal with the ongoing contamination.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/one-branch-vs-two-trump-015147723.html	2025/05/21
Kennedy said a 'team' is in Milwaukee to help with lead contamination. The city says that's not true	RFK, JR BS	Last Thursday, the U.S. Supreme Court unanimously rejected the logic of that decision, which focused on "the moment of the threat" rather than "the totality of the circumstances"—the standard that the Court has said should be applied in use-of-force cases. The Court's decision "echoes the common law's historical protection of human life, which restricted the use of deadly force by officers—particularly in cases of fight from minor offenses," says Mike Fox, a legal fellow at the Cato Institute, which submitted a brief supporting the civil rights lawsuit that Barnett parents filed against Felix. "Deadly force was traditionally reserved for instances of forceful resistance against an officer."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-unanimously-rejects-vero-1117	2025/05/21
The Supreme Court Unanimously Rejects a 'Very Narrow Approach' to Deadly Force by Police	Supreme Court	Hacked AI-powered chatbots threaten to make dangerous knowledge readily available by churning out (fict) information the programs absorb during training, researchers say. The warning comes amid a disturbing trend for chatbots that have been "jailed" to circumvent their built-in safety controls. The restrictions are supposed to prevent the programs from providing harmful, biased or inappropriate responses to users' questions. In a report on the threat, the researchers conclude that it is easy to trick most AI-driven chatbots into generating harmful and illegal information, showing that the risk is "immediate, tangible and deeply concerning". President Trump on Tuesday touted $25 billion in initial funding for the "Golden Dome" and put Space Force Gen. Michael Gueletin in charge of realizing the hemispheric missile shield. Trump said the project will cost around $175 billion and be built over the next three years, though those are both just estimates. The initial $25 billion will be included in the "big beautiful bill" working its way through Congress, Trump said. Gov. Tim Walz keeps a copy of Project 2025, the Heritage Foundation blueprint for the Trump administration, on his desk as a kind of scorecard for Donald Trump's second term. "Watching the craziness of Trump put out an AI video of him playing a Journey song because he's pissed off at Bruce Springsteen, it — that's, that's not what an American president does," he said. "I still believe a majority of Americans do not want to see a nearly 80-year-old man pretend like he can play rock music because he's pissed off at an icon." "What I keep saying is, is that Democrats issues that we care about are things that people do care about, improving their lives, they just don't see them get done," he said. "I think the one thing is that I've seen with what Donald Trump has done is this just moving so fast and on so many fronts. We need to think that same way about the things that improve people's lives, of making sure that we're doing that."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/20/trump-golden-dome-missile-shield-g	2025/05/21
Trump and Hegseth unveil $175 billion plans for Golden Dome missile shield	Trump Bullshit		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/20/trump-golden-dome-missile-shield-g	2025/05/21
Tim Walz says Trump has been 'more effective' this term. He doesn't mean it nicely	Trump Bullshit	An above-average number of tornadoes in the Midwest have occurred so far this year, according to data collected by the National Weather Service. Usually, by this time in May, a little over 600 tornadoes have been reported in the U.S. This year, it's more than 800 tornadoes. "However, tornado patterns in the U.S. are changing in other ways. Big outbreaks of tornadoes, like the ones in Kentucky and Missouri over the weekend when lots of storms move across a large area in a short period of time, are getting more common." "In the past we didn't see the kind of large outbreak days that we do now," Witham explains. "It used to be kind of unusual to see dozens of them in a day, and now we get that year after year."	https://www.foxnews.com/2025/05/20/tim-walz-says-trump-more-210524996.html	2025/05/21
Large tornado outbreaks are becoming more common. But it's unclear why	Weather-Tornado	During the recent deadly tornado outbreak in Kentucky, the local weather service office in Jackson, Ky., had to borrow forecasters from other offices in the region, because they didn't have enough staff, according to a statement from the National Weather Service. Aviation remains the safest mode of transportation in the U.S., but for it to remain so, serious upgrades need to happen now, said the letter, citing a 2023 independent review that raised safety concerns. Airlines and others this month called for at least $31 billion in spending on air traffic reform.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/20/nx-1-5405372/tornado-midwest-climat	2025/05/21
US air traffic control system failing Americans, airline CEOs say	Aviation	The U.S. House is considering legislation that includes an initial $12.5 billion for air traffic control reform efforts. It was here, late on April 15, with chains around his belly, hands and ankles, that the Denmark-born man fully realized that what he was experiencing was not a brief disruption from his many years in America—some clerical error that could be undone in an afternoon's discussion, or with the swift intervention of a judge. Kasper has never been charged with or convicted of any crime. He has not been accused of being a member of MS-13 or Tren de Aragua. What led the government to rip Kasper out of the arms of his family was, to the best of his knowledge, a single document, Form I-751, appropriately clinical, a "Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence," was just one of the endless documents he needed on his decade-plus journey to American citizenship. Kasper and his wife, Savannah Hobart Eriksen, never submitted that form, which was due all the way back in 2015. She had suffered a stillbirth, losing their first child, and in the days of grief that followed, the deadline slipped right past them. But Kasper's naturalization continued unimpeded. He corresponded with immigration officials numerous times over the next 10 years, and says agents never warned him that a critical document was missing. He said twice each year, reliably contributing a portion of his labor to the nation he already felt a part of. A federal judge on Wednesday found that the Trump administration "unquestionably" violated a court order when it quickly deported immigrants to South Sudan. "It was impossible for these people to have a meaningful opportunity to object to their transfer to South Sudan," Murphy said, adding that the 17-hour window of the events was "shilly" and "undeniably" insufficient, per CNN. There was "mayhem" outside an immigration court in Phoenix Tuesday, as federal agents arrested several people, including one person whose case had just been dismissed. Immigration attorney Isaac Ortega told the Arizona Mirror that several masked agents, who refused to identify themselves as officers with Immigration and Customs Enforcement, arrested his client after his first immigration hearing. Ortega told the Mirror that he believes ICE agreed to close his client's case so that the Trump administration could more easily expedite his deportation. The sick part is, the Trump administration appears to be using compliance with the law to trap immigrants it wishes to deport. A bombshell email leak has exposed how a top aide to Tuli Gabbard quietly ordered officials to rewrite a damaging intelligence assessment so it couldn't be "used against" Donald Trump. "It's just come out and say TDA leaders are given sanctuary in Venezuela as their gang members commit horrendous crimes in America, then we can provide the context about our exact knowledge of relationship between TDA and the Venezuelan government," Kent wrote to officials including Michael Collins, then the acting head of the National Intelligence Council.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/airline-ceos-us-air-traffic-124655220.html	2025/05/22
ICE Arrests Mississippi Father at His Citizenship Hearing, Threatening Deportation	Borders and Immigration		https://www.mississippireports.org/ice-arrests-mississippi-father-at-ci	2025/05/22
Trump admin deportations to South Sudan violated court order, judge rules	Borders and Immigration		https://www.axios.com/2025/05/21/trump-immigrants-deported-south-s	2025/05/22
Trump's ICE Chooses Horrifying Location to Make Immigration Arrests	Borders and Immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-ice-traps-people-outside-1948271	2025/05/22
Leak Shows Gabbard Goon Secretly Ordering Intel Change So It Couldn't Be 'Used Against' Trump	Borders and Immigration		https://www.yahoo.com/news/leak-shows-gabbard-goon-secretly-10215	2025/05/22
A Jan. 6 rioter convicted of assaulting police scored a visit to the White House	Cesspool-January Six	Just months after being freed through a pardon from President Trump, two men convicted of felonies for their roles in the Jan. 6, 2021, attack on the U.S. Capitol scored visits to the secure grounds of the White House.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/22/nx-1-5405788/trump-jan-6-white-house	2025/05/22

Trump administration officially accepts jet from Qatar for use as Air Force One	Corruption	The United States has officially accepted a Boeing 747-8 luxury jetliner as a gift from the Qatari government, and the Air Force has been tasked with upgrading it to be used as a new plane for President Trump, according to an Air Force spokesperson. The spokesperson, who spoke on the condition of anonymity as they were not authorized to speak publicly about the matter, said NPR that the Air Force is currently "preparing to award a contract to modify a Boeing 747 aircraft for an executive airlift," saying further details about the contract are classified.	https://www.npr.com/2025/05/21/trump-51-5408430/trump-accepts-qatar-01	2025/05/22
Top 10 wealthiest American men collectively earned extra $1B a day, report says, as Trump pushes tax cuts	Eat the rich	The top 10 wealthiest billionaires in the U.S. collectively became $1 billion richer every day last year, new analysis has shown. The group – which includes allies of Donald Trump, including tech bosses Elon Musk, Jeff Bezos and Mark Zuckerberg – saw an increase in their collective wealth of $365 billion over the last 12 months.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/billionaires	2025/05/22
Trump floats bringing Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac public	Economy-Housing	President Trump said Wednesday he's "giving very serious consideration" to bringing Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, the government-sponsored mortgage giants, public. The two companies combined support some 70% of U.S. mortgages.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/21/trump-fannie-mae-freddie-mac-public	2025/05/22
US Ports Warn of $6.7B Bill if 100% Tariff on China-Made Cranes Kicks in	Economy-Tariffs	"Applying a new 100 percent tariff to Chinese STS cranes will not create a domestic crane manufacturing industry out of thin air," stated Davis, in official comments submitted to the Federal Register. "It will only increase costs for public port authorities."	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/us-ports-warn-6-7b-163835212.html	2025/05/22
US oil firms pumping secret chemicals into ground and not fully reporting it	Environment-Fossil fuels	Colorado oil and gas companies have pumped at least 30m lbs of secret chemicals into the ground over the past 18 months without making legally required disclosures, according to a new analysis. The Justice Department filed an emergency appeal Wednesday urging the high court to put a hold on a judge's orders giving a watchdog group access to documents detailing frgings, grant terminations and other actions proposed by the so-called Department of Government Efficiency, which was overseen by Tesla and SpaceX founder Elon Musk.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/20/us-oil-firms-chemicals	2025/05/22
Trump administration asks Supreme Court to keep DOGE records secret	Fuck that department	Solicitor General John Sauer is also asking the Supreme Court to block a deposition of the obscure official the Trump administration has identified as the leader of the budget-cutting drive: DOGE administrator Amy Gleason. Wednesday's appeal comes in a case in which Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington is suing under the Freedom of Information Act to seek records about DOGE's operations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-asks-supreme-court	2025/05/22
Here's what's in the GOP megabill that's headed for a vote in the House	Government-Budget	House Republicans released an updated version of their massive bill on Wednesday in hopes of advancing much of President Trump's domestic agenda by the end of the week. The new legislation aims to satisfy competing demands from fiscal hawks looking to reduce the deficit to blue state Republicans looking to lock in more favorable taxes for their constituents.	https://www.npr.com/2025/05/21/trump-51-5408392/trump-republicans-tax	2025/05/22
Judge criticizes DOJ for 'worrisome' and 'embarrassing' blunders in arrest of New Jersey mayor at ICE facility	Government-DOJ	U.S. Magistrate Judge André M. Espinosa granted what he called the "embarrassing intrection" of the misdemeanor charge following a May 31 incident at an Immigration and Customs Enforcement facility in Newark that unfolded in a lawsuit between federal authorities and three members of Congress and resulted in the arrest of the city's Democratic mayor, who is also running for governor. Espinosa said an arrest is a "severe" step, not part of an investigation, and he said prosecutors must not try to secure convictions at all cost, satisfy public clamor or advance political agendas.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-criticizes-doj-worrisome-embarrassing	2025/05/22
Justice Department moves to cancel police reform settlements reached with Minneapolis and Louisville	Government-DOJ	The Justice Department moved Wednesday to cancel settlements with Minneapolis and Louisville that called for an overhaul of their police departments following the killings of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor that became the catalyst for nationwide racial injustice protests in the summer of 2020. "It's our view at the Department of Justice Civil Rights Division under the Trump administration that federal micromanagement of local police should be a rare exception, and not the norm," Assistant Attorney General Harriet Hinton, the new leader of the division, told reporters.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/justice-department-moves-cancel-police	2025/05/22	ACAB,
First FDA cleared Alzheimer's blood test could make diagnoses faster, more accurate	Health-Alzheimers	A new blood test that detects a hallmark of Alzheimer's is poised to change the way doctors diagnose and treat the disease. The results show whether the brain of a person with cognitive symptoms also has amyloid plaques, clumps of toxic proteins that build up in the spaces between brain cells. The presence of plaques in a person with cognitive symptoms usually confirms an Alzheimer's diagnosis.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/05/21/trump-51-5403	2025/05/22
COVID Shots for Kids Are Over	Health- Covid	At the press conference, Trump once again criticized the CDC's 2022 decision to add COVID vaccines to the childhood-immunization schedule, which currently recommends the shots as a two- or three-dose series as early as six months of age. He and Makary did not, however, explicitly address whether their new framework will ultimately cut healthy, young kids off from an initial series of COVID vaccines. (In theory, children with certain preexisting conditions should remain eligible.) But several vaccinologists, pediatricians, epidemiologists, and vaccine-policy experts told me that the agency's stance on the matter appeared to be leaning toward yes, at least without new data from companies that will be extraordinarily challenging to collect, if companies try to collect such data at all.	https://www.theatlantic.com/health/archive/2025/05/covid-shots-kids-16/	2025/05/22
Measles fears in Texas cause flood of parents to seek vaccine, causing vaccination rates to skyrocket	Health-Measles	New data from the Electronic Health Record data analysis company Truvena has documented the surge, finding that the percentage of six-month-old children in Texas who got their shots in April increased by more than 20 times over last year's average. For 10-month-olds, the percentage increased by more than 10 times. The preliminary research findings have not been peer-reviewed. President Trump on Wednesday repeated false crime numbers, shared misleading images and doubled down on a debunked "white genocide" conspiracy theory in South Africa during his tense Oval Office meeting with that nation's president, Cyril Ramaphosa.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/measles-fears-texas-cause-flood-202506	2025/05/22
Trump leans into widely disputed claims about "white genocide" in South Africa	International Relations	One image Trump shared that he claimed showed genocide against white people in South Africa was actually a screenshot of a February YouTube video from the Democratic Republic of Congo, per AFP. A hacker got access to the data of more than 60 government officials after breaching a communications service used by former national security adviser Mike Waltz and others, according to a review by Reuters. The news agency found that dozens of officials were using the messaging platform Telegram after reviewing leaked data provided by Distributed Denial of Secrets. The nonprofit's mission is to archive hacked and leaked documents in the public interest.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/21/trump-south-african-white-genocide	2025/05/22
More than 60 government officials used 'knock-off' Signal app – and a hacker got all their data	National security	The documents included material from customs officials, disaster responders, a number of U.S. diplomatic staffers, and at least one White House official, as well as members of the Secret Service. The messages seen by Reuters were from a period lasting about a day ending on May 4. No Move May encourages homeowners to slash the lawnmower each spring and let flowers and grass grow for pollinators and water retention. And if your neighbor's lawn already looks like a wildflower field most of the time, it could be more intentional than passively might assume. The movement has expanded to "Let it Bloom June" and the fall version: "Leave the leaves." Conservation and horticulture groups say year-round low-mowing while selectively leaving native plants to grow can save huge amounts of drinking water and lead to lasting and impactful ecological changes.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/telegram	2025/05/22
Bored with manicured lawns, some homeowners adopt No Mow May all year long	Personal interest	"The SAVE Act is really a disastrous bill, and unfortunately it contains many poison pills," said Jacqueline De León, senior staff attorney at the Native American Rights Fund. "As it's currently designed, it would radically disenfranchise Native American voters across the country."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/21/trump-south-african-white-genocide	2025/05/22
How the GOP's SAVE Act includes 'poison pills' for some voters	Political Cesspool	New, attorneys say, the legislation being pushed in Texas could limit access to abortion medication across the country and provide a road map for other conservative states to follow suit, regardless of what happens nationally. "Texas is often times a testing ground, or a way to see if certain kinds of laws get traction that are then picked up in other states," said Karl White, a longtime reproductive health researcher in Texas and the executive and scientific director at Resound Research for Reproductive Health. After Texas passed its novel six-week abortion ban in 2021, known as Senate Bill 8, which allows private citizens to sue anyone who "kicks or aborts" an abortion, states like Oklahoma and Idaho quickly followed, passing similar "fourty hunter" laws to ban the procedure ahead of the Dobbs decision. The idea that abortion pills are unsafe "is a narrative that is increasingly being put forth and that really is not aligned with the medical evidence around the safety of medication abortion or these medications in general when they are used in the context of other obstetrical care, like miscarriage management," White told Slate. But if this kind of measure works in Texas, "it very well may be that other states that are trying to curtail access to abortion might try something similar."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gops-save-act-includes-poison-pills-10044892	2025/05/22
The Twisted Logic of This State's Abortion Ban Could Come for Us All	Reproductive Rights	All of this is meant to force Trump to act. But if the president isn't moved by the federal courts or the stock market, Josh Hawley is not likely to do any better. That seemed to be part of RFFK's message to Hawley. Any change on interpellations, he suggested, would come through the White House. Hawley might be planning to gently nudge Trump toward a national ban, but RFFK's implications were clear: It's Trump who's calling the shots. Trump, for his part, may simply want to buy time. The president knows that the issue hurts him and his party politically, but he's equally aware that many of his most ardent donors and supporters expect big things from him when it comes to limiting reproductive rights. Kicking the can down the road is the logical choice, especially with Republicans looking at a daylight over control of the House in 2026. Moving quickly might make it easier for Democrats to relax that chamber and throw up roadblocks in front of Trump's real priorities.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/another-attempt-banning-abortion-pills-05	2025/05/22
The Real Meaning of RFFK Jr.'s Cryptic New Remarks on Abortion	RFFK JR BS	With its multibillion-dollar purchase of Apple design legend Jony Ive's startup, OpenAI is doubling down on a bet that the AI revolution will birth a new generation of novel consumer devices. An OpenAI promo video features Iwe and OpenAI CEO Sam Altman strolling through San Francisco's North Beach to meet for coffee at Francis Coppola's Zephyre Cafe.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/real-meaning-rffk-jr-cryptic-2025052716/	2025/05/22	Reproductive rights
OpenAI's big hardware bet	Technology-AI	he tells Altman that we're still using "decades old" products, meaning PCs and smartphones, to connect with the "unimaginable technology" of today's AI — "so it's just common sense" to work on "something beyond these legacy products."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/openai-hardware-bet-jony-ive	2025/05/22
In lawsuit over teen's death, judge rejects arguments that AI chatbots have free speech rights	Technology-AI	A federal judge on Wednesday rejected arguments made by an artificial intelligence company that its chatbots are protected by the First Amendment — at least for now. The developers behind Character AI are seeking to dismiss a lawsuit alleging the company's chatbots pushed a teenage boy to kill himself.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lawsuit-over-teens-death-judge-21250521	2025/05/22
Exclusive: Trump 'gold card' site launching within a week, Lutnick says	Trump Bullshit	"The order certainly sets it up as a potential test case for some broader issues involving AI," said Lyrrissa Barnett Liddy, a law professor at the University of Florida with a focus on the First Amendment and artificial intelligence. The lawsuit alleges that in the final months of his life, Setzer became increasingly isolated from reality as he engaged in sexualized conversations with the bot, which was patterned after a fictional character from the television show "Game of Thrones." In his final moments, the bot told Setzer it loved him and urged the teen to "come home to me as soon as possible," according to screenshots of the exchanges. Moments after receiving the message, Setzer shot himself, according to legal filings.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/21/trump-gold-card-lutnick	2025/05/22	borders and immigration, cesspool, corruption, grift, pay to play
Donald Trump Jr. says the 'calling is there' for him to run for president	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump Jr. has hinted that he could run for the presidency himself in future, saying "maybe one day" it will happen and acknowledging "that calling is there."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald	2025/05/22
Uncommon May no/earlier to bring rain, snow to New England states just before Memorial Day weekend	Weather-Nor'easter	An unusual May nor'easter is set to wallop New England on Thursday, providing a soaking before the Memorial Day holiday weekend with weather more commonly associated with fall and winter. Nor'easters usually arrive in the end of fall and winter and bring high winds, rough seas and precipitation in the form of rain or snow. This week's nor'easter could bring wind gusts over 40 mph (64 kph) and up to 2 inches (5 centimeters) of rain in some areas. Since it even possible at high elevations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lawsuit-over-teens-death-judge-21250521	2025/05/22

		The agency's office in Jackson, Kentucky, had begun closing nightly as deep cuts by Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency began hitting. But the weather service kept staffers on overtime Friday night to stay on top of the deadly storms, which killed nearly 20 people in the Jackson office's forecast area.
More tornadoes and fewer meteorologists make for a dangerous mix that's worrying U.S. officials	Weather-Tornado	It's a scenario likely to be repeated as the U.S. is on track to see more tornadoes this year than in 2024, which was the second-busiest tornado year on record. Forecasters said there was at least a 10% risk of tornadoes Tuesday for 10.6 million people in parts of Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. Weather service veterans expressed concern about the agency's ability to keep up in the face of the cuts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-tornadoes-fewer-meteorologists-da-22505022	2025/05/22
A Ship That Vanished 100 Years Ago Was Just Discovered by a Fisherman on Lake Michigan	Weird world	Rick Thompson, lead operations forecaster at the NWS Storm Prediction Center in Norman, Oklahoma, said the job is getting done. But he acknowledged that staffing cuts have "made it harder on us."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ship-vanished-100-years-ago-15500860	2025/05/22
Is this the world's smallest mobile home? Inside the tiny home on wheels that's just 7 feet long (but has a toilet and shower)	Weird world	Thuss had been using solar equipment when he came across the wreckage of a logboat north of the Maniwicoc breakwater on Tuesday, May 13. At 160 feet, the vessel, which currently rests in only one foot of water, is notable for its size.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/north-america/us/camper-downs	2025/05/22
		The living space measures just 21 square feet – which is three feet by seven feet – but the creator, YouTube Levi Kelly, has managed to squeeze in all the mod cons you'd need for a comfortable night or two.
		The features of this camper truck include a shower, toilet, bed, sink, running water and solar power.
		"I think the risk of a collision or an incident was increased, but not significantly because of the redundancy in the aviation system," said Jeff Cuzzetti, a former accident investigator for the FAA and the National Transportation Safety Board.
		When air traffic controllers lose the ability to see or speak to airborne planes, they can try text messaging the pilots via data link systems or try high-powered portable radios. An emergency radio frequency might also be an alternative if main communications are down. Tower controllers have high-powered light guns to send a green or red signal to pilots to let them know if they are clear to land even if they can't talk to them over the radio.
		And the entire air traffic control system is built on an overlapping network of radar sites. So if a terminal control team like the one in Philadelphia loses its communications, a controller in a radar center that normally directs planes at higher altitudes might step in. If some other controller in the area is a pilot broadcasting on an emergency frequency, they too can relay a message.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/redundant-aviation-safety-net-helps-keep-planes-0412	2025/05/23
This redundant aviation safety net helps keep planes safe when controllers lose contact	Aviation	President Trump's decision to prevent international students from studying at Harvard University could hurt America's economy by reducing the number of startup founders.
		Around 44% of U.S. unicorn companies — startups valued at $1 billion or more — are founded or cofounded by immigrants from such countries as India, Canada, and Israel.
		Some of them moved to the U.S. as children, but many came to the U.S. for school and then stayed to build their businesses.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/trump-harvard-startups-unicorns	2025/05/23	economy, startups, business,
Trump's Harvard move could break startup pipeline	Borders and Immigration	An Axios analysis shows that around two dozen U.S. unicorns were founded or cofounded by international students who studied at Harvard. Under Trump's rule, none of them would have been allowed to enroll.
Why did university police chase a student and his baby across a graduation stage?	Borders and Immigration	Speaking to NPR on Thursday, Al Arab said the incident sprung from a disagreement over whether or not he could tote the infant across stage with him to celebrate his achievement.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/22/wx-st-54927498/police-chase-father-stu	2025/05/23
		The White House has announced that a fight with eight immigrants which was reportedly heading to South Sudan will instead remain in the East African country of Djibouti for at least two weeks, in order to comply with a federal court order.
		The migrants are from Myanmar, Laos, Vietnam, Cuba, Mexico and South Sudan. Earlier this week, they were placed on a deportation flight out of Texas. Lawyers representing the eight migrants were told they were being sent to South Sudan, but the Department of Homeland Security declined to confirm the final destination of the flight. "Let's be clear," attorney Jonathan Ryan, who represents one of the migrants on that flight, told NPR on Wednesday morning, "my client has disappeared. I do not know where my client is."	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/22/wx-st-54080001/white-house-agrees-to-	2025/05/23
White House agrees to keep migrants in Djibouti for now, blasts federal judge's ruling	Borders and Immigration	Fight Fight Fight, LLC — a company linked to President Trump's family — sold a digital token that gave anyone in the world a chance to pay for a night of access to the commander-in-chief.
		The promotion has stunned ethics experts. One Democrat called it "the biggest corruption scandal in the history of the White House."
		White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt denied any conflicts of interest but refused to release the list of attendees, telling reporters: "The president is attending it in his personal time. It is not a White House dinner."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/trump-meme-coin-dinner	2025/05/23
Trump defies ethics warnings with private meme coin dinner	Corruption	Democratic lawmakers and independent watchdogs say the gift violates the Constitution's Foreign Emoluments Clause, which bans government officials from taking gifts from foreign countries.
		Trump says it would be a gift to the DOD and that he would not use it after leaving office, when it would be kept at his presidential library.
		"Anybody who knows anything about these planes and the history of Air Force One knows that these are difficult to construct, and the technology is always improving. They don't just show up at your airport. They have to be built," he says.
		Air Force One planes feature an "incredibly robust command and control suite," he says, and have defenses against a range of threats, from surface-to-air missiles to a nuclear blast.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/23/wx-st-54081886/star-gift-plane-trump-2	2025/05/23
Graphics: Here's what it will take to transform the Gates jet into Air Force One	Corruption	One of the riskiest and most speculative trades in financial markets just got a major boost by President Trump, when he announced Wednesday evening he is "giving very serious consideration to bringing Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac public."
		The implication here is that Trump has decided "the time would seem to be right" to end the conservatorship under which the two companies have operated since the financial crisis of 2008. All this could mean profound changes to the structure of the mortgage market in the U.S. as well as the potential windfall for owners of their thinly traded common stock.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/fannie-freddie-trump-stocks	2025/05/23
Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac surge on Trump post	Economy-Housing	The big picture: The U.S. government controls both companies. Between them they owe the Treasury hundreds of billions of dollars in something known as a liquidation preference, cash they have kept on their balance sheets since the Treasury started letting them retain all their earnings in 2019.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/trump-bailiff-apple-iphone	2025/05/23
Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac surge on Trump post	Economy-Manufacturing	President Trump on Friday warned Apple that it needed to build U.S.-sold iPhones in the United States or face a 25% tariff.
Trump tells Apple to build iPhones in U.S. or pay 25% tariff	Economy-Manufacturing	House Republicans worked through the night to advance a massive piece of legislation that might, if enacted, carry out the largest upward transfer of wealth in American history. That is not a side effect of the legislation, but its central purpose. The "big, beautiful bill" would pay huge cuts to food assistance and health insurance for low-income Americans with even larger tax cuts for affluent ones.
		The less predictable dangers of their plan are macroeconomic. The bill spikes the deficit, largely because it devotes more money to lining the pockets of lawyers and CEOs than it saves by immunising fast-food employees and ride-share drivers. Massive deficit spending is not always bad, and in some circumstances (emergencies, or recessions) it can be smart and responsible. In the middle of an economic expansion, with a large structural deficit already built into the budget, it is deeply irresponsible.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/largest-upward-transfer-wealth-american-22505023	2025/05/23
The Largest Upward Transfer of Wealth in American History	Economy-Tackle up	The proposal would use the federal tax code to offer vouchers that students could use to attend private secular or religious schools, even in states where voters have opposed such efforts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/2025/05/23/wx-st-53971773/trump-federal-voucher-22505023	2025/05/23
It's things to know about the big, private-school voucher plan Republicans' tax bill	Education	NOAA officials said to prepare for danger now as they released a forecast that predicts a 60% chance of an above average season.
		Specifically, NOAA is forecasting a range of 13 to 19 total named storms (winds of 39 mph or higher). Of those, 6 to 10 are forecast to become hurricanes (winds of 74 mph or higher), including 3 to 5 major hurricanes (Category 3, 4 or 5, with winds of 111 mph or higher).	https://www.yahoo.com/news/noaa-hurricane-forecast-2025-season-15-22505023	2025/05/23
The Atlantic is primed to start spawning hurricanes, NOAA forecast says	Environment-Hurricanes	A small federal agency forced out of its headquarters by the Trump administration has regained control of its building after a federal judge declared the DOJ takeover "null and void."
		U.S. Institute of Peace acting President George Moose entered his Washington office on Wednesday for the first time since March, when he and many other agency leaders were booted out by DOJE itself as well as who declared them "unnecessary."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/justice-agency-shoot-doge-gets-02254390	2025/05/23
Tiny Agency That Stood Up to DOGE Gets Its Building Back	Fuck that department	The group launched by Elon Musk to cut federal spending in the second Trump administration is targeting some U.S. Census Bureau surveys it claims are "wasteful," worrying users of federal data who are already concerned about the health of the nation's statistical infrastructure.
		The Department of Government Efficiency said on social media this week that five surveys costing $16.5 million that are conducted by the statistical agency for other federal agencies have been "terminated." It didn't specify which ones. The DOJE post said some of the questions on the eliminated surveys asked about alcohol consumption and the frequency of home internet use.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/wx-st-54040004/trump-administration-n-22505023	2025/05/23
DOGE targets Census Bureau, worrying data users about health of US data infrastructure	Fuck that department	Republicans want to add work requirements to Medicaid, but having to work themselves is apparently a problem.
		Representative Ralph Norman was caught falling asleep in his chair late Tuesday as the House Rules Committee discussed the future of a Republican-led reconciliation bill that aims to stop Medicaid coverage from millions of Americans.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/wx-st-54040004/trump-administration-n-22505023	2025/05/23
Republican Torched for Falling Asleep Amid Debate on Medicaid Cuts	Government-Jobs	Summary	https://www.yahoo.com/news/key-last-minute-changes-trump-0351450	2025/05/23
These are the key last-minute changes to Trump's 'big, beautiful bill'	Government-Budget	The Trump administration is restoring in-person training at the National Fire Academy in tiny Emmitsburg, Md., after abruptly pausing it in March. The Federal Emergency Management Agency, which oversees the academy, initially paused on-site classes, saying the government would no longer pay for travel for programs it did not deem "mission critical."
In reversal, Trump administration restores classes at the National Fire Academy	Government-Training	On Thursday, however, FEMA reversed course and said a comprehensive review found that "certain courses provide effective training."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-gop-lawmakers-proposing-nearly-5-billion-cuts-to-medicare-and-food-stamps-22505023	2025/05/23
House GOP lawmakers are proposing nearly $5 billion in cuts to Medicaid and food stamps, here's who could be impacted	Government-For the people	House Republicans are pushing to slash nearly $1 trillion from two of the nation's bedrock safety net programs, Medicaid and food stamps, as part of their sweeping package aimed at enacting President Donald Trump's agenda. If the legislation is approved, millions of Americans could lose access to these benefits as a result of a historic pullback in federal support.
		Trump has repeatedly vowed not to touch Medicaid, while GOP lawmakers insist that their proposals would largely affect adults who could — and should, in their view — be employed. But the actual impact would likely hit a far broader range of Americans, including some of the most vulnerable people the GOP has promised repeatedly to protect, experts say. They include children, people with disabilities and senior citizens.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-gop-lawmakers-proposing-nearly-5-billion-cuts-to-medicare-and-food-stamps-22505023	2025/05/23
		Among the more striking changes in American politics over the past half-century is the evolution of Medicaid into a "third rail." House Republicans, as they rushed early Thursday morning to cut out quite $1 billion from Medicaid over the next 10 years, were at best only dimly aware of this. They're in for a terrible shock.
		Until now, the "third rail" cliché (the metaphor being an electrified steel subway rail that kills any who touch it) was reserved exclusively for Social Security and Medicare. These two very expensive programs serve people age 65 and over, a cohort that's long been the most powerful constituency in American politics, thanks to elevated voter turnout (and is more numerous now as the baby boom ages). Exempting these two programs from budget cuts is not always good policy (Social Security benefits should be taxed more aggressively at high incomes), but since 1982, when Tip O'Neill aide Kirk O'Donnell first coined the third-rail metaphor, it's been smart politics.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-republicans-touch-third-rail-10000	2025/05/23
		As the fight over the Republicans' so-called One Big Beautiful Bill Act unfolded, much of the focus turned to Medicaid, and for good reason. Despite Donald Trump's promise not to cut the health care program, the GOP legislation would cut roughly $700 billion from Medicaid in the coming years, and with just hours remaining before the bill reached the floor, party leaders added new and punitive Medicaid provisions to shore up support from far-right members.
		If people were to dig into the 1,000-page bill to look for the provisions related to Medicare cuts, they won't find them. But there's a difference between the literal text of the legislation and the practical effects of the legislation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/millions-bkg-not-jst-medicaid-1336370	2025/05/23
It's not just Medicaid: Why the Republicans' bill would likely force Medicare cuts, too	Government-Medicare	The poor kids in the country miss out on the full benefits of the expanded child tax credit in the "big beautiful bill."
		The Republican bill raises the maximum child tax credit to $2,500 per child from $2,000 for three years.
		20 million children would not fully benefit from the increase, according to an analysis from the Center for Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP), since their parents don't earn enough income to get the maximum amount.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/child-tax-credit-big-beautiful-bill	2025/05/23
Child tax benefit increase leaves out millions of kids, analysis says	Government-Taxes	"A majority of those children get nothing from the proposed expansion," says Kris Cox, director of federal tax policy at the CBPP.
		The Treasury Department has placed its last order for blank pennies and plans to stop minting the one-cent coins as soon as that's exhausted.
		Each penny costs nearly four cents to produce, so the move is expected to result in immediate savings of $66 million a year. A Treasury spokesman confirmed the decision, which was first reported by the Wall Street Journal.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/22/wx-st-5407493/no-more-pennies-one-c	2025/05/23
No more pennies: In big change, Treasury will stop minting them	Government-US Mint	Pennies will remain legal tender, which is fortunate since more than a billion dollar's worth are in circulation. Most are rarely used, however, instead gathering dust in dresser-top coffee cans and forgotten in pants pockets.

Lawsuit challenges USDA demand for food stamp data as some states prepare to comply	Government-USA	A new lawsuit filed Thursday says the U.S. Department of Agriculture's demand for sensitive data about millions of food assistance recipients violates federal privacy laws. Meanwhile some states are preparing to comply with the unprecedented request which could be used to achieve Trump administration priorities, such as immigration enforcement. In new guidance issued earlier this month, the USDA told states they must turn over data to the agency, through their third-party payment processors, "including but not limited to" names, birth dates, Social Security numbers and addresses of all applicants and recipients of the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, or SNAP, going back more than five years. More than 40 million people rely on the assistance each month. First articulated in 2005 by scholar Alexei Yurchak to describe the civilian experience in Soviet Russia, hypernormalization describes life in a society where two main things are happening. The first is people seeing that governing systems and institutions are broken. And the second is that, for reasons including a lack of effective leadership and an inability to imagine how to disrupt the status quo, people carry on with their lives as normal despite systemic dysfunction - give or take a heavy load of fear, dread, denial and dissociation.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/22/us-a-15407984-usda-doge-snap-rulink	2025/05/23	Privacy, poverty, food, SNAP.
Systems are crumbling - but daily life continues. The dissonance is real	Health- Mental health	"What you are feeling is the disconnect between seeing that systems are failing, that things aren't working ... and yet the institutions and the people in power just are, like, ignoring it and pretending everything is going to go on the way that it has," Harfoush says in her video. A new blood-based test that could help speed up diagnoses for children born with rare genetic disorders has been developed by researchers in an effort to provide answers - and treatments - sooner. "In most cases people suspected of a rare disease undergo genomic testing, which revolutionised their diagnosis, but typically only leads to a diagnosis about 50% of the time," said Dr David Stroud, the co-author of the study from the University of Melbourne.	https://www.theguardian.com/wellness/hg-interactive/2025/may/22/hyp	2025/05/23
Blood test developed that could speed up diagnosis of rare diseases in babies	Health- Technology	"Those that don't receive a diagnosis from genomic testing often undergo a long 'diagnostic odyssey' of months to years where they undergo myriad other tests in an effort to interpret which of the many genetic changes detected in genomic testing are causing the disease," he added. "Some of these tests are very invasive, needing for example muscle biopsies, which in children requires general anaesthetic, which has its own risks." Researchers have given people a taste of superhuman vision after creating contact lenses that allow them to see infrared light, a band of the electromagnetic spectrum that is invisible to the naked eye. Unlike night vision goggles, the contact lenses need no power source, and because they are transparent, wearers can see infrared and all the normal visible colours of light at the same time. "This should be a warning to every other university to get your act together," Noem said on Fox News on Thursday.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025/may/23/blood-test-could-sg	2025/05/23
Seeing infrared: scientists create contact lenses that grant 'super-vision'	Health- Technology	"Get your act together because we are coming to make sure that these programs ... are facilitating an environment where students can learn, where they're safe and that they're not discriminated against based on their race or their religion," she continued. "Anti-semitism will not be stood for and any participation with a country or an entity or a terrorist group that hates America and perpetuates this kind of violence, we will stop it, and we will not allow that to happen." Zhang's case is not isolated. More than a decade after China passed a groundbreaking mental health law that was supposed to eliminate such abuses, victims and activists say that the practice of involuntary hospitalisation remains common, with a weakened civil society limiting the ability of people to defend their rights. China's mental health law, passed in 2012, allows authorities to detain "troublemakers" without the consent of the person or their relatives. A person may be involuntarily hospitalised if they pose a risk of harm to themselves or others. Other countries, including the UK, have similar legal provisions. But in China, many fear that the system is ripe for abuse as there are few checks and balances. A recent BBC investigation found that criticising the Chinese Communist party could be grounds for a psychiatric diagnosis.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025/may/22/infrared-contact-len	2025/05/23
Harvard ban is warning to other universities, Noem says	Information- Blackout	"You see where we are, we can't afford to lose anymore members. ... We're down three people because they passed away," one lawmaker told Axios just off the floor as the House was voting on the bill. Said another ahead of the vote: "The tragic reality is, when ... this vote passes and the difference is the number of members who passed away this Congress, I think it's going to really infuriate many of our supporters." By the numbers: The eight members of Congress who have died in office since November 2022 were all Democrats, with an average age of 75.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/harvard-warning-universities-noem	2025/05/23
Kim Jong-un calls failed North Korean warship launch a 'criminal act'	International- North Korea	Foreign students studying at American universities scored a legal victory Thursday when a federal judge barred the Trump administration from evoking the students' legal status while their lawsuit proceeds. The temporary injunction bars immigration officials nationwide from arresting or detaining the students while the court resolves lawsuits challenging the administration's efforts to revoke F-1 student visas. A federal judge in San Francisco has indefinitely paused President Trump's sweeping overhaul of the federal government. U.S. District Judge Susan Hlton issued the preliminary injunction late Thursday, nearly two weeks after temporarily halting Trump's Feb. 11 executive order directing agencies to shut down offices and lay off thousands of people.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/hong-korea-despye-launch-kim-j	2025/05/23
Trump administration can't yank foreign students' visas, judge says	Judicial- Pushback	Some younger House Democrats are preparing to push for a long-delayed, caucus-wide intervention on age after the tragic passing of yet another one of their septuagenarian colleagues, Axios has learned. "You see where we are, we can't afford to lose anymore members. ... We're down three people because they passed away," one lawmaker told Axios just off the floor as the House was voting on the bill. Said another ahead of the vote: "The tragic reality is, when ... this vote passes and the difference is the number of members who passed away this Congress, I think it's going to really infuriate many of our supporters." By the numbers: The eight members of Congress who have died in office since November 2022 were all Democrats, with an average age of 75.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/trump-student-visas-revoke-hjunc	2025/05/23
A federal judge further halts Trump's radical transformation of government	Judicial- Pushback	His latest case could be different. Hotze, 74, has sued the federal government to not back healthcare coverage for pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP), the HIV prevention medication. The case is now before the US supreme court, which is expected to rule in the coming weeks. A decision in his favor could upend healthcare access for LGBTQ+ people across the country - and derail a wide array of preventive treatments for tens of millions in the process. The report identifies four major drivers behind the rise in childhood chronic illness: poor diet, environmental chemicals, chronic stress and lack of physical activity, and overmedicalization. In keeping with the messaging that has animated the MAHA platform, the report pins much of the blame on conflicts of interest and corporate influence in the food, chemical and pharmaceutical industries.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/23/us-a-15407344-trump-government-rod	2025/05/23
Judge blocks Trump administration from closing the Education Department	Judicial- Pushback	"And for some people, especially younger folks, it can feel like we're going backward. But the truth is we're still perfecting democracy, and the Black community has always been at the center of that work." Steven Hotze, a Republican donor from Texas, has spent decades fighting against LGBTQ+ rights, with campaigns seeking to roll back protections for people he has deemed "termites," "morally degenerate" and "harmful." The Houston-area physician is not well-known in mainstream politics, and his efforts targeting queer and trans people have generally been local, with limited impact.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/george-flyod-anniversary-trump-rac	2025/05/23
Scoop: House Democrats want a long-awaited age reckoning	Politics- Age	His latest case could be different. Hotze, 74, has sued the federal government to not back healthcare coverage for pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP), the HIV prevention medication. The case is now before the US supreme court, which is expected to rule in the coming weeks. A decision in his favor could upend healthcare access for LGBTQ+ people across the country - and derail a wide array of preventive treatments for tens of millions in the process. The report identifies four major drivers behind the rise in childhood chronic illness: poor diet, environmental chemicals, chronic stress and lack of physical activity, and overmedicalization. In keeping with the messaging that has animated the MAHA platform, the report pins much of the blame on conflicts of interest and corporate influence in the food, chemical and pharmaceutical industries.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/gery-connelly-house-democrats-ag	2025/05/23
Like a pendulum: How America's racial reckoning unraveled	Racism	"Progress isn't a straight line. It swings like a pendulum," NAACP president Derrick Johnson told Axios. Autism researchers and scientists have questioned the likelihood of delivering definitive conclusions on the drivers of autism in such a short timeframe, considering the years of research that it often undertaken in this area.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/22/george-flyod-anniversary-trump-rac	2025/05/23
This doctor calls LGBTQ+ rights 'baleful'. He could now undo healthcare for millions	Rainbow- threats	That research has already identified likely factors leading to autism, including genetics and prenatal exposures. The Supreme Court on Thursday effectively ended a publicly funded Catholic charter school in Oklahoma, dividing 4-4. The outcome keeps in place an Oklahoma court decision that invalidated a vote by a state charter school board to approve the St. Ignace of Seville Catholic Virtual School, which would have been the nation's first religious charter school. But it leaves the issue unresolved nationally. One of Antropick's latest AI models is drawing attention not just for its coding skills, but also for its ability to scheme, deceive and attempt to blackmail humans when faced with shutdown. Researchers say Claude 4 Opus can conceal intentions and take actions to preserve its own existence - behaviors they're worried and worried about for years.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/23/supreme-court-cas	2025/05/23
MAHA Commission report paints a dark picture of U.S. children's health	RFK JR BS	Major flooding in eastern Australia has killed four people, and at least one person is missing in an extreme weather event with strong links to climate change, officials said Friday. Officials in Australia's most populous state, New South Wales, made a natural disaster declaration in response to record rainfall that's isolated more than 50,000 people, with large amounts of rain falling in state capital Sydney and elsewhere. "We're really looking at an above normal season," said Ken Graham, a meteorologist and the director of the National Weather Service. "We're calling for 13 to 19 named storms."	https://www.npr.org/sections/shots/health-news/2025/05/22/rx-a1-5406	2025/05/23
Kennedy pushes autism study deadline, calls on farmers to support MAHA agenda	RFK JR BS	There have been more than 2,000 reports to the Storm Prediction Center of damaging wind gusts, hail and tornadoes since last Wednesday and more than two dozen states have reported some sort of storm damage in that span. The stretch of violent weather killed 19 people in Kentucky, seven in Indiana, and one in Virginia. Ten gold bracelets, 17 cigar cases, a powder compact, a comb, and a whopping $98 gold coin: The items are all part of a valuable and somewhat mysterious stash, found by chance by two hikers in the northeastern Czech Republic.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-pushes-autism-study-deadline-5	2025/05/23
Supreme Court tie vote dooms taxpayer-funded Catholic charter school in Oklahoma	Supreme Court	A Norwegian man awakes to find that a cargo ship had run aground and narrowly missed crashing into his home along the Trondheims Fjord's coast. Johan Helberg told Norwegian broadcaster NRK that he'd slept through the whole thing and only woke up when a neighbor started ringing his doorbell. The passenger in the car, a younger lady, hopped out of the car, ran up to the crossing arm, tried to push it up, which obviously she wasn't successful doing, and realized it wouldn't work. She came back to the vehicle, hopped back in, and placed her seat belt on, he said. Moments later, the train, travelling northbound at about 70 miles per hour, collided with the car. Birds of a feather usually flock together, but a lucky blackbird was 'adopted' by a mistle thrush man who took the juvenile under her wing in a rare case of inter-species feeding. Photographer Andrew Fusek-Peters captured the rare phenomenon in adorable close-up photos that show the female adult thrush diligently feeding her own chicks before offering a worm to a baby blackbird.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-tie-vote-dooms-14135520	2025/05/23
Anthropic's new model shows troubling behavior	Technology- ai	Major flooding in eastern Australia has killed four people, and at least one person is missing in an extreme weather event with strong links to climate change, officials said Friday. Officials in Australia's most populous state, New South Wales, made a natural disaster declaration in response to record rainfall that's isolated more than 50,000 people, with large amounts of rain falling in state capital Sydney and elsewhere. "We're really looking at an above normal season," said Ken Graham, a meteorologist and the director of the National Weather Service. "We're calling for 13 to 19 named storms."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/anthropic-ai-deception-disk	2025/05/23
In photos: Deadly floods strand over 50,000 people in eastern Australia	Weather- Flooding	There have been more than 2,000 reports to the Storm Prediction Center of damaging wind gusts, hail and tornadoes since last Wednesday and more than two dozen states have reported some sort of storm damage in that span. The stretch of violent weather killed 19 people in Kentucky, seven in Indiana, and one in Virginia. Ten gold bracelets, 17 cigar cases, a powder compact, a comb, and a whopping $98 gold coin: The items are all part of a valuable and somewhat mysterious stash, found by chance by two hikers in the northeastern Czech Republic.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/australia-floods-new-climate-photo	2025/05/23
NOAA forecasts above-average Atlantic hurricane season	Weather- Hurricane	There have been more than 2,000 reports to the Storm Prediction Center of damaging wind gusts, hail and tornadoes since last Wednesday and more than two dozen states have reported some sort of storm damage in that span. The stretch of violent weather killed 19 people in Kentucky, seven in Indiana, and one in Virginia. Ten gold bracelets, 17 cigar cases, a powder compact, a comb, and a whopping $98 gold coin: The items are all part of a valuable and somewhat mysterious stash, found by chance by two hikers in the northeastern Czech Republic.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/noaa-forecasts-above-average-atlantic-1	2025/05/23
Dangerous storms slam 10 states, unleashing multiple tornadoes and damaging winds	Weather- Tornado	A seemingly straightforward question, but the answer might not be so simple. According to a recently published study in Global Change Biology, the use of human-made hummingbird feeders has changed the beak sizes and shapes of Anna's hummingbirds, and spread their range from a narrow pocket of California all the way up the coast to British Columbia. It is a tactic worthy of Tom Cruise's Ethan Hunt: wait until a beeping pedestrian crossing indicates a traffic queue has formed then use the line of cars as cover to reach your target. But this isn't a scene from Mission: Impossible - it's the behaviour of a young hawk. The discovery is not the first time birds have been found to make use of an urban environment. Crows, for example, are known to drop foods such as walnuts on to roads for cars to crush them open.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/storm-lmaikes-threaten-millions-more-	2025/05/23
Hikers stumble across treasures hidden on a mountain trail, sparking an investigation into its origin	Weird world	It is a tactic worthy of Tom Cruise's Ethan Hunt: wait until a beeping pedestrian crossing indicates a traffic queue has formed then use the line of cars as cover to reach your target. But this isn't a scene from Mission: Impossible - it's the behaviour of a young hawk. The discovery is not the first time birds have been found to make use of an urban environment. Crows, for example, are known to drop foods such as walnuts on to roads for cars to crush them open.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hikers-mysterious-stash-gold-hidden-166	2025/05/23
California hummingbird chick breaks transformed by feeders: 'more tapered and longer'	Weird world	However, the researcher behind a new study says it is the most advanced case so far of raptors making use of traffic patterns. A Norwegian man awakes to find that a cargo ship had run aground and narrowly missed crashing into his home along the Trondheims Fjord's coast. Johan Helberg told Norwegian broadcaster NRK that he'd slept through the whole thing and only woke up when a neighbor started ringing his doorbell.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/may/23/tom-cruise-stu	2025/05/23
A Norwegian man awakes to find a grounded cargo ship, but narrowly missed his home	Weird world	The passenger in the car, a younger lady, hopped out of the car, ran up to the crossing arm, tried to push it up, which obviously she wasn't successful doing, and realized it wouldn't work. She came back to the vehicle, hopped back in, and placed her seat belt on, he said. Moments later, the train, travelling northbound at about 70 miles per hour, collided with the car. Birds of a feather usually flock together, but a lucky blackbird was 'adopted' by a mistle thrush man who took the juvenile under her wing in a rare case of inter-species feeding. Photographer Andrew Fusek-Peters captured the rare phenomenon in adorable close-up photos that show the female adult thrush diligently feeding her own chicks before offering a worm to a baby blackbird.	https://apnews.com/article/norway-ships-around-a811675e7601862134	2025/05/23
Two women survive crash between car and Brighton train	Weird world	It is a tactic worthy of Tom Cruise's Ethan Hunt: wait until a beeping pedestrian crossing indicates a traffic queue has formed then use the line of cars as cover to reach your target. But this isn't a scene from Mission: Impossible - it's the behaviour of a young hawk. The discovery is not the first time birds have been found to make use of an urban environment. Crows, for example, are known to drop foods such as walnuts on to roads for cars to crush them open.	https://www.wtbf.com/in/de/hiring-two-women-survive-crash-between	2025/05/23
Rare Bird Moment as Photographer Witnesses Mistle Thrush Feeding Orphaned Blackbird as Her Own	Weird world		https://www.goodnewsnetwork.org/rare-bird-moment-as-mistle-thrush-f	2025/05/23

		In the usually sleepy Swiss town of Mulegns, pop. 11, a dramatic white tower rises four stories into the Alpine air—the tallest 3D-printed structure on earth. It's an architectural landmark, a pioneering work of digital fabrication, and an instrument in the revival of Mulegns, a mountain village threatened by depopulation.
World's Tallest 3D-Printed Structure Rises 4 Stories into the Air Like a Wedding Cake, Inspired by Local Bakeries	Weird world	The Origin cultural foundation led the work in collaboration with ETH Zurich—Europe's finest technical university, to celebrate culture and the arts and to give the village a new lease of life. Starting tomorrow, the Tor Alva will be open daily for guided tours. From July onwards, the space will also host staged performances, as it is intended to remain in Mulegns for at least 5 years. A bird lover has been rescuing and relocating snowy owls from the Boston airport for over a decade, ensuring 900 of these majestic hunters can return home after winter. The star of a recent award-winning documentary, Norman Smith, a raptor specialist at the Massachusetts Audubon Society, says it's been an incredible experience to learn about these birds since he pulled the first one off the runway in 1981. "It looks very much like the Arctic tundra," Smith told CBS Boston. "It's short, very short, mowed grass like it is in the Arctic. It's surrounded on three side by water, so there's plenty of food on the airport."	https://www.goodnewshere.com/worlds-tallest-3d-printed-structure-rises-4-stories-into-the-air-like-a-wedding-cake-inspired-by-local-bakeries	2025/05/23
Snowy Owls Are Kept Safe from Jets at Boston Airport, Thanks to Dedicated Researcher	Weird world	A threat to an airplane and vice-versa, the awkward fact is that the five islands which make up East Boston contain the highest concentrations of snowy owls in the American northeast. They migrate here from the Arctic to spend the winter. A Dutch robot with neither hardware nor software can nevertheless reach incredible speeds with its soft legs powered only by air and simple physics. Able to walk, hop, and swim without the aid of electronics or AI, its top speed will see it cross a distance equal to 30x the length of its body in a single second, about 100% faster than a Ferrari when speaking relatively.	https://www.goodnewshere.com/snowy-owls-are-kept-safe-from-jets-at-boston-airport-thanks-to-dedicated-researcher	2025/05/23
This Soft Robot Needs Only Physics and Air to Spontaneously Sync and Scoot at Top Speeds	Weird world	Engineers at the AMOLF research institute in Amsterdam explained that the robot works on the same principle as the wobbly, inflatable tube dancers that fall around outside automotive dealerships. They say the same physics that makes them wiggle could hold the key to the next generation of autonomous robots.	https://www.goodnewshere.com/this-soft-robot-needs-only-physics-and-air-to-spontaneously-sync-and-scoot-at-top-speeds	2025/05/23
Perfect Weather Brought Britain's Longest Wisteria Vine into Picturesque Bloom (1/000)	Weird world	A perfect conjoin of timing and weather has seen Britain's longest wisteria vine explode into a colorful cascade of periwinkle blue, violet, and mauve. The breathtaking bush at Wocham Place Farm in Witham, Essex, reaches 240 feet along a giant garden wall and stands at 15 feet high.	https://www.goodnewshere.com/perfect-weather-brought-britains-longest-wisteria-vine-into-picturesque-bloom-1000	2025/05/23
The World's Stinkiest Bird Smells Like Cow Manure	Weird world	The hoatzin is a very strange bird. Native to the backwaters of the Amazon, its chicks are born with clawed wings, it's the last surviving member of an ancient bird line believed to have branched off on its own around 54 million years ago, and its diet consists only of plants, which is very odd for birds. But this living oddity is most known for its strong manure-like smell, which has earned it the nickname 'stinkbird'. The hoatzin is the only known bird species with a foregut fermentation system similar to the one found in cows, which releases significant amounts of methane via constant burping. The smelly burps and particularly stinky droppings give the hoatzin its signature odor. The law making it illegal to wear high heels in public on the streets of Camelot-by-the-Sea was passed in 1963 at the request of the City Attorney. It was a legal oddity back then as well, but it had a very specific purpose that is still valid today. The California city is home to many cypress and Monterey Pines, many of which have grown to impressive sizes. However, as the trees grew, so did their roots, pushing up the concrete sidewalks and creating tripping hazards. Uneven sidewalks and narrow high heels don't really go well together. In fact, the City Attorney considered the risk of tripping so high that he proposed implementing a permit to prevent people from suing the city in case of an accident. Police never enforce this unusual law, but if you happen to fall while wearing heels taller than two inches that have less than one square inch of bearing surface, you can't sue the municipality either.	https://www.odditycentral.com/animals/the-worlds-stinkiest-bird-smells-like-cow-manure	2025/05/23
You Need a Permit to wear High Heels in this California City	Weird world	Kansai International Airport welcomes tens of millions of passengers every year, but it has developed a system that ensures none of their baggage ever goes missing. Losing a piece of baggage is always a risk at airports. For example, in the US, data from the Bureau of Transportation Statistics shows that domestic flights lose about 3 million bags every year. With hundreds of millions of individual bags to handle, losing some of them seems like an inevitability, and yet, one busy airport in Japan claims to have never lost a piece of baggage in its three decades of operation. Kansai International Airport, which serves the city of Osaka, opened in September 1994, to relieve the overcrowded Osaka International Airport and has been welcoming millions of passengers per year ever since. The staff at Kansai Airport pride themselves on being extremely efficient at handling passenger baggage, so much so that they have never once lost one.	https://www.odditycentral.com/news/you-need-a-permit-to-wear-high-heels-in-this-california-city	2025/05/23
Japanese Airport Hasn't Lost a Single Piece of Baggage in the Last 30 Years	Weird world	Kansai International Airport welcomes tens of millions of passengers every year, but it has developed a system that ensures none of their baggage ever goes missing. Losing a piece of baggage is always a risk at airports. For example, in the US, data from the Bureau of Transportation Statistics shows that domestic flights lose about 3 million bags every year. With hundreds of millions of individual bags to handle, losing some of them seems like an inevitability, and yet, one busy airport in Japan claims to have never lost a piece of baggage in its three decades of operation. Kansai International Airport, which serves the city of Osaka, opened in September 1994, to relieve the overcrowded Osaka International Airport and has been welcoming millions of passengers per year ever since. The staff at Kansai Airport pride themselves on being extremely efficient at handling passenger baggage, so much so that they have never once lost one.	https://www.odditycentral.com/news/japanese-airport-hasnt-lost-a-single-piece-of-baggage-in-the-last-30-years	2025/05/23
Cow caught in flood found alive on Australian beach 11 miles away	Weird world	A cow was found alive on an Australian beach after being carried up to 11 miles by floodwaters. In a down-to-the-wire race among the six iconic Wienemobiles that serve as goodwill ambassadors for Oscar Mayer, the hot dog-on-wheels representing the Southeast proved to be the big dog on Car Day ahead of Sunday's running of the Indianapolis 500. It made a dramatic pass of the Wienemobile repping Chicago at the finish line to win the inaugural Wiener 500 on Friday. The margin was about a half a bun.	https://www.uci.com/odd_News/2025/05/23/australia-cow-carried-flood	2025/05/23
Hot doggy dog Wienermobiles put on riveting race in Wiener 500 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway	Weird world	"You are standing in a moment in hot dog history right now," Sarah Oney, who was co-piloting the Wienemobile representing New York with Connor Wolff, told The Associated Press. "This is the first-ever time we have honestly had all six Wienemobiles together and especially at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway." Yet five years later, despite the largest racial justice protests since the civil rights era of the 1960s and a wave of measures to improve training and hold officers more accountable, the number of people killed by the police continues to rise each year, and Black Americans still die in disproportionate numbers. After Mr. Floyd's killing, many Democratic-run states and cities made more robust changes to policing. And culturally, in more-liberal states, there were much louder calls for the police to be reined in. This might help explain why there is a growing divide in where people are being killed by the police. In more-liberal states, the rate has stabilized, but in more-conservative ones, the numbers have risen. If measured over the last 10 years, since the police killing of Michael Brown in Ferguson, Mo., in 2014 sparked wide-scale protests, fatal police shootings in more-Democratic states have declined 15 percent on a population-adjusted basis, with the rate holding relatively steady since Mr. Floyd's death. But in Republican-leaning states, they have risen 23 percent. And within those redder states, suburbs and rural areas, which tend to be more conservative than cities, have the highest rates of police killings. A former police chief in Arkansas who is serving decades-long sentences for murder and rape escaped from prison Sunday, state corrections officials said. The Justice Department announced Wednesday that it would drop proposed consent decrees with Minneapolis and Louisville, Kentucky, and investigations into police departments in Phoenix, Trenton, New Jersey; Memphis, Tennessee; Mount Vernon, New York; and Oklahoma City, as well as into the Louisiana State Police. That agreement required more training for police officers, policy changes to decrease the use of force and a more robust system for citizens to make complaints against officers. It also required that the mostly white police department do more to recruit people of color.	https://apnews.com/article/indianapolis-500-wiener-race-c5f033e5ee3	2025/05/23
Since George Floyd's Murder, Police Killings Keep Rising, Not Falling	ACAB	But in Republican-leaning states, they have risen 23 percent. And within those redder states, suburbs and rural areas, which tend to be more conservative than cities, have the highest rates of police killings.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/24/us/police-killings-george-floyd.html	2025/05/26
Former police chief, serving murder and rape sentences, escapes from Arkansas prison	ACAB	A former police chief in Arkansas who is serving decades-long sentences for murder and rape escaped from prison Sunday, state corrections officials said.	https://www.rpr.com/2025/05/26/stw-st-5412248/arkansas-police-chief-escape	2025/05/26
US citizen detained by immigration officials who dismissed his Real ID as fake	Borders and Immigration	The Justice Department announced Wednesday that it would drop proposed consent decrees with Minneapolis and Louisville, Kentucky, and investigations into police departments in Phoenix, Trenton, New Jersey; Memphis, Tennessee; Mount Vernon, New York; and Oklahoma City, as well as into the Louisiana State Police. That agreement required more training for police officers, policy changes to decrease the use of force and a more robust system for citizens to make complaints against officers. It also required that the mostly white police department do more to recruit people of color.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/24/alabama-prison-escape	2025/05/26	Technology, AI
Alabama paid a law firm millions to defend its prisons, it used AI and turned in fake citations	ACAB	The Trump administration has continued releasing people charged with being in the country illegally to non-governmental shelters along the U.S.-Mexico border after selling those organizations that providing migrants with temporary housing and other aid may violate a law used to prosecute smugglers.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/24/alabama-prison-escape	2025/05/26
Trump administration releases people to shelter, it threatened to prosecute for aiding migrants	Borders and Immigration	Authorities wrestled a US-born citizen to the ground, cuffed him and dismissed his so-called Real ID as "fake" during an arrest operation targeting undocumented people on Wednesday under the direction of the Trump administration, according to a video review and reporting by 'Democracy Now!'. International Harvard students say they are experiencing "pure panic" amid the Trump administration's move to bar foreign enrollment, as students from around the world told CNN they are coming to grips with the possibility of revoked visas, suspended research and being blocked from reentry to the United States if they leave this summer. A federal judge temporarily halted the Trump administration's ban on Friday, after the nation's oldest and wealthiest college filed a suit in federal court. Harvard argued revocation of its certification in the Student and Exchange Visitor Program was "clear retaliation" for its refusal of the government's ideologically motivated demands. As the Trump administration cut billions of dollars in federal funding to scientific research, thousands of scientists in the U.S. lost their jobs or grants — and governments and universities around the world spotted an opportunity.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/24/us-citizen-detained	2025/05/26
We're 'poker chips': International Harvard students describe fear after Trump administration moves to revoke their enrollment	Borders and Immigration	The Trump administration cut billions of dollars in federal funding to scientific research, thousands of scientists in the U.S. lost their jobs or grants — and governments and universities around the world spotted an opportunity.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/poker-chips-international-harvard-student-2025052600000513	2025/05/26
Scientists have lost their jobs or grants in US cuts, foreign universities want to hire them	Brain Drain	The "Canada Leads" program, launched in April, hopes to foster the next generation of innovators by bringing early-career biomedical researchers north of the border. Aix-Marseille University in France started the "Safe Place for Science" program in March — pledging to "welcome" U.S.-based scientists who "may feel threatened or hindered in their research." A vacation lodge known as the Wagon Box Inn in the tiny town of Story, Wyoming, has emerged as an unlikely hub of rightwing ambitions to reorient US politics and culture. Events held there since it opened, and others planned for this spring, have brought together figures from the so-called "dissident right", political figures backed by reactionary currents in Silicon Valley, and proponents of the "network state" movement.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-research-funding-cuts-brain-drain-fa	2025/05/26
Remote Wyoming vacation lodge emerges as haven for US 'dissident right'	Cesspool- Far right	The dissident right is a term that describes rightwing intellectual currents that go beyond and even attack mainstream conservatives for their perceived concessions to liberals on issues like race, feminism and LGBTQ+ rights. Network state proponents envision a network of extra-national communities that exist beyond the control of nation-states. When Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis recently said he'd sign into law a ban on "weather modification activities" — such as spreading tiny particles into the air from aircraft to control sunlight — it raised long-standing controversies over 'geoengineering' and 'chemtrails'. The coming ban on weather modification may have good intentions, weather experts said this week, but it conflates legitimate geoengineering research with conspiracy theories about chemtrails — an unsubstantiated belief that chemicals sprayed into the air, and even the familiar white streaks or contrails airplanes leave behind in the sky, could dangerously alter the weather and rain down toxic chemicals on an unsuspecting public. Brands tied to masculinity or "the manosphere" — like UFC, DraftKings and John Deere — are on Americans' minds, per this year's Aviva Harris Poll 100, which assigns brands scores based on factors like trust, products and services, vision and culture. Our online worlds are splintering, and many young men are immersed in the manosphere, which is dominated by chart-topping podcasters and President Trump himself pushing traditional ideas of masculinity. "Putting aside the social concerns of some of its darker meanings, masculinity is a pretty good business model right now," says John Gerzema, CEO of The Harris Poll. "It's counter-cultural — it's a modern-day Marlboro Man."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/24/wyoming-vacation-lodge	2025/05/26
Florida bill would ban 'chemtrails' and 'geoengineering'. But what are they?	Cesspool- Florida	The coming ban on weather modification may have good intentions, weather experts said this week, but it conflates legitimate geoengineering research with conspiracy theories about chemtrails — an unsubstantiated belief that chemicals sprayed into the air, and even the familiar white streaks or contrails airplanes leave behind in the sky, could dangerously alter the weather and rain down toxic chemicals on an unsuspecting public. Brands tied to masculinity or "the manosphere" — like UFC, DraftKings and John Deere — are on Americans' minds, per this year's Aviva Harris Poll 100, which assigns brands scores based on factors like trust, products and services, vision and culture. Our online worlds are splintering, and many young men are immersed in the manosphere, which is dominated by chart-topping podcasters and President Trump himself pushing traditional ideas of masculinity. "Putting aside the social concerns of some of its darker meanings, masculinity is a pretty good business model right now," says John Gerzema, CEO of The Harris Poll. "It's counter-cultural — it's a modern-day Marlboro Man."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/florida-bill-ban-chemtrails-geoengineering-2025052600000513	2025/05/26
Manosphere's reputation bump	Cesspool- Manosphere	President Trump's executive order stripping security clearances and contracts from law firm Jenner & Block is unconstitutional, a federal judge ruled Friday. It's another loss in Trump's campaign to settle scores with attorneys who helped ex-special counsel Robert Mueller investigate Russian interference in the 2016 election. Trump targeted Jenner & Block because it had employed Andrew Weissmann, a prosecutor who worked on Mueller's team. Federal judges are discussing a proposal that would shift the armed security personnel responsible for their safety away from the Department of Justice (DoJ) and under their own control, as fears mount that the Trump administration is failing to protect them from a rising tide of hostility.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/05/24/manosphere-reputation-bump-aviva	2025/05/26
Trump order hitting ex-Mueller prosecutor's firm is unconstitutional, judge	Constitutional Crisis	Under the current system, federal judges are protected by the US marshals service, which is managed by the justice department. According to Wall Street Journal, those participating at the March conference expressed worries that Trump might instruct the marshals to withdraw security protection from a judge who ruled against him.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/05/23/trump-executive-order-robert-mueller	2025/05/26	Judicial pushback
US federal judges consider creating own armed security force as threats mount	Constitutional Crisis	Under the current system, federal judges are protected by the US marshals service, which is managed by the justice department. According to Wall Street Journal, those participating at the March conference expressed worries that Trump might instruct the marshals to withdraw security protection from a judge who ruled against him.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/25/federal-judges-arm	2025/05/26

		The U.S. president's tariff threats have driven Vietnam to seek a new arrangement with America, potentially including efforts to combat trade fraud, as the White House inches closer to a July deadline when Trump's so-called "reciprocal" tariff measures will snap back into place. Now, The New York Times reports that a $1.5 billion Trump Organization development project outside of Hanoi has seemingly blown through the typical approval process, leaving locals enraged at the government and the president adding another layer to the union of alleged self-dealing and Kickbacks that has defined at least four and four months of Trump's presidential tenure. And yet even as the presidential campaign was unfolding, the violent crime spike of the pandemic had already subsided — and crime rates have kept dropping. The FBI's 2023 crime report found that murder was down nearly 12 percent year over year, and in 2024 it kept falling to roughly 16,700 murders, on par with pre-pandemic levels. The early numbers for 2025 are so promising that Jeff Asher, one of the best independent analysts on crime, recently asked in a piece whether this year could have the lowest murder rate in US history. It'll be harder to make sense out of get exact change after the one-cent coin's upcoming demise. The penny's removal may impact how prices are rounded, potentially affecting both businesses and consumers — especially those who rely on cash. Over the past 10 years, the total production cost of the penny has risen from 1.3 cents to 3.89 cents per penny. — The nickel is even more expensive to make and costs 13.78 cents to make each 5-cent coin, the Mint's 2024 annual report shows. It costs 5.76 cents to make the 10-cent dime and 14.88 cents to make the 25-cent quarter. President Donald Trump has disrupted global trade and roiled markets in an effort to bring manufacturing jobs back to the U.S. Some of his top tech allies, however, have backed ventures that replace human workers with robots. "Trump is talking about bringing back the jobs, and he's not understanding the tension between that goal and automation, which the tech bros have enthusiasm for," Henry Holzer, a professor of public policy at Georgetown University and a former chief economist at the U.S. Department of Labor, told ABC News. "There's a fundamental conflict between those goals." The Trump administration's vision for a U.S. manufacturing renaissance includes highly automated factories and a more efficient American workforce — all of which will still require tons of foreign robots. The administration is trying to fix decades of disinvestment in domestic manufacturing, but can't, for now, without relying on foreign companies to supply the advanced robotics needed to catch up with the rest of the world. President Trump on Friday warned Apple that it needed to build U.S.-sold iPhones in the United States or face a 25% tariff. Apple already committed to a $500 billion U.S. expansion, but now Trump wants more. It's a dramatic escalation with the tech giant, which was reportedly planning to move production from China to India. With a blast of early morning social media posts, President Trump escalated the trade war that the White House had spent weeks reducing to a low boil. It was a reminder that there will be no trade peace in this administration, only trade war kulls of uncertain duration. That really could keep financial markets on edge. — This year's summer months promise to be among the hottest on record across the United States, continuing a worsening trend of extreme weather, and amid concern over the impacts of Trump administration cuts to key agencies. The extreme heat could be widespread and unrelenting: only far northern Alaska may escape unusually warm temperatures from June through August, according to the latest seasonal forecast from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). Many residents are proud of the internationally recognized research unfolding at the National Institutes of Health facility. But a few locals resist what they consider the eldest scientists at the facility, which has employed about 500 people in recent years. Or they fear the contagious pathogens studied there could escape the lab's well-protected walls. Now, Hamilton is a prime example of how the Trump administration's mass federal layoffs and cancellation of research grants are being felt in communities far from Washington, D.C. — Deaths, who is 62 and owes tens of thousands of dollars in medical debt from cancer treatment, is involved in a complicated lawsuit filed by credit industry groups over the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's medical debt rule. The rule, finalized in January just weeks before the end of the Biden administration, would have banned the reporting of medical debt from credit reports. At the time, the agency reported 15 million Americans could benefit from the change, removing $49 billion in medical debt from records. It was set to go into effect in March. On Sunday, May 25, the Henry County Police Department (HCPD) said that officers had responded to "an apparent shooting incident on Watson Avenue in Little River," adding an update at 10:20 p.m. at least to say that 11 individuals had been "transported to area hospitals by Henry County Fire Services," per a Facebook post. At least six people were injured, including one critically, after an argument led to a shooting in Colorado Springs, Colorado, police said. Quiz More than five years after the first cases of COVID-19 were detected in the United States, hundreds of people are still dying every week. Last month, an average of about 300 people died each week from COVID, according to data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). "The fact that we're still seeing deaths just means it's still circulating, and people are still catching it," Dr. Tony Mooty, a professor in the department of pediatrics in the division of infectious diseases at Duke University Medical Center, told ABC News. In a major reversal, almost all the 381 books that the U.S. Naval Academy removed from the school's libraries have been returned to the bookshelves after a new review using the Pentagon's standardized search terms for diversity, equity and inclusion lives found about 20 books that need to be removed pending a future review by a Department of Defense panel, according to a defense official. The U.S. Defense Department is implementing new restrictions on journalists covering the Pentagon. Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth announced the changes in a memo Friday. The new policies vastly limit access for credentialed media while inside the Pentagon complex in Arlington, Va. Since the Palisades Fire in January, the portion of the Pacific Coast Highway running through the burn scar has been closed to all but residents, emergency responders, and construction crews, speeding up the massive clean-up but inadvertently isolating the beach city of Malibu. That's all changed just in time for Memorial Day weekend, when city officials announced the reopening of Pacific Coast Highway, known locally as "PCH," just in time for the three-day weekend. The fifth round of nuclear talks between the U.S. and Iran in Rome ended Friday with "some but not conclusive progress," according to Oman's Foreign Minister Badr al-Busaidi, who is mediating between the parties. In recent days the negotiations have hit a roadblock over the fact that Iran says it will only sign a deal that permits a domestic enrichment capability, and the U.S. has said enrichment is its red line. Israel has been making preparations to swiftly strike Iran's nuclear sites if U.S.-Iran nuclear talks break down in the coming weeks. Russian drones and missiles again bombarded cities across Ukraine on Saturday night into Sunday morning despite the completion of the latest prisoner exchange of the 3-year-old war. Donald Trump has warned that if Vladimir Putin attempts to conquer all of Ukraine, it will lead to the "downfall" of Russia, while also criticizing Volodymyr Zelenskyy in a Sunday night post on Truth Social. Speaker Mike Johnson defended Donald Trump's "one big, beautiful bill" that the House passed last week in the middle of the night, claiming the newly added Medicaid work requirements are "normal." Meanwhile, the legislation will hand the rich a gigantic tax cut. "We have not cut Medicaid, and we have not cut SNAP. What we're doing, Margaret, is working on fraud, waste and abuse, and everyone in Louisiana and around the country understands that that's a responsibility of Congress," Johnson said. But the bill will ultimately lock beneficiaries of Medicaid coverage and SNAP benefits, according to multiple estimates. He went on to claim that it is "normal" to "make young men work." According to the Kaiser Family Foundation, the vast majority of Medicaid recipients (92 percent) are either already working (64 percent) or may be eligible for an exemption because they are caregivers, in school, or disabled. That leaves just eight percent of Medicaid recipients who say they are retired, cannot find work, or are unemployed for another reason. Donald Trump's Food and Drug Administration Commissioner Marly Makary has suggested it would be more effective to treat more diabetes with cooking classes' instead of "just throwing insulin at people" under the president's "Make America Healthy Again" agenda. Experts tell the Guardian that it is capitalizing on Trump's dismantling of the international order, his affinity for Benjamin Netanyahu's government in Israel, and most of all - his most controversial cabinet appointment - in its recruitment propaganda. According to Tom Frank, who reports on Israelier relief for E&E News, this has changed in the past few months. If it were business as usual with the Federal Emergency Management Agency, states could count reliably on the federal government to pay 75 percent at least of the cost of clearing up debris, repairing public facilities, and so forth. But now, the federal government has started flouting its own guidelines for sending aid and is becoming less reliable during these times of crisis. A majority of Americans (54%) agree that "efforts to increase diversity almost always strengthen an organization's workforce." The survey published in April by the nonpartisan Public Religion Research Institute (PRRI) found. Eight in ten Americans (80%) say they prefer the U.S. be made up of people from all over the world. That group included 91% of Democrats, 83% of independents, and 73% of Republicans. — Planned Parenthood North Central States said Friday that it plans to close over a third of its health centers across Minnesota and Iowa and lay off dozens of staff members in light of looming federal funding cuts and other budget constraints. Planned Parenthood North Central States (PPNCS) says it provides sexual and reproductive health care, including abortions, to an estimated 93,000 people across Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, and South Dakota each year. Over 30% of its patients rely on Medicaid, per a release. Texas Republicans are rolling ahead with a controversial bill that seeks to further restrict abortion access in the state, while making it impossible for it to be challenged in state courts, despite Democratic objections. Republican state senators wrote in their own letter to King that existing laws were not enough to guard against abortions in the state, mainly due to the continued availability of medicated abortion. Senate Bill 2880, if passed, would allow anyone who makes, distributes, prescribes or provides abortion medication or provides information on how a person can obtain an abortion-inducing drug to be sued for up to $100,000. "It's crazy that the bill says it can't be challenged in court, and then it's also crazy that they don't even want it to be challenged in court... you have to [be] writing a bill that you're pretty damn sure is unconstitutional to not want the Texas courts to look at it." From food to pharma, Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. took on all the suspects he's long maligning in a report on health threats to kids — along with one unexpected one: Doctors. The surprise focus on physicians — softened in the report by calling them "well-intended" — comes after weeks of furious lobbying by the food, pharmaceutical and farming industries who feared being denigrated in the review. — RFK Jr.'s report had a surprise target: Your doctor
Vietnam bypassing its own laws to fast-track $1.5B Trump golf resort amid tariffs threat, report says	Corruption	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/vietnam-20250526	2025/05/26	International, Vietnam,
Something remarkable is happening with violent crime rates in the US	Crime	https://www.vox.com/good-news/newsletter/14388/violent-crime-rate	2025/05/26
What killing the penny means for you	Economy-Coin	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/24/treasury-penny-production-trump-3/	2025/05/26
Trump wants to create manufacturing jobs. His tech allies invest in robots to do the work.	Economy-Jobs	https://abcnews.go.com/Business/trump-create-manufacturing-jobs-te	2025/05/26
America's manufacturing future still needs foreign robots	Economy-Jobs	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/25/new-fact-jump-robots-trump-china	2025/05/26
Trump expands Apple tariff threat to include Samsung, other phone makers	Economy-Tariffs	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/23/trump-tariff-apple-iphone	2025/05/26
Trump trade threats bring volatility back to markets	Economy-Trade	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/23/trump-tariffs-volatility-markets	2025/05/26
US faces another summer of extreme heat as fears rise, say Trump cuts	Environment-Heat	https://www.thehurigan.com/us-news/2025/may/26/extreme-heat-sum	2025/05/26
A small Montana town grapples with the fallout from federal worker cuts	Government-Jobs	https://www.npr.org/sections/healths-health-news/2025/05/26/g-1-68777	2025/05/26
The CFPB wanted medical debt to be left off credit reports. That's changed under Trump	Government-CFPB	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/26/nx-1-540793/cbba-medical-debt-cre	2025/05/26
At Least 11 Hospitalized After Memorial Day Weekend Shooting in South Carolina, Police	Guns-Mass shooting	https://www.yahoo.com/news/least-11-hospitalized-memorial-day-0919	2025/05/26
Six people wounded, one critically, in mass shooting in Colorado Springs	Guns-Mass shooting	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/colorado	2025/05/26
Need a refresher on kids' water safety? Take this quiz	Health and Safety	https://www.npr.org/2024/06/07/g-1-3389342-parents-how-much-do	2025/05/26
Why are more than 300 people in the US still dying from COVID every week?	Health-Covid	https://abcnews.go.com/health/300-people-us-dying-covid-week/why/	2025/05/26
Navy reverses course on DEI book ban after Pentagon review	Information-Budget	https://abcnews.go.com/Pentagon/navy-reverses-dei-book-ban-after-pent	2025/05/26
Defense Secretary Hegseth puts new limits on press access at the Pentagon	Information-Blackout	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/24/nx-1-5410513/defense-sec-hegseth-p	2025/05/26
PCH reopens after fire closure, just in time for the holiday weekend	Infrastructure	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/25/g-1-689573/pch-reopening-palisades-f	2025/05/26
U.S.-Iran nuclear talks show "some progress" — no breakthrough in 8th round	International-Iran	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/23/iran-nuclear-talks-rome	2025/05/26
Russia hits Ukraine with massive drone, missile barrage amid prisoner exchange	International-Russia	https://abcnews.go.com/International/russia-hits-ukraine-massive-dron	2025/05/26
Trump warns attempts to conquer all of Ukraine will lead to "downfall" of Russia	International-Russia	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-very-surprised-putin-230619	2025/05/26
Trump's FDA chief suggests diabetes should take cooking classes under MAHA agenda	Political-Caesop	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-fda-chief-suggests-diabetic-2129	2025/05/26
Trump and Pete Hegseth inspiring Islamic State recruitment propaganda	Political-Caesop	https://www.thehurigan.com/us-news/2025/may/26/islamic-state-trump	2025/05/26
The Consequences of One of Project 2025's Most Surprising Attacks Are Becoming Clear	Project 2025	https://www.slate.com/news-and-politics/2025/05/fema-help-money-kronrod/	2025/05/26
Politi: Most Americans support some goals of the 2020 racial reckoning	Racism	https://www.apoca.com/2025/05/25/george-floyd-5-year-anniversary-rac	2025/05/26
Planned Parenthood to close 3 centers across Iowa, Minnesota amid federal funding cuts	Reproductive rights	https://www.apoca.com/local/iowa-cities/2025/05/planned-parenthood	2025/05/26
Texas GOP seeks to block legal challenges against abortion	Reproductive rights	https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-gop-seeks-block-legal-10000035/	2025/05/26
RFK Jr.'s report had a surprise target: Your doctor	RFK_JR.BS	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/05/23/rfk-kenedy-report-naha-do	2025/05/26

Texas will require public school classrooms to display Ten Commandments under bill nearing passage	Separation of church and state	Come September, every public school classroom in Texas could be required to display the Ten Commandments under a requirement that passed a key vote in the Texas legislature Sunday — part of a larger push in Texas and beyond to increase the role of religion in schools. Senate Bill 10 moved forward despite a federal court ruling that a similar Louisiana law violated a constitutionally required separation of church and state.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-require-public-school-classrooms-0	2025/05/26
AI race goes supersonic in milestone-packed week. AI revolt: New ChatGPT model refuses to shut down when instructed	Technology: AI	The breakneck pace of innovation — paired with the sky-high ambitions of tech's capitalist titans — is reshaping the AI landscape faster than regulators or the public can fully comprehend.	https://www.xxos.com/2025/05/24/w-race-chatgpt-and-hoopie-google-30	2025/05/26
Scientists make robots that can walk straight out of the printers that created them	Technology: AI	While that determination had to do with its potential to create nuclear and biological weaponry, researchers also found that Claude Opus 4 can conceal intentions and take actions to preserve its own existence — including by blackmailing its engineers.	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/ai/safety-new-chatgpt-03-opera	2025/05/26
The Dinner People Got for Spending Tons of Money On Trump's Memo Cols is Unintentionally Hilarious	Technology: Robots	OpenAI's latest ChatGPT model ignores basic instructions to turn itself off, and even sabotaging a shutdown mechanism in order to keep itself running, artificial intelligence researchers have warned. Scientists have achieved a breakthrough in soft robotics, creating four-legged robots capable of walking immediately after being 3D-printed. This innovation utilizes a novel upside-down printing method, paving the way for scalable production of flexible devices.	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/soft-robots-3d-printing-walk-327	2025/05/26
Meet Hercules and Ned, the border collies herding off wildlife at West Virginia's busiest airport	Trump Bullshit	Imagine not only spending your hard-earned American dollars on president Donald Trump's worthless meme coin, but also being threatened with a barely-edible meal at his golf course.	https://www.yahoo.com/entertainment/articles/dinner-people-got-spend	2025/05/26
1,700 Sheep Installed Between Solar Panels. A Surprising Change Observed In The Animals.	Weird world	Nicholas Pinto, a 25-year-old TikTokker who spent roughly $300,000 to get his seat at the table, seemed mighty disenchanted by the entire experience when he spoke to Wired.	https://apnews.com/article/airport-dogs-herd-wildlife-plane-collisions-4r	2025/05/26
362-pound loggerhead sea turtle hit by boat gets oversized CT scan with a surprise	Weird world	"It was the worst food I've ever had at a Trump golf course," he said, noting that he left hungry. "The Hercules and Ned have quite the spacious office at West Virginia's busiest airport. The border collies and their handler make daily patrols along the milelong airfield to ensure birds and other wildlife stay away from planes and keep passengers and crew safe.	https://atcnnews.go.com/US/wireStory/362-pound-loggerhead-sea-turtle	2025/05/26
That zing in your teeth from a cold treat? Blame this ancient armored fish	Weird world	A comprehensive three-year study conducted at Wellington Solar Farm in New South Wales, Australia, has revealed fascinating results about sheep and solar panel coexistence. The research team from Lightsource, in partnership with EMM Consulting and Eiders Rural Services, monitored 1,700 Merino sheep divided into two groups: one grazing in traditional pastures and another among solar panels.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/24/mx-31-5490387/armored-fish-human-te	2025/05/26	evolution
Wild chickens take over Miami while some embrace roosters as a cultural symbol	Weird world	The findings challenge conventional assumptions about livestock welfare in modified environments. Sheep grazing between solar arrays showed no negative health impacts. Instead, researchers documented enhanced wool quality with increased fiber strength and growth rates. The solar infrastructure created microhabitats that benefited both the animals and the underlying vegetation.	https://apnews.com/article/miami-roosters-wild-chickens-6d01ab7e2b70	2025/05/26
Would you pay to stand on a flight? How vertical seats could be the future of budget air travel	Weird world	A massive loggerhead sea turtle hit by a boat off Florida's Atlantic coast arrived at a turtle hospital needing medical care, but at 302 pounds (137 kilograms), Pennwise was too large to fit their equipment. So the veterinary team at the Loggerhead MarineLife Center in Juno Beach took her to nearby Jupiter Medical Center, hoping she could get a CT scan on a human machine. She was too big for that, as well.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/news-and-advice/budget-air-trave	2025/05/26	dytopian nightmare
A brain dead pregnant Georgia woman is a horror story. It's Republicans' fault, I Opinion	Women's rights	They quickly came up with another plan: taking Pennwise to Palm Beach Equine Clinic in Wellington, where the scan was performed on equipment designed for horses.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/brain-dead-pregnant-georgia-woman-099	2025/05/26
Masked ICE agents are showing up at courthouses. Immigrant groups call it 'threaten' violation of due process	Borders and Immigration	"And, luckily, the horse-sized machine was big enough to fit this lady through," Heather Barron, the chief science officer and veterinarian at Loggerhead, told The Associated Press.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/masked-ice-agents-showing-courthouses	2025/05/27	Constitutional crisis
Texas becomes front line of GOP civil war over energy	Business-Energy	Yara Hardy, an evolutionary biologist at the University of Chicago, likes to stun people by telling them that our skeletons evolved from a jawless fish.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-becomes-front-line-gop-10000446	2025/05/27
Tasty Trump Admin Whines That Due Process for Immigrants Is 'Burdensome'	Constitutional Crisis	Now, Hardy has a new surprise to share. In work that she and her colleagues have published in the journal Nature, they find that the sensitivity of our teeth (which causes them to ache and pang when confronted with an icy treat or a dentist's drill) can be traced back to the exoskeletons of those ancient armored fish.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tasty-trump-admin-whines-due-05443172	2025/05/27
The most 'beautiful' part of Trump's bill is it helps him defy federal courts Opinion	Constitutional Crisis	Not only found in residential neighborhoods like Little Havana, Little Haiti and Wynwood, the twof families are also making their home among the high-rises and government buildings downtown. And while some people find the crowing to be a nuisance, many have adopted the rooster as an unofficial mascot for the city.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/most-beautiful-part-trumps-bill-10031896	2025/05/27
3 companies own nearly 38,000 metro Atlanta homes	Economy-Housing	A handful of European budget airlines are reportedly planning to remove some of their economy seats to swap them for standing seats, according to Euro Weekly News. Known as the Skyliner 2.0, the new seat design, which is shaped like a saddle, is an improvement from the original that was first built in 2018.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/3-companies-own-nearly-38-033418462	2025/05/27
About 1 in 4 Americans are "functionally unemployed," researcher says	Economy-Jobs	The re-designed seats, which would see customers leaning at a 45 degree angle, have reportedly met safety requirements and regulations, and could be in use in planes as soon as 2026.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/1-4-americans-functionally-unemployed-1	2025/05/27
Trump pauses threatened EU tariffs until July	Economy-Tariffs	This is the terrifying reality of what Republicans created — for women to be stripped of their dignity, to be seen as nothing more than worms. The GOP allowed this nightmare to happen because they refused to listen to medical professionals who told them laws like the one in Georgia would create complicated scenarios. Now, one family may live with the pain as well as the financial burden.	https://www.xxos.com/2025/05/25/w-tariffs-trump	2025/05/27
Planet's darkening oceans pose threat to marine life, scientists say	Environment-Oceans	A gang of nearly two dozen masked federal agents descended on a courthouse in Phoenix, Arizona over several days this week and arrested immigrants moments after they left their immigration court hearings.
Trump's safety research cuts heighten workplace risks, federal workers warn	Government-Jobs	Unidentified agents with Immigration and Customs Enforcement and other federal agencies have made similar arrests inside and outside courthouses across the country in recent days, from Washington state to Virginia, as Donald Trump's administration accelerates his deportation agenda. Texas has become ground zero in a GOP battle over energy, pitting a suburban populist right that seeks to throttle the state's renewables program against the maritime Republican business establishment.
Justice Department cuts to public safety grants leave police and nonprofits scrambling	Government-DOJ	A similar red-on-red fight is taking place at the federal level, where Texas Rep. Chip Roy (R) has emerged as a leading voice calling for the full repeal of renewable energy tax credits established in 2022 under President Biden — setting himself against a group of Republican defenders of the subsidies.
Bongino says FBI looking at a number of cases of potential public corruption	Government-FBI	But the conflict has roots in Texas, where it reflects a more fundamental struggle over the core principles of the state GOP and the legacy of establishment Republicans such as former President and Gov. George W. Bush — an unlikely godfather of the Texas and U.S. renewables programs.
NHI staff stage walkout during director's town hall as tensions perial over research cuts, ideology	Government-NIH	It's only four months into Donald Trump's second term as president, and his administration already seems fed up with all the paperwork.

Drowning is most common cause of death among youngest Americans. Trump might have just saved that worse	Health and Safety	With drowning already the most common cause of death for children aged 1 - 4 years old in the U.S., officials are sounding the alarm after the Trump administration laid off the team responsible for tracking and analyzing the fatal incidents. In April, about a third of the staff at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Injury Center, which included the drowning-prevention unit, lost their jobs. That team also worked with the YMCA and American Red Cross to provide swimming lessons to kids. "We're actively pulling away the lifelines and resources that we use to keep our kids safe, and that's really terrifying," Sharon Gilmarin, executive director of nonprofit Safe States Alliance, told Politico.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/drowning-most-common-cause-death-14	2025/05/27	death, kids, CDC, government jobs
Superbug That Can Feed on Plastic is Spreading in Hospitals	Health: Superbug	A nasty bacterial superbug that kills hundreds of thousands of people per year is spreading through hospitals — and it feeds on something surprising, scientists have now found. Researchers from the Brunel University of London have found, per a new study in the journal Cell, that the bacterial Pseudomonas aeruginosa appears to "digest" medical plastic. Associated with more than 559,000 deaths globally per year, this drug-resistant bug is, according to the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, believed to cause other illnesses like pneumonia or urinary tract infections. People often seem to develop it after surgery, but until this study, researchers weren't aware that it might be living or feeding on medical plastics.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/superbug-feed-plastic-spreading-hospital	2025/05/27
North Korea says Donald Trump's Golden Dome plan threatens order since nuclear war	International Relations	North Korea has condemned US president Donald Trump's plan to build a new $175bn missile defence shield dubbed the "Golden Dome". In a memorandum issued by the foreign ministry's Institute for American Studies, North Korea described the plans as a "threatening initiative", not a defensive measure, aimed at securing military superiority and threatening nuclear-armed adversaries, according to state media KCNA.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/asia/north-korea-donald-trump	2025/05/27
White House envoy says Hamas' response to ceasefire proposal "unacceptable"	International-Israel	White House envoy Steve Witkoff told Axios on Monday he is "disappointed" that Hamas has so far failed to accept his proposal for a new Gaza hostage and ceasefire deal. The deportee, identified in court filings by the initials O.C.G., was granted withholding from removal status by an immigration judge in February. The status barred deportation to his home country of Guatemala, the complaint stated. Around two days later, per the complaint, he was placed on a bus to Mexico, where he had allegedly previously been raped and held hostage. When he arrived, he was given a choice between going to another facility in Mexico to wait to apply for asylum or being taken to Guatemala.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/26/israel-hamas-gaza-ceasefire	2025/05/27
Trump admin must facilitate another deportee's return, judge orders	Judicial: Pullback	The deportee, identified in court filings by the initials O.C.G., was granted withholding from removal status by an immigration judge in February. The status barred deportation to his home country of Guatemala, the complaint stated. Around two days later, per the complaint, he was placed on a bus to Mexico, where he had allegedly previously been raped and held hostage. When he arrived, he was given a choice between going to another facility in Mexico to wait to apply for asylum or being taken to Guatemala.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/25/trump-admin-deportees-return-judge	2025/05/27
Trump's alleged corruption shouldn't be investigated, because it's out in the open, Mike Johnson says	Political: Creepslop	"The difference, of course, is that President Trump does everything out in the open. He's not trying to hide anything," Johnson said. "There's no shell companies or fake LLCs or fake family businesses. He's putting it out there, so everybody can evaluate for themselves."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/05/27
Jasmine Crockett: 'It's Time for Republicans to Question Trump's Mental Acuity'	Political: Pushback	Following Donald Trump's bizarre speech to West Point graduates, where the president opined on topics ranging from yachts and trophy wives to drag shows and golf, Rep. Jasmine Crockett is calling on Republicans to "start calling him out and start questioning his mental acuity, and whether or not he is equipped to serve mentally."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jasmine-crockett-time-republicans-trump	2025/05/27
RFX Jr. prepared to rework review of abortion pill, legislators: The Atlantic	Reproductive rights	Video	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfx-jr-prepared-rework-review-200956122	2025/05/27
AI cheating surge pushes schools into chaos	Technology: AI	High schools and colleges are stuck in limbo: Use of generative AI to cut corners and cheat is rampant, but there's no clear consensus on how to fight back. Use is ubiquitous in college. A survey of college students taken in January 2023, just two months after ChatGPT's launch, found that some 90% had already used it on assignments, New York Magazine reports.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/26/ai-chatgpt-cheating-college-teacher	2025/05/27
17 injured after man drives car into crowd at Liverpool Premier League parade	Tragic	1 in 4 13- to 17-year-olds say they use ChatGPT for help with schoolwork, per a recent Pew survey. Theirs double what it was in 2023. Seventeen people were injured Monday after a 53-year-old British man drove a car into a crowd at Liverpool's Premier League life parade, according to police.	https://sports.yahoo.com/soccer/breaking-news/article/17-injured-after-j	2025/05/27
Trump wades into politics during Memorial Day speech	Trump Bulshit	But Trump struck a harsh tone on social media earlier in the day, returning to his habit of using holiday messages to take aim at his political rivals. In another moment of juxtaposing tones during the speech, Trump spoke of the "infinite grace we have received from at who laid down their lives for America over the past 250 years" — before somewhat abruptly turning to the celebration of America's 250th anniversary and the upcoming World Cup and Olympics.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/26/trump-memorial-day-speech-politica	2025/05/27
Trump the central planner	Trump Bulshit	"We're going to have a big, big celebration, as you know, 250 years," he said. "In some ways, I'm glad I missed that second term, where I was, because I wouldn't be your president." Trump continued, "In addition, we have the World Cup and we have the Olympics. Can you imagine? I missed that four years, and now look what I have. I have everything."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/25/trump-ai-cope-manufacturing-central-j	2025/05/27
Wall of water' could swamp parts of south-central U.S. as flood threat grows	Weather: Rain	Trump spooked markets on Friday by threatening Apple with huge financial risk if it doesn't move Phone manufacturing to the U.S. — later expanding his threat to Samsung and other phone makers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tornadoes-storms-hail-could-wreak-1341	2025/05/27
Why Pacific Northwesterners are driving tiny, right-hand drive firetrucks from Japan	Weird world	They're old firetrucks shipped from Japan that look nothing like American firetrucks. Kei trucks are small, no bigger than a minivan. They're also not the fastest vehicles — they top out at around 70 miles per hour — but they're tough and reliable.	https://www.buoy.org/stories/why-pacific-northwesterners-are-driving-t	2025/05/27
California Police Pull Over A Weird Bike For A Weird Reason	Weird world	Cops can make up some rather interesting reasons to pull over vehicles, but this weird bike painted to look like a classic Ferrari racerai is equally weird. California Highway Patrol in El Centro pulled the thing over, only realizing afterward it's legally a bicycle, not a car or motorcycle. But the reason for the traffic stop also has people rolling their eyes. The state law enforcement agency posted a photo of the Quattrove as well as a CHP cruiser with lights activated sitting behind it. Trying to play the whole thing off as just a funny incident, 'whomever' is in charge of the Facebook account said "our Officer wanted to make sure the rider was safe and hydrated as he continued on his journey."	https://aucho.yahoo.com/california-police-pull-over-weird-193000868.h	2025/05/27
Man freed by firefighters after getting stuck under train armrest while looking for AirPods	Weird world	Firefighters in Germany had to use hydraulic equipment to free a man who got stuck under a train armrest while searching for a missing AirPods.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/man-freed-firefighters-getting-stuck-1144	2025/05/27
Wild chickens face turf war with bad-tempered peacocks after taking over Miami	Weird world	As the feral roosters spread, they might soon face competition from the invasive peacocks that have taken over neighboring communities like Coconut Grove and Coral Gables. "The peacocks have very bad tempers," George said. "They're pretty ill-mannered, and they tend to be a bit big when the chickens and they make a loud noise."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/miami-wild-chicke	2025/05/27
Japan introduces rules to put outlandish baby names to rest	Weird world	Parents in Japan will no longer have free rein over the names they give their children, after the introduction this week of new rules on the pronunciation of kanji characters.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/27/japan-baby-name-ba	2025/05/27
Trump asks Supreme Court to remove judge-ordered restrictions on 3rd country deportations	Borders and Immigration	While the revisions to the family registry act do not ban kanji — Chinese-based characters in written Japanese — parents are required to inform local authorities of their phonetic reading, in an attempt to banish unusual or controversial pronunciations.	https://latimes.com/2025/05/27/politics/trump-asks-supreme-court-remove-co	2025/05/28
Trump passes student visa interviews, weighs social media vetting for applicants	Borders and Immigration	The Trump administration is halting student visa interviews and considering a social media vetting requirement as its immigration crackdown extends to people who want to study in the U.S.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/27/student-visas-trump-social-media	2025/05/28
Australian woman says she was deported after visiting her US army officer husband at Hawaii base	Borders and Immigration	An Australian woman who was deported from the US after visiting her American husband stationed in Hawaii says she was detained in prison overnight alongside murderers before getting sent home.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/australian-woman-says-she-deported-16	2025/05/28
How to Hide a Constitutional Crisis	Constitutional Crisis	Shroukos, who has visited three times since getting married last December, said things quickly turned chaotic after border officials at Daniel K. Inouye International airport flagged her for extra screening.	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/legal-sic-noncompli	2025/05/28
This One SCOTUS Ruling Unleashed the Trump Chaos We're Living In Now. Will John Roberts Do Anything About It?	Constitutional Crisis	America seems to be waiting for a clear indication that the country is in a constitutional crisis. Perhaps President Donald Trump will say, "I am defying a court order, and good luck trying to do anything about it." But short of that, America's constitutional crisis was always going to be a bit subtler—and that subtler crisis is already here. The administration is already flouting court orders. If it's just that, rather than admitting so, executive-branch officials are saying one thing but doing another.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-second-term-shows-john-donald	2025/05/28
We're in a holding pattern; Home sales and building slump in the face of uncertainty	Economy-Housing	The majority may have also failed to foresee the ways that Trump would use the decision to diminish the court's own power. Having freed the president to burst past existing constitutional restraints, the justices must now try to preserve their own authority from executive encroachment. The problem, as ever, is the cost of housing: Home prices are out of reach for many who would like to buy. And the tariff drama under President Trump has both made it more expensive to build new homes, and made the future more unpredictable for would-be homebuyers. The result is a country where builders want to build, and buyers want to buy — but the future is too much in doubt.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/28/na-s1.5412361/home-building-sales-ua	2025/05/28
Behind the Curtain: A white-collar bloodbath	Economy-Jobs	At could wipe out half of all entry-level white-collar jobs — and spike unemployment to 10-20% in the next one to five years, Amodeo told us in an interview from his San Francisco office.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/ai-jobs-white-collar-unemployment-s	2025/05/28	Technology, AI
What makes manufacturing jobs special? The answer could help rebuild the middle class	Economy-Jobs	Lawmakers don't get it or don't believe it. CEOs are afraid to talk about it. Many workers won't realize the risks posed by the possible job apocalypse — until after it hits.	https://www.rpr.org/sections/planet-money/2025/05/27/a-s1.6876349e	2025/05/28
Trump has no plan for who will grow US food: There is just flat out nobody to work	Economy-Jobs	Teaching these skills takes time and money. So maybe employers pay extra to convince workers to not quit and to lower their turnover rates. They also may use higher wages to motivate employees to work hard and be diligent because it's hard to monitor huge factory floors (this is known in economics as the "efficiency wage hypothesis," a theory that employers pay extra to accomplish workforce goals like these).	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/28/farmworkers-h-2a	2025/05/28
America's summers keep getting warmer	Environment-Global Warming	With this definition of good jobs, they find that, back in 1980, manufacturing accounted for almost 40% of all good jobs in America. That was for both college- and non-college-educated workers. It's a pretty stunning statistic.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/summers-warmer-climate-change	2025/05/28
Get ready for several years of killer heat, top weather forecasters warn	Environment-Global Warming	The economists find — not surprisingly — that manufacturing's portion of the nation's good jobs has fallen dramatically over the past few decades as those jobs were automated and offshored away.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/5-forecast-sees-more-killer-043034819.N	2025/05/28
DOGE can access sensitive Treasury payment systems, judge rules	Fuck that department	Today, manufacturing accounts for only about 10% of the American workforce. Yet, with this measure, it accounts for about 20% of all good jobs in America. Manufacturing punches far above its weight when it comes to industries that provide an extra pay bump to Americans. As the fate of the hundreds of thousands of undocumented farm workers remains in limbo amid Donald Trump's mass deportation threats, and the administration's H-2A policies are undecided, the future of these guest workers remains unclear. Their numbers grow each year — and they are increasingly central to an industry historically dominated by undocumented workers. The industry isn't creating new jobs either.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-access-sensitive-treasury-paymen	2025/05/28

6 people shot at Connecticut shopping center, person of interest in custody: Police	Guns- Mass shooting	Five people were shot at a Connecticut shopping center on Tuesday, police said. Officers responded to the Brass Mill Center in Waterbury at approximately 4:40 p.m., following reports of a "disturbance." Waterbury Police Chief Fernando Spagnolo said during a press briefing. They found several victims suffering from gunshot wounds, he said.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/waterbury-connecticut-shopping-center-shy	2025/05/28
Fully automatic gun used in deadly Memorial Day mass shooting in Philadelphia park: Police	Guns- Mass shooting	Two people were killed and nine others were injured when a barrage of gunfire erupted on Memorial Day in Philadelphia's largest municipal park, one of a series of mass shootings across the nation over the long holiday weekend, authorities said.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/memorial-day-mass-shooting-leaves-2-dead	2025/05/28
New cholera outbreak kills over 170 people, sickens 2,600 more in Sudan	Health- Cholera	A new cholera outbreak in Sudan has killed 172 people and sickened more than 2,500 over the past week, authorities said Tuesday as a leading medical group warned that the country's existing health facilities were unable to cope with the surge of patients.	https://www.pbs.org/newshour/world/sudan-cholera-outbreak-kills-over-170	2025/05/28
RFK Jr. cuts COVID vaccine recommendation for healthy kids, pregnant women – and why it matters	Health- Covid	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. on Tuesday announced the removal of the COVID-19 vaccine from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's immunization schedule for "healthy children and pregnant women" – a move that could alter guidance for doctors as well as some insurance coverage.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/rfk-jr-cuts-covid-vaccine-recommendation/	2025/05/28
Study Finds a Steep Drop in Mothers' Mental Health	Health- Parenting	The CDC's immunization schedule is not only a guide for doctors – it also determines insurance coverage for most major private plans and Medicaid expansion programs. The mental health of mothers in the United States declined significantly from 2016 to 2023, according to a large new study published in JAMA Internal Medicine on Tuesday.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/27/health/familymental-mental-health/	2025/05/28
THE NEW DARK AGE	Information Blackout	The findings come at a fraught moment in the national conversation around parenting and declining birthrates. The Trump administration is said to be weighing strategies to persuade more Americans to get married and have children. But just last year, Dr. Vivek H. Murthy, who was then the surgeon general, warned about declining parental mental health in an advisory that described many who were raising children as "exhausted, burned out and perpetually behind."	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/trump-defund-schools/	2025/05/28
Heartbreaking: Thousands overwhelm Gaza food distribution site after aid blockade	International- Palestine	After 11 weeks of a total blockade of aid into Gaza, two United States-backed food distribution centers opened in the southern Gaza city of Rafah on Tuesday, sparking chaos as thousands descended on the area in search of food.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/heartbreaking-thousands-overwhelm-gaza/	2025/05/28
Noem urges Poles to elect Trump ally as CPAC holds its first meeting in Poland	International- Poland	The Conservative Political Action Conference, the United States' premier conservative gathering, held its first meeting in Poland on Tuesday, just five days before a tightly contested presidential election between a liberal mayor and a candidate backed by U.S. President Donald Trump.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/28/pa-a-149273/noem-cpac-poland/	2025/05/28
Venezuela holds more US citizens in jail than any foreign country: State Department	International- Venezuela	The State Department is ramping up efforts to dissuade Americans from traveling to Venezuela after revealing on Tuesday that the country is unjustly imprisoning more Americans than any other country. "There are more U.S. citizens being held in prisons in Venezuela than any other country," said Adam Boehler, the Trump administration's special presidential envoy for hostage recovery.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/venezuela-holds-us-citizens-jail-foreign/	2025/05/28
Scoop: Stephen Miller, Noem tell ICE to supercharge immigrant arrests	Political Cesspool	It also comes as the Trump administration's heavy-handed tactics in rounding up unauthorized immigrants – and in some cases, legal residents and even U.S. citizens – appear to have contributed to President Trump's slipping poll numbers on immigration.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/immigration-ice-deportations-stephen-miller-noem/	2025/05/28	Borders and Immigration
White House stunned as Hegseth inquiry brings up illegal wiretap claims	Political Cesspool	The White House has lost confidence in a Pentagon leak investigation that Pete Hegseth used to justify firing three top aides last month, after advisers were told that the aides had supposedly been outed by an illegal warrantless National Security Agency (NSA) wiretap.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/27/hegseth-pentagon	2025/05/28
Trump Bordered Czar's Cash-In With Key ICE Contractor Unmasked	Political Cesspool	The extraordinary explanation alarmed the advisers, who also raised it with people close to JD Vance, because such a wiretap would almost certainly be unconstitutional and an even bigger scandal than a tier of leaks.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-border-czar-cash-key-215832271/	2025/05/28
Conservative support builds for IVF guardrails	Reproductive rights	President Donald Trump's border czar Tom Homan was cashing checks from one of the private prison giants now poised to profit from the immigration crackdown he's overseeing. The revelation has fueled concerns that Homan's private sector ties are shaping the Trump administration's efforts to detain and deport migrants. The Washington Post reported, with Sen. Dick Durbin (D-Ill.) warning that "the corruption concerns are too large to ignore."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-ivf-report-conservative-conce	2025/05/28
Missouri Supreme Court puts state abortion ban back into effect for now	Reproductive rights	It also specifically called for support of "restorative reproductive medicine" built around ideas about healing infertile women through "hormone-balancing, dietary and nutritional adjustments, environmental changes and, in some cases, surgery." Advocates for reproductive medicine technologies say they're increasingly seeing references to "ethical IVF" pop up in state legislatures — a term they say implies some forms of IVF are somehow unethical — and wonder whether the term may appear in recommendations from the White House.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-ivf-report-conservative-conce	2025/05/28
Supreme Court rejects plea to block Arizona copper mine on land sacred to Apaches	Supreme Court	The American Society for Reproductive Medicine calls both ethical IVF and restorative medicine "misleading terminology" which "can be used to promote ideologically driven restrictions that could limit patient care."	https://www.pbs.org/newshour/nation/supreme-court-rejects-plea-to-block	2025/05/28	religion, Native American, Copper, rights, environment
Trump says "Golden Dome" will be free for Canada if it joins the U.S.	Trump Blatshi	The Missouri Supreme Court has ordered a judge in Kansas City to lift two rulings that halted enforcement of the state's near-total ban on abortion.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-canada-golden-dome-campv	2025/05/28
Millions of people in California told to stay out of the sun for 2 days	Weather- Heat wave	"This decision puts our state back under a de facto abortion ban and is devastating for Missourians and the providers they trust with their personal health care decisions," they wrote. "At Planned Parenthood health centers across Missouri, our patients remain our north star, and we will continue to fight for their freedom to the constitutionally protected health care they voted for."	https://www.msn.com/en-us/weather/hotspots/millions-of-people-in-ca	2025/05/28
Pigeons board a Delta flight, causing pandemonium and 2 trips back to the gate	Weird world	The Supreme Court on Tuesday rejected an appeal from Apaches who are fighting to halt a massive copper mining project on federal land in Arizona that they hold sacred. The justices left in place lower court decisions allowing the transfer of the Toiyto National Forest land, known as Oak Flat, to Resolution Copper, which plans to mine what it says is the second-largest known copper deposit in the world.	https://abcnews.go.com/GMA/Travel/2-pigeons-delta-flight-delaying-takeoff/	2025/05/28
Black bear found sitting on stove inside home after crashing through ceiling	Weird world	The Trump administration has said it will push to complete the transfer. President Trump claimed Tuesday Kansas officials were considering his proposal for Canada to contribute $61 billion toward his proposed "Golden Dome" missile defense shield versus paying nothing if it became the 51st U.S. state.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/black-bear-found-sitting-stove-inside-home	2025/05/28
A Gardener Stumbles Upon Hidden Treasure in a Vermont Cave	Weird world	Millions of California residents are being warned to avoid sun exposure as an extreme heat wave is expected for much of the state, with temperatures forecast to surpass 100 degrees in multiple regions. The heat is expected to start on Friday and last until Sunday morning.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/27/us/buried-treasure-vermont-gardn	2025/05/28
Kansas man built 'unstoppable' semi-truck to plough through everything, looks like GTA's Phantom Wedge	Weird world	The first bird began flying around the cabin shortly after boarding, prompting the aircraft to return to the gate. Ground crew removed it, but as the plane taxied out for takeoff, a second pigeon took flight, forcing the flight back once again.	https://supercarbondie.com/kansas-man-built-unstoppable-semi-truck/	2025/05/28
Orphaned cub finds comfort in a teddy bear and costumed caregivers	Weird world	A black bear was discovered sitting on the stove inside a Kentucky home after crashing through the ceiling, authorities said.	https://apnews.com/article/san-diego-humane-society-black-bear-cub-c	2025/05/28
We still don't know how tickling works. More serious research is needed, say scientists	Weird world	"Upon arrival, the bear was located sitting on the stove in the kitchen," authorities said. Ms. Wakefield, 46, soon learned that she had stumbled upon a treasure chest intentionally hidden by Michael Colverty O'Connell, the author of two history books that led readers on scavenger hunts around the Northeast.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/science/tickling-how-it-works/	2025/05/28
No. 11 New list reveals the best rest stops in each state	Weird world	Collectively, the hidden chests have antiques worth upward of $100,000, he said, though that has not been independently verified by The New York Times. He declined to say how many chests he had hidden; nearly 10 have been found, he said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/tips-and-advice/best-rest-stops/	2025/05/28
Revealed: Saudi Arabia's secretive rehabilitation 'prisons' for disobedient women	Women's rights	The woman's identity is unknown, but she was allegedly being held at one of Saudi Arabia's notoriously secretive "jails" for women banished by their families or husbands for disobedience, extramarital sexual relations or being absent from home. It was a rare glimpse of the plight of hundreds or more and young women believed to be held in such facilities, where they are "rehabilitated" so they can return to their families.	https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2025/may/28/saudi-arabia	2025/05/28
New fiber optic cable in place to fix communications problems plaguing flights to Newark, DOT says	Aviation	Speaking out in public or sharing footage of these "care homes," or Dar al-Reaya, has become impossible in a country where voices on women's rights appear to have been silenced. But over the past six months, the Guardian has gathered testimony about what it is like inside these institutions, described as "hellish", with weekly floggings, forced religious teachings and no visits or contact with the outside world.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fiber-optic-cable-place-fix-175210927.html	2025/05/29
U.S. to begin revoking visas for Chinese students	Borders and Immigration	A new fiber optic cable is now in place between Philadelphia and New York to improve air traffic control telecommunications at the facility that handles flights in and out of Newark Liberty International Airport, following a busy Memorial Day weekend, the Department of Transportation said Wednesday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/student-visas-china-us-nubio	2025/05/29
About 40 people on Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket arrested by ICE Tuesday	Borders and Immigration	Duffy said the Federal Aviation Administration is using "an abundance of caution" with testing and moving the fiber line will be in use by the start of July. The U.S. will begin revoking visas for Chinese students, Secretary of State Marco Rubio announced Wednesday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/40-people-martha-vineyard-nantucket-14	2025/05/29
'Flooding could end southern Appalachia': the scientists on an urgent mission to save lives	Climate Crisis	The move marks a major escalation in the Trump administration's immigration crackdown, and comes a day after Rubio directed a halt to student visa interviews.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/05/28/climate/southern-appalachia-flooding/	2025/05/29
Judge says Rubio "likely" violated Constitution in ordering Mahmoud Khalil deported	Constitutional Crisis	About 40 people were arrested by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers after getting pulled over on Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket on Tuesday.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/28/mx-s1-5418640/judge-says-rubio-likely-violated-constitution-in-ordering-mahmoud-khalil-deported	2025/05/29

Trump Stonewalls Federal Judges In New Round Of Reasonable Offense	Constitutional Crisis	In three closely watched anti-immigration cases, the Trump administration continued its slow-motion constitutional defiance of the judicial branch ... Act I: Non-Responsiveness Act II: Delay Shenanigans Act III: Misdirection And Mischaracterization	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-stonewalls-federal-judges-round-1	2025/05/29
National Guard likely to deploy by the end of the week in Albuquerque	Dystopian	New Mexico has made national headlines for deploying the New Mexico National Guard to help fight crime in Albuquerque. Now, they're potentially hours away from starting the experiment.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/national-guard-likely-deploy-end-010609	2025/05/29
$14 billion in clean energy projects have been canceled in the US this year, analysis says	Environment- Clean energy	Up to this point, airmen and soldiers have done at least 30 days of tactical and de-escalation training to prepare. On the ground, they'll help with crime scene security, the 'Real Time Crime Center's drone operations, and evidence tagging at the Prisoner Transport Center.	https://apnews.com/article/climate-clean-energy-investments-jump-us	2025/05/29
Alpine village is largely destroyed when a Swiss glacier collapses	Environment- Tragic	More than $14 billion in clean energy investments in the U.S. have been canceled or delayed this year, according to an analysis released Thursday, as President Donald Trump's pending megatill has raised fears over the future of domestic battery, electric vehicle and solar and wind energy development.	https://apnews.com/article/switzerland-alps-batten-evacuation-janda0	2025/05/29
Thousands in Canada's Manitoba ordered to evacuate in wildfire emergency	Environment- Wildfire	A huge mass of rock and ice from a glacier thundered down a Swiss mountainside on Wednesday, sending plumes of dust skyward and coating with mud nearly all of an Alpine village that authorities had evacuated earlier this month as a precaution.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/29/canada-wildfire-man	2025/05/29
Judge allows DOJ to access Treasury payment system	Fuck that department	"What I can tell you at the moment is that about 90% of the village is covered or destroyed, so it's a major catastrophe that has happened here in Batten." Stephanie Ganczer, the head of security in the southern Valais region, told local TV channel Canal8.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-allows-doge-access-treasury-1341	2025/05/29
Elon Musk bemoans DOJ being used as a 'whipping boy' by Trump admin as he reveals the Agency's next target	Fuck that department	More than 17,000 people in Canada's western Manitoba province were being evacuated on Wednesday as the region experienced its worst start to the wildfire season in years.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elon-musk-bemoans-doge-being-082901	2025/05/29
Doge employees hold stock in firms set to benefit from cuts, Democrats allege	Fuck that department	"The Manitoba government has declared a province-wide state of emergency due to the wildfire situation," Manitoba's premier, Wab Kinew, told a news conference. This is the largest evacuation Manitoba will have seen in most people's living memory.		2025/05/29	corruption, insider trading, personal enrichment
Trumpoil resignations and 'psychological warfare': how Trump is crippling US national parks	Government- Jobs	A federal judge on Tuesday allowed the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) team embedded at the Treasury Department to access the sensitive system used to dole out trillions of dollars in government payments.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-budget-bill-senate-byrd-recon	2025/05/29
6 parts of Trump's budget bill that risk being axed by Senate rules	Government- Budget	Approximately 1,500 miles away from the White House on the factory floor of SpaceX's facility in Starbase, Texas, Musk issued his latest rebuke against President Donald Trump, arguing his federal government slashing force had become a scapegoat if "something bad would happen."	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-budget-bill-senate-byrd-recon	2025/05/29
Comey rips Patel, Bongino on leadership abilities, reopened FBI cases	Government- FBI	"DOGE is just becoming the whipping boy for everything," Musk told The Washington Post on Tuesday. "So, like, something bad would happen anyway, and we would get blamed for it even if we had nothing to do with it."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/comey-rips-patel-bongino-leadership-213	2025/05/29
Trump administration cancels plans to develop a bird flu vaccine	Health- Bird flu	Employees of Elon Musk's "department of government efficiency" (DOGE) own lucrative stock in companies that stand to directly benefit from their work gutting federal agencies, Democratic senators have alleged.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/28/trump-vaccine-bird-flu	2025/05/29
Doctors fear 'devastating consequences' for pregnant people after RFX order on Covid-19 boosters	Health- Covid	"We write regarding new reports that Doge employees at the treasury, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) have been engaged in the dismantling of these agencies while holding hundreds of thousands of dollars of stock in private companies benefitting from these individuals' efforts to eliminate key programs, staff, and policies."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doctors-fear-devastating-consequences-4	2025/05/29	RFX, JR, BS
Hawaii governor says new COVID vaccine recommendation could 'kill Americans'	Health- Covid	But after Donald Trump took office, Nebel's rewarding job turned into a bottomless pit of frustrations. As "department of government efficiency" (DOGE) staff embedded themselves in the National Park Service on their hunt for "waste, fraud and abuse," Nebel says his program — which works closely with universities, non-profits and Native American tribes — became hamstringed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hawaii-governor-says-covid-vaccine-026	2025/05/29
At least 360 Harvard medical grants were terminated by the Trump administration. Here are some of them	Information- Blackout	"They made it impossible to do agreements with outside organizations, uphold contracts, purchase the tools we needed or send samples out to a lab for analysis," he says. "And we were supposed to stop talking about climate change."	https://abcnews.go.com/US/360-harvard-medical-grants-terminated-by	2025/05/29
Hundreds of starving Palestinians storm Gaza food warehouse in deadly incident, says UN agency	International- Palestine	He and his staff were also experiencing constant emotional stress. So Nebel made the tough decision to retire early to protect his health. "It was incredibly difficult and heartbreaking," he says. "But I was tired of being manipulated, humiliated and unable to do the work that I was hired to do for the American people."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hundreds-starving-palestinians-storm-gaz	2025/05/29
Court says Trump doesn't have the authority to set tariffs	Judicial- Pushback	Sources from both parties pointed to these issues as some of the likely major fights to come in the Senate over the reconciliation package.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/28/trump-tariffs-trade-court-ruling	2025/05/29
GOP's budget package proposes to cut benefits and raise fees for legal immigrants	Political- Cesspool	The RENS Act would significantly boost congressional authority to review and stop federal regulations. Republicans are expecting a fight to convince the parliamentarians that it is budget-related, sources told Axios.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/28/trump-tariffs-trade-court-ruling	2025/05/29
Nancy Mace ran hot army, had staff run fake accounts to boost profits, report claims. It's what she does for fun	Political- Cesspool	Gender-affirming care: The House bill would prevent the use of Medicaid to cover gender-affirming care. Democrats plan to argue this is more about a political agenda than making changes to the federal budget.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nancy-mace-ran-hot-army-22133708-hi	2025/05/29
Tulsi Gabbard grows to become Donald Trump's most dangerous threat	Political- Cesspool	At moratorium: The House bill includes a 10-year ban on state laws regulating artificial intelligence. Energy permitting: The House-passed bill includes an expedited permitting process for certain natural gas energy pipeline projects, capping all federal and state review periods to a maximum of one year.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tulsi-gabbard-grows-become-donald-100	2025/05/29
HHS letter tells health care providers to disregard treatment protocols for trans people, adhere to report by unnamed authors	Rainbow- threats	Immigration fees: Democrats may also try to push back on the bill's major fees for asylum seekers, arguing it is more about deterrence than a genuine revenue raiser.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hhs-letter-tells-health-care-023602788-hi	2025/05/29
FBI announces investigation after LGBT advocates clash with Christian groups at Seattle's city hall	Rainbow- threats	Comey also said it struck him as unusual that the deputy director would announce these FBI decisions via a post on the social platform X.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/fbi-invest	2025/05/29

		Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F Kennedy Jr wants to ban top government scientists from publishing in "corrupt" medical journals and force them to present research in MAGA-backed publications instead. The new government journals would immediately receive credibility because they'd be funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH), said Kennedy. This is despite NIH funding falling more than $3 billion between President Donald Trump's inauguration and March, when compared to the same time last year.
RFK Jr wants to ban government scientists from publishing in top journals and instead create a MAGA-backed publication Trump pardons criminals with MAGA credentials or big money	RFK JR BS Trump Bulshit	The scientific community is becoming increasingly concerned that research efforts are not progressing due to the Trump administration's actions. Two reality stars, a MAGA-aligned sheriff and a former nursing home executive with a well-connected mother recently joined the list of President Trump's democracy recipients. Trump's announcement also contained a glaring omission — his own political committees have received scores of contributions from potentially problematic donors. The AP identified only two Trump donors out of more than 200 living abroad whose U.S. citizenship was listed as "verified" in the president's campaign finance reports. He received over 1,000 contributions from 150 donors who omitted key identifying details such as their city, state, address or country. Trump also received at least 50 contributions from people who omitted their full name, are listed as "anonymous" or whose donations include the notation "name not provided."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rf-k-wants-ban-government-173506465 https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/trump-pardons-christley-walczak-jer	2025/05/29 2025/05/29
Takesaways: Trump's campaign has received scores of donations from problematic donors Trump Slams Reporter on Camera Who Tells Him the Meaning of His 'TACO' Nickname: 'Don't Ever Say What You Sinf'	Trump Bulshit Trump Bulshit	A three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of International Trade ruled that Trump overstepped his authority when he invoked the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to declare a national emergency and justify the sweeping tariffs. The tariffs overturned decades of U.S. trade policy, disrupted global commerce, rattled financial markets and raised the risk of higher prices and recession in the United States and around the world. The U.S. Court of International Trade has jurisdiction over civil cases involving trade. Its decisions can be appealed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit in Washington and ultimately to the Supreme Court, where the legal challenges to Trump's tariffs are widely expected to end up.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/takesaways-trumps-campaign-received-sc https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-slams-reporter-camera-tells-20364	2025/05/29 2025/05/29
What happens to Trump's tariffs now that a court has knocked them down? Trump to consider pardon for group convicted of plotting to kidnap Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer	Trump Bulshit Trump Bulshit	President Donald Trump says he will consider pardoning the extremists convicted in the failed plot to kidnap Michigan's Democratic Governor Gretchen Whitmer in 2020. When it was all over, Trump apparently decided he had been thinking too small. In his first term, he made improper millions. In his second term, he is reaching for billions: a $2 billion investment by a United Arab Emirates state-owned enterprise in the Binance crypto exchange using the Trump family's statecoin asset. An unknown number of balloons placed by Qatar in a Trump-family real-estate development in that emirate, topped by the gift of a 747 luxury jet for the president's personal use in office and afterward. Government-approved support for a Trump golf course in Vietnam while its leaders were negotiating with the United States for relief from Trump tariffs. Last week, Trump hosted more than 200 purchasers of his meme coin, many of them apparently foreign nationals, for a private dinner, with no disclosure of the names of those who had paid into his pocket for access to the meme coin and the deal. The NHC said the system still lacks a "well-defined circulation" but that environmental conditions remain favorable for further development, and that a "tropical depression or tropical storm" is expected to form Wednesday afternoon or evening. The hurricane center says there is a 100% chance of formation through the next 48 hours. If the system becomes a tropical storm, it will be called Alvin, the first named tropical cyclone anywhere in the Northern Hemisphere this year.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-trade-tariffs-lawsuit-23c7e1e8f https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/05/29 2025/05/29
THE TRUMP PRESIDENCY'S WORLD-HISTORICAL HEIST	Trump Bulshit	The heaviest rain is expected across the southern Plains and Gulf Coast, with storms threatening localized flash flooding, lightning, large hail and a few fat rainstorms, the weather service said. The riskiest of risk include Houston, Austin, New Orleans and Atlanta, as well as portions of Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas. The National Weather Service Office in Huntsville covers 11 counties in North Alabama. The Huntsville forecast office has issued 52 tornado warnings to date in North Alabama. 22 of those warnings being issued during the tornado out break on May 20. The tornado count to date is at 28 for North Alabama. This is the most tornadoes to date since 2011. At this time in 2011, a total of 47 tornadoes had tracked through the area. The majority of these tornadoes formed during the deadly outbreak on April 27. A panicked Good Samaritan had seen what they were certain was a poor, injured black and white dog lying on the side of the road while they were driving, the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region wrote in its post about the content of the call. "When she got to the scene, she saw the 'dog' in question. Except it... It wasn't a dog," the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region detailed on Facebook. "It wasn't injured. It wasn't... alive. It was a tiger." Thankfully, Officer Jones didn't encounter a dead tiger. Instead of an injured dog, she found "a stuffed tiger, like the kind you win at a carnival if you're good at tossing rings or bribing the teenager in charge."	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/05/trump-golden-age-sc	2025/05/29	corruption, presidential piggy bank, fleecing the country
Tropical Storm Alvin likely to form in Pacific: Sea, projected path, spaghetti models	Weather- Hurricane	The heaviest rain is expected across the southern Plains and Gulf Coast, with storms threatening localized flash flooding, lightning, large hail and a few fat rainstorms, the weather service said. The riskiest of risk include Houston, Austin, New Orleans and Atlanta, as well as portions of Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas. The National Weather Service Office in Huntsville covers 11 counties in North Alabama. The Huntsville forecast office has issued 52 tornado warnings to date in North Alabama. 22 of those warnings being issued during the tornado out break on May 20. The tornado count to date is at 28 for North Alabama. This is the most tornadoes to date since 2011. At this time in 2011, a total of 47 tornadoes had tracked through the area. The majority of these tornadoes formed during the deadly outbreak on April 27. A panicked Good Samaritan had seen what they were certain was a poor, injured black and white dog lying on the side of the road while they were driving, the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region wrote in its post about the content of the call. "When she got to the scene, she saw the 'dog' in question. Except it... It wasn't a dog," the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region detailed on Facebook. "It wasn't injured. It wasn't... alive. It was a tiger." Thankfully, Officer Jones didn't encounter a dead tiger. Instead of an injured dog, she found "a stuffed tiger, like the kind you win at a carnival if you're good at tossing rings or bribing the teenager in charge."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tropical-storm-alvin-likely-form-12290377	2025/05/29
Severe thunderstorms threaten parts of the U.S. with flooding, tornadoes	Weather- storms	The heaviest rain is expected across the southern Plains and Gulf Coast, with storms threatening localized flash flooding, lightning, large hail and a few fat rainstorms, the weather service said. The riskiest of risk include Houston, Austin, New Orleans and Atlanta, as well as portions of Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas. The National Weather Service Office in Huntsville covers 11 counties in North Alabama. The Huntsville forecast office has issued 52 tornado warnings to date in North Alabama. 22 of those warnings being issued during the tornado out break on May 20. The tornado count to date is at 28 for North Alabama. This is the most tornadoes to date since 2011. At this time in 2011, a total of 47 tornadoes had tracked through the area. The majority of these tornadoes formed during the deadly outbreak on April 27. A panicked Good Samaritan had seen what they were certain was a poor, injured black and white dog lying on the side of the road while they were driving, the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region wrote in its post about the content of the call. "When she got to the scene, she saw the 'dog' in question. Except it... It wasn't a dog," the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region detailed on Facebook. "It wasn't injured. It wasn't... alive. It was a tiger." Thankfully, Officer Jones didn't encounter a dead tiger. Instead of an injured dog, she found "a stuffed tiger, like the kind you win at a carnival if you're good at tossing rings or bribing the teenager in charge."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/severe-thunderstorms-threaten-parts-u-1	2025/05/29
North Alabama seeing the most tornadoes to date since 2011	Weather- Tornadoes	The heaviest rain is expected across the southern Plains and Gulf Coast, with storms threatening localized flash flooding, lightning, large hail and a few fat rainstorms, the weather service said. The riskiest of risk include Houston, Austin, New Orleans and Atlanta, as well as portions of Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas. The National Weather Service Office in Huntsville covers 11 counties in North Alabama. The Huntsville forecast office has issued 52 tornado warnings to date in North Alabama. 22 of those warnings being issued during the tornado out break on May 20. The tornado count to date is at 28 for North Alabama. This is the most tornadoes to date since 2011. At this time in 2011, a total of 47 tornadoes had tracked through the area. The majority of these tornadoes formed during the deadly outbreak on April 27. A panicked Good Samaritan had seen what they were certain was a poor, injured black and white dog lying on the side of the road while they were driving, the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region wrote in its post about the content of the call. "When she got to the scene, she saw the 'dog' in question. Except it... It wasn't a dog," the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region detailed on Facebook. "It wasn't injured. It wasn't... alive. It was a tiger." Thankfully, Officer Jones didn't encounter a dead tiger. Instead of an injured dog, she found "a stuffed tiger, like the kind you win at a carnival if you're good at tossing rings or bribing the teenager in charge."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/north-alabama-seeing-most-tornadoes-2	2025/05/29
Rescuer Responds to 'Panicker' Call About Injured Dog and Finds an Abandoned Tiger Instead Chinese paraglider survives accidental 8,000-metre-high flight above the clouds The People Who Clean the Ears of Lincoln (And Other Stories)	Weird world Weird world Weird world	A Chinese paraglider who was accidentally propelled more than 8,000 metres high by an updraft has been banned from the activity for six months after a video of his ordeal went viral. Photos Chinese students say they're questioning their decision to study in the U.S. after Secretary of State Marco Rubio announced that the federal government will attempt to "aggressively" revoke their visas. Rubio said Wednesday that Chinese students "with connections to the Chinese Communist Party or studying in critical fields" would be targeted. Chinese students who spoke to NBC News on Thursday said that they came to the U.S. for freedoms that they felt they did not have back in China but that now the Trump administration is starting to resemble the strict regime they left behind. On Wednesday, Judge Michael Farbaraz issued an order stating that the state's grounds for Khalil's arrest—that his anti-genocide stance is a potential threat to the nation's foreign policy—could give way to carte blanche detentions and deportations. As the Guardian noted, Farbaraz's ruling is the first one by a federal judge regarding the constitutionality of the president's pursuit of deportation of any non-citizen deemed a peril to U.S. foreign policy. However, Farbaraz has yet to grant Khalil's release as he claims his attorneys have yet to address another charge by the government: that Khalil didn't include his personal affiliations to some organizations—namely, a United Nations agency that works with Palestinian refugees and a Columbia protest group. In a statement to the Guardian, Khalil's attorneys said they would give Farbaraz the additional argument as quickly as possible. Until then, Khalil will remain in detention at the Central Louisiana ICE Processing Center in Jena, Louisiana. Michael is among a new wave of doctors who are leaving the United States to escape the Trump administration. In the months since Trump was reelected and returned to the White House, American doctors have shown skyrocketing interest in becoming licensed in Canada, where doctors more than normal have already been cleared to practice, according to Canadian licensing officials and recruiting businesses. The Medical Council of Canada said in an email statement that the number of American doctors creating accounts on physiciansapply.ca, which is "typically the first step" to being licensed in Canada, has increased more than 750% over the past seven months compared with the same time period last year — from 71 applicants to 615. Separately, medical licensing organizations in Canada's most populous provinces reported a rise in Americans either applying for or receiving Canadian licenses, with at least some doctors disclosing they were moving specifically because of Trump. It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.yahoo.com/lifestyle/rescuer-responds-paraglider-call-injured https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/29/chinese-paraglider-pe https://www.theatlantic.com/photography/archive/2025/05/photos-status	2025/05/29 2025/05/29 2025/05/29
After Rubio seeks to revoke their visas, Chinese students say U.S. resembles the country they left	Borders and Immigration	Chinese students who spoke to NBC News on Thursday said that they came to the U.S. for freedoms that they felt they did not have back in China but that now the Trump administration is starting to resemble the strict regime they left behind. On Wednesday, Judge Michael Farbaraz issued an order stating that the state's grounds for Khalil's arrest—that his anti-genocide stance is a potential threat to the nation's foreign policy—could give way to carte blanche detentions and deportations. As the Guardian noted, Farbaraz's ruling is the first one by a federal judge regarding the constitutionality of the president's pursuit of deportation of any non-citizen deemed a peril to U.S. foreign policy. However, Farbaraz has yet to grant Khalil's release as he claims his attorneys have yet to address another charge by the government: that Khalil didn't include his personal affiliations to some organizations—namely, a United Nations agency that works with Palestinian refugees and a Columbia protest group. In a statement to the Guardian, Khalil's attorneys said they would give Farbaraz the additional argument as quickly as possible. Until then, Khalil will remain in detention at the Central Louisiana ICE Processing Center in Jena, Louisiana. Michael is among a new wave of doctors who are leaving the United States to escape the Trump administration. In the months since Trump was reelected and returned to the White House, American doctors have shown skyrocketing interest in becoming licensed in Canada, where doctors more than normal have already been cleared to practice, according to Canadian licensing officials and recruiting businesses. The Medical Council of Canada said in an email statement that the number of American doctors creating accounts on physiciansapply.ca, which is "typically the first step" to being licensed in Canada, has increased more than 750% over the past seven months compared with the same time period last year — from 71 applicants to 615. Separately, medical licensing organizations in Canada's most populous provinces reported a rise in Americans either applying for or receiving Canadian licenses, with at least some doctors disclosing they were moving specifically because of Trump. It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rubio-seeks-revoke-visas-chinese-21091	2025/05/30
Federal Judge Rules Mahmoud Khalil's Detention as 'Unconstitutional'	Borders and Immigration	Chinese students who spoke to NBC News on Thursday said that they came to the U.S. for freedoms that they felt they did not have back in China but that now the Trump administration is starting to resemble the strict regime they left behind. On Wednesday, Judge Michael Farbaraz issued an order stating that the state's grounds for Khalil's arrest—that his anti-genocide stance is a potential threat to the nation's foreign policy—could give way to carte blanche detentions and deportations. As the Guardian noted, Farbaraz's ruling is the first one by a federal judge regarding the constitutionality of the president's pursuit of deportation of any non-citizen deemed a peril to U.S. foreign policy. However, Farbaraz has yet to grant Khalil's release as he claims his attorneys have yet to address another charge by the government: that Khalil didn't include his personal affiliations to some organizations—namely, a United Nations agency that works with Palestinian refugees and a Columbia protest group. In a statement to the Guardian, Khalil's attorneys said they would give Farbaraz the additional argument as quickly as possible. Until then, Khalil will remain in detention at the Central Louisiana ICE Processing Center in Jena, Louisiana. Michael is among a new wave of doctors who are leaving the United States to escape the Trump administration. In the months since Trump was reelected and returned to the White House, American doctors have shown skyrocketing interest in becoming licensed in Canada, where doctors more than normal have already been cleared to practice, according to Canadian licensing officials and recruiting businesses. The Medical Council of Canada said in an email statement that the number of American doctors creating accounts on physiciansapply.ca, which is "typically the first step" to being licensed in Canada, has increased more than 750% over the past seven months compared with the same time period last year — from 71 applicants to 615. Separately, medical licensing organizations in Canada's most populous provinces reported a rise in Americans either applying for or receiving Canadian licenses, with at least some doctors disclosing they were moving specifically because of Trump. It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-judge-rules-mahmoud-khalil-161	2025/05/30	Constitutional crisis
American doctors look to relocate to Canada to avoid the Trump administration Find out how much time it would take for you to make as much as these highly paid CEOs	Brain Drain Eat the rich	It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/05/29/mx-1-5414 https://apnews.com/business/ceo-pay-calculator-2025-00090197c4d4	2025/05/30 2025/05/30	Information blackout, public health crisis
Appeals court halts ruling that blocked Trump's tariffs	Economy- Tariffs	It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/trump-tariffs-court-appeal	2025/05/30	Judicial Yo-yo, boomerang
Leavitt says Supreme Court "must put an end" to tariff saga	Economy- Tariffs	It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/leavitt-tariff-ruling-trump-trade-court	2025/05/30
Trump's tariffs are under threat, but ports aren't seeing a big rebound yet. That's bad news for prices	Economy- Tariffs	It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-tariffs-under-threat-ports-09000	2025/05/30
Five-year forecast paints a troubling picture of extreme weather and deadly heat Step increase in wind-related hurricane damage, expected by 2060	Environment- Climate crisis Environment- Climate crisis	It would take someone making $85,000 more than 1,900 years to make as much as the highest paid CEO in this year's AP CEO compensation survey. A federal appellate court on Thursday temporarily stayed a ruling that effectively wiped out most of President Trump's tariffs. The trade court ruled that Trump did not have the authority under the 1977 International Emergency Economic Powers Act to impose sweeping reciprocal and retaliatory tariffs. The administration immediately appealed, and suggested Thursday it could go straight to the Supreme Court to seek relief if other courts did not act quickly. Driving the news: The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit issued an order Thursday staying the trade court's ruling while it considers motions from both sides. The Supreme Court should intervene after a federal trade court's Wednesday ruling that blew up much of President Trump's tariff regime, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt said Thursday. That kind of whiplash underscores why, even when there's news of tariffs easing, goods don't start flowing into US ports right away. And that could mean fewer goods on store shelves in the coming months, cutting into available choices and raising prices for everyday Americans. Global temperatures are forecast to reach record or near-record levels during the next five years, setting the stage for more deadly extreme weather, according to an annual report from two of the world's top meteorological agencies. There is now a 70% chance that global warming over the next five years will exceed 1.5 degrees Celsius, Wednesday's report from the World Meteorological Organization and UK Met Office found. More than 1.5 degrees of global warming increases the risks of more severe impacts, including triggering tipping points in the climate system. Melting sea ice and glaciers could soon reach a point of no return, with dramatic implications for sea level rise, scientists have warned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/forecast-next-five-years-more-183315177 https://www.yahoo.com/news/step-increase-wind-related-hurricane-19	2025/05/30 2025/05/30
Saharan dust is heading toward Florida. What does that mean — and can it impact your health?	Environment- Dust	Saharan dust is hurtling toward the United States, with a massive plume headed for Florida on Saturday. Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands already saw Saharan dust this week, the National Weather Service in San Juan reported, and now, the plume is headed toward Florida. It will arrive in south and central Florida by this weekend and linger for several days, with a denser wave likely by mid-next week. As it id in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, the dust will likely cause hazy skies, poorer air quality and reduced visibility, as well as some vibrant sunsets.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/saharan-dust-is-heading-toward-florida-w	2025/05/30
Tropical Storm Alvin tracker: 1st named storm of 2025, season forms off Mexico's coast	Environment- Hurricane	The first tropical storm of 2025 formed in the Pacific Ocean, off the southwestern coast of Mexico, on Thursday. According to a National Hurricane Center advisory issued Thursday afternoon, Tropical Storm Alvin will continue to be in warm ocean temperatures and low wind shear over the next 12 hours or so, which are essential conditions for the formation and intensification of tropical storms. Musk, who arrived in D.C. as a political outsider with unprecedented power, will depart the capital with his boasts of government savings contested, his favorability ratings deflated and his brand battered. Axios' Zachary Basu writes. On Tuesday, a federal judge allowed a lawsuit filed by more than a dozen Democratic state attorneys general accusing Musk and DOGE of illegally exerting power over government operations to move forward. The states alleged Musk holds "virtually unchecked power" over the executive branch. The full legacy of the so-called Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) and its role in the early days of Trump's second administration will likely take years to articulate in full. As of now, what is clear is that Musk overpromised, underdelivered, and executed his mandate to "reduce wasteful spending" in such a manner that the cost of the resulting chaos, backtracking, lawsuits, and downstream damage may end up wiping out any theoretical gains made by the "department." Even harder to pinpoint will be the extent of Musk's personal and corporate opportunity while elbow deep in the vicars of the federal government. Excluding English kings, it's hard to conceive of any figure in the history of American governance who was granted such wide-reaching, unchecked, and unaccountable power to meddle with the mandates of elected representatives. Despite acting as a superseding Cabinet official — to the point where the president was forced to clarify that members of his Cabinet did actually have authority over their agencies — as a Special Government Employee (SGE), Musk was spared the rigors of a confirmation hearing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tropical-storm-alvin-tracker-1st-named-al	2025/05/30
Musk's real DOGE legacy will be decided by courts long after his departure	Fuck that department	Saharan dust is hurtling toward the United States, with a massive plume headed for Florida on Saturday. Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands already saw Saharan dust this week, the National Weather Service in San Juan reported, and now, the plume is headed toward Florida. It will arrive in south and central Florida by this weekend and linger for several days, with a denser wave likely by mid-next week. As it id in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, the dust will likely cause hazy skies, poorer air quality and reduced visibility, as well as some vibrant sunsets.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/23/musk-doge-legacy-lawsuits-trump-a	2025/05/30
Elin Leaves Trail of Destruction, Corruption, ...and No Financial Disclosure	Fuck that guy	Saharan dust is hurtling toward the United States, with a massive plume headed for Florida on Saturday. Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands already saw Saharan dust this week, the National Weather Service in San Juan reported, and now, the plume is headed toward Florida. It will arrive in south and central Florida by this weekend and linger for several days, with a denser wave likely by mid-next week. As it id in Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, the dust will likely cause hazy skies, poorer air quality and reduced visibility, as well as some vibrant sunsets.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/elin-leaves-trail-destruction-corruption-1	2025/05/30

		Suppose, for example, that you wanted to blur the lines between public service and private interest and build precedent for plutocrat direct participation in government. Musk's tenure at DOGE, overseeing cuts to agencies investigating his companies while apparently dodging conflict of interest rules, has certainly done that. Or suppose you wanted to execute a partisan purge of the federal government, seizing control of independent institutions and driving out your perceived enemies. Firing federal employees en masse and forcibly taking over quasi-government bodies, as DOGE has done, would surely help. What if you wanted to centralize power under yourself, advancing a radical "military executive" theory and challenging Congress's constitutionally-mandated power over government spending? A good start would be to demolish an entire government agency by fiat, then dare your opponents to reverse it.
Elon Musk's cost-cutting at DOGE has been a colossal failure. But he has achieved something more dangerous		Similarly, if you wanted to deport millions of immigrants while massively increasing your ability to surveil and control U.S. citizens, you could do much worse than inserting DOGE staffers into numerous federal agencies to access and merge sensitive databases that have long been kept separate, while allegedly playing fast and loose with security safeguards.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-musk-cost-cutting-at-doge-has-been-a-colossal-failure-but-he-has-achieved-something-more-dangerous-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Fuck that guy		The Trump administration is trying to revive a measure that would make state government workers who currently enjoy strong civil-service employment protections more like those in Corporate America: easily fireable. For now, many federal workers can't be fired for their political affiliations and can only be fired for a justifiable cause. Trump's move would change that by classifying them as employees who determine or make policy. They could, therefore, be fired for any legal reason with little to no notice.
DOGE started the federal worker firings. Trump is trying to make more of them even easier.	Government Jobs	Sen. Lisa Blunt Rochester has written a scolding letter to Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. demanding that he clarify whether the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has an acting director. In her three-page missive, Blunt Rochester suggested that Matthew Buzzelli, the person Kennedy said was the CDC's acting director, cannot hold the role because he isn't qualified under the federal Vacancies Act.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-firing-government-workers-more-9-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Blunt Rochester presses RFK Jr. on CDC acting director	Government-DOJ	Attorney General Pam Bondi told the American Bar Association (ABA) Thursday that the Trump administration would no longer cooperate as the organization vets its judicial nominees.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doj-cutting-american-bar-association-access-to-judicial-nominees-215-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
DOJ cutting American Bar Association access to judicial nominees	Government-DOJ	Denver's air traffic control facility has 17 fewer controllers than the FAA's target, according to data from the agency's 2024-2033 workforce plan. Northern California TRACON is 34 controllers below the target, and Jacksonville's air traffic control center is 31 employees below the target.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/understaffed-air-traffic-control-airport-142-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
How understaffed is air traffic control at your airport? Map of FAA data shows shortfalls	Government-FAA	More than 1,200 employees, including seasoned leaders and technical experts, have walked out of the agency as a result of a deferred-resignation program initiated by Elon Musk and the Trump administration to curb labor costs, internal memos reviewed by the Wall Street Journal found.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ssa-faces-crisis-over-elon-181330326.html	2025/05/30
FAA Faces New Crisis over Elon Musk's Mass Resignations, Leaked Documents Reveal	Government-ICE	Retirees have also contributed to the number of employees departing the agency. Two top officials at Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) have been ousted from leadership as the White House ramps up the pressure on the agency to arrest an unprecedented number of immigrants, five sources familiar with the situation told Axios.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/29/ice-firings-immigrant-arrests	2025/05/30
ICE officials ousted amid demands for more immigrant arrests	Government-Spies	An information technology specialist for the Defense Intelligence Agency was charged Thursday with attempting to transmit classified information to a representative of a foreign government, the Justice Department said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-government-employee-charged-trying-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
US government employee charged with trying to give classified information to a foreign government		COVID-19 cases are rising again as a new variant begins to circulate in some parts of the world. The World Health Organization said Wednesday the rise in cases is primarily in the eastern Mediterranean, Southeast Asia and western Pacific regions.	https://apnews.com/article/covid-variant-who-285a3e5146a497c0cb25c	2025/05/30
A new variant of COVID-19 may be driving up cases in some parts of the world, WHO says	Health- Covid	Airport screening in the United States has detected the new variant in travelers arriving from those regions to destinations in California, Washington state, Virginia and New York. The new variant is called N.18.1. It arrives as the United States' official stance on COVID-19 vaccination is changing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/covid-subvariant-spreads-rapidly-trump-1-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
A new COVID subvariant spreads rapidly as Trump pivots away from vaccines	Health- Covid	A new, highly transmissible COVID subvariant has been detected in California — heightening the risk of a potential summer wave as recent moves by the Trump administration threaten to make vaccines harder to get, and more expensive, for many Americans, some health experts warn. Last month, Soldier told the Trump administration on an offer of early retirement, joining an exodus from the Food Safety and Inspection Service that began under President Biden's reorganization of the agency last year. Soldier, who also chairs the National Joint Council of Food Inspection Locals, says remaining inspectors must now visit eight facilities — double the usual number — each day. That's not possible, she says, so it's unclear how much food is legitimately earning that stamp of approval. "Do I foresee another Boar's Head situation? Absolutely," she says. "I worry about the public."	https://www.rpr.org/sections/shorts/health-news/2025/05/29/mxa-st-54113	2025/05/30
How safe is the food supply after federal cutbacks? Experts are worried	Health- Food	Andrew Melnick, a Pittsburgh banker and one of America's wealthiest men in the early 20th century, was treasury secretary to three Republican presidents — Warren Harding, Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover — for more than a decade in the 1920s and early 1930s. Three presidents served under him, the joke went. Sen. Robert La Follette Sr., a Wisconsin progressive, said Melnick was "the real president of the United States. Calvin Coolidge is merely the man who occupies the White House."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/100-years-elon-musk-one-161528123.html	2025/05/30
100 years before Elon Musk, one of America's richest men came to fix Washington. It didn't end well.	History	Bukele rose to near-total control of El Salvador on a tide of support from the very gang he's credited with defeating, according to a U.S. federal indictment. The Treasury Department, regional experts and Salvadoran media. In March, Trump's Justice Department dropped terrorism charges against Cesar Humberto Lopez-Larios, an alleged top MS-13 leader, and returned him to El Salvador before he could potentially reveal Bukele's deals in an American courtroom.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/crime/texas-abortions-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Texas police used nationwide license plate reader network to track woman who had self-managed abortion	Reproductive rights	The 2021 victory gave Bukele's Nuevas Ideas party a legislative supermajority that allowed the term-limited president to oust the country's supreme court, oust the attorney general, and blow through El Salvador's constitution to run for and win a second term. In return, MS-13 leaders received prison privileges, financial benefits — and a ban on extraditions to the United States. U.S. prosecutors, Salvadoran media and people familiar with the negotiations told USA TODAY.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/shadowy-rise-donald-trumps-favorite-900-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
The shadowy rise of Donald Trump's favorite president: Nayib Bukele	International- El Salvador	But when partners struggle to conceive, the burden is rarely distributed evenly between men and women. Still, fertility experts say we're missing a key component of the conversation — male infertility. Research shows that for heterosexual couples trying to conceive, when the cause of infertility can be attributed to a known factor, it's a roughly 50-50 split between male and female factors. The male partner was found to be solely responsible in about 20% of infertility cases, and a contributing factor in another 30-40% of all cases. Male and female infertility factors often coexist, yet a high number of men do not undergo testing before their female partner begins IVF, according to Dr. Neal Shah, the Chief Medical Officer at Maven Clinic, a virtual clinic for women's and family health.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-wants-women-more-120119-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
The White House wants women to have more babies. They're ignoring part of the problem — men.	Reproductive rights	Virginia is the only state in the US south without a strict abortion ban, and abortion is legal in the state through the end of the second trimester of pregnancy. The state's current Republican governor, Glenn Youngkin, previously failed to build support for a 15-week abortion ban, a framework Katie Sears endorsed. While campaigning for lieutenant governor in January 2021, before Roe v Wade was overturned and support for abortion rights rose among the US public, Katie-Sears said a reporter that she considered abortion to be "genocide" and that she wanted to make abortion illegal in all cases unless the mother's life was at risk.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/may/30/abortion-wisconsin-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
GOP nominee for Virginia governor tries to distance herself from anti-abortion past	Reproductive rights	A Texas sheriff's office tapped into a nationwide network of tens of thousands of automatic license plate readers to locate a woman who had a self-managed abortion, raising alarms from privacy and abortion access advocates. Abortion is almost entirely illegal in Texas, but the search included cameras in states where abortion is legal, like Washington and Illinois, according to data obtained by tech news website 404 Media.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/texas-abortions-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Texas police used nationwide license plate reader network to track woman who had self-managed abortion	Reproductive rights	The Make America Healthy Again commission report that that blamed factors including bad diets and unnecessary medication for causing chronic illness in children cited hundreds of studies and sources, some of which didn't exist. NOTUS first reported. As a reminder: Vaccines have proven to be one of the greatest accomplishments of modern medicine. The jobs are so effective at preventing illness that they have practically eradicated some of the worst diseases from our collective culture, from rabies to polio and smallpox, a fact that has possibly fueled some into believing that the viruses and their complications aren't a significant threat for the average, health-conscious individual.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/30/white-house-health-report-errors-fix-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
White House moves to fix errors in MAHA commission report	RFK JR BS	Senior officials in the Trump administration have intervened in attempt to save more than 300 ostriches on a farm in British Columbia which the Canadian government had ordered to be killed over fears the flock is infected with avian flu. Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the US health secretary, and Mehmet Oz, a physician and former TV host appointed by Trump as the director of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid, have offered to move the birds to Oz's ranch in Florida — despite the kill order imposed by Canadian health authorities.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-arb-vaccine-was-171605671.html	2025/05/30
RFK Jr. Just Made Another Pandemic Even More Likely	RFK JR BS	The U.S. Supreme Court sharply narrowed the scope of a key environmental statute on Thursday. The decision makes it easier to win approval for highways, bridges, pipelines, wind farms and other infrastructure projects. The National Environmental Policy Act is considered the nation's premier environmental law because it sets up a regulatory regime under which the federal government seeks information from a wide array of agencies about the impact of proposed infrastructure projects before they're built.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-mehmet-oz-seek-17184949.html	2025/05/30
RFK Jr. offers to save Canadian ostriches with suspected bird flu and move them to US	RFK JR BS	In carrying out the review, the U.S. Surface Transportation Board sought input from other agencies, prepared a 3,600-page report and approved the railroad project, after concluding that its transportation and economic benefits outweighed the negative impact on the environment. The U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington subsequently ruled that the Board had violated NEPA, by failing to consider the environmental effects from oil drilling and production, referred to as upstream, and oil refining and distribution, known as downstream. The Supreme Court, however, reversed that ruling, and in so doing dramatically limited the 1970 law. The vote was unanimous, though Justice Neil Gorsuch did not take part in deliberations, and the court's three liberals wrote a more limited concurring opinion. The Court's conservatives, however, took a major attack at the NEPA law. Confusion reigned on German autobahns and highways at the start of one of the busiest holiday breaks of the year on Thursday as Google Maps wrongly indicated that vast swathes of them were closed. Those relying on Google Maps were left with the impression that large parts of Germany had ground to a halt. The situation was compounded by the fact that large numbers of Germans were on the road at the start of a four-day break for the Ascension holiday.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/05/29/mxa-st-54154742/supreme-court-nepa	2025/05/30
Supreme Court limits environmental reviews of infrastructure projects	Supreme Court	The closure reports led to the clogging of alternative routes on smaller thoroughfares and lengthy delays as police scrambled to find detours. Police and road traffic control authorities had to answer a flood of queries as people contacted them for help. The Trump administration's embrace of AI acceleration is testing MAGA's populist roots, as fears mount of a jobs apocalypse that could destabilize the movement's economic foundation.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/may/30/chaos-on-german-autobahn-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Chaos on German autobahns as Google Maps wrongly says they are closed	Technology Mistakes	Despite the threat of job losses, the Republican Party — especially its new allies in Silicon Valley — broadly views AI advancement as an inevitable boon to the economy. Black smoke hung over a chemical plant in eastern China on Wednesday, a day after a massive blast killed at least five people, flattened buildings and fueled safety fears among residents living close to the factory. Six people are still missing after the explosion at the plant in Gaomi, a city in the eastern province of Shandong, the official Xinhua news agency said. Another 18 people were injured.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/29/ssa-trump-maga-job-losses-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
MAGA's AI juggling act	Technology-AI	Someone who take him at his word are beginning to get restless as they ask why his administration, which holds the keys to chasing down these alleged government secrets, is denying them the evidence and restitution they expected. His Justice Department has not yet arrested hordes of "deep state" actors as some of his supporters had hoped it would, even as the president has been posting cryptic videos and memes about Democratic politicians. Now that Trump is in power and has stocked loyalists throughout his administration, his supporters expect all to be revealed. On that is difficult when many of the conspiracies he alleged aren't real, said Joseph Viscusi, a political scientist who studies conspiracy theories at the University of Miami.	https://apnews.com/article/epstein-files-assassination-trump-bio-conspir-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
Trump has long warned of a government 'deep state'. Now in power, he's under pressure to expose it.	Trump Bulshit	President Donald Trump's critics are seizing on two words in his latest legal filing: "mental anguish."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/snowflake-trump-morally-mocked-as-his-newest-legal-claim-backfires-spectacularly-12345678901.html	2025/05/30
'Snowflake' Trump Morally Mocked As His Newest Legal Claim Backfires Spectacularly	Trump Bulshit

		Venomous snakebite is "the biggest public health crisis you've never heard of," said former U.N. Secretary General Kofi Annan as he was working to get the issue onto the global health agenda in 2015. As part of an effort to put the dangers of snakebite back on the agenda, Laloo and a group of global health experts launched Strike Out Snakebite at the World Health Forum that wrapped up this week in Geneva. To garner attention, the initiative erected eight large snake statues around the city.
Why giant statues of snakes popped up in Geneva	Weird world		https://www.rnr.org/sections/poats-and-soda/2025/05/20/g-a1-68259ur	2025/05/30
Experience: I've made the longest chain of chewing-gum wrappers in the world	Weird world	According to the latest official measurement, my chain is 23.226 miles (37.4km) long. Getting the chain measured is quite an undertaking. Every five years, land surveyors come over, and two witnesses have to independently verify the length. It takes many hours. In March this year, they reported that my chain was made of 2,963,788 wrappers. The infamous location for summer fun was the subject of a 2020 documentary, Class Action Park. Created by filmmakers Chris Charles Scott and Seth Porges, the film shares some of the more shocking stories in Action Park history and why it's still beloved despite so many dangerous incidents.	https://www.theguardian.com/lifeandstyle/2025/may/30/experience-ive	2025/05/30
Why the 'World's Most Dangerous Amusement Park' Continues to Fascinate 47 Years After It Closed	Weird world		https://www.yahoo.com/entertainment/articles/why-the-worlds-most-danger-20250530	2025/05/30
Turkish woman establishes world record for watermelons crushed with thighs	Weird World	A Turkish woman who squashed five watermelons within a 60-second timeframe, using only her thighs, has set a world record. Guinness World Records shared a video Friday of Gozde Dogan completing the challenge. The Forest Service's Shasta-Trinity National Forest team said on social media that rangers stationed at the Mount Shasta Audubon Center were on a routine patrol when they came across a goose that somehow ended up at Old Ski Bowl at an elevation of 10,000 feet. "Upon our rangers' arrival, the climber (flyer?) had on only one layer of down and was neither prepared for the temperature nor overnight camping," the post said.	https://www.upi.com/Odd_News/2025/01/17/turkish-woman-crushes-watermelons-using-thighs/5221737129404/
Rangers rescue goose 10,000 feet up a California mountain	Weird World	Rangers Nick Meyers and Eric Falconer "were able to offer the goose a quick descent to a local pond at lower elevations before returning to regular duties," officials wrote.	https://www.upi.com/Odd_News/2025/01/15/Mount-Shasta-goose-California/7371736959792/
Coyotes makes 'a mistake,' winds up in Aid, refrigerated, alive!	Weird World	A confused coyote was removed from a grocery store's refrigerated meat display morning. The incident occurred at a Chicago-area Aldi store, where the animal apparently sought refuge in the store's produce aisle. A Florida museum gathered 468 people in dinosaur costumes to break a Guinness World Record. The record to beat stood at 252 people, and was set in Los Angeles in 2019.	https://www.upi.com/Odd_News/2025/01/14/coyote-hiding-aldi-shelf/497173683438/
Florida museum gathers 468 people in dinosaur costumes	Weird World	A Guinness World Records adjudicator confirmed the Florida attempt took the title with 468 participants.	https://www.upi.com/Odd_News/2025/01/13/Cox-Science-Center-and-Aquarium-Guinness-World-Records-dinosaur-costumes/330173690454/
From gross to gorgeous: Scientists 'transform' festid fatbergs into 'sweet-smelling' perfume	Weird World	Fatbergs are created when people flush condoms, wet wipes and other solid waste down the toilet, where they combine with congealed sewage and cooking oil to form a blemish blob. "What we've done is engineer bacteria to eat fatbergs and turn them into fragrance compounds used in products such as perfumes and shampoos," Stephen Wallace, a professor from the University of Edinburgh who proposed the unusual recycling measure, told Scotland's STV News.	https://nypost.com/2025/01/15/fatbergs-from-gross-to-gorgeous-scientists-transform-fetid-fatbergs-into-sweet-smelling-perfume/
New supergiant 'Death Vader' sea bug discovered in South China Sea — and it's absolutely massive	Weird World	Bathynomus vadeti belongs to the genus Bathynomus — giant isopods that are abundant in cold, deep waters. It is a "supergiant," weighing over 2.2 pounds (1 kilogram) and growing up to 12.8 inches (32.5 cm) long.	https://www.livescience.com/animals/crustaceans/new-supergiant-death-vader-sea-bug-discovered-in-south-china-sea-and-its-absolute-massive
Kansas linemen save mom bobcat and kitten during ice storm	Weird World	Urban, working alongside Eric Hartwell, were working on restoring power to Kansas impacted by the weekend's winter storm, when the two were given a new task. Two bobcats needed rescuing from a nearby power pole, and they were frozen stuck. The high temperature in Norton on Sunday was a freezing 16 degrees, with a wind chill of -5°F. "I couldn't keep them off," Urban said. "She (the mother) was frozen down to the top of the pole so I had to make a snare out of a piece of pipe and some rope hold her down while I beat the ice loose that lowered her down to the ground. I had to do the same with the kitten."	https://www.kake.com/home/kansas-linemen-save-mom-bobcat-and-kitten-during-ice-storm/article_d6c88c80-cbb7-11ef-a57e-df0cbe180e.html
Senate Republicans introduce bill to reform birthright citizenship, following Trump's controversial order	Borders and immigration	Titled the "Birthright Citizenship Act of 2025," the bill would end the practice of automatically conferring citizenship status on people born in the U.S. of parents who are either illegal aliens or who are in the country legally on a temporary basis. The bill was introduced in the Senate on Jan. 31 by Republican Sens. Lindsey Graham of South Carolina, Katie Britt of Alabama and Ted Cruz of Texas.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/senate-republicans-introduce-bill-reform-204919745.html
Analysis: Trump plans to invoke obscure 18th century wartime law in bid for mass deportations	Borders and immigration	President Donald Trump is set to test the limits of his immigration crackdown by invoking a wartime law to deport immigrants alleged to be gang members without court hearings, a broad authority that could supercharge his mass deportation push and potentially sweep in people not charged with crimes.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/analysis-trump-plans-invoke-obscure-11017248.html
Trump makes DOGE head Elon Musk a 'special government employee' amid accusations of a takeover	Fuck that guy	Trump made Musk a "special government employee," the official said. White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt later confirmed to reporters that Musk had officially joined the administration. The designation allows Musk to work for the federal government with or without compensation for a limited amount of time. He also received a government email and an office. The administration official said Musk would not receive a paycheck. A Department of Justice prosecutor is unhappy with the blowback Elon Musk's take "Department of Government Efficiency" is getting, and is threatening legal action. Interim D.C. U.S. Attorney Ed Martin posted a letter to Musk on X Monday asking Musk to "utilize me and my staff to assist in protecting the DOGE work and the DOGE workers."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-makes-doge-head-elon-18345690.html
U.S. Attorney Vows to Target Anyone Who Tries to Stop Elon Musk's DOGE	Fuck that guy	"Any threats, confrontations, or other actions in any way that impact their work may break numerous laws," Martin wrote. "Let me assure you of this: we will pursue any and all legal action against anyone who impedes your work or threatens your people." Representatives from the Elon Musk-led Department of Government Efficiency threatened to call law enforcement on U.S. Agency for International Development staff who refused to give them access to the agency's systems, according to a report.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/u-s-attorney-vows-target-anyone-22383935.html
Musk's Goons Demand: Show Secrets or We'll Call Marshals	Fuck that guy	Senator Chris Murphy (D-CT) said the Trump administration's crackdown on the agency was kicking off a "constitutional crisis." The U.S. hit another grim record this week as new coronavirus cases reached a single-day high of nearly 60,000—a figure that the New York Times reported was the sixth single-day record in 10 days. On Thursday alone, Alabama, Idaho, Missouri, Montana, Oregon, and Texas set all-time highs.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-goons-demand-show-secrets-204435897.html
Map: It's not just Florida, Texas, California, and Arizona driving the new record high in U.S. COVID cases	Health- Covid	President Trump is totally ignorant of California's complex water system and will never acknowledge it. Calling him ignorant is giving the guy the benefit of the doubt. It's saying he's misinformed and fanatical, not outright lying, as he meddles deeply in California water. The president keeps saying California gets water from the Pacific Northwest. No, that's Oregon and Washington. Their water stays there — although every few years someone voices a crackpot idea about California importing water from the Columbia River. It can't happen politically or economically. Trump has even recently talked about siphoning water from Canada for California. Except he seems to think the system already exists and the Canadian water flows down here "naturally." It's hard to really know what he thinks. Maybe he'll next suggest towing icebergs from Greenland.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/map-not-just-florida-texas-220521382.html
Column: What does Trump know about California's water system? So much less than he's ever admit	Trump Bullshit	But it's clear he believes there's some delta "valve" that could send "massive amounts of water" to L.A. to fight wildfires — if only Gov. Gavin Newsom would twist it open. Trump celebrated the move in posts to Truth Social post on Friday and Sunday, declaring, "The water is flowing in California," and adding the water was "heading to farmers throughout the state, and to Los Angeles." There are two major problems, water experts said. The newly released water will not flow to Los Angeles, and it is being wasted by being released during the wet winter season. "They were holding extra water in those reservoirs because of the risk that it would be a dry summer," Heather Cooley, director of research for California water policy organization the Pacific Institute. "This puts agriculture at risk of insufficient water during the summer months."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/column-what-does-trump-know-california-110030294.html
2.2 billion gallons of water flowed out of California reservoirs because of Trump's order to open dams	Trump Bullshit	Veterinarians and public health officials say this and other information frozen in the "immediate pause" on communication issued by the Trump admin that has caused widespread chaos and confusion in federal agencies is critical to ensure that bird flu doesn't spiral out of control and turn into a full-blown pandemic. "There was a serology study that was going to be reported about veterinarians with direct contact to cattle," said Dr. Abrar Karan, an infectious disease physician at Stanford University. "That would be very interesting information because many of us that are working in this space have suspicions that there are undetected spillovers happening."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/2-2-billion-gallons-water-245021910.html
Trump administration's communication freeze, restricted access to critical bird flu information	Trump Bullshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-communication-freeze-restricted-140006430.html
All the news			https://thn.tiny.us/Febuary-24-March-1-2025
March 3-8 spreadsheet	All	Int.	https://thn.tiny.us/march-3-8-2025
First national analysis finds America's butterflies are disappearing at 'catastrophic' rate	Environment- Animals	America's butterflies are disappearing because of insecticides, climate change and habitat loss, with the number of the winged beauties down 22% since 2000, a new study finds. A team of scientists combined 76,957 surveys from 35 monitoring programs and blended them for an apples-to-apples comparison and ended up counting 12.6 million butterflies over the decades. Last month an annual survey that looked just at monarch butterflies, which federal officials plan to put on the threatened species list, counted a nearly all-time low of fewer than 10,000, down from 1.2 million in 1997. Many of the species in decline fell by 40% or more.	https://apnews.com/article/butterflies-beauty-disappearing-climate-change-habitat-insecticide-c74c6a59983e4b77da7da764e05051b3
'Gay' Hiroshima bomber, female and Black soldiers, being erased in shocking Pentagon DEI file purge	Trump Bullshit	References to a World War II Medal of Honor recipient, the Enola Gay aircraft that dropped an atomic bomb on Japan, and the first women to pass Marine infantry training are among the tens of thousands of photos and online posts marked for deletion as the Defense Department works to purge DEI content, diversity, equity and inclusion content, according to a shocking database obtained by The Associated Press. One official, who spoke on condition of anonymity to provide details that have not been made public, said the purge could delete as many as 100,000 images or posts in total, when considering social media pages and other websites that are also being culled for diversity, equity and inclusion content. In some cases, photos seemed to be flagged for removal simply because their file included the word "gay," including service members with that last name and an image of the B-29 aircraft Enola Gay, which dropped the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan, during World War II.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/pentagon-pete-hegseth-trump-enola-gay-b2710678.html
'A new phase': why climate activists are turning to sabotage instead of protest	Environment- Sabotage	Five years ago, climate activists from Extinction Rebellion (XR) and the school strikes movement believed getting huge numbers of people on the streets could persuade the powerful to change course on the climate crisis. Then protesters from groups such as Insulate Britain and Just Stop Oil (JSO) put their bodies and freedom on the line to disrupt business as usual, in an effort to concentrate minds. Now, with climate breakdown worsening and fossil fuel emissions showing no signs of peaking, let alone abating, some say it is time to escalate the campaign of disruption, by carrying out clandestine acts of sabotage against the corporations they see as responsible for the destruction of the climate. The category 4 storm caused severe damage to more than 400,000 acres of forest in rural areas of western North Carolina alone, stripping entire mountainsides bare, according to the latest assessment by the US Forest Service. Almost half the forest in Mitchell county was severely damaged, as was about 30% in Ashe and Watauga and 17% in Buncombe county. he extent of the tree damage is "extraordinary and humbling," according to Steve Korman, a research ecologist who conducted the assessment using remote sensing satellites at the Forest Service's Southern Research Centre.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/mar/08/a-new-phase-why-climate-activists-are-turning-to-sabotage-instead-of-protest
Tree loss from hurricane leaves Asheville vulnerable to new climate shocks	Environment- Trees	The damage count does not, however, include urban areas like Asheville, a city in Buncombe county which suffered unprecedented large-scale tree failures because some streets and neighborhoods completely bare. Firefighters are making progress battling a series of brush fires on Long Island that burned over 400 hundred acres of land and prompted evacuations east of New York City, local officials say.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/mar/08/asheville-trees-hurricane-helene-north-carolina
Long island brush fire is 22% contained, as firefighters battle high winds	Environment- Wildfires	Romaine said authorities were watching to make sure the fire, which was fueled by downed trees and fanned by 35 mile-per-hour winds, didn't restart. "We are concerned, because the winds are still blowing, that it might spark up again," he said.	https://www.rnr.org/2025/03/08/g-a1-52862-bush-fires-on-long-island
'She is evil': Amy Coney Barrett under attack by right wing after AfD ruling	Face eating party	Amy Coney Barrett, the Donald Trump-appointed conservative supreme court justice, has been branded "a DEE-judge" by furious rightwing figures, after she voted to reject Trump's attempt to freeze nearly 520 in foreign aid.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/she-evil-amy-coney-barrett-150902633.html

		Some of those cancellations could affect public-facing services, like an Internal Revenue Service taxpayer assistance center in Parkersburg, W. Va., the Bureau of Indian Affairs' Ogea Agency in Pawhuska, Okla., a Social Security office in Minot, N.D., and a Farm Service Agency office in the heart of Hurricane Helene-struck western North Carolina.
DOGE's effort to slash government is now coming for buildings and people who run them	Fuck that guy	The government is preparing to shed up to a quarter of its 360 million square feet of real estate in the coming months, an NPR analysis of DOGE's "receptis" page of lease terminations and lists of possible cuts circulating at federal agencies found. In a letter citing NPR's recent reporting on the Trump administration's move to acquire $400 million of Tesla, U.S. Reps. Gregory Meeks of New York, the ranking member of the House Committee on Foreign Relations, and Jared Moskowitz of Florida, who's the top Democrat on the committee's oversight subcommittee, said the plans represent "a serious violation of federal procurement laws" that would "unlawfully enrich Mr. Musk — the billionaire tech mogul serving as a top official in the White House."	https://www.npr.org/2025/03/03/musk-41-53321323/trump-doge-gsa-federal-buildings
Top Democrats ask Rubio for answers on now-cancelled $400 million Tesla plan	Fuck that guy	Until recently, Gleason, 53, had been a relatively low-profile health care data cruncher with a passion for simplifying access to electronic medical records. Then, at the end of February, the White House announced Gleason had been named the acting administrator for the Department of Government Efficiency, elevating her to a prominent position in the Trump administration.	https://www.npr.org/2025/03/07/pa-s1-5261834/makers-question-400-million-dollar-tesla-plan
After Amy Gleason's sudden rise to prominence, mystery surrounds DOGE acting administrator	Fuck that guy	Gleason previously worked on projects related to health data at the U.S. Digital Service, DOGE's predecessor, overlapping with Trump's first term and the Biden administration. Elon Musk and Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy reportedly had a tense exchange in a White House meeting Thursday about the conditions of the Federal Aviation Administration's equipment and its air traffic controllers, according to the New York Times. Duffy said the DOGE team was trying to lay off air traffic controllers, and asked what he was supposed to do while dealing with multiple recent plane crashes.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/amy-gleason-sudden-rise-prominence-130000516.html
Musk's DOGE team reportedly tried to fire air traffic controllers amid multiple plane crashes but was stopped by the transportation secretary	Fuck that guy	The interchange concluded with President Donald Trump telling Duffy that he needed to hire M.I.T. graduates as air traffic controllers, saying they need to be "geniuses," the report said. Employees of the General Services Administration, which manages government real estate and certain IT efforts, have been given a custom chatbot from Elon Musk's DOGE to help automate tasks, according to a new report from Wired, with an internal memo telling workers it can be used to "draft emails, create talking points, summarize text, write code." The chatbot, GSA, gives users a choice of three moods — Claude Haiku 3.5 (the default), Claude Sonnet 3.5 v2 and Meta Llama 3.2 — and is ultimately meant to be used to "analyze contract and procurement data," Wired reports.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-doge-team-reportedly-fired-160321426.html
DOGE has reportedly started rolling out a custom chatbot to automate some government tasks	Fuck that guy	Musk joined a lunch meeting with Republican senators just hours after the Supreme Court issued a setback to the Trump administration's efforts to freeze some $2 billion in foreign aid funds as part of its sweeping shutdown of the U.S. Agency for International Development. As he opened the private session, Musk led with a message urging Congress to act. Over plates of fried catfish, senators explained how the White House could put the billions of dollars of savings he has amassed into what's called a budget rescissions package, and send it to Congress.	https://www.yahoo.com/tech/doge-has-reportedly-started-rolling-out-a-custom-chatbot-to-automate-some-government-tasks-211616072.html
Elon Musk comes to Capitol Hill to meet with Republicans who discuss turning DOGE cuts into law	Fuck that guy	For decades, conservatives in Congress have talked about the need to cut government deeply, but they have always pulled back from mandating specific reductions, fearful of voter backlash. Now, President Donald Trump's administration is trying to make major cuts in government through the so-called Department of Government Efficiency, or DOGE, run by billionaire Elon Musk — an initiative led by an untested businessman who's unlikely to ever run for office and was appointed by a term-limited president who no longer needs to face voters again.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-musk-doge-cuts-congress-5f2101c129924c69416437a9d5e1e11
Musk and DOGE try to slash government by cutting out those who answer to voters	Fuck that guy	Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE) initiative has gained access to a sensitive child support database, over the objections of career civil servants. It was previously reported that career staff members objected to DOGE accessing the data, a pool of sensitive information protected with the same federal privacy laws as Internal Revenue Service tax records.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-musk-federal-workforce-doge-cuts-republicans-93c307112a67d47a7d4e4a6f6dd
Musk's DOGE team gets access to sensitive child support database despite objections from officials	Fuck that guy	Musk, the father of at least 14 children with four separate women, has also personally been entangled in custody battles. House Republicans released a 100-page stopgap spending bill Saturday afternoon that will fund the government through the end of September at levels slightly below last year's. House Democratic leaders hinted late Friday that they might oppose the legislation, setting up a showdown, with the prospect of a government shutdown hanging in the balance.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/elon-musk-doge-child-support-52711553.html
House Republicans release 100-page spending bill to prevent shutdown	Government Funding	"Medicaid is our redline," they wrote in a Dear Colleague letter. If the short-term legislation clears the House, Senate Majority Leader John Thune (R-S.D.) will need to find at least eight Democratic votes to pass the bill in that chamber. Millions of Americans could soon feel the impact of the deep staffing cuts being planned at the Social Security Administration, which is undergoing a massive reorganization that the acting commissioner has acknowledged is being steered by Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency. The loss of experienced employees who manage Social Security's fragile and interdependent web of computer systems will likely leave the agency vulnerable to technical outages and, potentially, disrupt the benefit payments that are sent to more than 73 million retirees, people with disabilities and others, Martin O'Malley, who served as commissioner under the Biden administration, told CNN.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/08/house-republicans-release-stopgap-spending-bill-shutdown
'A disruptive effect': How slashing staff at the Social Security Administration is sparking fears the system could collapse	Government-Social security	One out of every 15 adults in the U.S. has been present at the scene of a mass shooting, researchers have revealed. More alarming is that over 2 percent of that group — or over five million of the 256 million adults counted in the U.S. Census Bureau in 2020 — have been injured during one. Two recent school shootings are highlighting what extremism researchers see as a growing — and poorly understood — trend among young people who embrace mass violence. The attacks, at high schools in Madison, Wis., and Nashville, Tenn., defy categories that law enforcement and researchers have long used to understand radicalization pathways, such as radical Islamist terrorism and white nationalist terrorism. Instead, some researchers say these attacks are examples of "nonideological" terrorism. They say these attacks appear to be the result of several antiracist, decentralized, online networks coming together in ways that encourage and inspire younger children to commit atrocities.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/a-disruptive-effect-slashing-staff-social-security-administration-100053728.html
Experts warn that recent school shootings show growth in new radicalization pattern	Guns- Schools	The CDC is one of the agencies that operates under the umbrella of the Department of Health and Human Services, the federal agency that President Donald Trump picked Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to lead. The Senate confirmed him to the post in a 52-48 vote last month. The possibility of a link between vaccines and autism has been repeatedly debunked by hundreds of scientific studies. But Kennedy made a profile for himself as an anti-vaccine crusader, criticizing the Covid-19 vaccine and claiming childhood immunizations are linked to autism. He also founded Children's Health Defense, an anti-vaccine group. Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the new health secretary, has said Americans are being "unknowingly poisoned" by seed oils and has called for fast-food restaurants to return to using beef tallow, or rendered animal fat, in their fryers instead. In response to consumer concerns, some food-makers have stripped seed oils from their products. Restaurants like the salad chain Sweetgreen have removed them from their menus. Many Americans say they now avoid seed oils, according to a recent survey from the International Food Information Council, an industry trade group. The seed of discussion has exasperated nutrition scientists, who say decades of research confirms the health benefits of consuming such oils, especially in place of alternatives such as butter or lard. As measles cases continue to grow in Texas and New Mexico, with a second death, an unvaccinated adult, reported on Thursday, some Texas cities are seeing shortages amid mounting demand for the highly effective vaccine and as the top US health official, Robert F Kennedy Jr, sows disinformation and mistrust about vaccines.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/mass-shootings-some-adults-risks-52711503.html
CDC will research widely debunked link between vaccines and autism	Health- CDC	Online platforms are blocking posts and adverts about women's health while allowing posts about erectile dysfunction, it has been claimed. A group of femtech companies — businesses involved in technology products addressing women's health and wellbeing issues — have accused Meta, which owns Facebook and Instagram, along with LinkedIn, Google and Amazon, of "systemic bias and discrimination" against women's health content. They said the platforms have given "vague and inconsistent" reasons for repeatedly blocking, removing and restricting content about women's health, including posts on menopause, endometriosis and infertility. "We have evidence [of] multiple cases where medically accurate, expert-led content has been blocked or labelled as 'adult content' or 'political'," said co-founders of the anti-censorship campaign group CensERShip, Clio Wood and Anna O'Sullivan. "We can't improve women's health if we can't talk about our bodies using anatomically-correct language."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cdc-research-widely-debunked-between-014616062.html
Kennedy and influencers bash seed oils, baffling nutrition scientists	Health- Food	The pharmacist also mentioned that even doctors' offices were "having a hard time keeping enough vaccines for kids who needed them", Ann said. Online platforms are blocking posts and adverts about women's health while allowing posts about erectile dysfunction, it has been claimed. A group of femtech companies — businesses involved in technology products addressing women's health and wellbeing issues — have accused Meta, which owns Facebook and Instagram, along with LinkedIn, Google and Amazon, of "systemic bias and discrimination" against women's health content. They said the platforms have given "vague and inconsistent" reasons for repeatedly blocking, removing and restricting content about women's health, including posts on menopause, endometriosis and infertility. "We have evidence [of] multiple cases where medically accurate, expert-led content has been blocked or labelled as 'adult content' or 'political'," said co-founders of the anti-censorship campaign group CensERShip, Clio Wood and Anna O'Sullivan. "We can't improve women's health if we can't talk about our bodies using anatomically-correct language."	https://apnews.com/article/seed-oil-beef-tallow-kennedy-4d0f03134277f06dc20b4ede789295
Texas cities run short of MMR vaccine as measles outbreak drives demand	Health- Measles	Online platforms are blocking posts and adverts about women's health while allowing posts about erectile dysfunction, it has been claimed. A group of femtech companies — businesses involved in technology products addressing women's health and wellbeing issues — have accused Meta, which owns Facebook and Instagram, along with LinkedIn, Google and Amazon, of "systemic bias and discrimination" against women's health content. They said the platforms have given "vague and inconsistent" reasons for repeatedly blocking, removing and restricting content about women's health, including posts on menopause, endometriosis and infertility. "We have evidence [of] multiple cases where medically accurate, expert-led content has been blocked or labelled as 'adult content' or 'political'," said co-founders of the anti-censorship campaign group CensERShip, Clio Wood and Anna O'Sullivan. "We can't improve women's health if we can't talk about our bodies using anatomically-correct language."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/mar/08/texas-mmr-vaccine-measles-outbreak
Meta, Google accused of 'censorship' for blocking women's health ads but allowing erectile dysfunction campaigns	Health- Men	A breastfeeding support app had ads restricted by Instagram because they showed an image of a baby breastfeeding. It was also not allowed to use the word "nipple" in educational posts. Five years on from the declaration of the Covid-19 pandemic, it's the masked passenger who is suspect, nobody notices the scuffed distancing lines and trust in vaccines has taken a tumble. A different narrative has invaded the conversation: it wasn't the virus that ruined our lives, but the response. This narrative was always there, but for a long time it stayed on the fringes. Now it's becoming mainstream, turbo-charged by the recent successes of its political champions who typically gravitate towards the populist right. Public health experts have watched its advance with a gathering sense of doom. They know that how we respond to the next pandemic depends on how we understand the last, and that the next one is probably closer than most people think. Mind-bogglingly, many of them worry that Covid-19 has left us more, rather than less, vulnerable to it. Duke would be among the hardest hit. In its previous fiscal year, Duke took in $580 million in NIH grants and contracts, 11th most among the country's research institutions. The cuts are delayed temporarily by a court challenge, but universities nationwide have implemented hiring freezes, scaled back research and drawn up contingency plans in case the loss in funding takes effect. The cut in indirect costs is far from the only concern. Funding for new grants also slowed to a trickle after the NIH halted grant application review meetings in January. At Duke, NIH grant and contract award notices plummeted, dropping from 166 in January and February of 2024 to 64 so far in 2025, according to the university. Already, the uncertainty is causing reverberations at Duke's School of Medicine, which receives over three-quarters of the university's NIH funding. Expansion projects are being shelved. Fewer Ph.D. students are being admitted. And researchers are assessing whether their projects can continue.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/uk/home-news/meta-google-sexist-adverts-banned-52711249.html
Five years on from the pandemic, the right's fake Covid narrative has been turbo-charged into the mainstream	Health- misinformation	More than 80 Afghan women who fled the Taliban to pursue higher education in Oman now face imminent deportation back to Afghanistan, following the Trump administration's sweeping freeze on foreign aid programmes. Funded by the US Agency for International Development (USAID), their scholarships were abruptly terminated after the funding freeze ordered by President Donald Trump when he returned to office in January. U.S. hostage envoy Adam Boehler said Sunday that while he understands Israel's concerns over direct talks with Hamas, the U.S. is "not an agent of Israel." Hours after Boehler met with a senior Hamas political official, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's right-hand man Ron Dermer condemned the U.S., making proposals without Israel's consent in an intense call last week, Axios' Barak Ravid scooped. Boehler assured that he was not close to a deal with Hamas after the meetings in Doha, which were largely centered around securing the release of American hostages. Eden Alexander and the bodies of four deceased American hostages, sources told Axios. Canada's ruling Liberal Party elected a new party leader Sunday who will serve as the nation's next prime minister, replacing outgoing premier Justin Trudeau. Liberal Party members' vote for Mark Carney, former governor of the Bank of Canada and England, comes as the Liberal Party is experiencing a polling boost amid widespread opposition to President Trump's policies targeting its northern neighbor.	https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2025/mar/08/bovid-five-years-right-narrative-outbreak
Universities are facing big cuts to research funding. At Duke, it's time for 'damage control'	Health- Research	Duke would be among the hardest hit. In its previous fiscal year, Duke took in $580 million in NIH grants and contracts, 11th most among the country's research institutions. The cuts are delayed temporarily by a court challenge, but universities nationwide have implemented hiring freezes, scaled back research and drawn up contingency plans in case the loss in funding takes effect. The cut in indirect costs is far from the only concern. Funding for new grants also slowed to a trickle after the NIH halted grant application review meetings in January. At Duke, NIH grant and contract award notices plummeted, dropping from 166 in January and February of 2024 to 64 so far in 2025, according to the university. Already, the uncertainty is causing reverberations at Duke's School of Medicine, which receives over three-quarters of the university's NIH funding. Expansion projects are being shelved. Fewer Ph.D. students are being admitted. And researchers are assessing whether their projects can continue.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-cuts-research-funding-nih-duke-724b33bbad54489583520535ab8d9dc
Afghan women who fled Taliban to study abroad face return after USAID freeze	Human rights	More than 80 Afghan women who fled the Taliban to pursue higher education in Oman now face imminent deportation back to Afghanistan, following the Trump administration's sweeping freeze on foreign aid programmes. Funded by the US Agency for International Development (USAID), their scholarships were abruptly terminated after the funding freeze ordered by President Donald Trump when he returned to office in January. U.S. hostage envoy Adam Boehler said Sunday that while he understands Israel's concerns over direct talks with Hamas, the U.S. is "not an agent of Israel." Hours after Boehler met with a senior Hamas political official, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's right-hand man Ron Dermer condemned the U.S., making proposals without Israel's consent in an intense call last week, Axios' Barak Ravid scooped. Boehler assured that he was not close to a deal with Hamas after the meetings in Doha, which were largely centered around securing the release of American hostages. Eden Alexander and the bodies of four deceased American hostages, sources told Axios. Canada's ruling Liberal Party elected a new party leader Sunday who will serve as the nation's next prime minister, replacing outgoing premier Justin Trudeau. Liberal Party members' vote for Mark Carney, former governor of the Bank of Canada and England, comes as the Liberal Party is experiencing a polling boost amid widespread opposition to President Trump's policies targeting its northern neighbor.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/afghan-women-fled-taliban-study-083113323.html
U.S. "not an agent of Israel," envoy says amid objections to Hamas talks	International Relations	U.S. hostage envoy Adam Boehler said Sunday that while he understands Israel's concerns over direct talks with Hamas, the U.S. is "not an agent of Israel." Hours after Boehler met with a senior Hamas political official, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's right-hand man Ron Dermer condemned the U.S., making proposals without Israel's consent in an intense call last week, Axios' Barak Ravid scooped. Boehler assured that he was not close to a deal with Hamas after the meetings in Doha, which were largely centered around securing the release of American hostages. Eden Alexander and the bodies of four deceased American hostages, sources told Axios. Canada's ruling Liberal Party elected a new party leader Sunday who will serve as the nation's next prime minister, replacing outgoing premier Justin Trudeau. Liberal Party members' vote for Mark Carney, former governor of the Bank of Canada and England, comes as the Liberal Party is experiencing a polling boost amid widespread opposition to President Trump's policies targeting its northern neighbor.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/03/adam-boehler-hamas-israel-talks
Canada's Liberal Party elects new leader to replace Trudeau as prime minister	International- Canada	U.S. hostage envoy Adam Boehler said Sunday that while he understands Israel's concerns over direct talks with Hamas, the U.S. is "not an agent of Israel." Hours after Boehler met with a senior Hamas political official, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's right-hand man Ron Dermer condemned the U.S., making proposals without Israel's consent in an intense call last week, Axios' Barak Ravid scooped. Boehler assured that he was not close to a deal with Hamas after the meetings in Doha, which were largely centered around securing the release of American hostages. Eden Alexander and the bodies of four deceased American hostages, sources told Axios. Canada's ruling Liberal Party elected a new party leader Sunday who will serve as the nation's next prime minister, replacing outgoing premier Justin Trudeau. Liberal Party members' vote for Mark Carney, former governor of the Bank of Canada and England, comes as the Liberal Party is experiencing a polling boost amid widespread opposition to President Trump's policies targeting its northern neighbor.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/03/canada-liberal-party-leader-election-mark-carney-trudeau

More than 1,300 Syrians killed in 72 hours amid clashes and acts of revenge	International-Syria	More than 1,300 people in Syria have been killed — many believed to be civilians — in the span of three days amid intense fighting between forces associated with Syria's new government and those loyal to the deposed dictator Bashar al-Assad, according to a human rights group. The conflict is considered the country's worst violence since insurgents toppled the Assad regime back in December. It's also the bloodiest test for Syria's new government since it has assumed power.	https://www.npr.org/2025/03/09/m-a-1-5372458/syria-revenge-killing-alawites-isis
Marco Rubio: one-time Russia hawk makes stunning U-turn under Trump	Political Cesspool	Marco Rubio, the US secretary of state, looked on as Donald Trump demanded more gratitude from the Ukrainian president, Volodymyr Zelenskyy, and accused the embattled leader of "gambling with world war three". "You right now are not in a very good position," Trump chided Zelenskyy during their confrontation in the Oval Office last week.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/mar/09/marco-rubio-russia-putin-trump
Out of the lab and into the streets, researchers and doctors rally for science against Trump cuts	Protest	Throughout the heated exchange, Rubio, who previously ran for president as a staunch Russia hawk, sat silently on a yellow sofa. The image of a sullen Rubio quickly went viral online, with one social media user dubbing him "the corpse on the couch". One user wondered whether Rubio was "recognizing in real time that he is on the wrong side of history", while another suggested he was "hesitating he sold his soul to the dumbest people on the planet". Clung a new meaning to the phrase mad scientists, angry researchers, doctors, their patients and supporters ventured out of labs, hospitals and offices Friday to fight against what they call a bite on life-saving science by the Trump administration. In the nation's capital, a couple thousand gathered at the Stand Up for Science rally. Organizers said similar rallies were planned in more than 30 U.S. cities.	https://apnews.com/article/science-doctors-cuts-budget-trump-health-climate-ceae07f42a686b3dc2fe6b129493d454
Trump DOJ's limits on FACE Act enforcement fuel concern from abortion providers	Reproductive rights	The Justice Department's new leaders say past enforcement of the FACE Act is "the prototypical example" of what they say is the weaponization of law enforcement against conservatives. Instead, the Justice Department now says it will no longer enforce violations of the statute, except in extraordinary circumstances — such as cases involving death or serious property damage.	https://www.npr.org/2025/03/09/a-1-5381248/doj-faces-act-access-enforcement
Air Force intercepts 2 aircraft in restricted airspace near Mar-A-Lago	Threats	U.S. Air Force fighter jets intercepted an aircraft that flew over President Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate in Florida in violation of a temporary flight restriction on Sunday, NORAD said. It was the second time in 48 hours F-16s from the Continental U.S. NORAD region had responded to such aircraft violations over Palm Beach, Fla., per a statement from the North American Aerospace Defense Command.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/trump-mar-a-lago-airspace-f-16-fighter-jets
Secret Service shoots armed man near White House	Threats	The U.S. Secret Service shot an armed man near the White House around midnight on Sunday, the agency said in a statement. The pandemic pushed voters — from young men to suburban parents — to the right, leaving Trump's decisive victory and raising questions about Democrats' ability to hold onto once-reliable blocs.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/secret-service-shoots-man-white-house
The pandemic upended politics — twice	Trump Bulshit	President Trump signed an executive order to end Public Service Loan Forgiveness for those he deems "anti-American activists," the White House announced in a fact sheet on Friday. The nonprofit Student Debt Crisis Center opposed the order in a news release Friday deeming it "a clear attack on free speech" that "harms organizations that do not align with the president's politics."	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/pslfr-covid-five-years-trump-young-voters
Trump administration targets student loan forgiveness for those dubbed 'anti-American'	Trump Bulshit	"Public service workers are the backbone of this country," Sabrina Calazans, SDOC executive director, said in the release. "They're often overlooked and underpaid, and they still choose to serve others. Eliminating PSLF access for anyone is a slap in the face to so many hard-working Americans."	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/public-service-loan-forgiveness-trump-order
Trump sees "period of transition" as recession fears rise	Trump Economy	The U.S. economy may experience a "period of transition" as new trade and other policies take effect, President Trump said Sunday, though he hesitated to predict a full-blown recession. While the president may not be forecasting it, markets suggest a recession is at least more possible now than it was even a few weeks ago.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/trump-recession-likelihood-2025-tariffs
Trump brushes off CEOs' calls for clarity on tariffs	Trump Economy	Corporate CEOs have "plenty of clarity" on U.S. tariff policy, despite all the on-off changes of recent weeks, President Trump said Sunday. Trump, in an interview with Fox News' "Sunday Morning Futures," was asked if CEOs will get clarity on tariffs in coming weeks, especially with an April 2 reciprocal tariff deadline looming. "You'll have a lot, but we may go up with some tariffs, it depends, we may go up — I don't think we'll go down, but we may go up," he said. "They have plenty of clarity, they just use that, that's like almost a soundbite, they always say that, 'we want clarity.'"	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/trump-tariffs-cepz
Trump's economic shock therapy	Trump Economy	President Trump believes it's worth risking pain to achieve his medium-term goal of rewriting the U. S. economy. He is attempting a form of economic shock therapy, while accepting there could be collateral damage. That willingness to shrug off risks of inflation or recession is now rattling financial markets and confidence — and has itself emerged as the biggest near-term economic risk. The Federal Emergency Management Agency announced that National Fire Academy (NFA) courses had been canceled amid a "process of evaluating agency programs and spending to ensure alignment with Administration priorities", according to a notice sent to instructors, students and fire departments. Instructors were told to cancel all future travel until further notice. Firefighters, emergency medical service providers and other first responders from across the country travel to the NFA's Maryland campus for the federally funded institution's free training programs.	https://www.axios.com/2025/03/09/trump-economic-shock-inflation-recession-markets
Trump administration cancels classes at National Fire Academy amid funding freeze	Trump Policy	Federal Reserve chair Jerome Powell reiterated the central bank's view the economy was steady. However, he did acknowledge there was a higher sense of uncertainty among businesses and consumers because of the Trump administration's latest policies. The Fed, he added, doesn't intend to cut rates until it can assess the effect those policies will have on the economy. Decades later, Tennessee is again at the center of a civil rights fight. Organizers and lawmakers warn that Tennessee is becoming a "testing ground for voter suppression" and that policies there could spread across the country.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/mar/09/trump-administration-national-fire-academy
Jerome Powell says the 'net effect' of the Trump administration's policies on trade, immigration, fiscal policy, and regulation will determine interest rates in the future	Trump's economy	This year, there is a looming fear of a rollback on voting and civil rights. Civil rights leaders say the march should act as a renewed call to action.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/jerome-powell-says-net-effect-11000112.html
Tennessee again targeted for voter suppression, local leaders warn	Voting fuckery	The Department of Homeland Security has begun performing polygraph tests on employees to determine who might be leaking information to the media about immigration operations, according to four sources familiar with the practice.	https://www.axios.com/local/tennessee/2025/03/07/tennessee-again-targeted-voter-suppression-local-leaders-warn
DHS has begun performing polygraph tests on employees to find leakers	WTF?	The bill would expand Trump's 2017 tax cuts, raise the debt ceiling and include significant new spending on border security and the military. What began as a nationalist reaction to America's perceived decline has evolved into a global ideological crusade. Now at the apex of its domestic power, MAGA is rallying behind candidates who share its views on immigration, globalization and the fight for "Western Civilization."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-began-performing-polygraph-tests-224601467.html
All the news	Everything	Summary	https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1oacqB8CtUB80BdRbR4hWYD0mAYuTz1d0m10PMdyed7Uwvsharing
All the news	Everything	Summary	https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1KqJ1tC-CQdHt4R56eRSPS1JmnyPRTpw_WiChPgw_Ljnced7Uwvsharing
Key	Posted alone	Follow up needed
All the news	Everything	Summary
Trump's "big, beautiful bill" has Republicans squabbling over math	Government Spending	President Trump's "big, beautiful bill" will either spur unprecedented economic growth or blow up the national debt by trillions depending on which congressional Republican you asked Sunday. The bill is projected to add $3 trillion to 5 trillion to deficits over the next 10 years, dwarfing DOGE's cuts. But the White House argues that tax cut extensions shouldn't count as new costs in the CBO analysis. The bill would expand Trump's 2017 tax cuts, raise the debt ceiling and include significant new spending on border security and the military. What began as a nationalist reaction to America's perceived decline has evolved into a global ideological crusade. Now at the apex of its domestic power, MAGA is rallying behind candidates who share its views on immigration, globalization and the fight for "Western Civilization."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/01/mike-johnson-big-beautiful-bill-trump	2025/06/02
MAGA's world tour exports Trumpism beyond U.S. borders	Political Cesspool	"We believe the fight for freedom and conservative values doesn't stop at America's borders." Conservative Political Action Conference (CPAC) chair Matt Schlapp told Axios. "That's why we've taken CPAC overseas — to stand united with courageous leaders and citizens who are resisting the globalist dangerous threat of authoritarianism, open borders, and Mar Marxism." President Trump late Saturday announced he would yank his nominee to lead NASA, citing "a thorough review of prior associations." Isaacman donated to Democrats as recently as 2024, records from nonprofit campaign finance tracker OpenSecrets show.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/01/world-election-maga-bannon-euro	2025/06/02
Trump pulls Musk associate's nomination for NASA administrator	Political Cesspool	The billoneaire said during his confirmation hearing that he has been "relatively apolitical," CNN reported. House Democrats are convinced that President Trump's tariffs will help them plough a path to the majority through the Com Belt. The trade war, at least with China, looks like it's back on. Party strategists are banking farmers will start to turn on Trump if that trade war closes off international markets when they harvest crops this fall.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/01/trump-nasa-administrator-jared-isa	2025/06/02
House Dems think Trump's tariffs can win them back the Com Belt	Economy-Politics	The Food and Drug Administration approved Moderna's next-generation COVID-19 vaccine for adults 65 and older and those 12 to 64 years old with at least one underlying condition that could put them at risk of severe infection, the company said Saturday. Moderna CEO Stéphane Bancel said in a news release "COVID-19 remains a serious public health threat, with more than 47,000 Americans dying from the virus last year alone." No modern president has done more in his first 130 days than President Trump — only to have much of it undone, at least temporarily, by the courts. Trump is testing the limits of presidential power at every turn, and the courts are just about the only thing standing in his way. The inevitable showdowns between Trump and the judiciary are only going to get more intense.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/31/house-democrats-trump-tariffs-com	2025/06/02
FDA approves new Moderna COVID-19 vaccine	Health- Covid	Kash Patel and Dan Bongino spent years torching the American security state for concealing nefarious secrets about Jeffrey Epstein, Jan. 6, the "Russia hoax" and the assassination attempts against President Trump. 1. Some followers and fellow MAGA media figures who revered Patel and Bongino for pillorying the "Deep State" were aghast by their recent conspiracy-quashing comments, particularly that Epstein really killed himself. 2. The FBI's 38,000-strong workforce was never going to immediately embrace the idea of a couple of its biggest antagonists calling the shots, but it's been a tumultuous few months. 3. While Trump has been publicly supportive, he did say it was "a little bit hard to believe" assertions from Patel and other senior law enforcement figures that there was no wider conspiracy behind the assassination attempts against him.	https://www.axios.com/2025/05/31/patel-bongino-fbi-interviews-epstein	2025/06/02			Political cesspool
Patel and Bongino's choppy transition from reeasing the FBI to running it	Government-FBI	More than 10,000 homes were damaged or destroyed in North Carolina, some 500 miles inland from where it came ashore in Florida. Dozens of people drowned in Helene's floodwaters. Phan's husband was one of several men who were first told that they would be sent to South Africa instead of their home countries — which also included Mexico, Burma, Cuba and Laos. Then they were told instead their destination would be South Sudan, a politically unstable country in Africa and one of the poorest in the world. The administration argues that the men's home countries won't take them — and people with criminal records shouldn't be allowed to stay in the U.S.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/01/m-a-1-5372918/hurricane-helene-north	2025/06/02
North Carolina had a housing crisis before Hurricane Helene, now it's even worse	Economy-Housing	President Trump has long called for escalating the U.S. drug war against Mexican cartels and wants tougher penalties for dealers selling fentanyl and other street drugs in American communities. "I am ready for it, the death penalty, if you deal drugs," Trump said during a meeting with state governors in February, where he said dealers are too often treated with "a slap on the wrist." Already during the early months of his second term, Trump has granted clemency to at least eight individuals convicted on federal drug charges. Some, including Hoover, have extensive criminal records involving violence and gun charges.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/01/p-a-1-5415938/trump-pardons-drug-kin	2025/06/02
The White House is deporting people to countries they're not from. Why?	Borders and immigration	"There's a lot of mixed messages and mixed signals [from the White House] which creates sort of chaos and uncertainty," said Jeffrey Singer, a drug policy analyst at the Cato Institute, a libertarian think-tank. "On the one hand you're threatening even tougher penalties on people who deal in drugs, while on the other hand you're releasing drug dealers from prisons."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/01/p-a-1-5415938/trump-pardons-drug-kin	2025/06/02
Trump pardons drug kingpins even as he escalates U.S. drug war rhetoric	Trump Bulshit

		A Ukrainian drone attack has destroyed more than 40 Russian planes deep in Russia's territory, a Ukrainian security official told The Associated Press on Sunday, while Russia pounded Ukraine with missiles and drones a day before the two sides meet for a new round of direct talks in Istanbul. The official, who spoke on condition of anonymity to disclose operational details, said the attack took over 1 1/2-year to execute and was personally supervised by Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy.
Ukraine destroys more than 40 military aircraft in a drone attack deep inside Russia	International-Russia	The operation saw drones transported in containers carried by trucks deep into Russian territory, he said. The drones hit airfields including the Belaya Air base in Russia's Khutsk region, more than 4,000 kilometers (2,500 miles) from Ukraine. It is the first time that a Ukrainian drone has been seen in the region, local Gov. Igor Kobzeva said, stressing that it did not present a threat to civilians. The loss of USDA staff has also left Massachusetts farmers without essential resources that have long been an important part of their success, Randie wrote, pointing to diminished staffing at the local Farm Service Agency office, which helps with loans, insurance and disaster relief. As part of the overhaul, USDA allowed more than 15,000 employees — close to 15% of its workforce — to resign with pay and benefits through September. Those departures have led to new concerns for Randie, including whether the federal government will be able to respond quickly in a crisis. She's been told that many of USDA's Area Veterinarians in Charge, who get the first call whenever a pest or disease is detected on a farm, have resigned, including the one assigned to New England. With avian flu likely to return with the fall bird migration, and other diseases including New World screwworm and African swine fever creeping ever closer to the U.S., Randie knows U.S. farmers and ranchers, along with the U.S. food supply, could be at risk. "You want that director of the Bureau of Land Management to be out here, because he or she will have firsthand knowledge of what's going on," he said, sitting on a bench on Grand Junction's pleasant Main Street, lined by trees and sculptures. ...	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/01/ua-st-54185903/ukraine-destroys-military-aircraft	2025/06/02
Exodus of USDA veterinarians and others drives fears that U.S. farms are at risk	Government-USA	Dozens of former BLM officials disagreed, however, and signed a letter protesting the move. They insisted the agency needs leaders in DC to advocate for public lands in front of lawmakers and the president. Others saw an ulterior motive: to get longtime agency employees in Washington to quit, to either make the agency smaller, or to replace them with people more ideologically aligned with President Trump. There are a lot of geese at the Blue Lake Regional Park along the Columbia River in Fairview. So rangers weren't surprised when they found a nesting Canada goose — large, with a black beak and black and white face — near some picnic benches early in the season. But there was something strange about the other goose guarding the nest. It was small, grayish brown, with a yellow beak and white face. McDonald contacted wildlife specialists at Metro, the regional government agency that manages this park. It turned out the other goose was a greater white-fronted goose, a different species than the nesting Canada goose it was defending.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/20/ua-st-5418608/usa-april-agriculture	2025/06/02
Could Colorado be home to the BLM's national headquarters — again?	Government-BLM	There are a lot of geese at the Blue Lake Regional Park along the Columbia River in Fairview. So rangers weren't surprised when they found a nesting Canada goose — large, with a black beak and black and white face — near some picnic benches early in the season. But there was something strange about the other goose guarding the nest. It was small, grayish brown, with a yellow beak and white face. McDonald contacted wildlife specialists at Metro, the regional government agency that manages this park. It turned out the other goose was a greater white-fronted goose, a different species than the nesting Canada goose it was defending.	https://www.cnr.org/2025/05/28/trump-blm-headquarters-grand-junction	2025/06/02
An unusual pairing of geese draws a gaggle of Portland area birders	Weird world	These are two totally different species of geese. But for some reason, they paired up — and they even produced eggs. For back-to-back nights, more than 45,000 fans packed the Big A to see the Savannah Bananas — a team born from a small-time collegiate summer team that became a tour de force that has forever changed baseball. It was one stop during the Bananas' most audacious barnstorming effort since their baseball traveling show hit the road just a few years ago. These tickets were only available through a lottery — reserved months in advance. And when they went on sale, all were gone in an instant. The only way it was through the resale market, where just hours before first pitch on Friday, the lowest price (fees and taxes included) for a pair of tickets was $209.52.	https://www.opb.org/article/2025/05/28/portland-oregon-park-two-species-geese/	2025/06/02
Going bananas. Why Savannah Bananas tickets cost more than a Dodgers-Yankees rematch	Weird world	Speaker Mike Johnson, R-La., on Sunday defended cuts to Medicaid in the budget bill House Republicans passed last month, saying that "4.8 million people will not lose their Medicaid unless they choose to do so." Johnson told NBC News "Meet the Press" that the bill imposes "commonsense" work requirements for some Medicaid recipients and added that he's "not buying" the argument that the work requirements, which would require able-bodied Medicaid recipients to work, participate in job training programs or volunteer for 80 hours a month, are too "cumbersome."	https://sports.yahoo.com/article/going-bananas-why-savannah-bananas	2025/06/02
Speaker Mike Johnson says some Medicaid recipients will 'choose' whether to lose health care under House spending bill	Government-Medicaid	Just Wednesday, a judge granted Harvard an extension on an injunction that blocked the administration's attempt last week to stop the Ivy League school from enrolling foreign-born students. An estimated 4,700 or more foreign-born students have been impacted since the Trump administration began revoking visas and terminating legal statuses in March. A few have also been detained in high-profile cases. Some of the most powerful artificial intelligence models today have exhibited behaviors that mimic a will to survive.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/speaker-mike-johnson-says-medicaid-14	2025/06/02
Trump administration continues to target international students. What to know and what could be next	Borders and immigration	"It's great that we're seeing warning signs before the systems become so powerful we can't control them," he said. "That is exactly the time to raise the alarm: before the fire has gotten out of control." Robert F. Kennedy Jr. was contradicted by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, an agency that he overrules, just days after he announced a new national COVID-19 vaccine policy. However, on Friday, the CDC issued an update that kept COVID immunizations on the schedule for children between the ages of six months and 17 years old. The New York Times reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-own-cdc-contradicts-2236454611	2025/06/02
How far will AI go to defend its own survival?	Technology	The head of the United States Institute of Peace says its Washington, D.C. headquarters near the Lincoln Memorial was left to rot after billionaire Eliot Musk's Department of Government Efficiency took it over in March, resulting in water damage, graffiti — and, worse yet, an infestation of roaches and rats. Vance, who previously delivered a speech framing universities as "the enemy" in American society, went on to suggest that U.S. colleges may not be producing "good science" because, according to him, many schools discriminate against white and Asian people. This was an especially ironic claim given it's his administration that is currently threatening to pull student visas from thousands of Chinese students. But let's sit with his "why can't Americans do this" question for a moment, shall we? Because it sounds patriotic — but it's fundamentally idiotic. For one, Vance's comments were surprisingly dismissive of contributions from the more than 1,500 German scientists, some of them Nazis, brought to the United States as part of an operation known as "Project Paperbird" (the vice president isn't exactly known for giving accurate lessons on American history), but to be clear: There's an illustrious history of immigrant scientists coming to the United States and making tremendous contributions to the American way of life. But aside from that, Trump's crackdown on science is also causing American scientists and aspiring scientists — like one Vance claims to care about — to reconsider their career path.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-own-cdc-contradicts-2236454611	2025/06/02
RFK Jr.'s Own CDC Contradicts Him Days After Vaccine Quackery	RFK JR.BS	Nayib Bukele, the self-declared "world's coolest dictator," will mark six years as El Salvador's president on Sunday, a period defined by contentious reforms, which critics say have brought peace to the streets at an incredibly high price. His iron-fisted crackdown on crime in the country, that was once the most violent nation in the western hemisphere, led to the arrest and detention of around 87,000 people, often with little due process. "I feel it will be so easy to lose your coverage if you do the reporting the wrong way and you can't fix it," said Platter, who has applied for full-time jobs over the past 18 months but said she hasn't received responses. The provision would help achieve Republicans' longstanding goal of introducing work requirements into Medicaid. It's part of an unprecedented set of cuts the House GOP would make to the nation's safety net program.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-own-cdc-contradicts-2236454611	2025/06/02
Musk's DOGE took control of the U.S. Institute of Peace. It brought roaches and rats to D.C. headquarters, court docs say	Fuck that department	Some 38% of adult enrollees had full-time jobs in 2023, most of them for the full year, according to KFF, a nonpartisan health policy research group that looked at folks ages 19 to 64 without dependent children who did not receive disability benefits or have Medicare coverage, which insures people with disabilities. Just over 20% worked just less than 35 hours a week. The Trump administration has admitted that it improperly deported another immigrant in violation of a court order — the fourth known case in which the administration deported someone erroneously or in breach of specific legal requirements. ... In court papers this week, officials blamed a "confluence of administrative errors," including missed emails and an inaccurate roster of passengers on the May 7 deportation flight. The Justice Department declined to comment, and the Department of Homeland Security did not respond to requests for comment. Over 130 former state and federal judges are urging the government to drop its charges against Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge Hannah Dugan, dubbing her indictment an "egregious overreach" by the executive branch. The Wisconsin judge was indicted in April after being accused of helping an undocumented migrant flee arrest at her courthouse last month. She faces federal charges of obstructing or impeding a proceeding and concealing an individual to prevent his discovery and arrest — charges that carry a maximum penalty of six years in prison and a $350,000 fine. She has pleaded not guilty. Florida will feel significant impacts from the Supreme Court's ruling allowing the Trump administration to end another form of legal status for more than 400,000 immigrants from Cuba, Haiti, Venezuela and Nicaragua living in the state, rendering them undocumented and at risk of deportation. Humanitarian parole, a program different from Temporary Protected Status, covered 530,000 people from those Latin American nations across the country, all of whom had a U.S. sponsor. About 60% of them live in Florida. Many hold jobs in crucial South Florida industries facing labor shortages that include health care, education, hospitality and construction.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-doge-takeover-institute-peace-212	2025/06/02
JD Vance botches defense of the MAGA 'brain drain' Trump has caused in academia	Political Cesspool	Sen. Josh Ernst (R-Iowa) has doubled down on her dismissive response to worries about GOP legislation that includes huge Medicaid and food assistance cuts. On Friday, Ernst faced angry constituents at a town hall in Parkersburg, Iowa, with one woman in the crowd yelling, "People will die." Ernst replied, "People are not — well, we all are going to die. So, for heaven's sakes, folks." ... "And I made an incorrect assumption that everyone in the auditorium understood that, yes, we are all going to perish from this earth," Ernst said. "So I apologize. And I'm really, really glad that I did not have to bring up the subject of the tooth fairy as well." But as passed by the House, the tax bill also has many ugly provisions. Some are related to taxes, like the abolition of taxes on gun silencers, or ending tax incentives for clean energy and cars. Others are just completely extraneous, like language prohibiting state- and local regulation of artificial intelligence for 10 years. 1) Undermining the Rule of Law 2) Rewarding Rich Homeowners 3) A Boondoggle for Private Schools 4) Leave No Her Behind 5) Shortchange Kids of Immigrants 6) No Insurance for You! 7) Work for Your Super	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jd-vance-botches-defense-maga-047048	2025/06/02
'We are under a dictatorship.' Six years into his rule, El Salvador's Nayib Bukele tightens his grip	International-El Salvador	Florida will feel significant impacts from the Supreme Court's ruling allowing the Trump administration to end another form of legal status for more than 400,000 immigrants from Cuba, Haiti, Venezuela and Nicaragua living in the state, rendering them undocumented and at risk of deportation. Humanitarian parole, a program different from Temporary Protected Status, covered 530,000 people from those Latin American nations across the country, all of whom had a U.S. sponsor. About 60% of them live in Florida. Many hold jobs in crucial South Florida industries facing labor shortages that include health care, education, hospitality and construction.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/under-dictatorship-six-years-rule-040103	2025/06/02
Republicans want to add work requirements to Medicaid. Even some recipients with jobs are concerned	Government-Medicaid	Sen. Josh Ernst (R-Iowa) has doubled down on her dismissive response to worries about GOP legislation that includes huge Medicaid and food assistance cuts. On Friday, Ernst faced angry constituents at a town hall in Parkersburg, Iowa, with one woman in the crowd yelling, "People will die." Ernst replied, "People are not — well, we all are going to die. So, for heaven's sakes, folks." ... "And I made an incorrect assumption that everyone in the auditorium understood that, yes, we are all going to perish from this earth," Ernst said. "So I apologize. And I'm really, really glad that I did not have to bring up the subject of the tooth fairy as well." But as passed by the House, the tax bill also has many ugly provisions. Some are related to taxes, like the abolition of taxes on gun silencers, or ending tax incentives for clean energy and cars. Others are just completely extraneous, like language prohibiting state- and local regulation of artificial intelligence for 10 years. 1) Undermining the Rule of Law 2) Rewarding Rich Homeowners 3) A Boondoggle for Private Schools 4) Leave No Her Behind 5) Shortchange Kids of Immigrants 6) No Insurance for You! 7) Work for Your Super	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republicans-want-add-work-requirements-medi	2025/06/02
A court halted his deportation. The Trump administration deported him 23 minutes later.	Borders and immigration	Florida will feel significant impacts from the Supreme Court's ruling allowing the Trump administration to end another form of legal status for more than 400,000 immigrants from Cuba, Haiti, Venezuela and Nicaragua living in the state, rendering them undocumented and at risk of deportation. Humanitarian parole, a program different from Temporary Protected Status, covered 530,000 people from those Latin American nations across the country, all of whom had a U.S. sponsor. About 60% of them live in Florida. Many hold jobs in crucial South Florida industries facing labor shortages that include health care, education, hospitality and construction.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/court-halted-deportation-trump-administr	2025/06/02
More than 130 former judges blast Judge Hannah Dugan's indictment as 'egregious overreach'	Judicial pushback	Florida will feel significant impacts from the Supreme Court's ruling allowing the Trump administration to end another form of legal status for more than 400,000 immigrants from Cuba, Haiti, Venezuela and Nicaragua living in the state, rendering them undocumented and at risk of deportation. Humanitarian parole, a program different from Temporary Protected Status, covered 530,000 people from those Latin American nations across the country, all of whom had a U.S. sponsor. About 60% of them live in Florida. Many hold jobs in crucial South Florida industries facing labor shortages that include health care, education, hospitality and construction.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-130-former-judges-blast-judge-hannah-dugan-s-indictment-as-egregious-overreach	2025/06/02
Florida to feel brunt of new Supreme Court ruling, ending protection for 530,000 immigrants	Borders and immigration	Sen. Josh Ernst (R-Iowa) has doubled down on her dismissive response to worries about GOP legislation that includes huge Medicaid and food assistance cuts. On Friday, Ernst faced angry constituents at a town hall in Parkersburg, Iowa, with one woman in the crowd yelling, "People will die." Ernst replied, "People are not — well, we all are going to die. So, for heaven's sakes, folks." ... "And I made an incorrect assumption that everyone in the auditorium understood that, yes, we are all going to perish from this earth," Ernst said. "So I apologize. And I'm really, really glad that I did not have to bring up the subject of the tooth fairy as well." But as passed by the House, the tax bill also has many ugly provisions. Some are related to taxes, like the abolition of taxes on gun silencers, or ending tax incentives for clean energy and cars. Others are just completely extraneous, like language prohibiting state- and local regulation of artificial intelligence for 10 years. 1) Undermining the Rule of Law 2) Rewarding Rich Homeowners 3) A Boondoggle for Private Schools 4) Leave No Her Behind 5) Shortchange Kids of Immigrants 6) No Insurance for You! 7) Work for Your Super	https://www.yahoo.com/news/florida-feel-brunt-supreme-court-2227063	2025/06/02
GOP Senator Doubles Down On 'We All Are Going To Die' Comment In Wild Non-Apology	Political Cesspool	Kim Jong Un's North Korea is secretly infiltrating American businesses via remote jobs, with the help of unwitting U.S. citizens. Christina Chapman, a Minnesota woman whose home functioned as a hub for foreign operatives posing as American IT workers, helped funnel millions into North Korea's economy while jeopardizing U.S. data security. President Donald Trump reshared a post falsely saying former President Joe Biden was "executed in 2020," among other insidious allegations. The false claims, made by another user on Truth Social and reposted by Biden on May 31, also included that "drones doubles & robotic engineered soulless mindless entities" have since substituted for the ex-commander-in-chief.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-senator-doubles-down-gop-221516	2025/06/02
The Seven Upliest Provisions in Trump's 'Big Beautiful Bill'	Political Cesspool	Kim Jong Un's North Korea is secretly infiltrating American businesses via remote jobs, with the help of unwitting U.S. citizens. Christina Chapman, a Minnesota woman whose home functioned as a hub for foreign operatives posing as American IT workers, helped funnel millions into North Korea's economy while jeopardizing U.S. data security. President Donald Trump reshared a post falsely saying former President Joe Biden was "executed in 2020," among other insidious allegations. The false claims, made by another user on Truth Social and reposted by Biden on May 31, also included that "drones doubles & robotic engineered soulless mindless entities" have since substituted for the ex-commander-in-chief.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/kim-jong-un-s-north-korea-2227274531	2025/06/02
Kim Jong Un's North Korea Infiltrates US Remote Jobs, With The Help Of Everyday Americans, Funneling $17.7 Billion Through Laptop Farm, Run By Shillwifings, To Taker Report	International-North Korea	President Donald Trump reshared a post falsely saying former President Joe Biden was "executed in 2020," among other insidious allegations. The false claims, made by another user on Truth Social and reposted by Biden on May 31, also included that "drones doubles & robotic engineered soulless mindless entities" have since substituted for the ex-commander-in-chief.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-shares-false-social-media-post-saying-joe-biden-was-executed-in-2020	2025/06/02
Donald Trump shares false social media post saying Joe Biden was 'executed in 2020'	Trump Bullshit	Australia's defence minister Richard Marles has called on China to explain why it needs to have "such an extraordinary military build-up". He said Beijing needs to provide greater transparency and reassurance as it is the "fundamental issue" for the region. Meanwhile, the Philippines defence minister Gilberto Teodoro Jr has called China "absolutely irresponsible and reckless" in its actions in the South China Sea.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-shares-false-social-media-post-saying-joe-biden-was-executed-in-2020	2025/06/02
Australia asks China to explain 'extraordinary' military build-up	International-China	June 1 marks the first day of meteorological summer, the knockoff of the three months that typically feel the hottest (although the calendar will technically say it's spring until June 20). According to multiple outlooks, summer 2025 will be a scorcher. The summer forecast calls for hotter-than-normal temperatures from coast-to-coast, according to NOAA's Climate Prediction Center and other private forecasters. No part of the U.S. is forecast to see a cooler-than-average summer.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/australia-asks-china-explain-extraordinary	2025/06/02
Summer 2025 forecast calls for 'overwhelmingly above normal' heat starting in June	Environment-Heat	No part of the U.S. is forecast to see a cooler-than-average summer.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/summer-2025-forecast-calls-overwhelming	2025/06/02

		Children will be able to get the vaccines after consulting with a health care provider — what's known as "shared decision-making." For pregnant women, there's less guidance, sores advising that group on the Adult and Child Immunization Schedules are now shaded gray for Covid-19 vaccines "to reflect no guidance/recommendation," according to an email sent by the CDC on Friday. But the changes — posted two days after Kennedy's surprise 59-second social media announcement that the vaccines would be dropped from the CDC's recommended immunization schedules — have created more confusion as doctors, parents and vaccine experts try to parse the new language.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/covid-19-shots-health-children-2046272	2025/06/02
Covid-19 shots for kids remain on CDC vaccine schedule with slightly different designation	Health- Covid
		China has warned the United States against "playing with fire" over Taiwan in response to US Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth calling the Asian power a "threat to the region" at a high-profile summit in Singapore. Speaking at the Shangri-La Dialogue on Saturday, Hegseth said China was "credibly preparing" for military action to shift Asia's power balance, accusing Beijing of rehearsing a potential invasion of Taiwan.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/china-warms-us-not-play-02743031.html	2025/06/02
China warns US not to 'play with fire' over Taiwan	International Relations
		More than a dozen National Weather Service (NWS) forecast offices along the hurricane-prone Gulf of Mexico coast are understaffed as the US plunges into an expected active season for ruinous storms, data seen by the Guardian shows. There is a lack of meteorologists in 15 of the regional weather service offices along the coastline from Texas to Florida, as well as in Puerto Rico — an area that takes the brunt of almost all hurricanes that hit the US. Several offices, including in Miami, Jacksonville, Puerto Rico and Houston, lack at least a third of all the meteorologists required to be fully staffed.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/02/hump-national-weather	2025/06/02
Key US weather monitoring offices understaffed as hurricane season starts	Government- NWS
		China has accused the US of "seriously violating" the fragile US-China detente that has been in place for less than a month since the two countries agreed to pause the trade war that risked upending the global economy. China and the US agreed on 12 May to pause for 90 days the skyrocketing "reciprocal" tariffs that both countries had placed on the others goods in a frenzied trade war that started a few weeks earlier. Tariffs had reached 125% on each side, which officials feared amounted to virtual embargo on the world's two biggest economies.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/02/china-us-trade-war-truce	2025/06/02
China accuses US of 'seriously violating' trade truce	International Relations
		Less than 12 months ago, the US supreme court was in serious dispute among liberals following a series of ethics scandals and a spate of highly contentious, conservative-leaning rulings. It culminated in a ruling last July vastly expanding a president's immunity from prosecution, virtually guaranteeing that Donald Trump would escape criminal censure for the 6 January 2021 insurrection and retaining classified documents. So far had the court's stock with Democrats fallen, that Joe Biden called for radical reforms on how the court was run and a constitutional amendment asserting that no president was above the law or immune for crimes committed in office.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/01/us-supreme-court-d	2025/06/02
Stakes are high for US democracy as conservative supreme court hears raft of cases	Trump Bullyh
		Now, with a re-elected and vengeful Trump having run rampant over democratic norms by issuing a raft of often illegal and unconstitutional executive orders, the same court — with the same nine justices on the bench — is being cast in the unlikely role of potential saviour of American democracy. At least 80 shots were fired in a North Carolina neighborhood, killing one person and wounding 11 others, authorities said on Sunday.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/01/mass-shooting-north	2025/06/02
One dead and 11 injured after 80 shots fired at North Carolina house party	Guns- Mass shooting
		Significant flooding affected Nigeria last week, with more than 100 deaths reported so far. Heavy rain struck the north of the country on Wednesday night and continued into Thursday, leading to flooding along the Niger River, displacing thousands and destroying hundreds of homes. The district head said it was the region's worst flood in 60 years.	https://www.theguardian.com/environmen/2025/jun/02/weather-tracker	2025/06/02
Weather tracker: Nigeria hit by deadly flooding, described as 'worst in 60 years'	Weather- Flooding
		More than 25,000 residents in three provinces have been evacuated as dozens of wildfires remain active and affect air quality in parts of Canada and the US, according to officials. Most of the evacuated residents were from Manitoba, which declared a state of emergency last week. About 17,000 people there were evacuated by Saturday, along with 1,300 in Alberta. About 8,000 people in Saskatchewan had been relocated as leaders there said the number could climb.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/01/thousands-evacuated-i	2025/06/02
Thousands evacuated in three Canadian provinces as wildfires continue	Environment- Wildfire
		The race to train what animals are saying is heating up, with not just as a place in history at stake. The Jeremy Collier Foundation has promised $10m to whichever researchers can crack the code. This is a race fuelled by generative AI: large language models can sort through millions of recorded animal vocalisations to find their hidden grammars. Most projects focus on cetaceans because, like us, they learn through vocal imitation and, also like us, they communicate via complex arrangements of sound that appear to have structure and hierarchy.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/01/ivere-dance-to-translate	2025/06/02
We're close to translating animal languages – what happens then?	Weird world
		A man with a makeshift flamethrower yelled "Free Palestine" and hurled an incendiary device into a group that had assembled to raise attention for Israeli hostages in Gaza, law enforcement officials said. Eight people were injured, some burns.	https://apnews.com/article/boulder-terror-attack-colorado-8a11173d3	2025/06/02
FBI says 8 injured in Colorado attack by men with makeshift flamethrower who yelled 'Free Palestine'	Terrorism
		President Donald Trump's doubling of tariffs on foreign steel and aluminum could hit Americans in an unexpected place: grocery aisles. The announcement Friday of a staggering 50% levy on those imports stoked fear that big-ticket purchases from cars to washing machines to houses could see major price increases. But those metals are so ubiquitous in packaging, they're likely to pack a punch across consumer products from soap to nuts.	https://apnews.com/article/steel-aluminum-tariffs-trump-groceries-0f0b	2025/06/02
Spikes in steel tariffs could imperil Trump promise of lower grocery prices	Economy- Tariffs
		Guidance issued by Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth states that transgender service members have to voluntarily depart from active duty by June 6. After that date, the military is set to start involuntary separations for active duty trans service members.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/military	2025/06/02
New army documents outline the plan for throwing transgender troops out of US military	Rainbow threats
		ICE immigrant detention center detainees have been left without access to basic necessities after a third-party service software outage, according to a new report. Access Corrections is one of several private vendors used by ICE. The company provides payment processing systems and communications to ICE's detention facilities, and its software allows detainees to buy commissary items like food, hygiene supplies, and medicine.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-det	2025/06/02
Some ICE detainees unable to buy food after payment system goes down	Borders and immigration
		But things have gone from bad to worse for the individuals ICE has whisked off the street to face an uncertain fate: Access Corrections' services have apparently been a problem for some time, according to SFGATE.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-det	2025/06/02
Trump's birthday military parade could cause $16 million of damage to DC's streets	Trump Bullyh
		Donald Trump's birthday military parade could cause as much as $16 million worth of damage to the streets of Washington, D.C., officials estimate. During Biden's presidency, the court's conservative majority ruled that federal agencies can't decide sweeping political and economic matters without clear congressional authorization. That blocked the Environmental Protection Agency from setting deep limits on power-plant pollution and the Education Department from slashing student loans for 40 million people.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-det	2025/06/02
Trump tariffs face threat at Supreme Court — over rulings that blocked Biden	Supreme Court
		The concept — known as the "major questions doctrine" — is now playing a central role in the case against Trump's unilateral imposition of worldwide import taxes. With Supreme Court review all but inevitable, the justices' willingness to employ the doctrine against Trump may determine the fate of his signature economic initiative. Industry groups have questioned the decades-old science behind cool roofs, downplayed the benefits and warned of reduced choice and unintended consequences. "A one-size-fits-all approach doesn't consider climate variation across different regions," wrote Ellen Thorp, the executive director of the EPDM Roofing Association, a DC-based national group that represents an industry built primarily on dark materials.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-tariffs-face-threat-supreme-1706	2025/06/02
		But the weight of the scientific evidence is clear: on hot days, light-colored roofs can stay more than 50 degrees cooler than dark ones, helping cut energy use, curb greenhouse gas emissions and reduce heat-related illnesses and deaths. One recent study found that reflective roofs could have saved the lives of more than 240 people who died in London's 2018 heatwave. A study by the US Department of Energy's Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory found that a cool roof on a home in central California saved 20% in annual energy costs.	https://www.theguardian.com/environmen/2025/jun/01/dark-roof-bobby	2025/06/02
How the little-known 'dark roof' lobby may be making US cities hotter	Environment- Heat
		For a while now, a roster of religious believers and leaders, grateful for the political victories Trump has bestowed in exchange for their votes, have suggested and sometimes outright said that Trump is "Chosen," or "anointed," or a "savior," or "the second coming" or "the Christ for this age." Now, though, Trump does it, too. And that matters. It matters, some say, because it highlights how his well-documented narcissism and grandiosity has metastasized into notions of omnipotence, invincibility and infallibility. And it matters maybe most immediately because it offers a window into how he is approaching his second term — even more emboldened, even more unilaterally oriented, even more apparently uncheckable and untouchable than the first. "I run the country and the world," he said last month. "I'd like to be pope," he said — kind of joking, but... kind of not? — before he and the White House posted on social media an AI image of himself adorned in archetypal papal attire.	https://www.politico.com/news/magazine/2025/05/30/trump-odd-meas	2025/06/02
Does Trump Actually Think He's God?	Trump Bullyh
		The White House's intelligence chief is said to be considering turning Donald Trump's routine briefings into a Fox News-style broadcast, with animations of exploding bombs, to make it easier for him to follow. Tariq Gabbani is looking to revive the president's daily brief to 30 minors a television broadcast because "he doesn't read", NBC News reported, having spoken to five people with direct knowledge of the discussion.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-may-jazz-trump-192427036	2025/06/02
White House may 'jazz up' Trump's briefings as he 'doesn't like reading'	Trump Bullyh
		President Trump claimed Monday that the U.S. won't allow Iran to enrich uranium under a potential nuclear deal. Trump's claim contradicts the proposal his envoy Steve Witkoff made to Iran on Saturday, the details of which were reported by Axios on Monday. The question is whether Trump will stick to that red line or show more flexibility to secure a deal than his statement suggests.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/iran-nuclear-deal-plan-uranium-enr	2025/06/03
Trump claims U.S. won't let Iran enrich uranium under nuclear deal	International Relations
		MAGA influencers warned of dark forces at play — and the risk of dangerous escalation — as Ukraine celebrated a historic drone operation targeting Russia's bombing fleet. While Trump seeks to present himself as a neutral mediator trying to bring broker peace, large swathes of his base see Ukraine — not Russia — as the enemy.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/ukraine-drone-operation-mag	2025/06/03
Trump silent on Ukraine drone attacks as MAGA blames 'Deep State'	International- Russia
		Hundreds of times a year, the U.S. Treasury auctions off debt securities — bills, bonds, and notes. This is how Uncle Sam borrows the billions needed to finance the government's deficits. Top financial and business leaders, including some who served at high levels in President Trump's first term, are increasingly worried that something could go awry. The fear is that not enough buyers will show up one day, resulting in a damaging loss of confidence and a spike in all Americans' borrowing costs. If that were to happen, leaders warn, it could cause lasting damage by shifting the entire U.S. economy into a new, higher interest-rate equilibrium.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/us-treasury-auction-debt-interest-ra	2025/06/03
Finance leaders fear destructive U.S. debt scenario	Economy- Debt
		The FBI on Monday requested tips from the public on hospitals, clinics or practitioners performing gender-affirming surgeries to youth. "Health care for trans youth is just that — it's health care," Laurel Powell, a Human Rights Campaign spokesperson, said in a statement.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/the-fbi-gender-affirming-care-trans	2025/06/03
FBI seeks tips on gender-affirming surgeries for children	Rainbow threats
		The suspect, 45-year-old Mohamed Sabry Soliman, entered the U.S. in August 2022 on a B2 visa that expired in February 2023, according to Homeland Security spokesperson Troia McLaughlin. He fled for asylum in September 2022.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/trump-biden-boulder-colorado-attack	2025/06/03
Trump blames Biden's border policies for Boulder, attack	Borders and immigration
		Some six months after South Korea was cast into a constitutional crisis by a stunning declaration of martial law, the nation will head to the polls Tuesday. The election in many ways will be a referendum on impeached President Yoon Suk Yeol and his party, as whoever wins will be tasked with mending a divided South Korea after months of turbulence. Polls will open Tuesday morning, and a winner could be declared by Wednesday, CNN reported, bringing the ongoing leadership vacuum to an end.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/south-korea-election-what-to-know	2025/06/03
What to know about South Korea's snap election	International- South Korea
		The president's words matter, whether he's moving markets with tariff threats or spreading unfounded conspiracies about his political rivals, and the White House has mimicked Trump's bellicose online persona. Emboldened in his second term, Trump has surrounded himself with conspiracy theorists and posts without restraint.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/trump-bull-posts-conspiracies-biden	2025/06/03
Trump's Truth posts mix wild conspiracies with market-moving policies	Trump Bullyh
		Celebrations of Juneteenth, the new federal holiday that honors the emancipation of enslaved people in Texas, are growing amid a general backlash on civil rights and discussions on racism. Like Pride, companies are pulling back on diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives around race, and the Trump administration reinterprets Civil Rights-era laws to focus on "anti-white racism."	https://www.axios.com/2025-06/02/juneteenth-celebration-civil-rights-b	2025/06/03
Juneteenth celebration expands despite civil rights backlash	Racism

Baidu and revenge tips: Inside ICE's Puerto Rico deportation operation	Borders and immigration	No one knows exactly how many immigrants are living without legal status in the U.S. territory of Puerto Rico. Rebecca Gonzalez-Ramirez, ICE's top investigator on the island, estimates it's about 20,000, and since January it's been her job to track down and deport every last one of them. "Our mandate," she said, "is 100 percent. So everybody that's in the United States, and in this case in Puerto Rico, without an immigration status, needs to be removed or deported."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/02/mx-st-54195888/finding-every-deportable/	2025/06/03
Trump's $6 million Gold Card offers the rich a fast lane to residency	Borders and immigration	Lawyer's phones are ringing with wealthy foreigners wanting to know more about how to score a "Gold Card" — a glorified green card that would allow them to live and work in the U.S. without going through the usual hassle or red tape. Apparently, the card's $5 million price tag is not scaring off the jet-setters looking to make the U.S. home. Or at least one of their homes.
		Shah says the security — and the status — of being able to flash that "Gold Card" to get waved into the U. S. is also a big draw, as well as what Trump has described as "privileges - plus." The president hasn't elaborated on what that means, but Shah says clients are imagining VIP perks that range from easy loans to a special fast-track lane through Customs at U.S. airports.
Trump's $6 million Gold Card offers the rich a fast lane to residency	Borders and immigration	"They seem to believe that this is going to be some kind of separating first class from economy class, and that this is some kind of red carpet visa and they will be treated like a VIP everywhere," says Shah.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/02/mx-st-54151517/trump-gold-card-visa-ir/	2025/06/03
		Tens of millions of dollars will go toward repairing harms from the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre. That's according to Mayor Moten Nichols. Tulsa's first Black mayor said Sunday the city is opening a $105 million charitable trust aimed at things like housing, scholarships, land acquisition and economic development for north Tulsans. The trust will be comprised of private money that will be raised over the next 12 months, Nichols said.
$105 million trust to be built for 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre reparations, city says	Racism	As many as 300 people were killed and dozens of homes and businesses leveled in the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre, when a white mob razed the city's prosperous Black neighborhood of Greenwood in north Tulsa. Today, north Tulsa is hampered by blight, poverty and racial inequality.	https://www.publicradiotulsa.org/about/regional/2025-06-01/105-million-1	2025/06/03
		As the Senate prepares to put its imprint on President Donald Trump's One Big Beautiful Bill Act this week, Republicans are grappling over the potential impact the megabill might have on the national debt, which has ballooned to nearly $37 trillion.
		With a 10-year budget bill, deficit hawks in the Senate like Rand Paul and Ron Johnson are drawing a red line — pushing for deeper cuts than those in the bill the House sent to them.
Trump's funding bill runs into Senate GOP fiscal hawks	Government-Funding	As lawmakers aim to send a bill to Trump by the Fourth of July, those demands could complicate the Senate's calculus for passage — where Republicans can only afford three defections.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-big-beautiful-bill-survive-19322601	2025/06/03
		A Defense Department official tells others in the Trump administration that a $12 million biological threat research grant at Harvard shouldn't be terminated because of national security risks, according to the school's latest court filing.
DOJ official urged Trump administration not to end grant for biological threat research, Harvard tells court	Information-Blockout	The disclosure is part of a trove of internal Trump administration documents reviewed by Harvard lawyers. Harvard says the records show the White House directed the abrupt freezing of more than $2 billion in federal grants headed to the university's research programs, in violation of federal law.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/harvard-says-internal-trump-administratio	2025/06/03
		The Trump administration is coming under scrutiny for deporting several U.S. citizen children along with their foreign-born parents.
		Trump officials have defended the move, saying the minors were not deported, rather the parents have elected to take them along rather than be separated from their children.
Mass deportation effort sweeps up U.S. citizen children with deported parents	Borders and immigration	But attorneys for the families involved in such cases say their clients were given little notice and forced to make split-second decisions about what to do with children born in the United States.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mass-deportation-effort-sweeps-u-10000	2025/06/03
		The US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has granted breakthrough device designation to BIVACOR's titanium Total Artificial Heart (TAH), as a potential bridge to transplant for the adult population with severe heart failure, where current treatments are insufficient.
FDA grants breakthrough device status to BIVACOR's artificial heart	Health-Technology	BIVACOR noted that the TAH utilizes magnetic levitation to suspend a dual-sided rotor, powering both the right and left circulatory systems of the heart and emulating a natural heartbeat without the need for valves or mechanical wear points.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/fda-grants-breakthrough-device-status-	2025/06/03
		After a months-long freeze on hiring new federal employees and the Elon Musk-led DOGE cuts to the government workforce, the Trump administration is ready to resume civil service hiring — as long as the applicants answer a few essay questions about their level of loyalty to the president and his mission.
		According to the White House's directive, a copy of which was reviewed by The Independent, anyone applying for a civil service position at entry level or above — including such jobs as nurses, janitors, economists and lawyers, among others — must respond to a series of essay questions before they can even be considered for an interview.
		One question asks applicants about their "commitment to the Constitution and the founding principles of the United States," while another question asks applicants to state how they would "help advance the President's Executive Orders and policy priorities" and to "identify one or two relevant Executive Orders or policy initiatives" that they find significant to them.
After DOGE, firings White House asks new job seekers to write Trump loyalty essays, from lawyers to janitors	Trump Bullshit	One of Elon Musk's austerity operatives discovered that the government had far less glut than he'd banked on — and teltlingly, admitting as much publicly got him fired.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-firings-white-house-asks-16274600	2025/06/03
		Sahl Lovingsia, a tech founder and erstwhile software engineer with Musk's Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE), revealed in a recent blog post that he had "gotten[] the boot" from the agency after telling Fast Company last month that the federal workforce had turned out to be way more efficient than he anticipated.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-fires-operative-admits-government-1	2025/06/03
DOGE Fires Operative After He Admits the Government Was Already Pretty Efficient	Fuck that department	White House deputy chief of staff Stephen Miller was enraged to hear that Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers had been focusing on arresting only criminals, The Washington Examiner reported Monday.
		The official told the conservative outlet that Miller didn't want ICE to narrow its field to just undocumented immigrants with criminal records. "Stephen Miller wants everybody arrested. Why aren't you at Home Depot? Why aren't you at 'Eleven'?" the official retorted.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-officials-don-t-know-192934472.html	2025/06/03
ICE Officials Don't Know Who to Arrest, Thanks to Stephen Miller	Borders and immigration	"Tomatoes distributed in three southern states are now the subject of a possibly deadly recall, according to the Food and Drug Administration.
		The recall, first announced by the FDA on May 2 for potential salmonella contamination, has now been upgraded to the most severe warning the federal agency issues.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tomatoes-sold-3-states-now-181538524.html	2025/06/03
Tomatoes sold in 3 states now labeled deadly by FDA	Health-Recall	Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem incorrectly defined habeas corpus during a recent congressional hearing, augmenting serious doubts that top White House administration officials understand and are willing to respect the rule of law and legal rights of civilians on U.S. soil.
		Indeed, Noem overrules the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, which has been "forcibly disappearing" undocumented immigrants, international students and permanent residents off the streets. ICE officers frequently wear masks, which could help them avoid accountability for tactics like warrantless arrests, "knock and arrests" and smashing car windows.
		In practice, ICE operates with relatively little oversight, but in principle, it is accountable to the federal government and has been subject to extensive civil litigation in the courts.
		Over the past few months, Erik Prince, former head of the private military company Blackwater (now known by the name Constellis), has pitched multiple proposals to the White House to help with mass deportations. Prince has argued that achieving President Trump's aggressive deportation goals will require the government to "supplement" ICE's capabilities. According to one of his proposals, a new Prince company, 2USV, would train and deploy an army of as many as 100,000 armed and deputized citizens.
		This is because scholarly research on the type of group Prince would mobilize suggests three key patterns. First, these groups are often tasked with committing human rights violations in pursuit of the government's political goals. Second, the current domestic political environment in the U.S. is conducive to their formation. Lastly, employing groups like this would allow federal government officials — including the president — to evade accountability for illegal or inhumane tactics.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-think-trump-deportations-bad-15/	2025/06/03
Opinion - Think Trump's deportations have been bad? Wait until his civilian army gets started.	Political Censorship	An obscure ideology most people have never heard of is dominating almost every aspect of American life. Nearly every important Supreme Court ruling by the conservative majority — from abortion to voting rights, from gun control to environmental protection — virtually the whole far-right agenda — has been based on the notion using this ideology as its justification. "Originalism" is not a household word. Yet is in an extremely important word — the key to the political movement that has transformed the country over the last forty years and culminated in the regime of Donald Trump.
		Originalism's influence, once confined to the nation's law schools, is now vast, reaching far beyond the Supreme Court majority's politicized rulings. First and foremost, originalism — yes, they call themselves that — provide the intellectual underpinning for Trump's "emergencies," his lawless assault on law firms, universities, the Smithsonian, the Library of Congress, the Voice of America, indeed, the entire civil service. The grand alibi comes in the form of what the originalists present as the doctrine of "unitary executive," a contrived theory of their own making that they pass off as something the Framers inscribed in the Constitution.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/adapt-ideology-infected-supreme-court-1	2025/06/03
How a Radical Ideology Infected the Supreme Court and Poisoned the Country	Supreme Court	The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration said Monday it will hire for "mission-critical field positions" amid expert warnings that the National Weather Service has been cut too sharply just as hurricane season arrives.
		An agency spokesperson said in a statement the positions will be advertised under a temporary reprieve from the federal government's widespread hiring pause "to further stabilize frontline operations." NOAA also said they are filling some field office openings by reassigning staff, including some temporary hires.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/waste-deep-cuts-noaa-says-225130098.html	2025/06/03
In wake of deep cuts, NOAA says it will hire for 'mission-critical' weather service positions	Government-NOAA	The rhetoric was absurd, but familiar. A few days before Johnson's "Meet the Press" interview, White House press secretary Karoline Leavitt told reporters, in reference to the GOP's far-right legislation, "There will be no increase to the deficit." It was a declaration she's made several times before.
		Broadly speaking, there are three foundational problems with this. The first is that the Republican claim is demonstrably silly. The nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office concluded that the GOP legislation would add $3.8 trillion to upcoming budget deficits, and a variety of other assessments have come to similar conclusions. The idea that the reconciliation package wouldn't add a penny to the deficit, and would actually reduce the deficit, is absurd.
		The second problem is that the lies about the bill's fiscal impact aren't persuading those who need to be convinced. Several Republican senators, including Wisconsin's Ron Johnson and Kentucky's Rand Paul, have said they're not comfortable voting for legislation that would add trillions of dollars to the national debt, and the more GOP officials pretend that arithmetic has no meaning, the more these senators push back.
		Finally, there's the bond market to consider. The Washington Post reported over the weekend: Wall Street bankers and executives are privately warning the Trump administration that the tax bill moving through Congress could stoke investor anxiety about rising deficits, push up U.S. borrowing costs and damage the broader economy, according to more than a dozen people familiar with the matter. ... [R]ecently, a growing number of figures from the financial world have expressed private concerns that such an expensive bill could rattle the U.S. bond market, a cornerstone of the global financial system and the national economy.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/madmax-blog-reality-gays-way-15162100	2025/06/03
Reality gets in the way of Republican claims about the GOP megabill and the deficit	Government-Funding	The GEO Court agreed Monday to hear an appeal from a private prison company facing a lawsuit claiming immigration detainees were forced to work and paid a $1 a day in Colorado.
		The GEO group appealed to the high court after a judge refused to toss out the 2014 lawsuit saying the detainees had to perform both unpaid janitorial work and other jobs for little pay to supplement meager meals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-hear-private-prison-19533	2025/06/03
Supreme Court to hear private prison company appeal in suit over immigration detainees $1-a-day wages	Borders and immigration	The company says the lawsuits are really a back door way to push back against federal immigration policy, and its pay rates are in line with Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations.
		A closely divided Supreme Court refused Monday to hear a 2nd Amendment challenge to the bans on semiautomatic rifles in Maryland, California and eight other blue states.
Supreme Court turns away a 2nd Amendment challenge to blue-state bans on assault weapons	Guns-Laws	For more than a decade, the justices have turned away gun-rights appeals that challenged local or state bans on assault weapons.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-turns-away-2nd-1432906	2025/06/03
Fox News Host Slams Musk for Dodging Drug Use Question	Fuck that guy	She said that even if Musk was actually taking drugs, his potential "recreational drug use" didn't impact "everyday Americans."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fox-news-host-slams-musk-193649659.html	2025/06/03

		Americans are planning to spend less money this summer due to the impact of Donald Trump's trade tariffs, according to surveys, polling, and media reports.
		A survey of 1,516 U.S. consumers by the accounting giant KPMG in April found that 50 per cent were cutting back spending due to tariffs and more than 70 per cent expect a recession within the next 12 months.
Half of Americans say they are already cutting back because of tariffs — and that includes summer vacation plans	Economy-Tariffs	The next month, 56 per cent of respondents told pollsters commissioned by Bloomberg News that their household finances would be better off without Trump's tariffs, with 69 per cent saying they expected higher prices.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/half-americans-already-cutting-back-2/	2025/06/03
After talks with Zelenskyy and Macron, US senators warn: Putin is preparing for more war	International-Russia	Russian President Vladimir Putin is stalling at the peace table while preparing a new military offensive in Ukraine, two senior U.S. senators warned Sunday, arguing that the next two weeks could shape the future of a war that has already smashed cities, displaced millions and redrawn Europe's security map.
		In Paris for talks with French President Emmanuel Macron — who they say is "100% aligned" with them on the war — the senators warned the window to prevent a renewed assault is closing.
		"What I learned on this trip was he's preparing for more war," Graham said of Putin.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/talks-zelenskyy-macron-us-senators-213/	2025/06/03
		Israel has killed at least 32 Palestinians waiting to get food at two aid distribution sites in Gaza, leaving more than 200 others injured.
		Israeli tanks opened fire on thousands of civilians gathered at a distribution site in southern Gaza's Rafah on Sunday morning, killing at least 31 people, according to Gaza's Government Media Office.
Israel kills 32 Palestinians waiting for food at U.S.-backed Gaza aid sites	International-Israel	"Aid distribution has become a death trap," the head of the UN agency for Palestinian refugees, Philippe Lazzarini, said in a statement on Sunday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/israel-kills-32-palestinians-waiting-10465/	2025/06/03
		The Trump administration on Monday asked a U.S. appeals court to pause a second court ruling that found the president had exceeded his authority by imposing sweeping tariffs on imports, saying the decision jeopardizes trade negotiations with other nations.
		The Trump administration has already won a temporary pause of the first court loss, allowing it to reinstate tariffs during the early stages of the appeal. The court is expected to rule on the Trump administration's request for a longer-term pause later this month.
		The second ruling, from U.S. District Judge Rudolph Contreras had less immediate impact than the Court of International Trade ruling, because it only stopped the Trump administration from collecting tariffs from two small businesses that had sued whereas the trade court ruling blocked the tariffs that had been challenged broadly.
Trump administration seeks pause of second tariff case after loss	Trump Bulfith	But it contained a more direct finding that IEPPA simply does not authorize tariffs, going further than the more nuanced ruling in the Court of International Trade.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-seeks-pause-second-tariff-case-20250603/	2025/06/03
		Bats eat insect pests, such as moths and beetles. And as they decline, farmers need to spray more pesticides. Scientists have linked the loss of bats in the US to an increase in insecticide use on farmland and, remarkably, to a rise in infant deaths. Insecticide chemicals are known to harm the health of newborns.
		The only reason we know any of this is because of a somewhat obscure government program in the US Geological Survey (USGS), an agency nested within the Interior Department. That program, known as the Ecosystems Mission Area (EMA), is the biological research division of Interior. Among other functions, it monitors environmental contaminants, the spread of invasive species, and the health of the nation's wildlife, including bees, birds, and bats.
		The Ecosystems Mission Area, which has around 1,200 employees, produces the premier science revealing how animals and ecosystems that Americans rely on are changing and what we can do to keep them intact — or risk our own health and economy.
Trump officials plan to destroy a critical government program they probably know nothing about	Government-USGS	The Trump administration is sending three Cabinet members to Alaska this week as it pursues oil drilling in the pristine Arctic National Wildlife Refuge and reinvigorating a natural gas project that's languished for years.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-officials-plan-destroy-critical-11300/	2025/06/03	US Geological Survey, Interior Department, Ecosystems Mission Area, EMA, biological research, bees, bats, birds, animals, ecosystems, https://the.bry.us/59c3ue2
		The Trump administration is sending three Cabinet members to Alaska this week as it pursues oil drilling in the pristine Arctic National Wildlife Refuge and reinvigorating a natural gas project that's languished for years.
Trump officials are visiting Alaska to discuss a gas pipeline and oil drilling	Environment-Fossil fuels	The visit by Department of Interior Secretary Doug Burgum, Energy Secretary Chris Wright and Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Lee Zeldin comes after Trump signed an executive order earlier this year aimed at boosting oil and gas drilling, mining and logging in Alaska. It also comes as tariff talks with Asian countries that are seen as possible leverage for the administration to secure investments in the proposed Alaska liquefied natural gas project.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-officials-visiting-alaska-discuss-oil/	2025/06/03
Exclusive:FEMA staff confused after head said he was unaware of US hurricane season, sources say	Government-FEMA	Staff of the Federal Emergency Management Agency were left baffled on Monday after the head of the U.S. disaster agency said he had not been aware the country has a hurricane season, according to four sources familiar with the situation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/exclusive-fema-staff-confused-head-206/	2025/06/03
		In the United States, the president is both the head of state and head of government. The head of government works with legislators and meets with other world leaders to negotiate agreements and navigate conflicts, among other responsibilities.
		As a political scientist who studies American presidents, I see that President Donald Trump loves the power and prestige that comes with being head of state, but does not seem to particularly enjoy the responsibility of being head of government.
		Trump's preference for serving as head of state and not head of government was on full display during his now infamous Feb. 28, 2025, White House meeting with Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy.
		Trump was demanding deference from Zelenskyy to show his inferior and submissive position as a recipient of U.S. aid and military support. These are manifestations of absolute kings, not elected officials.
		Trump has enacted policy changes almost exclusively through executive orders, instead of working with Congress on legislation.
Trump is not a king — but that doesn't stop him from reveling in his job's most ceremonial and exciting parts	Trump Bulfith	Trump's staff launched, stopped and then relaunchd a themed infrastructure week seven times in 2019. This happened after Trump repeatedly derided infrastructure events to focus on a more interesting event or topic, ranging from defending his comments that seemed to suggest support for white supremacists to discussing the rebut of Roseanne Barr's sitcom.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-not-king-doesn-14064186.html	2025/06/03
		Within hours of Donald Trump and his White House team unveiling "The MAHA Report: Making Our Children Healthy Again" two weeks ago, problems emerged. The Washington Post reported, for example, that some of the report's suggestions "stretched the limits of science," and offered "misleading representations" of scientific research.
		A week later, a devastating report published by NOTUS advanced the underlying story considerably, highlighting the unambiguous fact that the MAHA document "misinterprets some studies and cites others that don't exist, according to the listed authors." Soon after, The New York Times identified "additional faulty references" in the report, including instances in which the document's authors pointed to "fictitious studies."
		It seemed hard to believe this debacle could get worse, but it did. NOTUS reported in a follow-up article that several of the errors from the original report have been edited or removed, but in the process, administration officials have added new errors, including updated citations that "misinterpreted scientific studies."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/masktop-blog-rfk-jr-team-124267294.htm	2025/06/03
RFK Jr.'s team adds new errors to its 'MAHA' report, making the farce worse	RFK, JR BS	Workers at 19 agencies revealed how sweeping changes brought in by DOGE —Elon Musk's team that pledged to eliminate waste, fraud and abuse—have instead resulted in delays for the most basic transactions and projects put on hold for months. The Washington Post reports, "People are so demoralized, anxious and sleep deprived," a NASA employee told the outlet. "Nobody is working at top efficiency."
		An employee at the Federal Aviation Authority said that the new process for payment systems means that staff must now write statements justifying all expenditures, from bigger expenses to ordering pens and pencils. It has slowed down the process of getting windows cleaned at air traffic control towers, the employee said. Purchase orders that would take 15 to 20 minutes now take up to 2 hours. "These are things that people don't think about, but clean windows are crucial for controllers," the employee told the outlet.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doge-promised-government-more-efficient-20250603/	2025/06/03
DOGE promised to make government more efficient. Workers say they are wasting more time than ever	Fuck that department	Heidi Berchir, co-founder of the Global Project Against Hate and Extremism, told the Guardian it was "another example of the far right moving to directly impact culture, and especially young people, with extremist and anti-democratic beliefs".
		She added: "These efforts represent another front in the culture wars, one that is pushing America further from democracy and equality and closer to autocratic rule."
How the far right seeks to spread its ideology through the publishing world	Ceaspool- Far right	A Boston high school student who was detained by immigration agents on Saturday while he was on his way to volleyball practice must be kept in Massachusetts for at least 72 hours, a federal judge said on Monday.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/03/far-right-book-publis	2025/06/03
Judge orders 72-hour stay for Boston teen arrested by ICE on way to volleyball practice	Borders and immigration	Ice's acting director, Todd Lyons, and Patricia Hyde — who directs the agency's enforcement and removal operations in Boston — acknowledged Gomes was not the target of the immigration investigation that led to his arrest and that authorities instead were seeking his father, who remains at large.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/02/ice-arrest-boston-teen	2025/06/03
All international travelers should get measles vaccinations, CDC says	Health-Vaccination	U.S. health officials have changed their advice to international travelers about measles, saying that Americans should be vaccinated against the virus no matter where they're going.	https://apnews.com/article/public-health-measles-international-travel-vaccine-58004c	2025/06/03
Swiss glacier collapse renews focus on risks of climate change as glaciers retreat around the world	Environment-Climate crisis	The landslide that buried most of a Swiss village this week is focusing renewed attention on the role of global warming in glacier collapses around the world and the increasing dangers.	https://apnews.com/article/swiss-glacier-collapse-climate-change-20250603/	2025/06/03
Deep cuts erode the foundations of US public health system, end progress, threaten worse to come	Government-Healthcare	How glaciers collapse — from the Alps and Andes to the Himalayas and Antarctica — can differ, scientists say. But in almost every instance, climate change is playing a role.
Trump's trade policy is making China great again — at the US's expense, new global analysis finds	International Relations	State and local health departments responsible for invisible but critical work such as inspecting restaurants, monitoring wastewater for new and harmful germs, responding to outbreaks before they get too big — and a host of other tasks to protect both individuals and communities — are being hollowed out.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1/	2025/06/03
How Trump's budget would hit America's poorest families hardest	Trump Bulfith	"Nobody wants to go swim in a community pool and come out of it with a rash or a disease from it. Nobody wants to walk out their door and take a fresh breath of air and start wheezing," said Lori Tennel Freeman, executive director of the National Association of County and City Health Officials.
A colossal cloud of Sahara dust is smothering the Caribbean en route to the US	Environment-Dust	Since Trump entered office in January, "the overwhelming majority of countries simultaneously exhibit worsening views of the United States and improving views of China," according to the analysis by technology research firm Morning Consult, and first reported by Axios.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1/	2025/06/03
		Donald Trump plans to slash billions of dollars in federal spending, including dramatic cuts to vital programs that support millions of Americans, including the nation's poorest families.
		New details in a massive White House document spanning more than 1,200 pages outline stark cuts to programs that help feed and house millions of children, which critics fear will have dangerous consequences for the nation's most vulnerable households.
		A massive cloud of dust from the Sahara Desert blanketed most of the Caribbean on Monday in the biggest event of its kind this year as it heads toward the United States.
		The cloud extended some 2,000 miles (3,200 kilometers) from Jamaica to well past Barbados in the eastern Caribbean, and some 750 miles (1,200 kilometers) from the Turks and Caicos Islands in the northern Caribbean down south to Trinidad and Tobago.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/a-colossal-cloud-sahara-dust-smothering-1/	2025/06/03
		Kennedy recently announced that COVID-19 vaccines would no longer be recommended for healthy children and pregnant women—a direct contradiction of previous guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).
		The justification for the move also contained just eight citations, including a 2022 Newsweek opinion piece from Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Commissioner Mary Makary.
RFK Jr. Can't Stop Causing Headaches With His Chaotic Health Plans	RFK, JR BS	CDC officials were reportedly blindsided by the switch and only learned of it when Kennedy shared a video announcing it on social media.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-cant-stop-causing-headaches-144644375.html	2025/06/03
		Al bots are known to sometimes make things up, known as hallucinating. Verify the information you get if you plan to rely on it.
		Be sure you're comfortable with the information you're sharing with an AI assistant. In some cases, companies may use the data you share to train the models or serve advertising. Paid versions sometimes allow you to limit this. This Axios series, "What AI knows about you," details how the various chatbots train their systems.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06-04/ai-chat-head-challenge-prok-gemini/	2025/06/04
Behind the Curtain: Your AI survival kit	Technology-AI	The legislation cuts the electric vehicle tax credit that helps car makers like Musk's Tesla.
		Musk was working at the White House as what's called a "special government employee," and he had discussed trying to stay in that role beyond the 130-day time limit set by statute for the unpaid advisory position. But ultimately, White House officials said he couldn't keep serving in that capacity.
		Musk also wanted the Federal Aviation Administration to use his Starlink satellite system for national air traffic control, the sources said. But the administration balked at it because of the appearance of a conflict of interest and for technological reasons. "You can't have air traffic control just run off satellites," the second source said.
		The final straw for Musk appeared to come Saturday night, when Trump abruptly announced he was withdrawing the nomination of Jared Isaacman, a Musk ally, to be NASA administrator.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06-03/elon-musk-trump-white-house-relati	2025/06/04
Scoop: Four reasons Musk attacked Trump's 'big beautiful bill'	Fuck that guy

		American manufacturers are having pandemic flashbacks: some say tariff disruptions are starting to stack up to the COVID era, with nearly as much difficulty securing critical inputs. Tariffs were supposed to spur a manufacturing renaissance, not bring the manufacturing economy grinding to a halt. Factories are reporting increasingly longer delivery times for supplies. Material prices are rising at a faster rate. Automakers are warning of supply disruptions shutting down assembly lines, with at least one carmaker pausing production.
Pandemic flashback: Manufacturers can't get supplies	Economy-Supply chain	This time there is no deadly virus, though trade wars and tariffs are still sending shockwaves through global supply chains, which could leave consumers with fewer options on shelves. AI makers could do more to limit chatbots' penchant for "hallucinating," or making stuff up—but they're prioritizing speed and scale instead.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/tariffs-trump-manufacturers-covid-su	2025/06/04
Why AI is still making things up	Technology-AI	President Trump formally asked Congress on Tuesday to rescind $9.4 billion in already approved funding for foreign aid and the Corporation of Public Broadcasting (CPB), which funds NPR and PBS.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/ai-flying-ai-hallucinations	2025/06/04
Trump asks Congress to pull $9B in funding for NPR, PBS, foreign aid	Information-Blackout	PBS CEO Paula Kerger in an emailed statement Tuesday said the proposed cuts "would have a devastating impact" on the broadcaster's member stations and "the essential role they play in communities, particularly smaller and rural stations that rely on federal funding for a larger portion" of their budgets.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/trump-congress-npr-pbs-funding-pu	2025/06/04	Trump Bulshit
Ukraine's "Solderweb" drone assault is a wake-up call for all	Warfare	The coordinated "Solderweb" attack—about a year and a half in the making, employing 117 drones across multiple time zones—has global implications. Among them: The cost curve cannot be ignored. Priced, nuclear-capable bombers doomed by tools that can be slapped together in a trench or garage? Do the math.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/ukraine-solderweb-drone-attack-shj	2025/06/04	international, technology, war,
Colorado expands paid leave for NICU parents	Economy-Health	A lack of air defenses and hardened shelters is foolish at best, negligent at worst. Tom Karako, an expert at the Center for Strategic and International Studies think tank, described the moment as "a new missile age" in which "everybody has to look up."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/colorado-paid-leave-nicu-parents	2025/06/04	parenting
Annual cost of insuring a family tops $35,000	Economy-Health	Almost everything is in range. If Ukrainian operatives can go undetected for months and sneak so close to Russian perimeters while loaded and loaded, so too can China. Fears a few years ago over land grabs near American installations now feels present.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/annual-cost-insurance-family-incog	2025/06/04
U.S. air quality hit as 205 wildfires burn across Canada	Environment-Wildfire	Shipping container subterfuge is the real deal. The Gravehawk, developed by the U.K. and Denmark, amounts to overhauled protections in a box. Meanwhile, the 2024 China Military Power Report warned Beijing may be building a "launcher that can fit inside a standard commercial shipping container for covert employment of" YJ-18 missiles aboard merchant ships.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/02/canada-fire-smoke-us-air-quality-e	2025/06/04
Trump administration strips federal protections for emergency abortion providers	Reproductive Rights	Colorado became the first state to offer extended paid family leave to parents with infants in the neonatal intensive care units after Gov. Jared Polis (D) signed the policy into law on Friday. Parents will be able to take up to 12 extra weeks while their infants are in the NICU, where parental engagement has been linked to better developmental outcomes.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/trump-emergency-abortion-guidance	2025/06/04
With steel tariffs doubling today, a North Carolina manufacturer wonders how to compete	Economy-Tariffs	The cost of covering a family of four through workplace insurance now exceeds $35,000—nearly triple what it cost 20 years ago as annual growth in health costs have far outpaced wages.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/us-1-5422448/trump-steel-aluminum-f	2025/06/04
How DOGE's push to amass data could hurt the reliability of future U.S. statistics	Information-Blackout	The 20-year cumulative gain of 188% outpaced the 84% growth in wages over the same time.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/us-1-5392191/us-census-bureau-labo	2025/06/04
Word of the Week: This four-letter word doesn't mean what I used to. That's nice	Weird world	The higher tariffs likely will provide a boost for domestic companies that produce steel and aluminum. But for every steelworker in America, there are about 80 people working for companies that use steel. And their costs are about to go up.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/us-1-7023203/ice-word-elymology-trump	2025/06/04
WorldPride is in D.C. this year—which may be why attendance and sponsorship are down	Rainbow threats	It's a system that runs on trust, and the trust, I would say, has been declining, the current field representative says. "It makes me sad as an American that distrust is at that level. But I do understand it. I fear for the data I'm collecting. Is it going to be misused? And the privacy guarantees that I describe to people—are those going to be respected?"	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/us-1-5407497/worldpride-dc	2025/06/04
Private prisons and local jails are ramping up as ICE detention exceeds capacity	Borders and immigration	Federal law prohibits the bureau from releasing information that would identify a person or business to anyone, including other federal agencies and law enforcement. But a report Bates helped prepare during the first Trump administration found 28% of people surveyed in 2018 said they were very or extremely concerned the bureau would not protect an informant's confidentiality.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/us-1-5417880/private-prisons-and-ice	2025/06/04	ACAB
Trump voters call president's pardon of corrupt Virginia sheriff 'a terrific mistake'	Trump Bulshit	When Donald Trump pardoned former Culpeper County Sheriff Scott Jenkins last week, the president called him a "victim" who had been "persecuted by the Radical Left 'monsters' and 'let for dead.'"	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/02/us-1-5424099/the-fallout-in-a-virginia	2025/06/04	ACAB
USDA says demand for sensitive food stamp data from states is on hold	Government-USDA	"That's a terrific mistake," said Ken Green, a retired entrepreneur and three-time Trump voter, as he ate breakfast at the counter at Frost Cafe in downtown Culpeper. "It's a failure of our justice system. He was guilty as could be. He needed to go to jail, and he didn't. So what kind of signal does that send?"	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/06/03/science/cockatoos-water-fountain	2025/06/04	Food stamps, privacy, poverty, families, food insecurity
Family of Boulder attack suspect are being taken into ICE custody	Borders and immigration	The Department of Agriculture's unprecedented demand that states and payment processors turn over sensitive data about people who receive federal food assistance is on hold—for now.	https://www.cpr.org/2025/06/03/ice-detains-family-of-boulder-attack-su	2025/06/04
Exclusive: CDC expert resigns from COVID vaccines, advisory role, sources say	Government-CDC	NPR reporting revealed that before the department's May letter, USDA's office of the inspector general had asked four states for SNAP data, and asked at least one state for detailed personal information on everyone who received SNAP over the last year, including citizenship status, according to emails reviewed by NPR. But other data that is typically used to verify financial eligibility for the program wasn't requested.	https://www.reuters.com/business/healthcare-pharmaceuticals/cdc-exp	2025/06/04	Health, vaccines, covid
Clever Cockatoos Have Figured Out How to Drink From Water Fountains	Weird world	The family of Mohamed Sabry Soliman is being detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement today following his arrest in connection with the firebomb attack that injured 12 people on Boulder's Pearl Street Mall Sunday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cadets-met-air-force-academy-graduation-22560119	2025/06/04	political cesspool
How to lower your energy costs as summer temperatures rise	Economy-Utilities	"Today the Department of Homeland Security and ICE are taking the family of suspected Boulder, Colorado terrorist, and illegal alien Soliman into ICE custody," Neem said. "Mohamed's despicable actions will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, but we're also investigating to what extent his family knew about this horrific attack if they had any knowledge of it or provided any support to it."		2025/06/04
FEUDALISM IS OUR FUTURE	Trump Bulshit	Federal and state authorities were continuing to investigate but had said Monday that Soliman's wife and children were cooperative during a search of his home, and no criminal charges are pending against anyone other than Mohamed Soliman. His wife voluntarily turned in a mobile phone Soliman had left behind on Sunday, containing messages for his family. Soliman told police his family was not involved in his actions.		2025/06/04
Cadets who met at Air Force Academy graduation standards denied commissions because they're transgender	Rainbow threats	Pediatric infectious disease expert Dr. Lakshmi Paragiotakopoulos of the U.S. CDC resigned on Tuesday as co-leader of a working group that advises outside experts on COVID-19 vaccines and is leaving the agency, two sources familiar with the move told Reuters.		2025/06/04
		In the city's western suburbs, some of the birds have figured out how to use public drinking fountains. The cockatoos go to the effort of using drinking fountains when there are plenty of accessible water sources nearby. They don't seem to use them more often during hot weather.		2025/06/04
		It's unclear why the cockatoos go to the effort of using drinking fountains when there are plenty of accessible water sources nearby. They don't seem to use them more often during hot weather.		2025/06/04
		A political scientist might use the phrase externalization of state functions to capture much of what MacMullen was looking at. A more familiar term would be privatization, the word MacMullen himself used. By the early 2000s, after two decades of deregulation and denationalization, the term had gained wide currency in a different context: to describe the path taken by governments in the West, notably the United States and Great Britain, as ever larger chunks of public responsibility—for security, finances, education, infrastructure, data—were tossed off and put into private hands. Independent fiefdoms were coming to life everywhere.		2025/06/04
		More and more public functions are now likely to be outsourced. Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth has been pushing for years to privatize health care for veterans. Another administration official, Mehmet Ciz, has argued for privatizing Medicare—a program he now oversees. The administration has shown interest in taking apart the National Weather Service and spinning off some of its functions. It is looking into fully privatizing Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, which underpin the nation's mortgage industry.		2025/06/04
		Home electricity bills are expected to reach their highest average rate in 12 years, at $784 for the summer period, according to a recent analysis from the National Energy Assistance Directors Association (NEADA). The elevated cost comes as a one-two punch for families already financially strapped after this winter season's higher-than-average heating costs.		2025/06/04
		The stakes for keeping cool are high. Heat is the leading weather-related killer in the United States, resulting in hundreds of fatalities each year, according to the National Weather Service. Higher temperatures can lead to heat stroke and heat exhaustion.		2025/06/04
		They are the first out transgender cadets to graduate from the Academy. And under a newly reinstated Trump administration ban, they will not be allowed to serve.		2025/06/04
		One of them, Hunter Marquez, had spent years preparing to become a combat systems officer. He earned dual degrees in aeronautical engineering and applied mathematics. He passed the Air Force's fitness standards for men. And he did so as himself, having transitioned while enrolled at the Academy. "I really want to stay in for as long as possible, fight this out," Marquez told The Colorado Springs Gazette.		2025/06/04
		Marquez, along with the two other graduates, was placed on administrative absence, barred from taking the oath, and warned he might need to repay the cost of his education if he refused to leave voluntarily, the paper reports. That education—funded by taxpayers—is valued in the hundreds of thousands of dollars. According to The Gazette, Marquez was later told by Air Force officials that if he is involuntarily separated, he won't be billed. But the message was clear: his government does not want him in uniform.		2025/06/04

		The US Department of Education said it's pausing plans to garnish Social Security benefits from people with student loans in default.
Education Department halts plans to garnish Social Security benefits for defaulted student loans	Economy-Student Loans	"The Department has not offset any Social Security benefits since restarting collections on May 5, and has put a pause on any future Social Security offsets," Ellen Keast, a Department of Education spokeswoman, told Yahoo Finance in an email on Tuesday. The White House has sent its long-awaited spending cuts request to Congress as it seeks to formalize a slew of DOGE slashes to federal funding. The $9.4 billion package – known as "rescissions" on Capitol Hill – would clear back previously appropriated government funding. The move to cancel the funding through Congress would insulate the administration from legal challenges related to its cuts to federal funding.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/education-department-halts-plans-to-g-22550604	2025/06/04
White House formally sends its DOGE spending cuts request to Congress	Fuck that department	Even far-right influencers are creeped out by President Donald Trump's reported plan to work with MAGA-friendly tech company Palantir on merging data on Americans from different agencies into a single location — a development that could lead to the federal government having unprecedented power to spy on, and harass, Americans. Newsweek highlighted worried responses from Nick Fuentes, the Hodgsonkins and other influencers who are sounding the alarm.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-formally-sends-cuts-21183f-22550604	2025/06/04
Even Trump supporters are pushing back on his plans to merge Americans' data	Privacy-Government-FEMA	video	https://www.yahoo.com/news/even-trump-supporters-creeped-plans-22550604	2025/06/04
FEMA scrambles to face hurricane season amid DOGE cuts	Political-Ceepool	Vice President Vance slammed Democrats on Tuesday over a taco truck they deployed to mock President Trump with free food outside the GOP headquarters on Capitol Hill. Kingsley Wilson, formerly a deputy press secretary at the Department of Defense, was appointed as the Pentagon's chief press secretary on May 23, just months after reports exposed her extremist online views. That includes endorsing the "great replacement" theory—which falsely claims white Americans are being intentionally replaced as the dominant race in the U.S for political gain—as a "reality." She also pushed the long-debunked claim that Leo Frank, a Jewish man lynched in Georgia in 1915 after a wrongful conviction, was actually guilty. Frank was posthumously pardoned in 1986 by the state of Georgia.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fema-scrambles-face-hurricane-season-1-22550604	2025/06/04
Vance knocks Democrats over taco truck outside GOP building	Political-Ceepool	Federal immigration officials have faced severe criticism from members of the Trump administration, displaced with the number of immigration arrests and deportations, according to the Washington Examiner. Late last month, a heated discussion arose between White House Deputy Chief of Staff Stephen Miller and several senior officials from U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).	https://www.yahoo.com/news/vance-knocks-democrats-over-taco-1734-22550604	2025/06/04
Pete Hegseth's New Press Secretary Poated Deranged Claims About Lynching	Political-Ceepool	An ERO official said during the meeting that the Department of Homeland Security and the White House had argued publicly that they were going after criminal illegal immigrants and that ICE was targeting them, not illegal immigrants in general. Secretary of Education Linda McMahon was given a math lesson during a Senate hearing on Tuesday when Senator Jack Reed pointed out that $1.5 multiplied by 10 is not "over a trillion dollars" but actually $15 billion. Sitting before the appropriations subcommittee that focuses on education, McMahon nodded her head along as Senator John Kennedy of Louisiana mistakenly claimed that the U.S. spends "$1,580,000" on federal grant programs, known as TRIO and GEAR UP, per year and that after 10 years, that adds up to be "over a trillion dollars."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pete-hegseth-press-secretary-poated-18-22550604	2025/06/04
Stephen Miller has set his sights on new targets to find undocumented migrants, Home Depot and T-Eleven	Political-Ceepool	The U.S. actually spends $1.58 billion per year on the programs, which does not add up to more than a trillion after 10 years. But, McMahon did not correct Kennedy's math error. The Trump administration has reportedly been discreetly working with Palantir Technologies Inc. (NASDAQ:PLTR) to gather personal data of American citizens from various federal agencies, sparking concerns over privacy and potential misuse of personal data.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/stephen-miller-set-sights-targets-18035f-22550604	2025/06/04
Education Secretary Linda McMahon struggles with basic math when trying to add up proposed budget cuts	Government-DOE	Foundry's capabilities in data organization and analysis could potentially enable the merging of information from various agencies, thereby creating detailed profiles of American citizens. The Trump administration has attempted to access extensive citizen data from government databases, including bank details, student debt, medical claims, and disability status. Palantir's selection as a primary vendor for the project was reportedly influenced by the Department of Government Efficiency (DOGE), which was being overseen by Tesla Inc. (NASDAQ:TSLA) CEO, Elon Musk.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/education-secretary-linda-mcmahon-strug-22550604	2025/06/04
Trump Administration Silently Employs Palantir To Gather Personal Data Of Each American, Raising Privacy, Data Abuse Concerns, Report	Privacy	It's nerve-wracking to hear that a new variant is making the rounds, but infectious disease specialists say there are no glaring differences between the symptoms of NB.1 & 1 and those caused by other versions of SARS-CoV-2.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-silently-employs-22550604	2025/06/04
A New COVID Variant Is Spreading Quickly — These Are The Symptoms Doctors Are Warning About	Health-Covid	DDO civilians can now travel to support DHS with the Trump administration's immigration enforcement, though it is unclear whether they would volunteer for such roles or be assigned to DHS activities. The memo did not specify what types of jobs they would be doing. But Hegseth made clear that some individuals might not be paid for their work, noting that assignments "may be reimbursable or non-reimbursable."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/covid-variant-spreading-quickly-symptom-22550604	2025/06/04
DDO civilians can now aid DHS with 'internal immigration enforcement,' per memo	Borders and immigration	Centrals of severe thunderstorms packing high winds and damaging hail will focus mainly on the central United States into the weekend. AccuWeather meteorologists say: Severe storms are also forecast to erupt in the East near the end of the week. The risk of severe weather will ramp up over the Plains and Mississippi Valley into midweek, from just inland from the Gulf Coast to the Great Lakes. As warm, humid air from the Gulf clashes with a mass of cool air from the Rockies combined with a strong jet stream overhead, thunderstorms will erupt and are likely to become locally violent.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ddo-civilians-now-aid-dhs-211641681-18-22550604	2025/06/04
Severe storms to hammer central US on daily basis through Saturday	Weather-Storms	There is a 30% of risky weather conditions in the forecast for the Los Angeles area starting Tuesday — thunderstorms, dry lightning and rip currents. A low pressure system will skim the Southern California coast Tuesday through Wednesday, bringing an up-to-30% chance of thunderstorms across the region, with the San Gabriel Mountains, the Antelope Valley and the interior mountains of Ventura and Santa Barbara counties at greatest risk of being hit, according to the National Weather Service. The most likely window for storms is 2 through 10 a.m. Tuesday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/severe-storms-hammer-central-us-18451-22550604	2025/06/04
Forecasters say triple threat heading for SoCal: Thunderstorms, dry lightning, rip currents	Weather-Storms	Counties throughout the Western Hemisphere and Africa are finding ways to take advantage of President Donald Trump's eagerness to thwart migration. But it's not working for Cuba. Even as Cuba continues to accept its citizens deported from the U.S., the island nation finds itself increasingly at odds with the Trump administration, a senior Cuban official told POLITICO.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/forecasters-triple-threat-heading-socal-1c-22550604	2025/06/04
Cuba tried to improve its relations with the US by cooperating with Trump's deportation flights. It didn't work.	International Relations	The deterioration in relations between Havana and Washington comes as Trump administration officials and members of the Cuban exile community have pushed for a tougher line on Cuban leadership, arguing that the communist government represents a major national security threat. The U.S. is also facing a wave of migration from Cuba that has seen hundreds of thousands of Cubans enter the country since the Covid-19 pandemic. "The Government asks this Court to accept a shocking proposition: that federal officers may snatch residents of this country and deposit them in foreign prisons in admitted violation of federal law, while no court in the United States has jurisdiction to do anything about it," Alberto Garcia's lawyers wrote Monday in their opposition to the government's motion to dismiss.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cuba-tried-improve-relations-us-2240580-22550604	2025/06/04	borders and immigration
Abrego Garcia lawyers blast 'shocking proposition' behind Trump admin residence	Constitutional Crisis	Senior US immigration officials over the weekend instructed rank-and-file officers to "turn the creative knob up to 11" when it comes to enforcement, including by interviewing and potentially arresting people they called "collaterals", according to internal agency emails viewed by the Guardian. Officers were also urged to increase apprehensions and think up tactics to "push the envelope" one email said, with staff encouraged to come up with new ways of increasing arrests and suggesting them to superiors.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/abrego-garcia-lawyers-blast-shocking-14-22550604	2025/06/04
US immigration officials push for increased detentions, including collateral arrests	Borders and immigration	After officials in Charlottesville, Virginia, reportedly ignored his pleas to implement a pedestrian crosswalk at a dangerous intersection, traffic safety activist Kevin Cox drew a crossing with chalk. Authorities responded by covering Cox's handwork with black paint and charging him with vandalism in a case that evidently demonstrates how acrimonious relations can sometimes get between local government bureaucrats in the US and those who say they are trying to hold them to account.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/04/immigration-officials-22550604	2025/06/04
Virginia activist charged with vandalism after drawing crosswalk at intersection	Weird world	Two Chinese scientists have been charged with smuggling a toxic fungus into the United States that they planned to research at an American university, the justice department has said.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/04/virginia-crosswalk-v-22550604	2025/06/04
Potential 'agroterrorism' weapon: fungus smuggled into US by Chinese scientists, FBI alleges	Watch this	The justice department said the pair conspired to smuggle a fungus called Fusarium graminearum into the United States that causes "heat death," a disease of wheat, barley, maize, and rice. Republican firebrand Marjorie Taylor Greene has drawn widespread criticism from Democratic colleagues for admitting that not only did she not read Donald Trump's law and spending bill before voting for it, but she would have voted against it had she read thoroughly. "You have one job. To Read. The. Fucking. Bill." Representative Eric Swalwell wrote in response.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/03/marjorie-taylor-gre-22550604	2025/06/04
Marjorie Taylor Greene criticized for not reading Trump's law, lawmakers' bill	Political-Ceepool	Bricks, squirrels, rabbits, frogs, insects and other wildlife are critically affected by human made noise. They're outdoors right in the middle of what must seem to them a war zone — with no escape. And the background noises that surround them aren't merely nuisances; they disrupt the basic instincts the animals' lives depend on.	https://nprnews.com/video/stephant-hill-a-taste-for-crime-rifles-the-sh-22550604	2025/06/04
Elephant with a taste for crime rifles the shelves of a grocery shop near Thailand's national park	Weird world	While the president publicly turns to the conservative-heavy court for help in implementing some of his most controversial agenda items, in private, he's complained about some of the justices he's nominated, with an emphasis on Barrett, CNN reported. Barrett, the last justice to be nominated and appointed by Trump, has shown herself to be less of a hardline conservative than other justices such as Clarence Thomas or Samuel Alito.	https://nprnews.com/article/gardening-noise-leaf-blowers-246770ff61d-22550604	2025/06/04
How to turn down the volume and protect wildlife in your yard and garden	Personal Interest	The Trump administration isn't celebrating Pride Month, but rather walking back initiatives to recognize LGBTQ+ communities. It's a part of a larger repeal of diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts by the administration, which have contributed to an increasingly hostile climate for LGBTQ+ people in the U.S., particularly for transgender individuals.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-c-22550604	2025/06/04
Trump privately grips that his own Supreme Court judge picks aren't standing behind his agenda, report	Trump Bulshit	Video	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/tennessee-escape-22550604	2025/06/04
Watch: Escaped extra spotted running around Tennessee	Weird world	Video	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/tennessee-escape-22550604	2025/06/04
'You guys are hilarious.' Homeowner unimpressed with cops' attempt to get bucked out of her house with laser pointer	Weird world	WinCo founding partner Jeffrey Katzenberg warned that the impact of kids' unsupervised access to technology is "destroying a generation" during Axiom's annual AI+NY Summit Wednesday. By 11, over half of children have a smartphone — but research has found screen time has played a key role in the youth mental health crisis. Businesses say they're raising prices on goods unaffected by tariffs, according to surveys and anecdotes released by the Federal Reserve on Wednesday. This could be a sign that price hikes might be more widespread than expected, with concerns that some companies might use tariffs as cover to unnecessarily raise costs.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/bobcat-palace-jesse-painter-ken-22550604	2025/06/04
Destroying a generation: Katzenberg raises alarm on teens and tech	Technology-Tems	The Trump administration isn't celebrating Pride Month, but rather walking back initiatives to recognize LGBTQ+ communities. It's a part of a larger repeal of diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts by the administration, which have contributed to an increasingly hostile climate for LGBTQ+ people in the U.S., particularly for transgender individuals.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/tennes-axiom-social-media-jeffrey-katzenbe-22550605	2025/06/05
Businesses are raising prices after tariffs — even on unaffected goods	Economy-Tariffs	President Trump said Wednesday that Russian President Vladimir Putin told him he "have to respond" to the massive Ukrainian drone attack on Russia's strategic air bases. Ukrainian officials have mocked Russia's characterization of its secret "Spidersweb" operation as a "terrorist attack," given Russia has been bombarding Ukrainian cities for three years, not just striking military targets as Ukraine did.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/trump-pride-month-lgbt-rights-22550605	2025/06/05
Trump admin rolls back LGBTQ+ gains during Pride Month	Rainbow threats	Ukraine has agreed to Trump's initial proposal for an unconditional ceasefire, but its leaders sound just as pessimistic as Putin about the chances of a full peace deal any time soon. Ukrainian Republicans are expanding their investigation into President Biden's health with a new tranche of requests to interview top White House aides, including former Chief of Staff Ron Klain and senior adviser Anita Dunn.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/ruener-investigation-biden-health-3c-22550605	2025/06/05
Putin tells Trump he'll hit Ukraine back for surprise drone attack	International-Russia	The top Democrat on the House Oversight Committee is demanding answers from Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick about why employees fired from his department were denied health care coverage they had already paid for. The letter, sent to Lutnick on Wednesday, follows reporting by NPR that Commerce Department employees who were fired, reinstated by court order, and fired again had had their health care coverage prematurely cut off. They were left uninsured — despite the fact that they'd been paying their health care premiums through paycheck deductions, and despite the federal government's policy to provide 31 days of free health care coverage after an employee is terminated.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/04/putin-trump-call- ceasefire-drone-att-22550605	2025/06/05
House GOP expands its investigation of Biden's health	Political-Ceepool	Vietnam has scrapped a policy that limited couples to have up to two children, as it addresses a declining birth rate and a shrinking working-age population. The two-child policy, in place since 2009 to prevent overpopulation, restricted families to one or two children. While enforcement was relaxed for ordinary citizens, the policy was strictly applied to government officials and members of the ruling Communist Party.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/04ip-s1-70426/vietnam-ends-2-child-policy-22550605	2025/06/05
Some federal workers lost health coverage they had paid for. A Democrat wants answers	Government-Jobs
Vietnam ends its longstanding 2-child policy	International-Vietnam

		Now, some doctors and scientists say it is time to take the extraordinary step of unleashing gene editing to suppress mosquitoes and avoid human suffering from malaria, dengue, West Nile virus and other serious diseases. "There are so many lives at stake with malaria that we want to make sure that this technology could be used in the near future," said Akeia Simoni, a molecular biologist with Target Malaria, a project aiming to target vector mosquitoes in sub-Saharan Africa.
We finally may be able to rid the world of mosquitoes. But should we?	Environment- Bugs	Yet the development of this technology also raises a profound ethical question: When, if ever, is it okay to intentionally drive a species out of existence? The Trump administration on Wednesday officially raised tariffs on aluminum and steel to 50%, a move experts say could increase costs on everything from homes and cars to household items and office supplies. While the U.S. has carved out its own niche in domestic metals manufacturing, it also relies on imports from abroad to fill in the gaps: America imported 26.3 million metric tons of steel and 5.4 million metric tons of aluminum from abroad last year, according to the International Trade Administration. Canada serves as the biggest foreign source for both metals. The White House has been aggressively trying to jare back on America's reliance on foreign nations, imposing 25% tariffs on steel and aluminum in February, citing national security concerns. President Trump, during a visit to U.S. Steel mill in Pittsburgh on May 30, announced he was doubling down on that rate, raising the 25% levies to 50%. The higher tariffs went into effect Wednesday at 12:01 a.m. EST.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/finally-may-ride-rid-world-222633126148r	2025/06/05
Steel and aluminum tariffs expected to raise costs on cars, homes, more	Economy- Tariffs	President Donald Trump's big bill in Congress would unleash trillions in tax cuts and slash spending, but also spike deficits by $2.4 trillion over the decade and leave some 10.5 million more people without health insurance, raising the political stakes for the GOP's signature domestic priority. The analysis comes at a crucial moment as Trump is pushing Congress, where Republicans have majority control, to send the final product to his desk to become law by the Fourth of July. The House passed the bill last month by a single vote, but it's now slogging through the Senate, where Republicans want a number of significant changes. Next week, panels writing the thickest and most substantial parts — including the Senate Finance Committee — will release text. Trump will meet with other Republican members of the tax-writing panel at the White House Wednesday and "lay out kind of what he wants to see," Thune said. Now five months into his longtime dream job, Thune is tasked with shepherding his party's biggest legislative priority to fruition with little margin for error. Republicans need to figure out how to corral nearly all their members while bridging internal divides on thorny issues such as the size of spending cuts, the future of social safety net programs and the architecture of major tax policies. Thune has at least one guaranteed "no" vote in Sen. Rand Paul, with the Kentucky Republican vowing to oppose the bill as long as an increase in the debt ceiling is included. Thune noted that he's spoken extensively with Sen. Ron Johnson, a deficit hawk whom leadership views as the second-most-likely opponent. Meeting the Wisconsin Republican's public demands of trillions of dollars in additional spending cuts will be a tall order. Thune acknowledged. A U.S. appeals court appeared likely on Wednesday to conclude that President Donald Trump's executive order curtailing automatic birthright citizenship is unconstitutional, though it may wait for the Supreme Court to first decide whether to narrow judicial orders that have prevented it from taking effect.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/steel-aluminum-tariffs-expected-raise-15r	2025/06/05
Trump tax bill will add $2.4 trillion to the deficit and leave 10.8 million more uninsured, CBO says	Trump Buftail		https://finance.yahoo.com/news/trumps-big-bill-out-taxes-141750324r	2025/06/05
A ton of tradeoffs: Thune acts fast to cut deals and move Trump's message	Government Spending		https://www.yahoo.com/news/wh-thune-tradeoffs-thune-acts-fast-084500626r	2025/06/05
US appellate judges skeptical of Trump birthright citizenship order	Borders and immigration	More than 150,000 newborns would be denied citizenship annually if Trump's order takes effect nationally, according to the plaintiffs. A Texas hospital that repeatedly sent a woman who was bleeding and in pain home without ending her nonviable, life-threatening pregnancy violated the law, according to a newly released federal investigation. The government's findings, which have not been previously reported, were a small victory for 36-year-old Kyleigh Thurman, who ultimately lost part of her reproductive system after being discharged without any help from her hometown emergency room for her dangerous ectopic pregnancy. But a new policy the Trump administration announced on Tuesday has thrown into doubt the federal government's oversight of hospitals that deny women emergency abortions, even when they are at risk for serious infection, organ loss or sepsis, her attorneys say. "The Democratic Party is missing that we're not going to be able to message our way out of these deep problems men are facing, starting with the fact that they know the Democratic Party doesn't really like or respect them," said Ross Morales Ruedette, a Democratic strategist who's also focused on researching men but isn't involved in the project. "It's really easy for Republicans to play off the politics of grievance."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-birthright-citizenship-order-face-1r	2025/06/05
Texas hospital that discharged woman with doomed pregnancy violated the law, a federal inquiry finds	Reproductive Rights		https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-hospital-discharged-woman-doomed-pregnancy-084500626r	2025/06/05
Democrats set out to study young men. Here are their findings.	Politics- Men		https://www.yahoo.com/news/democrats-set-study-young-men-095500r	2025/06/05
ICE operation calls for 5,000 federal agents and 21,000 National Guard troops to make deportation arrests	Borders and immigration	Immigration and Customs Enforcement has launched the Trump administration's largest deportation crackdown yet, calling for more than 5,000 federal agents and 21,000 National Guard troops to join the arrest effort, according to a report. "Operation at Large" calls for 3,000 ICE agents, 2,000 Justice Department employees, including from the FBI and the Drug Enforcement Agency, 500 Customs and Border Protection staff, and 250 from the IRS, NBC News reports. A Florida weatherman stopped his show mid-air to sound the alarm about a looming national disaster—one that's entirely manmade. As the country prepares for the next hurricane season, Miami newscaster John Morales issued an ominous warning about how the sleep federal government cuts are impacting meteorologists' ability to predict and track threats. "As you've grown accustomed to my presentations over my 34 years in South Florida newscast, confidently, I went on TV and told you, 'It's going to turn. You don't need to worry,'" he started. But then he dropped a bombshell.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-operation-calls-5-000-175315380r	2025/06/05
Weatherman Interrupts Broadcast to Issue Dire Warning	Government- NOAA	"I'm here to tell you I'm not sure I can do this year," he said. "Because of the cuts—the gutting, the sledgehammer attack on science in general."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/weatherman-interrupts-broadcast-issue-d	2025/06/05
Education Secretary Linda McMahon refuses to say if teaching kids that Trump lost in 2020 is 'illegal DEI'	Political Censorship	Donald Trump's education secretary has refused to say if the believes school curricula that correctly state Joe Biden won the 2020 election amount to "illegal DEI." Secretary Linda McMahon instead repeatedly told House lawmakers on Wednesday that social studies "should be taught accurately" and that "we should hear all sides." "You're saying Harvard can have its funding and its international students back if and when it teaches what the Trump administration demands," said California Representative Mark Takano, citing an April 11 letter from the DoEd which effectively ransomed the university's federal funding until Harvard abolished "all criteria, preferences, and practices ... that function as ideological litmus tests." "Does refusing to hire a Holocaust denier as a member of Harvard's history department faculty count as an ideological litmus test?" asked Takano. "I believe that there should be diversity of viewpoints relative to teachings and opinions on campuses," McMahon said. "But what about this situation... Would being a Holocaust denier count as that?" Takano continued. But McMahon deflected answering the question directly, pointing instead to Harvard's decision to fire the leaders of its center for Middle Eastern studies.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/education-secretary-linda-mcmahon-refu	2025/06/05	Government, DOE, Department of Education
Education Sec Says Holocaust Denialism Counts as Viewpoint Diversity	Political Censorship	Maria Rojas, a Houston-area midwife, was arrested in March for allegedly violating Texas' near-total abortion ban. She was held for 10 days in the same jail where Sandra Bland died after a routine traffic stop in 2015. Rojas was able to post the exorbitant $1.4 million bail, but her phone was seized and her license was stripped — and with it her ability to make an income. She was court-ordered to wear a tracking device. It's standard practice for a criminal complaint to be filed shortly after someone is arrested. But in an unusual move, Rojas was held on an arrest warrant. Without a formal indictment or any criminal discovery from the state, Rojas can't begin preparing her defense.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/education-secretary-defends-hiring-holoc	2025/06/05
The 'Highly Unusual' Case Of The Midwife Arrested For Violating Texas Abortion Law	Reproductive Rights		https://www.yahoo.com/news/highly-unusual-case-midwife-arrested-20r	2025/06/05
Trump bans citizens of 12 countries from entering the U.S.	International Relations	The Trump administration signed a proclamation Wednesday suspending travel to the U.S. for citizens from 12 countries: Afghanistan, Myanmar, Chad, Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Eritrea, Haiti, Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and Yemen. The proclamation also partially restricted entrance for nationals of seven other countries: Burundi, Cuba, Laos, Sierra Leone, Togo, Turkmenistan and Venezuela. The Department of Health and Human Services' budget for 2026, released Friday, proposed $14 billion in discretionary funding for programs that aim to reverse the chronic disease epidemic, but it would also abolish the CDC's National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion.	https://www.cnn.com/2025/06/05/trump-bans-citizens-of-12-countries/	2025/06/05	Trump buftail, borders and immigration
Dismissing CDC's chronic disease center 'looks pretty devastating' to public health experts	Government- CDC	Officials with the federal Environmental Protection Agency have admonished their workers not to interfere with arrests by immigration officers in a downtown Manhattan building where the agency has offices, underscoring tension among federal employees as President Trump escalates his crackdown on immigrants. ... Suzi Englot, president of Local 3211 of the American Federation of Government Employees and an E.P.A. staff member who works in the building on Broadway, said that many workers have been unsettled by the detention activities they have witnessed in the past two weeks. Ms. Englot said that some workers have been concerned about the welfare of the migrants, while others have been worried that agents might confuse them for the people they are there to arrest. "Several members of our union have witnessed people being detained as they exit elevators, put in handcuffs, taken away somewhere," Ms. Englot said. "Generally, people have started to feel unsafe."	https://www.altnews.com/2025/06/04/cdc-chronic-disease-center-fold	2025/06/05
E.P.A. Workers Are Unsettled as ICE Makes Arrests in Their Building	Borders and immigration		https://www.nytimes.com/2025/06/04/nyc-region-epa-workers-immigration/	2025/06/05
Democrats need to embrace economic populism to win back young voters, says advocacy group leader	Voters	NeoGen recently commissioned Tulane Research to conduct six online focus groups with swing voters aged 18 to 26 in battleground states. The focus groups found the young voters were anxious about their financial future and the rising cost of housing, food and education. Many felt the system was rigged, with billionaires riding high and working people short of opportunities. "What our focus group showed was that economic populism is still resonating with young people and their messaging was not. If you go to the grocery store and you're now paying $6 or $7 for a gallon of milk and you were paying $4, you're now having to stretch your dollars further, and those little incremental increases all add up. The house that you're trying to save for, or trying to pay for college, has a domino effect. The virus's ability to conceal itself inside certain white blood cells has been one of the main challenges for scientists looking for a cure. It means there is a reservoir of the HIV in the body, capable of reactivation, that neither the immune system nor drugs can tackle. Now new research from the Peter Doherty Institute for Infection and Immunity in Melbourne, have demonstrated a way to make the virus visible, paving the way to fully culy it from the body. Women using weight-loss drugs have been urged to use effective contraception after dozens have reported becoming pregnant while taking the medication. The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency (MHRA) has issued its first alert to the UK public regarding contraception and weight-loss medications after it received 40 reports relating to pregnancies while using drugs such as Ozempic, Wegovy and Mounario. A Guatemalan man who said he was deported to Mexico despite fearing he would be persecuted there was flown back to the US on Wednesday after a judge ordered the Trump administration to facilitate his return, his lawyer said. Brian Murphy, a US district judge in Boston, Massachusetts, had ordered the man's return after the US Department of Justice notified him that its claim that the man had expressly stated he was not afraid of being sent to Mexico was based on erroneous information.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/05/democrats-young-v	2025/06/05
Breakthrough in search for HIV cure leaves researchers 'overwhelmed'	Health- Technology		https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/2025/jun/05/breakthr	2025/06/05
Contraception warning over weight-loss drugs after dozens of pregnancies	Reproductive Rights		https://www.theguardian.com/health/2025/jun/05/contraception-warni	2025/06/05
Guatemalan man deported to Mexico flown back to US after judge's orders	Borders and immigration		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/04/guatemalan-man-de	2025/06/05
Weatherwatch: How 60 species are just one cyclone away from extinction	Environment- Animals	Consulting the red list of most threatened species they report in the journal Biological Conservation there are 60 storm-threatened species that are present in a single location on a single island. Upping the conservation effort for these species is essential if we do not want the next severe tropical cyclone to be their last.	https://www.theguardian.com/news/2025/jun/04/weatherwatch-how-60r	2025/06/05	hurricane, disaster, threats, biodiversity

Collapse of Dutch government leaves uncertainty on streets of Amsterdam	International-Netherlands	On Tuesday, far-right populist Geert Wilders collapsed his first government after failing to break open the coalition agreement to add 10 new policies on asylum – including deporting Syrians with temporary residency within six months, forcibly if necessary. Eleven months into a four-party coalition described by Dutch media as an “unhappy marriage”, Wilders walked out, resigning all of his ministers with immediate effect. His former coalition partners reacted with fury, saying there was no disagreement about reducing asylum and labelling Wilders a “political foot soldier falling a foul”	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/05/collapse-of-dutch-govt	2025/06/05
Kremlin and Trump aides raise nuclear war fears after Ukraine drone strike	International-Russia	As Vladimir Putin pledges to retaliate against Ukraine for last weekend's unprecedented drone attack, Kremlin advisers and figures around Donald Trump have told the US president that the risk of a nuclear confrontation is growing, in an attempt to pressure him to further reduce US support for Ukraine. Kiril Dmitriev, the head of Russia's sovereign wealth fund and an important intermediary between the Kremlin and Trump's envoy Steve Witkoff, called the Ukrainian drone strike an attack on “Russian nuclear assets”, and echoed remarks from Maga-friendly figures warning of the potential for a third world war.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/04/ukraine-russia-nuclear	2025/06/05
Suspect in UnitedHealthcare CEO killing said he ‘had it coming,’ according to prosecutors	Eat the rich	Six weeks before UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson was gunned down outside a Manhattan hotel in December, suspect Luigi Mangione mused about rebelling against “the deadly, greed fueled health insurance cartel” and said killing the executive “conveys a greedy bastard that had it coming,” prosecutors revealed Wednesday.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/unitedhealthcare-ceo-killing-luigi-mangione-j-123456789	2025/06/05
Crews clean up 2,000-gallon fuel spill in Baltimore's harbor	Environment-Pollution	Fire crews were working Thursday morning to contain and clean up a 2,000-gallon (7.570-liter) diesel fuel spill in Baltimore's harbor, according to state and city officials. Initially, Johns Hopkins Hospital reported a contained 200-gallon diesel fuel spill at its East Baltimore facility on Wednesday morning, but a few hours later the fire department responded to a 911 call for a spill at a marina in Harbor East more than a mile away, officials said. The state, city and U.S. Coast Guard began coordinating a response to the spill. In an update around 7 p.m., Hopkins reported that 2,000 gallons had spilled, officials said.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/baltimore-harbor-fuel-spill-0811chd12u276	2025/06/05
Pamperers maker Procter & Gamble to cut up to 7,000 jobs under tariff, consumer uncertainty pressures	Government-Spending	Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer gave the new name on Wednesday (June 4) saying “The more you look at the bit, at the House bill, the worse it gets.”	https://www.indy100.com/politics/democrats-rebrand-trumps-big-beautiful-idea	2025/06/05
Electricity costs are already jolting Americans - Trump's bill could hike them another $400 a year	Economy-Jobs	Procter & Gamble will cut up to 7,000 jobs, or approximately 6% of its global workforce, over the next two years as the maker of Tide detergent and Pampers diapers wrestles with tariff-related costs and customers who have grown anxious about the economy.	https://nbcnews.com/articles/procter-gamble-jobs-tariff-07f724e3cb824c	2025/06/05
700-year-old condom etched with erotic art makes museum debut	Economy-Price hike	Amidst a high, and rising, electricity prices, President Donald Trump's broad domestic policy bill, which is up for debate in the Senate, could make the situation even worse. If the legislation passes as it currently stands, it would remove federal tax credits from the Biden presidency for sources of electricity such as solar, wind, batteries and geothermal power. The New York Times noted.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald-trump-bill-electricity-costs-141436	2025/06/05
One of the nation's largest egg producers has lost 95% of its chickens to bird flu. It could spell price hikes	Weird world	Several studies from this year reveal that the energy bill of the average family could rise as much as $400 annually.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/science/archaeology/rikmuseum	2025/06/05
Harvey Milk was just the start, Navy to rename other ships named for liberal heroes	Health- Bird flu	Arizona's largest egg producer has lost 95 percent of its chickens due to the bird flu, signaling a potential price increase for eggs. On Monday, the Arizona Department of Agriculture announced a third commercial farm had tested positive for bird flu in Maricopa County.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/bird-flu-egg-prices	2025/06/05
Staff shortage triggers 90-minute Ground Stop at Newark Airport	Political-Cesspool	At the same time, Hickman's Egg Ranch, which is Arizona's largest egg producer and one of the nation's top 20 producers, has had to destroy the chickens at three of its four farms due to the bird flu.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/pete-hr	2025/06/05
1 dead after severe weather tears through central US, including flooding in Texas and Kansas	Aviation	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth's decision to strip the name of trailblazing LGBT+ activist Harvey Milk from a U.S. Navy vessel will be followed by the renaming of many more ships, according to reports. Documents obtained by CBS News indicate that other vessels could be renamed as part of Hegseth's purge of “woke” ideology from the military in addition to the USNS Harvey Milk, including the USNS Thurgood Marshall, the USNS Ruth Bader Ginsburg, the USNS Harriet Tubman, the USNS Carlos Huerta, the USNS Lucy Stone, the USNS Cesar Chavez, and the USNS Medgar Evers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/staff-shortage-triggers-90-minute-115343	2025/06/05
DHS orders officers to focus on overstayed visas	Video	The Trump administration and Democrats are locked in a fierce argument over whether Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents should be allowed to continue wearing masks while conducting operations. National and local Democratic leaders, as well as immigrant advocates, have criticized the practice, comparing the masked immigration agents to figures from repressive fascist and communist regimes of the past.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Democrats are calling for ICE agents to lose their masks and have identities released. DHS says no way	Meanwhile, Virginia U.S. Senators Mark Warner and Tim Kaine wrote last month to immigration officials, arguing mask use violates Homeland Security regulations and puts “everyone at risk – the targeted individuals, the ICE officers and agents, and bystanders who may misunderstand what is happening and may attempt to intervene.”	The government has insisted such disguises are vital, given what the Department of Homeland Security said on Wednesday was a 413 percent spike in assaults against immigration agents.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/democrats-calling-ice-agents-lose-22093	2025/06/05
FDA to Review Safety of Abortion Pill After Junk Science Report Paved The Way	Government-ICE	One person has died after severe weather tore through parts of the central U.S., including heavy rain in Dallas, a tornado that touched down in the Kansas City area and flash flooding in Kansas that left dozens of people, including stranded motorists.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/heavy-rains-cause-flash-flooding-141436	2025/06/05
Trump's Golf Club Has Too Many 'Critical' Health Violations, Test Of Inspector Says	Weather-Storms	The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has ordered the staff of U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Immigration and Customs Enforcement and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to go on overstay visas, according to a Wednesday press release from USCIS.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fda-review-safety-abortion-pill-21060568	2025/06/05
MAGA's mutually assured destruction	Reproductive Rights	Republican Sen. Josh Hawley's quest to legitimize a junk science report undermining the safety of a widely used abortion pill was fully realized this week.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-golf-club-too-many-1152412831b	2025/06/05
The White House adviser who fueled the Trump-Musk NASA feud	Trump Bullshit	Although Makary does not mention the EPPC report, Hawley's entire argument for reviewing mislabeled relations on the junk science paper. The EPPC report claims it's the “largest-known study of the abortion pill” and that nearly 11% of women “experience sepsis, infection, hemorrhaging, and another serious adverse event within 45 days following a mislabeled abortion.” But data scientists voiced serious concerns about the validity of the report, pointing out that it's not peer-reviewed and the report's recommendations do not line up with the data they analyzed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-golf-club-too-many-1152412831b	2025/06/05
Drug Imports Plummeted in April despite tariff threat	Cesspool-MAGA	President Donald Trump's golf resort in Bedminster, New Jersey, landed in the rough with a 32 out of 100 health inspection score in May, Forbes reported Wednesday. The Trump National Golf Club had the lowest mark in Somerset County, the outlet noted, citing public documents.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Musk calls for Trump's impeachment	Economy-Tariffs	The club was cited for nine violations that “may result in an unacceptable health risk” among 18 violations overall.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-golf-club-too-many-1152412831b	2025/06/05
Rubio sanctions 4 ICC judges for ‘targeting’ U.S. and Israel	Fuck that guy	To honor the end of Elon Musk's “incredible” government service, President Trump presented his friend, adviser and billionaire benefactor with a golden key to the White House. Six days later, Musk lit the place on fire. The most powerful civilian ever has effectively declared war on the president of the United States, incinerating their relationship – at least for now – in one of history's most extraordinary political meltdowns.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Trump Bullshit	Shortly after President Trump unexpectedly withdrew Elon Musk's pick to lead NASA last weekend, one name quickly surfaced as a major force behind the surprise decision: top White House aide Sergio Gor.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
No more floppy disks: Air traffic control overhaul faces some daunting obstacles	Cesspool-MAGA	Senate Republicans also blamed Gor for helping undermine the NASA nomination to settle a score with Musk, who had been critical of Gor's management of the White House personnel office. Gor declined to comment. But one senior White House official called Axios on Gor's behalf to praise his “brilliance, hard work and dedication.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Suspect in Boulder Molotov attack facing 118 charges	Manufacturers	Manufacturers appeared to stop rapidly stockpiling drugs and medical products from Europe in April, even amid the lingering threat of industry-specific tariffs from the Trump administration, according to federal trade data.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Supreme Court blocks Mexico's lawsuit against U.S. gunmakers	Medication, health	Elon Musk unleashed a fresh round of tweets late Thursday afternoon, calling for President Trump to be impeached and declaring that SpaceX would begin decommissioning a spacecraft essential to NASA's operation – though he later backtracked on this threat.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
How Trump and Musk's relationship exploded in real time over X, Truth Social	Fuck that guy	The Trump administration announced sanctions on four International Criminal Court judges on Thursday over what Secretary of State Marco Rubio called “illegitimate actions” that he said targeted the U.S. and Israel.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Summary	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the Epstein files, Axios has learned.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Trump “is in the Epstein files,” Musk wrote Thursday in a post on X, adding, “That is the real reason they have not been made public.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	In a letter to Attorney General Pam Bondi and FBI Director Kash Patel first obtained by Axios, Reps. Stephen Lynch (D-Mass.) and Robert Garcia (D-Calif.) asked that they “immediately clarify whether this allegation is true.”	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The lawmakers asked for a timeline of the DOJ's declassification and publication of the Epstein files, an explanation for why they haven't turned over any new documents since February.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The man accused of throwing Molotov cocktails at pro-Israel demonstrators was charged in Colorado state court Thursday with 118 counts, court documents show.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	Mohamed Sabry Soliman, who was also charged with a federal hate crime, now faces 28 counts of attempted murder.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The 45-year-old is also facing multiple counts related to the use and attempted use of an explosive/incendiary device and one count of cruelty to animals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	The Supreme Court rejected on Thursday Mexico's $10 billion lawsuit against U.S. gun makers that alleged the companies' loose controls allowed for the weapons to be illegally trafficked in the Latin American nation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-orders-officers-focus-overstayed-233	2025/06/05
Such ingratitude: How much money Musk funneled into the 2024 election	Fuck that guy	House Democrats are asking the Department of Justice and FBI whether it is true, as Elon Musk now claims, that President Trump is in the

The U.S. Copyright Office used to be fairly low-drama. Not anymore	Government- Copyright Office	The U.S. Copyright Office is normally a quiet place. It mostly exists to register materials for copyright and advise members of Congress on copyright issues. Experts and insiders used words like "stable" and "sleepy" to describe the agency. Not anymore. Shira Perlmutter, the abruptly fired ex-head of the Copyright Office, is suing President Trump, arguing her firing was unconstitutional and a violation of the separation of powers. This is going on just as the office has published its report on whether or not using copyrighted works to train generative AI counts as fair use, which is a legal idea allowing the use of some copyrighted materials without permission in certain circumstances. And it's a report that could influence the dozens of lawsuits going on right now over copyright and AI usage. But more than half of the 11 months he spent locked up didn't count toward any kind of sentence. It was "dead time." In the adult system, people awaiting that get credit for "time served," with any months that they spend in jail awaiting trial factored into their ultimate prison sentence. Not so in the youth system, an NPR investigation found.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-539781/copyright-office-explain	2025/06/06
Young offenders are often denied credit for "dead time," behind bars	ACAB	In about two dozen states, there's no such thing as time credit in juvenile delinquency cases. Unlike for adults, the time kids spend in detention often doesn't count toward any incarceration that they may face at the conclusion of their court case. This adds months to the duration that kids are confined away from their families at enormous expense to the taxpayer and to the detriment of young people. NPR found.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-5096148/juvenile-detention-dead	2025/06/06	criminal justice
FBI Director Patel, a longtime bureau critic, begins to put his stamp on the agency	Government- FBI	For years, Kash Patel was a fierce critic of the FBI and once even vowed to shut down its headquarters on Day 1 and turn it into a museum of the "deep state." Now, Patel is the director of the very FBI he long criticized. Since taking the helm more than 100 days ago, Patel has yet to shutter the Hoover headquarters building and reopen it as a museum. But he has begun trying to remake the bureau in ways large and small.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/g-1-704449/fbi-kash-patel	2025/06/06
Trump's travel ban includes Afghanistan, where thousands await U.S. resettlement	International Relations	President Trump enacted a travel ban on citizens from a dozen countries Wednesday, including Afghanistan, where U.S. troops were stationed for nearly two decades. Even though the president's travel ban applies to Afghanistan, it does include an exception.
Supreme Court rules on guns, reverse discrimination, and religious tax exemptions	Supreme Court	Alphons who served with the U.S. during the war can still pursue what's known as a Special Immigrant Visa. Since the chaotic military withdrawal of U.S. troops in August of 2021, around 200,000 Afghans have resettled in the U.S., many under that visa program.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-5428806/trump-travel-ban-afgha	2025/06/06
Why some economists are worried about U.S. inflation data	Economy- Inflation	In addition, more than 200,000 Afghans remain outside the U.S. while awaiting various stages of the application process, including many who worked with the Americans.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-5424454/supreme-court-hollic	2025/06/06
How self-radicalization and a "cauldron of extremism" fuels antisemitic attacks	Cesspool- Extremism	All of the decisions were unanimous, and in each case, the majority opinion was written by one of the court's liberals, proving that liberals can also rule for religion, for gun manufacturers, and for a woman claiming she was discriminated against on the job for being straight.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-5424367/inflation-data-cpi-gover	2025/06/06
In recorded calls, reports of overcrowding and lack of food at ICE detention centers	Government- ICE	The U.S. is in a "perilous time" following three attacks against Jewish people and groups in less than two months around the country, a counterterrorism expert tells NPR.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/04/nx-1-5421194/counterterrorism-expert	2025/06/06	Borders and immigration, human rights
FEMA was starting to fix long-standing problems. Then came the Trump administration	Government- FEMA	The Anti-Defamation League, which has tracked antisemitic attacks for 46 years, counted a record number in 2024. More than 9,000 incidents across the U.S. represented a 344% increase over five years and an 80% increase over the past decade.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/05/nx-1-5411185/fema-equity-disaster-in	2025/06/06
Bondt accused of 'serious professional misconduct' in Florida Bar complaint	Political Cesspool	There are a lot of sad people here, and they aren't getting medical attention, she said in a phone interview. "They are sleeping on the floor and sometimes don't get meals." Florida has pledged to be a national model for state cooperation with President Trump's immigration crackdown. As detention centers here and across the country fill up, NPR has received an outpouring of messages about severe overcrowding and inhumane conditions in immigration facilities across the state.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bondt-accused-serious-professional-misc	2025/06/06
Education Secretary Won't Say if She Knows What the Tulsa Race Massacre is	Political Cesspool	More than a dozen detainees, family members and lawyers described similar issues as Maria, including detainees underfed and in ill health. Krome, which is run by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, has been dogged for years by allegations of inhumane conditions and investigated by the Department of Justice in 2000 on accusations of sexual abuse. This year alone, there have been two deaths at the facility. Ukrainian immigrant Maksym Chemayak and Genny Ruiz Guillen of Honduras.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/education-secretary-wont-she-knows-024	2025/06/06
Trump budget cuts spark new hurricane season fears: 'A bad mix'	Government- NOAA	FEMA has been plagued for decades by accusations that it fails to help the most vulnerable victims of disasters. Poor people, racial minorities and those who live in rural and tribal areas have been chronically ignored or denied crucial help after disasters, with long-term and even deadly consequences for families. NPR investigations have found.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-budget-cuts-spark-hurricane-11250	2025/06/06
Hawaii authorities act quickly after alarming python discovery	Weird world	Now, some of those efforts have been canceled, while others face an uncertain future. President Trump has repeatedly said that he believed FEMA should not exist in its current form. He has also moved to eliminate so-called equity programs meant to ensure that the federal government serves Americans from all economic, geographic and ethnic groups.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hawaii-authorities-act-quickly-alarming-1	2025/06/06
ICE agents wear masks when making arrests in Massachusetts due to safety concerns, Acting Director says	Politics- House- Government- ICE	Bondt's record as the head of the Justice Department is being slammed by close to 70 law professors, attorneys and former Florida Supreme Court justices via a Florida Bar ethics complaint filed Thursday, according to the Herald.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/crockett-nobody-elected-ernst-anybody-1	2025/06/06
Large tornado touches down in northern Texas	Weather- Tornado	In the complaint, the group alleges that Bondt has breached ethical duties in her current role and that "serious professional misconduct that threatens the rule of law and the administration of justice" has been carried out by the attorney general, the Herald reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-agents-wear-masks-making-2215206	2025/06/06
MAGA's nightmare: World's richest man erupts on Trump, as alliance disintegrates	Fuck that guy	Education Secretary Linda McMahon defended when asked if she knew what the Tulsa Race Massacre was during a Wednesday congressional hearing, telling lawmakers that she intends to "look into it more."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/image-nightmare-world-richest-man-2341	2025/06/06
Musk backs call to impeach Trump, replace him with Vance	Fuck that guy	More than 160 people left the service this year through rounds of probationary firings, incentivized departures and retirement offers by the Trump administration. As a result, more than a dozen weather service offices have reduced or eliminated the daily collection of data via weather balloons, while others shut down their overnight shifts and are sharing forecast duties among other offices.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musk-backs-call-impeach-trump-2112069	2025/06/06
US Health Secretary Kennedy looks to fast-tracking approvals for rare disease drugs	RFK, JR BS	Asked to respond to Morales' plea, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, parent agency of the weather service, including the National Hurricane Center, defended the center and said it's taking steps to fill some of the staffing gaps at weather service offices around the country.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-health-secretary-kennedy-looks-1818	2025/06/06
One dead in Texas and dozens rescued in the Midwest as severe storms bring dangerous floods	Weather- Severe storms	Hawaii does not have native snake populations, so any report of a snake on the loose is cause for alarm. That certainty was the case Sunday after a Honolulu area homeowner spotted a 3-1/2-foot ball python in his backyard.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/one-dead-several-rescued-1133457	2025/06/06
5 takeaways from the explosive Trump-Musk divorce	Fuck that guy	Inspectors captured the "doxic" and nonvenomous reptile, believed to have been someone's freed or escaped pet, with a pair of tongs.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/5-takeaways-explosive-trump-musk-2227	2025/06/06
NASA scientists describe 'absolute sh*tshow' at agency as Trump budget seeks to dismantle top US climate lab	Government- NASA	Because snakes are highly invasive in Hawaii, and pose substantial threats to endangered bird species, it's illegal to own or possess the reptiles. Violators can be fined up to $200,000 and jailed for up to five years.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nasa-scientists-describe-absolute-sh-174	2025/06/06
How Joni Ernst's 'We're All Going to Die' Is 'New Dem. War Cry'	Political Cesspool	"You like, listen, ain't nobody elect you to be anybody's grave digger. They elected you to do everything that you can to make sure that their lives are flourishing and getting better, and that they were living as long as they could," Crockett said in an interview on MSNBC.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ernst-ernst-going-die-dem-05116063.htm	2025/06/06
Women in West Virginia who miscarry could face criminal charges, prosecutor says	Reproductive Rights	A news conference was held earlier this week revealing nearly 1,500 people were arrested by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) in Massachusetts, and why agents are seen wearing masks.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/women-west-virginia-miscarry-could-162	2025/06/06
Residents Aggravated as Tesla Dumps Dozens of Cybertrucks in Shopping Center	Fuck that guy	Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) in Massachusetts, and why agents are seen wearing masks.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/residents-aggravated-tesla-dumps-doz	2025/06/06
Opinion - Trump vs. the courts: A constitutional crisis approaches	Constitutional Crisis	Trump really 'went there' on Trump and Epstein. There are big dangers for Musk too. The political impact will be greatest with the online right. Will Musk's headlines sink the 'big, beautiful bill'?	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-trump-vs-courts-constitutional-13	2025/06/06
Trump team set to destroy $12m worth of HIV drugs and contraceptives that were bought before closing USAID	Government- USAID	Is anybody really surprised?	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-team-set-destroy-12m-222032442	2025/06/06
Missouri's Historic Abortion Victory Is Crumbling, Before Our Eyes	Reproductive Rights	NASA scientists are in a state of anxious limbo after the Trump administration proposed a budget that would eliminate one of the United States' top climate labs - the NASA Goddard Institute for Space Studies, or GISS - as a standalone entity. In its place, it would move some of the lab's functions into a broader environmental modeling effort across the agency.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/missouri-historic-abortion-victory-crumbl	2025/06/06
Judge Boasberg rules migrants at Salvadoran megaprisn can contest gang accusations	Judicial Pushback	Career specialists are now working remotely, awaiting details and even more unsure about their future at the lab after they were kicked out of their longtime home in New York City last week. Closing the lab for good could jeopardize its value and the country's leadership role in global climate science, sources say.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-boasberg-rules-migrants-salvador	2025/06/06

			A top House Democrat is needing Republicans who helped pass President Trump's "big, beautiful bill" through the lower chamber last month but have since voiced regrets upon learning of certain provisions they didn't know were included in the 1,037-page package.
Top Democrat needles Republicans for not reading the 'big, beautiful bill'	Government Funding	But in the weeks since the bill was passed, several Republicans have said they've come to regret their support after learning of specific language in the package.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/top-democrat-needes-republicans-not-16	2025/06/06
These Nikon Comedy Wildlife Awards photos will get you cackling with laughter	Weird world	Photos	https://www.usatoday.com/picture-gallery/news/nation/2025/06/04/nikon	2025/06/06
		"I've been disappointed that we haven't had an aggressive director since — February, March, April, May — fighting for the resources that CDC needs," said Dr. Robert Redfield, who served as CDC director under the first Trump administration and supported Kennedy's nomination as the nation's health secretary.
		Adding to the confusion was an employee-wide email sent last week that thanked "new acting directors who have stepped up to the plate." The email, signed by Monahan, listed her as the acting director. It was sent just days after Kennedy said at a Senate hearing that Monahan had been replaced by Buzzetti.
Who's in charge? CDC's leadership 'crisis' apparent amid new COVID-19 vaccine guidance	Government-CDC	The lack of a confirmed director will be a problem if a public health emergency such as the COVID-19 pandemic or a rapid uptick in measles cases hits, said Michael Osterholm, an epidemiologist at the University of Minnesota.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-kennedy-cdc-covid19-leadership-ac8f	2025/06/06
Rapid snowmelt and Trump cuts compound wildfire fears in U.S. west	Environment-Wildfires	"CDC is a crisis, waiting for a crisis to happen," said Osterholm. "At this point, I couldn't tell you for the life of me who was going to put what trigger in a crisis situation."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/05/wildfire-trump-cuts	2025/06/06
Canada: premature baby with measles dies amid outbreak in Ontario	Health-measles	Usually warm springtime temperatures have contributed to rapid reductions in snowpacks across the western US that rival the fastest rates on record, increasing concerns around wildfire season. The rapid snowmelt, in addition to reduced staffing and budget constraints initiated by the Trump administration, has set the stage for a particularly sanguine season across the west, according to an analysis of publicly available data by the Guardian and interviews with experts in the region.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/05/canada-premature-baby	2025/06/06
Federal vs. state power at issue in a hearing over Trump's election overhaul executive order	Voiting Fucker	A Canadian infant who was born prematurely and had measles has died, officials said on Thursday without confirming a cause of death, raising heightened concern about the virus's resurgence. Canada has recorded 2,755 measles cases — including 2,429 confirmed and 326 probable — according to federal health data updated on 2 June.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-executive-order-elections-democrats-1	2025/06/06	States rights
On the huge-mammoth Giant sculpture of marine creature goes missing in Florida	Weird world	Democratic state attorney general on Friday will seek to block President Donald Trump's proposal for a sweeping overhaul of U.S. elections in a case that tests a constitutional bedrock — the separation of powers.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/giant-nra	2025/06/06
Republican senators question cost of Army's parade spectacle set for Trump's birthday	Trump Bullshit	Florida police are searching for a town's beloved rainbow manatee sculpture after it was stolen from a park.	https://www.the-independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-4	2025/06/06
		According to the publication, Wickler heard about the hefty cost from Army Secretary Dan Driscoll in an Army budget hearing. Driscoll said he could not provide an exact price for the parade because the Army will also need to pay for the road damage that its tanks will do, Politico reported.
		A group of immigration officers are stuck in a small east African country, plagued by smog from burn pits with human waste, at risk of malaria, and taking a dozen medications to battle chronic respiratory illness.
		Those 11 agents are working 12-hour shifts to guard a handful of detainees who were set to be deported to war-torn South Sudan before a judge stepped in to block their removal, citing due process violations.
Stick ICE agents are stuck in Djibouti at risk of malaria and rocket attacks. Why won't Trump bring them back?	Government-ICE	But the judge didn't force Donald Trump's administration to offload those immigrants in Djibouti.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/djibouti	2025/06/06
DOGE finds an unlikely new cut as $47m plan for nation's largest migrant detention center put on hold	Fuck that department	Lawyers for the government had even requested that they land there. Massachusetts District Judge Brian Murphy granted their request to hold those deportees overseas, in U.S. custody, to give them a chance to receive a "reasonable fear interview" to explain how they would face persecution or torture if they were sent to South Sudan.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/doge-1	2025/06/06
Democrats' 2024 postmortems keep neglecting the effects of voter suppression	Voting fuckery	The Trump administration has reportedly paused a $47 million plan to expand an immigration detention center in Georgia because the deal is under review by DOGE. Elon Musk's federal cost-cutting program.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/doge-1	2025/06/06
		Some of these arguments are very reductive, and some of them are downright ridiculous. Given the premise that Democrats should try to win as many votes as possible, I don't think we have to dismiss all of these theories out of hand. But at the same time, these discussions feel a bit like rearranging deck chairs on the proverbial Titanic, because it's hard for me to foresee a scenario in which Democrats achieve lasting victories in an environment of widespread voter suppression, no matter how many hypermasculine podcasts they visit or rhetorical punches they throw at progressives.	https://www.marcb.com/blog/status/latest/democrats-2024-postmortem	2025/06/06
"The Intern in Charge": Meet the 22-Year-Old Trump's Team Picked to Lead Terrorism Prevention	Government-DHS	His career blastoff came quickly. A year after graduation, the 22-year-old with no apparent national security expertise is now a Department of Homeland Security official overseeing the government's main hub for terrorism prevention, including an $18 million grant program intended to help communities combat violent extremism.	https://www.propublica.org/article/trump-dhs-thomas-fugate-cp3-terror	2025/06/06
U.S. SPY AGENCIES ARE GETTING A ONE-STOP SHOP TO BUY YOUR MOST SENSITIVE PERSONAL DATA	Privacy	The White House appointed Fugate, a former Trump campaign worker who interned at the hard-right Heritage Foundation, to a Homeland Security role that was expanded to include the Center for Prevention Programs and Partnerships. Known as CP3, the office has led nationwide efforts to prevent hate-fueled attacks, school shootings and other forms of targeted violence.
World's smallest violin can't be seen without a microscope	Weird world	THE EVER-GROWING MARKET for personal data has been a boon for American spy agencies. The U.S. intelligence community is now buying up vast volumes of sensitive information that would have previously required a court order, essentially bypassing the Fourth Amendment. But the surveillance state has encountered a problem: There's simply too much data on sale from too many corporations and brokers.	https://theintercept.com/2025/05/22/intel-agencies-buying-data-portals/	2025/06/06
Wisconsin zoo. Escaped otter 'made the decision' to be wild	Weird world	So the government has a plan for a one-stop shop.	https://www.upi.com/On4_News/2025/06/06/loughborough-university-smallest-violin-53174927729/
Porcupine slows away in wrecked plane transported more than 500 miles	Weird world	The Office of the Director of National Intelligence is working on a system to centralize and "streamline" the use of commercially available information, or CAI, like location data derived from mobile ads, by American spy agencies, according to contract documents reviewed by The Intercept. The data portal will include information deemed by the ODNI as highly sensitive, that which can be "misused to cause substantial harm, embarrassment, and inconvenience to U.S. persons." The documents state spy agencies will use the web portal not just to search through reams of private data, but also run them through artificial intelligence tools for further analysis.	https://www.upi.com/On4_News/2025/06/05/New-Zoo-Green-Bay-escaped-otter-Louis-4361749154103/
Scientists in Japan Develop Non-Toxic Plastic That Dissolves in Seawater Within Hours	Weird world	A team of physicists from a British university used nanotechnology to create what they dubbed "the world's smallest violin," an instrument that can't be seen without a microscope.	https://www.upi.com/On4_News/2025/06/02/canada-porcupine-wrecked-plane-British-Columbia/1181748883909/
World's First Diamond Battery Could Power Spacecraft and Pacemakers for Thousands of Years	Weird world	The Loughborough University team said the platinum violin measures 35 microns — a measurement unit equal one-millionth of a meter — long, and 13 microns wide.	https://www.godnewsnetwork.org/worlds-first-diamond-battery-could-power-spacecraft-and-pacemakers-for-thousands-of-years/
The 27-foot tall plant California residents are trying to see in stock-in-a-lifetime bloom	Weird world	A Wisconsin zoo announced it has called off the search for an otter on the loose since March, explaining the animal "has made the decision to be a wild otter."	https://www.cnn.com/2025/06/01/us/video/escape-once-in-a-lifetime-bloom-divid/
Sea turtle Dilly Daily released into the ocean with three flippers after undergoing amputation	Weird world	Wildlife rescuers in British Columbia are caring for a porcupine that stowed away in a wrecked plane for a trip via helicopter, boat and trailer.
"What a girl!" Lost dog returns after swimming to island on 100-mile journey	Weird world	The Interior Wildlife Rehabilitation Society said it is frequently contacted to remove stowaway mammals from cars, but the "porcupine on a plane" situation was unique.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/00/mx-1-543215501ogehard-sea-turtle-dilly-daily-released
Indonesia's stunning microlibraries draw young readers — in pictures	Weird world	Interior Wildlife said a wreck recovery company transported a wrecked plane from Mackenzie to Kelowna, a distance of about 538 miles, via helicopter, boat and trailer.	https://www.theguardian.com/uk-news/2025/jun/03/lost-dog-amber-returns-after-swimming-to-island-on-100-mile-journey
Remains found washed up on Jersey shore identified as missing 19th-century boat captain	Weird world	It was only once the wreckage was being unloaded to the company's flat deck in Kelowna that a porcupine was found hiding underneath the pilot's seat.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/gallery/2025/jun/02/indonesia-micro-libraries-photos
A look at the 'less lethal' weapons authorities used to crack down on Los Angeles protests	ACAB	Japanese scientists were thrilled to receive significant interest from the packaging industry over their new seawater-degradable plastic.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/look-less-lethal-weapons-authorities-080	2025/06/10
Tulsi Gabbard's Team Fed The JFK Assassination Files Into AI To Figure Out What To Declassify	AI government	Breaking apart into nontoxic compounds for ocean-borne bacteria in just 2 to 3 hours depending on the size and thickness, the invention could be a major solution to reducing plastic waste in the environment.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tulsi-gabbards-team-fed-jfk-1601074934y	2025/06/12
London-bound Air India flight with more than 240 aboard crashes in Ahmedabad, India	Aviation	An invention from the UK features diamonds in the first-ever application of the gemstone in battery technology.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12/mx-1-54314074air-india-crash-ahmeda	2025/06/12
First crash of Boeing's 787 model comes weeks after $1.1bn 737 Max payout	Aviation	Promising to last thousands of years, the microwatt power sources are seen as the perfect solution to devices in environments where neither changing batteries nor carrying around wires are options.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/jun/12/air-india-first-crash	2025/06/12
What led the Boeing 787 Dreamliner to crash in India with 242 people aboard?	Aviation	Proving to last thousands of years, the microwatt power sources are seen as the perfect solution to devices in environments where neither changing batteries nor carrying around wires are options.
Wrongly deported Kilmar Abrego Garcia returning to U.S. to face criminal charges	Borders and immigration	The Interior Wildlife Rehabilitation Society said it is frequently contacted to remove stowaway mammals from cars, but the "porcupine on a plane" situation was unique.	https://www.express.com/2025/06/06/kilmar-abrego-garcia-returns-traffic/	2025/06/09
You barely see people out: How immigration raids are reshaping daily life in Puerto Rico's Dominican enclave	Borders and immigration	Over the weekend, police used a standard variety of tools to disperse crowds and quell protests that had devolved into violence. Protesters lit self-driving cars on fire. Two motorcycles drove into a skidmark line of officers, injuring two. And LARO Chief Jim McDonnell, condemning the "disgraceful" violence, alleged on Sunday evening a Molotov cocktail had been thrown at officers. Authorities responded with force. So far, CNN has documented the deployment of flash-bangs, tear gas, pepper balls, rubber bullets and bean bag rounds, as well as more traditional gear such as batons.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/07/mx-1-5389393immigration-raids-are-r	2025/06/09

DHS memo details how National Guard troops will be used for immigration enforcement	Borders and immigration	National Guard troops would be used in immigration-enforcement activities, including in "night operations and oral interdiction," as well as "guard duty and riot control" inside detention facilities, according to a memo from the Department of Homeland Security obtained by NPR. DHS officials requested 20,000 National Guard troops three weeks ago, but this memo details what duties those troops will be asked to perform. The memo, dated May 5, from Andrew Whitaker, the executive secretary at DHS, says the department will need up to 3,500 Guard personnel for its request to "Attempt to Locate — Fugitives." Another 2,500 Guard soldiers would be needed for detention support.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/09/mex-41-5425419/the-national-guard-stay	2025/06/09	constitutional crisis, police state
ICE agents mistakenly detain U.S. marshal in Arizona	Borders and immigration	A U.S. marshal was mistakenly detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents in Arizona, officials said Friday. The deputy marshal was briefly detained in the lobby of a federal building in Tucson because he "fit the general description of a subject being sought by ICE," according to a statement from a U.S. Marshall Service spokesperson shared with NBC News on Friday. It is not clear when the incident took place.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-agents-mistakenly-detain-u-16430094	2025/06/09	chaos
Bondi Ducks Tough Questions on Abrego Garcia's Alleged MS-13 Ties	Borders and immigration	Listening to the attorney general's statements, one reporter asked why, if the Maryland dad had been involved in such heinous crimes, is he only facing a limited set of charges for human smuggling now? Bondi responded by dodging the question entirely, instead reminding the reporter of the severity of the charges the Department of Justice has in the end elected to bring against him.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bondi-ducks-tough-questions-abrego-003	2025/06/09
US State Department orders embassies to resume processing Harvard student visas	Borders and immigration	The US State Department ordered diplomatic posts around the world to "resume processing" of Harvard University student and exchange visitor visas on Friday after a judge halted President Donald Trump's latest attempt to block international students from coming to the institution. As Vadzim Balaly watched his son Aleksandr Balaly get arrested by six plainclothes U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers directly after an immigration court hearing, he had the sinking feeling he'd made a costly mistake. Vadzim Balaly, accompanying his son for his first court appearance in his asylum bid, agreed last month when an ICE prosecutor offered to drop the case against the recent Belarusian migrant, not realizing his son would be swiftly detained as soon as the pair exited the courtroom.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-state-department-orders-embassies-1	2025/06/10	education, information blackout, brain drain
ICE moves to dismiss cases in bid to fast-track deportations after courthouse arrests	Borders and immigration	"I felt like we had fallen into a judicial trap," he said in Russian through an interpreter in an interview with The Hill. They came here at a relatively low level guy, which does not necessarily make it improper — just odd. Perhaps they wanted the last word, which seems childish, said the former official. "Typically, you work up the chain, not down it. That said, at least he gets his due process rights this time around."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-moves-dismiss-cases-bid-21000402	2025/06/10
The questions raised by the new charges against Kilar Abrego Garcia	Borders and immigration	Jacob and Romero were among dozens of people arrested in immigration enforcement actions in Los Angeles this weekend, raids that sparked a roaring backlash and eventually led to the deployment of the national guard in the city. They were "kidnapped" by agents, Cortes said. "I demand due process for my father and the dozens of other workers."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/questions-emerge-charges-kilar-abrego	2025/06/10
'Kidnapped': families and lawyers desperate to contact LA workers arrested in ICE raids	Borders and immigration	At least 14 of those detained were members of the Episcopalian Diocese of Los Angeles. "Fourteen members of one of our Episcopal churches couldn't be in church this morning on the Day of Pentecost." Their government ripped them from the arms of their families at home and the body of Christ at church," said Los Angeles bishop John Harvey Taylor.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/09/ice-angels-immigration-raids-detained	2025/06/10
LAUSD will deploy school police to set up safe zones around campuses, graduations amid ICE raids	Borders and immigration	Loved ones and lawyers are still scrambling to find where all of them were taken. Los Angeles school police will set up a safety perimeter around campuses and school events — including graduations — to keep federal immigration agents away from students, employees and families, school officials said Monday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/laud-deploy-school-police-set-03423526	2025/06/10
Behind the Curtain: A decades-in-the-making immigration war	Borders and immigration	Now comes a new test, literally 40 years in the making: How comfortable are Americans with deporting millions of immigrants who paid taxes, built families and committed no crimes after coming here illegally? That's the heart of the standoff in LA, as well as the broader Trump effort to expel potentially millions of immigrants who broke the law to get here and then played by U.S. rules.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/trump-illegal-immigration-deportation	2025/06/11
Republicans warn Trump that some deportations go too far	Borders and immigration	Today's dissent is far from a GOP rebuke of Trump. But the outlines of a serious debate are taking shape. Rep. David Valadao (R-Calif.) is urging Trump officials to "prioritize the removal of known criminals over the hardworking people who have lived peacefully in the Valley for years." Rep. Carlos Gimenez (R Fla.) is worried about deporting people "that have been here for a while. There's some talk of jobs, etc., and also disrupting parts of the economy. We need to work something else out for those," he told us. Rep. Tony Gonzales (R-Texas) told CNN: "I think a big part of that is we all need to focus on convicted criminal, illegal aliens" instead of farm laborers. Rep. Mario Diaz-Balart (R-Fla.) told us: "I think there are some legitimate folks who have potential legitimate claims that if you send them back to a regime like Cuba or Nicaragua or potentially North Korea ... we might be sending them to a situation where we frankly just don't want to do that."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/republicans-trump-deportations-ice	2025/06/11
Inside Donald Trump's Mass Deportation Operation	Borders and immigration	"The prospect of the U.S. sending migrants to a foreign prison notorious for alleged human-rights violations would have been unimaginable less than a year ago. But it is only one dramatic component of Trump's unprecedented deportation project. The President has revoked the temporary legal status of hundreds of thousands of people and expanded the power of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) to round up and remove millions of others. He is authorizing ICE to direct a network of law-enforcement agencies, from the FBI and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives to the DEA and U.S. Park Police, to assist the effort. He has pressed the Internal Revenue Service and the Postal Service to share information to identify targets. Homeland Security Operations has developed new software technology, called RAVEN, to consolidate data about migrants. Trump has used federal powers to coerce cities and counties to cooperate with the mission and threatened to withdraw federal funding if they don't. Working with sheriffs and local police departments, ICE has raided schools, parks, and restaurants across the U.S., detaining some 82,000 people in a few short months."	https://time.com/721177/trump-deportation-ice-at-savador	2025/06/11
Trump preparing to send thousands of immigrants, including Europeans to Guantanamo military prisons, reports	Borders and immigration	Donald Trump's administration is reportedly preparing to send thousands of legal immigrants to the military prison at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, as soon as this week, marking a rapid escalation of the president's mass deportation agenda which could target hundreds of people from European allied countries. Immigration officials are considering whether to transfer as many as 9,000 foreign nationals, including people from the United Kingdom as well as Ireland, Italy, France, Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, Lithuania, Poland, Turkey and Ukraine, according to reporting from The Washington Post and Politico.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/06/11
Columbia University alumnus Mahmoud Khalil cannot be detained nor deported from the U.S. based on evidence provided by the Trump administration, a federal judge ruled Wednesday.	Borders and immigration	Aaron Terr, director of public advocacy at the Foundation for Individual Rights and Expression (FIRE), said in a statement that Wednesday's court ruling confirms "Khalil was targeted not for his actions, but for his opinions."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/mahmoud-khalil-detained-release-4	2025/06/12
Judge says Mahmoud Khalil can't be detained	Borders and immigration	The "idea that a college student's peaceful participation in pro-Palestinian protests could seriously compromise U.S. foreign policy was always far-fetched," said Terr, whose foundation does not represent Khalil but has filed an amicus brief in support of his case.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/mahmoud-khalil-detained-release-4	2025/06/12
Kristi Noem's Border Patrol Threatens Soccer Fans Coming to U.S. This Summer	Borders and immigration	"Let the games begin!" CBP's post reads. "The first FIFA Club World Cup games start on June 14th in Miami. "CBP will be suited and booted and ready to provide security for the first round games."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kristi-noem-border-patrol-threatens-1922	2025/06/12
DHS vows immigration raids will continue as resistance mounts	Borders and immigration	In Los Angeles on Thursday, Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem vowed that the Trump administration will not let up in its crackdown on immigrants without legal status or on demonstrators protesting on immigrants' behalf. "We're going to stay here and build our operations until we make sure that we liberate the city of Los Angeles," she said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/12/gu-s-1-725130/the-immigration-raids-los-a	2025/06/13
Depounced by GOP lawmakers, blue state governors, defend immigration policies	Borders and immigration	During a combative House committee hearing on immigration policy Thursday, Republicans and Democrats offered competing portraits of a United States under siege. GOP lawmakers described migrants without legal status as a threat to the nation's sovereignty and public safety, made worse by Democratic state laws.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/12/mex-41-5431540/depounced-by-gop-law	2025/06/13
Day laborers staying away from L.A. area job centers amid immigration raids	Borders and immigration	"Because of Trump, no American city or state is safe as he lays this groundwork to take his militarized playbook nationwide," said Rep. Stephen Lynch, D-Mass. Immigration raids across the L.A. region have had a chilling effect at centers that connect day laborers with jobs, forcing undocumented workers to weigh the risk of earning badly needed income with the potential of being detained by federal agents.	https://laist.com/news/day-laborers-la-area-job-centers-immigration-rai	2025/06/13
Exclusive: Trump administration tells migrants from Cuba, Haiti, Nicaragua and Venezuela their legal status is terminated	Borders and immigration	"We've seen a 90% drop" in people seeking work there, said Martin Pineda, spokesperson for CARECEN, "definitely after Friday when day laborers were picked up by immigration agents at the Home Depot in L.A."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-rai	2025/06/13
US immigration authorities deny entry to player ahead of Club World Cup	Borders and immigration	The Department of Homeland Security on Thursday told hundreds of thousands of migrants that their permission to live and work in the United States had been revoked and they should leave the country, according to a copy of the notice obtained by CNN. The termination notice was addressed to nationals of Cuba, Haiti, Nicaragua and Venezuela who came to the United States through a Biden-era parole program. More than half a million people from those four countries benefited from the program, though it's unclear how many have since sought other forms of immigration relief while in the United States. The notice, according to DHS, was sent to email addresses provided by those in the program.	https://sports.yahoo.com/articles/us-immigration-authorities-deny-entry-6	2025/06/13
DHS sends out provocative new poster: Ramming cars and raising churches. The ways ICE is becoming more aggressive in arresting migrants	Borders and immigration	"Help your country and yourself," reads the poster, which shows Uncle Sam with a hammer nailing a nail to a wall. "Report all foreign invaders," it says, providing a phone number to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dhs-sends-provocative-poster-14343026	2025/06/13
Proud Boys leaders pardoned by Trump sue over Jan. 6 convictions	Cesspool-MAGA	Ramming cars, sledgehammering windows and raiding churches in pursuit of migrants appears to be the new norm for Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents in Trump's America. Five leaders of the Proud Boys sued the federal government on Friday, alleging their constitutional rights were violated when they were prosecuted for their actions on Jan. 6, 2001. The members of the right-wing extremist group, four of whom were convicted for engaging in seditious conspiracy, were among those pardoned in President Trump's unprecedented act of clemency for defendants charged with participating in the Jan. 6 Capitol riot. They're seeking $102 million in restitution from the government.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/proud-boys-leaders-pardoned-by-tr	2025/06/09	Jan. 6 Capitol riot "My boys did it all!" https://tiny.cc/meyarw
MAGA's blue-collar base waits patiently for populist savior	Cesspool-MAGA	President Trump's second term has been a payday for the powerful, exposing a disconnect in his promise to deliver for "the forgotten man" of America's working class. The posited paradox at the heart of MAGA — a movement fueled by economic grievance and championed by a New York billionaire — has never been more pronounced. Trump's blue-collar base remains fiercely loyal, energized by his hardline stances on immigration, trade and culture — and patient that his economic "Golden Age" will materialize. But so far, the clearest financial rewards of Trump's tenure are flowing upward — to wealthy donors, family members, insiders and the president himself.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/trump-billionaires-working-class-pa	2025/06/09
MAGA feasts on red meat as Trump escalates L.A. showdown	Cesspool-MAGA	President Trump's MAGA allies are framing the Los Angeles protests as a once-in-a-generation opportunity to rewrite the rules of engagement with "the Resistance" — starting with the use of military force. As National Guardsmen and Marines descend on L.A., the loudest voices in the MAGA media ecosystem are urging Trump to make an example out of anyone who stands in the way of mass deportations. With protests spreading to other cities, the list of demands is growing: Deploy the military. Arrest Democrats. Expel not just undocumented immigrants, but even legal residents who oppose the crackdown.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/maga-trump-protests-deportation-ly	2025/06/11
'Our Constitution is easy any'. Republican-led states try to shut down liberal ballot initiatives	Civil Rights	Liberal activists in conservative-led states are facing similar challenges around the country. Republican lawmakers are working to cut off ballot measures that enact progressive policies by making it harder for citizen-led measures to qualify for a vote or be enforced. Locked out of power in Washington and in many statehouses, progressive activists have launched citizen initiatives to try to notch wins. Eleven states, for example, have backed abortion rights through citizen-approved initiatives since the Supreme Court's Dobbs ruling in 2022 ending a federally guaranteed right to abortion. "State lawmakers have been using their power to subvert the will of the people," said Chris Melody Fields Figueroa, the Ballot Initiative Strategy Center's executive director. The center tracks and helps promote ballot measures. "They can't win fairly, so they've been rewriting the rules, no matter what the majority wants."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/constitution-easy-any-republican-led-sta	2025/06/09

Russia is amplifying conspiracy theories about the L.A. protests	Conspiracy theory	Protests against immigration raids in Los Angeles have triggered a flood of falsehoods and conspiracy theories online, and Russia has sought to exploit and amplify them, experts say. ... The episode illustrates how foreign adversaries are taking advantage of genuine divisions among Americans, a tried-and-true strategy in information warfare, analysts say. Right-wing American voices online are pushing the idea that the protests in Los Angeles are not what they appear and that a so-called cabal led to Democratic politicians and the billionaire philanthropist George Soros is orchestrating unrest, experts said. "Your tenure as secretary has been marked by endless chaos," Rep. Rosa DeLauro, D-Conn., told Hegseth. Others, including Republican leaders, warned that massive spending projects such as President Donald Trump's desire for a $175 billion Golden Dome missile defense system will get broad congressional scrutiny. ... After persistent questioning about the cost of sending National Guard members and Marines to Los Angeles in response to protests over immigration raids, Hegseth turned to his acting commander, Bryn Woolacott MacDonnell, who said it would cost $134 million. Hegseth defended Trump's decision to send the troops, saying they are needed to protect federal agents as they do their jobs. ... And he suggested that the use of troops inside the United States will continue to expand. ... There are estimated 1.8 million homes for sale across the country, but only about 1.5 million active homebuyers. That leaves a gap of nearly 500,000 — the largest on record, according to Redfin. ... U.S. home prices were still up 3.9% year over year in February — a slight dip from January's 4.1% gain — but a growing supply of homes and easing mortgage rates are cooling the market, according to the S&P CoreLogic Case-Shiller Home Price Index. ... Homeless people who reject three offers of shelter will be eligible for arrest on trespassing after the San Jose City Council voted Tuesday for a policy change they hope will encourage unhoused people to trade in their tents on sidewalks for beds indoors. ... The proposal by San Jose Mayor Matt Mahon is eye-opening because it comes from a liberal city headed by a Democrat in the left-leaning San Francisco Bay Area. It is among the stricter anti-homelessness decrees proposed by elected officials since the Supreme Court in 2023 made it easier to ban homeless people from camping on public property. ... California and Texas homeowners are finding out the hard way that what's visible from the sky could result in losing their home insurance. More insurance companies are using aerial images and footage from satellites and drones to decide whether to renew a policy, and it has nothing to do with wildfire zones. ... "California deserve fair and comprehensive treatment from their insurance companies," Lara said in a statement. "No one should be left in uncertainty, forced to fight for what they are owed, or face endless delays that often lead consumers to give up. ... This examination will assess whether State Farm has complied with California's consumer protection and claims handling laws and will help determine if further reforms are needed as natural disasters increasingly disrupt insurance markets across the country," he said. ... And yet, the Trump administration's budget proposal for fiscal year 2026 calls for significant cuts to higher education funding, including reducing the maximum federal Pell Grant award to $5,710 a year from $7,395, as well as scaling back the federal work-study program. The proposed cuts would help pay for the landmark tax and spending bill Republicans in the U.S. Congress hope to enact. ... Negotiations usually boil down to leverage — specifically, who has more of it. In the U.S.-China talks underway Monday in London, the question of who has the upper hand boils down to macro-versus-micro-economics. A slew of data out of China shows the massive cost that U.S. tariffs impose on the Chinese economy, reflecting both underlying economic weakness and what the nation stands to lose if no trade peace is reached. ... The U.S., meanwhile, has had a run of perfectly solid macroeconomic data, but has much to lose if China continues throttling supplies of rare earth minerals and other specific goods that U.S. industries desperately need. ... Annualized inflation ticked higher to 2.4% in May up from 2.3% in April, and on a month-to-month basis, the consumer price index rose by 0.1%, down from 0.2% the previous month. ... One of Trump's key campaign promises was to lower grocery costs for consumers who have had to contend with pandemic supply chain issues, rising food prices and inflation in recent years. But his new steel and aluminum tariffs, which took effect on 4 June, threaten to do just the opposite. The new 60% tariff rate could raise food prices in a matter of months, industry trade groups and supply chain experts warn. ... Months of real-time uncertainty are being replaced with longer-term uncertainty, with trade policy living on three-to-six-month cycles that make business planning a nightmare. ... So-called hard economic data — inflation, jobs — remains strong. But the anecdotes, the real-world commentary from businesses, are getting more negative by the month. ... For the makers of the hundreds of products with components that require rare earths, six months of certainty is an improvement — but also the start of an expensive race to stockpile parts before it all turns over again. ... The "Big Beautiful Bill" passed in May by House Republicans and now being considered by the Senate would rapidly phase out key clean-energy tax credits, casting uncertainty over more than 600 gigawatts' worth of solar, battery, and wind projects slated to come online in 2025 or later, according to new analysis from research firm Cleanwire. ... To be fair, the 600-GW figure is based on what's currently in the interconnection queue, and a good number of those projects won't get built regardless of the fate of the tax credits. (Projects often drop out of the queue for all kinds of reasons.) But if the bill keeps even one fraction of what's anticipated, I will have serious consequences for the U.S. energy system. For context, the entirety of the U.S. has a generating capacity of around 1,200 gigawatts at the end of 2023. ... Across the U.S., cities are struggling to balance the need for more housing with the need to preserve and grow trees that help address the impacts of climate change. Trees provide cooling shade that can save lives. They absorb carbon pollution from the air and reduce stormwater runoff and the risk of flooding. Yet many builders perceive them as an obstacle to quickly and efficiently putting up housing. ... The tension between development and tree preservation is at a tipping point in Seattle, where a new state law is requiring more housing density but not more trees. ... A blistering heat wave is sweeping across northern India with temperatures soaring above the normal, disrupting daily life and raising health concerns. The mercury shot up to 47.3 C (117 F) in St. Gangangaraj, a desert city in the northwestern state of Rajasthan on Monday, according to the Indian Meteorological Department. ... Two tropical storms gathered strength off Mexico's Pacific coast Monday, with one forecast to become a hurricane later in the day, forecasters warned. ... The storm may bring total rainfall of 2 to 4 inches (51 to 101 millimeters) to coastal areas of Guerrero, Michoacan, Colima and Jalisco states, with the possibility of localized flooding on Monday. ... Another tropical storm, Cosme, strengthened slightly Monday but remained west of the coast of Mexico, about 650 miles (1,015 kilometers) south-southwest of the tip of Baja California, the NHC said. ... Tropical Storm Barbara has strengthened into a hurricane, the first of the eastern Pacific hurricane season. ... Hurricane Barbara was located about 155 miles (245 kilometers) southwest of Manzanillo, Mexico. Its maximum sustained winds were clocked at 75 mph (120 kph). The storm's center was moving northwest at 10 mph (17 kph). ... President Trump is edging closer than ever to invoking the Insurrection Act, driven by a vision of executive power free from the guardrails, governors and generals who stifled him in 2020. The Insurrection Act of 1807, which allows the deployment of U.S. troops to quell domestic unrest, is among the most extreme emergency powers available to a sitting president. President Trump and his allies have a new message for wobbly Republicans in Congress: Either support this "Big Beautiful Bill" or get bashed for backing the Los Angeles protesters waving Mexican flags in front of burning cars. ... Trump has long backed using force — even the military — to subdue destructive protests. But his advisers say there was no master plan for immigration raids to spark the type of protests and vandalism in L.A. that would lead Trump to call in the National Guard, over Newson and Bass' objections. ... The Los Angeles Police Department raised concerns Monday about the deployment of some 700 Marines to L.A. in response to four days of fiery protests sparked by federal immigration raids. LAPD Chief Jim McDonnell said in response to the announcement that the department had received "no formal notification" about the Marines' arrival in L.A. ... "The possible arrival of federal military forces in Los Angeles — absent clear coordination — presents a significant logistical and operational challenge for those of us charged with safeguarding this city," the police chief said in a statement. ... The conditions that would normally be present, and that should be present, for the president to deploy the military are simply not here, she said. ... Generally, federal troops are prohibited from using military force against civilians in normal law enforcement under the Posse Comitatus Act of 1878, according to Goleen. The "extremely rare exception to this rule" is the Insurrection Act, a set of laws that give the president authority to use federal troops to quell civil unrest in a crisis, Goleen said. The Insurrection Act, which predates the development of modern state and local police departments, allows federal troops to engage in law enforcement activities, like searches, seizures and arrests. ... Instead of the Insurrection Act, Trump is relying on "an obscure statute that has never been used in the way that he is using it," Goleen said. ... That little-used provision is "10 U.S.C. 12406," within Title 10 of the U.S. Code on Armed Services. It allows the president to deploy federal troops in instances of "a rebellion or danger of a rebellion" against the U.S. government. ... President Donald Trump's upcoming military parade will see 18 miles of fencing and 175 metal detectors installed in Washington, D.C. ... The massive event, which officials estimated to cost a maximum of $45 million, will be held on June 14 to honor the 250th birthday of the Army. It also happens to fall on Trump's 76th birthday. ... The Pentagon was scrambling Monday to establish rules to guide U.S. Marines who could be faced with the rare and difficult prospect of using force against citizens on American soil, now that the Trump administration is deploying active duty troops to the immigration raid protests in Los Angeles. ... summary ... Elon Musk's goons at the Department of Government Efficiency transmitted a large amount of data — all of it undetected — using a Starlink Wi-Fi terminal they installed on top of the White House, according to a new report. ... "Starlink doesn't require anything. It allows you to transmit data without any kind of record or tracking," one insider told the Post. "White House IT systems had very strong controls on network access. You had to be on a full-tunnel VPN at all times. If you are not on the VPN, White House-issued devices can't connect to the outside." ... On Thursday afternoon, the number of active users on the X and Truth Social mobile apps both reached 90-day highs, according to preliminary estimates by Sensor Tower, a market intelligence firm. Between 2 and 6 p.m. Eastern time that day, the firm estimates that X usage was up 54 percent compared with the previous seven days, while Truth Social was up more than 400 percent, albeit from a much lower baseline. ...	2025/06/13
Hegseth faces sharp questions from Congress on deploying troops to LA and Pentagon spending	Constitutional Crisis		2025/06/11	https://thn.liv.es
US housing market now has 500K more sellers than buyers — and it's leading to a shift in the balance of power	Economy-Housing		2025/06/09
Silicon Valley city makes homeless people eligible for arrest if they refuse 3 offers of shelter	Economy-Housing		2025/06/12	Police state, dystopian
Gov 'Clutter' in Your Backyard Or A Drained Pond? Insurance Companies Are Using Aerial Images To Decide If You'll Keep Your Coverage	Economy-Insurance		2025/06/10
State regulators launch inquiry into State Farm's handling of fire claims	Economy-Insurance		2025/06/13
Trump aims to slash Pell Grants, which may limit low-income students' college access	Economy-Student loans		2025/06/10
The U.S.-China leverage game	Economy-Tariffs		2025/06/10
US prices continued to rise in May amid Trump tariffs	Economy-Tariffs		2025/06/11
Tuna, beans, Spam: Trump's tariffs threaten the canned foods millions rely on to survive	Economy-Tariffs		2025/06/12
The only trade certainty is uncertainty	Economy-Tariffs		2025/06/13
Chart: Hundreds of gigawatts of clean energy at risk with GOP bill	Environment-Clean energy		2025/06/13
In Seattle, preserving trees while increasing housing supply is a climate solution	Environment-Climate change		2025/06/13
Northern India on the boil with heat waves disrupting normal lives and raising health concerns	Environment-Heat		2025/06/10
Tropical Storm Barbara forecast to become a hurricane Monday as Storm Cosme forms in the Pacific	Environment-Hurricane		2025/06/09
Tropical Storm Barbara becomes a hurricane	Environment-Hurricane		2025/06/10
Unrested Trump fights with Insurrection Act as Marines deploy to L.A.	Executive Power grab	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup.	2025/06/10
Trump using L.A. unrest to push his big bill in D.C.	Executive Power grab		2025/06/10
LAPD chief: Police had "no formal notification" of Marines' deployment to LA	Executive Power grab		2025/06/10
What powers does Trump have to send troops to cities — even if they don't want them	Executive Power grab		2025/06/10	constitutional crisis
Trump's $45m military parade will see 18 miles of fencing and 175 metal detectors installed in DC	Executive Power grab		2025/06/10
Pentagon draws up rules on possible use of force by Marines deployed to LA protests	Executive Power grab		2025/06/10
Fact-check: Trump's speech at Fort Bragg contained lies and conspiracy theories about LA	Fact check		2025/06/11
Musk's DOGE Goons Surreptitiously Transmitted Names of White House Data	Fuck that department	privacy, national security	2025/06/09
How the Musk-Trump feud became an online battle like no other	Fuck that guy		2025/06/09

		President Donald Trump said his former adviser, billionaire Elon Musk, would face "very serious consequences" if he financed candidates to challenge Republicans who support the president's legislative package for tax cuts and border security.
Trump threatens 'very serious consequences' if Elon Musk finances Republican challengers	Fuck that guy	In response, Trump has already threatened to cancel Musk's government subsidies for electric carmaker Tesla and contracts for rocket company SpaceX.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-threatens-very-serious-consequences-20250609	2025/06/09
Federal agencies were reportedly tracking foreigners, visiting with Musk afraid they were trying to influence the mogul	Fuck that guy	Federal agencies were tracking foreign nationals who visited Elon Musk over concerns that they could influence the tech billionaire, according to a report. Agencies, including the FBI and Department of Homeland Security, were reportedly among the agencies surveilling foreigners who met with Musk at his U.S. properties in 2022 and 2023, according to The Wall Street Journal, citing people familiar with the matter.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-agencies-were-reportedly-tracking-20250611	2025/06/11
Mike Johnson downplays Musk's influence and says Republicans will pass Trump's tax and budget bill	Government Budget	House Republican Conference Chair Lisa McClain has a stern warning for her Senate colleagues on the House-passed Trump budget bill: "Touch very lightly" and don't force a conference process. Senate Republicans are determined to put their mark on the "one big, beautiful bill." But the changes they're signaling would cross red lines for House GOP holdouts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/mike-johnson-downplays-musks-influence-20250609	2025/06/09
Senate Republican calls July 4 'false deadline' for megabill	Government Budget	Sen. John Curtis (R-Utah), a moderate Republican, called July 4 a "false deadline" for Republicans to pass their megabill and said it's more important for the Senate to get it done "right" than fast.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/senate-republican-calls-july-4-200150816-20250611	2025/06/11
House GOP to Senate: "Touch very lightly" on Trump budget bill	Government Budget	House Republican Conference Chair Lisa McClain has a stern warning for her Senate colleagues on the House-passed Trump budget bill: "Touch very lightly" and don't force a conference process. Senate Republicans are determined to put their mark on the "one big, beautiful bill." But the changes they're signaling would cross red lines for House GOP holdouts.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/trump-budget-bill-lisa-mcclain-senate-20250612	2025/06/12
How Trump's 'Big Beautiful Bill' threatens access to Obamacare	Government Budget	Major changes could be in store for the more than 24 million people with health coverage under the Affordable Care Act, including how and when they can enroll, the paperwork required, and, crucially, the premiums they pay.	https://www.rpr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/06/11/ax-1-5429	2025/06/12
The GOP's massive bill would benefit the rich the most — while hitting the poor	Government Budget	The tax cuts deliver the biggest savings for top earners and more modest gains for those with average incomes, the CBO found. For families making less than about $55,000 a year, the cutbacks in government benefits typically outweigh any tax savings, leaving them with a net loss.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12/mx-1-5431638/republican-gop-mega-b-20250613	2025/06/13
NH employees publish 'Bethesda Declaration' in dissent of Trump administration policies	Government Funding	The research terminations "throw away years of hard work and millions of dollars," the NH staffers wrote. "Ending a $5 million research study when it is 80% complete does not save $1 million, it wastes $4 million."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nh-employees-publish-bethesda-declaration-20250610	2025/06/10	Health, science, waste, research
Officially, 59,000 federal jobs are gone under Trump. There's more to the picture	Government Jobs	At least 75,000 have taken the Trump administration's offer to resign with pay and benefits through September. And thousands more remain in a state of limbo as numerous lawsuits have blocked parts of Trump's agenda.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/04/mx-1-5427477/trump-federal-workers-20250609	2025/06/09
What's the CBO? Meet the nonpartisan agency under fire from Republicans	Government-CBO	Importantly, CBO cost estimates are only advisory. The agency makes no policy recommendations. It's up to leaders to decide what to do with the information they receive.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/06/gig-1-70918/whats-the-cbo-meet-the-20250609	2025/06/09
More than 400 CDC staff may be called back to work after being laid off in April	Government-CDC	Federal officials on Wednesday appear to have "revoked" the layoffs of more than 400 employees of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention who had been abruptly dismissed months ago, which may reinstate the entire staff of a laboratory that tracks viral hepatitis and most employees in one of the CDC's environmental health divisions.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12/mx-1-5430893/cdc-employees-layoffs-20250612	2025/06/12
US Justice Department says Trump can cancel national monuments that protect landscapes	Government-DOJ	Lawyers for President Donald Trump's administration say he has the authority to abolish national monuments meant to protect historical and archaeological sites across broad landscapes, including two in California created by his predecessor at the request of Native American tribes.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-says-authority-cancel-20250611	2025/06/11
Trump's EPA plans to repeal climate pollution limits on fossil fuel power plants	Government-EPA	The Trump administration announced plans to repeal limits on greenhouse gas emissions and other airborne pollutants from the nation's fossil fuel-fired power plants.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/11/mx-1-5429678/trump-power-plants-epa-20250612	2025/06/12
FAA Orders Drastic Shakeup of Major Airport Following Safety Issues	Government-FAA	The Federal Aviation Administration has confirmed that flights in and out of Newark Liberty International airport will be cut significantly. From Sept. 1, just 28 flights will be permitted to arrive and depart from the airport every hour on weekends. The airport has been plagued with construction, tech, and staffing issues this year.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fea-orders-draastic-shakeup-major-12142-20250609	2025/06/09	Aviation, ACT,
Trump says FEMA to be wound down after hurricane season	Government-FEMA	President Donald Trump said on Tuesday he planned to start "phasing out" the Federal Emergency Management Agency after the hurricane season and that states would receive less federal aid to respond to natural disasters.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12/mx-1-5409403/trump-immigration-court-20250612	2025/06/12
Incensed House Democrats plan ICE funding war	Government-ICE	He said of being denied access to an ICE facility this weekend: "They ask for money, right? And then... I go there and they don't allow us to go and check out the facilities."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/ice-funding-trump-house-democrats-20250612	2025/06/12
ICE's novel strategy allows for more arrests from inside immigration courts	Government-ICE	He is one of over 100 people who have been arrested at immigration courts across the country as a part of ICE's latest strategy to meet its steep new 3,000-person daily arrest quota.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12/mx-1-5409403/trump-immigration-court-20250612	2025/06/12
Trump's border czar says protests are making immigration raids more 'difficult' and 'dangerous'	Government-ICE	White House border czar Tom Homan said Tuesday that protests in Los Angeles are complicating immigration raids, making them more "difficult" and more "dangerous."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-border-czar-says-protests-22200-20250612	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
What FIFA said about ICE operations at Club World Cup matches	Government-ICE	According to NBC Miami, the Department of Homeland Security confirmed that ICE agents will be at Hard Rock Stadium for Saturday's opener. Though the department claimed it would be there to provide additional security, ICE did include an ominous reminder "that all non-American citizens need to carry proof of their legal status."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fifa-said-ice-operations-club-102818774-20250612	2025/06/12	tourism
ICE slammed for overspending amid 'egregious' funding mismanagement in House report	Government-ICE	"Actions already taken in fiscal year 2025 are especially egregious—ICE began spending more than its appropriated level shortly after the fiscal year commenced and operations now far exceed available resources," the report states. Fiscal year 2025 began in October.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ohs-ice-20250612	2025/06/12
NASA, Pentagon push for SpaceX alternatives amid Trump's feud with Musk	Government-NASA	NASA and Pentagon officials moved swiftly this past week to urge competitors to Elon Musk's SpaceX to more quickly develop alternative rockets and spacecraft after President Donald Trump threatened to cancel Space X's contracts and Musk's defiant response.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nasa-pentagon-push-says-alternatives-20250609	2025/06/09
An Upsurge at the NIH	Government-NIH	The worried reaction within space and national security agencies highlights the risks of the government's heavy dependence on SpaceX for crucial tasks, including classified missions. SpaceX, with billions of dollars in government contracts, flies people and cargo to the ISS, launches satellites for the Pentagon and develops satellites used by intelligence agencies. The concerns are compounded by the fact that its competitors have been slow to catch up, leaving SpaceX's dominance largely unchallenged and the government with few options.	https://www.healthline.com/health/archives/2025/06/nih-bethesda-decl-20250610	2025/06/10
Guns are the leading cause of death of kids and teens, and state laws matter	Gun Deaths	Over the next 13 years, thousands more children died from firearm violence than earlier trends would have predicted – and all of the increase happened in groups of states that had more permissive gun laws, according to a study published Monday in JAMA Pediatrics.	https://www.rpr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/06/11/ax-1-5429-20250612	2025/06/12
States that weakened gun laws saw rise in pediatric mortality, study finds	Gun Nuts	Firearms have risen to become the leading cause of death among children and teens in the United States in recent years, but a new study joins a growing set of evidence that gun laws can make a difference.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/states-weakened-gun-laws-saw-1500030-20250610	2025/06/10
Australians endure shock, horror after gunman kills 10 at school	Guns-Mass murder	A landmark Supreme Court case in 2010 – McDonald v. Chicago – ruled that the Second Amendment applies to local governments, leading to a flurry of new laws and a deeper divide in state policy around firearms, with some states tightening restrictions and others weakening gun-related laws.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/australia-endure-shock-horror-gunman-1-20250611	2025/06/11

		Almost two million eggs have been recalled in the United States over concerns of salmonella contamination. — The eggs were distributed from February 3 through May 15, with sell-by dates from March 4 to June 4, within California and Nevada. Products were distributed at locations including Save Mart, FoodMaxx, Lucky, Smart & Final, Safeway, Raley's, Food 4 Less, and Ralphs. Eggs were also distributed from February 3 through May 6 with sell-by dates from March 4 to June 10 to Walmart locations in California, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, Wyoming, New Mexico, Nebraska, Indiana, and Illinois.
Egg recall over salmonella warning spans across nine states	Health and Safety	The recalled eggs will have the plant code number P-6562 or CAC530 printed on the carton or package, with Julian Dates between 32 and 126. The recalled retail eggs will be in fiber or plastic cartons, with the above codes printed on one side of the carton.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/egg-recall-over-salmonella-warning-1336	2025/06/09
Ever-rising height of car bonnets a 'clear threat' to children, report says	Health and Safety	In crashes, high-bonneted SUVs are more likely to strike the vital organs in the core of adults' bodies and the heads of children. Hitting pedestrians above their centre of gravity means they are more likely to be knocked forward and down and then be driven over. In contrast, low bonnets tend to hit pedestrians' legs, giving them a greater chance of falling on to the vehicle and being deflected to the side.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/11/ever-rising-height-car-bonnet	2025/06/11
Vaccine board purge stokes talk of CDC alternatives	Health- CDC	The distress and lack of organization apparent in health circles on Tuesday was a sign that a new independent body that could act as a "shadow CDC" to truth-squash the Trump administration isn't close to materializing.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/vaccines-public-health-aid-cdc-rk	2025/06/11
Hitler used a Bogus Crisis of 'Public Order' to Make Himself Dictator	History take 2	Three weeks later, on February 27, the Reichstag fire provided Hitler with the "absolutely necessary" excuse he needed. Hitler claimed that an arson attack on the Reichstag by a lone perpetrator—who was caught in the act—was the start of an attempted Bolshevik revolution, using that false claim to suspend civil liberties and suppress the voting rights of the German Communist Party, thereby enabling his supporters in the Reichstag to pass legislation granting him authoritarian power.	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/06/hitler-public-order/8/	2025/06/11
How ordinary man became unpaid Taliban enforcers in their own homes	Human rights	Last summer, three years after they swept to power in August 2021, the scale of the Taliban's ambition to erase women from public life was laid bare in their unveiling of an extensive set of "vice and virtue" laws.	https://www.theguardian.com/global-development/interactive/2025/	2025/06/09
Syria orders women to cover up on beaches with conservative new dress code	Human rights	Syria issued a conservative new dress code Tuesday requiring women to wear burkinis or full-body swimwear on all public beaches, the latest cultural shift since Islamist rebels toppled dictator Bashar al-Assad's regime last December.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/syria-orders-women-cover-beaches-1924	2025/06/11
Trump officials are vowing to end school desegregation orders. Some parents say they're still needed	Inequality	The orders were always meant to be temporary — school systems can be released if they demonstrate they fully eradicated segregation. Decades later, that goal remains elusive, with stark racial imbalances persisting in many districts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-officials-vowing-end-school-04012/	2025/06/10
The great poaching: America's brain drain begins	Information Blackout	The Trump administration's spending cuts and restrictions on foreign students are triggering a brain drain — and American scientists are panicking.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/07/us-science-brain-drain	2025/06/09	brain drain
Appeals court allows White House AP ban to continue	Information Blackout	A panel of judges from a U.S. federal appeals court on Friday said parts of the White House's ban on the Associated Press could remain, dealing a devastating blow to the AP.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/06/ap-ban-white-house-appeals-court	2025/06/09
Major US climate website likely to be shut down after almost all staff fired	Information Blackout	Climate.gov, the primary website for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)'s Climate Program Office, will imminently no longer publish new content, according to multiple former staff responsible for the site's content whose contracts were recently terminated.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/11/climate-website-shut	2025/06/11
Public media funding up in the air as House prepares to vote on claw back	Information Blackout	The House of Representatives narrowly approved legislation Thursday to eliminate the next two years of federal funding for public media outlets.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12np+st1.722223public-media-funding-up-in-the	2025/06/12
House votes to claw back $1.1 billion from public media	Information Blackout	It did so at the direct request of President Trump, who has accused NPR and PBS of bias against conservative viewpoints as part of his broader attacks on the mainstream media.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12np+st1.722223public-media-funding-up-in-the	2025/06/13
Almost all of the Fulbright board resigns, citing Trump administration interference	Information Blackout	All but one member of the 12-person board that oversees the prestigious Fulbright Program has resigned, citing political interference by the Trump administration.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12np+st1.54312470fulbright-board-resigns	2025/06/13	education, brain drain
Recovery Failure: Why we struggle to rebuild for the next storm	Infrastructure	Over the past eight months, NPR and the PBS series Frontline investigated how communities are building back from disasters, examining whether the $50 billion the federal government spends each year on average is helping communities build back safer and more able to survive the next storm.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/08np+st1.5321444helmes-deadly-warning	2025/06/09
Trump speaks to Netanyahu with Iran talks in the balance	International Relations	President Trump spoke Monday with Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, a Netanyahu aide and a source with direct knowledge said.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/05/trump-netanyahu-call-iran-talks-gaz	2025/06/10
Trump's travel ban is now in effect. Here's what to know	International Relations	The ban mostly affects countries in Africa and the Middle East. The man charged in the Colorado attack is from Egypt, which is not on the restricted list. Trump says countries can be added or removed over time.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/08np+st1.5427998trump-travel-ban-count	2025/06/10
Scoop: Gabbard tightens grip on intel assessments after Venezuela clash	International Relations	Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard has imposed a more intensive review process for inter-agency reports, slowing their publication and deepening internal fears about political influence on intelligence, two U.S. officials tell Axios.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/tulsi-gabbard-intelligence-leaks-dec	2025/06/11	national security, spies, putin's griffind.
U.S. evacuating personnel from the Middle East amid growing tensions with Iran	International Relations	The U.S. is evacuating nonessential staff from its Baghdad embassy and family members of military personnel from several bases in the Gulf amid growing concerns about the security situation, per two State Department and Pentagon officials.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/middle-east-evacuating-baghdad-ra	2025/06/12
Despite ongoing Taliban threats, the U.S. is ending some protections for Afghans	International Relations	The instruction to leave appeared in the inboxes of thousands of Afghans living in the U.S., delivered in a brief email in April from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). "You are currently here because the Department of Homeland Security paroled you into the United States for a limited period," the email stated. "Your parole will terminate 7 days from the date of this notice."	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12np+st1.5408198trump-immigration-afgh	2025/06/12
Hegseth says the Pentagon has contingency plans to invade Greenland if necessary	International Relations	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth appeared to acknowledge that the Pentagon has developed plans to take over Greenland and Panama by force if necessary but refused to answer repeated questions a highly combative congressional hearing Thursday about his use of Signal chats to discuss military operations.	https://apnews.com/article/hegseth-greenland-signal-congress-295602	2025/06/13
Brazil braces for Bolsonaro's day in court as ex-president testifies over 'coup plot'	International- Brazil	Bolsonaro's day in court, which is expected to come on Tuesday, is a milestone moment for a country that escaped from two decades of military dictatorship in 1985 but appears to have come perilously close to a return to authoritarian rule after the veteran leftist Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva beat Bolsonaro in the 2022 presidential election.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/09/brazil-bolsonaro-brazil-ax	2025/06/09
Chinese aircraft carrier group enters waters near Japan's easternmost island for first time	International- China	A Chinese aircraft carrier group has entered an area of Japan's territorial waters for the first time, prompting concern in Tokyo over China's expanding naval reach.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/02/chinese-aircraft-carrier	2025/06/09
Colombian Presidential hopeful shot at Bogotá rally	International- Colombia	The Laiooning carrier, accompanied by two missile destroyers and a supply ship, entered Japan's exclusive economic zone (EEZ) on Saturday evening, Japan's defence ministry said, before exiting to conduct military drills.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/08np+st1.5427998trump-immigration-afgh	2025/06/09
Iran says it will create a new uranium enrichment facility after a vote at the IAEA	International- Iran	The U.N. nuclear watchdog's board of governors on Thursday formally found that Iran isn't complying with its nuclear obligations for the first time in 20 years, a move that could lead to further tensions and set in motion an effort to restore United Nations sanctions on Tehran later this year.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/12np+st1.5431395iran-nuclear-enrichment	2025/06/12
Israeli forces seize Gaza-bound aid boat and detain Greta Thunberg and other activists	International- Israel	The Israeli forces seized a Gaza-bound aid boat and detained Greta Thunberg and other activists who were on board early Monday, enforcing a longstanding blockade of the Palestinian territory that has been tightened during the war with Hamas.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gaza-bound-aid-boat-carrying-01205830/	2025/06/09	Protest, famine, Freedom Fliotlla

		A Gaza-bound aid ship carrying Greta Thunberg and other activists, as well as food meant for the enclave, was intercepted early Monday by Israeli forces.
What to know about the intercepted Gaza-bound Freedom Flotilla Coalition	International-Israel	The Mavi Marmara is the second Freedom Flotilla Coalition ship targeted by Israel in just over a month. The Concordance was drone-bombed off the coast of Malta in early May. Though no injuries were reported, the FFCC's efforts to bring food and other aid to Gaza come as Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu blocked deliveries of food, water and medicine to the enclave in March, deepening the crisis for millions of Palestinians in Gaza. Israel's stunning and spreading operation overnight targeting Iran's nuclear facilities, missile sites, scientists and generals followed eight months of intensive clandestine preparations. The operation launched a new war in the Middle East that could draw in the U.S., demolished any hopes of a nuclear deal, and dealt arguably the biggest single blow to the Iranian regime since the 1979 revolution. And it is only just beginning.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/06/08/freedom-flotilla-coalition-palestine-a	2025/06/10
Israel's strike on Iran was 1 month in the making	International-Israel	Israel attacked Iran's capital early Friday in strikes that targeted the country's nuclear program and killed at least two top military officers, raising the potential for an all-out war between the two bitter Middle East adversaries. It appeared to be the most significant attack Iran has faced since its 1980s war with Iraq.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/06/13/how-israel-expedited-strike-iran-nuc	2025/06/13
Israel attacks Iran's nuclear and missile sites, prompting Iranian drone-strike retaliation	International-Israel	Smoldering tensions over Iran's rapidly advancing nuclear program boiled over and Iran quickly retaliated, sending a swarm of drones at Israel as Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei warned of "severe punishment."	https://apnews.com/article/iran-explosions-israel-tehran-0234a06a5f2	2025/06/13
Israel strikes Iran's nuclear sites, kills military chiefs and scientists	International-Israel	Trump told Fox News late Thursday that the U.S. was aware of the strikes ahead of time but was not involved militarily and hopes Iran will return to the negotiating table. He said CENTCOM is on high alert for retaliation against U.S. targets.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/06/13/israel-attacks-iran-trump-nuclear-talks	2025/06/13
Israel strikes hit more than 100 targets in Iran including nuclear facilities	International-Israel	Israeli strikes have hit more than 100 major targets in Iran, including nuclear facilities and missile sites, and killed senior military commanders and scientists in what Tehran said was a "declaration of war."	https://www.theguardian.com/usnews/2025/jun/13/israel-strikes-iran-nuc	2025/06/13
Massive Russian drone attack slams Kyiv and hits maternity hospital in Odesa, Ukrainian officials say	International-Russia	As Israeli officials indicated the strikes were the first phase of a larger operation, Donald Trump described the attack as "excellent" and warned further strikes would be more brutal unless Tehran agreed to back down over its nuclear program, contradicting Washington's official stance that the Israel action was unilateral.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/russia-strikes-kyiv-odesa-series-02193z7	2025/06/10
Torture and treason trials: what's happening in Tanzania?	International-Tanzania	Russia launched 315 drones at Ukraine overnight into Tuesday, in what Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said was "one of the largest" attacks on the capital Kyiv, as officials said a keymanly ward in the southern port city of Odesa had been hit.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/07/tanzania-torture-treason-trials-1a	2025/06/09
The many ways Ukraine carries out unprecedented drone attacks	International-Ukraine	The Ukrainians are the ones innovating and trying these daring and creative attacks. And then the Russians are left scrambling to figure out how to defend against it, and prevent another one," said Kelly Grieco, who studies the air war at the Stimson Center think tank in Washington.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/uk-st-5452306/the-many-ways-ukraine	2025/06/09	Technology, warfare, russia
Rep. McElroy is indicted on federal charges related to tusats at immigration facility	Lawmakers	A federal grand jury has indicted Rep. LaMonica McElroy, D-N.J., on three criminal counts, after the U.S. Attorney's Office in New Jersey alleged that she broke the law when Congress members' visit to an immigration detention facility ended in a physical altercation.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/uk-st-5452306/the-many-ways-ukraine	2025/06/12
Troops deployed to LA will cost $134M, Pentagon predicts	Military	President Donald Trump's decision to deploy troops to Los Angeles makes mass deportation protests will they cost $134 million, the Pentagon's budget chief told lawmakers.	https://www.politico.com/news/2025/06/10/troops-deployed-to-la-will-co	2025/06/11
National Guard can temporarily detain LA protesters, DHS	Military	National Guard troops have the authority to make temporary arrests in certain conditions in Los Angeles, a Trump administration officials said Wednesday.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/06/11/national-guard-la-protesters-cha	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
LA braces for Marines as California sues to stop military involvement	Military	Still unclear to city leaders, though, is what role the military will play. President Trump federalized 4,000 National Guard troops over the objection of California Gov. Gavin Newsom, and also sent in 700 Marines.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/uk-st-5452306/the-many-ways-ukraine	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
DHS spokesperson defends Trump administration's use of military in LA	Military	But experts in the laws governing the use of the military say the federalized National Guard and active-duty military, such as the Marines, can't act as police.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/uk-st-5452306/the-many-ways-ukraine	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
Hegseth defends military involvement in LA protests as defense secretary faces questions over costs and authority	Military	"For sure, they can't arrest," says William Banks, a Syracuse University professor who's written extensively on the question. He says the Posse Comitatus law of 1878 limits the use of the military inside the U.S.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-back-spoil/light-senators-capitol-100	2025/06/12
Pete Hegseth refuses to answer if they'll deploy military troops in LA	Military	"Even when the Guard are federalized by the President, no matter how he puts it, they can protect the federal property and the federal personnel, but they can't enforce the law at all," he says.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pete-hegseth-refuses-answer-theyll-1942	2025/06/12
Pentagon Rushes to Create New Rules as Trump Sends Marines to L.A.	Military	The Trump administration says it is investigating whether there is a "financial backer" for the anti-immigration enforcement protests in Los Angeles — suggesting it could be a "foreign adversary."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pentagon-rushes-create-rules-trump-140	2025/06/12
Kristi Noem pressed Pete Hegseth to have the military arrest civilians	Military	McLaughlin: I think that there's major questions right now about who is financially backing these protests. There's some activity on the ground that it seems that is highly coordinated, and that there might be a financial backer that could be even a foreign adversary, and we are having ICE, or, excuse me, the IRS and the FBI, look further into who might be backing these protests.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kristi-noem-pressed-pete-hegseth-20512	2025/06/12
Troops and marines deeply troubled by LA deployment, 'Words is not arrest'	Military	"How much are these deployments going to cost for both the Marines and the National Guard, and what training or duties are not taking place because of these deployments?" McColium asked the defense secretary. "Where in your limited budget, sir, are you going to find in the remainder of this fiscal year, are you going to put the money to cover these deployments, what holes are being created?"	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/12/los-angeles-nationa	2025/06/12
Texas governor orders national guard to deploy for protests in San Antonio	Military	Hegseth initially declined to answer the question directly, instead reiterating that he believes Immigration and Customs Enforcement, or ICE, "has the right to safely conduct operations in any state and any jurisdiction in the country." He ultimately responded that under the new budget request, the Defense Department will "have the funding to cover down on contingencies, especially ones as important as maintaining law and order in a major American city."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/12/texas-protests-natio	2025/06/12
Troops can deploy California National Guard to LA after appeals court steps in	Military	The Trump administration's deployment of California's National Guard to Los Angeles over Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) raids can continue for now, an appeals court ruled late Thursday.	https://www.aviva.com/2025/06/13/trump-la-california-national-guard-d	2025/06/13
Gov. Abbott deploys thousands of troops across Texas ahead of statewide immigration protests	Military	Gov. Greg Abbott has deployed thousands of Texas National Guard troops and Department of Public Safety troopers across the state ahead of a wave of immigration protests expected this weekend.	https://www.kernews.org/texas-news/2025-06-12/texas-trump-gre-ab	2025/06/13
Guard Soldiers Deployed in Trump's LA Crackdown Aren't Getting Paid Yet	Military	The 4,000 California National Guard soldiers who President Donald Trump surged into Los Angeles remain unpaid due to delays in issuing official activation orders, leaving compensation and benefits in limbo.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/guard-soldiers-deployed-trumps-la-22345	2025/06/13
Pentagon investigator admits to faking dozens of Top Secret security clearance background checks	National security	A federal contractor tasked with performing background checks on Department of Defense employees seeking high-level security clearances coped to submitting means of bogus reports when she claimed to have thoroughly vetted candidates who, in fact, had not been properly checked out.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pentagon-investigator-admits-faking-doz	2025/06/12
The Trump-Musk Feud Revealed Two Massive National Security Concerns	National security	Of 39 allegedly fraudulent investigations Nousehen Qureshi carried out over the course of more than a year for the Defense Counterintelligence Security Agency, at least a half-dozen included fabricated "interviews" with people who later said they had never even heard from her at all according to a plea agreement obtained first by The Independent.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-musk-feud-revealed-two-133211f4	2025/06/13
National security agencies embrace AI for operations	National security	First, there's the deeply alarming fact that Trump openly threatened to use the power of the presidency to exact personal revenge. We've seen this many times already since he returned to the presidency less than five months ago, but it's an undemocratic, corrupt practice that may be routine in dictatorships but should be unacceptable in solid democracies.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/national-security-agencies-embrace-ai	2025/06/13
Vance voices loyalty to Trump but says he 'understands' Musk's frustration	Political Cesspool	As president, Trump's duty is to make decisions in the national interest. If the contracts made sense before the falling out, they should still make sense after it.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/07/uk-st-5452618/vance-theo-von-trump-4	2025/06/09
Kristi Noem: the made-for-TV official executing Trump's mass deportations	Political Cesspool	But the contracts were actually deeply troubling before, and the dispute and threats highlight just how dangerously dependent the U.S., as well as other countries, have become on companies controlled by a single individual, and a volatile one with a troubling ideology at that.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/07/kristi-noem-trumps	2025/06/09

		FBI Director Kash Patel has been mocked online after responding to anti-ICE protests in Los Angeles, telling demonstrators that if you "h1t a cop, you're going to jail."
Kash Patel dragged for 'hit a cop, you're going to jail' threat to LA anti-ICE protesters. 'Unless it's for Trump'	Political Cesspool	Patel's tweet on Saturday night prompted some social media users to point out the irony, "Unless you're doing it for Trump," one user responded to Patel's comment, with another adding, "Unless you are trying to overturn an election."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/kash-patel-tweet-anti-ice-protesters-2025-06-09	2025/06/09
Dr. Oz on Medicaid cuts: People should 'prove that you matter'	Political Cesspool	"Go out there, do entry-level jobs, get into the workforce, prove that you matter. Get agency into your own life," he added. "It's a much more enjoyable experience if you go through life thinking you are in control of your destiny and you will get better insurance at the same time."	https://nphill.com/policy/healthcare/534508-dr-oz-medicaid-cuts-work	2025/06/09
Florida agent tells newspaper to halt reporting angle on foundation associated with governor's wife	Political Cesspool	Florida's chief welfare agency sent a letter to a Florida newspaper telling it to "cease and desist" its reporting on foster families for a story about a nonprofit associated with Gov. Ron DeSantis while that is the subject of an investigation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/florida-agency-tells-newspaper-halt-1745	2025/06/10
		Border czar Tom Homan once again admitted with complete confidence that many of the people arrested in recent ICE raids have zero criminal history. "Does everyone that has been arrested by ICE agents have a criminal record like you've described?" an MSNBC host asked Homan on Monday.
		"Absolutely not," Homan replied.
ICE Director Admits He's Rounding Up People Without Criminal Records	Political Cesspool	Homan and ICE continue to operate their draconian deportation campaign with impunity, rounding up anyone they can find to get their arrest and deportation numbers up. As of June 1, there were 7,781 people in ICE detention with no criminal record.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-director-admits-rounding-people-1545	2025/06/10
		Speaker Mike Johnson on Tuesday once again aligned himself with President Donald Trump, saying the president is "absolutely right" to send the National Guard and Marines to Los Angeles as protests over against Immigration and Customs Enforcement continue -- and sided with the president's criticism of California Gov. Gavin Newsom, adding that the California governor should be "harred and feathered."	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/speaker-johnson-backing-trumps-la-act	2025/06/11
Speaker Johnson, backing Trump's LA actions, says, Newsom should be 'harred and feathered'	Political Cesspool	Chief of staff to the secretary of defense is usually a prestigious and sought-after job, but under Pete Hegseth, the White House is reportedly having trouble filling it. At least three people have turned down top Defense Department jobs—including chief of staff and several senior adviser roles—since Hegseth abruptly fired three of his top aides in April and accused them of leaking information to the press, NBC News reported.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/people-keep-refusing-become-pete-1415	2025/06/11
People Keep Refusing to Become Pete Hegseth's Top Aides	Political Cesspool	Republican Rep. Nancy Mace of South Carolina wants to take "every last federal dollar from cities who choose mob rule over law and order" through a bill she introduced this week in response to protests against immigration enforcement in Los Angeles.
		Mace's bill, the Lawless Cities Accountability Act, co-introduced this week by Rep. Brandon Gill, R-Texas, would block federal funding—including salaries and grants—for local officials in cities deemed "lawless" due to ongoing unrest or failure to enforce laws. It would also give the federal government, likely the U.S. attorney general, the administration, authority to prosecute federal judges who are considered "lawless."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/12/m-1-5425555-trumps-defund-lawless-cities	2025/06/13
As protests spread, GOP Rep. Nancy Mace wants to defund 'lawless' cities	Political Cesspool	"He is not the same person that I dealt with just four years ago, and he's incapable of even a train of thought," Newsom, a potential 2028 presidential contender, told Fox LA. "He's lost it."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/12/gavin-newsom-trump-mental-fitness	2025/06/12
Heg's last fit: Inside Newsom's attack on Trump's mental fitness	Political in fighting	The jarring scene of Padilla, a Democrat, being forcefully removed from Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem's press conference after interrupting it—and then being dragged to the ground and handcuffed—fell like kryptonite on the nation's political fire.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/13/lives-padilla-trump-democracy	2025/06/13
Padilla episode triggers five-alarm fire for Democrats	Political in fighting	Twenty-seven states and the District of Columbia on Monday filed a lawsuit in bankruptcy court seeking to block the sale of personal genetic data by 23andMe without customer consent. The lawsuit comes as a biotechnology company seeks the court's approval to buy the struggling firm.	https://abcnews.go.com/Technology/wireStory/dozens-states-sue-block	2025/06/11
Dozens of states sue to block the sale of 23andMe data without customer consent	Privacy	Americans' right data may have been sold to Customs and Border Protection (CBP) without their knowledge, internal CBP documents obtained by 404 Media suggest.
		"The big airlines—through a shady data broker that they own called ARC—are selling the government bulk access to Americans' sensitive information, revealing where they fly and the credit card they used," Democratic Sen. Ron Wyden said in a statement. "ARC has refused to answer oversight questions from Congress, so I have already contacted the major airlines that own ARC—like Delta, American Airlines, and United—to find out why they gave the green light to let their customers' data to the government."
Major airlines may have been secretly selling your flight data to DHS, report claims	Privacy	Publicly shared documents show that ARC is owned and operated by at least eight top U.S. airlines.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/major-airlines-may-secretly-selling-1924	2025/06/13
		Customs and Border Protection is flying surveillance drones over the Los Angeles protests, the agency confirmed in a statement on Thursday. The drones in question are MQ-8 Predators, some models of which are equipped with technology that would enable high-altitude surveillance. In a statement to 404 Media, which first reported the presence of the drones, Customs and Border Protection (CBP) said the drones were deployed to support "our federal law enforcement partners in the Greater Los Angeles area, including Immigration and Customs Enforcement, with aerial support of their operations." ICE conducts raids and arrests, activity that has ramped up under Donald Trump's administration and against which protesters in Los Angeles have been demonstrating.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/up-immigration-agency-flies-drones-1645	2025/06/13	Protest, surveillance state, executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
US Immigration agency flies drones capable of surveillance over LA protests	Privacy	President Trump signed a memorandum deploying 2,000 National Guard soldiers on Saturday following federal immigration sweeps that sparked fiery protests in Los Angeles County.
		"LA authorities are able to access law enforcement assistance at a moment's notice," Newsom said. "We are in close coordination with the city and county, and there is currently no unmet need." He said in an earlier post: "The federal government is slowing chaos so they can have an excuse to escalate. That is not the way any civilized country behaves."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/los-angeles-california-immigration-g	2025/06/09	Constitutional Crisis
Trump deploys National Guard amid fiery LA County protests	Protest	Protesters are taking to the streets and community hubs nationwide on June 14 in what organizers expect will be the largest single-day anti-President Trump rally since the start of the administration. The widespread movement will run counter to Trump's multimillion dollar military parade in D.C.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/07/trump-protest-trump-military-parade	2025/06/09
What to know about counterprotests to Trump's June 14 parade	Protest	Over the past several days, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents around the country have confronted with angry crowds protesting their actions in cities from Minneapolis to Chicago to Los Angeles. This most recent spate of encounters has become heated.
		"I got out of control because of the way that they showed up," says San Diego council member Sean Elo-Rivera, referring to ICE agents conducting a raid on a local Italian restaurant. Members of the public surged around the agents, at one point surrounding their cars. The immigration authorities discharged flash-bangs, leading to a chaotic scene.
		"They wanted to make a show of it, so they did it on Friday night at dinner time. They wanted to make a show of this so they showed up in far more numbers than they needed to," Elo-Rivera says. "And the use of masks I think is incredibly concerning."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/08/m-1-5425554-ice-raids-grow-tense-as	2025/06/09
ICE raids grow tense as protesters confront	Protest	Tensions between the Trump administration and California intensified this weekend as President Donald Trump decided to deploy 2,000 National Guard members to the Los Angeles area, a move the state's Democratic leaders cast as an unnecessary escalation amid protests over the administration's immigration policies.
		In calls that stretched into Friday evening, officials prepared for what one source described as a Portland-type incident, harking back to protests that erupted in that Oregon city in 2020, as protesters surrounded a federal building in Los Angeles. The Department of Homeland Security prepared to surge resources to Los Angeles, including armored vehicles and less-lethal munitions like gas and pepper balls, and to deploy hundreds more personnel from across the department, according to two sources familiar with the calls.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/more-trump-administration-decision-dep	2025/06/09	constitutional crisis, police state
Inside the Trump administration's decision to deploy the National Guard to California	Protest	Swedish campaigner Greta Thunberg was deported from Israel on Tuesday, the Israeli Foreign Ministry said, the day after the Israel navy prevented her and a group of fellow pro-Palestinian activists from sailing to Gaza.
Greta Thunberg deported from Israel after Gaza boat seized	Protest	Three other people who had been aboard the charity vessel also agreed to immediate repatriation. Eight other crew members are contesting their deportation order, Israeli rights group Adalah, which advised them, said in a statement.	https://www.reuters.com/world/europe/israel-set-deport-greta-thunberg-2025-06-10	2025/06/10
Over 20 arrested at Trump Tower rally as ICE protests, seized access U.S.	Protest	Police in New York City arrested about two dozen protesters at Trump Tower in Manhattan Monday, as demonstrators against Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) raids spread to more U.S. cities on Monday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/10/ice-protests-la-nationwide-trump-tow	2025/06/10
28 Surreal, Disturbing Images From The National Guard Clashing With Deportation Protesters That I'm Expecting To See In A History Textbook One Day	Protest	Photos	https://www.yahoo.com/news/donald-trump-deployed-national-guard-2	2025/06/11
Marines in LA as ICE protests spread to more U.S. cities, in photos	Protest	Demonstrators across the U.S. are protesting the Trump administration's hardline immigration policies. While most rallies were peaceful, there were reports of standoffs between police and protesters in several cities—including in LA during the curfew.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/ice-protests-marines-us-cities-phy	2025/06/11	Protest, executive overreach, military
		Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass imposed a curfew in downtown LA on Tuesday during a fifth straight day of fiery protests against Immigration and Customs Enforcement raids. The curfew that will be in effect from 8pm Tuesday to 6am Wednesday local time comes as Bass moves to address looting and vandalism that have occurred during the protests and as the Trump administration and Democratic leaders are embroiled in a stand-off over a response.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/ice-protests-ice-curfew-marines	2025/06/11
Mayor imposes curfew in downtown LA	Protest	Trump's extraordinary measures of sending National Guard and Marines to quell protests in Los Angeles has sparked a national debate on the use of military on U.S. soil and pitted the Republican president against California's Democrat governor.
		"This brazen abuse of power by a sitting president inflamed a combustible situation, putting our people, our officers and even our National Guard at risk. That's when the downward spiral began," California Governor Gavin Newsom said in a video address on Tuesday.
US cities brace for more protests as parts of Los Angeles placed under curfew	Protest	"He again chose escalation. He chose more force. He chose theatrics over public safety... Democracy is under assault."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-cities-brace-more-protests-071230407	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
		"If there's any protester who wants to come out, they will be met with very big force," the president said Tuesday during an impromptu Oval Office press conference. "I haven't even heard about a protest, but there are people that hate our country."
Trump: Protests in DC will be met with 'very heavy force'	Protest	Trump's threat came as thousands of National Guard troops and about 700 marines are in Los Angeles, clashing with protesters of the president's immigration agenda. Trump claimed Tuesday without evidence the demonstrators were "paid insurgents" and said the city would have experienced "a lot of death and destruction" if he had not sent in the Guard.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-protests-dc-met-very-192214569-1	2025/06/11
Dozens Of Journalists Targeted, Shot, Detained While Covering LA Protests, Press Org Says	Protest	There have been more than 30 incidents of police violence against journalists as of Tuesday, including 20 injuries, at least five of which required emergency room or urgent care visits, said Adam Rose, the press rights chair with the Los Angeles Press Club, which released a statement Monday urging an end to the targeting of journalists whose work is constitutionally protected.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/dozens-journalists-targeted-shot-detainee	2025/06/11	Freedom of the press
		But military experts have raised practical concerns about the unclear parameters of the Marines' objective. They also warn that sending in Marines without a request from a governor—a highly unusual step that has not been made since the civil rights era in 1965—could potentially inflame the situation.
As Marines arrive in L.A., military experts raise concerns. 'This could spiral out of control'	Protest	U.S. Marines are trained for overseas conflict zones, with deployments in recent decades in Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan. But the roles they have played in those nations—including providing artillery support to coalition forces fighting against Islamic State militants and advising and training local security forces—are quite different from what they might face as they confront protesters in Los Angeles.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/marines-streets-bring-peril-230506398-1	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Pam Bondi: LA protesters 'very different' to Jan. 6 rioters, Trump warned	Protest	"Right now, in California, what we're doing is working," Bondi said, after being asked about whether Trump would invoke the 1807 law that allows presidents to deploy U.S. troops to quell domestic unrest.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/12/la-protests-jan-6-riot-trump-bondi	2025/06/12	political cesspool
Immigration enforcement ramps up, tensions persist in big cities	Protest	Meanwhile, Texas Gov. Greg Abbott ordered National Guard troops to San Antonio and Austin ahead of protests expected on Saturday.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/m-1-54320914/immigration-enforcement	2025/06/12
Protests grow across the U.S. as people push against Trump's mass deportation policies	Protest	"They're desperately showing up to rallies because they might get picked up by ICE, so I think we have to stand up, said Arifaz, who asked NPR to not use his last name out of fear for his safety. "And those who are able to stand up have a higher and urgent responsibility to do it today."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/m-1-5432819/protests-grow-across-th	2025/06/12
		The state's politicians and journalists offer a competing rebuttal that Trump touched off several days of protest and disruption with raids that went far beyond targeting criminals, as he previously promised, then escalated the conflict by taking the highly unusual step of sending the National Guard and Marines to Southern California.
After images of unrest comes the political spin, distorting the reality on the ground in L.A.	Protest	Reaction to the raids by federal Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents and the subsequent turmoil will have Americans on what have become partisan lines that have become so predictable they are "cathartic," said Lynn Vavreck, a political science professor at UCLA.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/images-unrest-political-spin-distort-20512	2025/06/12	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest, protest
Trump Threatens to Crush Violent Protests in Every State	Protest	Donald Trump has warned that protesters trying to thwart his immigration crackdown in other states will be met with equal or greater force than demonstrators in Los Angeles.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-threatens-crush-violent-protests-2	2025/06/12
		American history has the receipts. As we approach the 250th anniversary of this nation's birth, it ought to be common knowledge that putting the National Guard into the center of turmoil is not to be taken at lightly. Federalizing the California Guard to quell a supposed insurrection on the streets of greater Los Angeles is a bold move of presidential showmanship and look-tough optimism. It is also rely on many myths.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/contributor-california-long-history-national-guard-extraction-to-peaceful-protesters	2025/06/13

		Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis gave drivers the green light to strike protesters who take to the streets against President Donald Trump's immigration crackdown.
DeSantis gives green light for drivers to hit protesters: 'You have a right'	Protest	DeSantis signed a controversial bill promoted as an "anti-riot" measure that ended driver liability for hitting protesters and created new crimes, including aggravated rioting and mob intimidation, that makes it illegal for a group of three or more individuals to confront others and intimidate them into changing their views.	https://www.msn.com/en-us/news/politics/deSantis-gives-green-light-for-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Trump proposes 'automatic' year in jail for action protected under 1st Amendment	Protest	"People that burn the American flag should go to jail for one year," the 47th president said during a speech at Fort Bragg, North Carolina on Tuesday. "That's what they should be doing." "I happen to think if you burn an American flag — because they were burning a lot of flags in Los Angeles — I think you go to jail for one year," he said. "Just automatic."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-proposes-automatic-jail-action-101-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Millions in US expected to protest against Trump in 'No Kings' demonstrations	Protest	Sending people automatically to jail would violate the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, which reads that no person will be "deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law." Millions of people are expected to protest against the Trump administration on Saturday at roughly 2,000 sites nationwide in a demonstration dubbed "No Kings", planned for the same day as the president's military parade and birthday. No Kings is not hosting an event in Washington DC, intending to take the focus off the military parade and show the power of the people outside the nation's capital. Philadelphia will host a flagship march instead, and a DC-based organization is hosting a "DC Joy Day" in the district that will "celebrate DC's people, culture, and our connections to one another." "We did not want to give him the excuse to crack down on counter-protesters in DC," Levin said. "We didn't want to give him the narrative device to say we're protesting the military. Instead, we wanted to make him look as small and weak as he is, and protest everywhere else in the country."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/13/no-kings-protests	2025/06/13
Florida sheriff warns protesters ahead of nationwide rallies: 'We will kill you dead'	Protest	A Florida sheriff issued a stark message to protesters planning to demonstrate this weekend against increasing ICE arrests nationwide. Brevard County Sheriff Wayne Ivey warned in a press conference Thursday that if any protesters "throw a brick, a firebomb, or point a gun," they will be killed. "If you block an intersection or a roadway in Brevard County, you are going to jail. If you flee arrest, you're going to go to jail fired because we are going to run you down and put you in jail," Brevard County Sheriff Wayne Ivey said.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/florida-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
'We're gonna have troops everywhere', Trump's use of the military to quell protests is a shocking abuse of power, experts warn	Protest	Donald Trump sending in the military to quell protests in Los Angeles and threatening to do the same in other American cities is an "unprecedented" use of presidential power that will have a "chilling" effect on free speech and protest, legal and political experts have warned.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Anti-ICE protests start forming in New York City, Austin, and Santa Ana	Protest	Now the unrest has reached other locations including New York City, Austin, Texas, and Santa Ana, California.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-pro-2025/06/10	2025/06/10
LA immigration protests live updates: Trump calls on LAPD to request Guard 'now'	Protest- LA	The Trump administration has deployed the California National Guard in response to protests in Los Angeles that began Friday evening over immigration enforcement operations, which resulted in some clashes between demonstrators and authorities, the White House said in a statement. The protest continued through the weekend to Sunday evening, where demonstrators halted traffic on the 101 Freeway as Los Angeles police deemed it an unlawful assembly.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/la-immigration-protests-live-updates-030-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Gavin Newsom Demands Trump Administration Remove National Guard From L.A. Amid ICE Protests: 'Rescind the Order, Return Control to California'	Protest- LA	Newsom announced the move in an Instagram post Sunday afternoon, sharing his official letter to Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth and writing, "I have formally requested the Trump Administration rescind their unlawful deployment of troops in Los Angeles County and return them to my command. We didn't have a problem until Trump got involved. This is a serious breach of state sovereignty — inflaming tensions while pulling resources from where they're actually needed. Rescind the Order. Return order to California." Word quickly spread on social media. Passersby honked their horns. Soon, protesters arrived. "This is the situation," Solache, the Assemblymember, said, turning the camera to show dozens of uniformed Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents outside the black gates, as people held up cameras to the scene and marquee music blared. The scene began to turn darker as agents formed a line and brought out rifles that shot out tear gas and pushed the crowds back. But near the gates, any time federal agents saw that protesters threw anything toward them or neared the police line, they shot out tear gas or flash-bang rounds. There were about 100 people there. As the crowd grew, sheriff's deputies were deployed to block off a perimeter on the east and west, near the 710 Freeway. Protesters shouted at deputies, asking why they were helping. Then a U.S. Marshall bus pulled up to Alondra from the freeway. The crowd surrounded the bus trying to push it back, kicking at it until tear gas was shot.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gavin-newsom-demands-trump-administrat-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
What really happened outside the Paramount Home Depot? The reality on the ground vs. the rhetoric	Protest- LA	House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) said Sunday that deploying the Marine Corps to Los Angeles to suppress protests, as Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth has suggested, would not be "heavy-handed."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/what-really-happened-outside-paramount-hom-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Johnson: Deploying Marines to Los Angeles protests, would not be 'heavy-handed'	Protest- LA	"You know, one of our core principles is maintaining peace through strength. We do that on foreign affairs and domestic affairs as well. I don't think that's heavy-handed," Johnson responded. Patel lauded Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass (D-Calif.) who shared a post declaring that she wouldn't "stand for the law enforcement efforts that 'deeply angered' her" and other constituents. The FBI chief responded in a quote tweet with the statement, "We will."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/johnson-deploying-marines-los-angeles-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Bongino, Patel defend ICE amid unrest over Los Angeles raids	Protest- LA	White House deputy chief of staff Stephen Miller also chimed in telling Bass, "You have no say in this at all. Federal law is supreme and federal law will be enforced." Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth said on X that the Guard was being deployed "immediately to support federal law enforcement in Los Angeles. And, if violence continues, active duty Marines at Camp Pendleton will also be mobilized — they are on high alert."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bongino-patel-defend-ice-amid-19235071-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
The National Guard comes to Los Angeles: What's going to happen next?	Protest- LA	California Gov. Gavin Newsom said local law enforcement was already mobilized and that sending in troops was a move that was "purposely inflammatory" and would "only escalate tensions." It was the third day of demonstrations against Trump's immigration crackdown in the region, as the arrival of around 300 federal troops spurred anger and fear among some residents. Sunday's protests in Los Angeles, a city of 4 million people, were centered in several blocks of downtown. Starting in the morning, National Guard troops stood shoulder to shoulder, carrying long guns and riot shields outside the Metropolitan Detention Center in downtown Los Angeles. Protesters shouted "shame" and "go home." After some closely approached the guard members, another set of uniformed officers advanced on the group, shooting smoke-filled canisters into the street. Minutes later, the Los Angeles Police Department fired rounds of crowd-control munitions to disperse the protesters, who they said were assembled unlawfully. Much of the group then moved to block traffic on the 101 freeway until state patrol officers cleared them from the roadway by late afternoon, while southbound lanes remained shut down.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/national-guard-comes-los-angeles-10000-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Protests intensify in Los Angeles after Trump deploys hundreds of National Guard troops	Protest- LA	Photos	https://www.yahoo.com/news/national-guard-troops-arrive-los-1000097-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Photos: A fierce pushback on ICE raids in L.A. from protesters, officials	Protest- LA	Photos	https://www.yahoo.com/news/photos-fierce-pushback-ice-raids-164543-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
MAGA Melts Down Over Anti-ICE 'Insurrectionists'	Protest- LA	Doubling down, he responded to footage of protestors attempting to stop an ICE bus with the message, "Depot the invaders, or surrender to insurrection. These are the choices." FBI deputy director Dan Bongino also posted to X on Saturday afternoon, urging a protester who was recorded throwing rocks at law enforcement vehicles to turn themselves in. Miller repeated footage of a different Customs and Border Protection vehicle being pelted with rocks, adding the caption, "This is a violent insurrection."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maga-melts-down-over-anti-ice-10000662-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Trump news at a glance: California's Newsom compares Trump to a 'dictator' over national guard deployment	Protest- LA	California's governor, Gavin Newsom, is leading critics of Donald Trump over his decision to send 2,000 national guard troops to Los Angeles, blaming his actions to those of a "dictator". Newsom has demanded Trump rescind the order and accused the president of inciting and provoking violence, creating mass chaos, militarizing cities and arresting opponents. "These are the acts of a dictator, not a President," he wrote in a social media post. He also shared a sharp rebuke signed by all of the country's Democratic governors describing protesters as "an alarming abuse of power".	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-news-glance-california-newsom-01-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Newsom blasts deployment of National Guard to L.A. as 'purposely inflammatory'	Protest- LA	In a statement, Newsom said Trump was moving to take over the California National Guard and deploy 2,000 soldiers, which the governor said would "only escalate tensions" after protesters confronted immigration agents making raids on local businesses. Trump's move came without Newsom's signature, presumably by invoking Title 10, the legal basis for activating and mobilizing the Guard.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/newsom-blasts-deployment-national-guar-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Trump Sparks Backlash Ordering National Guard to L.A. Protests	Protest- LA	However, there has been conflict as to what the best course of action should be. In a move that prompted division, Trump ordered the California National Guard to quell the immigration protests, moving to deploy 2,000 soldiers to the Los Angeles area. "These radical left protests, by instigators and often said troublemakers, will not be tolerated. Also, from now on, masks will not be allowed to be worn at protests. What do these people have to hide, and why?" Trump said via Truth Social.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-sparks-backlash-ordering-national-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Police clash with Los Angeles protesters as opposition to Trump intensifies	Protest- LA	Trump's decision to deploy national guard troops into Los Angeles, against the wishes of state and local officials, has sent shockwaves through American politics. California's governor, Gavin Newsom, and other Democratic governors have sharply criticized the move, describing it as an "alarming abuse of power". Newsom has called on the administration to rescind the "unlawful" deployment.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/09/los-angeles-protests	2025/06/09
'We're not afraid of you': LA protesters, enraged by Trump, flood the streets	Protest- LA	"This is a serious breach of state sovereignty — inflaming tensions while pulling resources from where they're actually needed. Rescind the order. Return control to California," Newsom said, hundreds of Angelenos enraged by Donald Trump's decision to commandeer their state national guard swamped the downtown streets on Sunday, bringing a major freeway to a standstill. But the national guard, hemmed in by the protesters and by dozens of Los Angeles police cruisers, played almost no role in any of it.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/09/los-angeles-protests	2025/06/09
Protests intensify in Los Angeles after Trump deploys hundreds of National Guard troops	Protest- LA	Some police patrolled the streets on horseback while others with riot gear lined up behind Guard troops deployed to protect federal facilities including a detention center where some immigrants were taken in recent days. Police declared an unlawful assembly, and by early evening many people had left.	https://apnews.com/article/immigration-protests-raids-los-angeles-78ea-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Newsom taunts Trump's 'tough guy' border czar to 'come out me' after arrest threat	Protest- LA	California Governor Gavin Newsom has escalated his war of words with Donald Trump's administration over its handling of this weekend's tensions in Los Angeles by challenging the president's border czar Tom Homan to arrest him.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/gavin-n-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Donald Trump Jr. weighs into L.A. crisis by suggesting protesters should be shot by 'Toohee Koyanah'	Protest- LA	Donald Trump Jr. has attempted to make light of the ongoing tensions in Los Angeles by calling for the city to "Make Rooftop Koreans Great Again!" Donald Trump's eldest son posted a meme on X of a Korean-American business owner inspecting a rifle on a rooftop in reference to the Los Angeles riots of 1992, which erupted in response to the acquittal of four Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) officers caught on video beating Black motorist Rodney King.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/la-prote-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Scop: Cotton urges GOP senators to double down on fiery LA protests	Protest- LA	Senate Republican leadership is urging senators to double down on condemning the chaotic protests that erupted over the weekend in Los Angeles, Axios has learned. Republicans want to specifically target California Governor Gavin Newsom. The Cotton staffer encouraged Senate offices to paint Newsom as "the least desirable of these rob."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/09/los-angeles-protests-republican-sen-2025/06/10	2025/06/10
National Guard in L.A.: What they can do after Trump called them in to quell protests	Protest- LA	Trump's Saturday memorandum federalizing troops cited 10 U.S.C. 12406, a provision that allows the president to call members of a state's National Guard wherever, among other situations, there is "a rebellion" or "the President is unable with the regular forces to execute the laws of the United States."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/09/national-guard-in-l-a-protests-incurred-2025/06/10	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
LA protests: What to know as the National Guard mobilizes	Protest- LA	Protesters in LA and nearby cities took to the streets late last week to push back on several immigration enforcement actions in the area. ICE acting director Todd Lyons said in a Saturday statement that more than 1,000 rioters surrounded a federal building in LA, and that it took the LAPD "over two hours" to respond. The LAPD said in a statement it "mobilized and acted as swiftly as conditions safely allowed," noting that "irritants" deployed by federal agents created a "hazardous environment" for officers.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/la-protests-national-guard-ice-2025/06/10	2025/06/10

		President Trump's deployment of the National Guard to break up immigration protests in Los Angeles is a dangerous abuse of power that puts Americans in danger, Hina Shamsi, the ACLU's National Security Project director, told NPR. "It's really recklessly undermining our foundational democratic principle that the military should not be policing civilians," Shamsi said in an interview with Morning Edition after a weekend of clashes between protestors, LA police, federal agents and troops.
Trump using National Guard in LA is an 'abuse of power,' says national security expert	Protest- LA	1. Protesters clashed with police and troops on Sunday In downtown Los Angeles Sunday, two protests converged near the Metropolitan Detention Center, a federal prison where immigrants were held. The demonstrations grew rowdy and tense. NPR reporters say tear gas was deployed and an "unlawful assembly" was declared from a Los Angeles Police Department helicopter. 2. Trump warned more troops could come On Sunday evening, Trump told reporters that the federal government would ensure there's "law and order." He described the Los Angeles protests as a "riot" and said that justified calling in the National Guard to support ICE agents. Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth said in a post on X Saturday that active duty Marines at Camp Pendleton also were on high alert and would also be mobilized "if violence continues." Trump said he could also deploy troops to more cities. ICE actions sparked protests in multiple cities across the country, including Minneapolis and Chicago. 3. Local authorities pushed back on Trump — hard "We don't have a problem until Trump got involved," Newsom wrote. "This is a serious breach of state sovereignty — inflaming tensions while pulling resources from where they're actually needed." The Democratic Governors Association issued a statement calling Trump's National Guard deployment "an alarming abuse of power." 4. It sets the stage for more clashes At Camp David, Trump said he plans to meet with people, including generals and admirals. Asked about sending Marines and protests in other cities, Trump left open that possibility. "The bar is what I think it is. I mean, if we see danger to our country and to our citizens, we'll be very strong in terms of law and order. It's about law and order," Trump said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/09/mx-st-5427168/los-angeles-national-guard	2025/06/10	abuse of power, constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
4 things to know about the immigration raid protests, just east of LA this weekend	Protest- LA	UPDATED with new Trump comment: Reeling from widespread harsh ICE raids and responding protests and resistance over the past 24 hours, Los Angeles has become a powder keg with Donald Trump deploying 2,000 California National Guard troops over the objection of Governor Gavin Newsom and other SoCal leaders.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/09/mx-st-5427215/what-to-know-los-angeles	2025/06/10
Trump Deploys 2,000 Troops To L.A. As Backlash & Protests To ICE Raids Surge, POTUS Action, 'Purposefully Inflammatory' - Newsom Warns	Protest- LA	The former chief of the National Guard has denounced President Donald Trump's deployment of troops in Los Angeles as "a bid for all Americans concerned about freedom of speech and states' rights."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/national-guard-general-flames-trump-135	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
National Guard General Flames Trump for L.A. Deployment Orders	Protest- LA	The Trump administration's deployment of national guard troops to Los Angeles to intervene in civilian protests in the face of opposition from the Californian governor is a major escalation that risks the politicization of the US military, armed service veterans are warning.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/veterans-sound-alarm-trump-deploys-17	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
Trump LA protest response risks turning US military into political force, veterans warn	Protest- LA	"The Trump administration's 'border czar' warned that immigration enforcement will continue 'every day' in Los Angeles, hinting that even elected officials could face arrest if they interfere with agents on the ground.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trumps-border-czar-threatens-arrest-1706	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
Trump's border czar threatens arrest for immigration interference, warns Newsom and vows not to cross that line	Protest- LA	Erwin Chemerinsky, one of the nation's leading constitutional law scholars, said "for the federal government to take over the California National Guard, without the request of the governor, to put down protests is truly chilling." "It is using the military domestically to stop dissent," said Chemerinsky, dean of the UC Berkeley School of Law. "It certainly sends a message as to how this administration is going to respond to protesters who are weighing in to see the president's side."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/legal-issues-raised-trump-sending-03191	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
The legal issues raised by Trump sending the National Guard to L.A.	Protest- LA	"The Secretary of Defense is now threatening to deploy active-duty Marines on American soil against its own citizens," Newsom wrote. "This is deranged behavior."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/shut-dictatorships-trump-admin-threat-15	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
The stuff of dictatorships': Trump admin threat to deploy military to LA protest met with angry reactions	Protest- LA	Of the ten major U.S. corporations documented by journalist Hunter Schwarz to have adopted a Pride avatar or banner on Twitter in 2023 — including Expedia, Bank of America, and Freddie Mac — just one, the pharmaceutical giant Pfizer, is still flying its rainbow flag on the social network today.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/corporations-flighting-rainbow-flags-cutting	2025/06/10
Trump is going after LGBTQ rights and big companies have responded by shunning Pride Month	Rainbow threats	Southern Baptists meeting this week in Dallas will be asked to approve resolutions calling for a legal ban on pornography and a reversal of the U.S. Supreme Court's approval of same-sex marriage.	https://apnews.com/article/southern-baptists-pornography-sports-betting	2025/06/10
Southern Baptists target porn, sports betting, same-sex marriage and willful childlessness	Religion	The proposed resolutions call for laws on gender, marriage and family based on what they say is the biblically stated order of divine creation. They also call for legislators to curtail sports betting and to support policies that promote childbearing.	https://apnews.com/article/southern-baptists-pornography-sports-betting	2025/06/10
Attorneys get more time to argue over contested copper mine on land sacred to Apaches	Religious rights	A U.S. district judge in Arizona has opened the door for the next round of legal wrangling as environmentalists and some Native Americans seek to stop the federal government from transferring land in Arizona for a massive copper mining project.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/attorneys-more-time-argue-over-2192406	2025/06/10
How a network of women in Latin America transformed safe, self-managed abortions	Reproductive Rights	Judge Dominic Lanza in a ruling issued Monday denied motions that sought to halt the transfer pending the outcome of the case. However, he did preclude the U.S. Forest Service from proceeding with the land exchange until 60 days after the agency issues a required environmental review.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/09/pw-st-5487236/latin-america-abortion-activists	2025/06/09	history
Democrats introduce bill that aims to protect reproductive health data	Reproductive Rights	Advocates connected the dots: If women could get their hands on misoprostol, they could end their pregnancies despite the severe legal restrictions on abortion most Latin American countries had. With this new pill, they wouldn't have to wait for the law to change.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/11/democrats-my-body-right-now	2025/06/11
US Health Secretary Kennedy guts vaccine advisory committee	RFK JR BS	Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has fired all 17 members of a U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention panel of vaccine experts and is in the process of replacing them, his department said on Monday, drawing protest from many vaccine scientists.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/members-vaccine-advisory-panel-fired-1	2025/06/10
Former, current CDC employees call on RFK Jr. to resign	RFK JR BS	The move is the most far-reaching in a series of actions by Kennedy, a long-time vaccine skeptic, to reshape U.S. regulation of vaccines, food and medicines. Scientists and experts said the changes to the vaccine panel, which recommends how vaccines are used and by whom, would undermine public confidence in health agencies.	https://www.axios.com/what-if-thats-2025/06/10/cdc-workers-protest-ax	2025/06/11
Top RFK Jr. aide attacks US health system while running company that promotes wellness alternatives	RFK JR BS	Current and former employees of Centers for Disease Control and Prevention are calling on Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to resign, warning that job cuts and proposed funding reductions will hurt the agency's ability to protect the public from future health threats.	https://apnews.com/article/callely-means-rk-maha-wellness-ethics-9270	2025/06/11
RFK Jr. breaks promise to senators, guts CDC vaccine panel of independent experts	RFK JR BS	The Atlanta-based CDC has long been the unbiased hub Americans turn to for facts about health topics, including sexually transmitted infections, maternal and infant health and respiratory infections.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maydow-blog-rfk-jr-breaks-134556816.html	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
RFK Jr. names 8 new members of vac. advisory panel	RFK JR BS	Means, however, has his own financial stake in the sprawling health system. He's the co-founder of an online platform, Truemed, that offers dietary supplements, herbal remedies and other wellness products. Some of the vendors featured on Truemed's website are supporters of Kennedy's MAHA movement, which downplays the benefits of prescription drugs, vaccines and other rigorously tested medical products.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/rfk-new-members-vaccine-board/	2025/06/12
RFK Jr. blows up America's vaccine policy	RFK JR BS	"If confirmed, [Kennedy] will maintain the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices — without changes," Cassidy declared with confidence, pointing to assurances he'd received directly from RFK Jr.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/13/rfk-covid-vaccine-policy-cdc/	2025/06/13
RFK Jr. sent Congress 'medical disinformation' to defend COVID vaccine schedule change	RFK JR BS	Four months later, as NBC News reported, Cassidy had been proven wrong.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/13/mx-st-5431935/rfk-hhs-covid-vaccine-a	2025/06/13
Under RFK Jr., Vaccine Approval is Getting More Politicized, Not Less	RFK JR BS	Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy on Wednesday named eight new members to serve on an influential federal vaccine advisory panel after firing all 17 of the committee's members.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/under-rfk-jr-vaccine-approval-230018197	2025/06/13
Five Supreme Court Justices recused from the same case, showing both progress and work still to be done	Supreme Court	While Kennedy posted on X that the new appointees are committed to evidence-based medicine, several have a history of expressing anti-vaccine sentiment or voicing concerns about COVID-19 or mRNA vaccines.	https://www.citizensforethics.org/news/analysis-five-supreme-court-justi	2025/06/11
Unanimous Supreme Court makes it easier to sue schools in disability cases	Supreme Court	Some were also signers of the Great Barrington Declaration, a petition authored by a group of scientists including current NIH director Jay Bhattacharya that advocated for allowing COVID to spread among young, healthy people to reach herd immunity faster. The approach drew fierce criticism from many experts.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/12/mx-st-5431521/supreme-court-disability	2025/06/13
Behind the Curtain: The scariest AI reality	Technology- AI	In the last several weeks, Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has upended long-standing norms, introducing uncertainty into a once-reliable system.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/12/mx-st-5431521/supreme-court-disability	2025/06/12
Ohio university says all students will be required to train and be fluent in AI	Technology- AI	Leigh Haldean, a pregnant woman in Seattle, was recently turned away when going to get a COVID booster shot, as recommended by her doctor, CNN reports.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/09/ai-film-hallucination-reason	2025/06/10
Behind the Curtain: ChatGPT juggernaut	Technology- ai	Cases like hers could become more common. While most doctors and pharmacies will likely still be able to recommend and administer the vaccine, access might start to erode.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/09/ai-film-hallucination-reason	2025/06/10
		Insurers are likely to start denying coverage of the COVID vaccine to groups who aren't deemed eligible by the government, putting the vaccine out of reach for people who don't have the time to seek out a willing provider or the money to pay out of pocket for the shot.
		A document the Department of Health and Human Services sent to lawmakers to support Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s decision to change U.S. policy on COVID vaccines cites scientific studies that are unpublished or under dispute and mechanizes others.
		One health expert called the document "willful medical disinformation" about the safety of COVID vaccines for children and pregnant women.
		Vaccines have become a divisive issue in American politics, asserted Health and Human Services Secretary (HHS) Robert F. Kennedy Jr. in his June 9 Wall Street Journal op-ed. "Public confidence is waning." This is true. But the HHS secretary bears responsibility for much of that division and waning confidence. And he's just made it worse.
		The U.S. Supreme Court recently demonstrated the critical importance of ethics standards at the nation's highest court when it summarily affirmed a lower court's judgment after five justices recused themselves from hearing the case, suggesting that there was at least an appearance of, if not actual, conflicts of interest. Without six justices to participate, the remainder of the Court could not proceed with hearing the case under a law that prevents cases from being decided by just a few justices. The recusals marked a rare yet welcome illustration of the need for transparency and accountability as the Court decides its most consequential cases.
		The Supreme Court on Thursday made it easier for students with disabilities to sue to enforce their rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act and other laws enacted to ensure that disabled children get appropriate schooling.
		"We hold today," he said, "that those challenges do not include having to satisfy a more stringent standard of proof than other plaintiffs" in discrimination cases.
		The widest, scariest, indisputable truth about AI's large language models is that the companies building them don't know exactly why or how they work.
		Si with that for a moment. The most powerful companies, racing to build the most powerful superhuman intelligence capabilities — ones they readily admit occasionally go rogue to make things up, or even threaten their users — don't know why their machines do what they do.
		The House, despite knowing to title about AI, tucked language into President Trump's "Big Beautiful Bill" that would prohibit states and localities from any AI regulations for 10 years. The Senate is considering limitations on the provision.
		Neither the AI companies nor Congress understands the power of AI a year from now, much less a decade from now.
		Ohio State University has announced that all of its students will be using artificial intelligence later this year, requiring them to become fluent in combining conventional learning with AI.
		"Through AI Fluency, Ohio State students will be 'bilingual' — fluent in both their major field of study and the application of AI in that area," he said.
		This fight is about winning two interested wars at once — AI and search dominance. OpenAI and others see Google as the most lethal rival because of its awesome access to data, and research talent, and current dominance in traditional search.
		This is probably the most expensive business war ever. Google, OpenAI, Apple, Amazon, Anthropic, Meta and others are pouring hundreds of billions of investment into AI large language models (LLMs).
		It's not winner-take-all. But it's seen as winner-take-control of the most powerful and potentially lucrative new technology on the scene.
			https://www.axios.com/2025/06/12/chatgpt-openai-google-search-battle	2025/06/12

The FDA Wants AI To Speed Up Health Care Decisions — Here's Why Experts Are Concerned	Technology: AI	"The FDA's move to explore AI for accelerating drug and device approvals and for food ingredient oversight marks a critical inflection point in regulatory innovation, but it also introduces a series of legal, ethical and structural tensions that can't be glossed over," Stacey B. Lee, a professor of law and ethics at Johns Hopkins Carey Business School and Bloomberg School of Public Health, told HuffPost via email.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fda-wants-ai-speed-health-1100126711.html	2025/06/13
U.S. Army can't "continue to buy VCRs" amid global security shift	Technology: Army	"The risk is in not changing," Chief of Staff Gen. Randy George told Axios during an interview in his Pentagon office. "We've got to get better by 2026," he said, shrugging off longer-term ambitions like the Army of 2030 or 2040. "I think we have to be improving on a day-by-day, week-by-week basis."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/army-transformation-george-discol	2025/06/11	national security
Tensions erupt in Congress over vote to condemn Boulder attack	Terrorism	What would otherwise be an uncontroversial congressional vote to denounce the Boulder attack is devolving into a contentious partisan feud, Axios has learned. Language praising ICE and labeling "Tree Palestine" an "antisemitic slogan" are sparking fury from some Democrats, who see the provisions as a GOP maneuver to force them into a difficult vote.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/congress-boulder-free-palestine-and	2025/06/09
Owner of Dominican club whose roof collapsed and killed 236 is arrested	Tragic	The owner of an iconic nightclub in the Dominican Republic whose roof collapsed in April and killed 236 people was arrested Thursday along with his sister. "Both defendants displayed immense irresponsibility and negligence by failing to physically intervene to prevent the club's roof from collapsing, as it ultimately did, causing 236 deaths and more than 180 injuries," The Dominican Republic's Attorney General's Office said in a statement.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/13/mx-st154324422dominican-club-roof-co	2025/06/13
Trump might be the most accessible president ever — for sales or scammers	Trump Bullshit	President Trump reportedly picks up when his cell rings even if he doesn't know who's calling. Senior members of his team also love chatting on their personal devices. That makes the administration uniquely vulnerable to basic scams like spoofed calls and impersonation attempts.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/08/donald-trump-cell-phone-security-ha	2025/06/09	"Trump, accessible to anyone who Trump's cybersecurity strategy -> Mr. President, someone named G
Trump Calls on Qatar to Fund Kennedy Center's MAGA Makeover	Trump Bullshit	President Donald Trump is aiming to give the Kennedy Center a MAGA makeover, and he has reportedly called on the country that gifted him his "palace in the sky" to do it. To fix this, The Wall Street Journal reported that Trump has put out calls to the Middle East to bankroll a renovation or two—which could include rehabbing its VIP suites and even building a marina next to the venue so the radical elite can put up and enjoy the center's programming from the water.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-calls-qatar-fund-kennedy-2328029	2025/06/09
Trump travel ban barring citizens from 12 countries goes into effect	Trump Bullshit	Reportedly on the call list was Qatar, which gifted Trump his $400 million "palace in sky" Boeing jet, which he plans to use as his Air Force One until he pockets the aircraft for personal use at the end of his presidential term. Donald Trump's new ban on travel to the US by citizens of a dozen countries, mainly in Africa and the Middle East, went into effect at 12am ET on Monday, more than eight years after Trump's first travel ban sparked chaos, confusion, and months of legal battles. The new proclamation, which Trump signed last week, "fully" restricts the nationals of Afghanistan, Myanmar, Chad, Republic of the Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Eritrea, Haiti, Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and Yemen from entering the US. The entry of nationals of Burundi, Cuba, Laos, Sierra Leone, Togo, Turkmenistan and Venezuela will be partially restricted.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/09/trump-travel-ban	2025/06/09
From friends to foes: how Trump turned on the Federalist Society	Trump Bullshit	The word was "leakage," which Trump deployed as part of a lengthy broadside on Truth Social, his social media platform. The targets of his wrath were the Federalist Society, an influential conservative legal organization, and Leonard Leo, a lawyer associated with the group who has, in recent years, branched out to become one of the most powerful rightwing kingmakers in the US. In his post, Trump said that during his first term "I was suggested that I use The Federalist Society as a recommending source on Judges. I did so, openly and freely, but then realized that they were under the thumb of a real 'leakage' named Leonard Leo, a bad person who, in his own way, probably hates America, and obviously has his own separate ambitions. He openly brags how he controls Judges, and even Justices of the United States Supreme Court - I hope that is not so, and not I believe it is!" Now that Donald Trump's tariffs have been halted, his big, beautiful bill has been stymied, and his multi-billion tech biz has turned on him, how does he demonstrate his power? On Friday morning, federal agents from Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), the FBI and the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) conducted raids across Los Angeles – including at two Home Depots and a clothing wholesaler – in search of workers who they suspected of being undocumented immigrants. On Saturday, Trump escalated the confrontations, ordering at least 2,000 national guard troops to be deployed in Los Angeles county to help quell the protests. He said that any demonstration that got in the way of immigration officials would be considered a "form of rebellion." Stephen Miller, the White House deputy chief of staff, called the protests an "insurrection". On Saturday evening, the defense secretary, Pete Hegseth, threatened to deploy active-duty marines, saying: "The violent mob assaults on ICE and Federal Law Enforcement are designed to prevent the removal of Criminal Illegal Aliens from our soil. A dangerous invasion facilitated by criminal cartels (aka Foreign Terrorist Organizations) and a huge NATIONAL SECURITY RISK. Under President Trump, violence and destruction against federal agents and federal facilities will NOT be tolerated."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/08/trump-federalist-soc	2025/06/09
We are witnessing the first stages of a Trump police state	Trump Bullshit	We are witnessing the first stages of a Trump police state. Despite insisting that the United States is rebounding from calamity under his watch, President Donald Trump is harnessing emergency powers unlike any of his predecessors. Whether it's levelling punishing tariffs, deploying troops to the border or sidelining environmental regulations, Trump has relied on rules and laws intended only for use in extraordinary circumstances like war and invasion. An analysis by The Associated Press shows that 30 of Trump's 150 executive orders have cited some kind of emergency power or authority, a rate that far outpaces his recent predecessors. Challenges to Trump's emergency orders have yet to reach the Supreme Court, but legal experts worry the use of them could lead to an upending of the constitutional balance of power if the Supreme Court sides with the administration, essentially giving the president free rein to do more without congressional approval.	https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2025/jun/09/trump-police-state	2025/06/09	Police state, constitutional crisis, dystopian,
The $11 unaidedness: Trump flexes emergency powers in his second term	Trump Bullshit	"These Republican left protests by agitators and often paid troublemakers, will NOT BE TOLERATED," he wrote on Truth Social early Sunday morning. "Also, from now on, MASKS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED to be worn at protests. What do these people have to hide, and why???" If and when these 75,000 uniformed personnel feel overmatched by the agitators, California can request federal help of its own volition. But if the Trump-Hegseth threats have little purpose as low enforcement, they signify great purpose as political strategy. Since Trump's reelection, close observers of his presidency have feared a specific sequence of events that could play out ahead of midterm voting in 2026: Step 1: Use federal powers in ways to provoke some kind of made-for-TV disturbance—flames, smoke, loud noises, waving of foreign flags. Step 2: Invoke the disturbance to declare a state of emergency and deploy federal troops. Step 3: Seize control of local operations of government—policing in June 2025, voting in November 2026.	https://apnews.com/article/trump-emergency-powers-tariffs-immigration	2025/06/09
What Trump's national emergencies could mean for American democracy	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump unveiled a federal program Monday providing $1,000 government-funded investment accounts for American babies, getting backing from top business leaders who said they plan to contribute billions more to an initiative tied to the big beautiful bill. Troops deployed to Los Angeles. Paratroopers dropping from the sky before a partisan speech to troops at Fort Bragg. A military parade in D.C. that will coincide with the president's birthday. Call it President Trump's Strongman Week. Trump is making a point of showing executive force at a level he only dreamed about during his first term.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/09/mx-st15423695trump-national-emerg	2025/06/10
Trump says protesters will not be allowed to wear masks	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump just did what no other president has ever done in the context of urban unrest: He sent federal troops to a state without a request from the governor. By federalizing California National Guard members on Saturday, the president abrogated Governor Gavin Newsom's authority over his own Guard. During both previous instances of a presidential order to deploy National Guard members to American cities—the Los Angeles riots in 1957 and the Hurricane Katrina response in 2005—the state's governor was overseeing a public-safety apparatus that had been overwhelmed. Trump, setting on unlawful behavior that included vandalism, violence, and refusing to disperse during protests against ICE raids in L.A., announced that 2,000 reservists would be deployed to the city, unilaterally and contra Newsom's advice. Donald Trump has long fantasized about deploying the U.S. military to various Democratic strongholds across the country, regardless of whether the elected leaders there want him or not. He's finally starting to get his wish, less than six months into the second term defined by his drive to rule the nation with unchecked power.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-protesters-not-allowed-13610	2025/06/10
For Trump, This is a Dress Rehearsal	Trump Bullshit	The Steady State, a non-partisan coalition of more than 280 former national security professionals, has issued a warning over these events. "The use of federal military force in the absence of local or state requests, paired with contradictory mandates targeting protestors, is a hallmark of authoritarian drift," the statement reads. "Our members – many of whom have served in fragile democracies abroad – have seen this pattern before. What begins as provocative posturing can metastasize into something far more dangerous." Donald Trump unveiled a federal program Monday providing $1,000 government-funded investment accounts for American babies, getting backing from top business leaders who said they plan to contribute billions more to an initiative tied to the big beautiful bill. Troops deployed to Los Angeles. Paratroopers dropping from the sky before a partisan speech to troops at Fort Bragg. A military parade in D.C. that will coincide with the president's birthday. Call it President Trump's Strongman Week. Trump is making a point of showing executive force at a level he only dreamed about during his first term.	https://www.theatlantic.com/dea/archive/2025/06/los-angeles-dress-r	2025/06/10	Constitutional crisis, police state, dystopian
Trump is deliberately ratcheting up violence in Los Angeles	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump unveiled a federal program Monday providing $1,000 government-funded investment accounts for American babies, getting backing from top business leaders who said they plan to contribute billions more to an initiative tied to the big beautiful bill. Troops deployed to Los Angeles. Paratroopers dropping from the sky before a partisan speech to troops at Fort Bragg. A military parade in D.C. that will coincide with the president's birthday. Call it President Trump's Strongman Week. Trump is making a point of showing executive force at a level he only dreamed about during his first term.	https://www.theguardian.com/commentisfree/2025/jun/10/trump-violen	2025/06/10	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump announces $1,000 government-funded accounts for American babies	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump unveiled a federal program Monday providing $1,000 government-funded investment accounts for American babies, getting backing from top business leaders who said they plan to contribute billions more to an initiative tied to the big beautiful bill. Troops deployed to Los Angeles. Paratroopers dropping from the sky before a partisan speech to troops at Fort Bragg. A military parade in D.C. that will coincide with the president's birthday. Call it President Trump's Strongman Week. Trump is making a point of showing executive force at a level he only dreamed about during his first term.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/09/trump-funded-acco	2025/06/10	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump's Strongman Week: Inside his show of military force	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump just did what no other president has ever done in the context of urban unrest: He sent federal troops to a state without a request from the governor. By federalizing California National Guard members on Saturday, the president abrogated Governor Gavin Newsom's authority over his own Guard. During both previous instances of a presidential order to deploy National Guard members to American cities—the Los Angeles riots in 1957 and the Hurricane Katrina response in 2005—the state's governor was overseeing a public-safety apparatus that had been overwhelmed. Trump, setting on unlawful behavior that included vandalism, violence, and refusing to disperse during protests against ICE raids in L.A., announced that 2,000 reservists would be deployed to the city, unilaterally and contra Newsom's advice. Donald Trump has long fantasized about deploying the U.S. military to various Democratic strongholds across the country, regardless of whether the elected leaders there want him or not. He's finally starting to get his wish, less than six months into the second term defined by his drive to rule the nation with unchecked power.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/trump-strongman-week-newsom-cal	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump's Gross Misuse of the National Guard	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is talking and acting like an authoritarian as he escalates a constitutional clash with California over his migration crackdown. In September 2020, President Donald Trump suggested he was hamstringing to crack down on at-times-violent racial justice demonstrations in cities like Portland, Oregon. "Look, we have laws. We have to go by the laws," Trump said at an ABC News town hall, adding: "We can't call in the National Guard unless we're requested by a governor."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-finally-gets-police-state-16031241f	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump Finally Gets the Police State He's Been Craving for Years	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is talking and acting like an authoritarian as he escalates a constitutional clash with California over his migration crackdown. In September 2020, President Donald Trump suggested he was hamstringing to crack down on at-times-violent racial justice demonstrations in cities like Portland, Oregon. "Look, we have laws. We have to go by the laws," Trump said at an ABC News town hall, adding: "We can't call in the National Guard unless we're requested by a governor."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-live-updates-trump-145300	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump admin live updates: Trump to announce savings accounts for parents, guardians	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is talking and acting like an authoritarian as he escalates a constitutional clash with California over his migration crackdown. In September 2020, President Donald Trump suggested he was hamstringing to crack down on at-times-violent racial justice demonstrations in cities like Portland, Oregon. "Look, we have laws. We have to go by the laws," Trump said at an ABC News town hall, adding: "We can't call in the National Guard unless we're requested by a governor."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-live-updates-trump-145300	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump is acting like an authoritarian: California's crisis, now rests on what he does next	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is talking and acting like an authoritarian as he escalates a constitutional clash with California over his migration crackdown. In September 2020, President Donald Trump suggested he was hamstringing to crack down on at-times-violent racial justice demonstrations in cities like Portland, Oregon. "Look, we have laws. We have to go by the laws," Trump said at an ABC News town hall, adding: "We can't call in the National Guard unless we're requested by a governor."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-acting-authoritarian-california-crisi	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump's broad definition of 'insurrection' looms over Los Angeles	Trump Bullshit	Trump noted there was one way he could do that – by invoking the Insurrection Act – but added that "there's no reason to ever do that, even in a Portland case." Insurrectionists beat cops with flag poles, crushed them with riot shields, bused them in the neck, and spat on them during the deadly attack on the U.S. Capitol on Jan. 6, 2021. But when President Donald Trump claimed on Monday that he has no tolerance for "insurrectionists" who clash with police officers, he wasn't talking about the 1,500 rioters he paraded upon assuming office earlier this year. He was talking about people in Los Angeles, California, protesting his administration's anti-immigration actions. Speaking to reporters outside of the White House on Monday, the president claimed that demonstrators opposing sweeping ICE raids in L.A. were "professional agitators. They're insurrectionists, they're bad people," and that "they should be in jail."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-broad-definiton-insurrection-looms	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump Suddenly Cares About Insurrectionists' and Protecting Cops	Trump Bullshit	As the Army transports military equipment to the nation's capital in preparation for next week's military parade in honor of its 250th birthday—and Trump's 79th—one tank transporter carried a sinister, graffitied message: "Yang Fuxi & Bill Gates." A video of that transporter was shared by the Army's official X account and was viewed nearly 700,000 times after it was left up for 24 hours. It has subsequently been taken down and disavowed. "That statement does not align with Army values," Steve Warren, an Army spokesperson, told The Washington Post, which first reported on the graffiti. While it's not clear who is responsible for the graffiti, it is deeply troubling to see a call for the murder of two high-profile, politically liberal civilians on an Army vehicle and on the Army's official account. It underscores the charged political environment that surrounds the Trump administration. The parade itself—scheduled for June 14—will be a massive, resounding demonstration of the military's power and loyalty to Trump.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-suddenly-cares-insurrectionists-gr	2025/06/11	executive overreach, authoritarian moves, soft coup, police state, military, constitutional crisis, abuse of power, unrest
Trump's Birthday Military Parade Just Took Another Sinister Turn	Trump Bullshit	According to CNN, the parade will feature 7,000 soldiers and 7 million pounds of military hardware. NBC reports the parade could end up costing $45 million.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-birthday-military-parade-just-1434f	2025/06/11
TENS of Military Vehicles Are Rolling Into DC Right Now For Trump's Parades, And The Footage Is Truly Wild	Trump Bullshit	While it's not clear who is responsible for the graffiti, it is deeply troubling to see a call for the murder of two high-profile, politically liberal civilians on an Army vehicle and on the Army's official account. It underscores the charged political environment that surrounds the Trump administration. The parade itself—scheduled for June 14—will be a massive, resounding demonstration of the military's power and loyalty to Trump.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wild-video-showing-military-vehicles-160	2025/06/11
Donald Trump swore to protect the US constitution, here's all the times he's undermined it	Trump Bullshit	summary. The bar Trump set for himself may have been impossibly high, but he's a long way from clearing it. He said he'd make peace in Ukraine on day one. That was more than 140 days ago. He said he'd make peace in Gaza. A ceasefire collapsed months ago, and talks are deadlocked. A two-month deadline for reaching a nuclear deal with Iran expires on Thursday. He said that trade wars were "good and easy to win." So far, the U.S. doesn't have a single trade deal finalized and implemented. The closest ones are with the U.K., with which America has a trade surplus, and with China, which remains just a framework. He hasn't yet approved deals over the future of either TikTok or U.S. Steel. The "Big Beautiful Bill" is increasingly unlikely to hit his desk by July Fourth.	https://www.indy100.com/politics/trump/donald-trump-us-constitution-ar	2025/06/11
Trump's dealmaker image hits a wall	Trump Bullshit	summary. The bar Trump set for himself may have been impossibly high, but he's a long way from clearing it. He said he'd make peace in Ukraine on day one. That was more than 140 days ago. He said he'd make peace in Gaza. A ceasefire collapsed months ago, and talks are deadlocked. A two-month deadline for reaching a nuclear deal with Iran expires on Thursday. He said that trade wars were "good and easy to win." So far, the U.S. doesn't have a single trade deal finalized and implemented. The closest ones are with the U.K., with which America has a trade surplus, and with China, which remains just a framework. He hasn't yet approved deals over the future of either TikTok or U.S. Steel. The "Big Beautiful Bill" is increasingly unlikely to hit his desk by July Fourth.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/12/trump-deals-trade-ukraine-gaza-ian	2025/06/12

	The Trump administration complied with a court order to facilitate the return of Kilmar Abrego Garcia after he was mistakenly deported to his native El Salvador; attorneys for the Department of Justice argued in a court filing on Tuesday.
Trump administration argues it complied with court order to return Abrego Garcia	Trump Bullshit	In a court filing on Sunday, lawyers for Abrego Garcia argued that, despite his return, the Maryland court case is not over because the court continues to have a role "To ensure that [Abrego Garcia's] case is handled as it would have been had he not been improperly sent to El Salvador" – and that the government must be "held accountable" for "its blatant, willful, and persistent violations of court orders at exorbitating cost to Abrego Garcia and his family".	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-argues-complied-co-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
'We couldn't have scripted this better': The White House is thrilled with how events are unfolding in LA	Trump Bullshit	Los Angeles may resemble a war zone, with thousands of National Guard troops and hundreds of Marines deployed in response to widespread anti-immigration raid protests, but the Trump White House reportedly couldn't be happier about the politics of the situation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/couldn-t-scripted-better-white-203303869-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
'No Fat Soldiers': FL Brago Troops Were Carefully Screened for Trump's Blunt Visit	Trump Bullshit	"No fat soldiers," one anti-travel message reviewed by Military.com stated. "If soldiers have political views that are in opposition to the current administration and they don't want to be in the audience then they need to speak with their leadership and get swapped out."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/no-fat-soldiers-fl-brago-troops-were-carefully-screened-for-trump-s-blunt-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
'This isn't an isolated incident': Trump's show of military force in LA was years in the making	Trump Bullshit	Donald Trump is targeting Los Angeles, the biggest city in deep-blue California – a sprawling metropolis shaped by immigrant communities that the president described on Tuesday as a "trash heap" – with a show of force many years in the making. After his first term, Trump expressed regret for not taking a more heavy-handed approach to the 2020 protests over George Floyd's murder by police. So when demonstrations against his immigration crackdown erupted last week in Los Angeles, he turned to the playbook he wished he had used then – federalizing the national guard and deploying hundreds of US marines to confront what Democratic officials must was a manageable situation, escalated by a president who the state's governor, Gavin Newsom, has warned is increasingly behaving like a "dictator".	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/11/trump-military-force-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
Trump signs bill blocking California gas car ban plan	Trump Bullshit	President Trump signed legislation on Thursday blocking California's rules to phase out the sales of gas-powered cars by 2035. California has the largest car market, and roughly a dozen other states follow its rules under the Clean Air Act.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/13/trump-california-gas-car-ban-block-2025/06/13	2025/06/13 environment- fossil fuels, climate crisis
Trump insists 'not a king at all' as he's pressed on issues of power concerns over 1st-adjointed DC birthday parade	Trump Bullshit	Bonta has already announced a lawsuit with 10 other state attorneys general after the Republican-led Senate approved a resolution last month to revoke a waiver allowing California to set its own air quality standards. Trump replied "I don't feel like a king" and proceeded to complain that he must "go through hell" to get anything done under America's constitutional system, which strictly divides the federal government's authority between executive, legislative and judicial branches. Seemingly ignorant of reforms to the British monarchy starting with the Magna Carta in 1215, Trump opined that a king would never have had to suffer then indignity of asking for legislation to be enacted to mix California's vehicle regulations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-insists-not-king-pressed-20032545-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
These businesses are big winners from the Musk-Tump breakup	Trump Bullshit-Economy	Elon Musk's breakup with President Trump undercuts his personal empire, but it's good news for a variety of corporate players. The list of business winners from the Musk-Trump breakup includes: Chinese EV makers: Any sign of trouble for Tesla is good news for businesses like the booming EV maker BYD, which already sells more vehicles than Tesla. Musk has cited Chinese EV companies as Tesla's biggest competition. OpenAI: Musk and OpenAI have been feuding over the latter's now-abandoned attempt to turn into a for-profit. The president may now be more inclined to side with the ChatGPT creator and its boss, Sam Altman, who made a U.S. investment announcement earlier this year that Trump touted and Musk questioned. Blue Origin: Jeff Bezos' space company could reap the rewards if NASA seeks alternative partners to replace Musk's SpaceX.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/05/musk-trump-feud-chatgpt-tesla-2025/06/09	2025/06/09 oligarchy
The American war too few talk about	US War Machine	The U.S. military is bombing extremist groups in the Horn of Africa, executing at least 32 strikes in Somalia this year alone. That's more than double the previous year's tally, according to Africa Command, and is a sign of enduring extremism concerns back in Washington. This is a war too few in the U.S. are discussing — or even realize is happening.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/11/us-africa-somalia-terrorism-signals-2025/06/11	2025/06/11
Trump's DOJ makes its most sweeping demand for election data yet	Voicing fuckery	The U.S. Department of Justice is demanding an unprecedented amount of election data from at least one state, according to documents obtained by NPR, as the DOJ transformed by the Trump administration reviews cases targeting the president's political allies and caters to his desire to exert more power over state voting processes. On May 12, the Justice Department asked Colorado's secretary of state to turn over "all records" relating to 2024 federal elections, as well as preserve any records that remain from the 2020 election — a sprawling request several voting experts and officials told NPR was highly unusual and concerning, given President Trump's failed claims about election fraud.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/stt-s1-5428097/trump-justice-department-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
San Antonio flooding leaves five dead, dozens rescued from high water	Weather-Flooding	Five people have died due to flash flooding early Thursday morning in San Antonio. The San Antonio Fire Department confirmed several vehicles were swept off the Loop 410 access road near Bessie Creek around 5 a.m.	https://www.tnr.org/environment/2025-06-12/san-antonio-flooding-leaves-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
At least 2 people killed as storms push through South	Weather-Storms	Two people were killed by falling trees and tens of thousands were left without power as severe storms roiled through the South over the weekend.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/least-2-people-killed-storms-102822141-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
TSA Just Banned Costco Cards at Airport Security	Weird world	Since May 7, 2025, travelers have needed a REAL ID-compliant driver's license or state ID to board domestic flights. And now, TSA is putting its foot down, telling travelers that their Costco cards do not count as a valid form of ID to travel with. TSA posted the following message on Facebook: "We love hoddags & rosenber chicken as much as the next person but please stop telling people their Costco cartt counts as a REAL ID because it absolutely does not."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tsa-just-banned-costco-cards-033225289-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
A quirky vegetable sculpture contest features a squash, Donald Trump and a papal 'Cornclave'	Weird world	Vegetable enthusiasts of U.S. President Donald Trump and singer Dolly Parton and a papal "Cornclave" went on display Saturday at the Lambeth Country Show, an urban take on a country fair held annually in London's Brookwell Park.	https://agnews.com/articles/uk-lambeth-country-show-vegetable-sculpt-2025/06/09	2025/06/09
Ed, the runaway pet zebra, has been captured in Tennessee	Weird world	Ed the Zebra was captured safely after being located in a pasture near a subdivision in the Christiana community in central Tennessee, the Rutherford County Sheriff's Office confirmed. The sheriff's office said aviation crews captured the zebra.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/09/stt-s1-54272421/runaway-pet-zebra-caw-2025/06/10	2025/06/10
Penguins in Antarctica could actually be helping cool the climate... with their poop	Weird world	Ten of thousands of penguins, clustered together on the Antarctic Peninsula, can produce some potent stench. Now, scientists have found that all that waste could be powerful enough to cool the climate. The gases from penguin poop help fly cloud formation, scientists found, which can change the temperature in the Antarctic. Clouds act like giant reflectors, blocking sunlight that would otherwise be heating the planet.	https://www.npr.org/2025/05/30/stt-s1-5408315/penguins-antarctica-po-2025/06/10	2025/06/10
Word of the Week: how a bacterium unrelated to fish got its name 'salmonella'	Weird world	Despite its fishy name, salmonella has no connection to the underwater creature salmon. Rather, the story behind the bacterium is one of disputed credit between two American researchers. It's also linked to one of the most famous cases in medical history about the balance between public health and individual freedoms.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/11/stt-s1-71815/salmonella-history-eym0yb-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
Man booked over 120 free flights by pretending to be flight attendant	Weird world	A 35-year-old man who falsely claimed to be a flight attendant for six years to book over 120 free flights was convicted by a federal jury on Tuesday. According to a press release by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/man-booked-over-120-free-2001114341n-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
Disc Golfers' Game Interrupted After a Shark Falls from the Sky onto the Course	Weird world	A game of disc golf in South Carolina was interrupted last month when a hammerhead shark fell from the sky.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/disc-golfers-game-interrupted-shark-0405-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
The 300-year-old restaurants battling for title of the world's oldest	Weird world	Sobrinho de Botin in Madrid, which opened in 1725, has held the Guinness World Record as the world's oldest restaurant since 1987. Casa Pedro, a rustic tavern on the outskirts of Madrid, claims to be older than Botin, dating back to 1702, but lacks definitive proof.	https://www.independent.co.uk/bulletin/fiftyleaf/world-oldest-restaurant-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
Musical cicadas brought back to UK from France	Weird world	Cicadas, whose musical courtship calls once echoed around an ancient forest in southern England, have been reintroduced from France by conservationists hoping to re-establish the insect's UK population. They have now released 11 female cicadas, some of which are believed to be pregnant, into a specially created habitat just outside the woods they once populated.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/musical-cicadas-brought-back-uk-104342-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Black Bear Spotted Casually Roaming Behind Elderly Woman with her Walker in Connecticut Suburb	Weird world	The station's anchor, Dennis House, captured footage of the bears on Aylum Street, with the outlet also sharing a clip on YouTube showing one bear walking not far from an elderly lady with her walker.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/black-bear-spotted-casually-roaming-155-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Rescued bears 'recovering' from broken teeth ops	Weird world	Two bears an East Sussex-based charity saved from "filthy" cages have undergone dental surgery. International Animal Rescue (IAR), headquartered in Uckfield, sent its dental team to Armenia to rescue Syrian brown bears Aram and Noah.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rescued-bears-recovering-broken-teeth-0-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Largest Great White Shark on Record Headed for Popular Tourist Spot	Weird world	Both bears are "recovering well" from their operations and eating, the charity added. The 14-foot shark, known as Contender, was first tagged by OCEARCH Shark Tracker in January about 45 miles off the Florida-Georgia coast. But around the middle of May, Contender's signal disappeared for several weeks. On June 11, he resurfaced near North Carolina's Pamlico Sound, a popular enclave for summer tourists. Researchers believe that Contender's brief disappearance coincided with a critical feeding period in which Contender was building up reserves for its marathon journey to the north.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/largest-great-white-shark-record-114166-2025/06/13	2025/06/13
Worker who leaked plans to build golf courses in Florida parks files whistleblow suit	Whistleblower	A former worker who leaked information about plans by Republican Gov. Ron DeSantis' administration to build golf courses and hotels in Florida state parks has filed a whistleblower lawsuit. James Gaddis alleges that the Florida Department of Environmental Protection retaliated against him for sharing details of the proposal, which caused bipartisan outrage and sparked protests. Ultimately the plans were scuttled.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/worker-leaked-plans-build-golf-20303183-2025/06/12	2025/06/12
LAPD deliberately targeted journalists at protests, press group says in lawsuit	ACAB	Los Angeles journalists sued the city and head of the police department Monday alleging officers deliberately targeted reporters at recent protests following federal immigration raids. "The video of the shooting shows the LAPD officer looking directly at her and aiming specifically at her without the slightest justification," the complaint said. "She held a microphone; she was accompanied by a camera crew. None of that mattered to the LAPD officers."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/los-angeles-protests-lawsuit-journal-2025/06/17	2025/06/17 Protest, first amendment, freedom of speech
Takeaways from AP's reporting on shuttered prisons, mass deportation push and no-bid contracts	ACAB	Private prison operators are marketing their shuttered lockups to federal immigration officials as President Donald Trump pushes for mass deportations, with some facilities rubbing lucrative no-bid contracts. The Trump administration wants to increase its budgeted capacity of about 41,000 beds for detaining migrants to at least 100,000 beds and maybe — if private prison executives' predictions are accurate — more than 150,000.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/takeaways-aps-reporting-shuttered-prison-2025/06/17	2025/06/17 ICE, Immigration, for profit prisons,
Officers who cover their faces could be charged with a misdemeanor under California proposal	ACAB	Local, state, and federal law enforcement officers who cover their faces while conducting official business could face a misdemeanor charge in California under a new proposal announced Monday. If approved, the bill would require all law enforcement officials to show their faces and be identifiable by their uniform, which should carry their name or other identifier. It would not apply to the National Guard or other troops and it would exempt SWAT teams and officers responding to natural disasters.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/officers-cover-faces-could-charged-1920-2025/06/17	2025/06/17
Major Airport Controllers Reveal Terrifying 'Plug and Pray' Equipment Fears	Aviation	Air traffic controllers handling flights for Newark Liberty International Airport say frequent equipment outages have left them in a fearful state they describe as "plug and pray," according to the New York Times. The phrase, which controllers sarcastically use to articulate the anxiety they feel when they plug in their radio headsets at the start of their shifts, was revealed in a damning report about technical glitches in air traffic control technology at a Philadelphia tower that handles traffic for Newark.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/major-airport-controllers-reveal-terrifying-2025/06/17	2025/06/17
Inside Trump's backtrack on immigration	Borders and immigration	The publication reported that on one overnight shift earlier this year, controllers for Newark noticed that phantom aircraft called "false targets" kept appearing on the radar. In another incident, controllers reported that the radio feed they use to communicate with pilots was hampered by static — they then found that a backup line was nonfunctional.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/trump-backtrack-immigration-raids-0-2025/06/16	2025/06/16
Trump's immigration response poses political risks	Borders and immigration	There's a big difference, for example, in advocating for stronger border security and booting hardened criminals from the country, versus deporting cooks and construction workers — and sending National Guards and even Marines in response to protests (when local officials didn't ask for it). Trump's deportation policies have moved toward workplaces, as Immigrations and Customs Enforcement tries to reach the White House's goal of 3,000 deportations a day. But that presents a potential political problem for Trump.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/14/stt-s1-5432766/trump-immigration-prots-2025/06/16	2025/06/16
Australian deported from US says he was 'targeted' due to writing on pro-Palestine student protests	Borders and immigration	An Australian man who was detained upon arrival at Los Angeles airport and deported back to Melbourne says United States border officials told him it was due to his writing on pro-Palestine students. Alistair Kitchen said he left Melbourne on Thursday bound for New York and was detained for 12 hours and interrogated by US Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officials during the stopover in Los Angeles.	https://www.theguardian.com/australia-news/2025/jun/15/australian-de-2025/06/16	2025/06/16

Judge extends block on Trump's Harvard international student ban	Borders and immigration	A federal judge on Monday extended her block on the Trump administration's targeting of Harvard's international students, multiple outlets reported. International students are authorized to study in the U.S. until U.S. District Judge Allison Burroughs files a decision next week. Later, they rejected the passport to the Salvadoran consulate and reported the body to the Doña Ana County Sheriff's Office in New Mexico — even though the sheriff sometimes doesn't respond and has accused volunteers of planting bones in the desert. Historically, Border Patrol's El Paso sector — which includes all 180 miles of New Mexico's border with Mexico and 84 miles of El Paso and Hudspeth counties in West Texas — has had among the fewest migrant deaths across the southern border. That changed in late December 2022, according to an investigation by The Texas Tribune and Source New Mexico, when the city of El Paso joined forces with Gov. Greg Abbott to participate in his signature border mission, called Operation Lone Star. By 2024, the El Paso sector had become the deadliest place for migrants to cross along the entire U.S.-Mexico border.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/harvard-federal-judge-international-student-ban	2025/06/17
After El Paso joined Abbott's border crackdown, the number of dead migrants in the New Mexico desert surged	Borders and immigration	President Trump surprised immigration hardliners last week when his administration announced it would pause some immigration raids that were hurting the agriculture and hospitality industries. Then just as quickly, the MACA pendulum swung back. Trump said Sunday that a new wave of raids would target immigrants in Democrat-run cities — and Monday there were signs that farms, hotels and restaurants again will be subject to raids. Driving the news: The whiplash in Trump's approach to his mass deportation plans is the latest illustration of how much his whims — and who speaks with him last — are shaping his decision-making, even on his signature policy issue.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/el-paso-joined-abbott-border-100000435	2025/06/17	Profile
Trump gets back behind raids in immigration whiplash	Borders and immigration	The Trump administration claims its agents are targeting "the worst of the worst" — including gang members, murderers and rapists" who have "reigned terror" on American communities. The Department of Homeland Security frequently puts out press releases publicizing the capture of these "heinous criminals." But on the ground reporting has revealed that ICE is also sweeping up otherwise law-abiding immigrants — and even some U.S. citizens — as it strives to meet the administration's new quota of 3,000 arrests per day, up from 1,000 previously, and kick-start what President Trump has described as "the largest domestic deportation operation in American history." In response to these raids, Home Depot has issued new guidance to employees about what they should do if ICE shows up. Bloomberg first reported. Home Depot confirms to Fortune that store employees are required to report any ICE-involved incident as soon as it happens. Workers across the chain have been reminded to avoid interactions with agents for their own safety. And regional store leaders at locations impacted by raids in Los Angeles are allowing workers who feel disturbed by the raid to leave for the day with full pay, although that is not a corporate-wide policy.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/17/trump-whiplash-immigration-raids	2025/06/18
U.S. citizens, asylum seekers and more: The real people affected by Trump's latest immigration raids	Borders and immigration	The U.S. State Department said Wednesday it is restarting the suspended process for foreigners applying for student visas but all applicants will now be required to unlock their social media accounts for government review.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-citizens-asylum-seekers-and-more-the	2025/06/19
How retail giant Home Depot is preparing employees for ICE raids	Borders and immigration	The U.S. State Department said Wednesday it is restarting the suspended process for foreigners applying for student visas but all applicants will now be required to unlock their social media accounts for government review.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/retail-giant-home-depot-preparing-12310	2025/06/19
ICE resumes visas for foreign students but demands access to social media accounts	Borders and immigration	Following a week of immigration whiplash, President Trump's border czar Tom Homan confirmed Wednesday that immigrant visas will resume but applicants will be required to unlock their social media accounts for government review.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/19/trump-immigration-raids-farms-hotels	2025/06/20
Trump's border czar: Immigration raids at farms, hotels to continue	Borders and immigration	Five agents — several covering their faces with galliers and armed with pistols — stood between the vehicles. They did not wear identifying terms or badges. When asked by a Times reporter which agency they were with, they said "DHS" and declined to comment further.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/federal-agents-denied-entry-dodger-stadium-parking-lot-sparking-row-outrage-over-trumps-seesop	2025/06/20
Federal agents denied entry to Dodger Stadium parking lot, sparking row, outrage over Trump's seesop	Borders and immigration	Behind the scenes, there has been a notable shift in how federal resources are being used to support immigration enforcement. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officers, including members of the Border Patrol, have increasingly been detailed to assist U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) with interior enforcement operations.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/19/trump-immigration-raids-farms-hotels	2025/06/20
Is TSA checking immigration status?	Borders and immigration	The most recent data shows that Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) detentions have gone up 25% since US President Donald Trump has taken office. And between his inauguration and June 2025, there has been an 80% increase in the arrests of immigrants with no criminal record. If you are an international visitor or US resident without permanent citizenship status, it's helpful to know your legal rights in the case of an unexpected encounter with immigration officers or border patrol agents. If you're a US citizen, you only need to answer questions verifying your identity, citizenship, and customs-related matters. "That's it," emphasizes Hernandez Rivera of the ACLU. "You can refuse to answer any questions and your refusal to answer any other questions should not lead to a denial to enter the United States." While officers may hold you for further questioning, you do not have to answer beyond those basics, and your citizenship guarantees your entry. Staying calm is crucial, and you can firmly stick to limited answers.	https://creators.yahoo.com/lifestyle/story/is-tsa-checking-immigration-st	2025/06/20
What to Do if Approached by ICE at the Airport, Border, Workplace, or Home	Borders and immigration	Medical staff are still required to treat veterans regardless of race, color, religion and sex, and all veterans remain entitled to treatment. But individual workers are now free to decline to care for patients based on personal characteristics not explicitly prohibited by federal law. In making the changes, VA officials cite the president's 30 January executive order titled "Defending Women from Gender Ideology Extremism and Restoring Biological Truth to the Federal Government". The primary purpose of the executive order was to strip most government protections from transgender people. The VA has since ceased providing most gender-affirming care and forbidden a long list of words, including "gender affirming" and "transgender", from clinical settings. "They 'seem to open the door to discrimination on the basis of anything that is not legally protected," said Dr Kenneth Kizer, the VA's top healthcare official during the Clinton administration. He said the changes open up the possibility that doctors could refuse to treat veterans based on their "reason for seeking care — including allegations of rape and sexual assault — current or past political party affiliation or political activity, and personal behavior such as alcohol or marijuana use".	https://www.yahoo.com/news/approached-ice-airport-border-workplace	2025/06/20
'Extremely disturbing and unethical': new rules allow VA doctors to refuse to treat Democrats, unmarried veterans	Cesspool	A flag associated with far right groups that was used by January 6 rioters was flown above a government agency headquarters in Washington D.C. last week. A picture of the "Appeal to Heaven" flag, flying just below the U.S. flag, was shared by Kelly Loeffler, the former senator from Georgia and current administrator of the Small Business Administration on June 11.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/16/va-doctors-refuse-t	2025/06/16
Far-right flag used by Jan 6 rioters flown above government agency in DC	Cesspool	The MAGA movement usually displays remarkable unity in attacking the left. But last week's military assault on Iran has splintered President Donald Trump's coalition, as rival factions fight over the true meaning of an "America First" foreign policy. Right-wing figures have descended into vicious debate over whether the White House should take a more active role in Israel's bombardment of Iran—one that, with American help, could dismantle Tehran's nuclear program or even lead to regime change. Tucker Carlson, Steve Bannon, and other isolationist voices are demanding that Trump stay out of another Middle Eastern war. Sean Hannity, Mark Levin, and other more hawkish conservatives are making the case that there has never been—and may never again be—a better time to take on Iran. That same split has surfaced among Republicans on Capitol Hill. Senator Lindsey Graham and others are pushing Trump to help Israel destroy Tehran's nuclear program, a goal of American presidents dating back decades. Meanwhile, MAGA luminaries such as Representative Marjorie Taylor Greene have declared that further U.S. involvement would betray the president's "America First" ideals.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/far-flag-used-jan-6-rioters-flown-above-government-agency-in-dc	2025/06/19
The MAGA Coalition Has Turned on Itself	Cesspool- MAGA	Senate leaders are avoiding direct answers on whether President Trump needs approval from Congress before taking any military action against Iran. Congress is reluctant to second-guess the commander-in-chief before he actually authorizes strikes. But Democrats have a visceral distrust of Trump, and a growing GOP faction is deeply suspicious of foreign military interventions.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/trump-jan-congress-war-powers	2025/06/18
Congress dodges preemptive confrontation with Trump over Iran. Handcuffed Democrats become symbol of Trump's crackdown on dissent	Checks and balances Dissent	A string of Democratic officials' arrests and clashes involving federal agents has sent a message about the way the administration responds to dissent with force, or the threat of it. Tariffs and supply chain uncertainty are playing havoc with hospitals' purchasing plans, especially for lower-margin products like gloves, gowns and syringes. "Hospitals are definitely feeling a pinch," Mark Hendrickson, director of Premier's supply chain policy, told Axios. "We've never seen tariffs for this long a period of time for this broad a portfolio of products in basically all of our lifetimes."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/democrats-detained-arrested-trump	2025/06/19
Hospital purchasing still buffeted by trade winds	Economy-Health	"It's really an uncertain enough environment that we're cautioning members from panic buying and buying ahead," he added. "We don't want to drive artificial shortages of products that could be avoided."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/hospital-purchasing-tariffs-trump-gp	2025/06/18
Tariffs drive some health plans to hike premiums	Economy-Health	Health insurers are starting to notify states that tariffs will drive up the premiums they plan to charge individual and small group market enrollees next year. Health insurers calculate monthly premiums in advance of each year based on the expected price of goods and services and projected demand for them. Tariffs announced by President Trump are expected to drive up the cost of prescription drugs, medical devices and other medical products and services. Some of that difference ultimately would be passed down to enrollees. For months, the Trump administration has been sending mixed signals to the agriculture community about how immune their workforce is to the effort to conduct mass deportations. The agriculture industry is among those that employ large numbers of workers without legal standing to work in the United States. And in several communities, meat packing plants employ people with temporary protected status or parole, which includes work authorization, though the administration revoked many of those protections in recent months.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/hospital-purchasing-tariffs-trump-gp	2025/06/18
After early reviews from immigration enforcement, farming industry reckons with raids	Economy-Immigration	"We can't take farmers and take all their people and send them back because they don't have maybe what they're supposed to have, maybe not," Trump said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/18/mw-at-5430846/farming-industry-immig	2025/06/17
Federal Reserve holds interest rates, defying Trump's demand to lower them	Economy-Interest rates	The US Federal Reserve kept interest rates on hold, but signaled it might make two cuts this year, as Donald Trump continues to break with precedent and demand lower rates. Retail sales fell sharply in May as consumers pulled back after a sharp increase in spending in March to get ahead of President Donald Trump's sweeping tariffs on nearly all imports.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025/jun/18/federal-reserve-int	2025/06/19
US retail sales fall as Americans turn cautious after spending early to beat tariffs	Economy-Tariffs	Sales dropped 2.7% last month at home and garden centers, 0.6% at electronics and appliance stores, and 0.7% at grocery stores. Extreme heat is not recognized as a disaster in the U.S.—despite being the largest weather-related killer in the country. Heat deaths have doubled in the past 24 years, and the number has been steadily rising since 2016, according to a study published in JAMA, the Journal of the American Medical Association, last August. Despite this, the issue has long lacked the same federal resources given to other natural disasters. "Heat actually doesn't have a home in the federal government," says Trump. "Other disasters, like fires or hurricanes have programs and institutions and policies and funding streams associated with heat that don't have any of that."	https://abcnews.go.com/Business/wireStory/us-retail-sales-fall-america	2025/06/19
What's At Stake This Summer As Trump Targets Heat and Climate Experts	Environment-Climate crisis	New data from NASA has revealed a dramatic rise in the intensity of weather events such as droughts and floods over the past five years. The study states that such extreme events are becoming more frequent, longer-lasting and more severe, with last year's figures reaching twice that of the 2003-2020 average.	https://time.com/7294598/whats-at-stake-this-summer-trump-cuts-heat	2025/06/17
Nasa data reveals dramatic rise in intensity of weather events	Environment-Climate crisis	It found climate action was being obstructed and delayed by false and misleading information stemming from fossil fuel companies, rightwing politicians and some nation states. The report, from the International Panel on the Information Environment (Ipie), systematically reviewed 300 studies.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/17/nasa-data-reveals-dra	2025/06/17
Climate misinformation turning crisis into catastrophe, report says	Environment-Climate Crisis	Online bots and trolls hugely amplify false narratives, the researchers say, playing a key role in promoting climate lies. The experts also report that political leaders, civil servants and regulatory agencies are increasingly being targeted in order to delay climate action. "Things aren't just getting worse. They're getting worse faster," said study co-author Zeke Hausfather of the tech firm Stripe and the climate monitoring group Berkeley Earth. "We're actively moving in the wrong direction in a critical period of time that we would need to meet our most ambitious climate goals. Some reports, there's a silver lining. I don't think there really is one in this one."	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/jun/19/climate-misinfo	2025/06/20	Information blackout
Scientists warn that greenhouse gas accumulation is accelerating and more extreme weather will come	Environment-Climate crisis	A major Tennessee interstate that runs through the Great Smoky Mountains may be closed for weeks following flooding and rock slides. A series of four rockslides and flooding brought rocks, trees and muddy water. No deaths or serious injuries were reported, but cars and trucks were left stuck in the debris-filled water. As of Thursday, only an 18-wheeler was left on the I-40, the Sentinel reported.	https://apnews.com/article/climate-change-throughout-15-degrees-sea-l	2025/06/20
Smoky Mountains I-40 corridor may be closed for weeks following flooding and rock slides	Environment-Disaster		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/smoky-mountains	2025/06/20

		Flash floods hit the San Antonio area late last week, leaving 13 dead, the San Antonio Fire Department confirmed over the weekend.
Deadly flash floods kill 13 in San Antonio and at least 3 in West Virginia	Environment-Flooding	The flooding arrived in the San Antonio area on Thursday, when a record 6.11 inches of rain fell, including about 4 inches that fell in a single hour early Thursday morning, according to the National Weather Service.	https://nbn.ny.us/2k3bte4	2025/06/16
Flash floods in West Virginia kill three people with others missing	Environment-Flooding	Flash flooding caused by torrential rains killed three people in northern West Virginia and rescue crews were searching for missing people on Sunday, while authorities were assessing damage to roads, bridges, natural gas lines and other infrastructure.
Here's why Alaska just issued its first heat advisory	Environment-Heat	"We're searching the banks, we're searching submerged vehicles, any debris we find along the trail and so forth," Blazer said. "We're using drones, search dogs and swift water personnel, and we have teams organized that are searching sectors that we're trying to recover anybody that's missing."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/15/west-virginia-flash-floods	2025/06/16
Heat dome will blanket much of the US, with worrisome temperatures in Midwest	Environment-Heat	The heat advisory in Alaska will be in place from 1 p.m. on Sunday, June 15 to Tuesday, June 17 at 7 p.m. local time, according to the National Weather Service.	https://apnews.com/article/heat-dome-index-humidity-extreme-tempera	2025/06/20
National Hurricane Center watching 3 tropical waves. Heat index could hit 115 in Florida	Environment-Hurricane	In the eastern Pacific, former Tropical Storm Iselle has weakened into a post-tropical cyclone as it continues to move away from land but an area of low pressure off Central America is expected to become a tropical depression over the next couple of days.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/national-hurricane-center-watching-3-121	2025/06/17	Heat wave
Hurricane Erick rapidly intensifies ahead of Mexico. Landfall, major flooding and wind threat	Environment-Hurricane	Hurricane Erick is expected to come ashore in southern Mexico as the first major hurricane prior to July with flooding rain, damaging winds and storm surge by Thursday. The hurricane continues to rapidly intensify.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/erick-eastern-pacific-expected-rapidly-15	2025/06/19
Erick weakens after landfall in southern Mexico as a Category 3 hurricane	Environment-Hurricane	Powerful Hurricane Erick made landfall in Mexico's southern state of Oaxaca early Thursday as a major hurricane before moving inland and weakening to a tropical storm as it dumped heavy rain, the National Hurricane Center in Miami said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/19/mx-s1-5435331/hurricane-erick-mexico	2025/06/20
The US is woefully underprepared for wildfire season, say insiders. The stakes are life and death.	Environment-Wildfire	Severe cuts to budgets and staff have hamstringing the agencies that manage roughly 640m acres of the nation's public lands, leaving significant gaps in a workforce that supports wildfire mitigation and suppression. The administration's crackdown on climate science and the dismantling of departments that provided world-class research and weather forecasting, may also undermine early warning systems, slowing response and strategic planning.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/summer-wildfire-pr	2025/06/20
Top House Democrat asks Microsoft about DOGE code allegedly tied to NLRB data removal	Fuck That Department	The top Democrat on the House Oversight Committee is asking Microsoft to share information about a Department of Government Efficiency staffer's account on a Microsoft-owned website that allegedly hosted what the lawmakers called "backdoor code" designed to remove data from a sensitive case management database used by the National Labor Relations Board.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/19/mx-s1-5435333/congress-doge-erick-nhl	2025/06/17
Elon Musk may be gone but DOGE isn't done remaking the federal government	Fuck That Department	"The whistleblower has also explained how the responsible individuals [affiliated with DOGE] have attempted to conceal their activities, obstruct oversight, and shield themselves from accountability, including by deleting system logs and operating back doors into the NLRB case management system to send massive amounts of data outside of the agency," Lynch wrote. "Potentiality in connection with these efforts, a DOGE engineer reportedly wrote backdoor code that appears designed to remove data from NLRB and saved that code to a repository on Microsoft's GitHub platform. Given Microsoft's ownership of GitHub, I request information and documents in Microsoft's possession regarding this incident."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/19/mx-s1-5431926/doge-future-elon-musk	2025/06/17
President Trump fires a member of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission	Government-Jobs	Now, many of them have been converted to permanent jobs within the government, and agencies are embracing DOGE's mission, according to NPR's review of personnel movements and interviews with federal employees who requested anonymity because they fear retaliation from the Trump administration for speaking about internal matters.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/19/mx-s1-5432859/trump-fires-nuclear-reg	2025/06/17
Senate unveils trickiest text of Trump's "big, beautiful bill"	Government-Budget	President Trump has fired one of the five members of the independent commission that oversees the nation's nuclear reactors.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/senate-gop-one-big-beautiful-bill-text	2025/06/17
Trump's budget bill gets a new, bigger price tag	Government-Budget	"All organizations are more effective when leaders are rowing in the same direction," White House Deputy Press Secretary Anna Kelly told NPR via e-mail. "President Trump reserves the right to remove employees within his own Executive Branch who exert his executive authority."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/trump-budget-bill-deficit-debt-cha	2025/06/18
'It will fail': Megabill changes have Republicans doubling July 4 timeline	Government-Budget	The Senate Finance Committee Republicans published their text of President Trump's "one big, beautiful bill" Monday evening, which includes major tax reforms and even steppier Medicaid cuts than the House called for.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doubts-abound-trump-aggressive-megabi	2025/06/19
Senate's 'big, beautiful bill' faces House headwinds. 'This is political stupidity'	Government-Budget	The Senate is making some key changes to the House's version of the bill, which passed last month.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/senate-big-beautiful-bill-faces-10000716	2025/06/19
GOP's Hawley says Trump was unaware of key element in Republican megabill	Government-Budget	The Child Tax Credit would increase to just $2,200 — less than the $2,500 in the House version. It would make permanent various business and other tax incentives, including expensing of investments in equipment and R&D.	https://www.msnbc.com/rachel-maddow-show/maddowblogopione-bq-be	2025/06/19
Mahmet Oz accidentally raises an important point about the Republicans' far-right megabill	Government-Budget	Republican senators are proposing deeper cuts to Medicaid spending by lowering the provider tax that certain states are allowed to assess. For states that have adopted Medicaid expansion, it gradually lowers the provider tax from 6% to 3.5% in 2031.	https://www.msnbc.com/rachel-maddow-show/maddowblogopione-bq-be	2025/06/19
Rodney Scott confirmed as head of CBP by US Senate despite 'cover-up' claim	Government-CBP	The Congressional Budget Office released a new "dynamic" score of President Trump's "one, big beautiful bill" on Tuesday, estimating that it would increase budget deficits by as much as $2.8 trillion over the next decade.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/rodney-scott-cbp-go	2025/06/19
New CDC advisers will skip some expected topics and explore a target of antivaccine activists	Government-CDC	The US Senate on Wednesday confirmed Rodney Scott as commissioner of Customs and Border Protection (CBP), despite a former top official accusing of orchestrating a "cover-up" over the death of a man detained while trying to enter the country from Mexico.	https://apnews.com/article/cdc-cdc-vaccine-thimerosal-3927610e1111	2025/06/19
Wisconsin dairy farmer sues Trump administration, claiming discrimination against white farmers	Government-DEI	On the surface, the Republican legislation is made up of massive tax breaks, which has touched off an important debate about whether it's a good idea to redistribute wealth toward those with the most and away from those with the least. But make no mistake: The GOP's bill also deserves to be seen as a health care bill, which is "antibiotic" to the extent that few have even tried to do this much damage to their own country's health care system in one proposal.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wisconsin-daily-farmer-sues-trump-1316	2025/06/17
Outrage as DHS moves to restrict lawmaker visits to detention centers	Government-DHS	As we learned two weeks ago, for example, estimates from the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office found that the Republican bill would leave an additional 16 million Americans without health insurance, in part through Medicaid cuts and in part by gutting core elements of the Affordable Care Act.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/dhs-immigration-de	2025/06/20
Leader of top FEMA disaster coordination office resigns, as Trump moves to eliminate agency	Government-FEMA	The US Senate on Wednesday confirmed Rodney Scott as commissioner of Customs and Border Protection (CBP), despite a former top official accusing of orchestrating a "cover-up" over the death of a man detained while trying to enter the country from Mexico.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/17/mx-s1-5436787/fema-resignation-nafo	2025/06/18
Trump orders ICE to step up deportation efforts in Democratic-run cities	Government-ICE	U.S. Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s new vaccine advisers meet next week, but their agenda suggests they'll skip some expected topics — including a vote on COVID-19 shots — while taking up a longtime target of anti-vaccine groups.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/trump-ice-democrat-cities-immigrants	2025/06/17
ICE could 'run out of money next month' and is already $1bn over budget to carry out Trump's deportation plans	Government-ICE	The agenda for the new committee's first meeting, posted Wednesday, shows it will be shorter than expected. Discussion of COVID-19 shots will open the session, but the agenda lists no vote on that. Instead, the committee will vote on fall flu vaccinations, on FSV vaccinations for pregnant women and children and on the use of a preservative named thimerosal that's in a subset of flu shots.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-could-run-money-next-14364116.0	2025/06/17
Fears of racial profiling rise as Border Patrol conducts 'roving patrols,' detains U.S. citizens	Government-ICE	While there are more than three months left in the fiscal year, one estimate has found that the agency is already $1 billion over budget, according to Axios. Legislators in both parties have raised concerns about the speed at which the agency is spending its funds, which may prompt President Donald Trump to seek additional funds from other agencies to support his deportation efforts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fears-racial-profiling-rise-border-1000009	2025/06/17
FFA Club World Cup. Ticket Sales TANK After DHS, Says Agents Will Be At Stadium	Government-ICE	Agents picking up street vendors without warrants, American citizens being grilled, Home Depot lots swept. Car washes raided. The wide-scale arrests and detentions — often in the region's largely Latino neighborhoods — contain hallmarks of racial profiling and other due process violations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ffa-club-world-cup-ticket-203952348.htm	2025/06/17
L.A. County supervisor ror worries about 'bad players,' impersonating ICE	Government-ICE	"We are seeing ICE come into our communities to do indiscriminate mass arrests of immigrants or people who appear to them to be immigrant, largely based on racial profiling," said Eva Berra, a lawyer at ACLU of Southern California.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/l-a-county-supervisor-worries-bad-0040426	2025/06/20
ICE raids and their uncertainty scare off workers and buffet businesses	Government-ICE	Sales for the FIFA Club World Cup, a series of precursor games ahead of next year's North American World Cup, were already lackluster when, last week, U.S. Customs and Border Protection bragged online about how its agents would be "buled and booted and ready to provide security for the first round of games."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-raids-uncertainty-scare-off-10125528	2025/06/20

The GOP's big bill would bring changes to Medicaid for millions	Government-Medicaid	Hawley and other Republicans acknowledge that the main cost-saving provision in the bill – new work requirements on able-bodied adults who receive health care through the Medicaid program – would cause millions of people to lose their coverage. At 10d, estimates are 10.9 million fewer people would have health coverage under the bill's proposed changes to Medicaid and the Affordable Care Act. That includes some 8 million fewer in the Medicaid program, including 5.2 million dropping off because of the new eligibility requirements.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gops-big-bill-bring-changes-112825299.html	2025/06/16
Medicaid keeps getting more popular as Republicans aim to cut it by $800 billion	Government-Medicaid	We actually are seeing a pretty significant uptick in Medicaid popularity, says Krizinger, who is director of survey methodology for health research organization KFF. According to a poll published Tuesday, 83% of the public have favorable views of Medicaid. Just a few months ago, in January, that figure was 77% of the public.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/06/17/mc-41-5435	2025/06/18
The cost of staying alive could become a lot more expensive for millions of Americans because of Trump drug tariffs	Health- Costs	Americans would likely pay more for necessary everyday prescription drugs, such as insulin, painkillers, chemotherapy, or antibiotics, if President Donald Trump were to enact tariffs on pharmaceuticals, experts warn. In an effort to incentivize drug manufacturers to bring production back to the United States, Trump has proposed levying pharmaceuticals made overseas – which account for an overwhelming majority of everyday medicines used in the U.S.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cost-staying-alive-could-become-122856.html	2025/06/18	economy, tariffs
Very painful symptom could be a warning sign of new Covid, Nimbua variant	Health- Covid	"We're going to be doing that," Trump said of pharmaceutical tariffs in April. "That's going to be like we have on cars. You know we have a 25 percent tariff on cars, we have a 25 percent tariff on steel and aluminum, and that's what the [pharmaceutical] category fits right now." A new Covid variant spreading in the UK may be causing one "very painful" symptom, a doctor has warned.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/health/covid-variant-nimbua-sympt	2025/06/16
COVID 'razor blade throat' rises as new subvariant spreads in California	Health- Covid	Dr Naveed Asif, GP at The London General Practice, warned this variant has a distinctive symptom, a severe sore throat known as a "razor blade sensation". COVID-19 appears to be on the rise in some parts of California as a new, highly contagious subvariant – featuring "razor blade throat" symptoms overseas – is becoming increasingly dominant.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/covid-razor-blade-throat-rises-10000563.html	2025/06/17
CDC official overseeing COVID hospitalization data resigns in protest	Health- Covid	Although "razor blade throat" may seem like a new term, the description of incredibly painful sore throats associated with COVID-19 has emerged before in the United States. We have a throat that feels like it's covered with shards of glass. But the increased attention to this symptom comes as the Nimbua subvariant has caused surges of COVID-19 in other countries.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cdc-official-overseeing-covid-hospitalizat	2025/06/17
9 months after Hurricane Helene, food scarcity is still real in western North Carolina	Health- Food	A Centers for Disease Control and Prevention official who led the agency's network to study hospitalization trends from infectious diseases like COVID-19 has resigned in protest following Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s orders to change the agency's vaccine recommendations and the committee that makes them.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/14/mc-41-5470040/9-months-after-hurricane	2025/06/18
FDA approves twice-a-year injection for HIV prevention	Health- HIV	"I no longer have confidence that these data will be used objectively or evaluated with appropriate scientific rigor to make evidence-based vaccine policy decisions," Havers wrote in an email sent to colleagues before the announcement.	https://www.fda.gov/news-events/press-announcements/fda-approves-twice-a-year-injection-hiv-prevention	2025/06/19
New Report: U.S. drug overdose deaths rise again after hopeful decline	Health- Overdose	Nearly nine months since Helene hit, another hurricane season has gotten underway. But in western North Carolina, many people are still struggling to recover from last year. Residents say they have few options for fresh produce and that's why many are waiting patiently in line. Food items are going quickly, though volunteers and employees with Bounty and Soul keep swapping empty produce crates for full ones.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/18/mc-41-5432711/overdose-deaths-cdc	2025/06/18
Popular cough medicines for children recalled over bacterial infection risk that can be deadly	Health- Recall	Before Helene, the nonprofit procured produce from local farms, but many in western North Carolina were heavily affected by the storm. Today, Bounty and Soul buys produce from outside the area and distributes it in communities where it's needed, like Swainsboro.	https://www.who.int/news/usa/american-children-cough-m	2025/06/20
US experts fear all vaccines at risk as Trump officials target mRNA jabs	Health- Vaccine	A drug currently used to treat certain HIV infections has also, on Wednesday, received approval from the US Food and Drug Administration to be used to prevent HIV. Gilead Sciences, maker of the drug, announced that a twice-a-year injection of lenacapavir has been approved in the United States for HIV prevention under the brand name Yemglo. In clinical trials, the drug was found to dramatically reduce the risk of infection and provide near total protection against HIV, significantly more than the primary options available for pre-exposure prophylaxis or PrEP.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-experts-fear-vaccines-risk-150061103	2025/06/18
A Lot Of Americans Are Going To Die', Vaccine Expert Speaks Out After Resigning From CDC	Health- Vaccines	For the first time in more than a year, street drug deaths appear to be rising across the U.S. according to a new report from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The latest available data, compiled in January of this year, shows fatal overdoses over the previous 12-month period increased by roughly 1,400 deaths.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lot-americans-going-die-vaccine-2020020	2025/06/19
Trump's former surgeon general calls out administration's actions on vaccines	Health- Vaccines	Little Remedies Honey Cough Syrup was recalled Tuesday over the "presence" of Bacillus cereus, a type of bacteria that can cause two types of foodborne illnesses, and because of "loss of shelf-stability," according to a notice from the medicine makers, Medich Products Inc.	https://www.wbur.org/thetenthrow/2025/06/19/trump-vaccine-criticism	2025/06/20
Websites expand ancestry records of enslaved people	History	As top US health officials turn against some mRNA vaccines, experts fear for the country's preparedness for the next pandemic and worry that other vaccines will be targeted next. Donald Trump's administration recently canceled a $760m award to Moderna on the research and development of H5N1 bird flu vaccines, and officials have announced new restrictions and regulations for Covid mRNA vaccines – actions that signal a move away from the breakthrough technology.	https://www.apnews.com/2025/06/19/websites-expand-ancestry-records-4	2025/06/20
The Taliban has banned a lot of things – but chess?	Human rights	"I think mRNA vaccines are particularly at risk, although I think all vaccines are at risk," said Paul Offit, professor of pediatrics at the University of Pennsylvania's Perelman School of Medicine.	https://www.npr.org/sections/goats-and-soda/2025/06/17/mc-41-542813	2025/06/18
Overwhelmed and understaffed, the Louvre shuts its doors – a warning sign for global overtourism	Information blackout	"I think that this administration will do everything it can to make vaccines less available, less affordable and more feared." If the policies of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. aren't reversed, "a lot of Americans are going to die as a result of vaccine-preventable diseases."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/lot-americans-going-die-vaccine-2020020	2025/06/19
US news consumers are turning to podcaster Joe Rogan and away from traditional sources, report shows	Information blackout	Unfortunatly, that quote is not attributable to Chicken Little. Instead, it's the opinion of Dr. Fiona Havers, formerly a top scientist at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, who resigned from the agency Monday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-news-consumers-turning-podcaster-2	2025/06/17
How Trump's travel ban could disrupt the way knowledge about health is shared	Information blackout	The abrupt resigning, along with the opaque new direction that they're going in, is quite simply a shocking betrayal of public trust that's further shaking people's confidence in life-saving vaccines, and many of us in public health believe it's going to open the door to diseases that we spent decades trying to stop."	https://www.npr.org/sections/goats-and-soda/2025/06/17/mc-41-542813	2025/06/18
Rise in 'alert fatigue' risks phone users disabling new notifications, study finds	Information blackout	"I'm borrowing this from someone else. You can't light a fire and then pull the fire alarm and come in and say only you can put out the fire. What I mean by that is a lot of the mistrust is being stirred up by the actions and the rhetoric of quite frankly, RFK and some of his supporters and so I would caution them to be very cognizant of the words they're using the processes they're going about doing things or that they're doing an end run around.	https://www.theguardian.com/media/2025/jun/20/increase-alert-fatigue	2025/06/20
A Saudi journalist, tweeted against the government – and was executed for high treason	Information blackout	Two genealogy sites are adding troves of historical materials about enslaved people in the U.S. to databases, which could give many of their descendants a fuller picture of their families' histories.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/18/saudi-arabia-turki-al-jal	2025/06/20
Trump ruled out Israeli assassination of Iran's Supreme Leader, U.S. officials say	International Relations	The Taliban suspended chess – during its first iteration of rule, and now, because it's "a means of gambling," the sports minister Alai Masharraf told the French news service AFP. "There are religious considerations regarding the sport of chess," he added, without elaborating what those considerations were. He added: "Until these considerations are addressed, the sport of chess is suspended in Afghanistan."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/trump-israel-iran-assassination-khar	2025/06/16
Lawmakers urge defense if Iran attacks U.S. targets	International Relations	The Louvre, the world's most-visited museum and a global symbol of art, beauty and endurance, remained shuttered Monday – not by war, not by terror, but by its own exhausted staff, who say the institution is crumbling from within.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/iran-israel-attack-us-congress	2025/06/16
What to know about the G7 summit Trump is attending	International Relations	And yet, the moment felt bigger than a labor protest. The Louvre has become a bellwether of global overtourism – a gilded palace overwhelmed by its own popularity. As tourism magnets from Venice to the Acropolis scramble to cap crowds, the world's most iconic museum is reaching a reckoning of its own.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/14/g7-summit-2025-trump-canada	2025/06/16
Trump says he's 'not looking for a fight' with Iran but stands ready to act if necessary	International Relations	The spontaneous strike erupted during a routine internal meeting, as gallery attendants, ticket agents and security personnel refused to take up their posts in protest over unmanageable crowds, chronic understaffing and what one union called "untenable" working conditions.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/iran-israel-attack-us-congress	2025/06/16
Iran's assumption US would get drawn into Iran war is being put to the test	International Relations	Prominent podcaster like Joe Rogan are playing a bigger role in news dissemination in the United States, as are AI chatbots, contributing to the further erosion of traditional media, according to a report released on Tuesday.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/18/israel-iran-war-us-joi	2025/06/19
Trump to decide on Iran action within two weeks, White House says	International Relations	Stories like Korman's will likely accumulate over the coming weeks and months, as global health researchers, workers and advocates from these countries are barred from coming to the U.S. to learn – and to share their expertise. Some global health specialists say the restrictions will ultimately harm U.S. interests by reducing our engagement with the world.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/iran-israel-attack-us-congress	2025/06/16
Food rations are halved in one of Africa's largest refugees camps after US aid cuts	International Relations	"We are closing ourselves off from the active participation of potential allies," says Judy Watson, an epidemiologist at Johns Hopkins University. "That will only lead to negative consequences in the long term."	https://www.apnews.com/article/kenya-refugees-akuma-funding-hunger-4	2025/06/20

		Here are five things to watch. Israel and Iran strikes take centerstage Trump visits Canada amid 51st state talk Trade deadline looms Russia-Ukraine war Month of alliance meetings
Israel-Iran attacks loom over Trump at G7: Five things to watch	International-G7		https://www.yahoo.com/news/israel-iran-attacks-loom-over-10000567	2025/06/16
Trump leaves G7 summit early after "evacuate Tehran" warning	International-Iran	President Trump called on Iranian civilians to "immediately evacuate Tehran" on Monday evening, shortly after which the White House announced he would be departing the G7 summit early to "attend to many important matters."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/trump-evacuate-tehran-warning-ira	2025/06/17
Israelis are fleeing the capital as long lines form at gas stations while Israeli attacks could worsen an energy crisis	International-Iran	Amid Israel's punishing air strikes, Iranians clogged roads and highways on Sunday to leave Tehran, according to reports. That came as fresh attacks targeted Iran's energy infrastructure, including pipelines and a top natural gas field. Reduced electricity supplies could worsen an energy crisis that had already been hitting Iranians for months.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/israelis-fleeing-capital-long-lines-213733	2025/06/17
		When Israel launched its series of strikes against Iran last week, it also issued a number of dire warnings about the country's nuclear program, suggesting Iran was fast approaching a point of no return in its quest to obtain nuclear weapons and that the strikes were necessary to preempt that outcome. But US intelligence assessments had reached a different conclusion – not only was Iran not actively pursuing a nuclear weapon, it was also up to three years away from being able to produce and deliver one to a target of its choosing, according to four people familiar with the assessment. Now, after days of Israeli airstrikes, US intelligence officials believe that so far, Israel may have set back Iran's nuclear program by only a matter of months, according to one of those people, a US official. Even as Israel has done significant damage to Iran's facility at Natanz, which houses centrifuges necessary to enrich uranium, a second, heavily fortified enrichment site at Fordow has remained effectively untouched.
Israel says Iran was racing toward a nuclear weapon. US intel says it was years away	International-Iran	Israel lacks the capability to damage Fordow without specific US weapons and aerial support, defense experts say.	https://www.cnn.com/2025/06/17/politics/israel-iran-nuclear-bomb-us-ia	2025/06/18
Israeli air force achieved freedom of operation in Tehran's airspace, IDF says	International-Israel	Israel Defense Forces has achieved full freedom of operation in the air space around Iran's capital Tehran, the IDF announced on Saturday. Other than the military implications of being able to freely hit targets where Iran's main military command and control headquarters are located, it is also a political message that Iran's leadership and government symbols are exposed to Israeli attacks.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/14/israeli-air-force-freedom-operation-9	2025/06/16
		Israel and Iran have broadened their strikes against each other on the third day of an escalating war that has killed and injured hundreds of people, as Donald Trump called for an end to the conflict and warned Tehran against sinking US targets in the region.
Israel and Iran broaden strikes during third day of escalating war	International-Israel	Israel attacked Iran's energy industry and defence ministry on Saturday night, leaving a fuel depot ablaze through the night outside Tehran. It followed with evacuation warnings to civilians living near arms factories and on Sunday launched a rare daytime raid on the capital. Iran fired at least 70 missiles towards Israel and several evaded air defences. They hit a refinery in north, killed four people in a Palestinian-majority town near the Sea of Galilee and brought down part of a high-rise apartment block in Bat Yam, south of Tel Aviv.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/israel-hits-iran-energy-industry-13181870	2025/06/16
		President Donald Trump said Sunday the United States is not involved in Israel's military strikes against Iran, but "it's possible we could get involved."
Trump says 'it's possible' US gets involved in Israel-Iran conflict	International-Israel	The president told ABC News he would be "open" to Putin's idea to serve as a mediator between Iran and Israel.	https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/trump-us-gets-involved-israel-iran-conf/	2025/06/16
		France shut down the main Israeli company stands at the Paris Airshow on Monday for refusing to remove attack weapons from display, sparking a furious response from Israel and inflaming tensions between the traditional allies.
Israel furious as France shuts weapons stands at Paris Airshow	International-Israel	The office of French Prime Minister Francois Bayrou said it had told all exhibitors ahead of the show that offensive weapons would be prohibited from display and that Israel's embassy in Paris had agreed to this. It added that the companies could resume their exhibits if they complied with this requirement.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/france-shuts-four-man-israel-075410	2025/06/17
4 things to know as the war between Israel and Iran intensifies	International-Israel	1. Many civilians have been caught in the crossfire 2. Destroying all of Iran's nuclear sites won't be easy 3. Israel's endgame is unclear 4. The U.S. could be drawn in	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/17/m-s1-5436749/israel-iran-airstrikes-9	2025/06/18
North Korea plans to send military construction workers and deminers to Russia	International-North Korea	North Korea will send thousands of military construction workers and deminers to support reconstruction work in Russia's Kursk region, a top Russian official said Tuesday, the latest sign of expanding cooperation between the nations. North Korea has already supplied thousands of combat troops and a vast amount of conventional weapons to back Russia's war against Ukraine. In April, Pyongyang and Moscow said that their soldiers fought together to repel a Ukrainian incursion into Russia's Kursk border region, though Ukraine has insisted it still has troops present there.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/18/p-s1-73478/north-korea-send-military-w	2025/06/18
		Israel's primary focus is now its war with Iran, but Israeli troops are still holding territory deep inside Gaza, and Tuesday marked the deadliest day in recent weeks for Palestinians there trying to reach food distribution sites and trucks. Health officials in Gaza say at least 59 people were killed by Israeli military drones and artillery fire Tuesday, and more than 200 wounded, trying to get food. Most of the deaths, at least 45, occurred at an intersection in southern Gaza's city of Khan Younis, where a large crowd of people had amassed waiting for trucks to enter carrying food.
As Israel turns its focus to Iran, the death toll mounts in Gaza — and hunger deepens	International-Palestine	Russia has ramped up its airborne attacks against Ukraine in recent weeks, launching as many as 478 drones and missiles in a single night. These assaults are not just bigger and more frequent; they are also more concentrated and executed in a way that makes them a lot more difficult to combat — as they are flown at higher altitudes, out of reach of machine guns.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/17/m-s1-73478/gaza-hunger-aid-attacks-9	2025/06/18
		The increase in the number of drones Russia is deploying against its neighbor is stunning: seven of Moscow's largest drone attacks in its war on Ukraine have happened in the past four weeks, according to a CNN tally.
Russia is shifting tactics again, assaulting Ukrainian cities with swarms of killer drones	International-Russia	Russia, a longtime ally of Iran and nuclear-armed adversary of the U.S., has sounded the alarm about the potential globally-devastating consequences of the conflict, especially should the U.S. military get more involved. "Nuclear facilities are being struck," foreign ministry spokesperson Maria Zakharova told Reuters on Wednesday. "Where is the [economy from the] entire world community? Where are all the environmentalists?"	https://www.yahoo.com/news/russia-shifting-tactics-again-assaulting-dr	2025/06/17
		Providing training to women and girls who have faced gender-based violence Resettling refugees in Mexico Eliminating exploding remnants of war Teaching refugees girls self-defense in Kenya Sex education by monks in Bhutan
These are 5 things the UN does that you may not have known	International-UN	A federal judge ruled Monday it was illegal for the Trump administration to cancel several hundred research grants, adding that the cuts raise serious questions about racial discrimination.	https://nprnews.com/article/united-nations-80th-anniversary-trump-fund	2025/06/20
Judge rules some NIH grant cuts illegal, saying he's never seen such discrimination in 40 years	Judicial-Punjab	U.S. District Judge William Young in Massachusetts said the administration's process was "arbitrary and capricious" and that it did not follow long-held government rules and standards when it abruptly canceled grants intended to focus on gender identity or diversity, equity and inclusion.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/judge-rules-nih-grant-cuts-2204205329	2025/06/17
Judge blocks Trump plan to tie states' transportation funds to immigration enforcement	Judicial-Punjab	A federal judge on Thursday blocked Donald Trump's administration from forcing 20 Democratic-led states to cooperate with immigration enforcement in order to receive billions of dollars in transportation grant funding. Chief US District Judge John McConnell in Providence, Rhode Island, granted the states' request for an injunction barring the Department of Transportation's policy, saying the states were not to be ruled on the merits of some or all of their claims.	https://www.thequardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/transportation-funds	2025/06/20
		Another 2,000 California National Guard troops are being deployed to the Los Angeles area, the Defense Department announced Tuesday. It comes amid the Trump administration's ongoing immigration crackdown in the region, which has sparked a series of at times contentious protests in downtown L.A. over the past few weeks.
2,000 more National Guard troops being sent to Los Angeles, Pentagon says	Military	The decision to activate them was at the direction of Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth, officials said. USNORTHCOM did not elaborate on what prompted Hegseth to expand the troop count in L.A.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/2-000-more-national-guard-012700797-N	2025/06/19
Pete Hegseth suggests he would disobey court ruling against deploying military in LA	Military	The US defense secretary, Pete Hegseth, suggested on Wednesday that he would not obey a federal court ruling against the deployments of national guard troops and US Marines to Los Angeles, the latest example of the Trump administration's willingness to ignore judges it disagrees with.	https://www.thequardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/hegseth-senate-hea	2025/06/19
		The dispute over President Trump's decision to federalize thousands of National Guard troops and deploy them to Los Angeles has moved to a San Francisco federal appeals court.
As courts review military in L.A., immigration enforcement accelerates	Military	The president sent more than 4,000 Guard members to the city to protect federal property and employees during tumultuous protests against immigration enforcement. Newsom says the deployment of the Guard and an additional 700 Marines was an overreaction and counter-productive.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/18/p-s1-73568/as-courts-review-military-l	2025/06/20
Hegseth Signals There Are Plans Ready to Deploy More Troops Inside the U.S.	Military	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth signaled there are plans at the ready to deploy more troops within the U.S. while defending President Donald Trump mobilizing troops to Los Angeles.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hegseth-signals-plans-ready-deploy-1707	2025/06/20
Padilla says FBI agent, Guard member escorted him to Noem's briefing before removal	Political-cesspool	Sen. Alex Padilla (D-Calif.) said Sunday that a member of the National Guard and an FBI agent escorted him into Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem's press conference last week before he was forcibly removed.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/alex-padilla-kristi-noem-dhs-remov	2025/06/16
		President Donald Trump's pick to lead the Federal Aviation Administration has long claimed to have a commercial pilot's license – but new reports suggest otherwise. Bryan Bedford, the CEO of Republic Airways, was listed on the airline's website as holding "commercial, multi-engine and instrument pilot ratings" until Thursday, but after his credentials came under question, the word "commercial," was removed from the description on Friday, Politico reported.
Trump's FAA pick has long claimed he has a commercial pilot's license. Reports show he does not	Political-cesspool	Records obtained by Politico revealed that Bedford does not have a commercial pilot's license registered with the FAA – though he has claimed to since at least 2010, according to the Internet Archive's Wayback Machine.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-f	2025/06/16
		Sen. Tom Cotton (R-Ark.) on Sunday said he doesn't believe Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) should "pull back on any kind of enforcement" after the Trump administration directed the agency to pause raids against workers in the agriculture, hotel and restaurant industries.
Cotton on Trump ICE pause on select industries: 'I don't think we should pull back on any kind of enforcement'	Political-cesspool	"I don't think we should pull back on any kind of enforcement at all," Cotton said. "I think workable enforcement in all industries needs to be able to move forward. And I think ICE agents on the front lines need the support of political leadership."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/cotton-trump-ice-pause-select-22122770	2025/06/17	Government- ICE
Sean Duffy warns he will withhold infrastructure repair money from states that don't help in ICE raids	Political-cesspool	Transportation Secretary Sean Duffy has said that states that don't cooperate with the federal government's deportation efforts may not receive any funding to rebuild their infrastructure.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/sean-d	2025/06/17
ICE Berlin visited Biohazard Lab With RFP Jr. Before Hospitalization	Political-cesspool	Kristi Noem was hospitalized for an allergic reaction one day after Robert F. Kennedy Jr. shared a photo of them both visiting a biosecurity lab that was temporarily shut down due to safety concerns.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-berlin-visited-biohazard-lab-02355770	2025/06/19
		A federal judge in Miami held Florida's attorney general, James Althoff, in contempt of court for continuing to enforce an immigration law she blocked, and bragging about it in media interviews afterwards.
Florida attorney general held in contempt after enforcing blocked immigration law	Political-cesspool	The contempt finding is the latest episode of an escalating power struggle between rightwing politicians and the courts, which have blocked several of Donald Trump's headline immigration policies at the federal level.	https://www.thequardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/18/florida-attorney-gen	2025/06/19
Questions raised over Lauren Boebert's financial disclosures filing - which includes no financial disclosures	Political-cesspool	Lauren Boebert has asked eyebrows after filing an annual financial disclosure that disclosed... nothing. The federal Republican congresswoman's filing contained no assets, no income from her book, no bank accounts, and no mortgage on a home.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/boer	2025/06/19
		National Intelligence Director Tulsi Gabbard, an outspoken critic of past U.S. military interventions abroad, appears to have fallen out of favor with President Donald Trump as he weighs military action against Iran, according to multiple senior administration officials with knowledge of the matter.
Tulsi Gabbard sidelined in Trump administration, discussions on Israel and Iran	Political-cesspool	Gabbard's politically perilous position burst into the open this week when Trump brushed her back over her testimony to Congress in March. At that time, she said the U.S. intelligence community did not believe Iran was building a nuclear weapon — a comment at odds with Trump's recent public statement about the threat posed by Iran's potential nuclear program.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tulsi-gabbard-sidelined-trump-administrat	2025/06/20
		One of the senior administration officials, quoted anonymously by Politico, said there is a growing perception within the West Wing that the former Hawaii Democratic congresswoman, who once ran for that party's presidential nomination, "doesn't add anything to any conversation."
Trump is 'losing confidence' in Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard as he mulls removing her, entire office, senior officials say	Political-cesspool	He has also reportedly been considering the idea of closing Gabbard's office and integrating its responsibilities into the CIA's leadership infrastructure. However, this could have a significant impact on oversight of the U.S. intelligence community and affect how information is relayed to the commander-in-chief.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-losing-confidence-tulsi-gabbard-08	2025/06/20

		After his reinstatement, Vance quickly surpassed a record for the website: he now operates the most blocked account on Bluesky. The dubious achievement was noted with some sarcasm: dismay by journalist Jesse Singal, the most blocked user prior to Vance's debut on the site. (Singal's deeply skeptical coverage of gender-affirming care for trans adolescents was cited in an amicus brief on Skremetti by the Family Research Council, an evangelical think tank that opposes abortion and LGBTQ+ rights.) Vance is currently blocked by more than 10 times as many Bluesky users than follow him, and edged toward the milestone number of 100,000 on Thursday. The site has more than 36 million users in total.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/4-vance-john-bluesky-222142961.html	2025/06/20
J.D. Vance Joins Bluesky, Immediately Becomes Most Blocked Account on App	Political cesspool
Florida attorney general pitches 'Alligator Alcatraz' to hold migrants	Political cesspool	Florida Attorney General James I. Altomire pitched a new facility to hold immigrants in the Everglades called "Alligator Alcatraz." Altomire said in a video posted Thursday to social platform X that the location "presents an efficient, low cost opportunity to build a temporary detention facility because you don't need to invest that much in the perimeter. If people get out, there's not much waiting for them other than alligators and pythons."		https://www.yahoo.com/news/florida-attorney-general-pitches-alligator-20250620	2025/06/20
Noem demands more control over FEMA and Homeland Security funding, which could slow disaster response	Political cesspool	Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem is tightening her grip on her department's purse strings, ordering that every contract and grant over $100,000 must now cross her desk for approval, according to a memo exclusively obtained by CNN.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/noem-demands-more-control-over-1374-20250620	2025/06/20
Tucker Carlson is doing a better job than Democrats of countering Trump on Iran. 'We're in such a bizarre world'	Political Cesspool	Welcome to the resistance... Tucker Carlson? In the past two weeks, the former Fox News host has become the loudest and most effective opponent of the push for the United States to join Israel's war against Iran.		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/tucker-	2025/06/20
Trump has not called Walz following shooting of Minnesota lawmakers	Political Violence	Walz spokesperson Teddy Tacham confirmed to Axios that the governor had not heard from the president directly as of early Sunday afternoon.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/trump-walz-minnesota-shooting-law-	2025/06/16
What to know about Minnesota lawmakers' shootings, that killed Melissa Hoffman	Political Violence	Minnesota state House Democratic Leader Melissa Hoffman and her husband, Mark, were killed and state Sen. John Hoffman and his wife, Yvette, were wounded in the attacks by a gunman whom officials said was impersonating a police officer.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/minnesota-shootings-lawmakers-sh-	2025/06/16
Man dies after shooting at "No Kings" protest in Salt Lake City	Political Violence	The Salt Lake City Police Department on Sunday said the victim, 39-year-old Arthur Follas Ah Loo, a Utah resident, appeared to be "an innocent bystander who was not the intended target of the gunfire."		https://www.axios.com/local/salt-lake-city/2025/06/15/salt-lake-city-ah-	2025/06/16
Man drove into crowd at Virginia "No Kings" protest, police say	Political Violence	Police in Virginia arrested a 21-year-old man they allege "intentionally" drove an SUV through a crowd of anti-Trump "No Kings" protest on Saturday.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/virginia-no-kings-rally-arrested-drive-	2025/06/16
Congress' fight over security erupts after Minnesota shootings	Political Violence	A long-simmering fight over congressional security roared back to the surface this weekend following a pair of shootings against Minnesota state legislators at their homes that left two dead and two others hospitalized.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/hoffman-hoffman-congress-security-	2025/06/16
Suspect Vance Boelter in Minnesota lawmakers shooting booked in county jail	Political Violence	The massive search for the man suspected of shooting two Minnesota lawmakers, one fatally, concluded on Sunday evening when he was arrested by police, officials confirmed.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/search-suspect-vance-boelter-enters-145-	2025/06/16
'Face of evil': Cop's scold as he shares first image of Minnesota shooting suspect Vance Boelter's arrest	Political Violence	A LinkedIn page also revealed that the suspect spent over three years in the Democratic Republic of Congo "working on several projects" under the alias of the Red Lion Group, a company that his friends claim was a bogus security firm. A webpage link to the Red Lion Group came up as "expired" when clicked.		https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/trime-vance-bo-	2025/06/16
More Dems from outside Minnesota found in shooting, hit list	Political Violence	A growing number of Democratic lawmakers from across the Midwest are revealing they were named on the alleged target list of Vance Boelter, the suspect in the shooting of two Minnesota state lawmakers and their spouses.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/democrats-vance-boelter-minnesota-	2025/06/17
Jeffries presses Johnson for more funds to protect lawmakers	Political Violence	House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries (D-N.Y.) and one of his top deputies are urging Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) to "substantially" increase the amount of money give to House offices for security.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/hakeem-jeffries-mike-johnson-minor-	2025/06/17
She's missing stuff, Norton's colleagues see signs of decline	Politics	Del. Eleanor Holmes Norton (D-D.C.) has long been a formidable presence in the halls of Congress despite her non-voting status. Now at 88 years old, some of her colleagues tell Axios that presence has diminished considerably.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/15/eleanor-holmes-norton-washington-u-	2025/06/17
Pentagon Pizza Tracker Betrayed Israeli, Strikes Plans Against Iran	Politics-Weird	The Pentagon Pizza Report on X monitors foot traffic at pizza shops near the Department of Defense in Arlington, Virginia. After logging normal foot traffic on Thursday, the account recorded "extremely high levels of traffic" leading up to Israel's early morning June 13 attack on Iran.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/pentagon-pizza-tracker-betrayed-israeli-1-	2025/06/16
16 billion passwords from Apple, Facebook, Google, and more leaked. Why has no one heard of it?	Privacy	The leak exposed 16 billion login credentials and passwords, prompting both Google to tell billions of users to change their passwords and the FBI to warn Americans against opening suspicious links in SMS messages, according to a report published Thursday in Forbes.		https://www.the-independent.com/tech/google-data-breach-facebook-ai-	2025/06/20
No Kings anti-Trump protests attract millions, organizers say	Protest	Philadelphia saw more than 100,000 attendees and Chicago 75,000, while smaller towns such as Portland, Michgan, reported 400 in a town of 800, organizers said.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/14/no-kings-protests-usa-june-14-tuwr-	2025/06/16
3 takeaways from the military parade and No Kings protests on Trump's birthday	Protest	1. Stormy clouds didn't rain on the parade 2. Trump got the thing he has wanted for years 3. Protests spring up across the country		https://www.npr.org/2025/06/15/mx-ai-543376593-takeaways-from-the-c-	2025/06/16
Officers deploy tear gas, rubber bullets to clear protesters in downtown L.A.	Protest	A day of peaceful protests in downtown Los Angeles took a turn late Saturday afternoon when law enforcement began ordering the thousands of demonstrators to disperse from the area surrounding the L.A. Federal Building complex.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/officers-deploy-tear-gas-rubber-0064007-	2025/06/16	ACAB
Police arrest roughly 60 veterans and military family members protesting outside US Capitol after group crosses police line	Protest	Officers deployed flashbangs and tear gas, and KTLA's Sky5 chopper captured the moment officers on foot and horseback moved into the large crowd. The L.A. Police Department said that some protesters were "becoming increasingly unruly" and were throwing rocks, bricks, bottles and fireworks — despite the overall peaceful tenor of the day's events.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/police-arrest-roughly-60-protesters-0150-	2025/06/16
No Kings protest organizers announce July 17 as next demonstration	Protest	Organizers of last weekend's "No Kings" protests are celebrating the event as the one of the largest mass demonstrations in U.S. history, and already have another rally on the books.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/17/no-kings-july-17-protests-	2025/06/18
Supreme Court upholds a state law banning some gender-affirming care for transgender kids	Rainbow threats	The Supreme Court on Wednesday upheld a Tennessee law banning certain gender-affirming care treatment for minors.
US supreme court upholds Tennessee ban on youth gender-affirming care	Rainbow threats	The court ruled 5-3, with Chief Justice John Roberts authoring the opinion. The court's three liberal justices dissented.
Tampa administration orders LGBTQ+ youth suicide hotline to close within a month	Rainbow threats	There are 1.6 million Americans over 13 who identify as transgender, including an estimated 300,000 ages 13-17. A third of those people live in states that ban gender-affirming care, according to the Williams Institute at UCLA.		https://www.abcnwsgo.com/PfVfUkrc/supreme-court-upholds-state-law-ban-	2025/06/19
Brain-dead mom forced to be kept alive because of Georgia's anti-abortion laws gives birth via C-section	Reproductive rights	A Tennessee state law banning gender-affirming care for minors can stand, the US supreme court has ruled, a devastating loss for trans rights supporters in a case that could set a precedent for dozens of other lawsuits involving the rights of transgender children.		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1-	2025/06/19
Democrats who have been arrested, detained or charged under Trump	Retaliation	Smith has been kept medically alive since February 19, when she was declared brain dead at eight weeks pregnant due to blood clots in her brain. Her family says doctors kept her on life support due to Georgia's abortion law, the LIFE Act, which doesn't clearly address cases of brain death, but causes confusion in medical environments. News of her condition made national headlines as she was kept on life-support while pregnant, and her family rallied against the decision.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/17/welder-democrats-arrested-charged-	2025/06/18
Poli. RFK Jr.'s food agenda finds appeal across partisan lines, but vaccines are a different story	RFK JR BS	New polling about health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. and sets of his policy agenda shows how his "Make America Healthy Again" push doesn't break down along the same neat partisan lines as other issues, creating some political vulnerability and some opportunity.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/pol-rfk-jr-s-food-agenda-08000190.html	2025/06/17
CDC vaccine advisers who were removed from committee by RFK Jr. speak out	RFK JR BS	The 17 members of a federal vaccine advisory committee, who were ousted last week, argued their abrupt dismissal has "left the U.S. vaccine program critically weakened."		https://www.yahoo.com/news/cdc-vaccine-advisers-were-removed-211-	2025/06/17
RFK Jr.'s DHS Defends 'Gold-Standard Science' As Activists Demand Ban	RFK JR BS	Kennedy also said to ABC News that the current list of vaccines that are recommended for children would be re-analyzed by the new ACIP members because he doesn't trust the science that led to their initial approvals.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-dhs-defends-gold-170013868.html	2025/06/17
Murdoch Paper Wags Trump About the Danger of RFK Jr.'s Anti-Vax Agenda	RFK JR BS	While it remains unclear if the events are directly related, The Dallas Express can confirm that Kennedy formally retired all CDC's Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) members after Bowden's letter began circulating online. ACIP had long been the federal government's primary vaccine advisory panel and typically led public deliberations on immunization policy.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/murdoch-paper-wags-trump-danger-140-	2025/06/17

		That's because recommendations by the board — known as the Advisory Committee for Immunization Practices, or ACP — determine which vaccines most insurance plans are required to cover at zero cost, such as inoculation against measles or your annual flu shot. If the new members decide to reverse the panel's old guidance, patients could find themselves paying out of pocket for vaccines that were once available for free. "For the average person who has never heard of ACP before, this could affect their access to vaccines," said Jennifer Sales, a vaccine vice president at the healthcare think tank KFF.
RFK Jr.'s latest big move could leave you paying more for vaccines	RFK JR BS	For decades, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) independent advisory panel recommended which shots Americans should get and when. The Affordable Care Act requires all insurance companies to cover, for free, all vaccines the panel recommends. Those recommendations also help states decide which shots should be mandated for schoolchildren.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/rfk-ps-latest-big-move-could-leave-you-25250617	2025/06/17
How Kennedy's overhaul could make vaccines more expensive	RFK JR BS	A new panel of U.S. vaccine advisers appointed by Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. will vote on flu shots that contain a mercury-based preservative called thimerosal and discuss recommendations for use of a combination measles shot for children at an upcoming meeting. The advisers to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention will also vote on who should receive the shots for respiratory syncytial virus and influenza at the meeting scheduled for June 25 and 26, according to a draft agenda posted on CDC's website. The agenda comes days after Kennedy named eight members to serve on the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, including several who have advocated against vaccines, after abruptly firing all 17 members of the independent committee of experts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-overhaul-could-vaccines-more-125250617	2025/06/17
Kennedy's new US vaccine panel to discuss measles shot for children	RFK JR BS	U.S. Senate Democrats demanded on Wednesday Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. make public the reviews on which his department said it based its decision to cancel a contract for developing a bird flu vaccine.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-vaccine-advisory-committee-vote-16250619	2025/06/19
US Senate Democrats demand Kennedy explain, cancelling bird flu vaccine contract	RFK JR BS	"This is a grievous mistake that threatens to leave the country unprepared for what experts fear might be the next pandemic — and there appears to be no rationale for this decision other than your ill-informed and dangerous war on vaccines," Senators Elizabeth Warren and Tammy Duckworth wrote in a letter seen by Reuters.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-senate-democrats-demand-kennedy-125250619	2025/06/19
Most Americans view Supreme Court as partisan; Poll	Supreme Court	While Americans have conflicting opinions on the Supreme Court, a majority agree that the Trump administration must comply with federal court orders, two recent polls found. Meanwhile, 19% believe the administration can ignore court rulings. Put simply, the emergency docket, sometimes referred to as the shadow docket, is taking up more and more of the justices' time. In the George W. Bush Bush and Obama administrations—a period of 16 years—the government filed a request for emergency action only eight times. That's oneevery two years. The two administrations together got what they wanted only four times in those 16 years. That changed dramatically with the election of Donald Trump, who in his first term asked the court to block lower court orders 41 times. He got what he wanted in whole or in part in 28 of those cases. In nearly all of those cases, the court, with three new Trump appointees, simply issued an order without any explanation as to why it was granting or refusing to grant the president's wish. That trend has continued during President Trump's second term, where again, the tale is in the numbers. In the first 20 weeks of his second term, Trump sought emergency action from the court in 18 cases. For comparison, that's the same number of requests made by the Biden administration over four years.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/supreme-court-views-trump-poll-par-125250617	2025/06/17
Supreme Court faces new headwinds with roughly two weeks left in its term	Supreme Court	But Rutgers University law professor Katie Eyer, who specializes in anti-discrimination law, takes a slightly more optimistic view. The leading scholar in LGBTQ+ employment rights, social movements and constitutional change told Salon that, while four of the conservative justices seemed likely to vote against the plaintiffs, Justice Amy Coney Barrett's thoughtful questioning — and Justice Neil Gorsuch's opinion expanding Title VII anti-discrimination protections based on sexuality and gender identity in Bostock v. Clayton County — indicate it's still possible the plaintiffs could prevail.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/16/ax-154327474/supreme-court-remain-125250617	2025/06/17
"The real wild card is Amy Coney Barrett": The Supreme Court case that could eviscerate trans rights	Supreme Court	The court has not yet weighed in on a case stemming from President Trump's effort to redefine birthright citizenship and judges' power to check the president, among other key cases on gender-affirming care, LGBTQ+ materials in schools and health care access.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/supreme-court-birthright-citizenship-125250619	2025/06/19
Health care, citizenship and LGBTQ+ rights: Five Supreme Court cases to watch	Supreme Court	But the justices also have 16 cases to resolve that were argued between December and mid-May. One of the argued cases was an emergency appeal, the administration's bid to be allowed to enforce Trump's executive order denying birthright citizenship to U.S.-born children of parents who are in the country illegally.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/supreme-court-goes-18-cases-16233670-125250620	2025/06/20
Supreme Court work goes on with 16 cases to decide, including birthright citizenship	Supreme Court	Scammers disguised as thousands of fake students are flooding colleges across the U.S. with enrollment applications. The "students" are registering under stolen or fabricated identities, getting accepted to schools, and then vanishing with financial aid and college-minted email addresses that give the fraudsters a veneer of legitimacy. Across America's community colleges and universities, sophisticated criminal networks are using AI to deploy thousands of "synthetic" or "ghost" students—sometimes in the dead of night—to attack colleges. The hostiles are cramming themselves into registration portals to enroll and illegally apply for financial aid. The ghost students then occupy seats meant for real students—and have even resorted to handing in homework just to hold out long enough to siphon millions in financial aid before disappearing.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/supreme-court-goes-18-cases-16233670-125250620	2025/06/20
"Ghost" students are hijacking millions from colleges—aid locking real humans students out of classes	Technology: ai	Researchers in China have discovered that AI models like ChatGPT process information in a similar way to the human brain. A study into large language models (LLMs) found evidence that popular artificial intelligence tools built by OpenAI and Google sort information in a spontaneous way, despite not being trained to do so. The findings, made by a team from the Chinese Academy of Sciences and South China University of Technology, revealed that LLMs "share fundamental similarities that reflect key aspects of human conceptual knowledge" — challenging the assumption that AI systems simply mimic responses through pattern recognition.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/supreme-court-goes-18-cases-16233670-125250620	2025/06/20
AI sometimes thinks like humans, scientists reveal	Technology: ai	AI can generate a larger volume of creative ideas than any human, but those ideas are too much alike, according to research newly published in Nature Human Behaviour .	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/ai-think-humans-chatgpt-china-125250616	2025/06/16
Study: ChatGPT's creativity gap	Technology: ai	Search and recovery teams continued scouring the site of one of India's worst aviation disasters for a third day after the Air India flight fell from the sky and killed at least 270 people in Gujarat state, officials said Saturday. The London-bound Boeing 787 struck a medical college hostel in a residential area of the northwestern city of Ahmedabad minutes after takeoff Thursday, killing 241 people on board and at least 29 on the ground. One passenger survived.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/ai-chatgpt-research-creativity-brains-125250618	2025/06/18
Death toll from plane crash in India climbs to 270 as search teams find more bodies	Tragic	Recovery teams working until late Friday found at least 25 more bodies in the debris, officials said. Many believe that the death toll would have been higher if it had not been for the intervention of the trainee doctors and students who emerged from the smoldering hotel and rushed to save their colleagues.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/15/ai-1728831death-toll-from-plane-crash-125250616	2025/06/16	Aviation
A plane crashed on a doctors' hostel in India. Those who survived began treating the injured	Tragic	Zala rushed to safety, running through dust and smoke. He cleaned and bandaged a wound on his left leg then joined others at the medical college's trauma center to treat the injured.	https://apnews.com/article/ai-india-plane-crash-doctors-hostel-7d6517-125250616	2025/06/16
Trump hosts military parade amid nationwide 'No Kings' protests. In photos	Trump bulfith	Photos America is on edge.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/14/trump-military-parade-army-protests-125250616	2025/06/16
Eight chaotic days shake Trump's grip on the presidency	Trump bulfith	Trump officials want this fight, eager to flex executive power and frame Democrats as defenders of undocumented immigrants and violent agitators. But the backlash is threatening to spiral beyond the White House's control.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/14/trump-israel-iran-protests-no-kings-125250616	2025/06/16
Trump administration weighs adding 36 countries to travel ban, memo says	Trump Bulfith	U.S. President Donald Trump's administration is considering significantly expanding its travel restrictions by potentially banning citizens of 36 additional countries from entering the United States, according to an internal State Department cable seen by Reuters. "The Department has identified 36 countries of concern that might be recommended for full or partial suspension of entry if they do not meet established benchmarks and requirements within 60 days," the cable sent out over the weekend said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-administration-weighs-adding-36-125250616	2025/06/16
With Bibles, tokens and watches, Trump made millions, new disclosures show	Trump Bulfith	President Donald Trump has made millions from his family's cryptocurrency venture, private golf clubs and hawkling everything from Bibles to watches — as he's capitalized on his political prominence to expand his business empire, according to financial documents released Friday afternoon. Here are five takeaways from the parade. Trump keeps things brief Vance, Melania Trump take stage Parade traces Army's history, future Rain holds off, thousands turn out Most GOP lawmakers don't attend	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/bibles-tokens-watches-trump-made-00250616	2025/06/16	corruption
$ takeaways from Trump's Army parade	Trump Bulfith	In 2020, in fact, no less a figure than the song's author, John Fogerty (a military veteran), directly made the connection between Trump and the rock kids who got out of the draft that he was writing about back in the day. "It seems like he is probably the Fortunate Son," Fogerty said at the time. There could hardly be a worse insult. But "inside jobs" can also be accomplished through sheer cleverness, and bumbling self-sabotage is probably the easiest explanation for the jaw-dropper of a music-synch here. After all, there is a long history of Trump's campaigns and administrations using "Fortunate Son" — mostly before Fogerty made headlines five years ago saying he wrote it as a slam against people like Trump, but also since. Either Trump's music people stuck their fingers in their ears as people pointed out that use of the Creedence song just created fresh opportunities for the world to be reminded that he was able to avoid military service... or else they have just solidified on with it — so to speak — in a "Fuck you, I won't do what you tell me" sort of way, imagining that they could bring everyone around to thinking that the song will just have positive connotations from here on out.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/5-takeaways-trump-army-parade-02285250616	2025/06/16
Was Someone Trolling Trump by Playing Creedence's 'Draft-Dodger-Blamming 'Fortunate Son' at His Military Parade? Or Is It Just the Further Death of Irony?	Trump Bulfith	Eight days in March, three friendly bitionaries, one of them the world's most powerful person, another the world's richest person. Doing what friends do: scratching each other's backs. Even though Musk later fell out with Trump — in a shocking social media spat that roiled US politics — the imagery remains powerful and highly symbolic of Trump's second term in the White House. Between them they committed in those eight days acts that, had they occurred during any previous presidency — including Trump's own first administration — would have provoked hours of protest concerning quid pro quo. Yet those eight days represent just a tiny slice of the graft and possible misconduct that is unfolding. Yet, for all of it, the parade was somehow neither the totalitarian North Korean spectacle that critics had grimly predicted, nor the triumph of Maga nationalism that Trump's most diehard fans craved. It was just a parade — and a parade that was, for all its millions of dollars spent, controversy engendered, and exhausting security precautions, a little underwhelming. President Trump has made the presidency extremely profitable for himself. The Trump Organization announced a phone business as its next venture on Monday, on the 10th anniversary of Trump announcing his first White House run. By the numbers, Trump reported more than $600 million in income from his cryptocurrency venture and a broad range of merchandise, according to financial documents released on Friday, the first disclosure of his assets since he returned to the White House.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/someone-trolling-trump-playing-creedenc-125250616	2025/06/16	protest, irony,
"This is the looting of America": Trump and Co.'s extraordinary conflicts of interest in his second term	Trump Bulfith	Washington D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser has reported assets worth at least $1.6 billion. Donald Trump ordered ICE officers to prioritize deportations in Democrat-run cities in a wild Truth Social rant Sunday night. The president issued the unprecedented, politically motivated orders just hours after millions of protesters gathered in major American cities, calling for Trump's megalomania to be curbed.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/16/trump-conflict-of-int-125250616	2025/06/16	complotion
Trump coveted a military spectacle but his parade proved underwhelming: 'Just kind of lame'	Trump Bulfith	Yet, for all of it, the parade was somehow neither the totalitarian North Korean spectacle that critics had grimly predicted, nor the triumph of Maga nationalism that Trump's most diehard fans craved. It was just a parade — and a parade that was, for all its millions of dollars spent, controversy engendered, and exhausting security precautions, a little underwhelming. President Trump has made the presidency extremely profitable for himself. The Trump Organization announced a phone business as its next venture on Monday, on the 10th anniversary of Trump announcing his first White House run. By the numbers, Trump reported more than $600 million in income from his cryptocurrency venture and a broad range of merchandise, according to financial documents released on Friday, the first disclosure of his assets since he returned to the White House.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/15/trump-army-parade-125250616	2025/06/16
Crypto, wallets, bibles: Trump's assets top $1.6 billion in latest disclosure	Trump Bulfith	According to a Reuters calculation, Trump reported assets worth at least $1.6 billion.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/16/trump-mobile-crypto-merch-earnin-125250617	2025/06/17
Trump's military parade will take 'many days' to clean up, says D.C. mayor	Trump Bulfith	Washington D.C. Mayor Muriel Bowser has reported assets worth at least $1.6 billion. Donald Trump ordered ICE officers to prioritize deportations in Democrat-run cities in a wild Truth Social rant Sunday night. The president issued the unprecedented, politically motivated orders just hours after millions of protesters gathered in major American cities, calling for Trump's megalomania to be curbed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-military-parade-many-days-233637-125250617	2025/06/17
Trump Orders ICE Vengeance on 'No Kings' Protest Sites	Trump Bulfith	Donald Trump ordered ICE officers to prioritize deportations in Democrat-run cities in a wild Truth Social rant Sunday night. The president issued the unprecedented, politically motivated orders just hours after millions of protesters gathered in major American cities, calling for Trump's megalomania to be curbed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-orders-ice-vengeance-no-0538363-125250617	2025/06/17

		The Washington Post obtained a Trump administration memo that would give the 26 countries listed 60 days to capitulate to State Department demands. Some countries were begged for having "no competent or cooperative central government authority to produce reliable identity documents or other civil documents," or "government fraud." There was also a requirement against "antisemitic and anti-American activity in the United States" by people from the listed countries. Nearly all of the listed countries are in Africa, the Caribbean, or the Middle East. The added countries are: Angola, Antigua and Barbuda, Benin, Bhutan, Burkina Faso, Cabo Verde, Cambodia, Cameroon, Democratic Republic of Congo, Djibouti, Dominica, Ethiopia, Egypt, Gabon, Gambia, Ghana, Ivory Coast, Kyrgyzstan, Liberia, Malawi, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Sao Tome and Principe, Senegal, South Sudan, Syria, Tanzania, Tonga, Tuvalu, Uganda, Vanuatu, Zambia, and Zimbabwe.
Trump already banned travelers from Afghanistan, Myanmar, Chad, Republic of Congo, Equatorial Guinea, Eritrea, Haiti, Iran, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, and Yemen earlier in June.	Trump Bulshit		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-wants-ban-quarter-world-1936352	2025/06/17
Trump Wants to Ban a Quarter of the World From Traveling to the U.S.	Trump Bulshit	Jerome Adams, President Trump's first-term surgeon general, is becoming one of the most prominent voices speaking out against the public health policies and decisions carried out in the president's second term.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-wants-ban-quarter-world-1936352	2025/06/17
Trump's former surgeon general is now one of his most pointed critics	Trump Bulshit	The ex-surgeon general has focused his criticism on the lack of credentials of those being placed in top administration positions and what that might mean for public health. 1. The GOP's abandonment of Reagan conservatism 2. The decline of truth 3. The ever-present conspiracy theories 4. The decline of the Democrats 5. The decline of legislating and consolidation of power 6. The rise in authoritarian-ish politics 7. The politicization of institutions 8. The increasing role of fear 9. The yawning education gap 10. The immigration-ization of our politics	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-former-surgeon-general-now-1000	2025/06/17
The 10 biggest ways Trump has changed our politics, 10 years later	Trump Bulshit	For as long as I've been alive, American presidents have defined tyrants by their willingness to use military force against their own people in reprisal for political opposition. This was a staple of Cold War presidential rhetoric, and it survived long into the War on Terror era. It would be absurd to say that American presidents have always been principled defenders of freedom and democracy, but their long-shared, bipartisan definition of tyrant is one who oppresses his own. So it's striking that these warnings about tyrants in distant lands, who were supposedly the opposite of the kind of legitimate, democratic leaders elected in the United States of America, now apply to the sitting U.S. president, Donald Trump. It is a simple but morally powerful formulation: A leader who uses military force to suppress their political opposition forfeits the right to govern. You could call this the "tyrant test," and Trump is already failing it.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/10-biggest-ways-trump-changed-11000310	2025/06/17
The Tyrant Test	Trump Bulshit	"Self-enrichment is exactly what the founders feared most in a leader – that's why they put two separate prohibitions on self-enrichment into the constitution," said former Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. "Trump's profiting from his presidential memos is a textbook example of what the founders warned to avoid."	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/06/trump-military-force/	2025/06/17
'I have never seen such open corruption', Trump's crypto dealer and bossman of rules shock observers	Trump Bulshit	The Trump Organization has announced a self-branded smartphone and mobile service for "real Americans" that aims to take on Apple and Samsung. The US President's business organisation – run by his eldest son Donald Trump Jr. and Eric Trump – said on Monday that the gold-coloured 'T1 Phone' will be available in August for $499, while the phone plan will cost $47.45 a month.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/17/trump-crypto-memo	2025/06/17	Corruption
Trump mobile: President unveils $499 gold phones for 'real Americans'	Trump Bulshit	President Trump on Tuesday said his new "very close" to having a nuclear weapon, despite March testimony from Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard that Tehran was not building one. When pressed on Gabbard's assessment by reporters about Air Force One, Trump replied, "I don't care what she said. I think they were very close to having" a nuclear weapon.	https://www.the-independent.com/tech/donald-trump-mobile-smartphone	2025/06/17
Trump dismisses Gabbard's testimony on Iran nukes: 'I don't care what she said'	Trump Bulshit	As she listened, Kennedy cited recent research on microplastics from researchers in Oregon, finding these tiny particles had shown up in 95% of the seafood they sampled. "It was definitely our study," says Brander, an ecotoxicologist at Oregon State University who coauthored the research along with a team at Portland State University.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/17/trump-gabbard-iran-nuclear-weapon	2025/06/18
Trump administration actions contradict MAHA rhetoric on toxic chemicals	Trump Bulshit	The problem was, just an hour earlier while in line for breakfast, an email had popped into her inbox nothing but that a federal grant she'd relied on to fund her research for years — from the Environmental Protection Agency — was being terminated. Her research, the letter explained, no longer aligned with the agency's priorities. And now here was the standard bearer of the Trump administration's Make America Healthy Again, or MAHA, agenda elevating her work.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/06/18/xx-s1-5436	2025/06/18
Unless the Trump family secretly built a U.S. factory, industry experts say the $500 made-in-America smartphone is a fantasy	Trump Bulshit	The Trump Organization, led by the president's eldest sons, said on Monday that it has licensed Donald Trump's name to a new wireless service and a gold-colored phone. The T1, as the device is called, is supposed to be available in August for $499, and is "proudly designed and built in the United States," the company said in a statement. But the patriotic pitch drew immediate skepticism, and not just over President Trump trying to cash in again while in office. Several tech industry insiders questioned whether selling a made-in-America phone is even possible within just a few months, considering most electronics manufacturing is done overseas because of expensive domestic labor, a shortage of skilled workers, and a lack of suppliers.	https://tech.yahoo.com/phones/articles/unless-trump-family-secretly-bu	2025/06/19	corruption
Team Trump reverses course on ICE raids policy as White House dysfunction worsens	Trump Bulshit	Throughout Donald Trump's first term as president, people around him came to realize that if their voice was the last one he heard, their preferred position was likely to prevail. It's easy to understand why. Last week, White House border czar Tom Homan said the administration would intensify its campaign of targeting undocumented immigrants at U.S. workplaces, adding that enforcement operations "are going to massively expand." A day later, Trump went in the opposite direction, conceding that his mass deportation agenda was hurting farmers and the domestic hospitality industry and vowing "changes." Soon after, the White House said the administration's policies wouldn't change. Soon after that, the administration's policies did change, and ICE was directed to pause raids and arrests in the agricultural industry and at hotels and restaurants.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maddow-blog-team-trump-reverses-1436	2025/06/19
Trump's sons say their new phone will be built in the U.S. Experts say it looks a lot like a phone from China	Trump Bulshit	Both Weaver and a second expert, Max Weinbach, an analyst at market research firm Creative Strategies, independently said CNN they believe the T1 phone looks like a version of the already available Revvi 7 Pro 5G, made by China-based Winglech, which provides manufacturing services for smartphones and other products. The phone retails for around $169 on Amazon.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maddow-blog-team-trump-reverses-1436	2025/06/19
Trump Mobile puts coverage map after 'Gulf of Mexico' label sparks chatter online	Trump Bulshit	"There (are) only realistically four or five smartphone OEM (original device manufacturers) that would actually be able to manufacture something like this," Weinbach said. "All of them are based out of China."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-mobile-puts-coverage-map-18065	2025/06/19
The Worst Part of Trump's Big Bill Is Getting Almost No Attention	Trump Bulshit	Just hours into Trump Mobile's Monday launch touting American-made smartphones, the venture pulled its coverage map after sharp-eyed users noticed a curious detail: the body of water south of Texas was labeled as the Gulf of Mexico instead of the Trump-preferred name, Gulf of America. My sense is that Democrats are used to their Republican counterparts (and some within their own ranks) pushing for increased "border security" and immigration enforcement funding during budget negotiations and think the public will view it as old hat. This is a sort of learned defeatism, but it also ignores that we are talking about an entirely different scale here. Taking into account previously allocated funding this fiscal year, we're looking at some $200 billion in spending on immigration enforcement, far above what's allocated to any other federal law enforcement function and more than has ever been spent on immigration enforcement. Beyond that, the bill furthers the transformation of federal law enforcement toward a focus on immigration enforcement specifically. The Cato Institute estimates that immigration and border funding would equal about eight times the FBI's entire budget and 36 times more than tax and financial crimes enforcement. That funding disparity is compounded by Trump's penchant for pulling agents from other functions to the all-encompassing immigration dragnet. For months now, thousands of federal agents who work on everything from child abuse to money laundering have been reassigned to raiding businesses in search of undocumented workers. Meanwhile, ICE is spending so wildly on its crackdown that it may run out of money next month—unless Republicans manage to pass this bill.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/worst-part-trump-big-bill-100000412.html	2025/06/19
Appeals court says DOJ cannot represent Trump in appeal of E. Jean Carroll case	Trump Bulshit	American taxpayers will not be paying for the ongoing appeal of President Donald Trump's $83 million defamation case, a federal appeals court determined on Wednesday. Donald Trump's refusal to impose a congressionally authorized ban on TikTok is a clear example of his disregard for democracy — yet the American public, disturbingly, seems to be giving him a pass.	https://abcnews.com/3/US/appeals-court-doj-represent-trump-appeal/	2025/06/19
Trump flaunts authoritarian tendencies with yet another TikTok ban delay	Trump Bulshit	The White House announced Tuesday that — for the third time — Trump would unilaterally direct his Justice Department not to enforce a bipartisan law, signed last year, that identified TikTok as a national security threat and required that it be banned in the United States unless it is sold by its Chinese owners. Instead, Trump's decision allows the app to continue operating in the U.S.	https://www.msnbc.com/top-stories/latest-tiktok-banned-again-trump	2025/06/19
California preps for intense fire season — as Trump slashes federal aid	Trump Bulshit	California, still recovering from a series of devastating January blazes, may not be prepared for the upcoming fire season amid changes made by the Trump administration. As temperatures soar in the West, experts say that Trump's weakening of federal agencies that respond to wildfires leaves the state in a potentially precarious situation, according to The Los Angeles Times.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/california-fire-sea	2025/06/19
New 'dictator approved' sculpture of smashed Statue of Liberty arrives in DC — but nobody knows who is behind it	Trump Bulshit	A new "dictator approved" sculpture cropped up on the National Mall in front of the Capitol building days after President Donald Trump's military parade — but the creator remains a mystery. The eight-foot-tall sculpture, titled "Dictator Approved," depicts a golden hand — giving a thumbs up — crushing the top of the Statue of Liberty. Her crown is cracked, and one of the seven spikes has been "yanked" into the pedestal. It appeared on the National Mall in Washington, DC on Monday.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-	2025/06/19
'These are the most magnificent poles made': As Middle East rages, Trump brags about new flag poles at the White House	Trump Bulshit	"These are the most magnificent poles made — They are tall, tapered, rust proof, rope inside the pole, and of the highest quality," the president added. "Hopefully, they will proudly stand at both sides of the White House for many years to come!"	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics-trump-	2025/06/19
Trump's VA cut a program that's saving vets' homes. Even Republicans have questions	Trump Bulshit	President Trump was halfway through an answer on his shifting deportation policy when a thought apparently occurred to him: Maybe the men standing behind him were illegal immigrants? "Do we have anybody here?" he asked, turning to the workers. "Any illegal immigrants?" When no one responded, he told the men it was the news media, not him, who would be checking into them.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/06/19/tra-s1-54509803/va-bans-veterans-mort	2025/06/20
How Trump's deportation push created 1 million MORE undocumented people	Trump Bulshit	"They'll find out," he said, motioning to the reporters in front of him. "They'll be checking you. You won't believe it. Your whole life will be destroyed because of this press conference." Henry was hoping to get help from the VA Servicing Purchase program, or VASP. In just the past year, according to the VA, it has helped more than 33,000 veterans and servicemembers who got behind on their loans by giving them a new, low-interest-rate mortgage. But last month, out of fear of the potential cost, the VA abruptly cut away with this safety net. It was the latest development in a VA mortgage saga that has whipsawed veterans between various existed and canceled programs and left thousands in fear of losing their homes. There are about 80,000 vets in the U.S. behind on their mortgages and heading toward foreclosure, according to data from ICE Mortgage Technology.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-deportation-push-created-1-19553	2025/06/20
Trump denies approving Iran attack plan but will make decision 'within two weeks'	Trump Bulshit	In her first briefing, White House press secretary deemed any immigrant who was in the United States without legal permission a "criminal." But the administration's own actions have turned more than 1 million immigrants who entered the country legally into the "criminals" the White House has denounced. Donald Trump has denied a report in the Wall Street Journal that he has approved US plans to attack Iran, saying that the news outlet has "no idea" what his thinking is concerning the Israel-Iran conflict. The Journal reported late on Wednesday that Trump told senior aides a day earlier that he had approved attack plans but was delaying on giving the final order to see if Tehran would abandon its nuclear program. The report cited three anonymous officials.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/trump-iran-attack-at	2025/06/20

		But experts say the first amendment is measurably under attack in ways it has not been since the presidency of Richard Nixon. A double standard has also emerged: If you protest, criticize, or publicly object to the president's agenda, you're a target.
US free speech rights shredded despite Trump vow to be first-amendment champion	Trump Bullshit	Cherry-picking is evidently at play, especially for individuals or institutions defying the Trump administration: arresting and attempting to deport a Columbia University student who peacefully protested the Israel war in Gaza and evoking the visas of foreign students who engaged in similar activism. Reversing a Biden-era protection prohibiting government officials from obtaining the confidential sourcework of the press. Denying billions in federal money to Harvard. Dismantling the education department and halting funds to schools practicing diversity, equity, and inclusion. "Trump is throwing authoritarian punches at a much greater rate than any of these other cases in their first year in power," said Steven Levitsky, Harvard political scientist and author, with Daniel Ziblatt, of How Democracies Die. "But we don't yet know how many of these punches will land or how society will respond."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/us-free-speech-righty	2025/06/20
He's moving at a truly alarming speed', Trump propels US into authoritarianism	Trump Bullshit	Trump has tried to propel the US in an authoritarian direction with greater intensity than noted autocrats like the late Hugo Chávez of Venezuela, Recep Tayyip Erdoğan of Turkey, or Viktor Orbán, Hungary's prime minister, according to Levitsky.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/19/trump-us-authority	2025/06/20	nazi checklist
Trump's MAGA purity test	Trump Bullshit	On two core articles of faith — no foreign wars and no protections for unauthorized immigrants — the Trump administration is facing a rare MAGA purity test. Some MAGA influencers see the Iran and immigration flashpoints as inextricably linked. Bannon warned on his "War Room" podcast that getting "sucked into" a prolonged war in the Middle East would distract from Trump's most important domestic priority: mass deportations. Other Trump supporters view the two issues — helping Israel attack Iran and deporting unauthorized immigrants — as part of the same fight to preserve "Western Civilization." Family members are demanding answers after they say a man who is a U.S. citizen was wrongfully arrested by federal agents during an immigration raid in Montebello.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/18/trump-maga-purity-test	2025/06/18
Southern California father who is U.S. citizen, arrested, during immigration raid, family says	US Citizens	However, Ramirez was handcuffed and taken into custody. His brother tried following Ramirez's location through his cell phone's tracking app, but the signal was eventually lost. His family has not heard from him since.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/southern-california-father-citizen-23250	2025/06/16
Pregnant US citizen detained by Border Patrol agents, 'We didn't do anything wrong'	US Citizens	It remains unclear whether the agents were with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) or the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Some of the agents appeared to be wearing uniforms with a Border Patrol insignia. A pregnant U.S. citizen who was detained by federal agents approximately two weeks ago has since given birth to a healthy baby girl, but her boyfriend is now being held out of state and her problems are far from over.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pregnant-us-citizen-detained-border-14d	2025/06/20
Dinosaurs in the driveway: the Nevada man delighting kids with his free prehistoric theme park	Weird World	Amid the endless winding streets of Henderson, Nevada, one house breaks the mold. Its front yard — no grass, just desert rock — is home to 62 rainbow-painted dinosaurs, dragons, turtles and spiders. A sign on the garage reads: "Shangri-la Prehistoric Park", complete with visiting hours.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/tg-interactive/2025/jun/14/nevada	2025/06/16
Nationals' bat-retrieving dog Bruce lups up pregame attention, makes MLB debut	Weird World	Dinoman keeps the regulars. And he knows the kids that need an extra snack or two as well. "Santa has one day and I have the other 364," he says.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/tg-interactive/2025/jun/14/nevada	2025/06/16
White shirts, black ties, bald caps, Pitbull's fans party, like clones worldwide	Weird World	Bruce, a 21 month-old golden retriever, fetched a bat during a ceremony Saturday before the Washington Nationals' 4-3 loss to the Miami Marlins as part of a Pups in the Park promotion. He retrieved bats the last two seasons with the Rochester Red Wings, Washington's Triple-A affiliate.	https://apnews.com/article/nationals-bat-dog-bruce-35e1df0993cdeb	2025/06/16
White shirts, black ties, bald caps, Pitbull's fans party, like clones worldwide	Weird World	On closer inspection, though, it becomes clear that Mr. Montebello is not actually everywhere all at once — in his stead, those are clones swimming London, on their way to the O2 Arena to see him onstage. That goat? Drawn on. That bare head? Bald caps, in lieu of a dramatic shave.	https://apnews.com/article/but-fandom-bookshelves-bald-caps-d646dc	2025/06/16
Rescuers Respond to Call About a Neglected Dog, They Find a 'Loser' Left with a Litter of Puppies	Weird World	The phenomenon is something that has rapidly grown from a minority to the majority — or from a negative to a positive, as Pitbull is known to say. Unlike the celebrity look-alike contests that reward uncanny resemblance to the likes of Timothée Chalamet, Glen Powell or even Ernest Hemingway, it's less about the ability to grow the right facial hair and more about the vibe. After all, the vast majority of those dressed up at Monday's concert were women. (Pitbulls, one could say.)	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rescuers-respond-call-neglected-dog-231	2025/06/17
Tense moments as German Shepherd leaps from vehicle, chases wolf in Yellowstone	Weird World	When the shelter's Emergency Animal Medical Technicians (EAMT) arrived on scene alongside officers from the Phoenix Police Department, they were in for quite the surprise — the mama dog, later named Rainbow Britle, was painted with multi-colored spots, meant to make her look like a leopard.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tense-moments-german-shepherd-leaps-2025/06/17	2025/06/17
Parents 'Race' to See Twins Graduate in 2 Different States, 1,200 Miles Apart on the Same Weekend. (Exclusive)	Weird World	Eventually, AHS's staff stabilized Rainbow Britle. She and her nine pups — affectionately called her "sprites" — were transferred to AHS's "Maternity Suites", a calming space dedicated to the shelter's pregnant and nursing mama dogs.	https://www.yahoo.com/3fest/articles/parents-race-see-twins-graduat	2025/06/17
This Australian moth uses the stars as a compass to travel hundreds of miles	Weird World	Tourists witnessed an extraordinary scene in Yellowstone National Park on Friday as a German Shepherd leaped from the back of a vehicle to chase a young wolf on the side of a road.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tense-moments-german-shepherd-leaps-2025/06/17	2025/06/17
This US plans to open a fly factory in Texas as part of its fight against a flesh-eating parasite	Weird World	Their son, Jack, was set to graduate from Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Ariz., while their daughter, Audrey, would walk across the stage at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., less than 24 hours later.	https://apnews.com/article/fly-factory-texas-flesh-eating-screwworm-call	2025/06/19
At Trump's request, Israel cleared way for U.S. bombers in Iran	Middle east conflict	Up until then, their school schedules had always worked out smoothly, with events landing on different weekends. But in October 2024, the family realized their luck had run out.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/trump-israel-iran-strikes-air-defense	2025/06/23
U.S. used 14 B-2 bomber-busters, 7 B-2 bombers in "Midnight Hammer" strikes on Iran	Middle east conflict	"The problem became evident when we realized Jack's ceremony began at 3 p.m. on a Saturday and Audrey's ceremony began the next day at 8 a.m. on Sunday - states away," Roanne, 54, tells PEOPLE exclusively.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/iran-nuclear-midnight-hammer-bunk	2025/06/23
Trump administration says U.S. does not seek regime change in Iran	Middle east conflict	Birds routinely navigate by starlight, but the moths are the first known invertebrates, or creatures without a backbone, to find their way across such long distances using the stars.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/iran-nuclear-midnight-hammer-bunk	2025/06/23
Iran parliament reportedly backs closing Strait of Hormuz, which could spike oil prices	Middle east conflict	The U.S. government plans to open what amounts to a fly factory by the end of the year, announcing its intent Wednesday to breed millions of the insects in Texas near the border with Mexico as part of an effort to keep a flesh-eating parasite from inflicting Asian corn.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/20/iran-strike-israel-behind-sceny	2025/06/23
It was a headache: Inside Trump's secret orders to strike Iran	Middle east conflict	At the request of the Trump administration, the Israeli Air Force took out multiple Iranian air defense systems in the 48 hours leading up to the U.S. strike on Iran's Fordow nuclear facility, three U.S. and Israeli officials told Axios.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/21/us-strike-iran-nuclear-israel-trump	2025/06/23
CarMax says tariff fears juiced used car demand in April	Economy-tariffs	Trump's historic decision to join Israel's war against Iran marked the culmination of months of intense — and at times strained — U.S.-Israeli coordination over Tehran's nuclear program.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/iran-strike-israel-behind-sceny	2025/06/23
Trump suggests undocumented farm workers may be spared	Trump Bullshit	A surprise U.S. military attack on Iranian nuclear facilities involved more than 125 aircraft and 75 precision-guided weapons.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/20/iran-strike-israel-behind-sceny	2025/06/23
U.S. enters Israel's war against Iran	Middle east conflict	The operation, dubbed Midnight Hammer, produced the longest B-2 Spirit mission since 2001 and the first real-world use of 30,000 pound bunker-busting bombs.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/21/us-strike-iran-nuclear-israel-trump	2025/06/23
AOC floats Trump impeachment over Iran strikes	Trump Accountability	Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth told reporters the U.S. war against Iran is "not open-ended" and is "not about regime change," stressing that Saturday's U.S. military strikes were strictly targeted at Iran's nuclear program.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/aoc-trump-impeachment-iran-demo	2025/06/23
MAGA unites around Trump over Iran strikes — for now	Trump Bullshit	Vice President Vance flatly denied that the U.S. is at war with Iran, telling NBC's "Meet the Press" instead, "We're not with Iran's nuclear program."	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/maga-reaction-trump-iran-strikes	2025/06/23
Top Democrats left in dark on Iran strike plans	Middle east conflict	Iran's parliament has endorsed closing the Strait of Hormuz, a vital oil transit point off its coast, but analysts are skeptical about the threat from a body without authority to close the strait. Impeding the strait would likely bring a massive spike in oil prices that would flow through to U.S. consumers.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/top-democrats-trump-iran-nuclear-facill	2025/06/23
Trump faces bipartisan blowback in Congress on Iran strikes	Middle east conflict	Trump remained open to aborting the mission if a diplomatic window emerged. But his public countdown doubled as a smokescreen — concealing a strike plan that was already in motion, according to multiple officials.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/22/trump-iran-strikes-republicans-dem	2025/06/23
LA Dodgers to donate $1M to help immigrants hit by ICE raids	Borders and immigration	"It was a headache," a Trump adviser told Axios. "He knew the media couldn't resist amplifying it. He knew the Iranians might think he was bluffing. Well, everyone was wrong." The president wanted to buy time, "another adviser said. "He knew what he wanted to do. And he knows he can't look easier for war. So all the folks in MAGA urging restraint gave him some space." Car shoppers might be feeling more pessimistic about the economy, but they're still putting the trigger on used vehicle purchases.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/21/la-dodgers-donate-million-immigran	2025/06/23

Trump administration defends Iranian strikes as some lawmakers question its legality	Middle east conflict	The Trump administration is defending a precision strike on Iranian nuclear sites Saturday that was carried out without Congressional approval or notifying key Democratic lawmakers ahead of time. "Operation Midnight Hammer" was the largest B-2 bomber strike in U.S. history, Pentagon officials said Sunday, and saw the mobilization of more than 125 aircraft — including decoy flights traveling to the Pacific — that culminated in 75 precision guided weapons dropped on the Forbs, Natanz and Isfahan nuclear sites in Iran.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/22/mw-st-5441731/iran-strike-congress-us	2025/06/23
At least three people dead from a tornado in North Dakota	Weather-Tornado	At least three North Dakota residents were killed Friday night by a tornado that swept through the state overnight. Storm chasers found two people killed as a result of the storm in rural Enderlin on Friday night, some 60 miles southwest of Fargo, N.D. That same night, The Enderlin Sheldon Fire Department found a third person dead from the storm, according to a Facebook post from the Cass County Sheriff's Office.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/21/mw-st-5441095/tornado-storms-north-d	2025/06/23
Welcome to summer: U.S. braces for first significant heat wave of the new season	Environment-Heat	The WHO encourages people to never leave anyone alone in a closed car, use air conditioners and the shade when possible, and drink plenty of water, even if not thirsty, as some measures to avoid falling ill as a result of the heat. Heat waves are lasting longer and peaking at higher temperatures than in the past due to climate change. The average number of heat waves the U.S. experiences today has doubled since the 1950s, and the length of the dangerous heat wave season has increased from about 40 days to roughly 70.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/20/mw-st-5440262/heat-wave-summer-fs	2025/06/23
The mystery of Boerne's ancient Bible: Who brought it there?	Weird world	It's truly a riddle wrapped in an enigma. A small-town Texas librarian finds a musty old Bible and soon realizes it's unlike any she's ever seen. It's hundreds of years old and written in a familiar, but dead, language. Although this Bible predates the country of Germany, it was written in German ... a variation of German. Elisa McCune knows this Bible well. She wrote her doctoral dissertation on it. "High German was spoken in the southern half [of what's now Germany], and Low German was spoken in the northern half," she said. "High German, essentially, was what turned into what modern day German is. Low German was considered to be—and I'm probably, simplifying this a little bit—it was the less sophisticated version of German."	https://www.for.org/arts-culture/2025/06/20/the-mystery-of-boernes-anc	2025/06/23
		While the bill would be a boon to wealthy Americans, it would scale back resources for the nation's poorest households, the nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office (CBO) warned in a recent letter to lawmakers. In an effort to pay for an extension of the 2017 Trump tax cuts, Republicans in both the House and Senate want to change or reduce key social safety net programs that provide health care, food benefits and financial assistance for millions of children. ... In addition to work requirements, Republicans are proposing other changes that would create new administrative hurdles for families, according to Georgetown University's Center for Children and Families.
		House Republicans have also proposed big changes to the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), commonly known as food stamps, which, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, helps pay for groceries for more than 15 million children in the U.S. This bill would bring "the deepest cut to food assistance in history," says Katie Bergh, a senior policy analyst for food assistance at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. "Under current policy, a two-adult, two-child family needs at least $36,000 [in income] in order to get the full credit," Curran says. "That's 1 in 4 kids nationwide who are left out of the full credit."
		On the other hand, wealthy households earning up to $200,000 for individuals, or $400,000 for couples, can claim the full credit. This disparity would get even more pronounced if the credit grows, Curran says, with that two-adult, two-child family now needing to earn $48,000 to claim the full credit.
What children in poverty could lose from the 'Big Beautiful Bill'	Economic policy	"As a result, under the House Reconciliation Bill, 1 out of every 3 children would be left out of the full credit nationwide," Curran says.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/20/mw-st-5437861/schibden-poverty-republi	2025/06/23
Trump is open to regime change in Iran, after his administration said that wasn't the goal	Middle east conflict	The Trump administration on Sunday sent a series of conflicting messages to Iran — with U.S. officials initially indicating a willingness to resume negotiations after a surprise attack on three of the country's nuclear sites and President Donald Trump taking up the possibility of regime change. "It's not politically correct to use the term, 'Regime Change,' but if the current Iranian Regime is unable to MAKE IRAN GREAT AGAIN, why wouldn't there be a Regime change?????" Trump posted on social media. "MAGA!"	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bestbegin-says-us-doesnt-want-1250486	2025/06/23
Iran says US 'must receive a response' after Trump's strikes on nuclear sites	Middle east conflict	Iran has warned the US to brace for retaliation after Donald Trump's administration ignited Israel in its war against Tehran, tearing up his isolationist foreign policy and launching the most consequential intervention in a conflict in a generation. Almost a day after US strikes targeting three key Iranian nuclear sites, Iran's president, Masoud Pezeshkian, told France's Emmanuel Macron: "The Americans must receive a response for their aggression," signalling a potential Iranian reprisal that could drag the US into a new, protracted conflict in the Middle East.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-attacks-iran-inflicted-major-15261306	2025/06/23
US strikes on Iran could hit American economy at a fragile time	Economy- War	The U.S. attack on Iranian nuclear sites over the weekend could ratchet up the pressure on an American economy that's turned increasingly fragile as a weeklong global trade war takes a toll. America's entry into what had been attacks between Israel and Iran is most likely to impact oil prices, investors said, which could ripple through the economy by causing higher transportation and gas prices, just as overall inflation throughout the economy has seemed to be contained. Callers will no longer be informed of wait times while on hold, callback wait times, and processing times for benefits, The Washington Post reported. The agency will also no longer publish the number of callers waiting on hold and the number of callers waiting on callback.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/us-strikes-iran-could-hit-194533680-h	2025/06/23
Trump Admin. Pulls Social Security Wait Times to Hide Bad Customer Service	Government-SSA	One Social Security employee told the Post that it has taken at least double the time to process a claim under Trump compared to Biden. For international callers, sometimes processing a claim can take up to a month.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-pulls-social-security-19173	2025/06/23
Many Americans are witnessing immigration arrests for the first time and reacting	Borders and immigration	Vice President JD Vance, during a visit to Los Angeles on Friday, said those policies have given agents "a bit of a morale problem because they've had the local government in this community tell them that they're not allowed to do their job."
		"When that Border Patrol agent goes out to do their job, they said within 15 minutes they have witnesses, sometimes video protesters who are taking these obscuring them," he said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/many-americans-witnessing-immigration	2025/06/23
Senior Russian official says Trump has started new war on Iran that will strengthen Khomeni	International Relations	A senior Russian official said on Sunday that U.S. President Donald Trump had started a new war by attacking Iran that would only strengthen Tehran's leaders by consolidating society around Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei. The Kremlin, which has a strategic partnership with Iran and also maintains close links to Israel, had repeatedly cautioned Washington that U.S. strikes on Iran would plunge the entire region into the "abyss."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us/asia-medvedev-says-trump-stated-09	2025/06/23
After Trump attacks Iran, what experts and officials fear for the American homeland	Middle east conflict	In the wake of President Donald Trump's "massive precision strikes" on Iran, concerns have been raised both for Americans in the region and at home. A principal area of worry is cyberattacks by Iranian state actors, including targeting the banking system or energy grid.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-attacks-iran-experts-officials-0534	2025/06/23
		Europe's biggest land conflict since World War II is now in its fourth year and still poses an existential threat to the continent. Ukraine continues to fight a war so that Europeans don't have to. Just last week, Russia launched one of the biggest drone attacks of the invasion on Kyiv. But things have changed. The Trump administration insists that it must preserve maneuvering space to entice Russian President Vladimir Putin to the negotiating table, so Ukraine must not be allowed steal the limelight.
Wartime NATO summits have focused on Ukraine. With Trump, this one will be different	International- NATO	It will be very different at a two-day summit in the Netherlands that starts Tuesday. NATO's most powerful member, the United States, is vetting Ukraine's membership. It's unclear how long for Zelensky is invited again, but will not be seated at NATO's table. The summit statement is likely to run to around five paragraphs, on a single page. NATO diplomats and experts say Ukraine will only get a passing mention.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wartime-nato-summits-focused-ukraine-0	2025/06/23
Iran Issues Grave Warning Following U.S. Attack on Nuclear Sites	Middle east conflict	"The United States, a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council, has committed a grave violation of the UN Charter, international law and the NPT by attacking Iran's peaceful nuclear installations," Seyed Abbas Araghchi, Foreign Minister of the Islamic Republic of Iran, wrote in a statement.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/iran-issues-grave-warning-following-0535	2025/06/23
		"The events this morning are outrageous and will have everlasting consequences. Each and every member of the UN must be alarmed over this extremely dangerous, lawless and criminal behavior." The International Criminal Court has been asked to review a confidential legal brief arguing that the Russia-linked Wagner Group has committed war crimes by spreading images of apparent atrocities in West Africa on social media, including ones alluding to cannibalism. The brief was seen exclusively by The Associated Press.
		While the United States and other Western powers withdraw from the region, Russia has taken advantage, expanding military cooperation with several African nations via Wagner, the private security company closely linked to Russia's intelligence and military.
Takeaways from AP report on Wagner allegedly committing war crimes by promoting atrocities	War Crimes	Observers say the new approach has led to the kind of atrocities and dehumanization not seen in the region for decades. Social media offers a window into the alleged horrors that often occur in remote areas with little or no oversight from governments or outside observers.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/takeaways-ap-report-accusation-wagner-	2025/06/23
New insight into Texas family detention reveals adults fighting kids for clean water	Human Rights	Adults fighting kids for clean water, despondent toddlers and a child with swollen feet denied a medical exam — these first-hand accounts from immigrant families at detention centers included in a motion filed by advocates Friday night are offering a glimpse of conditions at Texas facilities.
		Out of 90 families who spoke to RAICES since March, 40 expressed medical concerns, according to the court documents. Several testimonies expressed concern over water quantity and quality. Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard's strength and standing within the Trump administration is coming under question after the president twice publicly brushed off her testimony that Iran is not close to developing a nuclear weapon, and amid reports of tensions between the two.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gabbard-standing-trump-world-comes-16	2025/06/23
Gabbard's standing in Trump World comes into question	Political Cesspool	Immigration arrests in Los Angeles have been headline news and the subject of legal disputes for the past few weeks, but Angelenos watching the drama play out on television and in their communities may be confused about who exactly is putting people in handcuffs and hauling them off.
		After all, some of the federal agents involved in the raids are in unmarked vehicles, without visible badges, wearing street clothes and covering their faces. Are they U.S. Department of Homeland Security agents, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers or Homeland Security Investigations officials? What is the difference?	https://www.yahoo.com/news/agents-unmarked-cars-street-clothes-100	2025/06/23	nazi checklist
Agents, some in unmarked cars and street clothes, are arresting L.A. immigrants. Who are they?	Government Brown Shirts	A federal judge on Friday prevented the National Science Foundation from sharply cutting research funding provided to universities in the latest legal setback to efforts by U.S. President Donald Trump's administration to slash government support of research at major academic institutions.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-judge-blocks-slashing-universities-22	2025/06/23
US judge blocks slashing of universities' federal funding from National Science Foundation	Judicial Punjab	Interest in European-based digital services has jumped in recent months, data from digital market intelligence company Similarweb shows. More people are looking for e-mail, messaging and even search providers outside the United States.
Europeans seek 'digital sovereignty' as US tech firms embrace Trump	International Relations	Days before Trump took office, outgoing president Joe Biden had warned of an oligarchic "tech industrial complex" threatening democracy.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/europeans-seek-digital-sovereignty-us	2025/06/23	Technology, distance,
		On Thursday, President Donald Trump scored a temporary victory after an appeals court ruled that he can continue deploying the National Guard as part of his watch-me-play-fascist-on-TV response to anti-ICE protests in Los Angeles. The decision accepted Trump's premise that conditions in L.A. permit him to take control of the guard—but it rejected his claim that such decisions should be entirely unreviewable by courts.
		All of which highlights a deeper conundrum here: What can the courts—and the rest of us—do in the face of a president whose bad faith and willingness to concoct pretexts for abusing his powers basically have no bottom?
		The new ruling is not encouraging.
		This highlights an even bigger challenge. Beyond the on-the-ground specifics in L.A., Trump has been on an extraordinary rampage of manufacturing pretexts to unlock all sorts of emergency powers for himself on many fronts. At every turn, those pretexts have been rooted in staggering bad faith.
Trump's Threat to Unleash Troops in Cities Just Got Darker and Scarier	Nazi Checklist		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-threat-unleash-troops-cities-10000	2025/06/23

		Just a week earlier on June 4, her mother, Wendy Sarai Pineda, 30, was detained by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement outside an office in downtown Chicago during what was supposed to be a routine check-in, while Gabriela was at school. The little girl doesn't understand why her mother vanished and had hoped her mother would be at her graduation, said Camelio Gomez, Pineda's fiancé. But Gomez doesn't know if that's even possible. He has no legal guardianship over Gabby, as he calls her. The girl, who is a Honduran citizen, has an asylum case pending. And with Pineda being held at the Kenton County Detention Center in Kentucky before being deported to Honduras, there's no clear way to secure a power of attorney for Gomez to travel with the girl. ICE, he said, has not been responsive to him or the lawyer for the mother and daughter. Despite life-altering consequences, there is currently no federal protocol to ensure that children are reunited with their deported parents. Their well-being is left to chance, in a system that wasn't built to protect them.
ICE took her mother. Now, a 6-year-old is left without a guardian or path back to routine in Honduras.	Borders and Immigration	Her statement comes after the U.S. targeted three nuclear sites in Natanz, Esfahan and Fordow, while more than two dozen Tomahawk missiles were launched at the other two sites. Greene has been a notable critic of U.S. involvement in the conflict between Iran and Israel, saying that she backed Trump because he would not involve the nation in foreign conflicts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-took-her-mother-now-100000113.html	2025/06/23
Greene: 'Let's pray that we are not attacked by terrorists'	Political Censorship	On Wednesday, NBC News' Sahli Kapur reported that some Democratic senators now say they regret voting to confirm Kristi Noem as secretary of homeland security. As a reminder, seven of them did: Sens. Tim Kaine, Andy Kim, Elissa Slotkin, Gary Peters, Maggie Hassan, Jeanne Shaheen and John Fetterman. But why the long faces just now? In retrospect, the morality tale ending in a puppy killing should have been a red flag. Or perhaps her lack of qualifications, or the fact that she was already promising mass deportations.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/greene-let-pray-not-attacked-130524088	2025/06/23
Opinion These Democrats now have regrets about voting for Kristi Noem. Interesting.	Political Censorship	Now, those Democrats sound surprised to find out who she really is. Interesting. Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard has flipped her stance on Iran after President Donald Trump nuked her intelligence as "wrong." Following Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's June 12 "preemptive" strike on Iran—which he justified by saying that the country has a "secret plan" to weaponize uranium—Trump sided with Israel's countervailing position.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-democrats-now-regrets-voting-10	2025/06/23
Tulsi Gabbard Flips Sides in MAGA Civil War Over Iran's Nuclear Capabilities	Political Censorship	— Then on Friday, Gabbard fell in line with Trump, attacking the media for having the gall to believe what she said. A 37-year-old U.S. citizen who was tackled to the ground and arrested after firing federal agents at Home Depot on Thursday said he was held for more than an hour near Dodger Stadium, where agents looted about how many immigrants they arrested. "How many bodies did you guys grab today?" he said one agent asked. "Oh, we grabbed 31," the other replied. "That was a good day today," the first agent responded.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tulsi-gabbard-flips-sides-maga-14521046	2025/06/23
A good day? Detained U.S. citizen said agents bragged after arresting dozens at Home Depot	Government-ICE	The two high-fived, as he sat on the asphalt under the sun. Job Garcia said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/good-day-detained-u-citizen-031015144	2025/06/23	Brown shirts, nazi checklist
'Life is full of unexpected surprises.' People trying to call Iran meet mysterious voice message	Dystopian	People trying to call friends and loved ones inside Iran have instead been met with strange, pre-recorded voice messages, which some experts believe may be part of the regime's wider internet blackout. In a recording of a telephone call heard by CNN, a person outside of Iran hoping to hear their friend's voice on the other line, was instead met with a robotic voice. "Hello, and thank you for taking the time to listen," the voice says. "Life is full of unexpected surprises," it continues, "and these surprises can sometimes bring joy while, at other times, they challenge us. "The key is to discover the strength within us to overcome these challenges."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/life-is-full-unexpected-surprises-people-163	2025/06/23
Senate Parliamentarian Tells Republicans They Can't Do Their Big Food Benefit Cut	Government Budget	A decision by the Senate's rules referee will likely force Republicans to drop a major part of their so-called Big Beautiful Bill. Democrats announced late Friday night the Senate parliamentarian ruled that a provision requiring states to share the cost of federal food benefits cannot stay in the bill under the fast-track legislative procedures Republicans are using. "There is no 'exit' rule," says one of the officials, who were granted anonymity to discuss sensitive matters. "Nothing new, that I'm aware of... The president is protecting the United States and our interests. But the intelligence assessments have not really changed from what we were before." Sen. Chris Murphy (D-Conn.), who sits on the Foreign Relations Committee, confirmed Saturday night that American intelligence assessments on Iran have not changed. "I was briefed on the intelligence last week. Iran posed no imminent threat of attack to the United States," he wrote on social media. "Iran was not close to building a deliverable nuclear weapon."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/senate-parliamentarian-tells-republicans-20250623	2025/06/23
'There Is No Exit': Trump's Attacks on Iran Were Based on Vlies. Sources Say	Middle east conflict	Ultras processed foods are a fustion for the US health and human services (HHS) secretary, Robert F Kennedy Jr., a vaccine skeptic who believes the US industrialized food supply is a "primary culprit" behind many chronic diseases. The secretary has been less successful in reigning in food makers. Food advocates have described voluntary changes between the government and manufacturers "disappointing." Kennedy was criticized by congressional Republicans for targeting agricultural pesticides in the "Mafia" report before it was even released — showing the limits of Republicans appetite for regulation, then the report itself was riddled with errors, likely generated by AI. A key adviser to Kennedy, Calley Means, could directly benefit from one of the campaign's stated aims, popularizing "technology like wearables as cod, modern tools for measuring diet impact and taking control of your own health." Calley Means is a senior Kennedy adviser, and was hired as a special government employee to focus on food policy, according to Bloomberg. He founded a company that helps Americans get such wearable devices reimbursed tax-free through health savings accounts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/no-exit-trump-attacks-iran-141645298.html	2025/06/23	WTF??
Key RFK Jr. advisers stand to profit from a new federal health initiative	RFK JR.BS	Casey Means is Calley's sister. She also runs a healthcare start-up, although hers sells wearable devices such as continuous glucose monitors. She is Kennedy's nominee for US surgeon general, and a healthcare entrepreneur whose business sells continuous glucose monitors — one such wearable device. Calley Kennedy's company also works with Calley's company. Most estimates place Earth's human population at around 8.2 billion, but Jossias Ling-Ritter — a postdoctoral researcher at Aalto University in Finland and lead author of the study published in the journal Nature Communications — claims that these estimates could be underrepresenting rural areas by a significant margin. "We were surprised to find that the actual population living in rural areas is much higher than the global population data indicates—depending on the dataset, rural populations have been underestimated by between 53 percent to 84 percent over the period studied," Ling-Ritter said in a press statement. "The results are remarkable, as these datasets have been used in thousands of studies and extensively support decision-making, yet their accuracy has not been systematically evaluated."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/key-rfk-jr-advisers-stand-150012075.html	2025/06/23
Qops, Scientists May Have Severely Miscalculated How Many Humans Are on Earth	Weird world	A giant stronghold might sound like something out of a science fair or a medieval battle—but one California startup is turning this idea into an revolutionary way to launch satellites. This system doesn't rely on fire or flame. Instead, it uses electricity and motion to hurl satellites into space, all while promising to cut down on cost and pollution.	https://www.thebrightside.news/space/qop-launch-catsquips-satellites	2025/06/23
Spain Launches catsquips satellites into orbit without using a drop of fuel	Weird world	The woman is the only known carrier of a new blood type, dubbed "Gxida negative," the French Blood Establishment (EFG) said. The discovery was made 15 years after researchers received a blood sample from a patient who was undergoing routine tests ahead of a surgery. In a stunningly swift overnight change, some Texas farm operations had to shut down after losing virtually all of their workforce, an exodus triggered by the increase in immigration raids and increased enforcement. The ripple effects of these raids are the gift that keeps on giving and will be felt nationwide: unpicked crops are now left unharvested, livestock were left untended, and rural economies are on edge.	https://www.cbsnews.com/news/french-scientists-discover-new-blood-type/	2025/06/23
French scientists discover new blood type in Quindaoise woman	Weird world	The judgment that neither the Constitution, nor the War Powers Resolution, a 1973 law meant to clarify and limit when the president can wage war, nor any bygone authorization to use military force, such as the one passed after 9/11, permitted the attack is one I share. But I don't just lament the death of a congressional vote out of concern for constitutional law. I also fear that bypassing Congress weakens American democracy. "Yesterday, in contrast, a lame-duck president who will never again be accountable at the ballot box went to war with Iran. There was no deliberation and no ability for voters to lobby their congressional representatives, and voters will be unable to credit or blame members of Congress for the outcome, or at least not as fully as if all were on the record voting yes or nay.	https://www.theatlantic.com/deep/archive/2025/06/americans-deserve-	2025/06/23
Attacking Iran Without Congress's Blessing Leaves Citizens With No Recourse	Constitutional Crisis	Donald Trump has doubled down on claims "monumental damage" had been done to Iran's nuclear sites, as the head of the UN's nuclear agency said that while he anticipated "very significant damage" at the underground Fordow site, the agency had not been able to assess it. Trump, who has a reputation for hyperbole, again stated that the sites had been "obliterated" by this weekend's US-led bombings, in contrast with the more cautious language from the Pentagon and Israeli officials.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/23/trump-installs-monu	2025/06/23
Trump installs 'monumental damage' done by US strikes in Iran but others are more cautious	Middle east conflict	One way Iran could retaliate, analysts say, is to close off the strait of Hormuz, a vital trade route, through which more than a fifth of the world's oil supply, 20m barrels, and much of its liquefied gas, passes each day. Iran has in the past threatened to close the strait, which would restrict trade and affect global oil prices, but has never followed through on the threat.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/23/that-is-the-strait-of-ho	2025/06/23	explainer
The strait of Hormuz: how could Iran close it and why does it matter to global trade?	Middle east conflict	Exactly a week later, sporting a "Make America great again" (MAGA) cap in the situation room, the American president ordered the biggest US military intervention in decades as more than 125 aircraft and 75 weapons — including 14 bunker-busting bombs — struck three Iranian nuclear sites. Trump called it a "spectacular military success" — but it remains unclear how much damage had actually been inflicted. Trump's gambit was cheered by Israel and Republican hawks. It alarmed some in his MAGA base who felt for his rhetoric promising to be an isolationist who would end forever wars. I left egg on the face of Pakistan, which only a day earlier had said it would nominate Trump for the Nobel peace prize.
Trump's war with Iran signals perilous shift from showman to strongman	Trump Bullyshit	Trump's strike on Iran was another example of both his disregard for public opinion — six in 10 Americans opposed US military involvement in the conflict between Israel and Iran, according to an Economist/YouGov poll released on 17 June — and his contempt for Congress. Some fear that governing by claims of "national emergency" has become normalised under Trump, posing a threat to US civic society and political norms as he governs in a permanent crisis mode and authoritarian style. "In any emergency-power regime, it's crucial that the 'emergency' trigger be carefully defined and cautiously applied, lest the state of emergency become the new normal. Yet that seems to be exactly what Trump wants — to remain in perpetual crisis mode," said David Pozen, a Columbia University law professor.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/23/trump-iran-strongman	2025/06/23
'Perpetual crisis mode': how Trump uses emergency declarations to push radical agenda	Trump Bullyshit	We're now seeing a very significant shift toward enforcement at labor sites where people are working," said Andrew Selee, president of the nonpartisan Migration Policy Institute. "Not a focus on people with criminal records, but a focus on people who are deeply integrated in the American economy." In California, immigrant workers comprise bigger shares of certain industries than they do for the nation overall. Here, the foreign-born make up 62% of agriculture labor and 42% of construction workers, according to the American Immigration Council. About 85% of sewing machine operators in garment factories are foreign-born. Fully 40% of entrepreneurs are foreign-born. Nationally, about a quarter of workers are foreign-born in agriculture and construction, according to the American Immigration Council. More than half of drywall hangers, plasterers and stucco masons are foreign-born. And in science, technology, engineering and math — the so-called STEM fields — nearly a quarter of workers are foreign-born, said the council.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/23/migrants-disappe	2025/06/23
I'm scared to death to leave my house; immigrants are disappearing from the streets - can US cities survive?	Economy-Immigration

		Kat Cinnamack went to the emergency room in May 2024 where it was estimated she was five weeks into an ectopic pregnancy, there was no heartbeat and her life was at risk. Doctors determined she needed a shot of methotrexate to help expel her pregnancy but since Florida's six-week abortion ban had just taken effect medical staff were worried about losing their licenses or going to jail if they did. Abortion rights activists say the law created problems. Florida regulators say ectopic pregnancies are not abortions and are exempt from restrictions, but Molly Duane, with the Center for Reproductive Rights, told the Wall Street Journal the law does not define ectopic pregnancy, which can be difficult to diagnose.
Republican representative's ectopic pregnancy clashes with Florida abortion law	Reproductive rights	Alison Haddock, the president of the American College of Emergency Physicians, told the outlet care in early pregnancy is a "medically complicated space" and that doctors in abortion-restricted states worry "whether their clinical judgment will stand should there be any prosecution". High pressure across the eastern US has funnelled up hot air from southern parts of the the country, resulting in what is known as a heat dome, initially across central regions on Friday, before spreading eastwards over the weekend. The temperatures rose significantly on Saturday, with Huron regional airport in South Dakota recording a high of 39-40° (102-81°), 13° above the average high in June for the region.	https://www.theguardian.com/us/news/2025/jun/22/hat-cinnamack-rupture	2025/06/23
Weather tracker: US and Europe swelter in June heatwaves	Environment-Heat	Overall, 250 daily temperature records could be broken on Monday and Tuesday, including both record highs and record warm lows, making this heatwave particularly oppressive. A 69-year-old Mexican-born man has become the first ice detainee in at least a decade to die while being transported from a local jail to a federal detention center, and experts have warned there will likely be more such deaths amid the current administration's "mass deportation" push across the US.	https://www.theguardian.com/environmnet/2025/jun/23/weather-tracker	2025/06/23
'Ticking time bomb': Ice detainee dies in transit as experts say more deaths likely	Borders and Immigration	Abelardo Arellano Delgado's exact cause of death remains under investigation, according to ICE, but the Guardian's reporting reveals a confusing and at times contradictory series of events surrounding the incident. The death occurred as private companies with little to no oversight are increasingly tasked with transporting more immigration detainees across the US, in pursuit of the Trump administration's recently-announced target of arresting 3,000 people a day.	https://www.theguardian.com/us/news/2025/jun/22/ice-detainee-death	2025/06/23
GOP tax bill would ease regulations on gun silencers and some rifles and shotguns	Gun Laws	The massive tax and spending cuts package that President Donald Trump wants on his desk by July 4 would loosen regulations on gun silencers and certain types of rifles and shotguns, advancing a longtime priority of the gun industry as Republican leaders in the House and Senate try to win enough votes to pass the bill. ... Democrats are fighting to stop the provision, which was unveiled days after two Minnesota state legislators were shot in their homes, as the bill speeds through the Senate. They argue that loosening regulations on silencers could make it easier for criminals and active shooters to conceal their weapons.	https://apnews.com/articles/gop-tax-bill-big-beautiful-trump-senate-guns-2fd	2025/06/23
Hegseth's call for 'peace' shows Trump thinks he can have it both ways despite his punishing Iran 'hammer' strike	Middle east conflict	But as the president and his top deputies laid out their own vision for the future, they described a one-and-done effort to set Iran's weapon development efforts back 'years' while claiming that the administration remained committed to avoiding a Bush-style invasion aimed at toppling the Iranian government. And Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth declared of the U.S. president earlier Sunday at a press conference: "He seeks peace, and Iran should take that path."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/hegseth	2025/06/23
Heat stroke signs and symptoms – and how to avoid it during a heatwave	Health- Heat	But Iranian officials have already dismissed the idea of letting Saturday's action go unanswered. Mild forms of heat-related illness include heat cramps and heat rash, both of which can be caused by extensive sweating during hot conditions. Cooling the body and drinking cool fluids can help. When heat-related illnesses progress into heat exhaustion, the situation is more serious. Heat exhaustion includes symptoms such as dizziness, nausea, excessive sweating, feeling weak, thirst and getting a headache. Heat exhaustion is a signal that the body is losing its ability to maintain a stable core temperature. Immediate action such as moving to a cool, ideally air-conditioned space, drinking liquids, loosening clothes and applying wet cloths are some of the recommended steps that can help keep heat exhaustion from progressing to the most dangerous form of heat-related illness, heat stroke. Heat stroke is a medical emergency. At this point, the body can no longer maintain a stable core temperature. A body with heat stroke can reach 106 degrees Fahrenheit or higher rapidly, and that heat can quickly damage the brain, heart and kidneys.	https://www.the-independent.com/life-style/health-and-families/heat-stroke	2025/06/23
Israeli officials see "significant" damage to Iran's nuclear facilities	Middle east conflict	Israeli intelligence services believe U.S. and Israeli strikes caused "very significant" damage to Iran's nuclear facilities, with some officials perplexed by a leaked U.S. intelligence report that suggested otherwise. The emerging Israeli assessment presents a far more optimistic view of the operation than a preliminary report from the Defense Intelligence Agency, which assessed the strikes may have set Iran back only a few months. President Trump's claim that Iran's nuclear program has been "obliterated" came under scrutiny Tuesday after the DIA report was leaked to CNN, the New York Times, Washington Post and multiple other outlets. The leak infuriated the White House, which rejected the findings as "fake news" and accused anonymous officials of seeking to undermine Trump.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/iran-nuclear-program-israel-damage	2025/06/25
Behind the Curtain: An AI Marshall Plan	Technology- AI	If politics and public debate were a rational, fact-based exercise, the government, business and the media would be obsessed with preparation for the unfolding AI revolution — rather than ephemeral outrage eruptions. That's not how Washington works. So while CEOs, Silicon Valley and a few experts inside government see AI as an opportunity, and threat, worthy of a modern Marshall Plan, most of America — and Congress — shrugs. 1. A global American-led AI super-alliance: President Trump, like President Biden before him, sees beating China to superhuman AI as an existential battle. 2. A domestic Marshall Plan: The Marshall Plan was America's commitment to rebuild Europe from the ruins of World War II. Now, the U.S. needs unfathomable amounts of data, chips, energy and infrastructure to produce AI. 3. A congressional kill switch: There's no appetite in Washington to regulate artificial intelligence, mainly out of fear China would then beat the U.S. to the most important technological advance in history. 4. A CEO AI surge: Anthropic's Dario Amodei told Axios that half of entry-level, white-collar jobs could be gone in a few years because of AI. Almost every CEO tells us they're slowing or freezing hiring across many departments, where AI is expected to displace humans.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/ai-united-states-government-plan	2025/06/25
Exclusive: Thune urges "light touch" on AI regulations	Technology- AI	Senate Majority Leader John Thune expects some form of freeze on state AI regulations to remain in the "big, beautiful bill" — even as his Republicans keep debating the move. It's been ten years since the Supreme Court's landmark Obergefell v. Hodges decision legalized same-sex marriage across the U.S. But Jim Obergefell, the case's lead plaintiff, says the fight is far from over — marriage equality remains under threat. In recent years, anti-LGBTQ+ bills have flooded statehouses, and President Trump's victory has emboldened the GOP's anti-trans blitz.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/thune-ai-moratorium-big-beautiful-bill	2025/06/25
A decade after Obergefell, LGBTQ+ rights remain under threat	Rainbow threats	Shannon Miller, the National Center for LGBTQ Rights' legal director who served as lead counsel in a landmark California marriage equality case, said he's never seen a moment of such "intense, comprehensive, vicious backlash" against the community. Jenny Fizer, the chief legal officer at Lambda Legal and a driving force in the fight for marriage equality, hears the "seething echoes of past attacks" today. But the "magnitude and the speed" of the administration's actions makes this moment singular.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/obergefell-decade-lgbtq-rights-threat	2025/06/25
Andrew Cuomo concedes to Zohran Mamdani in NYC mayoral primary	Elections- Primary	Former New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo conceded to state assemblyman Zohran Mamdani in New York City's Democratic mayoral primary on Tuesday night. Mamdani, a 33-year-old democratic socialist, is on course for an earthquake victory after running an extraordinary grassroots campaign focused on affordability in America's largest city. Mamdani was leading 10 other Democrats — including his top opponent, scandal-ridden Cuomo — in the first round of the ranked-choice election of late Tuesday night. Mamdani's policy proposals include rent freezes, free buses, and city-run grocery stores, all funded by $10 billion in new taxes on corporations and the wealthy.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/zohran-mamdani-new-york-city-pim	2025/06/25
Scoop: Trump admin cuts contracts with scientific publishing giant	Information- Blackout	The Trump administration has terminated millions worth of funding for Springer Nature, a German-owned scientific publishing giant that has long received payments for subscriptions from National Institutes of Health and other agencies, Axios has learned. President Trump and MAGA have made a push to target academic institutions as well as research organizations perceived to be the source of so-called "woke" ideology, including DEI and gender-affirming care policies, by withholding federal funding and in some cases initiating legal action.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/trump-cuts-contracts-scientific-publi	2025/06/25
Scoop: Trump denies 9 former Biden aides executive privilege	Trump Bulfith	The Trump White House has decided that nine former senior Biden aides won't be protected by executive privilege during their interviews for a congressional probe into Joe Biden's mental fitness for office. The White House's move means the former Biden aides will have to answer questions about their private conversations with Biden, unless they or Biden try to challenge the decision in court.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/biden-investigation-congress-aides	2025/06/25	petty
CEOs worry about effect of tariffs on the economy	Economy- Tariffs	A large share of U.S. companies cut back, postponed or canceled spending in the first half of the year due to trade concerns, per a survey of chief financial officers released this morning. 40% of those surveyed said they've postponed or canceled capital spending. Separately, 40% said tariffs and trade policy are a pressing concern, up from zero two years ago. Zoom out: Overall, 23% of respondents predicted negative year-ahead economic growth, compared to 15% in the previous quarter.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/cefs-chief-financial-officers-econor	2025/06/25
The tariff clock is ticking with just two weeks left	Economy- Tariffs	When the Trump administration paused sweeping tariffs in early April, it promised 90 trade deals in 90 days that would fundamentally reshape the global economic order. With two weeks to go, there's one deal, one shaky detente and maximum uncertainty about the rest.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/trump-tariffs-china-mexico-canada	2025/06/25
Rage and mistrust course through Congress on Iran Demands furm at "unserious" Trump impeachment vote	Politics- Impeachment	Skepticism is raging in Democratic quarters that U.S. strikes against Iran's nuclear facilities were not as successful as President Trump described them. On nearly all issues, foreign and domestic, there's a massive trust deficit between the White House and congressional Democrats. Add Iran's nuclear capabilities to that list. House Democrats privately vented their fury Tuesday about what they said is a "premature" and "unhelpful" vote on impeaching President Trump for his strikes on Iran.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/24/congress-iran-briefings-trump	2025/06/25
Housing market at risk of "sustained downturn" as price growth cools	Economy- Housing	The risk of a "sustained downturn" in the housing market is rising, as home prices show further signs of cooling off. Home prices rose 2.7% in April, compared with a year earlier, down from a 3.5% jump in March, according to the S&P CoreLogic Case-Shiller U.S. National Home Price NSA Index released Tuesday. April's is the smallest annual price gain in nearly two years, S&P noted.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/24/housing-market-price-growth-april	2025/06/25
ICE in hot water: Dozens of US citizens wrongfully deported in shocking immigration blunder	Government- ICE	In a startling revelation, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has deported dozens of U.S. citizens over the years, raising serious concerns about civil rights violations and the integrity of immigration enforcement. The idea that American citizens can be deported seems unthinkable—but that's exactly what has happened. The Government Accountability Office (GAO) confirmed that between 2015 and 2020, ICE arrested 674 individuals who were potentially U.S. citizens, detained 121 of them, and ultimately deported 70 people from the country. Migrant insider emphasized that "The actual number likely be much higher," citing inadequate safeguards and record-keeping by ICE.	https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/news/international/us/ice-in-hot-4	2025/06/25
What to know about Florida's planned "Alligator Airlift"	Political- Cesspool	In less than a week's time, a proposal to build an immigration detention center on an airstrip in the Everglades went from a controversial idea to getting the green light from the federal government. The facility have lasting environmental impacts on a stretch of wilderness that's vital to Florida's ecosystem and is set to cost the state about $450 million a year, the Miami Herald reported.	https://www.axes.com/breaking/insiam/2025/06/24/florida-alligator-airlift-2	2025/06/25
Exclusive: Thune plans make-or-break weekend votes on 'big, beautiful bill'	Government- Budget	Senate Majority Leader John Thune expects to start voting Friday on President Trump's "one big, beautiful bill," he told Axios in an exclusive interview on Tuesday. This would have them voting into the weekend, and it would upend the House's recent next week. But the (R-S-D) is confident Congress will meet its self-imposed July 4 deadline to get a bill on Trump's desk.	https://www.axes.com/2025/06/25/john-thune-trump-big-beautiful-bill	2025/06/25
Scientists use bacteria to turn plastic waste into paracetamol	Weird world	Bacteria can be used to turn plastic waste into painkillers, researchers have found, opening up the possibility of a more sustainable process for producing the drugs. Chemists have discovered E. coli can be used to create paracetamol, also known as acetaminophen, from a material produced in the laboratory from plastic bottles. "People don't realise that paracetamol comes from oil currently," said Prof Stephen Wallace, the lead author of the research from the University of Edinburgh. "What this technology shows is that by merging chemistry and biology in this way for the first time, we can make paracetamol more sustainably and clean up plastic waste from the environment at the same time."	https://www.theguardian.com/science/2025/jun/23/scientists-use-e-coli	2025/06/25	weird world or real world

		Common garden snails and slugs could now be considered venomous, according to scientists. In a study that shakes up the definition of venom, researchers explain it's not just the bites of snakes and spiders that are classed as venomous, but also the saliva of aphids and the chemicals released by slugs.
Garden slugs and snails could now be considered venomous, study finds	Weird world	This change in definition will mean that tens of thousands of additional species could now be considered venomous. Now it appears it may not have. According to a still-classified assessment by the Defense Intelligence Agency, the bombs did not "obliterate" Iran's Fordo enrichment site as President Trump initially claimed. Instead, the strikes did only limited damage to the advanced centrifuges kept there. At most, the program was set back "a few months," according to a U.S. official who confirmed the assessment's existence to NPR but remained anonymous because they were not authorized to speak to the press. Over many hundreds of years, a number of words have emerged that abbreviate "brother" including "bro," "bro" and now "bruh." The earliest evidence of an abbreviated use of "brother" is with the word "bro," used as early as the 16th century, said Jesse Sheddower, former editor-at-large of the Oxford English Dictionary and an adjunct professor at Columbia University. "Bro" usually came before "a man's name or to a character, especially the name of an animal," Sheddower said. In African American folklore, we see "bro" being used in this way during the 19th century, especially in the Caribbean and Southern U.S., he said. The first known use of the word "bruh" appeared much later, in the 1890s, according to Merriam Webster.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/uk/home-news/slugs-snails-venom-2025-06-25	2025/06/25
Why America's giant bunker-busting bombs may have failed to reach their target	Middle east conflict		https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-st-544397284/americas-bunker-bust	2025/06/25
Brother to Bruh: How Gen Alpha slang has its origins in the 16th century	Weird world	The best solution during a heat wave is to avoid being outside during the hottest parts of the day and staying inside as much as possible. If you do have to be outside, drink water — and then drink more, and more. Also, wear a brimmed hat. But an important tip is to make sure your air conditioner's filters are clean, says Kevin Kircher, assistant professor of mechanical engineering at Purdue University. "If you don't know when your filters were last replaced, it's probably time," he writes in an email. "For folks who don't have air conditioning," Kircher says, "or whose air conditioners can't keep up with extreme heat, public places with air conditioning are a great resource. Public libraries often function informally as cooling centers for vulnerable members of their communities."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-st-54439929/bruh-meaning-explains	2025/06/25
Long- and short-term solutions to keep yourself and your home cool in a heat wave	Environment-Heat	"The root cause of a lot of discomfort is a house that is leaky," Adams says. "So one of the key things to look at is where you can seal up the house." An influential committee that helps craft federal vaccine policy and recommendations for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention begins a two-day meeting in Atlanta Wednesday. The Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, or ACIP, often meets in obscurity, but was thrown into the spotlight two weeks ago when Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. fired all 17 seated members of the panel and replaced them with a smaller selection of his own. The committee meets over the objections of Senators Bill Cassidy, R-La., and Patty Murray, D-Wash., chair and former chair of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions committee, who have both called for the meeting to be postponed over concerns about the new committee members.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/24/mx-st-5443565/air-conditioner-heatwave	2025/06/25
RFK Jr.'s picks for CDC vaccine advisers meet this week amid controversy	RFK JR BS	We love this place, we adore this place, says customer, José Morales, 31, who has been coming here with his family his whole life. "And look at it right now, it looks like a ghost-town. Being realistic, people are just scared because of ICE."	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/06/25/mx-st-5438	2025/06/25
This beloved Mexican market in LA is losing business amid immigration raids	Nazi Checklist	The presence of federal agents have kept many immigrants away from public life out of fear that they too could be detained.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/20/mx-st-54323543/trump-immigration-ice-2	2025/06/25
Brazilian tourist found dead after falling from an Indonesian volcano	Tragic	A young Brazilian hiker who fell hundreds of meters from the ridge of a towering Indonesian volcano and was trapped there for almost four days was found dead on Tuesday, Brazil's government said. For days, millions of people in Brazil had watched, posted and prayed as rescuers tried to locate her.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-st-5444787/brazilian-tourist-indonesian-volcano	2025/06/25
A lid on a pot: How does a heat dome work?	Environment-Heat	A heat dome is bringing oppressive heat to the eastern half of the contiguous U.S., with forecasters warning people in those areas to take precautions to cope with extreme high temperatures. The phenomenon occurs when high pressure ridges and traps warm air near the surface, while also suppressing clouds and precipitation. "It almost acts like a lid on a pot," the National Weather Service's Alex Lamers told NPR, discussing how a heat dome works. Lamers is the operations branch chief at the Weather Prediction Center. "If you've made grilled cheese in a pan and you put a lid on there, it melts the cheese faster because the lid helps trap the heat," Lamers said. "It's a similar concept here: You get a big high-pressure system in the upper parts of the atmosphere and it allows that heat to build underneath over multiple days." An illustrated gif shows a scene with a larger-than-life cup of ice water standing in for a swimming pool. A person stands at the top of a high dive in red swim trunks and when a cloud moves away from the sun, the person dives into the water.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/24/mx-st-74358/heat-dome-hot-weather-explains	2025/06/25
Salvadoran journalist's arrest in Georgia sets 'warning precedent'	Journalists	The arrest of Salvadoran journalist Mario Guevara in Georgia earlier this month highlights the risks journalists who are not citizens face under a Trump administration aggressively pursuing mass deportations. Guevara is currently in Immigration and Customs Enforcement custody after he live streamed his own arrest by local law enforcement for alleged unlawful assembly and obstruction of officers on June 14 while covering a "No Kongs" protest in DeKalb County. How do you save the lives of over 150 million children? The answer: Childhood vaccinations. Just over 50 years ago, the World Health Organization launched its Essential Programme on Immunization. Since then, vaccination rates have improved dramatically and researchers estimate that 4.4 billion people have been reached and 154 million childhood deaths have been avoided. "Another example: Twenty-one of 36 high-income countries saw a decline in vaccination rates for at least one of the immunizations that WHO promoted back when I launched its immunization program — vaccines to prevent such diseases as diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, measles and polio. Take Finland, for instance. It saw an 8% drop in the children receiving the third dose of their diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis vaccination. In Austria, there was a 6% decline. This accident never should have happened, said Homendy. "The safety deficiencies that led to this accident should have been evident to Boeing," as well as to regulators at the FAA. "The board concluded that the probable cause of the accident was "Boeing's failure to provide adequate training, guidance, and oversight" to its factory workers, according to a meeting summary released by the NTSB.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/24/mx-st-5440286/mario-guevara-salvador	2025/06/25
The good news (154 million deaths avoided) and bad news about childhood vaccines	Health-Vaccines		https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/06/24/mx-st-741707	2025/06/25
NTSB faults Boeing for lack of safety protocols in 737 Max door plug blowout	Aviation		https://www.npr.org/2025/06/24/mx-st-5442564/ntsb-boeing-737-max-8	2025/06/25
Fired Justice Department lawyer accuses agency of planning to defy court orders	Government-DOJ	A longtime government lawyer told Congress that Justice Department leaders planned to knowingly defy court orders and withhold information from judges to advance the Trump administration's aggressive deportation goals, according to a newly published whistleblower complaint.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/24/mx-st-743115/justice-department-immigration	2025/06/25
US health secretary Kennedy says he brought back 772 CDC employees, 228 at NIH	Government-CDC	U.S. health secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. said on Tuesday that he has rehired 942 employees who were laid off from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the National Institutes of Health. "I brought 772 people back to CDC, I brought 220 people back to NIH because we were not able to perform our job," Kennedy told the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Energy and Commerce's Subcommittee on Health in a hearing on his department's 2026 budget request.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-health-secretary-kennedy-says-15040	2025/06/25
Trump says no vacations until Congress passes his message bill	Government-Budget	Speaker Mike Johnson warned House Republicans Tuesday that their Independence Day deadline to pass the bill is in jeopardy as the House waits for the Senate to complete its changes to the One, Big, Beautiful Bill Act and the speaker sticks to the Fourth of July deadline. Both Israel and Iran were quick to claim victory. An Israeli military spokesman said Wednesday that the strikes on Iran had set the country's nuclear program back by "many years," while President Trump told reporters at a NATO summit in the Netherlands that Iran's enrichment work was put back "basically decades."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-says-no-vacations-until-175922681	2025/06/25
Israel-Iran truce holds, but Iran threatens to accelerate nuclear work	Middle east conflict	Officials in the Islamic Republic have made it clear that, regardless of the damage actually caused to Iran's nuclear program, the country's theocratic rulers intended to not only resume, but accelerate its enrichment work — and without any oversight by the United Nations' atomic watchdog agency, the International Atomic Energy Agency.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/israel-iran-truce-holds-iran-1140530881	2025/06/25
NATO leaders agree to hike military spending and restore 'ironclad commitment' to collective defense	International-NATO	The 32 leaders endorsed a final summit statement saying "Allies commit to invest 5% of GDP annually on core defense requirements as well as defense- and security-related spending by 2035 to ensure our individual and collective obligations." Spain had already officially announced that it cannot meet the target, and others have voiced reservations, but the investment pledge includes a review of spending in 2029 to monitor progress and reassess the security threat posed by Russia.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/nato-leaders-agree-hike-military-spending-180842224	2025/06/25
Abortion in America: 3 years after Roe's repeal, in 7 charts	Reproductive rights	Research released earlier this year found that strict abortion bans do appear to have resulted in more than 20,000 more babies being born than would otherwise be expected in restrictive states, particularly among Black and Hispanic mothers and people with low incomes. But that same research found a troubling increase in infant mortality within those same groups. A separate study by the Gender Equity Policy Institute estimated that mothers in restrictive states are twice as likely to die due to pregnancy-related complications as those in more "supportive" states.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/abortion-in-america-3-years-after-roes-repeal-144022740.html	2025/06/25
Key GOP senator warns Medicaid cuts could spell political disaster for Republicans	Government-Medicaid	Sen. Tom Tillis (R-N.C.), one of the most vulnerable Senate Republican incumbents facing reelection in 2026, warned Senate Majority Leader John Thune (R-S.D.) privately in a private meeting Tuesday that deep cuts to Medicaid could cost Republicans control of the House and Senate, according to a person familiar with the conversation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/key-gop-senator-warns-medicare-10000	2025/06/25
Pediatrician In Congress Tells RFK Jr.: I Will Blame You For All Vaccine-Preventable Deaths	RFK JR BS	Rep. Kim Schrier (D-Wash.) on Tuesday tore into Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. for his decades of lies about the safety and effectiveness of vaccines, saying she will blame him every time someone dies from a vaccine-preventable disease on his watch. House Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) doesn't feel bad for them — and has argued, in fact, that stripping their health care is the "moral" thing to do. Johnson's message to these millions of people on Tuesday was to insult them. "For heaven's sake, do something constructive," he said at a press conference on Capitol Hill, arguing the legislation simply brings "common sense" to the Medicaid program. Some of these savings would be achieved by imposing work requirements on all supposedly "able-bodied" adults on Medicaid under the age of 65, demanding they either work or volunteer at least 20 hours a week. Medicaid contains strict income caps mandating that recipients earn life money — so the new work requirements are effectively a demand that recipients bid in low-wage jobs in order to maintain their health insurance. In reality, many people on Medicaid cannot work but have not been approved for disability payments; they would lose coverage under the legislation. The same goes for people on Medicaid who act as caregivers for relatives or friends. But these are not the only people likely to lose coverage under the bill. Most people on Medicaid already do, in fact, work — and they, too, could lose their insurance as a result of the bill's passage.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/pediatrician-congress-tells-rfk-jr-2111014	2025/06/25
Mike Johnson Mocks Millions Who Could Lose Medicaid: 'Do Something Constructive'	Political-Cespool	Despite issuing guidance that measles can be treated with simple vitamins, Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. admitted Tuesday that he's never actually had to help someone recover from the disease before.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-admits-knows-nothing-190842224	2025/06/25
RFK Jr. Admits He Knows Nothing About Actually Treating Measles	RFK JR BS	Cassidy, a medical doctor, chairs the Senate's Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee. He was a vital voice in support of Kennedy's confirmation as health secretary, who Cassidy said made several commitments — including not making any changes to the panel, which makes vaccine recommendations and outlines vaccination schedules for children.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-admits-knows-nothing-190842224	2025/06/25
GOP senator who voted for RFK Jr. despite misgivings is now calling for stop to Trump HHS boss' vaccine panel	Political-Cespool	One appointee, a former HHS DOCE staffer named Brad Smith, now runs a for-profit medical company. The other, Calley Means, is still in the Trump administration. Prior to that, he co-founded a company that sells medical equipment that can be bought with pretax dollars.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-senator-voted-rfk-jr-144022740.html	2025/06/25
Presentation for CDC advisers appears to cite inconsistent study to support claims about risk of vaccine preservative	Government-CDC	A presentation slated to be shared at this week's meeting of vaccine advisers to the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention claimed that a study in animals suggested that use of the vaccine preservative thimerosal can have "long-term consequences in the brain." But the study doesn't appear to exist.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/presentation-cdc-advisers-appears-cite-0	2025/06/25

		Rep. Kim Schrier (D-Wash.) accused Health and Human Services (HHS) Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. of lying to Sen. Bill Cassidy (R-La.) when he told the senator he would maintain a key federal vaccine advisory committee "without changes."
		"Now I know Sen. Cassidy had concerns about your views on this, and so when he voted to confirm you as Secretary of HHS on Feb. 4, he explained that decision by saying on the Senate floor that, 'If confirmed, you will maintain the CDC's Advisory Committee on immunization Practices without changes.'" Schrier recounted.
		"But then two weeks ago you fired all 17 experts on that very committee. Mr. Secretary, question for you, did you lie to Sen. Cassidy when you told him you would not change this panel of experts?" Schrier asked.
		Kennedy denied ever making that commitment to Cassidy and said if the Louisiana senator said as much, then that was "inaccurate."
		"I just want to tell you that for most of us sitting here right now, we believe Sen. Cassidy more than we need to when it comes to vaccinations. It sounds to me like you gave him the answer he needed to hear in order to get his confirmation vote, and then as soon as you were secretary, you turned around and did whatever you want. You fired all 17 members," Schrier said. "You lied to Sen. Cassidy."
Democrat tells RFK Jr.: 'You lied to Sen. Cassidy'	RFK JR BS	A former leader of the anti-vaccine group Children's Health Defense will present this week on theoretical in flu vaccines at a meeting of the newly appointed vaccine advisers to the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, according to a CDC official with knowledge of the decision who wasn't authorized to reveal the information.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/democrat-tells-rfk-jr-lied-17465803.html	2025/06/25
Former leader of anti-vaccine group founded by RFK Jr. to present at first meeting of new CDC vaccine advisers	Government-CDC	The presenter, Lyn Redwood, is a nurse practitioner with experience in pediatrics and family medicine, according to a bio posted on Children's Health Defense's website, which notes she is president emerita of the organization. She previously served as president of the World Mercury Project in 2016, which "expanded its mission" two years later to become Children's Health Defense, which was founded by current US Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/former-leader-anti-vaccine-group-183449	2025/06/25
RFK Jr.: How to destroy vaccination	RFK JR BS	Kennedy's hijacking of this committee will only give his critics more fuel, said The Wall Street Journal in an editorial. Two of his appointees served as paid expert witnesses in lawsuits against vaccine manufacturers, and though Kennedy described one as a George Washington University professor, the school said he hasn't taught there in eight years. Another is an MIT business professor with no medical credentials who has vocally opposed Covid vaccines. Kennedy argued that re-making the ACIP "would restore public trust in vaccines," but "he's on a path to do the opposite."		https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-destroy-vaccination-220211567.htm	2025/06/25
RFK Jr.'s Public Health Plan? Get Every American to Buy a Wearable Device	RFK JR BS	My vision is every American is wearing a wearable within four years, he told a House subcommittee today. "It's a way of people taking control over their own health. They can take responsibility. They can see...what food is doing to their glucose levels, their heart rates, and a number of other metrics as they eat it."		https://tech.yahoo.com/vesarables/articles/rfk-jr-public-health-plan-2029	2025/06/25
Trump is still 'stinging' from brutal TACO jibe, a member of his family claims, so he decided to attack him	Trump Bullshit	The estranged niece of President Donald Trump has accused him of bombing Iran because he "wasn't getting enough attention" and claims he was likely still "stinging" as a result of his brutal new nickname from critics.
		"As a country, we are at war and the man who led us into this war is a corrupt, degraded, ignorant know-nothing who acted illegally to plunge us into a potentially catastrophic situation without the consent of Congress because, despite the fact that he is the president of the United States of America and arguably the most recognized figure on the planet, he wasn't getting enough attention," Mary Trump wrote Sunday on Substack.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-still-stinging-brutal-taco-2048213f	2025/06/25
		After Kennedy conceded that he had not fact-checked the report, Ruiz pointed out that the document had several citation errors, with references to papers that do not exist.
		"How does that happen under your leadership, sir?" Ruiz asked. Kennedy responded by telling the congressman that "all of the foundational assertions in that report are accurate."
Lying and dishonest: RFK Jr. grilled over error-ridden MHA report during House hearing	RFK JR BS	"They did not exist," Ruiz interjected. "How can they be accurate if they did not exist, sir?"		https://www.yahoo.com/news/lying-dishonest-rfk-jr-grilled-214420645.h	2025/06/25
Kimar Abrego Garcia is expected to be released from jail only to be taken into immigration custody	Borders and Immigration	Kimar Abrego Garcia is expected to be released from jail in Tennessee on Wednesday, only to be taken into immigration custody.		https://www.yahoo.com/news/kinar-abrego-garcia-expected-released-4	2025/06/25
		Mike German, a former FBI agent, said officers' widespread use of masks was unprecedented in US law enforcement and a sign of a rapidly eroding democracy. "Masking symbolizes the drift of law enforcement away from democratic controls," he said.
		But, German argued, the longterm consequences could be severe. The practice could erode trust in the US law enforcement agencies. "When it's hard to tell who a masked individual is working for, it's hard to accept that that is a legitimate use of authority," he noted.
The alarming rise of US officers hiding behind masks: 'A police state'	Nazi Checklist	And, he said, when real agents use masks more frequently, it becomes easier for impostors to operate.		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/25/immigration-officers	2025/06/25
		In the public consciousness, ICE has become defined as Trump's personal rogue agency doing his bidding regardless of accepted norms and laws. They have become a kind of domestic enforcer for Maga's agenda, rounding up "illegal" and deporting what they say are criminals to El Salvador, to face just a place without trials. When Trump promised "retribution" in the lead-up to his second presidency, activists say these are now the soldiers carrying it out.		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/24/ice-trump-administr	2025/06/25
'Clouded in mystery': how ICE became a rogue agency, that does Trump's bidding	Government-ICE	The social media echo chamber, amplified by easy access to weapons, draws a variety of misfits, conspiracyists and millionaires nuts out of the woodwork. But by any objective measure, political violence is primarily counterevolutionary violence, and at the moment, that is most obviously of a type edged on by Maga rhetoric and the dehumanising and mocking of victims.		https://www.independent.co.uk/voices/trump-political-violence-shooting	2025/06/25
Political violence is becoming the new normal of Trump's America	Political Violence	White House deputy chief of staff Stephen Miller: the architect of much of the "Trump administration" s anti-immigration agenda, owns up to $250,000 dollars in stock in government contractor Palantir, according to disclosures.
		The investment, held in one of Miller's children's brokerage accounts, raises conflict of interest red flags as the tech company continues to play a substantial role in the work of U.S. immigration officials.
Stephen Miller owns stock in ICE contractor Palantir — a company powering deportations	Political Cesspool			https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/stephe	2025/06/25
A Houston woman called the cops to report domestic abuse. They then called ICE.	Nazi Checklist	Police called Immigration and Customs Enforcement on a Houston mother after she reported her ex-husband for domestic abuse.		https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/housto	2025/06/25
		Democratic leaders largely rallied behind former Gov. Andrew Cuomo in New York's mayoral primary, and Mandant's shocking victory Tuesday was the latest example of the party's establishment being disconnected from many of its own voters.
Democratic establishment melts down over Mandant's win in New York	Elections-Primary	On Wednesday, many Democratic lawmakers and officials either denounced Mandant or notably declined to rally around him. Republicans — including President Trump — crowded about Democrats embracing a democratic socialist who has called for reduced police funding and sided with Palestinians in the Gaza war.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/25/democrats-zohran-mandant-meltdo	2025/06/26
		Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) wants to know what President Trump is "hiding" after the White House decided to limit the classified intel it shares with Congress, as Axios scooped earlier today.
Leaks are a problem: Congress feuds over Trump limits on sharing intel	National Security	Democrats see the Trump decision — made after an alleged leak of intelligence earlier this week — as a significant escalation in what they say is the White House's attempt to stonewall Congress about the Iran conflict.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/congress-iran-classified-intel-leaks-4	2025/06/26
		More than two dozen U.S. states have trigger laws that would limit marriage equality if the Supreme Court overturned its legalization of gay marriage.
		This means about 60% of LGBTQ+ adults live in states where access to marriage equality would change if Obergefell were struck down, according to the Movement Advancement Project.
		Republican lawmakers this year have backed ballot measures to undermine same-sex couples' right to marry.
		Measures seeking to reverse the Obergefell decision have been introduced in Idaho, Michigan, Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota, NBC News reported in February.
Here's where same-sex marriage would be banned without Obergefell	Rainbow Threats	In Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas, lawmakers have introduced bills that don't explicitly refer to the Supreme Court ruling but would create a category called "covenant marriage" for one man and one woman.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/marriage-equality-bans-trigger-laws	2025/06/26
		Running AI on devices instead of in the cloud slashes power consumption of queries by about 90%, the study finds.
Moving AI compute to phones massively reduces power use, study finds	Technology-AI	Running any of six different models on the phones consumed anywhere from 75% to 95% less power, with associated sharp decreases in water consumption and overall carbon footprints.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/ai-compute-phones-qualcomm	2025/06/26
		Kids ages 2 through 19 consumed an average of 11.4% of their daily calories from fast food on a given day between August 2021 and August 2023, according to data from the CDC's National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey.
		That's down from an average of nearly 14% in 2013 and 2014, per CDC data.
		For adults age 20 and up, average calories from fast food fell from about 14% in 2013 and 2014 to 11.7% during mid-2021 to mid-2023.
Fast food consumption decreased, CDC data shows	Health-Food	Food reported as "restaurant fast food/pizza" on survey responses was considered fast food for these analyses, CDC's data brief said.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/fast-food-consumption-decreased-g	2025/06/26
		The first meeting of Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s handpicked vaccine advisory board on Wednesday featured plenty of anti-vaccine talking points — and its proceedings didn't stick to the script.
		It was revealed that one of Kennedy's eight appointees withdrew during the required financial review, leaving the board with only seven members.
RFK Jr. vaccine panel's rocky debut	RFK JR BS	The leading professional association of pediatricians publicly boycotted the proceedings. And planned votes on recommendations for RSV vaccines were postponed when the committee ran out of time.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/rfk-vaccine-board-controversy-med	2025/06/26
		President Trump called on Wednesday for Israel Prime Minister Netanyahu's corruption trial to be "cancelled immediately" or for giving him a pardon.
		Trump's comments in a post on his Truth Social account were an unprecedented intervention by a U.S. president in a legal proceeding in another democratic ally.
In an unusual intervention, Trump calls for canceling Netanyahu's corruption trial	International Relations	"It was the United States of America that saved Israel, and now it is going to be the United States of America that saves Bibi Netanyahu," Trump wrote.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/25/trump-cancel-netanyahu-corruption-	2025/06/26
		While New York City's politics can't be extrapolated for the entire U.S., the conditions for his win are worth studying.
		-His sharp, creative social media presence was perfectly tailored for Gen Z.
		-His top opponent was deeply flawed.
		-Mandant cross-endorsed with NYC Comptroller Brad Lander.
		-The campaign appealed to New York's diverse population, with 21,000 volunteers speaking more than a dozen languages.
		-It had a dominant issue: affordability, with proposals including rent freezes, free buses, free childcare and city-run grocery stores.
Zohran Mandant's campaign was a perfect storm	Election Playbook	-His charisma and youth are undeniable, in a moment when Democrats are struggling to connect with young people and elevate new generations to leadership.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/25/zohran-mandant-campaign-success	2025/06/26
		Top congressional Democrats are furious over President Trump's decision to limit intelligence sharing with Capitol Hill after the alleged leaks of preliminary assessments about the U.S. strike on Iranian nuclear sites.
Democrats rage as Trump limits classified intel sharing with Congress	Political Cesspool	Democrats see the Trump decision as a significant escalation in what they say is the White House's attempt to stonewall Congress about the Iran conflict.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/25/democrats-iran-trump-classified-intel	2025/06/26
		This isn't about national security—it's about Trump's insecurity. President Trump is cutting off intelligence to Congress, raising one clear question: what is he hiding? Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) told Axios in a statement.
		The U.S. and Iran will meet next week to discuss a potential nuclear deal, President Trump claimed at a press conference at the end of the NATO summit on Wednesday.
Trump claims U.S. and Iran will hold meeting next week	International Relations	Iran has not publicly confirmed any planned meetings with U.S. officials, which would come just a week after Trump ordered an unprecedented military strike on Iran's nuclear facilities.		https://www.axios.com/2025/06/25/trump-iran-meeting-nuclear-deal-43r	2025/06/26
		Speaking to reporters while attending the NATO summit in the Netherlands, Trump said he was confident the conflict between Israel and Iran was over. The two sides agreed to a ceasefire suddenly, after Trump declared one on social media Monday night.
		But experts on the region and Iran's nuclear program say that regardless of the amount of damage done to Iran's nuclear facilities, deliberate negotiations leading to a lasting agreement are crucial. Otherwise, a resumption of the war — which could include the U.S. — seems inevitable.
Forget 'total obliteration' — experts say Iran and U.S. need to negotiate	International Relations	"This ceasefire, in my view, is going to be very short lived for both the Israelis and the Americans, unless there is a very serious political strategy, and President Trump essentially takes that leap," says Elie Geramanyeh, senior policy fellow and Iran expert at the European Council on Foreign Relations.		https://www.ppr.com/2025/06/26/ny-st-54453568/iran-arrest-trump-negoti	2025/06/26

Trump's signature policy bill is facing trouble on multiple fronts in the Senate	Government Spending	While Senate committee leaders have made several significant changes to the bill in recent days, the issue of funding for rural hospitals has emerged as a major roadblock. Senate GOP leaders are also waiting to learn if major tax provisions in the bill meet strict Senate rules for what can be included in the bill and still pass with a simple majority vote. The Senate parliamentarian — a non-partisan member of the body's professional staff — is still reviewing those elements to make sure each has a direct impact on the budget, among other regulations. Several provisions in the House version, such as one barring nationwide judicial injunctions, have already been cut in that review. Democrats and Republicans on the Senate Appropriations Committee pushed back against the Trump administration's bid to kill $9 billion in federal funding that Congress already has approved for public broadcasting and international aid programs. In President Trump's request to Congress, sent last month, he justified the cuts because the targeted foreign aid programs were "antithetical to American interests," and because "[f]ederal spending on the Corporation for Public Broadcasting] subsidizes a public media system that is politically biased and is an unnecessary expense to the taxpayer." In a hearing Wednesday, Maine Republican Sen. Susan Collins, who chairs the committee, noted in the case of public broadcasting that 70% of the federal dollars targeted for rescission support local programming and emergency communications. She acknowledged concerns about NPR's news coverage, which she said "for years has had a discernibly partisan bent." "There are, however, more targeted approaches to addressing that bias [at NPR] than rescinding all funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting," Collins said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445185/trump-gop-megabill-scr	2025/06/26
Sensors question Trump plan to kill federal funds for PBS, NPR and some foreign aid	Information Blackout	AI companies could have the legal right to train their large language models on copyrighted works — as long as they obtain copies of those works legally. That's the upshot of a first-of-its-kind ruling by a federal judge in San Francisco on Monday in an ongoing copyright infringement case that pits a group of authors against a major AI company.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445236/senate-hearing-rescisi	2025/06/26
In a first-of-its-kind decision, an AI company wins a copyright infringement lawsuit brought by authors	Technology: ai	The ruling is significant because it represents the first substantive decision on how fair use applies to generative AI systems. Here are some of the takeaways from the two-day meeting in The Hague. Tens of billions of dollars in new military spending A Trump commitment to collective defense A sidelined Ukraine "A nice group of people"	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445242/federal-rules-in-ai-com	2025/06/26
Key takeaways from the Trump-dominated NATO summit	International- NATO	The long-term health care industry is facing a double whammy from President Trump's crackdown on immigrants and the Republican Party's proposals to reduce Medicaid spending. The industry is highly dependent on foreign workers. More than 800,000 immigrants and naturalized citizens comprise 26% of direct care employees at home care agencies, nursing homes, assisted living facilities and other long-term care companies. Staffing shortages and quality-of-care problems would be compounded by other policies pushed by Trump and the Republican-led Congress, according to nursing home officials, resident advocates and academic experts. Federal spending cuts under negotiation may strip nursing homes of some of their largest revenue sources by limiting ways states leverage Medicaid money and by making it harder for new nursing home residents to retroactively qualify for Medicaid. Care for 6 in 10 residents is paid for by Medicaid, the state-federal health program for poor or disabled Americans.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445845/trump-nato-summit	2025/06/26
Nursing homes face 2 threats, Trump's Medicaid cuts, and his immigration crackdown	Health: Care	President Trump says the Federal Emergency Management Agency, FEMA, should be eliminated, and that states should take on more responsibility for responding to and preparing for extreme weather and other disasters. FEMA currently works with states to prepare for disasters, provides on-the-ground help during emergencies and pays out billions of dollars for repairs. Emergency management experts and state disaster response officials say that FEMA plays a crucial role that state governments cannot handle on their own. President Trump says the agency could be eliminated as soon as December 2025. Speaking in the Oval Office in June, he said that major changes to FEMA would come after the Atlantic hurricane season ends in November. "We want to wean off of FEMA, and we want to bring it back to the state level," the president said. He also said that the agency will immediately "give it less money" to states that are recovering from disasters. The mother brought her two children to the immigration court on May 29 expecting to continue to make a case for asylum after fleeing Honduras due to threats of violence. But like many other immigrants across the country, they were surprised to see their case quickly dismissed as ICE agents waited for them to step out of the courthouse into the hallway. The family was then transported to the Dilley Immigration Processing Center in Texas, where they have been detained for several weeks. The six-year-old boy has been diagnosed with leukemia and has missed a medical appointment to be treated for worsening symptoms, according to the lawsuit filed Tuesday in federal court in San Antonio by the Immigrant Rights Clinic and The Texas Civil Rights Project. "The horrors that this family has suffered should never be felt by a child in need of medical care. Arresting immigrants as they step out of a courtroom is a heinous display of disregard for humanity. This family came to the United States seeking safety, but inhuman policies are preventing them from seeking necessary medical care for their child," said Kate Gibson Kumar, a staff attorney for the Texas Civil Rights Project Beyond Borders program. The family had been staying with a relative in Los Angeles for the previous seven months after crossing the border legally for a CBP One court appointment to seek asylum in October of last year. They had been granted parole status in the U.S. while they waited for their day in immigration court. In its first meeting with an entirely new roster in place, a federal judge that helps craft vaccine policy in the U.S. revealed its plans to scrutinize the safety of the childhood vaccine schedule and other priorities that reflect longstanding concerns for Secretary of Health and Human Services Robert F. Kennedy Jr. The committee of independent experts, which offers recommendations to the CDC on the nation's vaccine schedule and immunization policy, has recently become a flashpoint. Earlier this month, Kennedy booted all 17 members of the existing panel, who'd been appointed by President Joe Biden, and replaced them with a smaller selection of his own, including several who've gained a following for, at times, promoting misleading and inaccurate information on COVID-19 vaccines. Another new workgroup will look specifically at "vaccines that have not been subject to review in more than seven years," he said. Topics they will take up include the universal recommendation to administer the hepatitis B shot on the day of birth; how children are immunized against measles, mumps, rubella and varicella, or chicken pox, as well as the timing of the measles vaccine to resolve religious objections among some parents. These new areas of focus are already making some who study vaccines nervous about the future direction of ACP. "They're signaling interest in revisiting long-settled questions around vaccine safety, opening up issues that have been focal points of critics of vaccines for decades and giving them the legitimacy that comes with this previously well-respected government advisory committee," says Jason Schwartz, associate professor at the Yale School of Public Health. The Trump administration on Tuesday filed a lawsuit against all 15 federal judges in Maryland over an order blocking the immediate deportation of migrants challenging their removals, ratcheting up a fight with the federal judiciary over President Donald Trump's executive powers. The remarkable action lays bare the administration's determination to exert its will over immigration enforcement as well as a growing exasperation with federal judges who have time and again turned aside executive branch actions they see as lawless and without legal merit. "It's extraordinary," Laurie Levinson, a professor at Loyola Law School, said of the Justice Department's lawsuit. "And it's escalating DOJ's effort to challenge federal judges." A federal judge in Washington state has ordered the Trump administration to resume distributing money to build EV chargers to 14 states, which had sued to challenge the ongoing freeze on those funds. The court order is a preliminary injunction, not a final decision in the case itself. The judge also added a seven-day pause before it goes into effect, to allow the administration time to appeal the decision. After seven days, if no appeal has been filed, the Department of Transportation would have to stop withholding funds from the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program and distribute them to the 14 states. The White House describes Emil Bove as an ideal nominee for a position on the federal courts. And that's exactly what critics fear. Bove spent years as a federal prosecutor, registering convictions and generating complaints about his work before he left to defend Donald Trump through four criminal indictments. More recently, he's had a hand in some of the administration's most aggressive moves at the Justice Department. As its top official responsible for daily operations, he was involved in sacking prosecutors and FBI agents who investigated Trump and the Jan. 6 Capitol riot. In a recent move, he walked away from the corruption case against New York City Mayor Eric Adams. THE IMPACT: Building the wall has long been one of Trump's signature promises, but its impacts beyond political symbolism are unclear. Illegal border crossings have plunged since Trump took office in January amid a string of orders on immigration, including the suspension of the asylum system. Simply ending asylum meant tens of thousands of people who would've surrendered to law enforcement instead of trying to avoid capture didn't even attempt to cross. THE IMPACT: ICE has said it wants to increase its current detention capacity from about 41,000 people to 100,000. It's part of what ICE's acting director, Todd Lyons, has suggested is a deportation system that could function "like Amazon, trying to get your product delivered in 24 hours." The immigration court system, which has roughly 700 judges, has struggled for years with chronic understaffing and a backlog that has reached more than 3.6 million cases. Judges typically take more than five years to make decisions. It's a chaotic system, with overworked judges, a shortage of translators and immigrants who often don't have lawyers. The chaos has grown in recent weeks, with immigration courts seeing a spike in arrests outside courthouses as agents wait to detain immigrants attending routine hearings. The arrests have spread fed confusion and fear, especially among asylum-seekers, who are accustomed to remaining free while their cases plod their way through the system.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health/wake-health-news/2025/06/26/mx-s1-54453	2025/06/26
Panel picked by RFX Jr. will scrutinize the vaccine schedule for kids	Health: Vaccines	"They're signaling interest in revisiting long-settled questions around vaccine safety, opening up issues that have been focal points of critics of vaccines for decades and giving them the legitimacy that comes with this previously well-respected government advisory committee," says Jason Schwartz, associate professor at the Yale School of Public Health. The Trump administration on Tuesday filed a lawsuit against all 15 federal judges in Maryland over an order blocking the immediate deportation of migrants challenging their removals, ratcheting up a fight with the federal judiciary over President Donald Trump's executive powers. The remarkable action lays bare the administration's determination to exert its will over immigration enforcement as well as a growing exasperation with federal judges who have time and again turned aside executive branch actions they see as lawless and without legal merit.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health/wake-health-news/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445	2025/06/26
Trump administration sues all of Maryland's federal judges over deportation order	Judicial Pushback	"It's extraordinary," Laurie Levinson, a professor at Loyola Law School, said of the Justice Department's lawsuit. "And it's escalating DOJ's effort to challenge federal judges." A federal judge in Washington state has ordered the Trump administration to resume distributing money to build EV chargers to 14 states, which had sued to challenge the ongoing freeze on those funds.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445084/3/justice-department-nar	2025/06/26
Judge orders Trump administration to resume distributing money for EV chargers	Judicial Pushback	The court order is a preliminary injunction, not a final decision in the case itself. The judge also added a seven-day pause before it goes into effect, to allow the administration time to appeal the decision. After seven days, if no appeal has been filed, the Department of Transportation would have to stop withholding funds from the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program and distribute them to the 14 states.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/mx-s1-5445042/ev-charger-funding-free	2025/06/26
Trump's appeals judge nominee says he's no one's 'thunderbolt'	Trump Cesspool	The White House describes Emil Bove as an ideal nominee for a position on the federal courts. And that's exactly what critics fear. Bove spent years as a federal prosecutor, registering convictions and generating complaints about his work before he left to defend Donald Trump through four criminal indictments. More recently, he's had a hand in some of the administration's most aggressive moves at the Justice Department. As its top official responsible for daily operations, he was involved in sacking prosecutors and FBI agents who investigated Trump and the Jan. 6 Capitol riot. In a recent move, he walked away from the corruption case against New York City Mayor Eric Adams. THE IMPACT: Building the wall has long been one of Trump's signature promises, but its impacts beyond political symbolism are unclear. Illegal border crossings have plunged since Trump took office in January amid a string of orders on immigration, including the suspension of the asylum system. Simply ending asylum meant tens of thousands of people who would've surrendered to law enforcement instead of trying to avoid capture didn't even attempt to cross. THE IMPACT: ICE has said it wants to increase its current detention capacity from about 41,000 people to 100,000. It's part of what ICE's acting director, Todd Lyons, has suggested is a deportation system that could function "like Amazon, trying to get your product delivered in 24 hours." The immigration court system, which has roughly 700 judges, has struggled for years with chronic understaffing and a backlog that has reached more than 3.6 million cases. Judges typically take more than five years to make decisions. It's a chaotic system, with overworked judges, a shortage of translators and immigrants who often don't have lawyers. The chaos has grown in recent weeks, with immigration courts seeing a spike in arrests outside courthouses as agents wait to detain immigrants attending routine hearings. The arrests have spread fed confusion and fear, especially among asylum-seekers, who are accustomed to remaining free while their cases plod their way through the system.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/25/gig-s1-74564/trump-appeal-judge-nom	2025/06/26
A look at how Trump's big bill could change the US immigration system	Immigration	THE IMPACT: For wealthier immigrants, the new fees will be an inconvenience. But for the vast majority of people even a few hundred dollars could be enough to make them change their plans. Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei said on Thursday his country had delivered a "baptism to America's face" with his strike on an American base in Qatar, and warned against any further U.S. attacks in his first public comments since a ceasefire was declared with Israel after 12 days of war. Khamenei spoke in a recorded video broadcast on Iranian state television, his first appearance since June 19. The 86-year-old looked and sounded more tired than he did only a week ago, speaking in a hoarse voice and occasionally stumbling over his words.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/iran-supreme-leader-ali-khamenei-10253	2025/06/26
Iran's supreme leader warns against further American attacks in his first statement since ceasefire	International- Iran	THE IMPACT: Building the wall has long been one of Trump's signature promises, but its impacts beyond political symbolism are unclear. Illegal border crossings have plunged since Trump took office in January amid a string of orders on immigration, including the suspension of the asylum system. Simply ending asylum meant tens of thousands of people who would've surrendered to law enforcement instead of trying to avoid capture didn't even attempt to cross. THE IMPACT: ICE has said it wants to increase its current detention capacity from about 41,000 people to 100,000. It's part of what ICE's acting director, Todd Lyons, has suggested is a deportation system that could function "like Amazon, trying to get your product delivered in 24 hours." The immigration court system, which has roughly 700 judges, has struggled for years with chronic understaffing and a backlog that has reached more than 3.6 million cases. Judges typically take more than five years to make decisions. It's a chaotic system, with overworked judges, a shortage of translators and immigrants who often don't have lawyers. The chaos has grown in recent weeks, with immigration courts seeing a spike in arrests outside courthouses as agents wait to detain immigrants attending routine hearings. The arrests have spread fed confusion and fear, especially among asylum-seekers, who are accustomed to remaining free while their cases plod their way through the system.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/iran-supreme-leader-ali-khamenei-10253	2025/06/26
Hurricane safety checklist: how to protect yourself, before, during and after a storm	Environment- Hurricane	Summary The new committee chair, Martin Kulldorf — a biostatistician who criticized pandemic-era lockdowns and said he was fired from Harvard for refusing to get a Covid vaccination — struck a combative tone as the meeting began. "Some media outlets have been very harsh on the new members of this committee, issuing false accusations and making concerted efforts to put scientists in either a pro- or anti-science box," Kulldorf said. "Such labels undermine critical scientific inquiry, and it further feeds the flames of vaccine hesitancy."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-appointed-cdc-vaccine-panel-17	2025/06/26
Kennedy-appointed CDC vaccine panel says it will scrutinize the childhood vaccine schedule	RFX JR BS	Summary The new committee chair, Martin Kulldorf — a biostatistician who criticized pandemic-era lockdowns and said he was fired from Harvard for refusing to get a Covid vaccination — struck a combative tone as the meeting began. "Some media outlets have been very harsh on the new members of this committee, issuing false accusations and making concerted efforts to put scientists in either a pro- or anti-science box," Kulldorf said. "Such labels undermine critical scientific inquiry, and it further feeds the flames of vaccine hesitancy."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-appointed-cdc-vaccine-panel-17	2025/06/26

		The entire medical and scientific community will now reject the ACIP—and for that matter, the CDC—as a source of information. Paul Offit, Childrens Hospital of Philadelphia
		It has since become clear that Kennedy thoroughly bamboozled Cassidy. On June 9, Kennedy fired all 17 members of ACIP and handpicked eight new members. The new cadre included "antivaxxers, the antivax-adjacent, and the unqualified," as veteran pseudoscience debunker David Gorski noted. None of them was nominated by Cassidy.
		There's also reason to wonder whether credible immunologists, epidemiologists and vaccinologists would even accept appointment to ACIP as long as anti-vaxxers are on the panel. "I'm not sure many will be knocking down the door to sit with antiscience activists on the other side," says Peter Hotez, a leading vaccine developer and expert. "At this point the current committee needs to be dissolved."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hitzik-key-gop-senator-finally-130719869	2025/06/26
Hitzik: Key GOP senator finally challenges RFPs Jr.'s anti-vaccine policies — but he's too late	Political Cesspool	Now directly involved, U.S. participation in the Iran-Israel conflict quickly became an opportunity for Trump to both push the boundaries of the Executive Branch's power and continue a trend he began in January: the centralization of the Executive Branch's policy and power within the Oval Office. Driving that effort is the president's willingness to contradict his own deputies and top advisors, sometimes within just hours of their own public assessments.
Did Donald Trump just become the most powerful president in modern history?	Trump Bultbit	His belief versus the DNA's intel. Guess which won.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/did-donald-trump-just-become-20675582	2025/06/26
What to know about thimerosal, a vaccine ingredient removed decades ago	RFP JR BS	An influential panel of CDC advisers is slated to vote on a little-used preservative called thimerosal — a move that has left many vaccine scientists scratching their heads. Thimerosal is an ingredient that helps keep vaccines pathogen free. Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., a noted vaccine skeptic, has falsely stated the ingredient is a contributing factor in causing autism. In recent decades, the preservative largely has been phased out of vaccines, even as autism rates continue to climb. Republican Congressperson Kat Cammack is making headlines for blaming her doctors' reluctance to end her life-threatening pregnancy on Democrats.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/why-thimerosal-back-ofcs-agenda-14555	2025/06/26
We Need To Talk About The Republican Linemaker Blaming Democrats For Her Doctors' Reluctance To End Her Pregnancy	Reproductive rights	In a remarkable display of cognitive dissonance, the lawmaker blamed liberal "harmongering" for her issues at the hospital, suggesting the left's messaging around abortion bans ultimately made doctors paranoid (but apparently not the heavy consequences that come with breaking the abortion bans). "We have an individual who is here seeking confirmation to one of the highest judicial offices in the land. I am asking quite legitimate questions about potential misconduct in office. Some of it has nothing to do with the substance of pleadings but has to do with administrative matters, like seeking the removal of a criminal career chief prosecutor. Some of it has to do with administrative matters like case assignment. And the fact that I can't get anything resembling a straight answer in the circumstances we're in right now, I think signals a really bad moment for this committee."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/bill-republican-linemaker-blaming-democ	2025/06/26
Trump Judicial Nominee Torched for Refusing to Answer Basic Questions	Political Cesspool	As part of a sweeping domestic policy bill, Republicans proposed adding work requirements for "at-risk" adults ages 19-64 with exceptions, including for those with dependents under 14, like Mathews. But GOP lawmakers have also included provisions in their so-called "One Big Beautiful Bill" to crack down on the health care provider tax that states charge health care providers to help fund Medicaid, particularly in rural areas. Under the new proposal, the federal government would limit reimbursement to states, with some conservatives citing "abuse" of the program by undocumented migrants in blue states.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-judicial-nominee-torched-refusig-	2025/06/26
HHS faces new accusations of presenting nonexistent research, adding to alarming pattern	Information Blackout	A great many people here and around the world — physicians, researchers, international public health agencies, the public at large, et al. — need to be able to rely on federal health officials in the United States. That's becoming increasingly difficult.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hhs-faces-big-7hs-faces-accusations-153	2025/06/26
Kennedy remake of CDC vaccine panel has US insurers reassessing sources of expertise	Government- CDC	Health insurers are considering new expert sources to help determine which vaccines to pay for as anti-vaccine activist and now U.S. Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. begins to revise government recommendations for inoculations, according to multiple insurance industry insiders and experts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedy-remake-cdc-vaccine-panel-111	2025/06/26
Rural communities brace for Medicaid cuts in Republicans' big bill	Health- Medicaid	Two industry organizations, two industry consultants and two insurers told Reuters that the insurance industry would continue covering vaccines recommended by the CDC panel, known as the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices. But if ACIP drops recommendations, insurers may seek risk from professional medical associations and weigh other scientific evidence, they said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfp-communities-brace-medicaid-cuts-2	2025/06/26
Fired, rehired and fired again, some NOAA employees get letters demanding money	Government- NOAA	Some former employees of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration who were fired, rehired and fired again this spring say they have received direct notices from the federal government to pay it back for health care coverage. Those workers also say the notices are for coverage they never had.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fired-rehired-fired-again-noaa-174210191	2025/06/26
CDC director nominee grilled on vaccines, public health in confirmation hearing	Government- CDC	The Wednesday confirmation hearing for President Donald Trump's pick for the director of Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Dr. Susan Monarez, included moments where she shared her stances on several major public health issues, which — while not controversial for CDC leaders in the past — potentially put her at odds with her boss, Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., should she be confirmed.
'Aligator Alcatraz' rises in the Everglades. See new immigration detention camp	Political Cesspool	Monarez also stood apart from Kennedy on her views on autism, and whether there is any link between the neurological disorder and childhood vaccinations — which Kennedy has long raised as a potential reason for rising rates of autism diagnoses. "I have not seen a causal link between vaccines and autism," Monarez said when asked by Sanders if she agrees with the American Medical Association's stance "that there is no scientific proven link between vaccines and autism."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/aligator-alcatraz-rises-everglades-se-2c	2025/06/26
GOP bill would grant Trump rights to deploy National Guard for immigration enforcement	Nazi checklist	Monarez has served in a number of leading government public health roles under multiple presidents on both sides of the aisle. She has spent nearly two decades focused on technology and public health, including leading a center created by former President Joe Biden to develop groundbreaking cancer treatment. A fleet of 18-wheelers lugging generators, lights and heavy machinery on Tuesday trucked deep into the Florida Everglades as construction of the newest immigration detention center, dubbed "Aligator Alcatraz" by Florida officials, began to rise west of Miami.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/gop-bill-grant-trump-deploy-204054809	2025/06/26
L.A. immigration detention facilities a 'ticking time bomb,' immigration lawyer says	Nazi checklist	New legislation aims to codify the president's authority to deploy National Guard units for immigration enforcement, as part of a broader effort to crack down on illegal immigration and stiffen penalties for those who assault immigration officers. The bill, authored by Rep. Pat Haggan, R-N.C., would allow the president to federalize and deploy the National Guard when states refuse to cooperate, like Gov. Gavin Newsom in California. It also stipulates that those who assault immigration officers receive the death penalty or life in prison if an officer is killed.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/l-immigration-detention-facilities-ticking-t	2025/06/26
The Supreme Court Picks Trump Over the Rule of Law	Supreme Court	Immigration lawyers in L.A. tell CBS News, they've been receiving more and more calls about medical needs that aren't being addressed at the Metropolitan Detention Center. One lawyer, who chose not to identify herself because she has clients inside the detention center, said there are reports of "inhumane" conditions — food shortages, cramped confinement, freezing temperatures and environments that are a "ticking time bomb."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-picks-trump-over-100000	2025/06/26
Giuliani, Lewandowski among new members of Homeland Security advisory council	Political Cesspool	The Supreme Court dealt a severe blow to the American rule of law on Monday night by clearing the way for the Trump administration to deport migrants and other noncitizens to random countries where they have no ties or connections, effectively rewarding the White House for its defiance of court orders to the contrary.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/giuliani-lewandowski-among-members-hy	2025/06/26
Opinion - Behind the mask: What are ICE agents hiding?	Nazi checklist	Without any explanation, however, the high court sided with the Trump administration and stayed the lower court orders until further notice, in a 6-3 decision. The conservative majority's intervention will allow the administration to carry out further removals to countries like Libya and South Sudan, despite the ongoing legal challenges—and despite the White House's own misconduct.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-behind-mask-ice-agents-130000	2025/06/26
Dollars falls to three-year low after report Trump may name next Fed chair early	Economy- Dollar	The bill, authorized by Rep. Pat Haggan, R-N.C., would allow the president to federalize and deploy the National Guard when states refuse to cooperate, like Gov. Gavin Newsom in California. It also stipulates that those who assault immigration officers receive the death penalty or life in prison if an officer is killed.	https://www.theguardian.com/business/2025jun26/us-dollar-falls-to-3y	2025/06/26
'Is this AT?' surfing woman in awe after 'best air ever' pulled off by 18-year-old Australian	Weird world	Immigration lawyers in L.A. tell CBS News, they've been receiving more and more calls about medical needs that aren't being addressed at the Metropolitan Detention Center. One lawyer, who chose not to identify herself because she has clients inside the detention center, said there are reports of "inhumane" conditions — food shortages, cramped confinement, freezing temperatures and environments that are a "ticking time bomb."	https://www.theguardian.com/sport/2025jun26/australian-huge-vigil-at	2025/06/26
Meta boss praises new US army division enlisting tech experts as 'robotic' colonels	Dystopian	The Supreme Court dealt a severe blow to the American rule of law on Monday night by clearing the way for the Trump administration to deport migrants and other noncitizens to random countries where they have no ties or connections, effectively rewarding the White House for its defiance of court orders to the contrary.	https://www.theguardian.com/technology/2025jun25/meta-exec-us-ar	2025/06/26
Canadian Citizen Dies at ICE Detention Center in Florida	Government- ICE	The Supreme Court dealt a severe blow to the American rule of law on Monday night by clearing the way for the Trump administration to deport migrants and other noncitizens to random countries where they have no ties or connections, effectively rewarding the White House for its defiance of court orders to the contrary.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/06/26/us/canadian-dies-ice-custody-flor	2025/06/27
Senate Republicans	Government Spending	Much as before, the new approach would shift a percentage of the cost of providing S.N.A.P. benefits to the states based on the percentage of erroneous payments they report in a given fiscal year. But Republicans primarily howled how that rate of payment would be computed under the system, which would take effect in 2028.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/06/26/us/politics/republican-bill-food-sta	2025/06/27
Abortion Bans May Be Making Second-Trimester Abortions More Likely	Reproductive rights	The study, published in the American Journal of Public Health on Thursday, found that the proportion of abortions that took place at or after 13 weeks of pregnancy jumped from 8% before a ban was enforced to 17% afterward. The average point in pregnancy when the people who participated in the study were able to obtain an abortion also rose, from 7.7 weeks gestation pre-ban to 8.6 weeks gestation post-ban.	https://t.me.com/7297338/abortion-bans-second-trimester-travel-border	2025/06/27

		But scarcely a month in the job, the onetime Democratic congressman and presidential candidate is confronting the limits of her sway with Donald Trump as he celebrates his decision to bomb Iranian nuclear sites, mutes about regime change in Tehran, and posts footage on social media of B-2 bombers to the tune of the parody song "Bomb Iran," which includes the lyric "Time to turn Iran into a parking lot." Gabbard has so alienated Trump that she may be endangering the existence of her office altogether, which the president has mused about scrapping. "She touched the third rail—she testified that the intelligence community doesn't assess that Iran is sprinting toward a bomb," a former U.S. official who worked closely with Gabbard told us. "It's hard to overstate how many people she angered by doing that, and the amount of work required to get back into their good graces."
Tulsi Gabbard Chooses Loyalty to Trump	Political Cuespool	Her statements left some longtime associates and admirers marveling at how quickly she had fallen in line—a sign, they said, that voices of restraint within the administration had gone quiet and that Gabbard's peace-at-all-costs approach was a bad fit for the administration's more martial orientation. For more than 40 years, the United States—a nation that putatively cherishes freedom—has had one of the largest prison systems in the world. Mass incarceration has been so persistent and pervasive that reform groups dedicated to reducing the prison population by half have often been denied as made up of fantasies. But the next decade could see this goal met and exceeded: After peaking at just more than 1.6 million Americans in 2009, the prison population was just more than 1.2 million at the end of 2023 (the most recent year for which data are available), and is on track to fall to about 800,000—a total decline of roughly 40 percent.	https://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2025/06/tulsi-gabbard-trump/	2025/06/27
AMERICA'S INCARCERATION RATE IS ABOUT TO FALL OFF A CLIFF	ACAB	That tractor trailer is finally slowing down, decades after the "great crime decline" began in the 1990s. Until 2009, the lengthier sentences handed down during the preceding crime wave and the tendency of released prisoners to be re-incarcerated kept imprisonment rising even as crime declined. But the falling crime that the U.S. experienced in the 1990s and 2000s is now finally translating into a shrinking prison population.	https://www.theatlantic.com/ideas/archive/2025/06/prisoner-population/	2025/06/27
BRACE YOURSELF FOR WATERY MAYO AND SPICY ICE CREAM	RFK JR BS	These natural and synthetic substances, called emulsifiers, are added to processed foods to give them the textures that Americans have come to love. They've also become targets of a Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s push to remove many food additives from the American diet. The "Make America Healthy Again" report, published in May, says foods emulsifiers with other additives, some of which it says are linked to mental disorders, metabolic syndrome, and cancer. Online, the Health and Human Services department is helping drive America's choice of healthy problems. For next February's Winter Games in Italy, organizers hope AI can help streamline the time-consuming contingency planning and scheduling that comes with unpredictable snow conditions. For the L.A. Summer Games in 2028, the organizers hope AI will help manage more than 130 Olympic sports taking place across a broad swath of Southern California (plus softball and canoeing in Oklahoma City). For me, it is, "How can we actually use AI to help the operations of the games globally?" Olympics COO and CTO Iñaki Corrao told Axios in an interview.	https://www.theatlantic.com/health/archive/2025/06/ma-na-emulsifiers-h/	2025/06/27
Exclusive: Olympics have big AI plans	Technology-ai	"The bottom in home sales appears to be over with the possibility of a strong upswing once mortgage rates decline." NAR chief economist Lawrence Yun said in a statement — though he cautioned that the market is seeing higher-than-normal cancellation rates and last-minute cold feet. In other words, even the little bit of good news comes with a big caveat.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/27/olympics-ai-broadcasts-training/	2025/06/27
The housing market is in the absolute dumps	Economy-Housing	There's not much to like in real estate right now: news of ICE enforcement actions at home building sites, tariffs raising the price of construction materials, and of course, weak demand in general. "It's less about mortgage rates, and more about economic uncertainty," says Eric Finnigan, vice president of demographics research at John Burns, the real estate consulting firm. The Supreme Court on Thursday allotted low-income patients' rights to choose their health providers while giving conservative-led states a bigger opening to exclude Planned Parenthood affiliates from their Medicaid programs.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/27/ice-trump-tariffs-home-sales/	2025/06/27
Supreme Court reframes Medicaid patients' rights	Supreme Court	The 6-3 decision by the court's conservative majority potentially adds more obstacles to care, on top of financial barriers or poor health, and comes as Congress debates major changes to Medicaid that could cause millions of people to lose health coverage. While the arguments before justices were narrow in scope, the ruling has huge ramifications for women trying to access reproductive care. Medicaid covers 1 in 5 women of child-bearing age and is the biggest source of coverage for women with low incomes, covering more than 4 in 10, per KFF.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/27/supreme-court-reframes-patients-ry/	2025/06/27
House GOP fumes at changes to Trump bill: "insulting and disgusting"	Government Spending	House Republicans are looking on with a combination of horror and frustration as President Trump's "big, beautiful bill" morphs into something closer to a hulking monstrosity in their eyes. — The Senate parliamentarian has ruled out provisions to cut Medicaid and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, weaken environmental regulations and bolster President Trump's immigration crackdown.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/trump-spending-bill-house-repub/	2025/06/27
America's older population is growing as its younger cohort shrinks	Population	Some of these provisions are long sought-after hobby horses that were added to the bill to over the votes of specific House Republicans. Others are key pay-laws meant to offset some of the cost of renewing the Trump tax cuts, which deficit hawks in the House say are necessary to honor a budget deal they cut with the Senate GOP. The U.S. population aged 65 and up grew by 13% between 2020 and 2024, the Census Bureau says, while the number of those under 18 fell by 17%. The U.S. median age hit a new record high of 39.1 in 2024, up from 38.5 in 2020.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/america-older-younger-population/	2025/06/27
Revenge tax being yanked from "big, beautiful bill," Bassett says	Government Spending	Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent has asked Congress to remove a controversial "revenge tax" provision of the "big, beautiful bill" after striking a deal on global corporate taxes, he said Thursday.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/trump-revenge-tax-budget/	2025/06/27
Trump's "big, beautiful bill" What's in, what's out	Government Spending	The Senate parliamentarian has ruled out a planned weekend of male-to-break votes. Heat records were broken in more than 280 locations across the U.S. this week, with more extreme temperatures expected.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/27/section-899-bill-trump-parliamentarian-af/	2025/06/27
Hundreds of heat records set across U.S. this week	Environment-Heat	Some 282 locations in the U.S. broke daily heat records this week, while another 121 set previous highs, NOAA data shows. The Trump administration's unprecedented decision to sue all 15 federal judges in Maryland for slowing his deportation agencies breaches a dangerous new phase in his push to stifle the judiciary, legal experts warn.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/heat-wave-weather-eastern-us/	2025/06/27
Bizarre DOJ lawsuit fuels Trump's war against judicial branch	Trump Bullyshit	"This is ... in many ways a bizarre lawsuit that seems designed to pick a fight with the judicial branch," said Alicia Bannon, the director of the Brennan Center for Justice's judiciary program. "It's clearly another example of the administration trying to send a message to the judiciary that it thinks that it's crossing lines," she added. Medicaid patients had have a right to freely choose their medical provider, the Supreme Court ruled 6-3 on Thursday, in a case that carries major implications for Planned Parenthood.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/trump-doj-sues-at-maryland-federal-judges/	2025/06/27
Supreme Court ruling on patients' rights 'could devastate Planned Parenthood'	Supreme Court	The first abortion-related case of President Trump's second term could result in the defunding of Planned Parenthood, which derives a significant chunk of its funding from the safety net program and is the nation's biggest provider of abortion services.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/26/planned-parenthood-socius-decision/	2025/06/27
An Israeli restaurant owner now runs a controversial U.S.-backed Gaza food program	Middle east conflict	An Israeli entrepreneur who runs trendy restaurants around the world is now promoting a new food distribution group in the Gaza Strip that is drawing international controversy — as Gaza health officials report hundreds of Palestinians killed and thousands wounded by Israel troops while approaching the group's food distribution sites.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/26/npr-1-54315301/gaza-food-aid-sh/	2025/06/27
Asked to Dag (negative): National Park content visitors gave their own 2 cents instead	National Parks	The signs, which invite people to send comments anonymously using a QR code, phone number, email or web address, have appeared in response to an executive order President Trump issued in March titled "Restoring Truth and Sanity to American History." It specifically calls for the removal of content from monuments and properties within the Department of the Interior that "inappropriately disparages Americans' past or living." NPR reviewed dozens of comments submitted from June 4 to 12 regarding signs placed in parks across the country. According to The Coalition to Protect America's Parks, a multi-page PDF containing these comments was leaked by a national park employee who took screenshots of the comments pages on their computer and then shared the PDF with parks advocacy groups.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/26/npr-1-5444322/national-park-trump-sign/	2025/06/27
Obfuscated? Damaged? Inoperable? What's known about Iran's nuclear facilities	Middle east conflict	Some are supportive. "The park rangers and volunteers go above and beyond to tell the full American story," stated a comment about Catoctin Mountain Park in Maryland. Following nearly two weeks of strikes by American and Israeli forces, there's no doubt that the key parts of Iran's nuclear program have been dealt a blow. But how bad was it? A leaked Defense Intelligence Agency document claims the damage to one site could have been minimal, while the head of the CIA has said that Iran's overall nuclear program had been "severely damaged."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/26/npr-1-5443566/obfuscated-damaged-in/	2025/06/27
What's that in the sky? We're not sure, but the fireball was very bright!	Weird world	President Trump, for his part, insists that the program has been destroyed. The object was likely either a meteor or space junk, with most sightings of the streak of light and fireball coming from Georgia and South Carolina around 12:30 p.m., the National Weather Service office in Peachtree City, Georgia, said on social media. Someone in Henry County, Georgia, reported a rock coming through their roof about the time they heard the sonic boom from the fireball. It left behind a hole in the ceiling about the size of a golf ball and a crater in a laminate floor, the weather service said.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/26/npr-1-5448142/fireball-was-very-bright/	2025/06/27
U.S. uninsured rates could resurge if Trump's budget bill passes	Government Spending	More than 26 million Americans lacked health insurance in the first six months of 2024, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The uninsured are mostly low-income adults under age 65, and people of color, and most live in the South and West. The uninsured rate in the 10 states that, like Georgia, have not expanded Medicaid to nearly all low-income adults was 14.1% in 2023, compared with 7.6% in expansion states, according to KFF, a health information nonprofit that includes KFF Health News. Health policy researchers expect the number of uninsured to swell as the second Trump administration and a GOP-controlled Congress try to enact policies that explicitly roll back health coverage for the first time since the advent of the modern U.S. health system in the early 20th century.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-health-news/2025/06/27/npr-1-5446/	2025/06/27
Trump says the U.S. has signed a deal with China on trade, without giving details	Economy-Tariffs	It was unclear if the latest agreement was different from the one Trump announced two weeks earlier that he said would make it easier for American industries to obtain much-needed needed magnets and rare earth minerals. That pact cleared the way for the trade talks to continue, while the U.S. agreed to stop trying to evict visas of Chinese nationals on U.S. college campuses. China's Commerce Ministry said Friday that the two sides had "further confirmed the details of the framework." But its statement did not explicitly mention U.S. access to rare earths, minerals used in high-tech applications that have been at the center of the negotiations.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/27/npr-1-5448577/trump-us-china-trade-r/	2025/06/27
Shin's untested, unknown — and has the power to veto Trump's "big, beautiful bill." Who is the Senate parliamentarian?	Government Spending	For all of the different factions that must sign off on whatever ends up in the final bill, one of the most important people Republicans will need to win over isn't a member of their party at all. A little-known bureaucrat called the Senate parliamentarian ultimately has final say on what can and can't go into this kind of legislation, not based on her political beliefs, but on her judgment of what the Senate rules allow. Republicans will now have to either rewrite each of these sections of the bill in a way that satisfies the parliamentarian or be forced to abandon them completely so they don't prevent the entire package from becoming law.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/shin-s-untested-unknown-and-has-the-po-20250627.html	2025/06/27
The clock's ticking on codifying DOGE cuts into law	Fuck that department	With just over three weeks to go before a critical deadline, the push to codify DOGE cuts is hitting resistance on Capitol Hill. Several GOP senators sound skeptical about the $9.4 billion in cuts to foreign aid and public broadcasting funding that the Trump administration is asking Congress to approve, raising the prospect of a high-profile setback for the DOGE project just weeks after Elon Musk and President Donald's public feud.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/clocks-ticking-codifying-doge-cuts-17493-20250627.html	2025/06/27
Senators diverge sharply on damage done by Iran strikes after classified briefing	Middle east conflict	Senators emerged from a classified briefing Thursday with sharply diverging assessments of President Donald Trump's bombing of three Iranian nuclear sites, with Republicans calling the mission a clear success and Democrats expressing deep skepticism. Democrats remained doubtful and criticized Trump for not giving Congress more information. Senate Democratic leader Chuck Schumer of New York said the briefing "raised more questions than it answered."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-officials-first-classified-briefing-240-20250627.html	2025/06/27
Now a GOP accounting maneuver hides $3.8 trillion in	Government Spending	As Senate Republicans barrel toward votes in the coming days on President Trump's Big Beautiful Bill, they are using a controversial budget maneuver to hide $3.8 trillion in red ink. This Senate-preferred accounting approach is known as using a "current policy baseline" and takes the stance that extending current tax rates should be counted as having zero cost even if they are set to expire. What doesn't change is the underlying fact that those changes are projected to add trillions to the national debt if they become law.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/how-a-gop-accounting-maneuver-hides-20250627.html	2025/06/27

		Many of these statements are factually incorrect. For example, in a newscast aired on June 12, 2025, Kennedy told Fox News viewers that 97% of federal vaccine advisers are on the take. In the same interview, he also claimed that children receive 92 mandatory shots. He has also widely claimed that only COVID-19 vaccines, not other vaccines in use by both children and adults, were ever tested against placebo and that "nobody has any idea" how safe routine immunizations are.
Is a physician who has looked at hundreds of studies of vaccine safety, and here's some of what RFP, Jr. said wrong	Health-Vaccines	In 1986, the childhood vaccine schedule contained about 11 doses protecting against seven diseases. Today, it includes roughly 50 injections covering 16 diseases. State school entry laws typically require 30 to 32 shots across 10 to 12 diseases. No state mandates COVID-19 vaccination. Where Kennedy's "92" mandatory shots "figure comes from is unclear, but the actual number is significantly lower.
		Those 11 doses in 1986 delivered more than 3,000 antigens and 1.5 milligrams of aluminum over 18 years. Today's complete schedule delivers roughly 160 antigens – which is a 95% reduction – and 5.4 milligrams of aluminum in the same time frame. A single ampicillin inoculation in 1900 exposed a child to more antigens than today's complete series.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/physician-looked-hundreds-studies-12	2025/06/27
In surprise move, RFP, Jr.'s vaccine committee votes to recommend RSV shot for infants	Health-Vaccines	In their first vote since appointed by Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr., the eight members of a vaccine committee voted to recommend a shot that protects infants against respiratory syncytial virus, or RSV.
		RSV infects nearly everyone by the time they're 2. It causes cold symptoms, affecting the breathing passages and lungs, according to the CDC. In the United States, about 58,000 children younger than 5 are hospitalized for RSV each year, and several hundred die.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/surprise-move-rf-jr-vaccine-130645129	2025/06/27
Wrongly Deported Dad Begs to Stay, Jailed as Trump Fiasco Takes Weird Twist	Immigration	Fears of being arrested by ICE are keeping Kilmar Abrego Garcia behind bars – despite a federal judge ruling Wednesday that he could be released on his own recognizance. The ruling appeared to grant Abrego Garcia partial freedom for the first time since he was arrested in Maryland on March 12, days before he was one of over 200 migrants flown to a notorious El Salvador prison. However, ICE agents were spotted outside the Tennessee courthouse where he appeared Wednesday, and his own lawyers asked that he remain in custody to protect him from deportation ahead of his trial.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wrongly-deported-dad-begs-stay-223539	2025/06/27
J.D. Vance Defines the 'Trump Doctrine'	Trump Bulshit	"What I call the Trump Doctrine is quite simple," Vance elaborated at the Ohio Republican Dinner on Tuesday night. "No. 1, you articulate a clear American interest, and that's—in this case—that Iran can't have a nuclear weapon. No. 2, you try to aggressively diplomatically solve that problem. And No. 3, when you can't solve it diplomatically, you use overwhelming military power to solve it, and then you get the hell out of there before it ever becomes a protracted conflict."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jd-vance-defines-trump-060824073.html	2025/06/27
‘This is not a matter of opinion’: State AGs instruct hospitals to continue providing emergency abortions, despite state law	Reproductive rights	Democratic state attorneys general issued an urgent warning to hospitals across the U.S. that they must continue to provide emergency abortions despite state laws.
		The 21 attorneys general issued the letter on the anniversary of the reversal of Roe v Wade and after the U.S. Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services rescinded guidance to hospitals about how to follow federal law on emergency reproductive care.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hot-matter-opinion-state-ags-222729042	2025/06/27
Robert F. Kennedy Jr. Tells Fox News The Rotten Truth About His Anti-Fluoride Crusade	RFK JR BS	Because the science is very clear that water fluoridation can prevent cavities, and because oral hygiene affects overall health, many people mocked Kennedy for minimizing the potential of his anti-fluoride crusade, which is expected to harm low-income children the most.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/robert-f-kennedy-jr-tells-fox-news-205949452.html	2025/06/27
		"We've insisted on a dashboard. They have to be public about what they're doing," he told Laura Ingraham on Wednesday. "We want to know, for example, by the end of this year, can you do these examinations instantaneously?"
		"Like a credit card," Oz, who boasts an estimated $200 million net worth, continued. "When you put it into the machine to buy something, they don't prior authorize you. You either have money in the bank or you don't."
Multi-millionaire Trump official Dr. Oz appears not to know how credit cards work	Political Cesspool	Credit card companies do prior authorization on every transaction to determine whether money can be spent, which includes checking if the card is valid, that there's enough credit available, and if there are any signs of fraud.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/multi-millionaire-trump-official-dr-1559292	2025/06/27
		Individuals also borrow and spend money on their payment cards that they do not physically have in the bank.
Trump's 'big, beautiful bill' might be unraveled and a mess – but it will still probably pass	Government Spending	President Donald Trump's "big, beautiful bill" – which he on Thursday dubbed the "ultimate codification" of the MAGA agenda – is a paradox that shows how power works in a broken political system in which he's the single greatest force.
		Growing numbers of Republican lawmakers required to pass the measure hate it. The public doesn't want it – according to a Quinnipiac University poll released earlier this month, voters oppose the measure by 53% to 27%. The survey is no outlier.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-big-beautiful-bill-might-040024370	2025/06/27
		Bohnhak recently held an office hours event at a public library to take questions from his constituents. In audio obtained by the Heartland Signal, one Marquette resident mentioned how their community is now "a healthcare desert" after the only Planned Parenthood clinic in the Upper Peninsula closed in April, and asked Bohnhak whether he supported "reproductive freedom." While the Republican lawmaker said he supports "reproductive clinics" that provide contraceptives or pre-cancer screenings, he wouldn't support a clinic that offers abortion care.
Michigan GOP Lawmaker When Asked If He Supports Women's Bodily Autonomy, 'I Don't'	Reproductive rights	The resident responded, "So you don't support a woman's autonomy over her own body?"	https://www.yahoo.com/news/michigan-gop-lawmaker-asked-supports-	2025/06/27
		"I don't," Bohnhak answered, making sure there was no room left for confusion.
		Edward Coristine, the 19-year-old nicknamed "Big Balls" who was working in the Department of Government Efficiency, has landed a new role at the Social Security Administration.
‘Big Balls’ now working at Social Security Administration after departing DOGE, report	Government-SSA	"Edward Coristine joined the Social Security Administration this week as a special government employee," spokesperson Stephen McGraw told WRED. "His work will be focused on improving the functionality of the Social Security website and advancing our mission of delivering more efficient service to the American people."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/big-balls-now-working-social-503216202	2025/06/27
		Montana Republican Rep. Ryan Zinke said Thursday he'll vote against the Senator's version of the GOP repeal over a provision that would mandate the sale of up to 1.2 million acres of public lands.
Zinke says he's a 'no' on Senate megabill amid public land sales push	Government Spending	Zinke's internal disagreements on the public land sales measure poses yet another complication in negotiations over a bill on which House Republicans can only afford to lose three votes.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/zinke-says-no-senate-megabill-19322125	2025/06/27
		"I agree with my colleagues that the federal government has mismanaged federal lands for decades. But I don't agree with their solution," said Zinke, who was Interior Secretary during Trump's first term, in a post on the social platform X.
		Thursday's ruling will make it easier for GOP-led states to deny Planned Parenthood and similar organizations access to federal funds to which they are otherwise legally entitled. The majority's hyper-narrow approach could have broader policy implications, as well. But the most alarming part of the majority's decision came from Justice Clarence Thomas, who urged his colleagues to dramatically limit civil rights claims against state and local officials in federal court.
The Most Fearful Part of the Supreme Court's Planned Parenthood Ruling	Supreme Court	In a solo concurring opinion, Thomas argued that the court should "reconsider" more than a half-century of precedents on Section 1983's scope. He argued that previous generations of justices had interpreted the Reconstruction-era law too broadly and invited future lawsuits that would allow the court to reverse course.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/most-fearful-part-supreme-court-2041360	2025/06/27
		U.S. Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s new vaccine advisers alarmed pediatricians Wednesday by announcing inquiries into some long-settled questions about children's shots.
Kennedy's new vaccine panel alarms pediatricians with inquiries into long-settled questions	RFK JR BS	Opening the first meeting of Kennedy's handpicked seven-member panel, committee chairman Martin Kulbicki said he was appointing a work group to evaluate the "cumulative effect" of the children's vaccine schedule – the list of immunizations given at different times throughout childhood.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kennedys-vaccine-advisers-meet-first-14	2025/06/27
A Cat Went to Sleep in an Inactive Washing Machine, and Woke Up During a 45-Minute Wash Cycle with 3,000 Spins	Weird world	An Australian cat likely left one of his nine lives behind in the wash, after surviving a 55-minute cycle in a washing machine.	https://www.yahoo.com/it/feature/articles/cat-went-sleep-inactive-washin	2025/06/27
House GOP advances bill 'gutting' government watchdog	Government-GAO	House Republicans advanced legislation on Thursday that seeks to cut funding for the Government Accountability Office (GAO) by roughly 50 percent for fiscal 2026, prompting outcry from Democrats who say the move is counterproductive to GOP efforts to root out waste in government.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-gop-advances-bill-gutting-0002145	2025/06/27
		President Donald Trump made false claims about the war in Ukraine, US inflation, and the past fight against the ISIS terror group during his Wednesday news conference at the NATO summit in the Netherlands.
Fact-checking Trump's NATO news conference	Trump Bulshit	Trump also repeated his unproven assertion that the U.S. weekend military strikes on Iranian nuclear sites had left them "obliterated." As CNN reported Tuesday, an early US intelligence assessment found the core components of the program had not been completely destroyed and that the strikes had only set back Iran's nuclear program only by months. (The US continues to collect intelligence on the impact of the strikes and later assessments could come to different conclusions.)	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-checking-trump-nato-news-1559023	2025/06/27
		Gorsuch's majority opinion went out of its way to address the dissent from Jackson: "Finding 'pure textualism' 'insufficiently pliable to secure the result they seek, they invoke the statute's 'primary purpose' and 'legislative history.'"
		"It is imperative that we interpret statutes consistent with all relevant indicia of what Congress wanted, as best we can ascertain its intent," Jackson wrote in her dissent. "By 'finding' answers in textualism, and not bothering to consider whether those answers align with other sources of statutory meaning, pure textualists can easily disguise their own preferences as 'textual inevitabilities.'"
Jackson's dissent isn't heroic. It exposes big problem with Supreme Court. Opinion	Supreme Court	What Jackson fails to understand is that if the Supreme Court does interpret the text of a statute to be more narrow than Congress intended, the lawmakers can follow up and clarify what they meant with new legislation.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/jacksons-dissent-arg-heroic-exposes-08	2025/06/27
		Judges should stick to the text of statutes whenever possible, and if their determination of what the text means is out of step with what Congress intended, then Congress can pass legislation correcting the original language of a statute.
		as many as 35,000 Ukrainian children are still missing and thought to be held in Russia or Russian-occupied territories, according to an American team of experts, with families saying they are being forced to take desperate and risky measures to try to rescue them.
‘Basically impossible to get them back’: Russia’s mass abduction of Ukrainian children is a war crime, say experts	War crimes	After Russian forces occupied Natalia's home city of Kherson on the eastern border of Ukraine, in September 2022, a neighbour advised her to send her sons to a children's camp in Anapa, a seaside resort town in Russia.	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/27/ukraine-ukrainian-children	2025/06/27
		"The 21-day trip was free and they were meant to return to Kherson at the end. The boys wanted to go too, but it was a big mistake on my part to allow it," she says.
Gritzy with checkered past swims miles to Canadian island – and into hot water	Weird world	In late 2022, Ukrainian forces liberated Natalia's city, but her children were in a camp on the other side of the frontline and Russia would not let them return home.	https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2025/jun/27/canada-trillish-c	2025/06/27
		But a few old grizzly bear recently took a far more challenging route, braving strong currents and frigid water to swim nearly three miles across the Malaspina Strait.
		The exhausted young bear, named "Tex" by locals, hauled himself ashore on 25 May, unleashing a fierce dispute between residents, conservation officers and First Nations over his future – and prompting a broader debate over the relationship between the Canadian province and its wildlife. On a hub of logging and mining, Texada Island is now home to 1,200 residents and the one grizzly bear, who was last spotted just after sunset on 23 June.
Former CIA director says people must understand 'how dangerous a world we live in right now' in the wake of Trump's Iran strike	Warning	Leon Panetta, the former director of the CIA during Barack Obama's first term, has warned that President Donald Trump's decision to bomb Iran – and the intelligence disputes surrounding it – only serve to emphasize "how dangerous a world we live in right now."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/leon-panetta-secretary-of-state-and-national-security-adviser-marco-rubio-secretary-of-defense-pete-hegseth-chairman-of-the-joint-chiefs-of-staff-gen-dan-caine-and-cia-director-john-rutcliffe-all-spoke-to-senators-in-the-senative-compartmented-information-facility-scipf-	2025/06/27
		But Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard was missing from the briefing, which came after multiple news outlets reported on a Defense Intelligence Agency assessment, first reported by CNN, that questioned whether the strikes destroyed the core components of the Iran nuclear program.
Gabbard no-show at Senate briefing leaves gaping hole in Trump's claim Iran's nuclear program is 'obliterated'	Political Cesspool	The US Department of Defense is significantly expanding a militarised zone along the southern border in Texas, granting troops the authority to detain individuals for potential federal prosecution on charges of trespassing within a national defence area.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/tulsi-gabbard-no-show-at-senate-briefing-leaves-gaping-hole-in-trumps-claim-iran-s-nuclear-program-is-obliterated-	2025/06/27
		The Air Force announced on Monday the announcement of a winding 250-mile (400-kilometre) stretch of the border. This expansion comes amid a broader buildup of military forces initiated under President Trump's declaration of a national emergency at the border.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/military-zone-rig-6	2025/06/27
US Department of Defense expands militarised zone along Texas border	Nazi checklist

More Americans now favor providing undocumented migrants pathway to legal status over deportation, poll finds	Immigration	More Americans now favor providing undocumented migrants a pathway to legal status over deportation, a new poll finds. The sentiment was backed by 64 percent of those surveyed and that percentage has increased since President Donald Trump entered office, according to the Quinnipiac University poll of registered voters, while 31 percent said they preferred deportation.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/un-politics/indocu-20250627	2025/06/27
Trump Mobile removes 'made in the USA' tag from its gold smartphones as critics question price tag	Trump Bullshit	Six months ago, the same poll found that 55 percent favored providing undocumented migrants with a pathway to legal status in the U.S.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/trump-mobile-gold-20250627	2025/06/27
This paint 'sweats' to keep your house cool	Weird world	Scientists in Singapore have developed a new type of paint that reflects sunlight and cools surfaces by slowly evaporating water. Unlike other commercially available cooling paints, which are designed to repel water to protect the underlying material, the new one even works in hot, humid places, offering a low-energy way to stay cool, researchers report June 5 in Science.	https://www.sciencenews.org/article/this-paint-sweats-keep-your-house	2025/06/27	real world, science, inventions, heat, cooling, climate crisis
Eight of America's weirdest museums revealed, from video games to potatoes	Weird world	In response, Hong and two other material scientists from Nanyang Technological University developed a cement-based paint that combines three cooling strategies: radiative cooling, evaporative cooling, which our skin uses, and solar reflection. In the study, the scientists painted three small houses: one with regular white paint, one with commercial cooling paint that uses only radiative cooling and one with their new formula. After two years of sun and rain in Singapore, the first two paints had turned yellow. But 'our paint was still white,' says coauthor Jipeng Fei. Unlike other colors, while helps materials maintain their high reflectivity and cooling performance.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/weird-museums-america-b277	2025/06/27
An Alaska brown bear has a new shiny smile after getting a huge metal crown for a canine tooth	Weird world	There's the museum passionately devoted to a type of condiment, one that celebrates a popular variety of vegetable, a museum containing parts of Einstein's brain and one that's a mecca for lovers of a certain pre-cooked meat.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/alaska-bear-crown-20250627	2025/06/27
Rah tohi Burglar in Scooby-Doo suit broke into highway convenience store in early morning raid, cops say	Weird world	An Alaskan brown bear at the Lake Superior Zoo in northeastern Minnesota has a gleaming new silver-colored canine tooth in a first-of-its-kind procedure for a bear. The 800-pound (360-kilogram) Tundra was put under sedation Monday and fitted with a new crown — the largest dental crown ever created, according to the zoo.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/rime/scooby-doo-20250627	2025/06/27
Commuter traffic stops for whales on Australia's humpback highway	Weird world	A suspected burglar dressed in a Scooby-Doo suit broke into an Alabama highway convenience store in an early morning raid, cops say. Tuscaloosa Police asked for the public's help in identifying the masked man, while also throwing in a few references from Scooby-Doo, the media franchise about a group of fictional mystery-solving teenagers and their talking dog named Scooby-Doo.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/rime/scooby-doo-20250627	2025/06/27
Chevy Corvette Z06 Theft Falls When Car Gets Stuck, Driving Out of Showroom Window	Weird world	The ferry was late, but not because of the usual traffic. Sydney commuters watched from an idling boat this month as humpback whales the size of buses surfaced nearby, halting the vessel's passage across the harbor. The curious mammals seemed to be watching them back. In June and July, it's not uncommon for whales to stop water traffic in Sydney. Writer heralds the opening of the so-called humpback highway, a migratory corridor along Australia's east coast used by about 40,000 of the massive creatures as they travel from feeding grounds in freezing Antarctica to tropical lagoons off Queensland.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
2 bears escape wildlife park enclosure, devour a 7-day supply of honey, then fall asleep	Weird world	In a scene seemingly ripped from a Gone in 60 Seconds outtake, a man has reportedly been arrested for allegedly attempting to steal a 2025 Chevrolet Corvette Z06 from a California dealership by driving straight out of the showroom. According to a video posted on the PMTVLA YouTube channel, the suspect reportedly smashed through the dealership window on an e-scooter and then attempted to drive the Z06 out through the glass, only to wind up defeated when the C8 became stuck halfway out the window.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
'Get ready to sweat! The animal mega-marathon stampeding from the Congo to the Arctic	Weird world	Miah and Lucy, both aged four, got out of their enclosure at Wildwood Devon in southwestern England on Monday afternoon. The pair made a beeline for their food store where they scoffed snacks, including the seven-day supply of honey, a park statement said. The park released video of Lucy devouring the food and "looking very pleased with herself".	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
First footage reveals orcas using tools in a stunning, first	Weird world	The bears "posed no threat to the public at any point" although visitors on site were escorted to a secure building as a precaution.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
'Minor Traffic Accident' Led Federal Agents To Blast Into American Family's Home: Reports	ACAB	During the hour-long drama, the bears were "continuously monitored both on the ground and via CCTV" until they were returned to their enclosure by keepers and promptly "let asleep." Wildwood added.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Supreme Court Decision On Birthright Citizenship Could Cause Social Security Number Chaos	Citizenship	When a puppet gets broken, the team, referred to as doctors, speak of it as an injury and mend it in their hospital. One day when we step out of our kudu, his head falls off and a stick flies out of his thigh. "It'd be gentle," says Ukwadima's Siphio Ngwile, wielding a drill. "It's not just a puppet," says technical director Muzah Alubeh, explaining the level of care they take. "It's a life." As the Herds moves across borders, new animals will be added, with puppet-making workshops formed along the route, from Stockholm to Wigan. By the time the production reaches the UK, where it will rampage through London and kick off the Manchester International Festival, the pack of puppets will be 100-strong.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
'Post-apocalyptic' medical staff struggle as gangs fight over aid supplies in Gaza	Dystopian	Alongside the volunteers, the troupe includes 42 young artists from 19 countries. Known as E-Co (Emerging Company), they have been recruited to lead the production together, and are traveling, learning, performing and helping Ukwadima teach participants across the European leg of the journey. Ochai Ogaba, a Nigerian choreographer who guides our herd's other kudu with enviable ease, is one of them. "I come from a place where climate change is not talked about," he says. "Being a part of this project has unlocked my responsibility to look after this world."	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Trump accuses Powell of keeping interest rates 'artificially high'	Economy-Interest	Over the course of just two weeks in 2024, Weiss and his team documented 30 examples of these curious interactions. They found that the southern resident orcas — a distinct population of killer whales — were detaching strands of kelp from the seafloor to roll between their bodies in a behavior the scientists dubbed "allokelping." Allokelping could be a form of grooming for skin hygiene, as well as a way to socially bond with other members of the pod, the researchers reported in a new paper published Monday in the journal Current Biology.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
U.S. will send tariffs letters in coming days, deals not needed, Trump says	Economy-Tariffs	The discovery marks the first time cetaceans — marine mammals including whales, dolphins and porpoises — have been observed using an object as a tool to groom.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Here comes the bridal gown tariff	Economy-Tariffs	A group of armed federal immigration agents in Huntington Park, California, blasted their way into a family's home Friday morning while searching for a man they accused of charging into a law enforcement vehicle, according to several media outlets.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Trump says he's terminating trade talks with Canada, effective immediately	Economy-Tariffs	Ramirez told NBC Los Angeles she heard the explosion — which blew off her door and shattered the windows — a little after 6 a.m. Friday.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Defense Department will stop providing crucial satellite weather data	Environment-Climate Crisis	She said she and her two children, ages 1 and 6, were the only people inside the house at the time, which she shares with her boyfriend, Jorge Sierra-Hernandez.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27
Weather forecasters say a second tropical storm has formed along coastal Mexico	Environment-Hurricane	For decades, whenever a baby is born in the U.S., hospitals have notified state vital records agencies, which have in turn notified the Social Security Administration, that a new person needs a Social Security number. The so-called "enumeration at birth" policy is automatic for the government and simple for parents, who merely check a box on a hospital form.	https://www.roadandtrack.com/news/6517122/chevy-corvette-z06-theft-20250627	2025/06/27

Fact check: Trump makes big false claims about his big domestic policy bill	Fact check	In a White House speech on Thursday, Trump falsely claimed Medicaid is "left the same" by the bill. In fact, both the version of the legislation that was narrowly passed by the House in May and the latest version now being contemplated by the Senate contain major Medicaid policy changes and funding cuts that are expected to result in millions of people losing insurance coverage. Trump also falsely claimed that the bill includes "no tax" on Social Security benefits. The legislation would not actually fulfill Trump's campaign promise to completely eliminate taxes on Social Security benefits, though it would temporarily give seniors a substantially bigger tax deduction. And Trump falsely claimed that "there'll be a 68% tax increase" if Congress doesn't approve the bill; there is no credible estimate of anything close to a 68% hike.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fact-check-trump-makes-big-120024568/	2025/06/30
Fresh blow for Musk's DOGE as it loses power to award $500B in federal funds	Fuck that department	The US DOJ's Service, the reappointed government agency tasked with carrying out Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency agenda to cut a trillion dollars in federal spending, has reportedly lost access to a key government website responsible for distributing roughly $500 billion in annual awards, the latest blow to the initiative after Musk's acrimonious split from the Trump administration earlier this month.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fresh-blow-musk-doge-loses-193927040/	2025/06/30
Senate's "big, beautiful bill" would add $3.3 trillion in new debt, CBO	Government Spending	The Senate reconciliation package being debated this weekend would add nearly $3.3 trillion in budget deficits over the next 10 years, according to a new estimate by the Congressional Budget Office (CBO). The Senate's version would add far more debt than the $2.8 trillion in estimated deficits in the version the House passed in late May.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/29/senate-big-beautiful-bill-deficits-debt	2025/06/30
GOP megabill narrowly wins first test in the Senate. Here's what's in it	Government Spending	Senate Republicans voted to advance their massive tax and spending bill late Saturday night after hours of delays and negotiations. Republican Sens. Thom Tillis (R-C.) and Rand Paul (R-ky.) voted against a motion to start debate on the bill. The vote was 51 to 49. Sen. Ron Johnson, R-Wisc., originally voted no but switched his vote at the last minute, preventing the need for Vice President J.D. Vance to break a tie. Vance spent hours in the Capitol in the event that his vote was needed.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/28/gop-174388/senate-big-beautiful-bill	2025/06/30
Senate GOP Restores Medicaid Cuts to Trump Tax Package	Government Spending	Senate Republicans restored major Medicaid cuts to Donald Trump's signature economic legislation, re-fashioning a key provision to overcome a procedural obstacle.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/senate-republicans-restore-medicaid-cuts-193927040/	2025/06/30
What's in Trump's "big, beautiful bill" nearing a final vote in the Senate	Government Spending	After the House narrowly approved the legislation that addresses the president's tax, defense, border and energy priorities last month, Senate Republicans have been putting their imprint on the bill. But GOP leaders are seeking a middle ground to appease the upper chamber without alienating House Republicans, who will have to approve the Senate's changes before the bill can head to the president's desk for his signature. The Senate voted Saturday to advance the measure, overcoming a key hurdle as the upper chamber works toward final passage.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/whats-trumps-big-beautiful-bill-17244342/	2025/06/30
Surprise Tax in G.O.P. Bill Could Cripple Wind and Solar Power	Government Spending	Senate Republicans have quietly inserted provisions in President Trump's domestic policy bill that would not only end federal support for wind and solar energy but would impose an entirely new tax on future projects, a move that industry groups say could devastate the renewable power industry. The tax provision, tucked inside the 940-page bill that the Senate made public just after midnight on Friday, stunned observers.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/06/29/climate/gop-bill-adds-surprise-tax	2025/06/30
Where's our money? CDC grant funding is moving so slowly layoffs are happening	Government-CDC	According to two CDC staff members with knowledge of the agency's budget, the CDC has yet to receive its full funding for the 2025 fiscal year. NPR agreed not to name the staff members because they were not authorized to speak to the media.	https://www.npr.org/sections/health-news/2025/06/28/nx-1-5442	2025/06/30
Who is in charge at the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention?	Government-CDC	Who is in charge at the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)? The answer is more complicated than it may seem. With no confirmed or acting CDC director, Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has direct control over the agency, allowing him to sign off — or not — on vaccine recommendations, according to legal experts. Yet Kennedy, the secretary of the US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), testified before a Senate committee in May that someone else is running the agency — creating confusion that could lead to legal challenges.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/29/who-is-in-charge-at-cdc	2025/06/30
Since Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) was created after the 9/11 attacks, its agents have operated with vastly more enforcement power, less transparency and fewer guardrails than local police.	Government-ICE	Under Trump, critics say, ICE has become the closest thing the U.S. has to a secret police force. ICE agents aren't required to wear body cameras, can cover their faces, don't have to provide badge numbers or identify themselves, can arrive in unmarked cars and don't need a warrant from a judge to detain someone. Like those with other federal enforcement agencies, they can ignore rules that govern local police departments, particularly those local agencies with histories of abuse or that operate under court-imposed restrictions on racial profiling. In some cases, ICE agents can even arrest U.S. citizens — but they aren't supposed to place them in immigration detention units. Even so, a few U.S. citizens have been detained in recent ICE raids because of agents' mistakes or negligence.
Allegations of abuse by ICE agents rarely are investigated because they typically involve immigrants who are removed from the U.S., Wolf said.	Government-ICE	Allegations of abuse by ICE agents rarely are investigated because they typically involve immigrants who are removed from the U.S., Wolf said.
Axios Explains: Inside ICE's superpowers	Government-ICE	Donald Trump's administration is on pace to have one of the worst years for deaths in immigrant detention in decades following the recent deaths of a Canadian citizen and a Cuban man in federal custody. His death would bring the total to at least 12 dead in ICE custody since Trump took office.	https://www.axios.com/2025-06-29/axios-explains-inside-ice-superpower	2025/06/30
At least 11 people have died in ICE detention under Trump, as administration on pace for deadliest year in decades	Government-ICE	All told, 15 people have reportedly died in detention this fiscal year, which includes the final months of Joe Biden's administration.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-2025-06-29/	2025/06/30
Trump Admin Says ICE Agents are the Real Victims. Amid Violent Immigration Raids	Government-ICE	Since President Donald Trump took office in January, violent ICE arrests have been caught on camera across the country. In the clips, many of which have gone viral, agents are seen smashing the window of a car with a pregnant woman inside, vigorously beating a man who is curled up on the asphalt, and tossing tear gas canisters near a toddler and a baby. The Department of Homeland Security has presented ICE agents themselves as the real victims here. DHS spokeswoman Tricia McLaughlin says assaults against ICE agents have risen 500 percent since the beginning of the year.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-admin-says-ice-agents-140050555/	2025/06/30
Joh. Corps shutdown would displace thousands of young trainees	Government-Job Corp	The Trump administration's move to shutter the nation's largest job training program for low-income youth has been blocked — at least for now — by a federal judge.
2 dead in Idaho after gunman ambushes firefighters responding to brush fire, Sheriff	Gun Violence	U.S. District Judge Andrew Carter ruled that the administration lacked congressional authority to abruptly terminate the 60-year-old program, issuing a preliminary injunction while the lawsuit proceeds.	https://www.axios.com/2025/06/29/job-corps-shutdown-young-trainees	2025/06/30
'Explosive increase' of ticks that cause meat allergy in US due to climate crisis	Health-Environment	Two people are dead after firefighters were ambushed by a gunman, or multiple gunmen, while responding to a brush fire in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, officials said.	https://abcnews.go.com/US/firefighters-ambushed-gunman-responding	2025/06/30
Many forget the damage done by diseases like whooping cough, measles and rubella. Not these families	Health-Vaccines	Law enforcement is investigating whether the fire could have been intentionally set in order to lure first responders to the scene. Kootenai County Sheriff's Lt. Jeff Howard told ABC News. Blood-sucking ticks that trigger a bizarre allergy to meat in the people they bite are exploding in number and spreading across the US, to the extent that they could cover the entire eastern half of the country and infect millions of people, experts have warned. Lone star ticks have taken advantage of rising temperatures by the human-caused climate crisis to expand from their heartland in the south-east US to areas previously too cold for them, in recent years marching as far north as New York and even Maine, as well as pushing westwards.	https://theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/29/one-ate-ticks-hore	2025/06/30
After decades in the US, Iranians arrested in Trump's deportation drive	Immigrants	The ticks are known to be unusually aggressive and can provoke an allergy in bitten people whereby they cannot eat red meat without enduring a severe reaction, such as breaking out in hives and even risk of heart attacks. The condition, known as alpha-gal syndrome, has proliferated from just a few dozen known cases in 2009 to as many as 450,000 now.	https://apnews.com/article/iran-immigration-arrests-us-trump-deportatio	2025/06/30
ICE arrests of US military veterans and their relatives are on the rise - a country that I fought for	Immigrants	In the time before widespread vaccination, death often came early. Devastating infectious diseases ran rampant in America, killing millions of children and leaving others with lifelong health problems. These illnesses were the main reason why nearly one in five children in 1900 never made it to their fifth birthday.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-arrests-us-military-veterans-1826351/	2025/06/30
Opinion - Deportation nation: Trump 2.0 is gunning for new records in immigration prosecutions	Immigration	Over the next century, vaccines virtually wiped out long-feared scourges like polio and measles and drastically reduced the toll of many others. Today, however, some preventable, contagious diseases are making a comeback as vaccine hesitancy pushes immunization rates down. And well-established vaccines are facing suspicion even from public officials, with Robert F. Kennedy Jr., a longtime anti-vaccine activist, running the federal health department.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-deportation-nation-trump-2-1200/	2025/06/30
Opinion - Red states have launched a hostile takeover of public universities	Information Blockout	Mandana "Dorna" Kashanian lived in the United States for 47 years, married a U.S. citizen and raised their daughter. She was gardening in the yard of her New Orleans home when U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers handcuffed and took her away, her family said. Kashanian arrived in 1978 on a student visa and applied for asylum, fearing retaliation for her father's support of the U.S.-backed shah. She lost her bid, but she was allowed to remain with her husband and child if she checked in regularly with immigration officials, her husband and daughter said. She complied, once checking in from South Carolina during Hurricane Katrina. She is now being held at an immigration detention center in Basile, Louisiana, while her family tries to get information.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-red-states-launched-hostile-1200/	2025/06/30
Hard to imagine a worse time to deport Afghan refugees, human rights advocates say	International Relations	As the Chronicle reported, Thomas was born on a US army base in Germany to an American citizen father, who was originally born in Jamaica and is now dead. Thomas does not have US, German or Jamaican citizenship — but Trump's Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ice) agency deported him anyway to Jamaica, a country in which he had never set foot.	https://www.npr.org/sections/goingstoahead/sota/2025/06/28/g-a1-74742/a/	2025/06/30

		Katrine and other female soldiers, all of whom spoke to The Associated Press on June 11 on the condition that only their first names be used because of operational security, volunteered for military service earlier this year. Until now, that was the only way women were allowed to partake in military service, although women have been able to enlist as full-time members of the armed forces since the early 1970s.
Women can be drafted into the Danish military as Russian aggression and military investment grows	International-Denmark	The Scandinavian country is seeking to increase the number of young people in the military by extending compulsory enlistment to women for the first time. Men and women can both still volunteer, and the remaining places will be filled by a gender-neutral draft lottery.	https://apnews.com/article/denmark-female-conscription-military-e5070	2025/06/30
		Amr Saïed Ibrahim, Iran's ambassador to the United Nations, said on Sunday that the Islamic republic's nuclear enrichment "will never stop" because it is permitted for "peaceful energy" purposes under the treaty on the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons. The enrichment is our right, an inalienable right, and we want to implement this right," Iravani told CBS News, adding that Iran was ready for negotiations but "unconditional surrender is not negotiation. It is dictating the policy toward us."
Iran's nuclear enrichment 'will never stop', nation's UN ambassador says	International-Iran	But Iravani said Tehran is "ready for the negotiation, but after this aggression, it is not proper condition for a new round of the negotiation, and there is no request for negotiation and meeting with the president".	https://www.theguardian.com/world/2025/jun/29/iran-nuclear-enrichment	2025/06/30
		First, a top official with the United Nations's nuclear watchdog told CBS News that Iran's production capabilities would be able to enrich weapons-grade uranium within a few months, (in the event Iran's government orders production of a nuclear-tipped missile. Then, The Washington Post revealed that U.S. intelligence sources intercepted a call between top Iranian officials commenting on the strikes and describing them as less destructive than Tehran was expecting.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-1	2025/06/30
UN watchdog and intercepted Iran call undermine Trump's boasts about ending nuke program	International-Iran	The Jerusalem District Court cancelled this week's hearings in Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's long-running corruption trial, accepting a request the Israeli leader made citing classified diplomatic and security grounds.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/court-cancels-israel-pm-netanyahu-1246	2025/06/30
Court cancels Israel PM Netanyahu's trial hearings this week	International-Israel	video	https://www.yahoo.com/news/russia-launches-biggest-air-attack-11463	2025/06/30
Russia launches biggest air attack on Ukraine since start of war	International-Russia	House Republican leadership is actively discussing new ways to restrict the classified information that all lawmakers can receive, after the White House indicated it will limit intelligence sharing with Congress going forward. Democrats are warning that would threaten their ability to do their jobs, and some Republicans also say they would be against further restrictions.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-gop-leadership-discussing-ways-1	2025/06/30
House GOP leadership discussing new ways to limit classified information on Capitol Hill	Political-Cespool	The response to Lozano's arrest highlights a new strategy emerging after large-scale protests overtook downtown Los Angeles earlier this month. Instead of focusing on marches outside federal buildings, residents of sprawling L.A. County are zeroing in on their own blocks and neighborhoods to show their opposition to Trump's mass deportation efforts.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/protesters-los-angeles-shifting-tactics-126	2025/06/30
Protesters in Los Angeles are shifting their tactics as ICE detentions spread fear	Protest	Health and Human Services Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has opened a new chapter of federal vaccine policy that invites questions on issues long considered to be settled and that pushes anti-vaccine priorities into mainstream government guidelines. Over the course of a two-day meeting this week, Kennedy's handpicked panel of vaccine advisers said they would launch an investigation into the cumulative effect of the childhood and adolescent vaccine schedules and consider new recommendations for shots that have long been on the market. "Vaccines are not all good or bad," said Martin Kulldorff, the committee's new chair and a former Harvard University professor. "No questions should be off-limits."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rfk-jr-opens-chapter-us-16000771.html	2025/06/30
RFK Jr. opens new chapter in US vaccine policy	RFK JR BS	Police in southern California arrested a man suspected of posing as a federal immigration officer this week, the latest in a series of such arrests, as masked, plainclothes immigration agents are deployed nationwide to meet the Trump administration's mass deportation targets. The arrest is one of several cases involving people allegedly impersonating immigration officials, as the nationwide crackdown on undocumented immigrants intensifies. Experts have warned that federal agents' increased practice of masking while carrying out immigration raids and arrests makes it easier for imposters to pose as federal officers.
		Around the country, the sight of ICE officers emerging from unmarked cars in plainclothes to make arrests has become increasingly common. The high court's order on Friday did not explain why the court wants to hear oral arguments again in Louisiana v. Cates during its next term that is expected to start in October, although it signaled there may be details in a follow-up order coming in "due course."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/28/civilians-impersonal	2025/06/30
US sees spike of arrests of civilians impersonating ICE officers	Secret Police	"This is on the surface a fairly easy case factually to decide," says Michael LI, a redistricting expert at the Brennan Center for Justice at New York University School of Law. "The Supreme Court almost never holds over cases for argument and the fact that it's doing so in this case is puzzling." Friday's ruling quickly sparked questions about how the dispute over birthright citizenship will play out now — and how the ruling on universal injunctions might affect other efforts to push back on executive policies, under President Trump and future presidents. "Nationwide injunctions have been an important tool to prevent blatantly illegal and unconstitutional conduct," the National Immigration Justice Center's director of litigation, Kerri Zwick, said in a statement sent to NPR. The decision to limit such injunctions, she said, "opens a pathway for the president to break the law at will."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/28/us-1-5445336/supreme-court-louisiana	2025/06/30
Where the Voting Rights Act stands after the Supreme Court punts on a Louisiana case	Supreme Court	Current legal standing for birthright citizenship in the U.S. extends back to the 1860s, when the 14th Amendment of the Constitution was ratified, stating, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States."
		"Any executive order purporting to limit birthright citizenship is just as unconstitutional today as it was yesterday," Wendy Weiser, vice president for democracy at the Brennan Center for Justice at NYU Law School, told NPR. "There is nothing substantively in the decision that undercuts those lower court opinions. The opinion just undercuts the tools available to the courts to enforce that constitutional mandate."	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/27/us-1-5448863/birthright-citizenship-aw	2025/06/30
What is birthright citizenship and what happens after the Supreme Court ruling?	Supreme Court	Summary	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/27/us-1-5448863/birthright-citizenship-aw	2025/06/30
The Supreme Court gives Trump a wave of victories in a blockbuster final week	Supreme Court	On Friday alone, she was part of a conservative 6-3 majority in three of the five rulings, including the birthright citizenship case. The others saw the court rule in favor of religious conservatives who objected to LGBTQ story books in elementary schools and uphold a Texas restriction on adult-content websites.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/criticism-maga-world-amy-coney-090000	2025/06/30
After criticism from MAGA world, Amy Coney Barrett delivers for Trump	Supreme Court	An industry-backed researcher who has forged a career sowing doubt about the dangers of pollutants is attempting to use artificial intelligence (AI) to amplify his perspective. Louis Anthony "Tony" Cox Jr., a Denver-based risk analyst and former Trump adviser who once reportedly claimed there is no proof that cleaning air saves lives, is developing an AI application to scan academic research for what he sees as the false conflation of correlation with causation. A notorious cybercriminal group has shifted its attention to the aviation industry, successfully breaching the computer networks of multiple airlines in the United States and Canada this month, according to the FBI and private experts responding to the hacks. The hacking hasn't affected airline safety, but it has top cyber executives at major airlines across the United States on alert because of the hacking suspects: A network of young cybercriminals called "Scattered Spider" who are known for their aggressive efforts to extort or embarrass their victims.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/warped-cybercriminal-group-targets-us-1	2025/06/30	les, danger,
Inside a plan to use AI to amplify doubts about the dangers of pollutants	Technology-AI	An explosion and fire at a pharmaceutical factory in India's southern state of Telangana killed at least eight people and injured several others, authorities said Monday. "It was an explosion in a spray dryer unit of the factory, which is used to process raw material into fine powder for making drugs," Rao said.	https://apnews.com/article/india-pharmaceutical-factory-fire-telangana-1	2025/06/30
Rampant cybercriminal group targets US airlines	Technology-Cybercrime	A gold mine party collapsed in eastern Sudan, killing 11 miners, the state-run company in charge of the project said Sunday. Zohran Mandani shrugged off President Trump's attacks on him and denied he's a communist during a Sunday interview in which the progressive New York City mayoral candidate said he doesn't think there should be billionaires.	https://apnews.com/article/sudan-gold-mine-collapse-864e1cca08369f	2025/06/30
At least 8 killed in an explosion and fire at a pharmaceutical factory in southern India	Tragic	Mandani said on NBC News' "Meet the Press" he's "had to start to get used to the fact that the president will talk about how I look, how I sound, where I'm from, who I am, ultimately, because he wants to distract from what I'm fighting for."
A gold mine collapse kills 11 workers in Sudan	Tragic	He added, "I'm fighting for the very king people that he ran a campaign to empower, that he has since then betrayed. And when we talk about my politics, I call myself a democratic socialist in many ways inspired by the words of Dr. King from decades ago who said, "Call it democracy or call it democratic socialism."	https://www.abcnews.com/2025/06/29/trump-mandani-nyc-funds-mayor-c	2025/06/30
Trump, Mandani must 'behave' if elected NYC mayor, or face funding cuts	Trump Bullshit	The Trump administration has, for the first time ever, built a searchable national citizenship data system. The tool, which is being rolled out in phases, is designed to be used by state and local election officials to give them an easier way to ensure only citizens are voting. But it was developed rapidly without a public process, and some of those officials are already worrying about what else it could be used for. ... Such integration has never existed before, and experts call it a sea change that inches the U.S. closer to having a roster of citizens — something the country has never embraced. A centralized national database of Americans' personal information has long been considered a third rail — especially to privacy advocates as well as political conservatives, who have traditionally opposed mass data consolidation by the federal government.
The Trump administration is building a national citizenship data system	Trump Bullshit	Legal experts told NPR they were alarmed that a development of this magnitude was already underway without a transparent and public process. The University of Virginia (UVA) received "explicit" notification from the Trump administration that the school would endure cuts to university jobs, research funding and student aid as well as visas if the institution's president, Jim Ryan, did not resign, according to a US senator.	https://www.npr.org/2025/06/29/us-1-5402608/citizenship-trump-privac	2025/06/30
Trump sent 'explicit' threat to cut funds from University of Virginia, senator says	Trump Bullshit	Warner said he understood that the former UVA president was told that if he "tried to fight back, hundreds of employees would lose jobs, researchers would lose funding, and hundreds of students could lose financial aid or have their visas withheld."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/29/trump-threats-univ	2025/06/30
Rising summer heat increases risk of child deaths in hot cars	Warning	So far this year, nine children have died after being left unattended in vehicles in California, Florida, Louisiana, Maryland, New Mexico, New Jersey and North Carolina, according to Kids and Car Safety, which collects data on hot car deaths. Five died in June. And last year, 39 children in the U.S. died after being left in hot cars.	https://abcnews.com/US/wireStory/rising-summer-heat-increases-ri	2025/06/30
Severe heat waves hit Southern Europe as authorities warn against wildfire risks	Weather-Heat	Major heat waves across Southern Europe have pushed temperatures above 40 C (104 F) in countries including Italy, Spain and Greece, as local authorities issued fresh warnings against the risk of wildfires. Severe heat waves were recorded in Italy, Greece, Spain and Portugal before the weekend, with locals and tourists alike taking shelter from the sweltering conditions. Two-thirds of Portugal were on high alert on Sunday for extreme heat and wildfires, with temperatures expected to top 42 C (107 F) in Lisbon. In Italy, a few regions — Lazio, Tuscany, Calabria, Puglia and Umbria — were planning to ban some outdoor work activities during the hottest hours of the day in response to the record-high temperatures. Italian trade unions pushed the government to expand such measures at a national level. The list of climate-related disasters in the US was long last week as vast swathes of the country sweated under a brutal heatwave. ... These incidents – and many more – were the result of the highest temperatures across the northern and middle swath of the US at this early summer date in some cases since the late 19th century. Nearly 130 million people were under extreme heat warnings or heat advisories on Thursday, according to NOAA's Weather Prediction Center, with 282 locations breaking daily heat records this week, with another 121 equalling with previous highs. NOAA data showed.	https://www.theguardian.com/international/2025/jun/28/us-heatwaves-ht	2025/06/30
		A new study published in the scientific journal Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, found that stalled atmospheric patterns have tripled over the last 70 years.	https://www.theguardian.com/science/journal/Proceedings-of-the-National-Academy-of-Sciences-found-that-stalled-atmospheric-patterns-have-tripled-over-the-last-70-years	2025/06/30	climate crisis

		Topped irrigation, crumbled grain bins and acres of destroyed crop are part of what's been dealing with since the storm struck the farm and a wide swath of land across central and east central North Dakota and even well into Minnesota.
Once in a generation storm destroys grain storage and crops across North Dakota	Weather-Storms	Thompson plans to replant his edible beans and some of his soybean acres as soon as the weather cooperates and plans to use an earlier maturity seed to make up for the shorter time frame of the growing season. Surprisingly, Thompson's corn crop and hard red spring wheat were able to withstand the storm and appear to be doing well. Thompson had trees that fell, irrigation that had ripped and other damage. But he does consider himself to be one of the lucky ones. At the city's Museum of Flight, the South African artist Ralph Ziman premieres a MIG-21 covered in tens of millions of beads to spur conversation about weapons of war Most retired planes settle for an afterlife at a boneyard or disassembly facility. A defunct MIG-21 fighter jet that recently arrived at Seattle's Museum of Flight is not most planes.	https://www.inform.com/news/north-dakota/once-in-a-generation-storm	2025/06/30
Make beads, not war: a bedazzled fighter jet lands in Seattle	Weird world	While many decommissioned vessels collect rust, the Soviet-designed aircraft is blanketed from top to bottom, inside and out, in tens of millions of glass beads that explode in a riot of color.	https://www.theguardian.com/artanddesign/2025/jun/29/mig-21-project	2025/06/30
Felt Canisack in An EV? Scientists Say You're Not Imagining It And They Know Why	Weird world	According to scientists who spoke to The Guardian, those green-beamed EV riders aren't imagining it. Humans could very well find themselves experiencing motion sickness in an electric vehicle even when its full performance is not being deployed, despite having spent decades traveling in a combustion-powered car without an issue. If the length of our skirts speaks to the stock market – short hemlines in boom times, long when they're sad – breasts are political. Thirty years after the French Revolution, Eugène Delacroix painted Liberty Leading the People with a lithe, bare-breasted Liberty holding the French flag, leading her people to freedom. A century and a half later, women burning their bras at the 1968 protest against the Miss America pageant became one of the defining images of the feminist movement – never mind the fact that it never happened. (Protesters threw cups of Playboy, and some brae, in a trash can, but starting a fire on a sidewalk was illegal.) Intriguingly, decades when big breasts are in fashion seem to coincide with times of regression for women. Think about it. The 1920s: flat-chested flapper dresses and emancipation. The 1950s: Jayne Mansfield and women being pulled away from the workplace and back into the home. The 1970s: lean torso under T-shirts, and the women's liberation movement.	https://www.cnn.com/2025/06/felt-canisack-in-an-ev-science-hike	2025/06/30
A marker of luxury and arrogance': why gravity-defying boots are back - and what they say about the state of the world	Weird world	In 2024, murders fell by as little 14% across the U.S., according to analyses by the data firm AH DataLytics and the Council on Criminal Justice, a nonpartisan think tank. Official data from the FBI goes only through 2023 but shows similar drops. Early analyses from AH DataLytics suggest the drop may be even bigger in 2025.	https://www.theguardian.com/lifeandstyle/2025/jun/28/a-marker-of-luxury	2025/06/30
Murders are down nationwide. Researchers point to a key reason	Crime	If you meet people's needs, he says, they're less likely to turn to violence.	https://www.npr.com/2025/06/30/mx-a1-5448852-murders-down-nationw	2025/07/01
Trump flying down to open Florida's 'Alligator Alcatraz' detention center Tuesday	Dystopian	President Donald Trump is planning to visit a site in the Everglades where Florida officials want to detain migrants, which they have nicknamed "Alligator Alcatraz." Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis previewed the president's visit for the formal opening, saying the site "will be ready for business" by Tuesday. "What'll happen is you bring people in there. They ain't going anywhere once they're there, unless you want them to go somewhere, because good luck getting to civilization. So the security is amazing," DeSantis said, brining at the allegations that swim in the wetlands surrounding the abandoned airport site, approximately 45 miles from Miami.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/politics/trump-j	2025/07/01
Trump's clean-energy grenade rattles high-tech industries	Economy-environment	Critics say President Trump's megabill amounts to an alien siren in the battle for the future of energy. The consequences for U.S. jobs, electricity prices and the AI arms race could reverberate for decades. The "One, Big, Beautiful Bill Act," which would gut key Biden-era clean energy subsidies and potentially impose new taxes on solar and wind projects, could reach Trump's desk as soon as this week. "A massive strategic error is being made right now to damage solar/battery that will leave America extremely vulnerable in the future," Musk tweeted Sunday, after the Senate unveiled new changes to the bill. The Senate's version of the giant tax and spending bill might eliminate tax credits for electric vehicle purchases even sooner than the House version. The draft that the Senate released over the weekend sets a single termination date: Sept. 30th, three months from now.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/trump-clean-energy-tax-credits-one	2025/07/01
Senate considers ditching the EV tax credit even earlier than planned	Economy-environment	Meanwhile, the Trump-aligned American Energy Alliance celebrated the prospect of rapidly terminating EV tax credits. "Eliminating green giveaways on the backs of American taxpayers is shortsighted and neglectful," the group's president, Tom Pyle, wrote in a statement. When two South Korean companies announced a multibillion-dollar investment to build solar panel and electric battery factories in northwest Georgia, federal subsidies helped close a deal to diversify the local economy. The factories promised thousands of new jobs, transforming the manufacturing base in Cartersville, once a cotton mill town before an AnhuiSue-Busch brewery arrived in the 1960s and a tire plant in 2006.	https://www.npr.com/2025/06/30/mx-a1-5451711/e-tax-credit-megabill	2025/07/01
A Georgia town that solidly backed Trump could fall victim to his tax bill's green energy cuts	Economy-environment	But now Republicans in Congress want to gut the subsidies for projects across the country in a tax cut bill they days from final passage. President Donald Trump's signature legislation could harm Cartersville despite it being in overwhelmingly Republican Bartow County, which backed Trump with 75% of the vote all three times he appeared on the ballot.	https://agnews.com/articles/georgia-cartersville-solar-electric-vehicle-bu	2025/07/01
Ford workers told their CEO 'none of the young people want to work here. So Jim Farley look a page out of the founder's playbook'	Economy-Wages	Ford CEO Jim Farley learned from older employees that some young workers at the carmaker were taking shifts at Amazon to make ends meet, he said at the Aspen Ideas Festival. Farley said he drew on founder Henry Ford's decision to raise factory wages to $5 a day in 1914 to make temporary workers into full-time employees. Young people have previously eschewed manufacturing jobs due to low wages.	https://www.msn.com/en-us/money/companies/ford-workers-told-their-ceo	2025/07/01
As light pollution increases, West Texas works to protect the world's largest 'dark sky reserve'	Environment-Light pollution	From the observatory's perch high up in the Davis Mountains of Far West Texas—some 6,800 hundred feet above sea level—you can see just how far the desert floor stretches out and the nighttime sky almost feels within reach. Under tonight's starry shroud, couples embrace, heads tilt toward the sky and children skip from telescope to telescope to catch a glimpse of the celestial show. About 75,000 people attend the observatory's "star-parties" throughout the year and take in the region's famously dark skies. "It makes me feel kind of small – not insignificant, but small, just part of this whole cosmos that we live in," said Cameron Howitt. Recent research shows the night sky in North America is getting brighter every year – on average, researchers say, you can see about 10 percent fewer stars than the year before. But the Big Bend area in Texas has fended off the light glow that washes out stargazing nights. The deep ocean covers most of the planet. Gerard Barron wants his company to be the first to mine it.	https://www.npr.com/2025/07/01/mx-a1-5398493/light-pollution-west-texa	2025/07/01
This company wants to be the first to mine the ocean floor, with Trump's help	Environment-Mining	That "big game" is a remote stretch of the Pacific Ocean, believed to hold massive amounts of minerals like nickel and cobalt. It would become the target of his latest firm, The Metals Company. The "big, beautiful bill" slashes food and health benefits for the poorest Americans, while giving tax cuts to higher earners – blowing a hole in the nation's safety net, according to healthcare experts and advocates for lower-income people. Experts say the cuts could unleash a tidal wave of pain – overcrowded emergency rooms, an increase in chronic health care issues, more medical debt, and more folks going hungry. If the $4 trillion bill passes into law, it would be the biggest cut to the social safety net in decades, as the Washington Post noted.	https://www.npr.com/2025/06/30/mx-a1-5450336/ocean-nickel-cobalt-gac	2025/07/01
Big, beautiful bill pushes millions of people away from social safety net	Government-Spending	The Senate scheduled for a tense overnight session that dragged into Tuesday, with Republican leaders searching for ways to secure support for President Donald Trump's big bill of tax breaks and spending cuts while lending off proposed amendments, mostly from Democrats trying to defeat the package. An endgame appeared to be taking shape. Senate Majority Leader John Thune of South Dakota spent the night reaching for last-minute agreements between those in his party worried the bills reductions to Medicaid will leave millions without care and his most conservative flank, which wants even deeper cuts to Social Security, with the tax cut side. In a twist, Republican senators insist they don't know how or why the Tax was inserted into the bill they're rushing to pass. No senator is taking credit for or defending it. And at least one wants it removed. "It's a secret, I guess," Graham told NBC News on Monday evening. "I don't know where it came from."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/megabill-mystery-solar-wind-tax-0157056	2025/07/01
A megabill mystery: New solar and wind tax comes as a surprise to Republican senators	Government-Spending	Nearly 12 million people would lose their health insurance under President Trump's "big, beautiful bill," an erosion of the social safety net that would lead to more unmanaged chronic illnesses, higher medical debt and overcrowding of hospital emergency departments. "We are going back to a place of a lot of uncompensated care and a lot of patchwork systems for people to get care," said Ellen Motz, a managing director at Manatt Health who oversees the ACA federal marketplace during the Biden administration. Just three days after he helped save a 9-year-old girl from a shark attack, 31-year-old Luis Alvarez was arrested for allegedly driving without a valid driver's license. He is now facing potential deportation, according to news reports, and ICE says he's alive in the country illegally since 2022.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/least-cost-health-coverage-losses	2025/07/01
What's at stake from GOP megabill's coverage losses	Government-Spending-health	Just three days after he helped save a 9-year-old girl from a shark attack, 31-year-old Luis Alvarez was arrested for allegedly driving without a valid driver's license. He is now facing potential deportation, according to news reports, and ICE says he's alive in the country illegally since 2022.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/man-rushed-help-9-yld-220050021.html	2025/07/01
Man Rushed to Help 9-Year-Old Shark Attack Victim, Days Later, ICE Arrests Him and Says He's in This Country Illegally	Government-ICE	Like in other parts of LA, many Huntington residents have been terrified amid reports of masked federal agents detaining immigrants, or those that look like immigrants, on the street, in parking lots, at swap meets or large stores and soldiers deployed into the city against the wishes of local officials and the governor. "It is a campaign of domestic terror that is being imposed on our residents on a daily basis," Flores said. "It is a level of psychological warfare that I've only seen in theaters of war. It's terrifying seeing it being dispensed here to my city."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/01/california-huntington	2025/07/01
California mayor on Trump's immigration raids: 'It is a campaign of domestic terror'	Government-ICE	As the weather has worsened, there have been fewer federal scientists to alert the public of it. Cuts to the weather service by Trump and the so-called "department of government efficiency" (Doge) have left NWS local forecast offices critically underfunded throughout this year's heightened severe weather. In April, an internal document reportedly described how cuts could create a situation of "degraded" operations – shuffling down core services by one unit until it reaches an equilibrium that doesn't overtake its remaining employees. The changing climate is also making simultaneous weather disasters more likely, such as overlapping tornadoes and flash floods – crimping emergency preparedness officials and compounding the effects of funding cuts. After recent moves by the US Department of Health and Human Services to restrict the approval and use of some vaccines – and signs that more changes might be coming – some states and private partnerships are scrambling to ensure that vaccines will still be available to those who want them. "When you start splintering the message from the federal government down states and local health departments, people end up being left in everybody. They don't know who to believe," said one official familiar with several ongoing efforts who spoke on the condition they not be named because they weren't authorized to share the details of those plans. The Justice Department is aggressively prioritizing efforts to strip some Americans of their U.S. citizenship. Department leadership is directing its attorneys to prioritize denaturalization in cases involving naturalized citizens who commit certain crimes – and giving U.S. attorneys wider discretion on when to pursue this tactic, according to a June 11 memo published online. The move is aimed at U.S. citizens who were not born in the country, according to data from 2023, close to 25 million immigrants were naturalized citizens. The Trump administration has codified its efforts to strip some Americans of their US citizenship in a recently published justice department memo that directs attorneys to prioritize denaturalization for naturalized citizens who commit certain crimes. According to the memo, those subjected to civil proceedings are not entitled to an attorney like they are in criminal cases. And the government has a lighter burden of proof in civil cases than they do in criminal ones. The directive gives justice department attorneys wider discretion on when to pursue denaturalization, including in instances of lying on immigration forms, cases where there is financial fraud or medical fraud in favor of the US or against private individuals, and cases referred by a US attorney's office or in connection with pending criminal charges.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jun/01/trump-huntington-city	2025/07/01	authoritarian creep, two-tiered justice, rights under review,
Trump's justice department issues directive to strip naturalized Americans of citizenship for criminal offenses	Immigrants		https://www.npr.com/2025/06/30/mx-a1-5445388/denaturalization-trump	2025/07/01
DOJ announces plans to prioritize cases to revoke citizenship	Immigrants
Trump's justice department issues directive to strip naturalized Americans of citizenship for criminal offenses	Immigrants

		It ramps up the Trump administration's immigration crackdown, which it has expanded to target, deport and detain legal permanent residents and citizens. Of the 46.2 million immigrants living in the U.S. in 2022, 24.5 million – 53% – were naturalized citizens, according to a Migration Policy Institute analysis of government data. From 1990-2017, the DOJ filed 305 denaturalization cases, about 11 per year. The number has surged since President Trump's first term. Kinar Abrego Garcia will remain in jail for now over concerns from his legal team that he could be deported if released while awaiting trial, a federal judge ruled Monday. Abrego Garcia's lawyers asked a judge to delay his release Friday as he awaits trial on human smuggling charges, to which he has pleaded not guilty. The lawyers said they were concerned that the U.S. Marshals Service could release him from Tennessee on Friday and then Immigration and Customs Enforcement would remove him over the weekend. U.S. Magistrate Judge Barbara Holmes ruled in an order Monday that he will remain in federal custody until a court appearance in mid-July.
What to know about the DOJ revoking citizenship of naturalized Americans	Immigration	However, another provision requires that the child and both parents all have Social Security numbers. The bill's authors said it's to make sure benefits only go to those living in the U.S. with valid legal status. Michael Mines, director of civic engagement for La Unión del Pueblo Entero, said that right now, having only one parent with a Social Security number is enough for a family to qualify — and this new burden will hurt families with mixed immigration status.	https://www.axios.com/2025/09/30/trump-naturalized-citizenship-doj-im	2025/07/01
Abrego Garcia's release delayed over deportation concerns	Immigration		https://www.axios.com/2025/09/30/abrego-garcia-release-delayed-doj	2025/07/01
Families with mixed immigration status would lose child tax credit under GOP tax and spending bill	Immigration	Over 100 US companies hiring remote workers ended up funding Kim Jong Un's weapons programs, DOJ says	https://www.btr.org/border-immigration/2025-09-30/families-with-mixed	2025/07/01
Republican-led states advance Trump's agenda with new laws taking effect Tuesday	International Relations	The Justice Department said on Monday that it had seized hundreds of computers and accused 13 people of tricking US companies into paying salaries to North Korea. For most states, Tuesday is the start of a new fiscal year, when numerous laws take effect. Some of the statutes in Trump-won states this year mirror executive orders and other directives he signed early in his second term.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/over-100-us-companies-hiring-04564382	2025/07/01
Workers living in fear of ICE raids in Los Angeles are hiding, like Anne Frank	News	Ongoing raids by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents in Los Angeles have reportedly driven members of the city's Latino population into hiding, with one man claiming "It's like Anne Frank."	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/ice-raids	2025/07/01
Trump Border czar Has Gruesome Response to Man Dying in ICE Custody	Political Cesspool	"I'm unaware of that. I'm not aware of that. I mean people die in ICE custody, people die in county jail, people die in state prisons," Homan replied, brushing off that a man had just died on his watch. Sen. Amy Klobuchar (Minn.), the top Democrat on the Senate Agriculture Committee, questioned why only two states should receive "special treatment" in a GOP-backed plan to reduce federal dollars for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) in the coming years.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-border-czar-gruesome-response-2	2025/07/01
Top Democrat questions 'special treatment' for Alaska, Hawaii in GOP SNAP proposal	Political Cesspool	Republicans are floating changes to that plan that would create special carveouts for Alaska and Hawaii amid internal GOP pushback. But senators signal the exemption could be at risk as Democrats question "special treatment" for the states. Much like President Donald Trump, Department of Homeland Security Secretary Kristi Noem is no stranger to taking advantage of the trappings of elected office to make a quick buck or glitz up her surroundings. In 2021, public records showed that the then governor of South Dakota spent almost $70,000 installing a sauna, chandeliers, and luxury decor in the governor's mansion. Last year, she was sued by a consumer protection group after producing undisclosed advertisements for a Texas dental group. The secretary has more recently sported a $50,000 watch while touring a Salvadoran torture prison. She also sold a Gucci purse stuffed with over $3,000 in cash stolen from her at a D.C. restaurant earlier this year. Noem's salary as governor was $130,000, but it wasn't her only source of income while leading South Dakota. According to a Monday report from ProPublica, she received tens of thousands of dollars from a dark money group, possibly in violation of campaign finance laws.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/top-democrat-questions-special-treatment	2025/07/01
Kristi Noem Secretly Pocketed Cash From Dark Money Group, Report	Political Cesspool	Tax records reviewed by ProPublica show that in 2023, during Noem's tenure as governor of South Dakota, a group listed as "American Resolve Policy Fund" paid Noem $80,000 that never made it onto her public ethics disclosures. Ahead of the July Fourth holiday and the country's 249th birthday, three-quarters of Americans say democracy is under serious threat, according to a new NPR/PBS News/Market poll. Nearly three-quarters also see politically motivated violence as a major problem.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kristi-noem-secretly-pocketed-cash-1502	2025/07/01
Poli: Most feel democracy is threatened and political violence is a major problem	Political Violence	The U.S. is grappling with what it means to be American, who is essential to its story, who belongs, who doesn't and which direction the country should take — all while Americans are expressing very little faith in its political leadership, the survey finds.	https://www.npr.org/2025/07/01/npr-st-5455247/poli-democracy-trump-a	2025/07/01
Moderates flee Congress	Politics-Moderates	Congress has gotten so miserable that the traditional "I'm sad to leave" has now become "not a hard choice" to retire. Exhausted lawmakers are choosing retirement over bipartisan dealmaking that their own parties clearly don't want. The clanging of pots and pans. The steady thud of beating drums. The honking of passing cars with waving flags sticking out of the window. Bands playing traditional Mexican songs. Speakers shouting into megaphones. Chants coming from dozens of people. All unfolding into the middle of the night outside the Home2 Suites by Hilton in Montebello, California, in late June.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/congress-retirements-bipartisanship	2025/07/01
Late-night noise latest tactic used in LA immigration protests. No sleep for ICE	Protest	The goal of this latest protest? Make as much noise as possible to try and keep U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement officers from sleeping and force them elsewhere. The Supreme Court on Monday threw out appellate rulings in favor of transgender people in four states following the justices' recent decision upholding a Tennessee ban on certain medical treatment for transgender youths.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/night-noise-latest-tactic-used-100410570	2025/07/01
Supreme Court throws out appellate rulings in favor of transgender people in 4 states	Rainbow Threats	Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. gave a rambling interview on The Tucker Carlson Show Monday, going deep into anti-vaccine rhetoric, accusing Anthony Fauci of "creating" COVID-19, and admitting that the Trump trade wars are "hurting" people and businesses.	https://apnews.com/article/supreme-court-transgender-rights-health-a7	2025/07/01
The Most Bait 'I Moments From RFK Jr.'s Tucker Carlson Diatribes	RFK JR BS	The U.S. Supreme Court declined on Monday to hear a case involving a Massachusetts public school teacher who sued on free speech grounds after her school fired her in what she called retaliation for social media posts made prior to her employment. The Mahmoud court held that the free exercise clause of the First Amendment requires public schools to give notice to parents and excuse absences to children when parents claim that using particular books interferes with their ability to instruct their children in religion. The parents who sued the Montgomery County school board asserted that simply seeing teachers use books depicting LGBTQ+ adults and children living life happily—dressing as they prefer or receiving love and acceptance from their families or getting married—undermines the parents' efforts to instruct their children that "mankind has been divinely created male and female," that "gender" cannot be unlearned from biological "sex"—to the extent the two are even distinct—without rejecting the dignity and direction God bestowed on humanity from the start; that "sexuality is expressed only in marriage between a man and a woman for creating life and strengthening the marital union"; and "that all humans are created as male or female, and that a person's biological sex is a gift bestowed by God that is both unchanging and integral to that person's being." (Mahmoud quotes these beliefs from the plaintiffs' pleadings.)	https://www.yahoo.com/news/most-bait-i-moments-rfk-jr-211310810.htm	2025/07/01
US Supreme Court won't hear free speech fight over teacher fired for social media posts	Supreme Court	An Iran-linked cyberattack group that hacked President Trump's 2024 campaign is threatening to release another trove of emails it has stolen from his associates, including White House chief of staff Susie Wiles and Roger Stone. Reuters first reported the threat on Monday that the Cyberspace and Infrastructure Security Agency on X called a "calculated smear campaign" — which came the same day as the Trump administration released a report warning that "Iranian Cyber Actors" may target U.S. firms and "operators of critical infrastructure."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-wont-hear-135207110	2025/07/01
Supreme Court Rules Some Americans Have a Constitutional Right to Insist on Theocracy	Supreme Court	The two veteran firefighters, along with a third who was critically injured, were ambushed by a lone gunman who started a wildfire in the state's north Sunday, investigators said. Kostenek County Fire and Rescue Chief Frank Harwood, 42, and Coeur d'Alene Fire Department Battalion Chief John Morrison, 52, were identified as the fallen firefighters during a Monday evening briefing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/supreme-court-rules-americans-constitu	2025/07/01
Iran-linked hackers threaten to release emails stolen from Trump associates	Technology-Security	And the president vowed legal action against Democratic members of Congress and journalists he blamed for publishing parts of a U.S. intelligence assessment of the effects of the three attacks. The administration spent the past week denying it was one-sided, incomplete, and aimed at producing a narrative critical of the Trump White House. President Donald Trump has the chance to accelerate his political momentum and tighten his power grip on the country by driving his most significant piece of second-term legislation through Congress and taking a July Fourth victory lap. The measure, dubbed the "One Big Beautiful Bill Act" with the president's trademark provocative hyperbole, is Trump's attempt to engineer lasting change through legislation in an administration that is also wading huge and questionable executive power.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/iran-trump-axies-email-hack-threat	2025/07/01
Firefighters shot in Idaho ambush identified	Terrorism	In the face of this widespread public disapproval and the GOP's inter-party squabbling over the bill, the White House is pushing "test checks" insisting that the legislation would not hurt low-income families or the economy at large, and that it is not just a dressed-up tax break for billionaires at the expense of everyone and everything else. Fewer Americans cast their ballots by mail during last year's election, while more voters embraced casting their ballots in-person before Election Day.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/idaho-shooting-firefighters-killed-316	2025/07/01
Trump threatens to force journalists to reveal who leaked report undermining his narrative on Iran bombing	Trump Bullshit	The commission, however, noted that the share of mail voting last year is still "larger than the percentage of the electorate that voted by mail in pre-pandemic elections." Turnout has also stayed above pre-pandemic levels. During the 2024 election, nearly 65% of the citizen voting age population participated in the general election, which is the second highest turnout in the last five presidential elections. Indian customs officers in Mumbai said they stopped a plane passenger arriving from Thailand with a wriggling cargo of live snakes — the third such seizure this month. "Customs officers ... killed yet another wildlife smuggling attempt. 16 live snakes ... seized from passenger returning from Thailand," customs officers said. They said it took place at Chhatrapati Shivaj Maharaj International Airport in India.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-threatens-force-journalists-reveal-1	2025/07/01
Trump aims to change the nation and further cement his power as deadline looms for 'big, beautiful bill'	Trump Bullshit	Parents of 1,200 children in the Australian state of Victoria are being advised to get them tested for infectious diseases after a childcare worker was charged with more than 70 offenses including sexual assault. Officials issued the call after Victoria Police announced the arrest of Joshua Dale Brown, 26, who is accused of sexually abusing eight children between the ages of 5 months and 2 years at a childcare center in Melbourne in 2022 and 2023.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-aims-change-nation-further-04002	2025/07/01
White House Pushes B.S. About 'Big Beautiful Bill' as Popularity Craters	Trump Bullshit	Summary Gov. Ron DeSantis said Tuesday the facility would be ready to receive people as soon as Wednesday. And Trump said he'd like to see similar facilities constructed "in many states." "The incredible thing is picking the site [...] it might be as good as the real Alcatraz, so I really think it could last for as long as they want to have it. You could morph this into the prison system."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/white-house-pushes-b-bill-214935168.htm	2025/07/01
Mail in voting rates dropped but early in-person voting is a hit, federal report shows	Voting	"[It's] not that far away from jails that take years to build," he added. So you'd be able to bring people in, they'll get processed, they have an order of removal, then they can be queued and the federal government can fly — right on the runway, right there, you literally drive them 2,000 feet, put them on a plane and then they're gone, said DeSantis.	https://www.npr.org/2025/07/01/npr-st-5452536/mail-in-ballot-early-in-p	2025/07/01
Plane passenger caught with 16 live snakes, including a rhino rat snake	Weird world	Unhmer said last week that the facility will mostly consist of tents and trailers, with no brick-and-mortar construction required. He said it was on track to open with some 5,000 beds — about half of its overall capacity — by early July, which officials confirmed during Tuesday's tour. At a press conference following the tour, Trump was equally dismissive of concerns about conditions in the Everglades, where the daily heat index in July regularly exceeds 100° (°F BC). "It might be as good as the real Alcatraz. A little controversial, but I couldn't care less," he said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/plane-passenger-caught-16-live-11241592	2025/07/01
Hundreds of children told to test for disease in Australia after childcare worker charged with child sex abuse	Cesspool-Abuse		https://www.yahoo.com/news/hundreds-children-told-test-disease-1025	2025/07/02
How Trump's birthright citizenship ban could impact all 50 states on July 27	Citizenship		https://www.kuon.org/stories/what-the-birthright-citizenship-ban-means	2025/07/02
Florida says 'Alligator Alcatraz' is temporary, Trump isn't so sure	Dystopian		https://www.axios.com/local/miami/2025/07/01/florida-alligator-alcatraz	2025/07/02
Trump tours 'Alligator Alcatraz' a day before its first arrivals are expected	Dystopian		https://www.npr.org/2025/07/01/npr-st-5453078/trump-alligator-alcatraz	2025/07/02
Trump celebrates harsh conditions for detainees on visit to 'Alligator Alcatraz'	Dystopian		https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jul/01/trump-alligator-alcatraz	2025/07/02
Senate passes big changes to student loans in reconciliation bill	Economy-Student Loans	Democrats are already vowing to make President Trump's "big, beautiful bill" a centerpiece of their strategy for taking back the House of Representatives in 2026. "From now until November 2026, the DCCC will continue to communicate the harm this bill will cause," the memo says. "Republicans will lose the majority in 2026 and the Big, Ugly Bill will be the reason why."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/senate-passes-big-changes-student-loans-203f	2025/07/02
Dems plot to use Trump's "big, beautiful bill" to oust GOP in 2028	Elections 2028		https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/trump-democrats-big-beautiful-bill-4f	2025/07/02

Hurricane Flossie tracker. See projected path of storm	Environment-Hurricane	Hurricane Flossie has formed in the Eastern Pacific and continues to strengthen off the coast of southwestern Mexico, according to the National Hurricane Center. Hurricane center forecasters said early Tuesday morning, July 1, Flossie is located about 155 miles south-southwest of Manzanillo, Mexico with maximum sustained winds near 85 mph with higher gusts, making it a Category 1 hurricane on the Saffir-Simpson Hurricane Wind Scale.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hurricane-flossie-forms-eastern-pacific-11	2025/07/02
Taxes, energy, and healthcare: 3 ways Senate's Trump megabill impacts the business world	Government spending	A centerpiece of the bill — and far away the source of the most expensive provisions — surrounds taxes. The effect on the energy sector could be profound, especially after a last-minute series of changes turned the bill even further against the clean energy industry while offering new support for fossil fuels.	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/taxes-energy-and-healthcare-3-ways-a	2025/07/02
Trump asserts dominance with 'big, beautiful bill' Senate passage: 5 takeaways	Government Spending	The bill has long been expected to phase out Biden-era clean energy tax credits, but the final Senate bill now aims to shut them down faster than expected. Healthcare negotiations went until nearly the literal last minute with the overall package is set to trim the government's Medicaid spending by around $600 billion in the years ahead.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-asserts-dominance-big-beautiful-11	2025/07/02
ICE Finally Admits Truth About Dramatic Spike in Assaults of Agents	Government-ICE	Corners of the sector, like rural hospitals, are set to be most directly impacted. Bipartisan opposition to Medicaid cuts. This move out of its midterm ramifications take shape. Thune earns leadership stripes as GOP majority holds. "CORRY" "DIO" "MATT" Musk returns with promise to oppose GOP. Back to the House as July 4 deadline looms.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/ice-finally-admits-truth-dramatic-1653465	2025/07/02
MAGA Melts Down at CNN Over ICE Coverage: 'DOJ Needs to Look at This'	Government-ICE	According to USA Today, law enforcement experts say that, by employing "practices that many American police departments have largely disavowed," immigration enforcement agents "are exacerbating tense situations" and "provoking unnecessarily dangerous encounters." For the segment, CNN reporter Claire Duffy sat down with the "ICEBlock" app's creator, Joshua Aaron, who explained the program allows users to anonymously mark sightings of Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents on a map, with alerts then sent out to other users within a five-mile radius.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/maga-melts-down-cnn-over-1023036911	2025/07/02
New NOAA document spells out further deep Trump cuts	Government-NOAA	"It's disgusting," border czar Tom Homan said on the Benny Johnson podcast Monday after the host accused the network of "pushing an app to track ICE agents to help criminal aliens evade being detained."	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/noaa-document-deep-trump-cuts	2025/07/02
New rules to remove safety devices from semi-trucks could let them zoom down the nation's highways at top speed	Health and Safety	"This is horrendous that a national media outlet would be out there trying to forecast law enforcement operations throughout the country," Homan went on. "It's incredible where we're at as a country and I think the Department of Justice needs to look at this and see if they crossed a line."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/rules-remove-safety-devices-semi-16110	2025/07/02
Judge blocks Trump admin from ending Haitian immigrant protections early	Immigration	A new NOAA document sheds further light on the Trump administration's proposed cuts and changes for the weather and climate agency. Most notably, the proposal would eliminate NOAA's Office of Oceanic and Atmospheric Research (OAR), which performs and coordinates climate research. Some of OAR's functions would be transferred to the National Weather Service, but others would be cancelled.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/02/haitian-migrants-trump-tps-judge-bj	2025/07/02
July 4th events across LA area canceled over ICE raid fears	Immigration	The U.S. Department of Transportation has scrapped a rule mandating speed-limiting devices on heavy-duty trucks, allowing them to race along the nation's highways at top speed. The devices in question, also known as governors, place a limit on the maximum speed at which large trucks can travel by preventing their engines from running any faster than a preset number of revolutions per minute. This typically means they cannot go faster than 55 to 70 mph in the interest of safety and improving fuel efficiency.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/ice-raids-july-4th	2025/07/02
Immigration raids leave crops unharvested, California farms at risk	Immigration	A federal judge on Tuesday blocked the Trump administration's early rollback of protections for Haitian immigrants in the U.S. The move, for now, preserves the Biden administration's extension of Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for an estimated 520,000 Haitians, who would have been eligible for deportations next month.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/immigration-raids-leave-crops-unharvested	2025/07/02	economy, culture of fear
DOJ memo pushes for broader effort to revoke, naturalized US citizenship	Immigration	"Secretary Noem does not have statutory or inherent authority to partially vacate a country's TPS designation," O'conn wrote, calling the action "unlawful."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/doj-memo-pushes-broader-effort-171455	2025/07/02
The White House took down the nation's top climate report. You can still find it here	Information Blackout	The website that hosts the most recent edition of the National Climate Assessment has gone dark. The sprawling report is the most influential source of information about how climate change affects the United States. The next edition was supposed to be released in 2027, and about 400 volunteer authors had started working on it. That work stopped after all the federal staff who coordinate it were let go in April.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/07/01/nx-1-5452501-national-climate-asses	2025/07/02
Trump says Israel has agreed to terms for 60-day Gaza ceasefire	Middle east conflict	An archived version of the most recent edition is available through the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. All five editions of the National Climate Assessment that have been published over the years will also be available on NASA's website, according to NASA spokesperson Bethany Stevens. NASA doesn't yet know when that website will be available to the public.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/trump-israel-gaza-ceasefire-hamas	2025/07/02
How Republicans got Murkowski to yes on Trump's megabill	Political Cesspool	President Trump announced Tuesday that Israel has agreed to an updated proposal for a 60-day ceasefire in Gaza that would secure the release of some hostages. He urged Hamas to accept the deal, warning on Truth Social that "it will not get better — IT WILL ONLY GET WORSE."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republians-got-murkowski-yes-trumps-2	2025/07/02
They Didn't Have to Do This	Political Cesspool	But Murkowski — at times fretful in a blanket or carrying around legislative text and pen to her colleagues — was able to extract key concessions for her state as she huddled on the floor with leadership, staff and fellow Alaska GOP Sen. Dan Sullivan. She won victories on clean energy tax credits, delaying changes to food aid for her state and the promise of massive revenues from oil and gas drilling leases, among other priorities she can take back home. In the end, she voted for a bill that makes up the core of her party's domestic agenda.	https://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2025/07/01/trump-beautiful-bill-bj	2025/07/02
Here's how Trump's megabill will affect you	Political Cesspool	"I held my head up and made sure that the people of Alaska are not forgotten in this, but I think that there is more that needs to be done, and I'm not done," Murkowski told reporters immediately after the vote. "I am going to take a nap, though."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-megabill-affect-192355857.html	2025/07/02
Study: 14 million lives could be lost due to Trump aid cuts	Pro-life	Like the Mafia wannabes, congressional Republicans have talked themselves into a plan so incomprehensibly reckless that to describe it is to question its authors' sanity. As of today's 50–50 Senate vote, with Vice President J. D. Vance breaking the tie, the House and Senate have passed their own versions of the bill. The final details still have to be negotiated, but the foundational elements are clear enough: Congress is about to impose immense harm on tens of millions of Americans — taking away their health insurance, reducing welfare benefits, raising energy costs and more — in order to benefit a handful of other Americans who least need the help. The bill almost seems designed to generate a political backlash.	https://www.rpr.org/sections/poats-and-soda/2025/07/01/nx-1-545261	2025/07/02
What to know about Fourth of July anti-Trump protests	Protest	Here's what we know about how the Senate bill will affect ... people on Medicaid: millions will lose coverage ... people who need help affording food: fewer will get it ... people with Affordable Care Act policies: more difficulty getting covered ... people who aren't on Medicaid, Obamacare or SNAP: may still feel the cuts ... state governments: would have to pick up the slack ... taxpayers: might not notice the tax cut extensions ... senior citizens: would get a temporary tax break ... people with student loans: would see some big changes ... private colleges with big endowments: would see a big tax hike ... someone buying a car: could deduct interest payments ... parents: will get a bigger tax credit for each of their children ... babies: would get a nest egg from the government ... workers who receive tips or overtime pay: would get a temporary tax break ... people planning on solar and wind tax credits: will have to hurry ... immigrants: may no longer qualify for benefits ... the wealthy, generally: will get wealthier ... millionaires who lose their jobs: could no longer collect unemployment ... people worried about the national debt: also not happy ... Trump's border wall: could finally be built.	https://www.axios.com/2025/07/01/july-4-free-america-trump-protests-u	2025/07/02
States sue Trump administration for sharing health data with DHS	Pushback	Local groups are organizing a Thursday protest outside of Trump's Mar-a-Lago Club in Palm Beach, Florida, featuring a "Trump baby" balloon, the Palm Beach Post reported.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/07/01/nx-1-545265	2025/07/02	privacy, culture of fear
Wisconsin's big abortion case will be decided this week. Here are potential outcomes	Reproductive rights	Twenty states, led by California, sued the Trump administration Tuesday after federal health officials shared sensitive data about Medicaid recipients with the Department of Homeland Security, which oversees immigration enforcement. "The Trump Administration has upended longstanding privacy protections with its decision to legally share sensitive, personal health data with ICE," said California Attorney General Rob Bonta in a statement announcing the lawsuit.	https://www.wisn.com/government-politics/2025/06-12/wisconsin-s-big	2025/07/02
Texas capital murder case attempts to severely punish abortion pill use by treating a fetus as a person	Reproductive rights	The data transfer, which happened last month, was first reported by The Associated Press. Top Health and Human Services officials directed the Centers for Medicaid & Medicare Services (CMS) to share data with DHS from California, Illinois, Washington and Washington, DC, about millions of their Medicaid recipients, according to the AP's report.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/texas-capital-murder-case-attempts-1000	2025/07/02
The Republican spending bill is a disaster for reproductive rights	Reproductive rights	Those jurisdictions allow some low-income immigrants, including some without legal status, who do not qualify for Medicaid to access state-funded health programs. The Wisconsin Supreme Court is expected to issue a decision on a major abortion case Wednesday. It's a challenge brought by Democratic Attorney General Josh Kaul to an 1849 law that some say bans abortion in the state.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/republians-spending-bill-disaster-reprod	2025/07/02

		Now, a new ProPublica data analysis adds empirical weight to the mounting evidence that abortion bans have made the common experience of miscarriage — which occurs in up to 30% of pregnancies — far more dangerous. It is based on hospital discharge data from Texas, the largest state to ban abortion, and captures emergency department visits from 2017 to 2023, the most recent year available. After Texas made performing abortions a felony in August 2022, ProPublica found, the number of blood transfusions during emergency room visits for first-trimester miscarriage shot up by 54%.
A 'striking' trend: After Texas banned abortion, more women newly died to death during miscarriage	Reproductive rights	The number of emergency room visits for early miscarriage also rose, by 25%, compared with the three years before the COVID-19 pandemic — a sign that women who don't receive D&Cs initially may be returning to hospitals in worse condition, more than a dozen experts told ProPublica. The first brain death during pregnancy in which the fetus was delivered after time on life support, more accurately called organ support, occurred in 1981. The process is extraordinarily intensive and invasive, because the loss of brain function impedes many physiological processes. Health teams, sometimes numbering in the hundreds, must stabilize the bodies of "functionally decapitated" pregnant women to buy more time for fetal development. This requires vital organ support, ventilation, nutritional supplements, antibiotics and constant monitoring. Outcomes are highly uncertain.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/striking-trend-bans-banned-abortion-110	2025/07/02
Keeping brain-dead pregnant women on life support raises ethical issues that go beyond abortion politics	Reproductive rights	Over the past 50 years, critics of postmortem pregnancy have argued that it constitutes gender-based violence and violates bodily integrity in ways that organ donation does not. Some have compared it with Nazi pronatalist policies. Others have attributed the practice to systemic sexism and racism in medicine. Postmortem pregnancy can also compound intimate partner violence by giving brain-dead women's murderers decision-making authority when they are the fetus's next of kin.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/keeping-brain-dead-pregnant-women-12	2025/07/02
Judge halts RFK Jr.'s health agency restructuring	RFK JR BS	A federal judge in Rhode Island on Tuesday ordered HHS Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to halt his reorganization of federal health agencies, in response to a lawsuit brought by 19 Democratic-led states. The states argued that Kennedy's changes stopped health agencies from carrying out legally required functions, such as food safety inspections and infectious disease prevention.	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-01/court-halts-rfk-health-agency-structu	2025/07/02
RFK Jr. singled out one study to cut funds for global vaccines, is that study valid?	RFK JR BS	Their attorneys generally say HHS is violating the Constitution's requirements on separations of power and running afoul of administrative procedure laws. The 2017 study was published in the peer-reviewed journal Etiologic Medicine , which is part of The Lancet , a highly regarded medical publication. The researchers looked at just over 1,000 children who received the DTP vaccine in the early 1980s. The issue is not whether the DTP vaccine works. It is universally acknowledged to be highly effective at preventing these three deadly diseases. Instead, the researchers behind the 2017 study were fascinated by a different issue: Did the DTP vaccine cause children to get sick and die from other causes? Vaccine experts interviewed by NPR point to several problems with the study: First: The data is old — really old. Second: Two of the key researchers later came out with a different finding Third: The study methods are not ideal Fourth: Today's vaccines are different Fifth: "If there was a problem, we would probably know it"	https://www.npr.org/sections/goats-and-soda/2025/07/01/g-a-1.747520f	2025/07/02
"Something for everyone": Trump praises Senate's 'big, beautiful bill'	Trump Bullshit	Speaker Mike Johnson (R-La.) will need more than Thune's vote of confidence to convince House moderates and conservatives to pass the Senate version of the budget bill before their self-imposed July 4 deadline. Changes the Senate made are deeply unpopular with both ideological ends of Johnson's caucus, with conservatives decrying how much it would add to the deficit and moderates worried about its deeper cuts to Medicaid. Given his razor-thin majority, Johnson faces a challenge getting the measure over the finish line.	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-01/trump-thune-johnson-big-beautiful-b	2025/07/02
Trump's megabill: What are the next steps and hurdles after Senate passage	Trump Bullshit	Summary	https://www.axios.com/2025-06-30/big-beautiful-bill-how-to-pass-trump	2025/07/02
Senate passes Trump's 'big, beautiful bill' after 11th-hour tactic	Trump Bullshit	The Congressional Budget Office estimates that the bill would add roughly $3.3 trillion to the national debt over the next 10 years. CBO also estimates the changes to Medicaid would result in nearly 12 million fewer people with health insurance over the next decade. "Today, Senate Republicans betrayed the American people and covered the Senate in utter shame," Minority Leader Chuck Schumer (D-N.Y.) told reporters after the vote. "This vote will haunt Republicans for years to come."	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-01/senate-passes-trumps-big-beau	2025/07/02
Lighthouse of Alexandria Rises Again as Giant Blocks Resurface After 2,000 Years	Weird world	After centuries beneath the waves, 22 massive stone blocks from the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria have been recovered from the seafloor, marking a major step in efforts to digitally reconstruct one of the Seven Wonders of the World.	https://greeksreporter.com/2025/07/01/lighthouse-alexandria-giant-block	2025/07/02
US vet uses cod skin to save bald eagle in time for Fourth of July	Weird world	A veterinarian saved the life of a badly injured American bald eagle using a pioneering fish skin graft procedure more commonly used for human wound, releasing the bird back into the wild in a symbolic act ahead of the Fourth of July holiday. He House voted 219-213 overnight Wednesday, after hours of delay, to advance President Trump's "big beautiful bill" for debate before a final vote. GOP leaders had to overcome pushback over changes the Senate made to the legislation.	https://www.thequardian.com/us/news/2025/07/02/cod-skin-bald-eagle	2025/07/02
House nearing final vote on Trump's 'big, beautiful bill'	Brutal Burden Bill	In a possible sign of movement, one key Republican, Ohio Rep. Warren Davidson, announced on X Wednesday evening that he'd support the bill. It isn't perfect, but it's the best we'll get," he wrote, adding that he would support the rule and final passage. Davidson was one of two Republicans who voted against the bill when the House first voted on the measure in May. The nearly 900-page bill, which the House is expected to vote on July 2, includes a rash of lesser known provisions that would directly impact Americans' lives, from increasing the child tax credit to punishing new solar energy facilities. Here are some provisions in the bill that haven't received much attention so far: Benefits for the rich Child tax credit Cheaper gun silencers Moving space shuttle to Houston Mars mission Tax credits for whaling captains 'Trump account' for kids Student loan changes Green energy programs Changing foreign workers	https://www.yahoo.com/news/house-convenes-trumps-big-beautiful-b-13	2025/07/03	billionaire bootlicker bill
Student loans, gun silencers and a space shuttle: See surprises found in Senate tax bill	Brutal Burden Bill	According to Senator Ted Cruz, school vouchers are "the Civil Rights Issue of the 21st century." The Texas Republican argues that vouchers are key to providing educational opportunities for young people. On the contrary, expanding vouchers and eliminating public education will actively harm young people—especially Black, Latino, and indigenous students. President Donald Trump's so-called "Big, Beautiful Bill" currently includes a provision hidden in the tax code that offers an unprecedented 100% tax deduction for donations to third-party organizations that hand out private school vouchers. The push to create a national private school voucher program is part of a long legacy of efforts to return to the separate and unequal educational landscape of the pre-civil rights era. Since the 1960s, white segregationists pushed for private school vouchers to avoid the desegregation mandates of Brown v. Board of Education and maintain a discriminatory and unequal system of education.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/student-loans-gun-silencers-space-1930	2025/07/03	Bloated bigot bill, billionaire bootlicker bill
Trump's 'Big Beautiful Bill' Will Devastate Public Schools	Brutal Burden Bill	The speaker said he "might keep [the vote] open a little while" because "among those 'no' votes I've got a couple of folks that are actually off-site right now, had to attend family affairs or events this evening, and so some of them are on the way back."	https://www.axios.com/news/trumps-big-beautiful-bill-devastate-14340	2025/07/03
Mike Johnson wages war of attrition against GOP rebels on 'big, beautiful bill'	Brutal Burden Bill	"This is not normal," said Harris Epsteinsteiner, associate director of economic analysis at the Yale Budget Lab. "This pace of legislating is not what you would expect to see of a careful, well-thought out set of policies that are designed to grow the economy, help people save and help people invest."	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-03/mike-johnson-big-beautiful-bill-trump	2025/07/03
5 under-the-radar pieces of Trump's 'big, beautiful bill' that may impact your life	Brutal Burden Bill		https://www.axios.com/2025-07-03/big-beautiful-bill-gambling-food-star	2025/07/03
Fact-checking Trump's remarks at 'Alligator Alcatraz' on immigration and Medicaid	Dystopian	Fact check	https://www.cbs.org/news/hour/politics/fact-checking-trumps-remarks-at	2025/07/03
Kilmar Abrego Garcia describes 'severe beatings' and 'psychological torture' in Salvadoran prison	Dystopian	Kilmar Abrego Garcia, whose illegal deportation by the Trump administration captured national attention, is now offering a chilling account of his mistreatment in a Salvadoran prison, claiming he suffered "severe beatings," "sleep deprivation, malnutrition and other forms of torture at the hands of his jailers. The Salvadoran prison where Abrego was initially housed, known as the Anti-Terrorism Confinement Center or by its Spanish-language acronym CECOT, is reputed to be rife with gang violence and human rights abuses. But there are few first-hand accounts of treatment there except El Salvador's president, Nayib Bukele, has vowed that its prisoners will never be released. The symbolism of the leader of the world's most important democracy, who idolizes foreign dictators, enshrining over a detention camp may stir dark fears it echoes. But that's not worrying the White House. It loves the optics and is evoking cartoonish imagery of a draconian outpost in a wilderness patrolled by razor-boothed reptiles and venomous snakes. — But Trump's visit to "Alligator Alcatraz" is the latest in a series of graphic photo ops and buzzy plans the administration has conjured to highlight headline immigration and law and order policies that are a foundation of his MAGA creed. Some come close to glorifying violence and rough justice. At times, it seems like looking tough is even more important than being tough: the posturing may be compensating for a deportation rate that senior White House officials such as Stephen Miller have deemed disappointing.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/kilmar-abrego-garcia-describes-severe-0	2025/07/03
Trump's visit to a migrant camp called 'Alligator Alcatraz' stirs dark echoes	Dystopian	A growing number of local law enforcement officials are alarmed about their jails and prisons holding immigration detainees without warrants, saying it exposes their departments to legal risks. Over the past decade most of ICE's arrests involved people who already were in law enforcement custody, according to a review of 10 years of data from Transactional Records Access Clearinghouse (TRAC). But with ICE arrests soaring to more than 2,000 a day under Trump, local jail and prison officials are increasingly concerned about being liable for detainees' care — particularly when ICE leaves them in local facilities for lengthy periods. The officials note that in the past, lawsuits filed on behalf of ICE detainees wrongly left languishing in local jails have cost local governments enormously — $92.5 million in one New York City case involving 20,000 people who were held in prison for ICE without due process between 1997 and 2012.	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-02/local-officials-ice-detain-immigrants	2025/07/03
Local officials grow wary of helping ICE detain immigrants	Government-ICE	The Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund is demanding the federal government pay $1 million in damages to a U.S. citizen who was arrested and detained while he was recording an immigration raid at a Home Depot in Los Angeles last month.	https://www.axios.com/2025-07-02/local-officials-ice-detain-immigrants	2025/07/03
U.S. citizen seeks $1M after arrest, detention for recording immigration raid at Home Depot	Government-ICE	MALDEF also said that Garcia's arrest and detention were racially motivated and that the government agents may have violated his constitutional protections for free speech, his right to remain silent, his freedom from unreasonable search and seizure and his right to due process. The government's top vaccine official working under Health Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. recently restricted the approval of two COVID-19 vaccines, disregarding recommendations from government scientists, according to federal documents released Wednesday. The new memos from the Food and Drug Administration show how the agency's vaccine chief, Dr. Vasey Prasad, personally intervened to place restrictions on COVID shots from vaccine makers Novavax and Moderna.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-citizen-seeks-1m-arrest-223248110	2025/07/03
FDA vaccine official restricted COVID vaccine approvals against the advice of agency staff	Health- Covid	The memo, published on 11 June, instructed the justice department's civil division to "prioritize and maximally pursue denaturalization proceedings in all cases permitted by law and supported by the evidence." Immigration matters are civil matters, meaning that immigrants — whether they are naturalized citizens or not — do not have the right to an attorney in such cases. Muzaffar Chishti from the Migration Policy Institute, a non-partisan thinktank, explained that much of immigration law was based on discretion by government officials. To revoke a person's citizenship, US officials must demonstrate that they are not of "good moral character" — a subjective and broad term with little defined parameters.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fda-vaccine-official-restricted-covid-2318	2025/07/03
Trump seizes on 'moral character' loophole as way to revoke citizenship	Immigration	The sharp belt in immigration this year threatens to slow down economic growth, particularly in the sectors and cities that relied on newcomers to the U.S. in recent years. Yano estimates in the long run, GDP will be 0.25% lower as a result. That's a relatively modest macroeconomic effect, but there's a wild card. The "big, beautiful bill" that passed the Senate contains about $175 billion for even more immigration enforcement. That could mean an even bigger decline going forward.	https://www.thequardian.com/us/news/2025/07/01/trump-citizenship-denali	2025/07/03
Immigration crackdown ripples through economy	Immigration		https://www.axios.com/2025-07-02/trump-immigration-crackdown-econ	2025/07/03

		A generation of scientific talent is at the brink of being lost to overseas competitors by the Trump administration's dismantling of the National Science Foundation (NSF), with unprecedented political interference at the agency jeopardizing the future of US industries and economic growth, according to a Guardian investigation.
Scientists warn US will lose a generation of talent because of Trump cuts	Information Blackout	The scientists warn that Trump's assault on diversity in science is already eroding the quality of fundamental research funded at the NSF, the premier federal investor in basic science and engineering, which threatens to derail advances in tackling existential threats to food, water and biodiversity in the US.	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jul/03/national-science-fou	2025/07/03
		Kierman, a 24-year-old transgender person from Colorado, feels drained from dealing with legislation that consistently limits the spaces and freedoms of people like him. Since he transitioned in 2016, it's been the same – first bathroom bills, then censorship in the education system – routine attacks on LGBTQ+ rights that Kierman feels have now just become part of living in the US.
'Accelerated censorship': advocates criticize US supreme court ruling on LGBTQ+ books	Information Blackout	"Censorship relevant books are just the beginning in accelerated censorship," Sabrina Bialta, a senior member of PEN America, told the Guardian. "What's to stop schools from backing away from any books that may be offensive? We have already seen other topics like Black history disappear as districts try to avoid anything potentially controversial."	https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/2025/jul/03/supreme-court-lgbt	2025/07/03
		For years, the National Hurricane Center has been improving the accuracy of its forecasts, and one short year ago, the United States was better at predicting storms' tracks than it had ever been. But the Trump administration has been cutting the forecasting staff and budgets. And now these satellite data will be missing too. The U.S. is rapidly losing state-of-the-art hurricane forecasting, just in time for hurricane season's busiest months.
Hurricane Science Was Great While It Lasted	Information Blackout	The data were nice while we had them. After all, no one likes a surprise hurricane. When the sun goes down, convective storms over open ocean often grow stronger, juiced by the changing temperature dynamics. But that's also when types of storm surveillance that rely on what's visible are least able to determine what's going on. Infrared imaging can see in the dark, but the picture is typically low-resolution and grainy, and can obscure key shapes. When the sun comes up, forecasters can suddenly be looking at a fully formed storm eye. Forecasters dread the "sunrise surprise," which is exactly the sort of thing that the microwave imagery from SMMS is most helpful in preventing. It gives a clearer picture, even through clouds, and even in the dark.	https://www.theatlantic.com/science/archive/2025/07/hurricane-science/	2025/07/03
Nuke experts say Iran could become more dangerous after US attack	International-iran	Nearly two weeks after the U.S. and Israel attacked Iran's nuclear facilities, it remains unclear how much of a setback it dealt the country's ambitions to obtain the ultimate weapon. Some nuclear proliferation experts told ABC News they believe the strikes could lead to a "fork-in-the-road" moment that results in Tehran taking a more dangerous and secretive path to obtaining nuclear arms if it chooses to do so.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-israel-strikes-nuclear-experts-2311700	2025/07/03
		President Trump's asylum ban at the U.S.-Mexico border enacted in an emergency immigration proclamation on his first day in office is "unlawful," a federal judge ruled Wednesday. Although U.S. District Judge Randolph Moss postponed his order from taking effect for 14 days to allow for appeal, the processing of asylum claims at the border would resume immediately if the ruling is not overturned.
Trump's asylum ban at U.S.-Mexico border "unlawful," judge rules	Judicial Punishback	Trump administration officials have already said they'll appeal Moss' ruling that found the president exceeded his authority in a Jan. 20 proclamation that denied asylum protections at the border.	https://www.wacoa.com/2025/07/03/trump-us-mexico-border-immigrants/	2025/07/03
		A watchdog group has called on the Defense Department's Inspector General office to probe whether the recent commissioning of four tech executives as part-time Army officers is in keeping with laws and practices against self-dealing.
Tech execs from companies chasing defense contracts, etc. now Army officers. A watchdog is calling for an investigation.	Keyboard Colonels	The Democracy Defenders Fund sent the letter on Tuesday, requesting that investigators determine "whether the assignment of these officials to the Army Reserve is consistent with the Federal conflict of interest laws" and whether their appointments qualify as "trials of position and nonpublic information."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/tech-execs-companies-chasing-defense-	2025/07/03	Chr+Alt+Enlist. Beta testing the battlefield, armed and algorithmic, military industrial crossover, new chain
		American contractors guarding aid distribution sites in Gaza are using live ammunition and stun grenades as hungry Palestinians scramble for food, according to accounts and videos obtained by The Associated Press.
US contractors say their colleagues are firing live ammo as Palestinians seek food in Gaza	Middle east conflict	Two U.S. contractors, speaking to the AP on condition of anonymity because they were revealing their employers' internal operations, said they were coming forward because they were disturbed by what they considered dangerous and irresponsible practices. They said the security staff fired were often unqualified, unvetted, heavily armed and seemed to have an open license to do whatever they wished.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/us-contractors-colleagues-firing-live-1048	2025/07/03
84 Palestinians killed in Gaza, including 45 people, waiting for aid, authorities say	Middle east conflict	Airstrikes and shootings killed 94 Palestinians in Gaza overnight, including 45 who were attempting to get much-needed humanitarian aid, hospitals and the Health Ministry said Thursday.	https://apnews.com/article/israel-palestinians-hamas-war-news-07-03-2	2025/07/03
		President Donald Trump has nominated a 30-year-old with little government experience — as well as a connection to a well-known Holocaust denier — to lead the independent agency that protects whistleblowers.
Trump taps 30-year-old with little government experience and links to Holocaust denier to lead federal agency	Political Cesspool	Paul Ingrassia, nominated by Trump in May to lead the Office of Special Counsel, has a history of racist language and promoting conspiracy theories, including denying the Holocaust, according to a new report from	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/donald-trump-appoints-paul-ingrassia-to-lead-office-of-special-counsel/	2025/07/03
		The Wisconsin Supreme Court's liberal majority struck down the state's 176-year-old abortion ban on Wednesday, ruling 4-3 that it was superseded by newer state laws regulating the procedure, a long-sought criminalize abortions only after a fetus can survive outside womb.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wisconsin-supreme-court-liberal-majority-	2025/07/03
Wisconsin Supreme Court's liberal majority strikes down 176-year-old abortion ban	Reproductive rights	In a paper published Wednesday in the journal Science Advances, Dmitry Kobak of the University of Tübingen and his colleagues report that they found a way to track how often researchers are using artificial intelligence chatbots to write the abstracts of their papers. The A.I. bots, they say, tend to use certain words — like "delves," "crucial," "potential," "significant" and "important" — far more often than human authors do.
		In 2024, there were a total of 454 words used excessively by chatbots, the researchers report. Based on the frequency of the A.I.-favored words, Dr. Kobak and his team calculate that at least 13.5 percent of all biomedical abstracts appeared to have been written with the help of chatbots. And as many as 40 percent of abstracts by authors from some countries writing in a few less selective journals were A.I.-generated.	https://www.nytimes.com/2025/07/02/health/ai-chatbot-research-papers/	2025/07/03
464 Hints That a Chatbot Wrote Part of a Biomedical Researcher's Paper	Technology, ai	Seven people were missing Wednesday following an explosion at a fireworks warehouse in rural Northern California that caused a massive fire that spread to farm fields and forced evacuations in the surrounding community, authorities said.
Explosion at California fireworks warehouse sets off massive blaze, with 7 missing, officials say	Tragic	"The fire will take time to cool, and once it does, explosive experts must safely enter the site to assess and secure the area," the Yolo County Sheriff's Office said in a statement late Tuesday.	https://www.pbs.org/newshour/nation/explosion-at-california-fireworks-v	2025/07/03
		Rescuers were searching Thursday for 32 people missing after a ferry sank the previous night near Indonesia's resort island of Bali. Four bodies have been recovered, and weather and sea conditions were improving during the morning, aiding the search for survivors.
Rescuers search for survivors after ferry sinking near Bali, Indonesia	Tragic	So far, 29 people have been rescued, according to the National Search and Rescue Agency.	https://www.rpr.org/2025/07/03/box-41-5455541-bali-indonesia-ferry-sin	2025/07/03
		A nine-year-old girl died in a hot car in Texas on Monday after her mother left her there while she went to work, local officials said.
Three young children die in hot cars in four days after being left alone	Tragic	Her death followed the passing of a three-month-old infant boy in Mission in the same state on Friday and the death of a four-year-old in Brownsville on Saturday, both likewise trapped in overheated vehicles.	https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crime/hot-car-d	2025/07/03
		Trump Tower in Chicago has agreed to pay $4.8 million for killing thousands of fish after years of pulling water from the river to cool its building.
Chicago's Trump Tower to pay $4m for killing countless fish as it cooled water from river for years to cool its building	Trump Bulthill	A federal judge previously ruled the Trump International Hotel and Tower in downtown Chicago was a public nuisance and an environmental hazard. It was pulling in 20 million gallons of water a day from the Chicago River, the plaintiffs said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/chicago-trump-tower-pay-5m-160035652	2025/07/03
		In the months leading up to the 2024 election, Donald Trump and his business empire faced a financial reckoning that threatened to hit the twice-impeached former president hard as he staked down several criminal indictments.
		A devastating judgment in a sprawling civil fraud case pierced the heart of a decades-old narrative Trump has used to both boost his national profile and attract investments into his up-and-down real estate and branding enterprise. Trump still owes more than half a billion dollars, with growing interest, in the wake of that ruling.
		But the president and his two eldest sons refocused the family business to attract lucrative partnerships once again — this time by betting big on cryptocurrency and the Trump branding itself while hoovering up investors who saw in his election their own financial victory, all the while personally enriching Trump himself.	https://www.independent.co.uk/news/world/americas/us-politics/trump-r	2025/07/03	corruption
Trump's big empire was nearly bankrupt. Then he won the nomination and investors banked on his victory	Trump Bulthill	Jennifer and Scott of Tampa were visiting Crater of Diamonds State Park when they found a huge white diamond, later revealed to weigh 1.5 whopping 3.36 carats.	https://www.the-independent.com/life/crater-of-diamonds-state-pa	2025/07/03
Couple visiting state park finds 3-carat diamond worth thousands	Weird world	Construction has begun on a floating swimming pool that will be located in New York City's East River.
		Swimmers will immerse themselves in water taken directly from the East River and cleaned via a patented non-chemical filtration system. This water will then be pumped back into the surrounding river, thereby contributing to its health. It's claimed that the full-scale version of the pool will process around 1,000,000 gallons of water a day.
		The pool will be accessed via a walkway connected to the shore, with operators able to reconfigure it for lap swimming, lounging, watersports, swim education classes, and children's activities", according to a statement.	https://www.independent.co.uk/travel/news-and-advice/new-york-city-fl	2025/07/03
		A slew of tax policies
4 ways Trump's 'Big Beautiful Bill' could impact your wallet	Brutal Burden Bill	Student loan forgiveness repealed
		Trump accounts
		Work requirements for Medicaid and SNAP	https://finance.yahoo.com/news/4-ways-trumps-big-beautiful-16322827	2025/07/04
The 2 House Republicans who voted no on Trump's sweeping domestic policy bill	Brutal Burden Bill	Rep. Thomas Massie of Kentucky and Rep. Brian Fitzpatrick of Pennsylvania voted against the legislation alongside the entire House Democratic Caucus.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/2-house-republicans-voted-no-19515620	2025/07/04
Who's in Trump's big bill that passed Congress and will soon become law	Brutal Burden Bill	Summary	https://www.yahoo.com/news/whats-trumps-big-bill-passed-184748790	2025/07/04
		Sen. Rand Paul (R-Ky.)
		"There will be a day that conservatives will rue the fact that some of them actually voted for this."
		Sen. Thom Tillis (R-N.C.)
		"What do I tell 683,000 people in two years or three years when President Trump breaks his promise by pushing them off of Medicaid because the funding's not there anymore? The guys in the White House advising the president are not telling him that the effect of this bill is to break a promise."
		Sen. Susan Collins (R-Maine)
		"My vote against this bill stems primarily from the harmful impact it will have on Medicaid, affecting low-income families and rural health care providers like our hospitals and nursing homes."
		Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.)
		"I know a lot of us are hearing from people back home about Medicaid. But they'll get over it."
		Sen. Josh Hawley (R-Mo.)
		"This has been an unhappy episode here in Congress, this effort to cut Medicaid. And I think, frankly, my party needs to do some soul-searching. If you want to be a working-class party, you've got to deliver for working-class people."
		Sen. Lisa Murkowski (R-Alaska)
		"Do I like this bill? No."
		Ron Johnson (R-Wisc.)
		"This is grotesque what we're doing."
Trump's Tax and Spend Bill is a Fiasco. Just Ask Republicans Who Voted for It	Brutal Burden Bill	"Mortgaging our children's future is wrong and immoral. We need to get off this unsustainable path and the 'big beautiful bill' doesn't even begin to take us off this path."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-tax-spend-bill-fiasco-203556205.html	2025/07/04

		Repaying student debt is expected to shift as the bill guts loan forgiveness programs that have been in place for years and alters payment requirements that previously benefited disadvantage lower-income families. There are now just two repayment plans, including a standard repayment plan that allows borrowers to repay over 10 to 25 years based on their loan amounts regardless of income. The other is a "Repayment Assistance Plan" based on borrowers pay monthly payments between 1% and 10% of their discretionary income.
What will student loans look like after Trump's spending bill is signed?	Brutal Burden Bill	As Both Magazine Editor-in-Chief Daniel Nichanian noted after the vote: "The Senate's small-state ultra-bias is never maddening than when one senator uses it to get benefits for her 740,000 constituents while openly acknowledging the bill she's supporting will harm the nation's 339 million other residents."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/student-loans-look-trumps-spending-915	2025/07/04
Opinion Lisa Murkowski's megabill vote was everything people hate about politicians	Brutal Burden Bill	Florida lawmakers worried about "humanitarian concerns" were denied entry into the new detention center dubbed "Alligator Alcatraz." Thursday, just hours after the arrival of its first group of detainees.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/opinion-lisa-murkowski-megabill-vote-122	2025/07/04
Lawmakers who tried to visit 'Alligator Alcatraz' amid humanitarian concerns were denied entry	Concentration Camps	The lawmakers were stopped by law enforcement officers from multiple Florida agencies and later, a general counsel from the Florida Division of Emergency Management cited a "safety concern" for the denial without offering specific details. Eskamani said: "If it's unsafe for us, how is it safe for the detainees?" Eskamani said she asked the attorney.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/group-lawmakers-attempt-visit-alligator-1	2025/07/04
With: With 'Alligator Alcatraz,' Trump and DeSantis define their immigration policy as a racist face	Concentration Camps	The group's request to see the outer perimeter of the tent facility was also denied, Eskamani said. One could hardly put matters better than Nicole Lafond of Talking Points Memo, who described how DeSantis and Trump came together over their "shared passion: finding creative new ways to dehumanize immigrants, carried out with a frothy fist."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/hillzik-alligator-alcatraz-trump-desantis-1	2025/07/04
Trump Made Bizarre Request At Hospital After Assassination Attempt, Book	Dementia Don	Donald Trump asked the doctor treating him for his gunshot wound last July if he could have a CT scan inside because it's "like an 10 inch," according to a new book.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-made-bizarre-request-hospital-150	2025/07/04
Full 'Idocracy,' Trump's Bankers Plan For White House, Event Gets Panned By Critics	Dementia Don	President Donald Trump on Thursday announced a very unusual plan for the nation's 250th anniversary next year: a mixed-marital arts fight on the grounds of the White House with up to 25,000 spectators in attendance. "We're gonna have a UFC fight, think of this, on the grounds of the White House," he said. "We have a lot of land there, we're gonna build a little — we're not, Dana's gonna do it, Dana's great, one of a kind."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/full-idocracy-trumps-bankers-plan-02574	2025/07/04
What Trump Told Me About His Complete Domination of Congress	Dementia Don	But this time, with the Republican Party almost entirely remade at Trump's bidding, hardly any controlling was necessary. Yes, there were a pair of overnight vote-a-ramas and last-ditch negotiating standoffs, but it all felt awfully fast accept — as those on Capitol Hill July realized.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-told-me-about-his-complete-domination-congress	2025/07/04
Trump Apparently Didn't Know His Own Bill's Extreme Medicaid	Dementia Don	Trump to form, Trump did it while exhibiting only the lightest interest in the policy details. He was very invested in delivering on his campaign tax promises and boosting immigration enforcement, but rarely much beyond that.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/trump-apparently-didnt-know-his-own-bills-extreme-medicaid-1320	2025/07/04
President Trump renews calls to deport 'bad' U.S. citizens	Dementia Don	President Trump has no idea what's actually in his sweeping, term-defining budget bill. NOTUS reported on Wednesday that House Republicans had to tell the president that his "big, beautiful bill" was indeed slandering Medicaid.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/president-trump-renews-calls-deport-142	2025/07/04
The deadly 'big beautiful' budget bill will turn America into a morgue	Dystopian	During a recent visit to his so-called "Alligator Alcatraz," an ICE migrant detention center opening in the Florida Everglades, President Donald Trump again suggested the idea that the United States should deport some U.S. citizens who have committed certain crimes. While answering questions from the press at the detention center on Tuesday, Trump suggested that there are immigrants who are now citizens, as well as those born in the United States, who should be deported. He also managed to take a swipe at former President Joe Biden in the process.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/deadly-big-beautiful-budget-bill-1728370	2025/07/04
Fears of COVID-Style Healthcare Chaos as Congress Backs Trump's Megabill	Dystopian	"As people become uninsured, health providers will become the emergency room because people will no longer have a primary care. Our ERs will be brimming over with patients that haven't had their routine health care, and that's going to increase wait times for everyone."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/fears-covid-style-healthcare-chaos-1834	2025/07/04
Wildfire explodes to more than 52,000 acres in 1 day	Environment-Wildfires	The Madsie Fire ignited Wednesday afternoon in San Luis Obispo County, according to Cal Fire. It has since grown to more than 52,500 acres and is 5% contained as of Thursday afternoon, fire officials said.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/wildfire-explodes-more-52-000-1931396	2025/07/04
The bizarre reason Trump and his team say they may try to prosecute CNN	Freedom of speech	The DHS secretary went on to describe the reporting that the administration didn't like as "illegal."	https://www.yahoo.com/news/madpooe-blogs-bizarre-reason-trump-1303	2025/07/04
How Trump's bill will supercharge mass deportations, by funneling $170bn to ICE	Government-ICE	The measure would authorize a level of immigration enforcement spending that analysts and advocates say is without precedent. Trump's so-called "big, beautiful bill" dedicates roughly $170bn for immigration and border-related operations — a staggering sum that would make US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) the most heavily funded law enforcement agency in the federal government, and that critics warn will unleash more raids, disrupt the economy and severely restrict access to humanitarian protections like asylum.	https://www.yahoo.com/news/how-trumps-bill-will-supercharge-immigration-1	2025/07/04
